By 6 Geo. 1. c. 21. No high ſheriff, under ſheriff, their deputies or agents, ſhall make out any warrant, before they have in their cuſtody the writs upon which ſuch warrants ought to iſſue, on forfeiture of 10*l.* ſ. 53.

Every warrant to be made out upon any writ out of the king's bench, common pleas, or exchequer, before judgment, to arreſt any perſon, ſhall have the ſame day and year ſet down thereon as ſhall be ſet down on the writ itſelf, under forfeiture of 10*l.* to be paid by the perſon who ſhall fill up or deliver out ſuch warrant; both penalties to be recovered and divided as the other penalties in 9 Will. 3. c. 25. See STAMPS. ſ. 54.

By 20 Geo. 2. c. 37. All ſheriffs ſhall, at the expiration of their office, turn over to the ſucceeding ſheriff, by indenture and ſchedule, all ſuch writs and proceſs as remain in their hands unexecuted, who ſhall execute and return the ſame; and in caſe any ſheriff neglect to turn over ſuch proceſs, he ſhall be liable to make ſatisfaction by damages and coſts to the party aggrieved. ſ. 1.

No ſheriff ſhall be called upon to make a return of any writ or proceſs, unleſs he be required ſo to do within ſix months after the expiration of his office. ſ. 2.

By 24 Geo. 2. c. 48. The officers and perſons who by 14 Edw. 3. c. 7. or any other law, ought to aſſemble at the exchequer yearly, on the morrow of All Souls, for nominating ſheriffs, ſhall not aſſemble on that day, but ſhall aſſemble yearly on the morrow of St. Martin at the exchequer. ſ. 12.

By 7 Geo. 3. c. 29. the 29 Eliz. c. 4. ſhall not extend to allow any ſheriff, under ſheriff, or other perſon employed in the execution of proceſs, any poundage, for taking any perſon in execution upon any proceſs at the ſuit of any ſheriff, or other officer of the crown, upon any bail bond entered into for the appearance of any perſon proſecuted, either for duties, or for any penalty inflicted by any act made or to be made for preventing the clandeſtine running or receiving any cuſtomable or prohibited goods; or in any caſe whatſoever where the officer would not be entitled to poundage, if the proceedings were carried on directly in the name of the crown.

By 8 Eliz. c. 13. The maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, of Trinity-houſe at Deptford-ſtrond may at their coſts ſet up beacons and marks for the ſea, in ſuch places near the coaſts or forelands as to them ſhall ſeem meet. ſ. 2.

No ſteeple, trees, or other things, ſtanding as ſea marks, whereof to the owner or occupier of the place, where the ſame doth ſtand, before the firſt of March next, notice ſhall be given by the queen's letters under her ſignet, ſhall at any time hereafter be taken or cut down; upon pain that every perſon, by whoſe conſent ſuch offence ſhall be committed, ſhall forfeit 100*l.* one moiety to the queen and the other moiety to the ſaid Trinity-houſe; and if the perſons offending be not of the value, they ſhall be deemed convict of outlawry. ſ. 4.

By 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 11. Where any goods ſhall be laden on board any Engliſh ſhip of the burden of 200 tons or upwards, and mounted with 16 guns or more, if the commander yield up the goods to any Turkiſh ſhips, or to any pirates or ſea rovers, without fighting, he ſhall, upon proof thereof, made in the court of admiralty, be incapable of taking charge of any Engliſh ſhip as commander; and if he thereafter take upon him to command any Engliſh ſhip, he ſhall ſuffer impriſonment by warrant from the ſaid court during ſix months for every offence; and in caſe the perſons taking the ſaid goods ſhall releaſe the ſhip, or pay unto the maſter any money or goods for freight or other reward, the ſaid goods or money, or the value thereof, as alſo the maſter's part of ſuch ſhip ſo releaſed, ſhall be liable to repair the perſons whoſe goods were taken, by action in the court of admiralty; and in caſe the commander's part, together with ſuch money and goods, ſhall not be ſufficient to repair all the damages ſuſtained, the reparations recovered on the maſter's part ſhall be divided pro rata amongſt the perſons proſecuting and proving their damages, and the perſons damaged ſhall have their action againſt the maſter for the remainder. ſ. 2.

No maſter of any ſuch Engliſh ſhip, being at ſea, and having diſcovered any ſhip to be a Turkiſh ſhip, pirate, or ſea rover, ſhall depart out of his ſhip. ſ. 3.

If the maſter of any Engliſh ſhip, though not of the burden of 200 tuns or mounted with 16 guns, yield his ſhip to any Turkiſh ſhip, pirate, or ſea rover, (not having at leaſt his double number of guns), without fighting, ſuch maſter ſhall be liable to all the penalties in this act. ſ. 4.

Upon proceſs out of the court of admiralty, it ſhall be lawful for all commanders of his majeſty's ſhips, or the commanders of any other Engliſh ſhips, to ſeize ſuch ſhips or maſters ſo offending, according to the proceſs, and the ſame to ſend in cuſtody into any ports of his majeſty's dominions, minions, to be proceeded againſt according to this act. ſ. 5.

Provided that none be hereby encouraged to violate the rights of the ports of any foreign prince or ſtate in amity. ſ. 6.

If the mariners or inferior officers of any Engliſh ſhip, laden with goods, decline or refuſe to fight and defend the ſhip, when they be thereunto commanded by the maſter, or utter any words to diſcourage the other marines from defending the ſhip, every mariner found guilty of declining or refuſing as aforeſaid, ſhall loſe all his wages due to him, together with ſuch goods as he hath in his ſhip, and ſuffer impriſonment not exceeding ſix months, and during ſuch time be kept to hard labour for his maintenance. ſ. 7.

Provided that if any ſhip be yielded contrary to the will of the commander, by the diſobedience of the mariners, teſtified by their having laid violent hands on him, the maſter ſhall not be liable to the ſentence of incapacity, nor to any action for the loſſes ſuſtained by the merchants, unleſs he have received back from the takers his ſhip, or ſome reward. ſ. 8.

Every mariner who ſhall have laid violent hands on his commander, to hinder him from fighting in defence of his ſhip and goods, ſhall ſuffer death as a felon. ſ. 9.

When any Engliſh ſhip ſhall have been defended by fight and brought to her port, in which fight any of the officers or ſeamen be wounded, it ſhall be lawful for the judge of admiralty, or his ſurrogate, or the judge of the vice-admiralty within which the ſhip ſhall arrive, upon petition of the maſter or ſeamen, to call unto him ſuch as he ſhall be informed to be adventurers or owners of the ſhip and goods, and by advice with them to raiſe upon the owners and adventurers by proceſs of the court, ſuch ſums of money as himſelf with the major part of the adventurers or owners preſent ſhall judge reaſonable, not exceeding two per cent. of the ſhip and goods, according to the firſt coſt of the goods by the invoice (which the owner or his factor is to produce) or by the oath of the owner or his correſpondent; which money ſhall be paid to the regiſter of the court, who ſhall receive 3 d. in each pound, thence to be diſtributed amongſt the captain, maſter, officers, and ſeamen, of the ſaid ſhip, or widows and children of the ſlain, according to the direction of the judge, with the approbation of three or more of the owners or adventurers, who ſhall proportion the ſame unto the ſhip's company, having ſpecial regard unto the widows and children of ſuch as ſhall have been ſlain, and to ſuch as ſhall have been wounded or maimed. ſ. 10.

In caſe the company belonging unto any Engliſh merchant ſhip ſhall take any ſhip which ſhall firſt have aſſaulted them, the officers and mariners ſhall, after condemnation of ſuch ſhip and goods, have ſuch part thereof as is practiſed in private men of war. ſ. 11.

If any captain, maſter, mariner, or other officer, belonging to any ſhip, ſhall wilfully caſt away, burn, or deſtroy the ſhip, or procure the ſame to be done, he ſhall ſuffer death as a felon. ſ. 12. See general title FELONS, &c.

By 4 & 5 Ann. c. 20. From the placing a light uſeful for ſhippen in Ediſtone light-houſe, there ſhall be paid to the maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, of Trinity-houſe of Deptford-ſtrond, by the maſters and owners of all Engliſh ſhips and barks which ſhall paſs by the ſaid light-houſe (except coaſters), 1*d. per* tun outward-bound, and 1*d. per* tun inward-bound, viz. of the merchant one moiety, and of the owner the other moiety; and of all ſuch aliens ſhips as paſs by the ſaid light-houſe, 2 d. for every tun of the burden; and every coaſter paſſing by the ſaid light-houſe ſhall pay 2 s. for each time; the ſaid duties to be collected by ſuch perſons as the ſaid maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants ſhall appoint, in ſuch port, whence ſuch ſhip ſhall ſet forth, or arrive, before they load or unload; the ſaid duties to be recovered by action of debt in any court at Weſtminſter.

By Ann. c. 37. The judge of admiralty, or other perſon thereto authoriſed, ſhall, within five days after requeſt, finiſh the uſual preparatory examination of the perſons commonly examined, in order to prove lawful prize of any ſhip taken in America, and the monition uſual in ſuch caſes ſhall be iſſued and executed within three days after requeſt; and in caſe no claim ſhall be made and atteſted upon oath, giving 20 days notice, after the execution of ſuch monition, or if there be ſuch claim, and the claimant ſhall not within five days give ſecurity, (to be approved by ſuch court of admiralty,) to pay double coſts to the captors, in caſe the ſame ſhall be adjudged lawful prize, the judge of ſuch court of admiralty ſhall, upon producing the ſaid examination, or copies thereof, and upon producing upon oath all papers and writings which ſhall have been taken with ſuch capture (or upon oath made that no ſuch papers were found) immediately proceed to ſentence, either to diſcharge ſuch capture, or to condemn the ſame as lawful prize; and in caſe ſuch claim ſhall be duly entered, and ſecurity given, and there ſhall appear no occaſion to examine any witneſſes, other than what ſhall be near ſuch court of admiralty, ſuch judge ſhall forthwith cauſe ſuch witneſſes to be examined, and (within ten days after ſuch claim made, and ſecurity given) proceed to ſentence: but in caſe upon making ſuch claim, and the allegation and oath thereupon, or the producing ſuch writings as ſhall have been found taken with ſuch capture, or upon the ſaid preparatory examinations, it ſhall appear doubtful to the judge, whether ſuch capture be lawful prize or not, and it ſhall appear neceſſary to have an examination of witneſſes remote from ſuch court of admiralty, and ſuch examination ſhall be deſired, the judge ſhall cauſe ſuch capture to be apprized by perſons named on the part of the captor, and ſworn, and after ſuch appraiſement, and within 14 days after the making of ſuch claim, proceed to take ſecurity from the claimants to pay the captors the value thereof according to ſuch appraiſement, in caſe the ſame be adjudged lawful prize, and after ſuch ſecurity given, the judge ſhall make an interlocutory order for delivering the ſame to ſuch claimants or their agents. ſ. 4.

If any claimant refuſe to give ſuch ſecurity, the judge ſhall cauſe the captors to give ſecurity, to be approved of by the claimant, to pay the value according to the appraiſement, in caſe ſuch capture ſhall be adjudged not to be lawful prize; and the judge ſhall thereupon proceed to make an interlocutory order for the delivering of the ſame to the captors or their agents. ſ. 5.

All captures brought into any of her majeſty's plantations in America ſhall, without breaking bulk, be under the joint cuſtody of the naval officer, and of the captors, until either the ſame ſhall, by final ſentence, have been cleared or condemned, or ſuch interlocutory orders as aforeſaid ſhall have been made for the delivering of the ſame; and upon the condemnation thereof, ſhall, in caſe the ſame were taken by any privateer, be delivered unto the captors, and in caſe the ſame were taken by any of her majeſty's ſhips of war, unto ſuch perſons as her majeſty ſhall direct; and if any judge or other officer delay any proceedings relating to the condemning or diſcharging of any ſuch capture, every ſuch judge and officer ſhall forfeit 500 l. one moiety thereof to her majeſty, and the other moiety, with coſts, to ſuch perſon as ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame in any any of the courts in her majeſty's plantations, or in Great Britain. ſ. 6.

There ſhall not be paid to the judges and officers of ſuch court of admiralty for the condemning of ſuch capture above 10*l.* in caſe ſuch prize be under the burden of 100 tuns, nor above 15*l.* in caſe the ſame be of that or greater burden. ſ. 7.

Any captors or claimants may appeal from the court of admiralty to her majeſty in her privy council, ſo as the ſame be made within 14 days after ſentence, and ſecurity be given by the appellant, that he will proſecute ſuch appeal, and anſwer the condemnation, as alſo pay treble coſts as ſhall be awarded by her majeſty in caſe the ſentence of ſuch court of admiralty be affirmed, and ſo as execution be not ſuſpended by ſuch appeal. ſ. 8.

Every maſter of a trading or privateer ſhip ſhall, before he ſhall receive any perſon to ſerve on board ſuch ſhip, endeavour (by all the ways that he conveniently can) to diſcover whether ſuch perſon hath deſerted from any of her majeſty's ſhips of war; and in caſe any ſuch maſter ſhall receive any perſon on board ſuch ſhip without ſuch endeavour, or which he ſhall know hath deſerted from any of her majeſty's ſhips of war, ſuch maſter ſhall forfeit to the queen, 20*l.* for every man, to be recovered with coſts in any court in her majeſty's dominions. ſ. 10.

Every maſter of a merchant ſhip, and commander of a privateer, ſhall, before he ſet ſail from any port, deliver to the chief officer of the cuſtoms, a liſt of all the men belonging to ſuch ſhip, containing their names, ages and deſcriptions, upon pain that he ſhall forfeit 10*l.* to her majeſty for every man he ſhall receive whoſe name ſhall not be inſerted in ſuch liſt, to be recovered with coſts in any courts. ſ. 11.

Such officer of the cuſtoms ſhall return to ſuch maſter an atteſted copy of ſuch liſt, and upon the death or alteration of any ſeaman the liſt ſhall be altered and delivered in to the naval officer or chief officer of the cuſtoms in any port where ſuch ſhip ſhall arrive; all which liſts ſhall be produced to any officers of her majeſty's ſhips of war demanding the ſame: and if any man belonging to her majeſty's ſhips ſhall be found on board any merchant ſhip or privateer, whoſe name ſhall not be contained in ſuch liſt, the maſter of ſuch veſſel ſhall forfeit to her majeſty 20*l.* for every ſuch man. ſ. 12.

The maſter of every trading ſhip, and every packet-boat which ſhall be outward-bound for any port in America, ſhall be obliged (at the deſire of any of her majeſty's officers thereunto authoriſed, and at the charges of her majeſty) to receive and carry to the port whereto ſuch ſhip ſhall be bound, and deliver to ſuch perſon to whom they ſhall be aſſigned, any number of mariners or other perſons entered into her majeſty's ſea ſervice and pay (over and above the complement of ſeamen which ſuch ſhip uſually carries, not exceeding the fifth part of ſuch complement) upon pain of forfeiting 20*l.* for every ſuch ſeaman that he ſhall refuſe to carry. ſ. 13.

Whereas laws are in force within ſeveral of her majeſty's plantations in America for the preventing the carrying off any ſlave without the conſent of the owner, or the carrying off any other perſon until ſuch perſon ſhall have taken out his ticket from the ſecretary's office within ſuch plantation; all commanders of private ſhips of war, or merchant ſhips having letters of marque, ſhall be ſubject to ſuch laws. ſ. 18.

By 8 Ann. c. 17. The duties in the act 4 & 5 Ann. c. 20. directed to be paid by any ſhip paſſing by Edyſtone light-houſe, ſhall be paid for every ſuch ſhip, as well thoſe belonging to her majeſty's ſubjects as ſtrangers, which ſhall paſs by the ſaid light-houſe from or to any port, and ſhall be received of the maſter of ſuch ſhip in any part of Great Britain or Ireland and may be recovered in any of her majeſty's courts of law. ſ. 1.

No cuſtomer, collector, or other officer of the cuſtoms, ſhall make out any cocket or other diſcharge, or take any report outwards, for any ſhip, until the duties granted by the ſaid act, and payable by the maſter of ſuch ſhip, be paid; and that ſuch maſter produce a light bill, teſtifying the receipt thereof. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for every perſon authoriſed by the Trinity-houſe to go on board any foreign ſhip to receive the duties, and for non-payment to diſtrain any tackle belonging to ſuch ſhip; and in caſe of any delay in payment for three days after diſtreſs, it ſhall be lawful for the receivers of the ſaid duties to cauſe the ſame to be appraiſed by two perſons, and to ſell the ſaid diſtreſs. ſ. 3.

By 3 Geo. 1. c. 13. If any perſon ſhall take upon him to conduct or pilot any ſhip by or from Dover, Deal, or the iſle of Thanet, to any place on the river Thames or Medway, before he has been firſt examined by the maſter and wardens of the ſociety or fellowſhip of pilots of the Trinity-houſe of Dover, Deal, and the iſle of Thanet, touching his ability, and approved and admitted into the ſaid ſociety at a court of loadmanage by the lord warden of the cinque ports, or his deputy, and the maſter and wardens; ſuch perſon for the firſt offence ſhall forfeit 10*l.* for the ſecond 20*l.* and for every other offence 40*l.*, to be recovered with coſts by any perſon in the court of admiralty for the cinque ports, in caſe ſuch offender live and be found within the juriſdiction of the ſaid court, or elſe by action in any the courts at Weſtminſter; one moiety of the forfeiture to go to the informer, the other to the maſter and wardens of the ſaid ſociety, to be diſtributed amongſt ſuch ſuperannuated pilots, and the widows of pilots, of the ſaid ſociety, as the maſter and wardens ſhall appoint. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not prevent the maſter or mate of any ſhip, or part-owner, reſiding at Dover, Deal, or the iſle of Thanet, from piloting his own ſhip; nor ſubject any perſon to the penalties, who ſhall be hired by any maſter to pilot his veſſel; provided none of the ſociety, within one hour after ſuch ſhip ſhall arrive at any of the ſaid places, be ready to pilot the ſame. ſ. 2.

Maſters of merchant ſhips may make choice of ſuch pilot of the ſociety as they ſhall think fit; and no perſon ſhall continue in the ſociety who ſhall not pilot a ſhip at leaſt twice in one year (unleſs prevented by ſickneſs) to and from the places above mentioned. ſ. 3.

For conducting any ſhip from Dover, Deal, or the iſle of Thanet, to any places on the river Thames and Medway, the following and no greater prices ſhall be taken, viz. For every ſhip drawing ſeven foot water, 3*l.* 10*s.*; eight foot, 4*l.*; nine foot, 4*l.* 10*s.*; ten foot, 5*l.*; eleven foot, 5*l.* 10*s.*; twelve foot, 6*l.*; thirteen foot, 6*l.* 10*s.*; fourteen foot, 7*l.*; fifteen foot, 7*l.* 10*s.*; ſixteen foot, 8*l.* ſeventeen foot, 8*l.* 10*s*; and no allowance to be made for odd inches. ſ. 4.

If any pilot negligently loſe the ſhip under his care, and be thereof convicted, he ſhall for ever after be incapacitated for acting as a pilot; and the number of ſuch pilots ſhall not be leſs than 120, whoſe names, ages, and places of abode, ſhall every 25th of March be affixed in ſome public place at the cuſtom-houſes at London and Dover; and for not returning ſuch liſt, the maſter and wardens of the ſociety ſhall forfeit 10*l.* to be recovered in the cinque ports by any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 5.

The

The lord warden of the cinque ports ſhall nominate, under his hand and ſeal, three or more perſons in each of the cinque ports, two ancient towns and their members, to adjuſt any difference relative to ſalvage, between the maſter of any ſhip that has in bad weather been forced from her anchor and cable, and the perſons bringing them aſhore; and if any veſſel be forced from her cables and anchors by extremity of weather, and leave the ſame in any roads within the juriſdiction of the cinque ports, and the ſalvage cannot be adjuſted between the parties concerned, the ſame ſhall be determined in 12 hours by any one or more of the perſons appointed as aforeſaid. ſ. 6.

This act ſhall not hinder any perſon from aſſiſting a ſhip in diſtreſs. ſ. 7.

The maſter and ſuch two wardens of the ſociety as ſhall be appointed to examine any perſon on his being admitted a pilot, ſhall take the following oath, to be given by the regiſter of the court of loadmanage. ſ. 8.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will impartially examine and inquire into the capacity and ſkill of ——— in the art of pilotage over the Flats, and round the Long-ſand head, and the coaſts of Flanders and Holland, and will make true and ſpeedy return thereof to the lord warden of the cinque ports for the time being, or his deputy; without favour, affection, fee, or reward.

So help me God.

This act ſhall not extend to the taking away any liberties veſted in the corporation of the Trinity-houſe of Deptford-ſtrond. ſ. 9.

This act ſhall continue to 25 March, 1792, &c. by 18 Geo. 3. c. 45. ſ. 7.

By 7 Geo. 1. c. 21. ſ. 14. continued by 18 Geo. 3. c. 45. ſ. 7. until 25 March 1792, &c. The lord warden of the cinque ports, or his deputy, with the aſſent of the commiſſioners of loadmanage, and of the maſters and wardens of the ſociety of pilots of the Trinity-houſe of the cinque ports at a court of loadmanage, may, during the continuance of 3 Geo. 1. c. 13. make rules and orders for the better government and regulation of the pilots reſiding at Dover, Deal, and the iſle of Thanet, and may order a ſufficient number of them, not leſs than 18, to ply conſtantly at ſea, to be ready to conduct ſhips up the rivers of Thames and Medway; and the lord warden, &c. at a court of loadmanage, may ſuſpend or deprive any of the ſaid pilots for breaking the ſaid rules or orders; and if any pilot, during ſuch ſuſpenſion or deprivation, take upon himſelf to conduct any ſhip, by or from Dover, Deal, or the iſle of Thanet, to any place upon the rivers of Thames or Medway, he ſhall be liable to all penalties provided by the ſaid act, againſt ſuch perſons as ſhall conduct ſhips from and to the places aforeſaid, without being firſt examined and approved of by the maſter and wardens of the ſaid ſociety.

By 8 Geo. 1. c. 17. It ſhall be lawful for perſons authoriſed by the majority of the Britiſh merchants and factors reſiding in Portugal, being aſſembled with the conſul general, or his deputy, in any of the ports in Portugal, to recover from all commanders of Britiſh ſhips trading from Great Britain or Ireland, or any other his majeſty's dominions, to any of the dominions of the king of Portugal, the following ſums, viz. any ſum not exceeding 200 reis per tun on all tunnage goods (except wheat, barley, rye, coals, timber, boards, and lumber); and 100 reis per tun on wheat, barley, &c.; and 15 per cent. on the freight of all other goods exported from any of the king's dominions to any place in the dominions of the king of Portugal; and all bills of lading ſhall ſpecify to pay the monies accordingly, under denomination of contribution as per act of parliament; and the perſons paying the ſame ſhall be reimburſed by the freighters, or the perſons to whom the goods ſhall be conſigned; and if no bill of lading ſhall appear, and no freight or tunnage is ſettled between the owner of the goods and the maſter of the veſſel, the freight or tunnage ſhall be valued by two indifferent Britiſh merchants on the place, one to be choſen by the conſul general, and the other by the maſter of the ſhip, within ten days after unlading the goods; and if the perſons ſo choſen ſhall not agree the ſame in five days, ſuch two perſons ſhall chooſe a third (being a Britiſh merchant on the place) who ſhall decide the valuation in three days. ſ. 1.

All maſters of ſhips trading from Great Britain, Ireland, or any other his majeſty's dominions, to the dominions of the king of Portugal, and unloading there, ſhall within ten days after their arrival deliver to the conſul general, or deputy conſul, reſiding there, or to ſuch perſon as ſhall be appointed, a manifeſt upon oath, ſpecifying the particulars of the cargo, or of ſuch part thereof as ſhall be unloaded there, and to whom conſigned; which oath the conſul general, &c. is to adminiſter gratis. ſ. 2.

The conſul general, or his deputy, ſhall detain the clearances outwards of all ſuch Britiſh or Iriſh ſhips till payment. ſ. 3.

The monies ſhall be applied in manner following, viz. to the miniſter reſiding there, 300 mill reis per annum, by equal quarterly payments, and the remainder for relief of ſhipwrecked mariners, and other diſtreſſed perſons, his majeſty's ſubjects, and to ſuch other charitable and public uſes as ſhall be appointed by the majority of the Britiſh merchants and factors reſiding at Liſbon, and other parts in Portugal, being aſſembled with the conſul general or any of his deputy conſuls. ſ. 4.

Perſons formerly liable to pay the four reis per mill, ſhall, after payment of the ſums required by this act, be exempted from the ſame. ſ. 5.

The conſul general or his deputy conſuls, reſiding in Portugal, ſhall, as they ſee occaſion, call a general meeting of the Britiſh merchants and factors; and ſhall call ſuch meetings as often as ſhall be deſired by writing under the hands of any five Britiſh merchants or factors. ſ. 6.

This ſhall be a public act. And if any action be brought for any thing done in relation to the premiſes, the defendant may plead the general iſſue. ſ. 7.

By 8 Geo. 1. c. 24. made perpetual by 2 Geo. 2. c. 28. In caſe any captain or other officer of any of his majeſty's ſhips of war ſhall receive on board, or permit to be received on board, any goods, in order to trade with the ſame, except gold, ſilver, or jewels, and except goods belonging to any merchant ſhip wrecked, or in imminent danger, in order to the preſerving of them, and except ſuch goods as they ſhall be ordered to receive by the commiſſioners of the admiralty; every ſuch captain and officer ſhall forfeit his command and office, and be for ever incapable to ſerve in the naval ſervice, and ſhall forfeit to his majeſty all wages due to him for his ſervice in the ſhip whereunto he ſhall belong, when, or at any time after ſuch offence ſhall be committed. ſ. 8.—See 22 Geo. 2. c. 33. ſ. 1. poſt.

The ſaid captain or officer, and the owners of ſuch goods, ſhall forfeit the value of ſuch goods, one moiety to ſuch as ſhall make diſcovery of the offence, and the other moiety to Greenwich-hoſpital; all which forfeitures may be ſued for in the court of admiralty. ſ. 9.—See 22 Geo. 2. c. 33. ſ. 24. poſt.

By 3 Geo. 2. c. 36. All the powers and duties granted in letters patent, bearing date at Weſtminſter the 13th of July, 13 Ann. to William Trench, Eſq. deceaſed, for erecting a light-houſe on the iſland or rock called Skerries, near Holyhead, in the county of Angleſea, ſhall have continuance for ever, ſubject to a proviſo as to the maintaining of the light-houſe in the letters patent contained, and to the truſts in the act mentioned, and ſhall be veſted in Sutton Morgan, clerk, who married the only ſurviving child of the ſaid William Trench. ſ. 1.

The ſaid Sutton Morgan, his heirs and aſſigns, may demand of maſters and owners of every ſhip, or bottom, paſſing, croſſing, or ſailing, in or through St. George's channel, by Holyhead or Wicklow, to or from any foreign port, or which ſhall paſs or croſs the ſaid channel, to or from any place in Great Britain ſouthward of Holyhead from or to Wicklow, or any place northward thereof in Ireland, or that ſhall paſs, croſs, or ſail, from any place nothward of Holyhead, and ſail between Holyhead and the Calf of Man, or any way in St. George's channel, to the ſouthward of Dublin, and likewiſe from all coaſters paſſing to or from any place in Great Britain, north of Holyhead, from or to any port, &c. ſouth thereof, 1 d. per tun, coming into, and the like ſum per tun going out of, the ſaid ports in Great Britain or Ireland, and double ſuch duties for any foreign ſhip. ſ. 2.

Ships loaded with coals in Great Britain north of Liverpool for Ireland, or the greateſt part of their loading being coals, and paſſing from Great Britain to Ireland, ſhall only pay one voyage in every year, the ſame to be paid the firſt voyage yearly, before clearing out of the cuſtom-houſes, either in Great Britain or Ireland. ſ. 3.

In conſideration of the benefit the pacquet boats, ſailing between Holyhead and Dublin, receive by the ſaid light-houſe, the poſtmaſter-general ſhall pay to the ſaid Sutton Morgan, the annual ſum of 50 l. without fee, quarterly. ſ. 4.

If any perſon having command of any ſhip, ſhall refuſe to pay the duties, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Sutton Morgan, his heirs, &c. to ſeize any goods of any maſter or owner of ſuch ſhip, and to keep the ſame till the duties are paid; and in caſe of delay in payment three days after ſuch ſeizing, he may cauſe the ſame to be appraiſed by two ſworn appraiſers, and afterwards ſell the goods. ſ. 5.

Nothing herein ſhall charge any of his majeſty's ſhips of war. ſ. 6.

The ſaid Sutton Morgan ſhall be freed from the payment of 5 l. per annum quit rent, reſerved by the letters patent. ſ. 7.

If any ſuit be commenced for any thing done in purſuance of this act, the action ſhall be laid in the county, whether in Great Britain or Ireland, where ſuch act was done; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue. ſ. 8.

By 5 Geo. 2. c. 20. If any perſon ſhall take the charge of any ſhip as pilot down the river of Thames, or through the North channel to or by Orfordneſs, or round the Long-ſand head into the Downs, or down the South channel into the Downs, or from or by Orfordneſs up the North channel, or the river of Thames, or the river Medway, other than ſuch as ſhall be licenſed to act as a pilot by the maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, of the Trinity-houſe of Deptford-ſtrond, under the common ſeal of the corporation; every perſon ſo offending, and being convicted before two juſtices of peace for the city of London, or the counties of Middleſex, Eſſex, Kent, or Surrey, ſhall for every offence forfeit 20 l., provided that nothing in this act extend to the obliging any maſter of any ſhip in the coal trade, or other coaſting trade, to employ a pilot. ſ. 1.

If any commander or other officer of any ſhip, (except his majeſty's ſhips,) ſhall, while ſuch ſhip ſhall be in the river of Thames, between London-bridge and Blackwall, keep any gun ſhotted, or ſhall fire, or permit to be fired any gun on board any ſhip, before ſun riſing or after ſun ſetting, ſuch commander or officer, ſhall, for every ſuch gun ſo kept ſhotted, forfeit 5 s. and for every gun ſo fired, 10 s. And if any commander, or other officer of any ſhip, or any other perſon on board, ſhall, while ſuch ſhip ſhall be in the river between London-bridge and Blackwall, permit to be heated or melted on board ſuch ſhip, any pitch, tar, roſin, or other combuſtible matter, ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for the ſaid maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, by inſtrument under their common ſeal, to authorize an elder brother to go in a boat, between ſun riſing and ſun ſetting, to any ſhip, and to go on board the ſame (his majeſty's ſhips always excepted) in order to ſearch for powder, guns ſhotted, and the heating and melting combuſtible matters, within the limits wherein ſuch offences are prohibited; and if the commander, or other officer refuſe to permit any perſon ſo authorized, to come on board and make due ſearch, every ſuch commander or officer ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſ. 5.

The pecuniary forfeitures ariſing by this act ſhall be applied for the benefit of the poor of the ſaid corporation. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for two juſtices of peace in the city of London, or any of the four counties above mentioned, not being members of the ſaid corporation, to hear and determine the offences againſt this act; and ſuch juſtices are required, upon information, within ten days after ſuch offence committed, to ſummon the party accuſed and the witneſſes, or, after oath made of the commiſſion of any of the facts above mentioned, by one credible witneſs, to iſſue a warrant for apprehending the party offending, and upon the appearance or contempt of the party accuſed, in not appearing (upon proof of notice given) to proceed to the examination of witneſſes, and to give judgment accordingly; and where the party accuſed ſhall be convicted of ſuch offence, either by view of the juſtices, or upon information, or confeſſion, to iſſue warrants for levying any pecuniary penalties on the goods of the offender, and to cauſe ſale to be made thereof, in caſe they ſhall not be redeemed within five days; and where goods of ſuch offender cannot be found, to commit ſuch offender to priſon for three months, or until ſuch penalty ſhall be paid; and any perſon aggrieved may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 7.

The pilots already admitted by the ſaid corporation ſhall be ſubject to the regulations of the corporation: provided the regulations do not relate to the pilots keeping of turns, or to the ſettling the rates of pilotage; and ſhall pay the ancient dues, provided the ſame do not exceed 1*s.* in the pound out of their pilotage, for the uſe of the poor of the corporation, within ten days after the ſervice of ſuch pilots ſhall be ended. ſ. 8.

In caſe ſuch pilots ſhall refuſe to take the charge of any of his majeſty's ſhips, when appointed thereto by the ſaid corporation, or ſhall have miſbehaved themſelves in the conduct of any ſhips, or in any other part of their duty, or if pilots ſhall refuſe to obey any ſummons of the corporation, or ſuch orders as the corporation ſhall make in the premiſes; the general court of the ſaid corporation, upon examination thereof, are required to recal the warrants granted to ſuch pilots; and if ſuch perſons ſhall (after notice given by the clerk of the ſaid corporation to them in perſon, or left at their place of abode) act as pilots within the the limits aforementioned, they ſhall be ſubject to all the penalties inflicted on unlicenced pilots. ſ. 9.

In caſe any ſhip ſhall be laid up or moored in St. Saviour's dock (except ſuch ſhips as ſhall be loading or delivering their cargoes, and except ſuch ſhips not exceeding two at one time, as ſhall lie at Shipwright Yard, at the northweſt corner of the dock, during the time ſuch ſhips ſhall be repairing) the maſter of every ſuch ſhip ſhall forfeit for every day ſuch ſhip ſhall ſo continue to be laid up and moored 20*s.* ſ. 10.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the impeaching any privileges enjoyed by the pilots of the Trinity-houſe of Kingſton upon Hull, or the Trinity-houſe of Newcaſtle upon Tyne. ſ. 11.

This act ſhall not extend to the impeaching any of the franchiſes, nor to take away the ſole right of piloting merchant ſhips from or by Dover, Deal, and the iſle of Thanet, up the rivers Thames and Medway, granted to the ſociety and fellowſhip of the maſter wardens and pilots of the Trinity-houſe of Dover, Deal, and the iſle of Thanet, by 3 Geo. 1. cap. 13. ſ. 12.

This act ſhall be a public act; and any ſuit brought for any thing done in purſuance of this act ſhall be commenced within three months after the fact, and ſhall be laid in the county or place where the cauſe of action ariſes: and the defendant may plead the general iſſue, not guilty; and if judgment ſhall be given againſt the plantiff, the defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 13.

Nothing in this act ſhall prejudice any juriſdiction of the mayor, or of the mayor commonalty and citizens, of the city of London, upon the river Thames. ſ. 14.

This act ſhall not prejudice any juriſdiction belonging to the office of lord high admiral. ſ. 15.

By 7 Geo. 2. c. 15. No owners of any ſhip ſhall be liable to anſwer any loſs by reaſon of embezzlement (by the maſter or mariners) of any goods ſhipped on board, or for any act done by the maſter or mariners without the privity of ſuch owners, further than the value of the ſhip, and the amount of the freight during the voyage wherein ſuch embezzlement, or other malverſation ſhall be committed. ſ. 1.

If ſeveral freighters ſhall ſuffer damage by the means aforeſaid in the ſame voyage, and the value of the ſhip, and the amount of the freight, ſhall not be ſufficient to make compenſation, ſuch freighters ſhall receive ſatisfaction in average in proportion to their loſſes; and it ſhall be lawful for ſuch freighters, or for the owners of ſuch ſhip, to exhibit a bill in equity for a diſcovery of the total amount of ſuch loſſes, and alſo of the value of ſuch ſhip and freight, and for an equal payment thereof. ſ. 2.

If ſuch bill ſhall be exhibited by the part owners of ſuch ſhip, the plaintiffs ſhall annex an affidavit, that they do not collude with any of the defendants, and ſhall offer to pay the value of ſuch ſhip and freight, as ſuch court ſhall direct, as in caſes of bills of interpleader. ſ. 3.

Nothing in this act ſhall diſcharge any remedy which any perſon may have againſt the maſter and mariners. ſ. 4.—See 26 Geo. 3. c. 86.

By 9 Geo. 2. c. 25. It ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſons as ſhall be appointed by the conſul for his majeſty's ſubjects trading to the port of Cadiz and Port St. Mary's, together with the majority of the Britiſh merchants and factors there, to receive from all maſters of Britiſh and Iriſh ſhips trading to the ſaid ports, any ſums of money not exceeding one royal plate per ducat on the freight of goods (except tunnage goods) imported into the ſaid ports, and on all tunnage goods any ſums not exceeding two royals plate per tun; and all bills of landing of ſuch ſhips ſhall ſpecify to pay the ſaid monies under the denomination of contribution as by act of parliament; and the perſons paying the ſame ſhall be reimburſed by their freighters, or by the perſons to whom the ſaid goods ſhall be conſigned; and in caſe the maſter of ſuch ſhip ſhall neglect to ſpecify the payment of the ſaid monies in the bills of lading, he ſhall be anſwerable for the ſame; or in caſe no bill of lading ſhall appear, or no freight or tunnage be ſettled between the owners of the goods and the maſter, the freight or tunnage of ſuch goods ſhall be valued by two indifferent Britiſh merchants on the place, one to be appointed by the conſul, and the other by the maſter, within ten days after unloading; and in caſe the perſons ſo choſen ſhall not agree in three days, ſuch two perſons ſhall chooſe a third, being a Britiſh merchant on the place as an umpire, who ſhall decide the valuation in three days; and ſuch ſums ſhall be paid in either caſe. ſ. 1.

All commanders of Britiſh or Iriſh ſhips trading to the ports of Cadiz and Port St. Mary's, and delivering there, ſhall, within ten days after arrival, deliver to the conſul a manifeſt upon oath, ſpecifying the particulars of the cargo delivered there, and to whom conſigned; which oath ſuch conſul, or other perſon to be appointed by him, is to adminiſter gratis. ſ. 2.

The conſul ſhall detain the clearances outward until payment; and in caſe the maſter of ſuch ſhip ſhall depart without his clearances, the conſul ſhall, upon the return of the ſaid maſter to any port of his majeſty's dominions, have an action at law againſt him for the money which ought to have been paid. ſ. 3.

All monies to be raiſed as aforeſaid ſhall be applied to the relief of ſhipwrecked mariners, and other diſtreſſed perſons, his majeſty's ſubjects, and to ſuch other charitable and public uſes as ſhall be appointed by the conſul with the majority of Britiſh merchants and factors reſiding at the ſaid ports of Cadiz and Port St. Mary's. ſ. 4.

The conſul ſhall, as he ſhall ſee occaſion, call a general meeting of the Britiſh merchants and factors, and as often as he ſhall be deſired under the hands of any five of the Britiſh merchants or factors; and the majority at ſuch meetings ſhall order all matters relating to the premiſes. ſ. 5.

This act ſhall be a public act. And if any action be brought for any thing done in relation to the premiſes, the defendant may plead the general iſſue. ſ. 6.

By 10 Geo. 2. c. 14. It ſhall be lawful for perſons appointed by the conſul named for his majeſty's ſubjects trading to the port of Leghorn, together with the majority of the Britiſh merchants and factors there, to recover from all commanders of Britiſh or Iriſh ſhips trading from any part of his majeſty's dominions to the ſaid port, any ſums not exceeding one livre per tun on all tunnage goods imported into the ſaid port, and on all bale goods not exceeding one-third of a livre per bale or parcel: to be recovered and applied with like directions as in 9 Geo. 2. cap. 25. for the conſulage duty at Cadiz and Port St. Mary's. ſ. 1.

By 18 Geo. 2. c. 17. If any ſhip belonging to any his majeſty's ſubjects, find out and ſail through any paſſage by ſea between Hudſon's Bay, and the weſtern, and ſouthern ocean of America, the owners of ſuch ſhip ſo firſt finding out and ſailing through the ſaid paſſage, their executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, ſhall receive a reward of 20,000 l. ſ. 1.—See 16 Geo. 3.

To aſcertain who are the firſt diſcoverers of the ſaid paſſage, the lord chancellor, the lord preſident of the privy council, the lord privy ſeal, the lord ſteward of the houſehold, the lord chamberlain of the houſehold, the lord treaſurer, or firſt commiſſioner of the treaſury, the lord high admiral, or firſt commiſſioner of the admiralty, the principal ſecretaries of ſtate, the ſpeaker of the houſe of commons, the chancellor and under treaſurer of the exchequer, the firſt commiſſioner for trade and plantations, the treaſurer of the navy, the admirals of the red, white, and blue ſquadrons, are hereby appointed commiſſioners for the ſaid diſcovery; and are impowered to examine upon oath any perſons produced by the claimants to ſuch reward; and the ſaid commiſſioners, or the major part of them, of which the lord high admiral, or firſt commiſſioner of the admiralty, ſhall be one, being fully ſatisfied that ſuch paſſage by ſea is diſcovered and ſailed through, ſhall grant a certificate under their hands and ſeals to the perſons intitled to the ſame; which certificate ſhall be produced to the lord treaſurer, or three of the commiſſioners of the treaſury, and the ſaid 20,000*l.* ſhall be paid to the perſons named in the ſaid certificate, their executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, out of any ſupplies granted in parliament after the ſaid diſcovery compleated and certificate produced. ſ. 2.

All ſubjects of his majeſty, reſiding in any place where adventurers may come in proſecution of the ſaid diſcovery, ſhall give them all aſſiſtance requiſite; and ſhall no ways moleſt, or refuſe them reaſonable ſuccour, in any diſtreſs. ſ. 3.

Nothing in this act ſhall prejudice the rights or privileges of the governor and company of adventurers of England trading to Hudſon's Bay. ſ. 4.

By 22 Geo. 2. c. 33. The 13 Car. 2. ſt. 1. c. 9. 2 W. & M. ſt. 2. c. 2. ſ. 4. which directs the form of an oath to be taken by officers preſent at trials by courts martial held by commiſſion from the commiſſioners of the admiralty, 6 Geo. 1. cap. 19. ſect. 4. relating to trials of offenders againſt 13 Car. 2. ſt. 1. cap. 9. ſo much of 8 Geo. 1. cap. 24. ſect. 8. as directs the puniſhment to be inflicted by a court martial upon any officer of his majeſty'y ſhips of war who permits to be received on board any goods in order to trade, the 18 Geo. 2. cap. 35. and 21 Geo. 2. cap. 11. are hereby repealed. ſ. 1.

The articles and orders following ſhall be duly obſerved. ſ. 2.

" 1. All commanders and officers of his majeſty's " ſhips of war, ſhall cauſe the public worſhip of Almighty " God, according to the liturgy of the church of England, " to be reverently performed in their ſhips; and ſhall take " care that prayers and preaching by the chaplains of " the ſhips be performed diligently, and that the Lord's " day be obſerved according to law.

" 2. All flag officers, and all perſons in his majeſty's " ſhips of war, being guilty of profane oaths, curſings, " execrations, drunkenneſs, uncleanneſs, or other ſcan- " dalous actions, in derogation of God's honour, and cor- " ruption of good manners, ſhall incur ſuch puniſhment " as a court martial ſhall impoſe, and as the nature and " degree of their offence deſerve.

" 3. If any officer, mariner, ſoldier, or other perſon " of the fleet, give or entertain intelligence to or with any " enemy or rebel, without leave from the king or the lord " high admiral, or the commiſſioners of the admiralty, " commander in chief, or his commanding officer, ſuch " perſon being convicted by a court martial ſhall be pu- " niſhed with death.

" 4. If any letter or meſſage from any enemy or rebel " be conveyed to any officer, mariner, ſoldier, or other " in the fleet, and the ſaid officer, &c. ſhall not within 12 " hours, having opportunity ſo to do, acquaint his ſuperior " officer, or the officer commanding in chief, with it; " or if any ſuperior officer being acquainted therewith, " ſhall not in convenient time reveal the ſame to the com- " mander in chief of the ſquadron, every ſuch perſon being " convicted by the court martial, ſhall be puniſhed with " death, or ſuch other puniſhment as the court martial " ſhall impoſe.

" 5. All ſpies, and all perſons who come or are found " in the nature of ſpies, to bring or deliver any ſeducing " letters or meſſages from any enemy or rebel, or endea- " vour to corrupt any officer or other in the fleet to be- " tray his truſt, being convicted by the court martial, " ſhall be puniſhed with death, or ſuch other puniſhment " as the court martial ſhall impoſe.

" 6. No perſon in the fleet ſhall relieve an enemy or " rebel with money, victuals, powder, ſhot, arms, am- " munition, or other ſupplies, upon pain of death, or ſuch " other puniſhment as the court martial ſhall think fit.

" 7. All the papers, charter parties, bills of lading, " paſſports, and other writings, taken aboard any ſhip " taken as prize, ſhall be preſerved; and the very origi- " nals ſhall, by the commanding officer of the ſhip which " takes ſuch prize, be ſent entirely to the court of admi- " ralty, or ſuch other court or commiſſioners as be autho- " riſed to determine whether ſuch prize be lawful capture, " to be proceeded upon according to law, upon pain that " every perſon offending herein loſe his ſhare of the cap- " ture, and ſuffer ſuch further puniſhment as the court " martial impoſe.

" 8. No perſon in the fleet ſhall take out of any prize " any money, plate, or goods, unleſs it be neceſſary for the " better ſecuring thereof, or for the neceſſary uſe of any of " his majeſty's ſhips, before the ſame be adjudged lawful " prize in ſome admiralty court; but the account of the " whole, without embezzlement, ſhall be brought in, and " judgment paſſed entirely upon the whole; upon pain that " every perſon offending herein forfeit his ſhare of the cap- " ture, and ſuffer ſuch further puniſhment as impoſed by a " court martial, or ſuch court of admiralty.

" 9. If any ſhip be taken as prize, none of the officers, " mariners, or other perſons on board her, ſhall be ſtripped " of their clothes, or in any ſort pillaged, beaten, or evil " intreated, upon pain that the perſon ſo offending be " liable to ſuch puniſhment as a court martial think fit.

" 10. Every flag officer, captain, and commander in " the fleet, who, upon ſignal or order of fight, or ſight of " any ſhip which it may be his duty to engage, or upon " likelihood of engagement, ſhall not make preparations " for fight, and ſhall not in perſon, and according to his " place, encourage the inferior officers and men to fight " courageouſly, ſhall ſuffer death, or ſuch other puniſhment " as a court martial deem him to deſerve; and if any per- " ſon in the fleet treacherouſly or cowardly yield or cry " for quarter, being convicted by a court martial, he ſhall " ſuffer death.

" 11. Every perſon in the fleet, who ſhall not duly " obſerve the orders of the admiral, flag officer, commander " of any ſquadron or diviſion, or other his ſuperior officer, " for aſſailing, joining battle with, or making defence " againſt any fleet, ſquadron, or ſhip, or ſhall not obey " the orders of his ſuperior officer in time of action, to the " beſt of his power, or ſhall not uſe all poſſible endeavours " to put the ſame effectually in execution, being convicted " by the court martial, ſhall ſuffer death, or ſuch other pu- " niſhment as a court martial deem him to deſerve.

" 12. Every

" 12. Every perſon in the fleet, who through cowardice, negligence, or diſaffection, ſhall in time of action withdraw or keep back, or not come into the engagement, or not do his utmoſt to take or deſtroy every ſhip which it is his duty to engage, and to aſſiſt all his majeſty's ſhips, or thoſe of his allies, which it is his duty to aſſiſt, being convicted by a court martial, ſhall ſuffer, by 19 Geo. 3. c. 17. ſ. 3. ſuch puniſhment as the nature and degree of the offence ſhall be found to deſerve.

" 13. Every perſon in the fleet, who through cowardice, neligence, or diſaffection, ſhall forbear to purſue the chace of any enemy, pirate, or rebel, beaten or flying, or ſhall not aſſiſt a known friend in view, to the utmoſt of his power, being convicted by a court martial, ſhall ſuffer, by 19 Geo. 3. c. 17. ſ. 3. ſuch puniſhment as the nature and degree of the offence ſhall be found to deſerve.

" 14. If, when action, or any ſervice is commanded, any perſon in the fleet preſume to delay or diſcourage the ſame upon pretence of arrears of wages, or upon any pretence whatſoever, being convicted by the court martial, he ſhall ſuffer death, or ſuch other puniſhment as a court martial deem him to deſerve.

" 15. Every perſon in the fleet, who ſhall deſert to the enemy, pirate, or rebel, or run away with any of his majeſty's ſhips, or any ordnance, ammunition, ſtores, or proviſion, belonging thereto, to the weakening of the ſervice, or yield up the ſame cowardly or treacherouſly, being convicted by the court martial, ſhall ſuffer death.

" 16. Every perſon in the fleet, who ſhall deſert, or entice others ſo to do, ſhall ſuffer death, or ſuch other puniſhment as a court martial judge fit: and if any commanding officer of any of his majeſty's ſhips of war receive a deſerter from any other of his majeſty's ſhips after diſcovering him to be ſuch, and ſhall not, with all convenient ſpeed, give notice to the captain of the ſhip to which ſuch deſerter belongs, or if the ſaid ſhips are at a diſtance from each other, to the ſecretary of the admiralty, or to the commander in chief, being convicted by the court martial, ſhall be caſhiered.

" 17. The officers and ſeamen of all ſhips appointed for convoy of merchant ſhips, or of any other, ſhall diligently attend upon that charge without delay, according to their inſtructions; and whoſoever ſhall be faulty therein, and not perform their duty, and defend the ſhips and goods in their convoy, without either diverting to other parts or occaſions, or neglecting to fight in their defence, if they be aſſailed, or running away cowardly and ſubmitting the convoy to hazard; or demand any money or reward from any merchant or maſter for convoying of any ſhips entruſted to their care, or miſuſe the maſters or mariners thereof, ſhall be condemned to make reparation of the damage as the court of admiralty adjudge, and alſo be puniſhed according to the quality of their offences, by death or other puniſhment adjudged fit by the court martial.

" 18. If any captain, or other officer of any of his majeſty's ſhips receive, or permit to be received on board, any goods other than for the uſe of the ſhip, except gold, ſilver, or jewels, and except the goods belonging to any merchant, or other ſhip ſhipwrecked, or in imminent danger either on the high ſeas, or in any port or creek, in order to the preſerving them for their proper owners, and except ſuch goods as he is ordered to take on board by order of the admiralty; every perſon ſo offending, being convicted by the court martial, ſhall be caſhiered, and be for ever incapable to ſerve in any office in the naval ſervice.

" 19. If any perſon in the fleet endeavour to make any mutinous aſſembly, being convicted by the court martial, he ſhall ſuffer death; and if any perſon in the fleet utter any words of ſedition or mutiny, he ſhall ſuffer death, or ſuch other puniſhment as a court martial deem him to deſerve; and if any officer, mariner, or ſoldier, in the fleet, behave himſelf with contempt to his ſuperior officer in the execution of his office, he ſhall be puniſhed by the judgment of a court martial.

" 20. If any perſon in the fleet conceal any traiterous or mutinous practice or deſign, being convicted by a court martial, he ſhall ſuffer death, or ſuch other puniſhment as a court martial think fit; and if any perſon in the fleet conceal any traiterous or mutinous words, ſpoken by any to the prejudice of his majeſty or government, or any words, practice, or deſign, tending to the hindrance of the ſervice, and ſhall not forthwith reveal the ſame to the commanding officer, or being preſent at any mutiny or ſedition, not uſe his utmoſt endeavours to ſuppreſs the ſame, he ſhall be puniſhed as a court martial think he deſerves.

" 21. If any perſon in the fleet find cauſe of complaint of the unwholeſomeneſs of the victual, or upon other juſt ground, he ſhall quietly make the ſame known to his ſuperior, or captain, or commander in chief; and the ſaid ſuperior, captain, or commander in chief ſhall, as far as he is able, cauſe the ſame to be preſently remedied; and no perſon in the fleet, upon any pretence, ſhall attempt to ſtir up any diſturbance, upon pain of ſuch puniſhment as a court martial think fit.

" 22. If any officer, mariner, ſoldier, or other perſon in the fleet, ſtrike any of his ſuperior officers, or draw, or offer to draw, or lift up any weapon againſt him, being in the execution of his office, being convicted by a court martial, he ſhall ſuffer death; and if any officer, mariner, ſoldier, or other perſon in the fleet, quarrel with any of his ſuperior officers in the execution of his office, or diſobey any lawful command of any of his ſuperior officers, being convicted by a court martial, he ſhall ſuffer death, or ſuch other puniſhment as ſhall be inflicted by a court martial.

" 23. If any perſon in the fleet quarrel or fight with any other perſon in the fleet, or uſe reproachful or provoking ſpeeches or geſtures, tending to make any quarrel or diſturbance, he ſhall, being convicted, ſuffer ſuch puniſhment as a court martial impoſe.

" 24. There ſhall be no waſteful expence of powder, ſhot, ammunition, or other ſtores in the fleet, nor any embezzlement thereof, but the ſtores and proviſions ſhall be carefully preſerved; upon pain of ſuch puniſhment upon the offenders, abettors, buyers, and receivers, (being perſons ſubject to naval diſcipline) as ſhall be by a court martial found juſt.

" 25. Every perſon in the fleet, who ſhall unlawfully burn or ſet fire to any magazine or ſtore of powder, or ſhip, boat, or veſſel, or tackle or furniture thereunto belonging, not then appertaining to an enemy, pirate, or rebel, being convicted by a court martial, ſhall ſuffer death.

" 26. Care ſhall be taken in the conducting and ſteering of his majeſty's ſhips, that through wilfulneſs, negligence, or other defaults, no ſhip be ſtranded or hazarded; upon pain that ſuch as be found guilty therein, be puniſhed by death, or ſuch other puniſhment as the offence by a court martial is judged to deſerve.

" 27. No perſon in the fleet ſhall ſleep upon his watch, " or negligently perform the duty impoſed on him, or for- " ſake his ſtation, upon pain of death, or ſuch other pu- " niſhment as a court martial think fit.

" 28. All murders committed by any perſon in the " fleet, ſhall be puniſhed with death by a court mar- " tial.

" 29. If any perſon in the fleet commit buggery with " man or beaſt, he ſhall be puniſhed with death by a court " martial.

" 30. All robbery committed by any perſon in the fleet, " ſhall be puniſhed with death, or otherwiſe, as a court " martial find meet.

" 31. Every officer or other perſon in the fleet, who ſhall " knowingly make or ſign a falſe muſter or muſter-book, " or command, counſel, or procure, the making or ſign- " ing thereof, or aid any other perſon in the making or " ſigning thereof, ſhall, upon proof before a court martial, " be caſhiered, and rendered incapable of further employ- " ment in his majeſty's naval ſervice.

" 32. No provoſt-martial belonging to the fleet ſhall " refuſe to apprehend any criminal, whom he is authoriſed " by legal warrant to apprehend, or to receive or keep any " priſoner committed to his charge, or wilfully ſuffer him " to eſcape, or diſmiſs him without lawful order, upon " pain of ſuch puniſhment as a court martial deem him to " deſerve: and all captains, officers, and others in the fleet, " ſhall do their endeavours to detect, apprehend, and " bring to puniſhment, all offenders, and aſſiſt the officers " appointed for that purpoſe, upon pain of being puniſhed " by a court martial.

" 33. If any flag officer, captain, or commander, or " lieutenant belonging to the fleet, be convicted before a " court martial of behaving in a ſcandalous, infamous, " cruel, oppreſſive, or fraudulent manner, unbecoming an " officer, he ſhall be diſmiſſed from his majeſty's ſer- " vice.

" 34. Every perſon in actual ſervice and full pay, and " part of the crew belonging to any of his majeſty's ſhips, " who ſhall be guilty of mutiny, deſertion, or diſobedience, " to any lawful command in any part of his majeſty's do- " minions on ſhore, when in actual ſervice relative to the " fleet, ſhall be liable to be tried by a court martial, and " ſuffer the like puniſhment for every ſuch offence, as if " the ſame had been committed at ſea.

" 35. If any perſon in actual ſervice and full pay in his " majeſty's ſhips, commit upon the ſhore, in any place " out of his majeſty's dominions, any of the crimes pu- " niſhable by theſe articles and orders, he ſhall be liable to " be tried and puniſhed for the ſame in like manner, as if " the ſaid crimes had been committed at ſea.

" 36. All other crimes, not capital, committed by any " perſon in the fleet, which are not mentioned in this act, " or for which no puniſhment is hereby directed, ſhall be " puniſhed according to the cuſtoms uſed at ſea."

Provided no perſon convicted of any offence, by the ſentence of any court martial be impriſoned for a longer term than two years. ſ. 3.

Nothing in this act ſhall empower any court martial to proceed to the puniſhment or trial of any of the offences ſpecified in the articles aforeſaid, or of any offence whatſoever (other than the offences ſpecified in the 5th, 34th, and 35th of the foregoing articles) not committed upon the main ſea, or in great rivers only, beneath the bridges of the ſaid rivers nigh to the ſea, or in any haven, river, or creek within the juriſdiction of the admiralty, and not committed by ſuch perſons as at the time of the offence be in actual ſervice and full pay in the fleet of his majeſty, ſuch perſons only excepted, and for ſuch offences only as are deſcribed in the 5th of the foregoing articles. ſ. 4.

Nothing in this act ſhall empower any court martial conſtituted by this act, to proceed to the puniſhment or trial of any land officer or ſoldier on board any tranſport ſhip, for any of the offences ſpecified in the articles aforeſaid. ſ. 5.

The lord high admiral of Great Britain, or the commiſſioners for executing that office, ſhall have power to grant commiſſions to any officer commanding in chief any fleet or ſquadron of ſhips of war, to aſſemble courts martial conſiſting of commanders and captains; and if ſuch commander in chief die, or be recalled, or removed from his command, then the officer upon whom the command of the ſaid fleet or ſquadron devolves, ſhall have the ſame power to aſſemble courts martial, as the firſt commander in chief was inveſted with. ſ. 6.

Provided no commander in chief of any fleet or ſquadron, or detachment thereof, conſiſting of more than five ſhips, ſhall preſide at any court martial in foreign parts, but the officer next in command to ſuch commander in chief ſhall hold ſuch court martial and preſide thereat. ſ. 7.

If any commander in chief of any fleet or ſquadron, in foreign parts, detach any part of ſuch fleet, every commander in chief ſhall, by writing under his hand, empower the chief commander of the detachment (and in caſe of his death or removal, the officer to whom the command of ſuch detachment belongs) to hold courts martial, during the time of ſuch ſeparate ſervice, or until the commander of the ſaid detachment return to his commander in chief, or come under the command of any other his ſuperior officer, or return to Great Britain or Ireland. ſ. 8.

If any five or more of his majeſty's ſhips of war meet in foreign parts, it ſhall be lawful for the ſenior officer of the ſaid ſhips to hold courts martial, and preſide thereat, during ſo long time as the ſaid ſhips or any five of them continue together. ſ. 9.

Provided that where any material objection may render it improper for the perſon next in command to the ſenior officer or commander in chief in foreign parts to hold courts martial, or preſide thereat, it ſhall be lawful for the lord high admiral, or commiſſioners of the admiralty, as alſo the commander in chief of any ſuch fleet or ſquadron in foreign parts, to appoint the third officer in command to preſide at, or hold ſuch court martial. ſ. 10.

The lord high admiral of Great Britain, or the commiſſioners for executing that office, may direct any flag officer or captain in any port of Great Britain or Ireland, to hold courts martial in ſuch port; provided ſuch flag officer or captain be the firſt, ſecond, or third, in command in ſuch port, and ſuch flag officer or captain ſhall preſide at ſuch court martial. ſ. 11.

No court martial to be held by this act ſhall conſiſt of more than 13 or of leſs than five perſons, to be compoſed of ſuch flag officers, captains, or commanders preſent, as are next in ſeniority to the officer who preſides. ſ. 12.

Nothing herein contained ſhall authoriſe the lord high admiral, or the commiſſioners of the admiralty, or any officer empowered to hold courts martial, to direct the particular number of perſons of which any court martial ſhall conſiſt. ſ. 13.

In caſe any court martial be appointed to be held at any place where there are not leſs than three, nor yet ſo many as five officers of the degree of a poſt captain, or of a ſuperior rank, it ſhall be lawful for the officer who is to preſide, to call to his aſſiſtance as many of the commanders of his majeſty's veſſels under the rank of a poſt captain, as together with the poſt captains will make up the number of five. ſ. 14.

The 19 Geo. 3. c. 17. ſ. 1. repealed the 15 ſec. of 22 Geo. 2. and enacted that the proceedings of any court martial ſhall not be delayed by the abſence of any of its members, provided a ſufficient number remain to compoſe ſuch court, which ſhall ſit from day to day (Sunday excepted) until the ſentence be given: and no member of the ſaid court ſhall abſent himſelf from the ſaid court during the whole trial, upon pain of being caſhiered from his majeſty's ſervice, except in caſe of ſickneſs, or other extraordinary occaſion, to be judged of by the court. ſ. 2.

All the officers preſent who conſtitute the court martial, ſhall, before they proceed to trial, take the oath aftermentioned before the court; which oath the judge advocate, or his deputy, or the perſon appointed to officiate as ſuch, is to adminiſter.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will duly adminiſter juſtice, according to the articles and orders eſtabliſhed by an act paſſed in the 22d year of the reign of his majeſty king George the ſecond, for amending, explaining, and reducing into one act of parliament, the laws relating to the government of his majeſty's ſhips, veſſels, and forces, by ſea, without partiality, favour, or affection; and if any caſe ſhall ariſe, which is not particularly mentioned in the ſaid articles and orders, I will duly adminiſter juſtice according to my conſcience, the beſt of my underſtanding, and the cuſtom of the navy in the like caſes; and I do further ſwear, that I will not, upon any account, at any time whatſoever, diſcloſe or diſcover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court martial, unleſs thereunto required by act of parliament.

So help me God.

And ſo ſoon as the ſaid oath is adminiſtered to the members, the preſident of the court is to adminiſter to the judge advocate, or the perſon officiating as ſuch, the following oath:

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will not, upon any account, at any time whatſoever, diſcloſe or diſcover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court martial, unleſs thereunto required by act of parliament.

So help me God.

In caſe any perſon in the fleet, being called upon to give evidence at any court martial, refuſe to give his evidence upon oath, or prevaricate, or behave with contempt to the court, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch court martial to puniſh ſuch offender by impriſonment, at the diſcretion of the court, ſuch impriſonment not to continue longer than three months, in caſe of ſuch refuſal or prevarication, nor longer than one month in the caſe of ſuch contempt: and every perſon who commits any wilful perjury, in any evidence upon oath, at any ſuch court martial, or who corruptly procures any perſon to commit ſuch wilful perjury, ſhall be proſecuted in the king's bench, by indictment or information, and every iſſue joined in ſuch indictment or information ſhall be tried by a jury of Middleſex, or ſuch other county as the ſaid court direct; and every perſon convicted upon ſuch indictment or information ſhall be puniſhed with ſuch pains and penalties as are inflicted for the like offences by 5 Eliz. c. 9. and 2 Geo. 2. c. 25. ſ. 17.

In ſuch information or indictment, it ſhall be ſufficient to ſet forth the offence, without ſetting forth the commiſſion for holding the court martial, or the particular matter to be tried before ſuch court. ſ. 18.

No ſentence of death given by any court martial held within the narrow ſeas (except in caſes of mutiny) ſhall be put in execution, till after the report of the proceedings of the court be made to the lord high admiral, or the commiſſioners of the admiralty, and their directions given therein; and if the court be held beyond the narrow ſeas, ſuch ſentence of death ſhall not be carried into execution, but by order of the commander of the fleet or ſquadron wherein ſentence was paſſed; and where ſentence of death is paſſed in any ſquadron detached from any other fleet, ſuch ſentence, except in caſes of mutiny, ſhall not be put in execution, but by order of the commander of the fleet from which ſuch detachment is made, or of the lord high admiral or commiſſioners of the admiralty; and where ſentence of death is paſſed, in any court martial held by the ſenior officer of five or more of his majeſty's ſhips meeting in foreign parts, ſuch ſentence of death (except in caſes of mutiny) ſhall not be carried into execution but by order of the lord high admiral or commiſſioners of the admiralty. ſ. 19.

The judge advocate of any fleet, or his deputy, ſhall have power to adminiſter an oath to any witneſs at any trial by court martial; and in the abſence of the judge advocate and his deputy, the court martial ſhall have power to appoint any perſon to execute the office of judge advocate. ſ. 20.

All the powers given by the ſeveral articles and orders eſtabliſhed by this act, ſhall remain in force with reſpect to the crews of ſuch of his majeſty's ſhips as be wrecked, or otherwiſe deſtroyed; and all the command and authority given to the officers ſhall remain until they be diſcharged from his majeſty's ſervice, or removed into ſome other ſhip, or until a court martial be held to inquire into the cauſes of the loſs of the ſaid ſhip; and if upon ſuch inquiry it appear by the ſentence of the court martial, that the officers or ſeamen of the ſaid ſhip did their utmoſt to preſerve the ſhip, and ſince the loſs thereof have behaved obediently to their ſuperior officers, then all the pay of ſuch officers and ſeamen as have done their duty, ſhall be paid to the time of their diſcharge or death; or if they be then alive to the time of the holding ſuch court martial, or removal into ſome other ſhip; and every ſuch officer and ſeaman, who, after the wreck or loſs of his ſhip, ſhall act contrary to the diſcipline of the navy, and the articles herein eſtabliſhed, ſhall be ſentenced by the ſaid court martial, and puniſhed as if the ſhip to which he did belong was not ſo wrecked or deſtroyed. ſ. 21.

All the pay of ſuch officers and ſeamen of any of his majeſty's ſhips as are taken by the enemy, and upon inquiry at a court-martial appear by the ſentence of the ſaid court to have done their utmoſt to defend the ſhip, and ſince the taking thereof to have behaved obediently to their ſuperior officers, ſhall continue and be paid, from the time of their being ſo taken to the time of the holding ſuch court martial, or until they be diſcharged from his majeſty's ſervice, or removed into ſome other ſhip of war, or (if they die in captivity, or not live to the time of the holding ſuch court martial) to the time of their death, in ſuch manner as if the ſaid ſhip was not taken. ſ. 22.

No

No perſon not flying from juſtice ſhall be tried or puniſhed by any court martial for any offence againſt this act, unleſs the complaint of ſuch offence be made in writing to the lord high admiral, or the commiſſioners of the admiralty, or any commander in chief of his majeſty's ſquadrons or ſhips impowered to hold courts martial, or unleſs a court martial to try ſuch offender be ordered either within three years after ſuch offence committed, or within one year after the return of the ſhip, or of the ſquadron, to which ſuch offender belongs, or of the offender, into Gritain Britain or Ireland. ſ. 23.

For making the 8 Geo. 1. cap. 24. more effectual, be it enacted, that if any captain or other officer of any of his majeſty's ſhips receive on board, or ſuffer to be received on board ſuch ſhip, any goods contrary to the meaning of the 18th article beforementioned, he ſhall, for every ſuch offence, over and above any puniſhment inflicted by this act, forfeit the value of all ſuch goods, or the ſum of 500*l.* at the election of the informer, or perſon ſuing; ſo that no more than one of theſe penalties be recovered by this and the ſaid act againſt the ſame perſon for the ſame offence; one moiety of which penalties ſhall be paid to the informer, and the other moiety to the uſe of Greenwich hoſpital; which forfeiture ſhall be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or in the high court of admiralty, at the election of the informer, and the court ſhall award coſts to the parties: and where judgment is given againſt any ſuch offender, the court ſhall with all convenient ſpeed certify the ſame to the lord high admiral or commiſſioners of the admiralty. ſ. 24.

Nothing in this act ſhall take away from the lord high admiral of Great Britain, or the commiſſioners of the admiralty, or any vice admiral, or any judge or judges of the admiralty, or their deputies, or any other officers of the admiralty, or any others having or claiming any admiral power or authority within the king's dominions, or from any perſon or court, any power, right, juriſdiction, pre-eminence, or authority, which they lawfully had before the making of this act, ſo as the ſame perſon be not puniſhed twice for the ſame offence. ſ. 25.

By 29 Geo. 2. c. 27. The 22 Geo. 2. c. 33. ſhall be in full force and be executed for the trial and puniſhment of all offences mentioned in the ſame act, committed by any officers, ſeamen, or others who ſerve on board any of his majeſty's ſhips or veſſels employed in the lakes, great waters, or rivers, in North America, not within any county ſettled by the king's ſubjects, and under the regular government of his laws and courts, although within his dominions, as fully as if the ſame offences had been committed upon the main ſea, or in great rivers beneath the firſt bridges nigh the ſea, or in any haven, river, or creek, within the juriſdiction of the admiralty of Great Britain.

By 9 Geo. 3. c. 30. If any ſhip, or other veſſel, except his majeſty's ſhips of war, or ſhips or veſſels belonging to his royal navy, or employed in his ſervice, ſhall ſtop or faſten to any of his majeſty's moorings, or fix themſelves to any of his ſhips or hulks, or ride or moor with their own anchors, ſo as in any manner, or with any wind, to be liable to bear againſt any of his majeſty's ſhips of war, or other veſſels; the captain, maſter, commander, or perſon, then on board, and having the command of ſuch veſſel, ſhall forfeit ten pounds for every tide; unleſs neceſſitated ſo to do by want of tide, ſtreſs of weather, or other unavoidable accident; one moiety to be applied to the uſe of the royal hoſpital at Greenwich, and the other moiety to him who ſhall ſue; to be recovered in any court of record at Weſtminſter, with coſts. ſ. 2.

The perſon on board commanding any ſuch veſſel ſhall, upon an order given to him in writing by any officer of his majeſty's ſhips of war, docks, or yards, unlooſe from the ſaid moorings, and remove ſuch veſſel, in caſe it ſhall be then moored, with its own anchors, ſo as to prevent the ſame from riding, or being liable to bear againſt any of his majeſty's ſaid ſhips or hulks; and upon neglect or refuſal to comply with ſuch order for twenty-four hours after given, it ſhall be lawful for every ſuch officer of his majeſty's ſhips, docks, or yards, to unlooſe, or cauſe ſuch veſſel to be unlooſed, and to remove the ſame, ſo as to prevent the ſame from riding, or being liable to bear againſt his majeſty's ſaid ſhips or hulks. ſ. 3.

And ſuch officers ſhall be indemnified for what they ſhall ſo do in purſuance of this act. ſ. 4.

By 16 Geo. 3. c. 6. If any veſſel belonging to ſubjects, or to his majeſty, ſhall find out and ſail through any paſſage by ſea, between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, in any direction or parallel of the northern hemiſphere to the north of the fifty-ſecond degree of northern latitude, the owner of ſuch veſſel, if belonging to ſubjects, or the commander, officers, and ſeamen, if belonging to his majeſty, ſhall receive twenty thouſand pounds. ſ. 1.

If any veſſel ſhall approach to within one degree of the northern pole, the owner of ſuch veſſel, if belonging to ſubjects, or the commander, officers and ſeamen, of ſuch ſhip, if belonging to his majeſty, their executors, &c. ſhall receive, as a reward for ſuch firſt approach towards the northern pole, five thouſand pounds. ſ. 2.

The commiſſioners appointed for the purpoſes of 18 Geo. 2. and ſuch other perſons as for the time being are commiſſioners for diſcovery of the longitude, are appointed commiſſioners for the purpoſes of this act; and are authoriſed to call for journals, books, and papers, kept on board the ſhip of the claimant, and alſo to examine perſons upon oath (which three are impowered to adminiſter): and the ſaid commiſſioners, or the major part (conſiſting of thirteen at the leaſt, of which the lord high admiral, or firſt commiſſioner of the admiralty, and the royal aſtronomer of Greenwich, ſhall be two), being ſatisfied, upon examination and proof, that ſuch northern paſſage by ſea into the Pacific ocean is effectually diſcovered, and ſailed through as aforeſaid, and that ſuch approach towards the northern pole, as aforeſaid, has been then firſt actually made by ſea, or that either the one or the other has been fully accompliſhed within the meaning of this act, are to grant a certificate accordingly, under their hands and ſeals, to ſuch perſon as they ſhall judge intitled to the ſame, which certificate ſhall be produced to the treaſury, and the ſaid twenty thouſand pounds, and five thouſand pounds, or the one or the other, ſhall be paid to ſuch perſon named in the ſaid certificate, his executors, &c. out of any the ſupplies granted in parliament, after the ſaid diſcovery and approach, or one or other ſhall be made and proved, and the ſaid certificate produced. ſ. 3.

The claim on behalf of any ſhip, unto the rewards given by this act, ſhall be made and entered with, or be by letter ſignified to, the ſecretary of the lord high admiral, or firſt commiſſioner of the admiralty, at the admiralty office in London, within ſix months from the time that ſuch ſhip ſhall have arrived at any port of Great Britain or Ireland, otherwiſe the claimant ſhall not receive either of the rewards. ſ. 4.

If the ſaid rewards, or either of them, ſhall be claimed by

By and adjudged to the commander, officers, and ſeamen, of any ſhip belonging to his majeſty, the ſame ſhall be diſtributed among ſuch commander, officers and ſeamen, in ſuch proportions as ſhall be directed by his majeſty in council. ſ. 5.

By 22 Geo. 3. c. 25. It ſhall not be lawful for any ſubjects to ranſom, or to enter into any contract for ranſoming any ſhip belonging to any ſubjects, or any goods on board the ſame, which ſhall be captured by the ſubjects of any ſtate at war with his majeſty, or by any perſons committing hoſtilities againſt his ſubjects. ſ. 1.

All contracts which ſhall be entered into, and all bills, notes, and other ſecurities, which ſhall be given by any perſon for ranſom of any ſuch ſhip, or of any goods on board the ſame, ſhall be abſolutely void. ſ. 2.

If any perſon ſhall ranſom, or enter into any contract for ranſoming, any ſuch ſhip, or any goods on board the ſame, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit five hundred pounds; to be recovered, with full coſts, by any perſon who ſhall ſue, by action of debt, in any court of record at Weſtminſter. ſ. 3.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 31. The treaſurer of the navy for the time being, in all memorials by him preſented to the treaſury for money for navy ſervices, ſhall pray that ſuch ſum as he requires may be iſſued to the bank of England on his account; and ſhall tranſmit with each memorial, a copy of the letter from the commiſſioners of the navy, victualling, and ſick and hurt boards, directing him to apply for ſuch ſum; in which letter the commiſſioners ſhall ſpecify for what ſervice the money is wanted; and ſhall alſo ſtate the balances then in the hands of the treaſurer of the navy, under each head of ſervice; and the commiſſioners of the treaſury, by their letter, ſhall direct the auditor of the exchequer to iſſue to the bank, on account of the treaſurer of the navy, naming ſuch treaſurer, the ſum for which ſuch letter ſhall be drawn, upon the unſatisfied order at the exchequer in favour of the treaſurer, for which the receipt of the caſhier of the bank ſhall be a diſcharge; and all ſums for which letters of the commiſſioners of the treaſury ſhall be drawn, ſhall be iſſued to the bank, as they have been heretofore iſſued to the treaſurer of the navy; and all ſuch monies to be iſſued to the bank, ſhall be placed on an account in the books of the bank, to be intituled 'The 'Account of the Treaſurer of his Majeſty's Navy,' inſerting the name of ſuch treaſurer for the time being, for the pay branch, caſhier's branch, and the victualling branch; and on receipt of all ſuch monies at the exchequer, the treaſurer of the navy ſhall certify to the commiſſioners of the navy an account of the whole receipt, under the heads of ſervice, and ſhall alſo certify to the commiſſioners of the victualling, and ſick and hurt boards, the particular ſums received, and applicable to thoſe ſervices. ſ. 1.

No fees ſhall be paid at the exchequer or treaſury for the tranſactions aforeſaid, beyond what hath been uſually paid upon impreſts and accounts hitherto made, according to the former cuſtom of tranſacting buſineſs between the exchequer, navy pay-office, and bank. ſ. 2.

No money for the ſervice of the navy ſhall be iſſued from the exechequer to the treaſurer of the navy, or be placed in his hands, but the ſame ſhall be iſſued to the bank, and placed to the accounts above, according to the ſervices for which it is iſſued. ſ. 3.

The treaſurer of the navy, by himſelf, or perſons in his office authoriſed, ſhall draw upon the bank for all navy ſervices whatever, and ſhall ſpecify in each draft, the head of ſervice for which the ſame is drawn; and no draft ſhall be a ſufficient voucher to the bank, unleſs the ſame ſpecifies the head of ſervice for which it is drawn and paid. ſ. 4.

The monies iſſued unto the bank on account of the treaſurer of the navy, ſhall not be paid out of the bank, unleſs for navy ſervices, and in purſuance of drafts drawn on the bank; and which drafts, ſo drawn, ſhall be authority to the bank to pay ſuch money to the perſons mentioned in ſuch drafts, or to the bearer of them. ſ. 5.

Upon the death, reſignation, or removal, of the treaſurer of the navy, the balance of caſh for which he ſhall at that time have credit, on his account as treaſurer of the navy, with the bank, ſhall, at the end of the current month after a ſucceſſor ſhall be appointed to the office, veſt in ſuch ſucceſſor, in truſt for the ſervice of the navy under the heads, and be forthwith transferred, to the account of ſuch ſucceſſor treaſurer, to be applied to the ſaid ſervice, in purſuance of the like drafts as aforeſaid: and the treaſurer of the navy ſhall form his memorials and requiſitions to the treaſury, and iſſue his drafts as aforeſaid, for all charges on account of the navy ſervice, which ſhall be due, although the ſame may have accrued in the time of any former treaſurer. ſ. 6.

The ſaid treaſurer of the navy ſhall make up an annual account of the navy and victualling ſervices, intituled, 'The Account of the Treaſurer of his Majeſty's Navy,' to be ſigned and atteſted by every treaſurer who ſhall have paid any part of the ſaid account; on every account to begin on 1ſt Jan. and end the 31ſt Dec. in each year, and to tranſmit the ſame (having been previouſly examined in the offices of the commiſſioners of the navy, of the victualling-office, and of the ſick and hurt, and ſigned by the commiſſioners of the navy) to the auditor of the impreſt, who ſhall, within three months after the receipt thereof, examine the ſaid accounts, and, if found ſatisfactory, preſent the ſame to the proper officer for declaration; and when declared, a quietus, in the uſual form, ſhall be made out to the ſaid treaſurer. ſ. 7.

The treaſurer ſhall every year inſert, in the ſaid annual account, all payments made by him in the courſe of ſuch year; and all bills drawn by the commiſſioners of the navy or victualling, ſhall be vouchers to diſcharge the treaſurer; and when the ſaid treaſurer ſhall, in the account of any year, have taken credit for any payments made in purſuance of impreſt bills, or on account, no further bills ſhall in any ſubſequent period be drawn upon the ſaid treaſurer for clearing the ſaid impreſts, but the perſons to whom the payments have been made on account, ſhall be ſet inſuper in the exchequer, and to be made accountable for the ſame, and the treaſurer ſhall be no longer chargeable for the ſame. ſ. 8.

The treaſurer ſhall keep the account with the bank of all monies iſſued to or directed to be paid to him for the ſervice of the navy; and the ſaid treaſurer, obſerving the rules hereby preſcribed, ſhall not be anſwerable for any money he ſhall not receive; and the bank ſhall be anſwerable for all monies received by them for the ſervice of the navy. ſ. 9.

If any perſon ſhall forge, or procure to be forged, or knowingly aſſiſt in forging the name or hand of the treaſurer, or the perſon authoriſed as aforeſaid, to any draft, inſtrument, or writing whatſoever, for receiving any of the money in the bank on account of the treaſurer, or ſhall forge, or cauſe to be forged, or knowingly aſſiſt in the forging any draft, inſtrument, or writing in form of a draft, made by ſuch treaſurer, or perſon authoriſed; or ſhall utter any ſuch, knowing the ſame to be forged, with an intention to defraud any perſon, ſuch perſon ſhall be guilty of felony, without benefit of clergy. ſ. 10.

This

This act ſhall not prevent the treaſurer from iſſuing to the pay clerks at the out-ports, ſuch ſums as may be thought neceſſary by the navy board for paying ſhips, and carrying on recalls; and the pay clerk at each port ſhall make up, at the end of every month, an account of all his receipts and payments during that month, which account ſhall be ſigned by him, the comptroller's clerk, and the ticket office clerk, at each port, and tranſmit the ſame, within fourteen days after the expiration of each month, to the treaſurer, and a copy thereof to the commiſſioners of the navy; and the comptroller's clerk at every out-port ſhall tranſmit to the navy board every week an account of the payments made by the treaſurer's clerk at that port. ſ. 11.

Upon the death, reſignation, or removal, of every treaſurer, the accounts of the pay clerks at the out-ports ſhall be immediately made up, and the balance of caſh, for which he ſhall at that time have credit with each of them, ſhall as ſoon as a ſucceſſor ſhall be appointed, be carried to the credit of the account of ſuch ſucceſſor, and an account thereof forthwith tranſmitted to the commiſſioners of the navy. ſ. 12.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 86. No owners of any ſhip ſhall be ſubject to make good any loſs or damage by reaſon of any robbery, embezzlement, ſecreting, or making away with, of any gold, ſilver, diamonds, jewels, precious ſtones, or other goods, or merchandize, which ſhall be ſhipped on board any ſhip, or for any act or forfeiture done or occaſioned without the knowledge of ſuch owners, further than the value of the ſhip, with all her appurtenances, and the full amount of the freight due, or to grow due, for the voyage wherein ſuch robbery, &c. ſhall be made, &c. although the maſter or mariners ſhall not be concerned in or privy to ſuch robbery, &c. ſ. 1.

No owner of any veſſel ſhall be ſubject to anſwer for any loſs or damage which may happen to goods ſhipped on board ſuch ſhip, by reaſon of any fire happening on board the ſaid ſhip. ſ. 2.

No maſter or owners of any ſhip ſhall be ſubject to anſwer for any loſs or damage which may happen to any gold, ſilver, diamonds, watches, jewels, or precious ſtones, put on board ſuch ſhip, by reaſon of any robbery, &c. unleſs the owner or ſhipper thereof ſhall, at the time of ſhipping the ſame, inſert in his bill of lading, or otherwiſe declare in writing to the maſter or owners, the true nature, quality, and value of ſuch gold, &c. ſ. 3.

If ſeveral freighters or proprietors of any ſuch gold, &c. or other goods, ſhall ſuffer any loſs or damage by any of the means aforeſaid, in the ſame voyage (fire only excepted), and the value of the ſhip, with her appurtenances, and the amount of the freight during ſuch voyage, ſhall not be ſufficient to make full compenſation to all of them, ſuch freighters or proprietors ſhall receive their ſatisfaction thereout in average, in proportion to their loſſes: and in ſuch caſe, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch freighters or proprietors, or for the owners of ſuch ſhip, to exhibit a bill in any court of equity for a diſcovery of the total amount of ſuch loſſes, and alſo of the value of ſuch ſhip, appurtenances, and freight, and for an equal diſtribution and payment thereof amongſt ſuch freighters or proprietors, in proportion to their loſſes, according to equity: but if ſuch bill ſhall be exhibited by the part owners of ſuch ſhip, the plaintiffs ſhall annex an affidavit to ſuch bill, that they do not collude with any of the defendants; and ſhall thereby offer to pay the value of ſuch ſhip, appurtenances, and freight, as ſuch court ſhall direct; and ſuch court ſhall thereupon take ſuch method for aſcertaining ſuch value as to them ſhall ſeem juſt, and ſhall direct the payment thereof in like manner as is now uſed in caſes of bills of interpleader. ſ. 4.

Nothing in this act ſhall impeach, leſſen, or diſcharge any remedy which any perſon ſhall have againſt the maſter and mariners of ſuch ſhip, for any embezzlement, &c. or on account of any fraud, abuſe, or malverſation of ſuch maſter and mariners; but it ſhall be lawful for every perſon ſo injured, to purſue ſuch remedy as he might have done before this act. ſ. 5.

The act for regulating the marine officers while on ſhore which paſſes annually, generally contains a clauſe to the following effect, viz.

All his majeſty's marine forces, as well officers as private men, ſhall, during their being borne as part of the complement of any of his majeſty's ſhips, be ſubject, in all reſpects, as any officers or ſeamen employed in his majeſty's ſea ſervice, to be governed and puniſhed for offences according to 22 Geo. 2. cap. 33.

Simony.

By 1 Will. & Mar. ſt. 1. c. 16. After the death of the perſon ſimoniacaly promoted, the ſimony ſhall not be alleged to the prejudice of any other patron innocent of ſimony, or of his clerk, upon pretence of lapſe to the crown, metropolitan, or otherwiſe; unleſs the perſon ſimoniacaly preſented, or his patron, was convicted of ſuch offence at common law, or in ſome eccleſiaſtical court, in the life time of the perſon ſimoniacaly promoted. ſ. 2.

No leaſe bona fide to be made by any perſon ſimoniacaly promoted, for valuable conſideration, to any perſon not having notice of ſuch ſimony, ſhall be avoided by reaſon of ſuch ſimony. ſ. 3. See Ecclesiastical Persons, Elections.

By 18 Hen. 6. c. 18. ſ. 2. No captain which ſhall have the conduct of retinues, and ſhall receive the king's wages for the ſame, ſhall abate of his ſoldiers any part of their wages, except for their clothing, viz. if they be waged for half a year 10*s.* a gown of a gentleman, and 6*s.* 8*d.* for a yeoman; upon pain of 20*l.* for every ſpear, and 10*l.* for a bow, to the king.

By 7 Hen. 7. c. 1. If any captain be retained to ſerve the king on the ſea, or beyond ſea in feat of war, which hath not his perfect number of men, according as he ſhall be retained, or give not them their full wages, as he ſhall receive of the king for them, except for jackets for them that receive land wages, viz. 6*s.* 8*d.* for a yeoman, and 13*s.* 4*d.* for a gentleman, for a year, he ſhall forfeit to the king all his goods, and their bodies to priſon. ſ. 1.

Every captain, petty captain, and other having under them retinue of ſoldiers at the king's wages, ſhall upon the pain aforeſaid, pay to their retinue the wages ratably as is allowed unto them by the king, or the treaſurer of his wars; and this payment ſhall be within ſix days after the captain, &c. ſhall have received their wages. And if any ſoldier, being no captain immediately retained with the king, which ſhall be in wages, or take any preſt, to ſerve the king upon the ſea, or upon the land beyond the ſea, depart part out of the king's ſervice without licence of his captain; ſuch departing ſhall be felony, and he ſhall not enjoy the benefit of clergy. And all the juſtices in every ſhire where ſuch offenders be taken, have power to enquire of the ſaid offences, and the ſame to hear and determine, as though the ſaid offences were done in the ſhire. And the departing of ſuch ſoldiers, and their retainers, ſhall be tried in the ſhire where they be arreſted and arraigned. Provided that no captain be charged by this act for lack of his number, whoſe ſoldiers ſhall die, or otherwiſe depart, not in default of the captain; ſo that the captain, if he be at land wages, ſhew the departing or lacking of his ſoldier within ten days, unto the treaſurer of the wars; or if the captain be at ſea wages, he ſhew the lacking of the ſoldier to the admiral of the navy, at next meeting with the admiral. ſ. 2.

By 2 & 3 Edw. 6. c. 2. If any ſoldier ſerving the king in his wars, in his dominions, or on the ſeas, or beyond the ſeas, do ſell, give, or put away, any horſe or harneſs, wherewith he ſhall be ſet forth; ſuch ſoldier upon proof before the lieutenant, high admiral, the king's deputy, vice-admiral, warden, or captain, and in their abſence before any of their deputies, ſhall be impriſoned by the lieutenant, or other before named, until he have ſatisfied the owner of the horſe or harneſs. ſ. 3.

If ſuch ſoldier eſcape, the ſame ſoldier, upon complaint made by the party grieved, his executors or adminiſtrators, upon proof thereof made to any juſtice of peace where ſuch ſoldier ſhall be found, ſhall be committed to ward until he have ſatisfied the party grieved for ſuch horſes and harneſs. ſ. 4.

If the ſoldier bring ſufficient teſtimony before the juſtice, from the lieutenant, or any of the perſons above named, under ſeal, teſtifying that the horſe or harneſs were loſt in the king's ſervice, againſt the will of the ſoldier, or that the ſame was taken by the ſaid lieutenant, or others before named, from the ſoldier, for any reaſonable reſpect, and appointed to ſome other to ſerve in the place of the ſaid ſoldier, ſuch ſoldier ſhall be diſcharged; and ſuch to whom the ſaid horſe or harneſs ſhall be appointed, not bringing home to the owner the ſaid horſe and harneſs after he ſhall be diſcharged, to ſuffer like pain. ſ. 5.

If any ſoldier depart without licence of the lieutentant, or any of the other above named, with booty or otherwiſe, being in the enemy's country, or elſewhere in the king's ſervice, or out of any garriſon, ſuch ſoldier ſhall be judged as a felon, without advantage of his clergy; and the juſtices of every ſhire where ſuch ſoldiers ſhall be taken, ſhall have power to enquire, hear and determine, the offences concerning ſuch departure, as in other caſes of felony. ſ. 3. [Revived by 4 & 5 Phil. & Mar. cap. 3.]

If any commiſſioner or captain, to whom the king ſhall direct his commandment by commiſſion or letters, for the levying or ſetting forth of men to ſerve the king in his wars, ſhall for gain diſcharge any perſon by him appointed to ſerve the king as a captain, ſoldier, or pioneer, and do aſſign any other perſon in his ſtead, every perſon ſo offending, ſhall forfeit to the king, for ſuch default of every man ſo diſcharged, 20 l. ſ. 7.

If any captain, appointed to have the order of any number of ſoldiers under any higher officer, licence any ſoldier to depart without the aſſent in writing of the lieutenant, or the others beforenamed, he ſhall forfeit 20 l. to the king. ſ. 8.

If any lieutenant, or other beforenamed, having the order of any number of ſoldiers ſerving as aforeſaid, demand or take of the king or his treaſurers any wages for more ſoldiers than ſerved, or for more days than ſuch ſoldiers ſerved, and do not note the day of every ſuch ſoldier's entry into wages, and day of his death and departure, and deliver the ſame to ſuch treaſurers every month; ſuch lieutenant, &c. ſo offending, ſhall forfeit to the king for every default 5 l. and be impriſoned one month, and loſe his office. ſ. 9.

No captain ſhall give to any of his ſoldiers, appointed to ſerve under him in any garriſon, any licence to depart from his ſervice, but only the lieutenant, or others aforeſaid; upon pain of impriſonment, as well of the captain as ſoldier, at the diſcretion of the lieutenant, or the others beforenamed. ſ. 10.

Every lieutenant and other before named, upon pain of 10 l. ſhall cauſe to be proclaimed the effect of this act, viz. every lieutenant of any army, in every field under his charge to proclaim this act every month, and the king's deputies of every fortreſs, and captain of any fortreſs, to proclaim this act once every quarter. ſ. 11.

Every perſon giving to the lieutenant, or others above named, information of any of the offences above remembered, ſhall have one month's wages of him that ſhall be found faulty, to be paid by the treaſurer, upon warrant of the lieutenant, &c. ſ. 12.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to any orders eſtabliſhed for the government of any place of the king's, to be governed by ſuch orders as may pleaſe his grace to ſet forth. ſ. 13.

It ſhall be lawful to every of the ſaid lieutenants and others, to retain to their own uſe, of the wages of their ſoldiers, the ſum following, viz. 6 s. 8 d. for the livery or coat of every yeoman ſoldier, and 13 s. 4 d. for every gentleman. ſ. 14.

No lieutenant or other the ſaid perſons ſhall be prejudiced by this act for lack of his number, for any ſoldiers as ſhall die during his ſervice, or be ſick, or that ſhall depart againſt the will of his lieutenant, &c. unleſs it be in the default of any of them. ſ. 15.

Provided that this act be not prejudicial to any for non-payment of the king's wages to their houſhold ſervants, and others to whom they ſhall daily find meat and drink. ſ. 16.

This act ſhall not charge any perſon for taking any gift of any of his tenants or friends towards the relief of the ſame perſons, being commanded by the king to ſerve in wars, or find men on horſeback or on foot, nor for aid reſerved or covenanted to be paid to any perſon appointed to ſerve in wars, or to find horſe or men, by reaſon of any grant, covenant, or tenure. ſ. 17.

This act ſhall not charge any lieutenant, or others, for detaining part of the ſoldiers wages, for payment of victuals, harneſs, weapons, or for preſt money. ſ. 18. Confirmed by 4 & 5 Phil. & M. c. 3. ſ. 9.

By 43 Eliz. c. 3. Every pariſh ſhall be charged to pay weekly ſuch a ſum towards the relief of ſick, hurt, and maimed ſoldiers and mariners, having been preſt and in pay for her majeſty's ſervice, as by the juſtices of peace in their quarter ſeſſions after Eaſter yearly ſhall be appointed; ſo as no pariſh be rated above 10 d. nor under 2 d. and ſo as the total ſum of ſuch taxation of the pariſhes, in any county where there ſhall be above fifty pariſhes, do not exceed 6 d. for every pariſh; which ſums ſhall be yearly aſſeſſed by the pariſhioners within themſelves, or in default thereof, by the church-wardens and conſtables, or in default of their agreement, by order of ſuch juſtice of peace as ſhall dwell in the pariſh, or if none be there dwelling, in the parts next adjoining. ſ. 3.

If any perſon neglect to pay, it ſhall be lawful for the church-wardens and conſtables, or in their defaults for the ſaid juſtices, to levy ſuch ſum by diſtreſs and ſale of goods. ſ. 4.

The church-wardens and conſtables ſhall collect every ſuch ſum, and the ſame pay over to the high conſtable, ten days before the quarter ſeſſions, about the feaſt of St. John Baptiſt; and ſuch high conſtable ſhall pay over the ſame to ſuch perſons as ſhall be by the juſtices elected treaſurers of the ſaid collection: the ſame to be ſuch as at the laſt taxation of the ſubſidy next before the election ſhall be ſeſſed at 10*l.* in lands yearly, or at 15*l.* in goods: which treaſurers ſhall continue but one year, and then give up their charge, with a due account of their receipts and diſburſements, in Eaſter quarter ſeſſions, or within ten days after, to ſuch others as ſhall be elected. ſ. 5.

If any church-warden, petty conſtable, or high conſtable, or his executors or adminiſtrators, ſhall fail to make payment, every ſuch church-warden or petty conſtable ſhall forfeit 20*s.* and every high conſtable, his executors, &c. 40*s.* to be levied by the treaſurers, by diſtreſs and ſale. ſ. 6.

If any treaſurer, his executors, &c. ſhall fail to give up his account, or ſhall be negligent in his charge, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices in their ſeſſions to aſſeſs ſuch fine as ſhall ſeem convenient, not under 5*l.* ſ. 7.

Every ſoldier or mariner, having had their limbs loſt, or diſabled in their bodies by ſervice in her majeſty's pay, or ſuch as ſhall hereafter return into this realm hurt or maimed, or grievouſly ſick, ſhall, if he be able to travel, make his complaint to the treaſurers of the county out of which he was preſſed, or if he were no preſt man, to the treaſurers of the county where he was born or laſt inhabited by the ſpace of three years, at his election; and if he be not able to travel, to the treaſurers of the county where he ſhall arrive; and ſhall bring a certificate under the hand and ſeal of the general of the camp, or governor of the town, wherein he ſerved, and of the captain of the band, or his lieutenant, or in the abſence of the general or governor, from the marſhal or deputy governor, or from any admiral of her majeſty's fleet, or in his abſence from any other general of her majeſty's ſhips, or in abſence of ſuch general, from the captain of the ſhip wherein the ſaid mariners or ſoldiers did ſerve the queen, containing the particulars of his hurts and ſervices; which certificate ſhall be alſo allowed by the general muſter-maſter, reſident within this realm, or receiver-general of the muſter rolls, the treaſurer and controller of her majeſty's navy, under his hand; then upon ſuch certificate, ſuch treaſurers ſhall, according to the nature of his hurt, and commendation of his ſervice, aſſign unto him ſuch relief as ſhall ſeem convenient, until the next quarter ſeſſions; at which it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices under their hands to make an inſtrument of grant of like relief, to endure as long as this act, if the ſoldier or mariner ſhall ſo long live, and the penſion not be revoked; which ſhall be a warrant to all treaſurers for the county, to make payment of ſuch penſion quarterly, except the ſame be by the juſtices revoked or altered; ſo that ſuch relief aſſigned to any ſuch ſoldier or mariner, having not borne office in the wars, exceed not the yearly penſion of 10*l.* nor to any that hath borne office under the degree of a lieutenant, 15*l.* nor to any that hath ſerved in the office of lieutenant, 20*l.* ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful for the juſtices and others, having authority by this act to aſſign penſions to ſoldiers and mariners, upon juſt cauſe to revoke or alter the ſame in the quarter ſeſſions, or general aſſemblies for cities or towns corporate where the penſion ſhall be granted. ſ. 9.

It may be lawful for the treaſurers of the county where ſuch ſoldiers and mariners ſhall arrive, upon their certificate (though not allowed) to give them any convenient relief for their journey, to carry them to the next county, with a teſtimonial of their allowance to paſs on towards ſuch a place. And in like manner it ſhall be lawful for the treaſurer of the next county, and ſo from county to county, till they come to the place where they are to find their maintenance. ſ. 10.

The treaſurers ſhall keep a book of computation of all ſuch ſums as they levy, and alſo a regiſter of the names of every perſon unto whom they ſhall have diſburſed any relief, and ſhall alſo enter every certificate, by warrant whereof ſuch relief hath been diſburſed; and the muſter-maſter, or receiver-general of the muſter-rolls, ſhall keep a book wherein ſhall be entered the names of all whoſe certificates ſhall be by him allowed, with an abſtract of their certificates; and every treaſurer not accepting the certificate brought unto him from the muſter-maſter, ſhall write the cauſe of his not allowing thereof under the ſaid certificate, or on the back thereof. ſ. 11.

If any treaſurer ſhall refuſe to give relief according to this act, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices in their quarter ſeſſions to fine ſuch treaſurers; the fine to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale, to be proſecuted by any two of them whom they ſhall authoriſe. ſ. 12.

Every ſoldier or mariner that ſhall be taken begging, or any that ſhall counterfeit any certificate in this act expreſſed, ſhall for ever loſe his penſion, and ſhall be deemed a common rogue or vagabond, and ſhall have like impriſonment and puniſhment. ſ. 13. Altered by 12 Ann. ſt. 2. cap. 23. ſect. 1. & 17 Geo. 2. cap. 5. ſect. 3. See VAGRANTS.

The ſurplus of the ſtock of any county ſhall by the juſtices of peace in their quarter ſeſſions be beſtowed upon ſuch charitable uſes as are limited in the ſtatutes concerning relief of the poor and puniſhment of rogues and beggars. ſ. 14.

The juſtices of peace within any county ſhall not intromit or enter into any city, borough, place, or town corporate, where is any juſtice of peace for ſuch city, &c. for the execution of this act; but it ſhall be lawful to the juſtices, mayors, and other head officers, of thoſe cities, &c. to proceed to the execution of this act within their liberties. ſ. 15.

All forfeitures to be forfeited by any treaſurer or other for any cauſe mentioned in this act ſhall be employed to the relief of ſuch ſoldiers and mariners; and the overplus, with the overplus of the ſtock, ſhall be employed as before mentioned, except the juſtices ſhall think meet to keep the ſame in ſtock for the relief of ſuch ſoldiers and mariners, as out of the ſame county may afterward be appointed to receive penſions; and the relief ſhall be given to ſoldiers and mariners out of the county or place where they were preſſed, ſo far forth as the taxation will extend; and if the whole taxation there ſhall be before employed, or that they ſhall not be preſt men, then out of the place where they were born or laſt inhabited three years at their election. ſ. 16.

If the rate ſhall not be ſufficient for the relief of ſuch ſoldiers and mariners as ſhall be to be relieved within the city of London, it ſhall be lawful for the mayor, recorder, and aldermen, to tax ſuch ſums for the ſaid relief as ſhall be convenient, ſo as ſuch ſums do not exceed 3*s.* weekly out of any pariſh, and ſo as in the total the ſum ſhall not exceed or be under 12*d.* weekly out of every pariſh one with another. By 28 Geo. 2. c. 1. All aſſignments, bargains, ſales, contracts, orders, agreements, or ſecurities, made by any out penſioner of Chelſea hoſpital for any money to become due on account of the out penſion, to out penſioners, ſhall be void. ſ. 1.

Every out penſioner admitted on the penſion liſt, ſhall, on his admiſſion receive in advance, ſuch proportion of the penſion as is equal to the remaining number of days of the current half year then unexpired; and from the end of the ſaid half year, ſhall, on his perſonal appearance, or affidavit that ſuch out penſioner was living during the whole or part of the half year preceding, and reciting the place of his abode (ſuch affidavit to be made before a juſtice of peace of any county or place in Great Britain or Ireland, where ſuch out penſioner reſides, for the taking of which no fee ſhall be paid) continue to receive in advance the ſaid penſion by half yearly payments. ſ. 2.

The agent appointed by his majeſty for the payment of the out penſion in the manner hereby directed, ſhall receive from the treaſurer of Chelſea hoſpital ſuch monies as be neceſſary to diſcharge the ſame, and pay the ſaid penſion to the out penſioners as aforeſaid, and give a receipt for the ſaid monies to the ſaid treaſurer; which ſhall be a diſcharge to the ſaid treaſurer; and the auditors of the impreſts are to allow all ſuch acquittances in the accounts of the treaſurer of Chelſea hoſpital; and the commiſſioners of the treaſury are to iſſue in advance to the treaſurer of Chelſea hoſpital ſuch money as is neceſſary for the payment of the ſaid out penſion, upon warrant ſigned by the commiſſioners of Chelſea hoſpital or three of them. ſ. 4.

The commiſſioners of Chelſea hoſpital, or three of them, are to cauſe to be made up, the laſt day of every half year, a liſt of the out penſioners who have either perſonally appeared, or been certified by affidavits to be living, during the whole or part of the half year then expiring. ſ. 5.

The commiſſioners of Chelſea hoſpital, or three of them, ſhall, on ſuch liſts ſo exhibited to them, cauſe to be made out a warrant to the treaſurer of Chelſea hoſpital, and ſign the ſame, directing the ſaid treaſurer to iſſue in advance unto the hands of an agent appointed as aforeſaid, ſuch ſum as is requiſite for the payment of the out penſion. ſ. 6.

The treaſurer of Chelſea hoſpital ſhall deduct 1 s. in the pound of all monies applicable to the payment of the ſaid out penſion, as well as out of all monies directed to be iſſued in advance to the out penſioners of Chelſea hoſpital, to be applied as his majeſty ſhall by warrant under his ſign manual direct; and after the deduction of the ſaid 1 s. in the pound, the ſaid penſioners ſhall be paid without any other deduction. And if the agent appointed for the payment of the penſions, or other agent or clerk employed in paying the ſame, take any fee for paying the ſaid penſion, or on any account relative to the ſaid out penſion, ſuch perſon ſo offending ſhall ipſo facto forfeit his office, and forfeit 100 l. to any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame by action of debt, &c. in any court of record, within twelve calendar months after the offence; in which no eſſoin, &c. ſhall be allowed; and be deemed incapable of ſerving his majeſty in any office civil or military. ſ. 7.

By 23 Geo. 3. c. 50. The paymaſter-general of his majeſty's forces, in all memorials by him preſented to the treaſury, for money for army ſervices, ſhall pray, that ſuch ſum may be iſſued to the bank of England on his account, ſpecifying the ſum he requires, and for what ſervices, and the commiſſioners of the treaſury ſhall direct the auditor to iſſue to the bank, on account of the paymaſter-general, naming ſuch paymaſter, the ſum for which ſuch letter ſhall be drawn upon the unſatisfied order at the exchequer, in favour of the ſaid paymaſter, for which, the receipt of the caſhier ſhall be a diſcharge; and all ſums for which ſuch letters of the commiſſioners of the treaſury ſhall be drawn, ſhall be iſſued to the bank, as they have been heretofore iſſued to the paymaſter of the forces; and ſuch monies iſſued to the bank ſhall be placed to an account in the books of the ſaid bank, to be intituled, The Account of the Paymaſter-General of his Majeſty's Forces, inſerting the name of ſuch paymaſter for the time being. ſ. 2.

No fees whatſoever ſhall be paid at the exchequer o rtreaſury for the tranſactions aforeſaid, beyond what hath been uſually paid upon impreſts and accounts hitherto made, according to former cuſtom between the exchequer, pay-office, and bank. ſ. 3.

No money for the ſervice of the army ſhall be iſſued from the exchequer to the paymaſter of the forces, or placed in his hands; but the ſame ſhall be iſſued to the bank, to be placed to the account above mentioned. ſ. 4.

The paymaſter-general by himſelf, or deputy, or the perſon in his office autnoriſed by the ſaid paymaſter, ſhall draw upon the bank for all army ſervices, and ſhall ſpecify in each draft the ſervice for which the ſame is drawn: and no draft ſhall be a ſufficient voucher to the bank, unleſs the ſame ſpecifies the ſervice for which it is drawn, and has been paid by the bank. ſ. 5.

The monies iſſued to the bank on account of the paymaſter-general, ſhall not be paid out of the bank, unleſs for army ſervices, and in purſuance of drafts drawn on the bank, and ſigned by the paymaſter-general, or his deputy, or the perſon authoriſed as aforeſaid; in which drafts ſhall be ſpecified the heads of ſervice to which the ſums therein mentioned are to be applied; which drafts, ſo drawn, ſhall be authority to the bank to pay ſuch money to the perſons mentioned in ſuch drafts, or to the bearer of them. ſ. 6.

In the firſt memorial every month, or oftener if required, to the commiſſioners of the treaſury, by the paymaſter-general, for a ſupply of money for army ſervices, ſuch paymaſter ſhall inſert, in the body of ſuch memorial, the balance of public money, on his account, in the hands of the bank, together with an account of all the claims, &c. with which ſuch balance is chargeable. ſ. 7.

Upon the death, reſignation, or removal of the paymaſter, the balance of caſh for which he ſhall have credit, on his account as paymaſter, with the bank, ſhall, as ſoon as a ſucceſſor ſhall be appointed to the ſaid office, veſt in ſuch ſucceſſor, in truſt for the ſervice of the army, and be placed to the account of ſuch ſucceſſor paymaſter-general, to be applied to the ſaid ſervice, in purſuance of like drafts. And the paymaſter-general ſhall make up, or cauſe to be made up, an annual account of the ordinary and extraordinary ſervices of the army, intituled, The Account of the Paymaſter-General of his Majeſty's Forces, to be ſigned and atteſted by every paymaſter-general, who ſhall have paid or diſcharged any part of the ſaid account; the account to begin on 25th Dec. and to end on 24th Dec. following, in every year, and to tranſmit the ſame, together with proper vouchers, to the auditor of the impreſt, who ſhall, within ſix months after receipt thereof, examine, or cauſe to be examined, the ſaid annual accounts, and, if found ſatisfactory, preſent the ſame to the proper officer for declaration; and when declared, a quietus, in the uſual form, ſhall be made out to the ſaid paymaſter. ſ. 8.

The paymaſter-general ſhall keep the account with the bank of all monies iſſued for the ſervice of the army: and the ſaid paymaſter, obſerving the regulations hereby preſcribed, ſhall not be anſwerable for any money which he ſhall not actually receive; and the bank ſhall be anſwerable for all monies received by them for the ſervice of the army. ſ. 9.

If any perſon ſhall forge, or cauſe to be forged, or wilfully aſſiſt in forging the name or hand of the paymaſter-general, or of his deputy, to any draft, cheque paper, inſtrument, or writing whatſoever, in order to the receiving any money in the hands of the bank, on account of the paymaſter-general, or ſhall forge, or cauſe to be forged, and knowingly aſſiſt in the forging any draft, &c. or writing, in form of a draft made by ſuch paymaſter-general, or his deputy; or ſhall utter or publiſh ſuch, knowing the ſame to be forged, with an intention to defraud any perſon; ſuch perſon ſhall be guilty of felony, and ſhall ſuffer death, without benefit of clergy. ſ. 10.

All books of accounts kept in the office of paymaſter-general, ſhall belong to the ſaid office, and ſhall not be at the diſpoſal of the paymaſter-general as his private books, but nothing herein ſhall prevent any perſon who hath exerciſed the office of paymaſter-general, or his executors or adminiſtrators, by themſelves, or others, from taking copies thereof, until an acquittance in the exchequer ſhall be made out. ſ. 11.

No fee whatſoever (except the ſalaries after mentioned) ſhall be taken in the ſaid office of paymaſter-general for any thing done therein; and in lieu thereof, the officers, clerks, and ſervants, in the ſaid office, ſhall receive annual ſalaries, payable quarterly, without deduction, together with ſuch further augmentations (to be made no oftener than once in the year) as the increaſe of buſineſs in the office ſhall require; the ſaid ſalaries, and augmentations to be regulated by the paymaſter-general, with the concurrence of the treaſury, and his majeſty's approbation had thereon; and a liſt of the ſaid officers, &c. together with an account of the ſalaries paid, and augmentations made to them, ſhall be entered in a book, intituled The Salary Book, and depoſited in the office of the paymaſter, and copies thereof lodged in the treaſury and bank; and if any perſon belonging tothe office, ſhall take any fee, (except the ſalaries and allowances above), he ſhall be diſmiſſed from his office, and be incapable of ſerving his majeſty in any employment whatever for three years. ſ. 12.

No ſtoppage ſhall be made for diſcharging fees of office; and if any agent ſhall preſume to ſtop the two days pay as heretofore, ſuch agent ſhall be diſmiſſed from his agency, and be rendered incapable of ſerving his majeſty in that capacity for three years. ſ. 14.

All ſums ſaved from the allowance for clothing of invalid and independent companies, or brought in account in conſequence of any ſavings made in the adminiſtration of Chelſea hoſpital, ſhall be paid to the treaſurer or vice treaſurer of the ſaid hoſpital, towards a fund for an augmentation to the half pay of officers who have been, or ſhall be maimed in his majeſty's land ſervice, or as an augmentation to the penſions of widows, or as penſions to the children of ſuch officers as have been killed in the land ſervice, as his majeſty ſhall direct; provided no addition to half pay, in conſequence of maims, or penſions to widows whoſe huſbands have, or ſhall have been killed in ſervice, ſhall exceed twenty-five pounds a year; nor ſhall the allowance to a ſingle child of an officer killed exceed twenty pounds a year, nor be continued longer (if a male) than to twenty-five years of age, or until he be provided for in his majeſty's ſervice; or, if more children are left, the ſhare of each child ſhall not exceed twelve pounds a year, to be continued as the males, and no otherwiſe. ſ. 15.

Nothing in this act ſhall deprive the paymaſter of the uſual allowances for himſelf, or for contingencies, nor prevent him from adminiſtering the ſaid contingencies according to the courſe. ſ. 16.

Nothing herein ſhall take away, or alter, the power of the paymaſter to appoint, or change, at his pleaſure, any officers and clerks employed in his office; or, with the conſent of the treaſury, ſignified in writing, to increaſe the number of clerks, in caſe the buſineſs of the office ſhould render ſuch increaſe neceſſary; which additional officers and clerks ſhall, upon appointment, become intitled to the like ſalaries as are before directed to be paid to officers and clerks in a ſimilar rank in the office, and ſhall be ſubject to all the regulations made by this act. ſ. 17.

All eſtimates, debentures, clearing warrants, and all warrants and accounts, of whatſoever nature, belonging to the army, whether for one or more years (any part of a year, as the ſervice may require, excepted), ſhall be made out from 25th Dec. in every year. ſ. 18.

The ſecretary at war ſhall form, or cauſe to be formed, eſtimates for the ſeveral annual ſervices of which the eſtabliſhments of the army conſiſt, viz. an eſtimate of the charge of the penſions to be paid to the widows of commiſſioned officers; an eſtimate of the charge of the clothing of the non-commiſſioned officers and private men of regular forces; an eſtimate of the charge of agency, charged in the clearing of the regiments, and of the allowances made to the agent of the ſubſiſtence of non-effective men, called Warrant Men; an eſtimate of the charge of the in and out penſioners of Chelſea hoſpital, and of the expences of the hoſpital; an eſtimate of the actual pay of the commiſſioned and non-commiſſioned officers, and privates, of his majeſty's forces, on the ſeveral eſtabliſhments; an eſtimate of the charge of the allowances made to captains, paymaſters, ſurgeons, and for the uſe of riding maſters, rough riders, and expences incident to the ſame; an eſtimate of the charge of the allowance to the paymaſter-general of his majeſty's land forces, the ſecretary at war, the commiſſary-general of the muſters, the judge advocate, their deputies, clerks, and the contingent expences of their offices, exchequer fees, and all other ſervices now paid out of the deduction of twelvepence in the pound, and one day's pay, and not otherwiſe provided for by this act: and the ſaid ſecretary at war ſhall tranſmit copies of the ſaid eſtimates, as ſoon as agreed to by the houſe of commons, to the office of the paymaſter-general. ſ. 19.

The paymaſter-general ſhall form his memorials and requiſitions to the treaſury, and iſſue his drafts upon the bank, upon 24th June, and 24th Dec. in every year, in equal payments, to ſuch perſons as have a regular aſſignment from the colonels, lieutenant colonels commandant, majors and captains commandant, and captains, for the monies appropriated for the clothing of the non-commiſſioned officers and privates of the regular forces. ſ. 20.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the making any alteration in the privileges, profits, or emoluments, which the ſaid colonels now derive, either from the clothing of non-effective men, called warrant men, or hautbois, of their regiments, troops, and companies; but the ſaid colonels, &c. ſhall enjoy the ſame privileges. ſ. 21.

The ſecretary at war ſhall tranſmit to the office of the paymaſter-general an account of the effective commiſſioned and non-commiſſioned officers and privates of the regular forces, and embodied militia, ſerving in Great Britain, diſtinguiſhing each corps ſeverally; and the ſaid paymaſter ſhall, form his memorials, and iſſue his drafts, for the ſubſiſtence of the effective commiſſioned and non-commiſſioned officers and privates, according to the ſaid accounts, and for no other ſervice under the ſaid title. ſ. 22.

This act ſhall not prevent the paymaſter general from iſſuing to the agents of the regiments, &c. in monthly payments, the allowances given to the agents, in lieu of the ſubſiſtence of non-effective men, formerly paid to them. ſ. 24.

The allowances heretofore made to the colonel or commandant, known by the name of allowances to the colonel of the ſubſiſtence of non-effective men, called Warrant Men and Hautbois, ſhall be added to the pay of the colonels and commandants; and the paymaſter general ſhall iſſue the ſame in monthly payments, at the time the ſubſiſtence of the army is iſſued. ſ. 25.

The ſecretary at war ſhall form, or cauſe to be formed, an eſtimate of the monies which may be neceſſary for recruiting each regiment, &c. and tranſmit the ſaid eſtimate to the office of the paymaſter general, who ſhall form his memorials and iſſue his drafts, as aforeſaid, for the ſame, at the times, and in the proportions, which the ſecretary at war ſhall direct; and charge the ſame to the account of each regiment for whoſe uſe the ſaid monies have been iſſued. ſ. 26.

Every officer employed in recruiting any regiment ſhall, every two months, make up and tranſmit, examined and certified by his commanding officer, if reſident in Great Britain, (who ſhall certify the ſame) to the adjutant general of his majeſty's forces, an abſtract of the numbers recruited during the two preceding months, and alſo tranſmit a copy of the ſaid abſtract, together with a regular account of the expences which have attended the ſaid ſervice, during the two preceding months, to the agent of the corps for which ſuch officer is recruiting; and on failure herein, the officer, through whoſe neglect ſuch abſtract and account, or a copy thereof, ſhall not have been tranſmitted to the adjutant general, or to the agent, ſhall be liable to be tried for ſuch neglect by a general court martial, and if convicted, ſhall be caſhiered, or ſuffer ſuch other puniſhment as by ſuch court martial ſhall be awarded; and the commanding officer of the regiment, &c. in which ſuch neglect ſhall be committed, ſhall make a report thereof to his colonel, if in Great Britain, who ſhall report the ſame to the commander in chief, or to the ſecretary at war, that the officer ſo neglecting may be brought to trial for the ſame. ſ. 27.

The ſecretary at war ſhall form, or cauſe to be formed, on 24th June, and 24th Dec. in every year, an account for the preceding ſix months, of the monies neceſſary to be iſſued for defraying the expence of repaying ſuch parts of the poundage deducted from the pay of the forces as are now returned to the effective men of his majeſty's forces, or which his majeſty ſhall, by warrant, under his royal ſign manual, hereafter direct to be repaid; and tranſmit the ſame to the office of the paymaſter general, who ſhall, within 14 days, from the receipt thereof, form his memorials, and iſſue his drafts for the ſame, upon the ſaid 24th June and 24th Dec. ſ. 28.

The

The ſecretary at war ſhall form, or cauſe to be formed, an eſtimate of the monies neceſſary to be iſſued on account of the extra price of bread, when troops are in barracks; alſo an eſtimate of the monies neceſſary to be iſſued for defraying the expences of marches; alſo on or before 1ſt Nov. in every year, an eſtimate of the monies neceſſary to be iſſued for horſe and dragoon forces, uſually called Graſs Money; and alſo, on the 24th June and 24th Dec. in every year, an eſtimate of the monies neceſſary to be iſſued for the expences of deſerters, ſubſiſtence of diſcharged men, fees of offices, hoſpital expences, carriage and expences of new arms, travelling expences of officers and horſes before they join the regiment; together with all leſſer contingencies now uſually paid, or which his majeſty ſhall, by any future regulations, under his royal ſign manual, direct to be allowed to each regiment, &c. and to tranſmit the ſame to the office of paymaſter general, who ſhall form his memorials and iſſue his drafts for the monies contained in the ſaid eſtimates, at ſuch times, and in ſuch proportions, as the ſecretary at war ſhall direct, or are provided for by this act, and charge the ſame to the account of each corps. ſ. 29.

An annual allowance ſhall be made to each of the captains of companies of foot, during their continuance in ſervice, according to the eſtabliſhment of their companies, viz. when the companies are at the eſtabliſhment of 76 men, the annual allowance ſhall be 56*l.* 10*s.*; when reduced under 76, and are above 50 men, the annual allowance ſhall be 47*l.* 7*s.* 6*d*; and when reduced to 50 men or under, the allowance ſhall be 38*l.* 5*s.*; and alſo the annual allowance of 30*l.* now made to the captains of troops of horſe and dragoons, ſhall continue to be made; for which ſaid allowances the paymaſter general ſhall form his memorials and iſſue his drafts as aforeſaid, on 24th June, and 24th Dec. in every year, in equal payments, and charge the ſame to the account of the ſeveral regiments, &c. to which the ſaid captains belong. ſ. 30.

An annual allowance of 100*l.* ſhall be made to each of the captains of the regiment and independent companies of invalids, when the eſtabliſhment of their companies ſhall amount to 70 private men, and 80*l.* when under the ſaid number; for which allowances the paymaſter general ſhall form his memorials and iſſue his drafts on 24th June, and 24th Dec. in every year, in equal payments, and charging the ſame to the account of the regiment, &c. ſ. 31.

An annual allowance of 120*l.* ſhall be made to each of the paymaſters and ſurgeons, when the eſtabliſhment of their companies is 50 private men, and 70*l.* after the companies ſhall be reduced below the ſaid number; for which allowances the paymaſter general ſhall form his memorials, &c. ſ. 32.

An annual allowance after the rate of 10*l.* for every troop of horſe and dragoon forces, ſhall be made to each of the paymaſters when the eſtabliſhment of the troop amounts to 40 private men; and 7*l.* 15*s.* after reduced below the ſaid number; and alſo an annual allowance after the rate of 8*l.* for every troop of horſe and dragoon forces, ſhall be made to the ſurgeon when the eſtabliſhment of the troop amounts to 40 private men, and 6*l.* 4*s.* after reduced below the ſaid number; and alſo an annual allowance after the rate of 23*l.* 6*s.* for every troop of horſe and dragoon forces ſhall be made to the colonel, lieutenant colonel, and major commandant, of every corps, for the uſe of the riding maſters, rough riders, or for incidental expences relating to the ſame, when the eſtabliſhment of the troop amounts to 40 private men; and 18*l.* 1*s.* after reduced below the ſaid number: for which allowances the paymaſter general ſhall form his memorials, &c. ſ. 33.

Every paymaſter of a regiment, troop, or company, of regular forces, or embodied militia, ſhall make out, and tranſmit to the agent of ſuch regiment, an account, every two months, of the exact ſubſiſtence actually paid to effective officers and men, and of the broken periods ariſing from deaths, deſertions, or diſcharges of men, in the courſe of the ſaid two months; and on 24th June, and 24th Dec. in every year, the ſaid paymaſter ſhall make up, and within three months from each of the above periods, tranſmit to the agent, the following accounts, viz. an account of all the expences which have attended the recruiting ſervice of regular forces, for the preceding ſix months, diſtinguiſhing the ſubſiſtence of recruits, levy money, and every other article of expence under their ſeveral heads; an account of the poundage paid to the effective men, in the preceding ſix months; an account of the allowances made for the extra price of bread, to ſuch of the troops who have been in barracks the preceding ſix months; an account of the expences which have attended the marches; an account of the monies paid for the preceding ſix months, uſually called Graſs Money; an account of hoſpital expences, travelling expences of officers and horſes, before they join the troop, and all other leſſer contingencies which his majeſty ſhall, by any future regulations, under his royal ſign manual, direct to be allowed, for the preceding ſix months, under their ſeveral heads; the ſaid accounts to be examined and certified by the commanding officer of each corps, who ſhall examine and certify the ſame; and on failure herein, the paymaſter, through whoſe neglect the ſaid accounts ſhall not be tranſmitted, ſhall be liable to a trial for ſuch neglect by a general court martial, and if convicted, ſhall be caſhiered, or ſhall ſuffer ſuch other puniſhment as by ſuch court martial ſhall be awarded; and the commanding officer of the regiment in which ſuch neglect ſhall be committed, ſhall make a report thereof to his colonel, if in Great Britain, who ſhall report the ſame to the commander in chief, or to the ſecretary at war, that the officers offending may be brought to a trial. ſ. 34.

The agent of every regiment of regular forces, and embodied militia, ſhall make up an annual account of each regiment, &c. for the preceding year, ending 24th Dec. the account of the forces and militia ſerving in Great Britain, to be made up within ſix months after the expiration of the year; the accounts of the corps on foreign ſervice, within two months after the accounts enabling the agents to make up their annual accounts, ſhall be received by the ſaid agents; and in the ſaid accounts, the impreſts or monies received, including the monies received for caſt horſes ſold, and every other receipt which belongs and ought to be brought to the credit of the public, in the accounts of the corps, and the diſburſements ſhall be diſtinguiſhed under their ſeveral heads of ſervice, the arrears due to the officers, and the agency due to them, upon the full pay of the commiſſioned officers, non-commiſſioned officers, and private men, of the corps then and there to be charged, and the balance then ſtruck which is due from the public to the ſaid regiment, &c., and tranſmit the ſame within the time, together with proper vouchers, agreeable to the preſent, or any future regulations which his majeſty ſhall, under ſign manual, direct, to the office of the ſecretary at war, and a copy thereof to the office of the paymaſter general; and on failure herein, or in any other of the regulations preſcribed to the ſaid agents, the ſaid agents ſhall forfeit 100*l.* to be recovered by any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame; and the ſecretary at war ſhall examine and ſettle, or cauſe to be examined, &c. the aforeſaid annual accounts, and tranſmit the ſame, together with the certificates of the charges allowed, and the balances, within three months after receipt of the ſaid accounts, to the office of the paymaſter general. ſ. 35.

This

This act ſhall not diſcharge any agent from making up, in the courſe of the year, ſuch account as the ſecretary at war may require; and any agent refuſing obedience to ſuch requiſition ſhall be liable to the penalty aforeſaid. ſ. 36.

His majeſty's forces ſhall be muſtered on, or as near as may be to 24th June, and 24th Dec. in every year; at which time the commiſſaries ſhall take exact liſts of the commiſſioned and non-commiſſioned officers, and private men, then the regiments, and alſo liſts of ſuch commiſſioned and non-commiſſioned officers, and private men, who have been in the regiments, for part of the preceding half year, ſpecifying the periods at which ſuch officers, and private men, came into the corps, and when they died or were removed; and alſo the dates and atteſtations of all recruits, acquired in the preceding half year: and the commiſſary general of muſters ſhall tranſmit the ſame to the offices of the ſecretary at war, and paymaſter general, and comptrollers of the accounts of the army, on or before the 29th Sept. and 1ſt May, following the ſaid muſters. ſ. 37.

The ſecretary at war ſhall prepare and ſend, together with the annual accounts of the agents, and certificates, warrants to the office of the paymaſter general, directing the paymaſter general to make out debentures, wherein the ſums borne on the ſeveral eſtabliſhments, and the monies diſburſed on account thereof, ſhall be ſpecified, and the balance certified, which is due to or from each regiment, &c. of regular forces, and embodied militia; which ſaid debenture the paymaſter general ſhall tranſmit to the office of the ſecretary at war, within three months from the receipt thereof; and the ſecretary at war ſhall, immediately on receipt of the ſaid debentures, make out, or cauſe to be made out, clearing warrants, directing the paymaſter general to form memorials and requiſitions, and to iſſue drafts for the balance due to each regiment, &c. of regular forces, and embodied militia, for clearings, and to charge the ſame to the account of the ſaid regiment, &c.; and the ſaid clearing warrants ſhall direct the paymaſter general to make the exceſs which ſhall ariſe upon the ſeveral eſtabliſhments, after deducting therefrom the monies diſburſed, a ſaving, and to carry it to the credit of the public; and to charge every deficiency, which ſhall ariſe from the eſtabliſhment not being ſufficient to diſcharge the diſburſements paid on account, as aforeſaid, to the general account of contingencies, or to ſuch other fund as may be applicable thereto. ſ. 38.

This act ſhall not extend to the making any alteration in the horſe guards, horſe grenadier guards, the royal regiment of horſe guards, and the foot guards. ſ. 39.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 6. Whereas the keeping a ſtanding army within this kingdom in time of peace, unleſs it be with conſent of parliament is againſt law; and whereas it is judged neceſſary that a body of forces ſhould be continued for the ſafety of this kingdom, the defence of the poſſeſſions of the crown of Great Britain, and the preſervation of the balance of power in Europe; and that the number of ſuch forces ſhould conſiſt of 17,448 men including 1629 invalids: and whereas during the late war, ſome part of the forces, exceeding the number aforeſaid, has been employed beyond the ſeas, which muſt render the time when ſuch forces may return uncertain, ſome of which are to be broke, and others reduced on their arrival; and and whereas no man can be forejudged of life or limb, or ſubjected in time of peace to any puniſhment within this realm, by martial law, or in other manner than by the judgment of his peers, and according to the known laws of this realm; yet it being requiſite that ſoldiers who ſhall mutiny or deſert be brought to ſpeedy puniſhment, be it enacted, if any commiſſioned officer, or liſted or in pay as a non-commiſſioned officer or ſoldier, ſhall, during the continuance of this act, excite, or join in any mutiny, in either the land or marine forces, or ſhall not uſe his endeavours to ſuppreſs the ſame, or coming to the knowledge of any mutiny, or intended mutiny, ſhall not without delay give information thereof to his commanding officer, or ſhall miſbehave himſelf before the enemy, or ſhall ſhamefully abandon or deliver up any garriſon, fortreſs, poſt, or guard, committed to his charge, or which he ſhall be commanded to defend, or ſhall compel the governor or commanding officer to deliver up to the enemy, or to abandon the ſame, or ſhall ſpeak words or uſe any other means to induce ſuch governor or commanding officer, or others, to miſbehave before the enemy, or abandon any garriſon, &c., or ſhall leave his poſt before relieved, or ſhall be found ſleeping on his poſt, or ſhall hold correſpondence with, or give advice to any rebel or enemy, either by letters, meſſages, ſigns, or tokens, or ſhall treat with ſuch rebel or enemy, without his majeſty's licence, or licence of the general, or chief commander, or ſhall ſtrike or uſe any violence againſt his ſuperior officer, in the execution of his office, or ſhall diſobey any lawful command of his ſuperior officer, or ſhall deſert his majeſty's ſervice, all perſons ſo offending, whether ſuch offence ſhall be committed within this realm, or in any other of his majeſty's dominions, or in foreign parts, upon land or upon the ſea, ſhall ſuffer death or ſuch other puniſhment as by a court martial ſhall be awarded. ſ. 1.

" Non-commiſſioned officers and ſoldiers inliſting in " any other regiment, &c. to be deemed deſerters." ſ. 2.

If any ſoldier in any regiment, &c. ſhall deſert or commit any offence againſt this act, or againſt the articles of war, ſuch perſon ſhall be liable to be tried by a court martial, and puniſhed in like manner as if he had originally belonged to the ſame, notwithſtanding it ſhall have been diſcovered that he had previouſly belonged to ſome other regiment: but if ſuch perſon ſhall be claimed by ſuch other regiment, and be proceeded againſt as a deſerter therefrom, his ſubſequent deſertion may, unleſs already tried for the ſame, be given in evidence as an aggravation of his crime, previous notice being given the deſerter of the fact intended to be proved. ſ. 3.

His majeſty may grant a commiſſion, under ſign manual, for holding of general courts martial within this realm, and may alſo extend his royal warrant to any general officer having the chief command of a body of forces within the ſame, authoriſing him to convene general courts martial for the trial of offences committed by forces under his command; and alſo his majeſty may grant his warrant to the governor of Gibraltar, and of any other dominions beyond the ſeas, or to the perſon there commanding in chief, for convening, or authoriſing any officer, not under the degree of a field officer, to convene general courts martial, for the trial of offences committed by forces under their command. ſ. 4.

Such courts martial may inflict corporal puniſhment on any ſoldier for immoralities, miſbehaviour, or neglect of duty. ſ. 5.

" General court martial not to conſiſt of leſs than 13, " (except within the gariſon of Fort James or other gar- " riſon on the river Gambia, or upon any detachment from " ſuch garriſon, and the preſident to be a field officer, or " officer next in ſeniority, not under the degree of a cap- " tain; (except in the garriſon of Fort James, &c. where " they

" they are to conſiſt of five at leaſt); and courts martial " may adminiſter oaths to witneſſes." ſ. 6.

In all trials by general courts martial, every member aſſiſting at ſuch trial, before any proceeding be had thereupon, ſhall take the following oaths, before the judge-advocate or his deputy.

YOU ſhall well and truly try and determine, according to your evidence in the matter now before you:

So help you GOD.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will duly adminiſter juſtice, according to the rules and articles for the better government of his majeſty's forces, and according to an act of parliament now in force, for the puniſhment of mutiny and deſertion, and other crimes therein mentioned, without partiality, favour, or affection; and if any doubt ſhall ariſe, which is not explained by the ſaid articles, or act of parliament, according to my conſcience, the beſt of my underſtanding, and the cuſtom of war in the like caſes. And I further ſwear, that I will not divulge the ſentence of the court, until it ſhall be approved by his majeſty, or by ſome perſon duly authoriſed by him; neither will I, upon any account, at any time whatſoever, diſcloſe or diſcover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court martial, unleſs required to give evidence thereof as a wineſs, by a court of juſtice, in a due courſe of law:

So help me GOD.

And ſo ſoon as the ſaid oaths ſhall have been adminiſtered, the preſident of the court is to adminiſter to the judge-advocate, or perſon officiating as ſuch, an oath, in the following words:

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will not, upon any account, at any time whatſoever, diſcloſe or diſcover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court martial, unleſs required to give evidence thereof as a witneſs, by a court of juſtice, in a due courſe of law:

So help me GOD.

And no ſentence of death ſhall be given againſt any offender, (except in the garriſon of Fort James, &c.) unleſs nine officers preſent ſhall concur therein: and where a court martial ſhall conſiſt of more officers than thirteen, as likewiſe within Fort James, &c. when any court martial ſhall conſiſt of a leſſer number, then the judgment ſhall paſs by the concurrence of two-thirds of the officers preſent: and no trial ſhall be had but between eight in the morning and three in the afternoon, except in caſes which require an immediate example. ſ. 7.

" Deſerter may be adjudged to ſerve in any corps abroad " for life, or for a term of years; but returning without " leave, before expiration of ſuch term, and convicted " thereof by a court martial, he ſhall ſuffer death." ſ. 8.

The party tried within Europe, (except in Gibraltar), ſhall be intitled to a copy of the ſentence and proceedings of ſuch court martial, (he paying for the ſame), at any time not ſooner than three months after ſentence; and at Gibraltar, not ſooner than ſix months after ſentence; and in his majeſty's other dominions beyond the ſeas, or in foreign parts, not ſooner than 12 months after ſentence, whether ſuch ſentences be approved or not. ſ. 9.

Every judge-advocate, or perſon officiating as ſuch, at any court martial, is to tranſmit the original proceedings and ſentence of ſuch court martial, to the judge-advocate-general in London; which proceedings ſhall be kept in the office of ſuch judge-advocate-general. ſ. 10.

" Proceedings of courts, or entries, or copies thereof, " not liable to ſtamp duties." ſ. 11.

None to be tried a ſecond time for the ſame offence, except in caſe of appeal from a regimental to a general court martial; and no ſentence given by any court martial, and ſigned by the preſident, ſhall be liable to be reviſed more than once. ſ. 12.

This act not to exempt ſoldiers from being proceeded againſt by law. ſ. 13.

Muſters ſhall be made of every regiment twice at leaſt every year. ſ. 14.

If any perſon make, or cauſe to be made, any falſe certificate, to excuſe any ſoldier for abſence from any muſter, or other ſervice, which he ought to attend, upon pretence of being employed on other duty of the regiment, or of ſickneſs, being in priſon, or on furlough; then ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 50*l.* and ſhall be caſhiered and diſplaced from his office, and diſabled to have any military office within this realm, or in his majeſty's ſervice; and no certificate ſhall excuſe the abſence of any ſoldier, but for the reaſons above mentioned, or one of them; and the commiſſary of the muſters is to ſet down on the roll, at the taking of the muſter, the reaſon of the abſence of ſuch ſoldier, and the ſame ſhall be certified by the commanding officer on the back of the roll. ſ. 15.

Every officer that ſhall make any falſe muſter of man or horſe, and every commiſſary, muſter maſter, or other officer, who ſhall willingly allow the muſter roll wherein ſuch falſe muſter is contained, or any duplicate thereof; and alſo every commiſſary, &c. who ſhall take or cauſe to be taken, any money or gratuity, for muſtering any regiment, &c. or for ſigning any muſter rolls, &c. upon proof thereof upon oath, made by two witneſſes, before a general court martial, ſhall be caſhiered, and diſabled to hold any civil or military office in his majeſty's ſervice. ſ. 16.

Commiſſary or muſter maſter to give notice of muſter to the mayor, or chief magiſtrate or officer, of the place where the ſaid ſoldiers muſtered ſhall be quartered; who is to be preſent at ſuch muſter, and give aſſiſtance for diſcovering any falſe muſter; and ſuch commiſſary or muſter maſter, that ſhall neglect to give ſuch notice, or ſhall refuſe to take the aid of ſuch mayor, ſhall forfeit 50*l.* and be diſcharged; and no muſter roll ſhall be allowed, unleſs ſigned by the mayor, &c.; but in caſe ſuch mayor, &c. ſhall not, upon notice, attend ſuch muſter, or ſhall refuſe to ſign ſuch muſter roll, without giving good reaſons for ſuch refuſal, then the commiſſary may muſter ſuch regiment, without incurring the penalty; and ſuch muſter roll ſhall be allowed, though not ſigned, provided oath be made by the commiſſary, before any juſtice, that ſuch notice was given to the mayor. ſ. 17.

If any perſon ſhall be falſely muſtered, or offer himſelf falſely to be muſtered, upon proof thereof upon oath by two witneſſes, before the next juſtice, and upon certificate thereof under the hand of the commiſſary of muſters, or chief magiſtrate, made to ſuch juſtice, the ſaid juſtice is to commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction for 10 days; and if any perſon ſhall willingly lend or furniſh any horſe to be muſtered, which ſhall not belong to the trooper, the ſaid horſe ſhall be forfeited to the informer, if the ſame doth belong to the perſon lending; or otherwiſe, the perſon lending ſhall forfeit 20*l.* upon oath by two witneſſes before the next juſtice; which 20*l.* ſhall be levied by warrant of the ſaid juſtice, by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the perſon offending; and in caſe ſuch offender ſhall not have goods to the value of the penalty, or ſhall not pay ſuch penalty within four days after conviction, then ſuch juſtice ſhall, by warrant, either commit ſuch offender to the common gaol for three months, or cauſe ſuch offender to be publicly whipped; and the ſaid forfeiture ſhall be to ſuch perſon that ſhall give information thereof; and the ſaid informer, if belonging to the ſervice, ſhall have a right to be diſcharged forthwith, if he demand the ſame. ſ. 18.

Every commiſſion officer, ſtorekeeper, or commiſſary, that ſhall embezzle or miſapply, or cauſe to be embezzled or miſapplied, or ſhall wilfully ſuffer any proviſions, forage, arms, clothing, ammunition, or other military ſtores, to be ſpoiled or damaged, upon proof upon oath, made by two witneſſes, before a general court martial, ſhall be diſmiſſed the ſervice, and forfeit 100*l.*; and is to make good, at his own expence, the loſs ſuſtained, to be aſcertained by ſuch court martial, which ſhall have power to ſeize the goods of the perſon offending, and ſell them for the payment of the 100*l.* and ſuch damage: and if ſufficient goods cannot be found and ſeized, then the perſon offending ſhall be committed to priſon, or the common gaol, for ſix months, and until he ſhall pay ſuch deficiency; and after the ſum ſhall be recovered and levied, the ſame ſhall be applied as his majeſty ſhall direct. ſ. 19.

Muſter maſter, &c. taking a muſter, to make oath before the mayor, &c. if a juſtice, or otherwiſe before ſome other juſtice of the peace, in manner and form following:

I A. B. do ſwear, that I ſaw, at the time of making the within muſter, ſuch commiſſioned officers, non-commiſſioned officers, and private men, and horſes, as are borne, and not reſpited, on the muſter roll (excepting thoſe for whom a ſigned certificate is indorſed thereon.)

Which the ſaid commiſſary or muſter maſter is to inſert and ſubſcribe on the back of the muſter roll by him tranſmitted into the office of the commiſſary general; and he is to inſert, in the docket annexed to the ſaid roll, the place where, and the preciſe day when the muſter was taken. ſ. 20.

If any paymaſter, agent, or clerk of any garriſon, regiment, &c. ſhall detain for one month, the pay of any officer or ſoldier, (clothes and other allowances being deducted) after ſuch pay ſhall be by him received; or if any officers having received their ſoldiers pay, ſhall refuſe to pay each non-commiſſion officer and ſoldier their pay, when due, at the rate of 17*s.* 6*d. per* week for each corporal of light horſe; 14*s. per* week for each trumpeter and private trooper; 9*s.* 11*d. per* week for each dragoon; 9*s.* 4*d. per* week for each ſerjeant; 6*s.* 2*d. per* week for each corporal; 5*s. per* week for each trumpeter and drummer; 4*s. per* week for each private ſoldier of his majeſty's three regiments of foot guards; and 6*s. per* week for each ſerjeant; 4*s.* 6*d. per* week for each corporal and drummer; and 3*s. per* week for each foot ſoldier, of any other regiment or independent company: and at the end of every two months to account for 1*s. per* week to each ſerjeant, and 2*d. per* week to each corporal and drummer, and 6*d. per* week to each foot ſoldier; the ſaid 1*s. per* week, 2*d. per* week, and 6*d. per* week, being the remainder of the ſubſiſtence of each ſerjeant, &c. then upon proof thereof before a court martial, ſuch paymaſter, &c. ſhall be diſcharged, and forfeit to the informer 100*l.* to be levied as aforeſaid; and the informer, if a ſoldier, (if he demands it) ſhall be diſcharged from any further ſervice: and the commanding officers of the three regiments of foot guards, are, if they judge it neceſſary for the good of the ſervice, to make the ſame ſtoppages of 1*s. per* week from each ſerjeant, 2*d. per* week for each corporal and drummer, and 6*d. per* week for each foot ſoldier; and at the end of every two months to account for the ſaid 1*s. per* week to each ſerjeant, and two pence per week for each corporal and drummer, and 6*d. per* week to each foot ſoldier, in the ſame manner as is hereby directed for marching regiments. ſ. 21.

The agents are required to obſerve ſuch directions as ſhall be given by his majeſty, under his ſign manual, or by the treaſury, and if any agent neglect to obſerve ſuch directions, he ſhall be diſcharged from his office, and be diſabled to hold any ſuch office in his majeſty's ſervice. ſ. 22.

If any officer or commiſſary muſter any perſon by a wrong name knowingly, upon conviction before a general court martial, he ſhall ſuffer the penalties inflicted upon thoſe who make falſe muſters. ſ. 23.

During the continuance of this act, it ſhall be lawful for the conſtables, tythingmen, headboroughs, and other chief officers and magiſtrates of cities, towns, and villages, and other places, within England, Wales, and Berwick, and in their default or abſence, for any one juſtice of peace in or near ſuch city, &c. and for no others, to quarter and billet the officers and ſoldiers in his majeſty's ſervice, in inns, livery ſtables, ale-houſes, victualling-houſes, and the houſes of ſellers of wine by retail, to be drank in their houſes, and all houſes of perſons ſelling brandy, ſtrong waters, cider, or metheglin, by retail, to be drank in houſes, (except the houſes of diſtillers, and the houſe of any ſhopkeeper, whoſe principal dealings ſhall be more in other goods than in brandy and ſtrong waters, ſo as ſuch diſtillers and ſhopkeepers do not ſuffer tippling in their houſes) and in no other, and in no private houſes; nor ſhall any more billets be ordered, than there are effective ſoldiers preſent to be quartered. And if any conſtable, tythingman, or ſuch like officer or magiſtrate preſume to quarter or billet any ſuch officer or ſoldier in any private houſe, without the conſent of the owner; ſuch owner ſhall have his remedy at law againſt ſuch magiſtrate or officer for the damage; and if any military officer take upon him to quarter ſoldiers otherwiſe than is allowed by this act, or offer any menace or compulſion to any mayors, conſtables, or other civil officers before-mentioned, to diſcourage them from performing their duty hereby required, ſuch military officer ſhall (being convicted before two of the next juſtices of peace, by oath of two witneſſes) be ipſo facto caſhiered, and diſabled to hold any military employment in his majeſty's ſervice; provided the conviction be affirmed at the next quarter ſeſſions, and a certificate tranſmitted to the judge advocate, who is to certify the ſame to the next court martial. And in caſe any perſon find himſelf aggrieved, in that ſuch conſtable, &c. or magiſtrate (ſuch magiſtrate not being a juſtice of the peace) has quartered in his houſe a greater number of ſoldiers than he ought to bear in proportion to his neighbours, and ſhall complain thereof to a juſtice of peace of the diviſion, city, or liberty; or in caſe ſuch magiſtrate be a juſtice of peace, then on complaint to two juſtices; ſuch juſtices ſhall have power to relieve ſuch perſon, by ordering ſo many of the ſoldiers to be removed, and quartered upon ſuch other perſons as they ſhall ſee cauſe. ſ. 24.

No juſtice of peace having any military office or commiſſion in England, ſhall be concerned in quartering ſoldiers in the regiment, troop, or company, under the command of ſuch juſtice; but all acts executed by ſuch juſtice concerning the ſame, ſhall be void. ſ. 25.

The officers and ſoldiers ſo quartered ſhall be received and furniſhed with diet and ſmall beer by the owners of the inns, &c. paying the rates after mentioned. ſ. 26.

In caſe any perſon, on whom any ſoldier ſhall be quartered, (except on a march, or employed in recruiting, and except the recruits for ſeven days, for ſuch non-commiſſion officers and ſoldiers, recruiting, and recruits), ſhall be deſirous to furniſh ſuch non-commiſſion officers or ſoldiers with candles, vinegar, and ſalt, and with either ſmall beer or cider, not exceeding five pints, for each man per diem, gratis, and allow them the uſe of fire, and utenſils for dreſſing and eating their meat, and give notice of ſuch his deſire to the commanding officer, and ſhall furniſh the ſame accordingly, then the non-commiſſion officers and ſoldiers, ſo quartered, ſhall provide their own victuals; and the officer to whom it belongs to receive, or that does receive the pay and ſubſiſtence, ſhall pay the ſums after mentioned to be payable for diet or ſmall beer, to the non-commiſſion officers and ſoldiers aforeſaid. ſ. 27.

If any officer ſhall take, or knowingly ſuffer to be taken, any money of any perſon for excuſing the quartering of officers or ſoldiers, ſuch officer ſhall be caſhiered, and be incapable of ſerving in any military employment. ſ. 28.

Where horſe or dragoons ſhall be quartered, the men and their horſes ſhall be billeted in the ſame houſes, except in caſe of neceſſity; and in no other caſe there ſhall be leſs than one man billeted where there ſhall be one or two horſes, nor leſs than two men where there ſhall be four horſes, and ſo in proportion; and each man ſhall be billeted as near his horſe as poſſible. ſ. 29.

Commanding officers of any regiment, &c. may exchange any men or horſes quartered in any place, with another man or horſe quartered in the ſame place, for the benefit of the ſervice; provided the number of men or horſes, do not exceed the number at that time billeted on ſuch houſe; and the conſtables, &c. are to billet ſuch men and horſes ſo exchanged accordingly. ſ. 30.

The officers, men, and horſes, belonging to his majeſty's horſe or dragoons, ſhall be quartered in the inns and other houſes in which officers and ſoldiers are by this act allowed to be quartered, and they ſhall be received and furniſhed by the occupiers of ſuch inns, &c. with diet and ſmall beer, and with ſtables, and hay and ſtraw for their horſes, paying for the ſame the rates after mentioned, out of the ſubſiſtence money for diet and ſmall beer, and hay and ſtraw for their horſes. ſ. 31.

When any horſe or dragoons ſhall be quartered upon the owner or occupier of any ale-houſe, &c. who have no ſtables, then, upon complaint made by the perſon having no ſtables, to two juſtices, and upon his making ſuch allowance in lieu of his quartering ſuch horſe, as ſuch juſtices ſhall think reaſonable, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtices to order the men and their horſes to be removed, and quartered upon ſome other perſons who have ſtables, and to ſettle a proper allowance to be made by the perſon having no ſtables, in lieu of his quartering ſuch horſe removed; and alſo to order that ſuch allowance ſhall be paid by the perſon from whom ſuch men and horſes ſhall be removed, amongſt the perſons to whom ſuch men and horſes ſhall be removed, or be applied in the furniſhing of quarters for the reception of ſuch men and horſes as the caſe may require, and as ſuch juſtices ſhall think fit. ſ. 32.

It ſhall be lawful for any two juſtices for the county or place where any non-commiſſion officer or ſoldier ſhall be quartered, having either wife or child, to cauſe ſuch ſoldier to be ſummoned before them, in the town or place where he is quartered, to make oath of the place of their laſt legal ſettlement; and ſuch noncommiſſion officers and ſoldiers are to obey ſuch ſummons, and make oath accordingly; and ſuch juſtices are to give an atteſted copy of ſuch affidavit, to the perſon making the ſame, to be by him delivered to his commanding officer, to be produced when required; which atteſted copy ſhall be admitted in evidence, as to ſuch laſt legal ſettlement, before any juſtices of peace, or at any general or quarter ſeſſion of the peace: provided that in caſe any ſoldier be again ſummoned to make oath as aforeſaid, then on ſuch atteſted copy of the oath by him formerly taken being produced, he ſhall not be obliged to take any further oath with regard to his legal ſettlement; but ſhall leave a copy of ſuch atteſted copy of examination, if required. ſ. 33.

It ſhall be lawful to quarter officers and ſoldiers in Scotland as the laws in force in Scotland at the time of the union; and no officer ſhall be obliged to pay for his lodging where he ſhall be regularly billeted, except in the ſuburbs of Edinburgh. ſ. 34.

No paymaſter general, or paymaſter of the army, paymaſter of the marines, ſecretary at war, commiſſary, or muſter maſter, or any other officer or their under officers, ſhall receive any fees, or make any deductions out of the pay of any officer or ſoldier, other than the uſual deductions for clothing, and 12 d. in the pound to be diſpoſed of as his majeſty ſhall think fit, and the one day's pay in the year for the uſe of the royal hoſpital at Cheſſea, and ſuch other neceſſary deductions as ſhall be directed by his majeſty under his ſign manual. ſ. 35.

The commiſſioners of the treaſury may, at the end of every two months, iſſue the money due for the clothing of the ſeveral regiments, &c. notwithſtanding the muſter rolls have not been duly returned. And the paymaſters are to make deductions of all off-reckonings, and to pay the ſame to ſuch perſons only as have a regular aſſignment for clothes delivered to the regiment, &c. and when no ſuch aſſignment appears, the off-reckonings to remain in the hand of the ſaid paymaſter, for the uſe of the regiment, &c. until a new contract for clothing and aſſignment is made. ſ. 36.

Every officer to whom it belongs to receive the pay or ſubſiſtence money, either for a whole regiment, or particular troops and companies, ſhall, upon each receipt, give public notice to all perſons keeping inns, or other places where officers or ſoldiers are quartered, and ſhall appoint the ſaid innkeepers, &c. to repair to their quarters at ſuch times as they ſhall appoint for the payment of the officers or ſoldiers, which ſhall be within 4 days after the receipt of the ſame; and the ſaid innkeepers, &c. ſhall then acquaint ſuch officers with the accounts or debts between them and the officers and ſoldiers quartered in their houſes; which accounts the ſaid officers are required to accept and pay before any of the ſubſiſtence be diſtributed: provided the accounts exceed not, for a commiſſion officer of horſe, under the degree of a captain, for diet and ſmall beer, per diem, 2 s.; nor for one commiſſion officer of dragoons under the degree of a captain, 1 s.; nor for one commiſſion officer of foot, under the degree of a captain, 1 s.; and if ſuch officer have a horſe, for each horſe's hay and ſtraw, per diem, 6 d.; nor for one light horſeman's diet, &c. per diem, 6 d; and hay and ſtraw for his horſe per diem, 6 d.; nor for one dragoon's diet, &c. per diem, 6 d.; and hay and ſtraw for his horſe, per diem, 6 d.; nor for one foot ſoldier's diet per diem, 4 d. And if any officer ſhall not give notice as aforeſaid, and ſhall not, upon producing ſuch account ſtated, pay the ſame, upon complaint and oath made thereof, by two witneſſes, at the next quarter ſeſſions, the paymaſters of his majeſty's guards and garriſons, and marines, are required (upon certificate of the juſtices of the ſum due, and the perſons to whom owing) to ſatisfy the ſaid ſums out of the arrears due to the ſaid officers, upon penalty that ſuch paymaſters ſhall forfeit their places; and in caſe there be no arrears due to the ſaid officers, then the paymaſters are to deduct the ſums they ſhall pay, purſuant to the certificate of the juſtices out of the next ſubſiſtence money of the regiment. And ſuch officers ſhall, for every ſuch offence, or for neglecting to give notice of the receipt of ſuch ſubſiſtence money, be ipſo facto caſhiered. And where the ſubſiſtence money due to any officer or ſoldier ſhall by accident not be paid, or ſuch officer or ſoldier ſhall neglect to pay the ſame, ſo that quarters are not paid; and where any horſe, foot or dragoons, ſhall be upon march, ſo that no ſubſiſtence can be remitted to them, or they ſhall neglect to pay the ſame; every ſuch officer ſhall, before his departure out of his quarters, make up the accounts with every perſon with whom ſuch regiment, &c. ſhall have quartered, and ſign a certificate thereof, and give the ſaid certificate to the party to whom ſuch money is due, with the name of ſuch regiment, &c. to which he belongs; to the end the ſaid certificate may be tranſmitted to the paymaſter of his majeſty's guards and garriſons, or to the paymaſter of the marines, who are to make payment thereof under pain as is before directed for non-payment of quarters. ſ. 37.

No commiſſary ſhall muſter any regiment, &c. within the city of Weſtminſter, and borough of Southwark, and liberties thereof, but in the preſence of two juſtices of peace, not officers of the army, under the before mentioned penalty; unleſs ſuch juſtices, upon forty-eight hours notice given to ſix juſtices, reſiding within the city and liberties aforeſaid, ſhall neglect to attend ſuch muſter; and in caſe of ſuch neglect, ſuch commiſſary may proceed to muſter ſuch regiment, &c. provided oath be made before any juſtice, within forty-eight hours after ſuch muſter taken, that ſuch notice was given to ſix juſtices: which juſtices ſo attending, are hereby empowered to ſign the muſter-rolls, and to take cognizance of ſuch muſter, and to examine the truth thereof. ſ. 38.

It ſhall be lawful for the high conſtables, petty conſtables, headboroughs, and tythingmen, within the city and liberties of Weſtminſter and places adjacent, when required, to billet the officers and ſoldiers of his majeſty's foot guards, in ſuch houſes only as by this act are limited, in and about the city and liberties of Weſtminſter and places adjacent; except the city of London. And when any order ſhall iſſue for the quartering officers or ſoldiers in Weſtminſter, and places adjacent, the high conſtable ſhall deliver out precepts to the ſeveral petty conſtables, headboroughs, or tythingmen of each pariſh and diſtrict, within their reſpective diviſions; and ſuch petty conſtables, &c. ſhall quarter every ſuch officer and ſoldier in houſes ſubjected thereto by this act, in the ſame manner as in other parts of England. ſ. 39.

The petty conſtables, &c. in Weſtminſter, ſhall, at every general quarter ſeſſions of the peace for the city and liberties of Weſtminſter and parts adjacent, deliver to the juſtices in ſeſſions upon oath, liſts ſigned by them reſpectively, of all ſuch houſes, with the number of perſons inhabiting the ſame, within their diſtrict reſpectively, as are ſubject to receive ſoldiers, together with the number of officers and ſoldiers quartered in each houſe; and ſuch liſts ſhall remain with the clerk of the peace of the city and liberties of Weſtminſter, that all perſons may inſpect the ſame without fee; and ſuch clerk ſhall deliver to any perſon who ſhall require the ſame, copies of ſuch liſts, upon being paid two-pence a ſheet, each ſheet to contain one hundred and fifty words; and if neglect be made by any petty conſtable, in delivering ſuch liſt to the quarter ſeſſions, or if he deliver any falſe or defective liſt, not ſpecifying all ſuch houſes, or the names of all officers and ſoldiers quartered in each houſe, ſuch petty conſtable, &c. ſhall for each offence forfeit 5 l. to the uſe of the poor of ſuch reſpective pariſhes, &c. to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant of one juſtice for the city of Weſtminſter, or county of Middleſex, and for want of diſtreſs the juſtice is to commit the perſon offending to the common gaol of the city of Weſtminſter, or county of Middleſex, for any time not exceeding three months, and not leſs than one month. ſ. 40.

The deputy of the commiſſary general ſhall, upon every half yearly muſter, at any place ten miles diſtant from London, cloſe the muſter-rolls of the regiment, &c. within twenty-four hours after ſuch muſter ſhall have been made; and ſhall return the rolls taken, by the poſt, (or other ſafe conveyance), within ſeven days after cloſed, to the office of the commiſſary general of muſters, who ſhall tranſmit one ſet of every of the ſaid rolls to the ſecretary at war, one to the paymaſter-general of the land forces, and one to the comptrollers of the accounts of the army, before 1ſt May, and 29th Sept. following: and no alterations or indorſements ſhall be made in the ſaid muſter-rolls, other than in the caſe of orders of leave, or dates of commiſſions, and other than involuntary errors or literal miſtakes in writing, upon pain of forfeiting their employments, and 20 l. to any perſon that will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 41.

All juſtices of peace, being required by an order from his majeſty, or the general of his forces, or the maſter general or lieutenant-general of his ordnance, ſhall as often as ſuch order is brought unto one of them by the quarter-maſter, adjutant, or other officer of the regiment, detachment, troop, or company ordered to march, iſſue out their warrants to the conſtables, or petty conſtables of the diviſion from, through, near, or to which ſuch regiment, &c. ſhall be ordered to march; requiring them to make ſuch proviſion for carriages with able men to drive the ſame, as is mentioned in the warrant, allowing them time to do the ſame, that the neighbouring parts may not always bear the burthen: and in caſe ſufficient carriages cannot be provided within ſuch liberty or precinct, then the next juſtice of the county, or diviſion, ſhall upon ſuch order being brought, iſſue his warrants to the conſtables, or petty conſtables of ſuch next county or precinct, to make up ſuch deficiency: and the officers, who by virtue of the warrant from the juſtices are to demand the carriages of the conſtable, are at the ſame time to pay to the ſaid conſtable for the uſe of the perſon who ſhall provide ſuch carriages and men, 1 s. for every mile any waggon with five horſes ſhall travel; and 1 s. for every mile any wain with ſix oxen, or four oxen with two horſes, ſhall travel; and 9 d. for every mile any cart with four horſes ſhall travel; and in proportion for leſs carriages; for which the conſtable is to give a receipt; and ſuch conſtable ſhall appoint ſuch perſons, having carriages within their reſpective liberties, as they think proper, to provide ſuch carriages and men, according to the warrant: and if any military officer for the uſe of whoſe troop or company the carriage was provided, ſhall conſtrain any waggon, or carriage, to travel more than one day's journey, or ſhall not diſcharge the ſame in due time for their return home, or ſhall ſuffer any ſoldier or ſervant (except ſuch as are ſick) or any woman to ride in the waggon or carriage, or ſhall force any conſtable by threatenings to provide ſaddle horſes for themſelves or ſervants, or ſhall force horſes from the owners; every ſuch officer ſhall forfeit 5 l. proof being made upon oath before two juſtices; who are to certify the ſame to the paymaſter-general, or other paymaſter, who is to pay the 5 l. according to the order of the juſtices, and deduct the ſame out of ſuch officer's pay. ſ. 42.

If any high conſtable or petty conſtable ſhall wilfully neglect to execute ſuch warrants for providing carriages, or if any perſon appointed by ſuch conſtable to provide any carriage and man, ſhall neglect to provide the ſame; or any other perſon ſhall wilfully do any thing, whereby the execution of the ſaid warrants ſhall be hindered; every perſon ſo offending, ſhall forfeit any ſum not exceeding 40 s. nor leſs then 20 s. to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, and every ſuch offence may be enquired and determined by two juſtices of peace near the place, who have power to cauſe the penalty to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods. ſ. 43.

The treaſurers of each county ſhall without fee, pay unto ſuch conſtable ſuch reaſonable ſums laid out for ſuch carriages, over and above what was paid by the officer requiring ſuch carriages, out of the public ſtock of ſuch county, according to ſuch directions, as the juſtices of peace, in their quarter ſeſſions, ſhall make, which orders ſhall be made without fee. ſ. 44.

In caſe the public ſtock of the county be not ſufficient to ſatisfy the extraordinary charge of carriages, the juſtices of peace in quarter ſeſſions ſhall have power to raiſe monies upon the counties, as they now raiſe monies for county gaols and bridges. ſ. 45.

No waggon, or carriage, impreſſed by authority of this act, ſhall be liable to carry above thirty hundred weight. ſ. 46.

The carriages for the ſervice of the forces quartered or marching in Scotland, ſhall be provided as was directed by the law in force in Scotland at the time of the union. ſ. 47.

If any officer, military or civil, by this act authoriſed to quarter ſoldiers, ſhall quarter any of the wives, children, men, or maid ſervants of any officer or ſoldier, in any houſes againſt the conſent of the owners; the party offending, if an officer of the army, ſhall, upon complaint and proof made to the commander in chief of the army, or judge advocate, be ipſo facto caſhiered; and if a conſtable, or other civil officer, he ſhall forfeit to the party aggrieved 20 s. upon complaint and proof made to the next juſtice of peace, to be levied by warrant of ſuch juſtice, by diſtreſs and ſale of goods. ſ. 48.

If any officer or ſoldier ſhall, without leave of the lord of the manor, under his hand and ſeal, take, kill, or deſtroy, any hare, coney, pheaſant, partridge, pigeon, or any other ſort of fowls, poultry, or fiſh, or his majeſty's game, in Great Britain; and upon complaint thereof ſhall be, upon oath of one witneſs, convicted before any juſtice of peace, every officer ſo offending ſhall forfeit 5 l. to be diſtributed among the poor of the place; and every officer commanding in chief upon the place, for every ſuch offence committed by any ſoldier under his command, ſhall forfeit 20 s. to be diſtributed in manner aforeſaid: and if upon conviction by the juſtices and demand by the conſtable or overſeers of the poor, ſuch officer ſhall not within two days pay the ſaid penalties, he ſhall forfeit his commiſſion. ſ. 49.

Every non-commiſſion officer who ſhall be convicted at a general or regimental court martial, of having embezzled or miſapplied any money with which he may have been entruſted for the payment of the men under his command, or for inliſting men into his majeſty's ſervice, ſhall be reduced to ſerve as a private ſoldier, be put under ſtoppages until the money be made good, and ſuffer ſuch corporal puniſhment (not extending to life or limb) as the court martial ſhall think fit. ſ. 50.

It ſhall be lawful for the conſtable, headborough, or tythingman of the place, where any perſon reaſonably ſuſpected to be a deſerter ſhall be found, to apprehend him, and cauſe him to be brought before a juſtice of peace living near; and if by confeſſion, or the teſtimony of one witneſs upon oath, or by the knowledge of ſuch juſtice it ſhall appear that ſuch perſon is a liſted ſoldier, and ought to be with the troop or company, ſuch juſtice ſhall cauſe him to be conveyed to the gaol of the county or place, or houſe of correction, or to the Savoy in caſe ſuch deſerter be apprehended in London or Weſtminſter, or places adjacent; and tranſmit an account thereof to the ſecretary at war: and the keeper of ſuch gaol ſhall receive the ſubſiſtence of ſuch deſerter during the time he ſhall continue in cuſtody, but ſhall not be intitled to any fee on account of the impriſonment. ſ. 51.

Such juſtice ſhall alſo iſſue his warrant to the collectors of the land-tax of the pariſh where ſuch deſerter ſhall be apprehended, for paying out of the land-tax ariſing in the year 1790, to the perſon who ſhall apprehend any deſerter, 20 s. for every deſerter ſo apprehended. ſ. 52.

If any perſon harbour, conceal, or aſſiſt any deſerter knowing him to be ſuch, he ſhall forfeit for every ſuch offence 5 l. or if any perſon knowingly detain, buy, exchange, or receive, any arms, clothes, caps, or other furniture belonging to the king, from any ſoldier or deſerter, or any other perſon, or cauſe the colour of ſuch clothes to be changed, the perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit for every offence 5 l. and upon conviction by the oath of one witneſs, before any juſtice of peace, the penalties ſhall be levied by warrant of the ſaid juſtice by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, one moiety to the informer, and the reſidue to the officer to whom ſuch ſoldier did belong: and in caſe any offender convicted of harbouring or aſſiſting any deſerter, or having knowingly received any arms, &c. belonging to the king, or cauſed the colour of ſuch clothes to be changed, ſhall not have ſufficient goods, or ſhall not pay ſuch penalties within four days after conviction, the juſtice ſhall by warrant either commit ſuch offender to the common gaol for three months, or cauſe ſuch offender to be publicly whipt. ſ. 53.

No commiſſion officer ſhall break open any houſe to ſearch for deſerters, without warrant from a juſtice of peace; and every commiſſion officer who ſhall without warrant forcibly enter into, or break open, the dwelling-houſe or out-houſes of any perſon under pretence of ſearching for deſerters, ſhall upon proof thereof forfeit 20 l. ſ. 54.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, to form articles of war for the better government of his forces. ſ. 55.

And to erect courts martial, with power to try, hear, and determine any offences by ſuch articles of war, and inflict penalties by ſentence of the ſame, as well within Great Britain, Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark and Man, and the iſlands thereto belonging, as in Gibraltar, and dominions beyond the ſeas. ſ. 56.

Provided no perſon be adjudged to ſuffer any puniſhment extending to life or limb, by the ſaid articles of war, within Great Britain, Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark and Man, and the iſlands thereto belonging, for any crime not expreſſed to be ſo puniſhable by this act. ſ. 57.

If any officer or ſoldier, beyond the ſeas commit any offences triable by courts martial by this act, and be brought into this realm Jerſey, &c. ſuch officer or ſoldier ſhall be tried and puniſhed for the ſame, as if the offence had been committed within this realm. ſ. 58.

No

No perſon acquitted or convicted of any capital crimes, by the civil magiſtrate, ſhall be liable to be puniſhed by a court martial for the ſame, otherwiſe than by caſhiering. ſ. 59.

If any officer, non-commiſſion officer or ſoldier be accuſed of any capital crime, or of any violence or offence againſt the perſon or property of any ſubject puniſhable by the known laws of the land; the commanding officer of every regiment, troop, company, or party, is required to uſe his utmoſt endeavours to deliver over ſuch accuſed perſon to the civil magiſtrate; and ſhall alſo be aſſiſting to the officers of juſtice in the apprehending ſuch offender: and if ſuch commanding officer ſhall wilfully neglect upon application to deliver over any ſuch accuſed perſon to the civil magiſtrate, or to be aſſiſting to the officers of juſtice in apprehending ſuch offender, ſuch officer being convicted before two juſtices of peace for the county where the fact is committed, by the oath of two witneſſes, ſhall be ipſo facto caſhiered, and diſabled to hold any civil or military office in his majeſty's ſervice; provided the conviction be affirmed at the next quarter ſeſſions, and a certificate thereof tranſmitted to the judge advocate, who is to certify the ſame to the next court martial. ſ. 60.

Every paymaſter, agent, or clerk of any garriſon, regiment, troop, or company, liable to account with the executors and adminiſtrators of every officer or ſoldier, for the pay of ſuch officer or ſoldier, ſhall on reaſonable demand deliver an account to ſuch executor or adminiſtrator, of ſuch money as he ſhall have received for ſuch officer or ſoldier, ſuch executor, &c. paying for the ſame; and ſhall account with ſuch executor, &c. And every ſuch paymaſter, &c. offending herein, ſhall forfeit the like penalties as appointed for colonels or agents not giving accounts of the pay to ſuch officers and ſoldiers themſelves. ſ. 61.

If any action be brought for any thing done in purſuance of this act, it ſhall be lawful for any perſon ſued to plead the general iſſue: and if the verdict paſs with the defendant, &c. the judge, before whom the matter ſhall be tried, ſhall allow the defendant treble coſts. ſ. 62.

Every ſuit for any thing done in purſuance of this act, or againſt any member or miniſter of a court martial, in reſpect of any ſentence of ſuch court, or of any thing done in purſuance of ſuch ſentence, ſhall be brought in ſome of the courts of record at Weſtminſter, or the court of ſeſſion in Scotland. ſ. 63.

For offences committed againſt 1 Geo. 1. c. 47. within England, the penalties ſhall be recoverable in any court of record at Weſtminſter; and for ſuch offences committed in Scotland, in his majeſty's courts of exchequer in Scotland; and for ſuch offences committed in Guernſey, Alderney, and Sark, and the iſlands thereto belonging, in the royal court of Guernſey; and for ſuch offences committed in Jerſey, in the royal court of Jerſey, and for offences committed within the iſlands of Man, in any of the courts of record in the ſaid iſland, or in any court of record at Weſtminſter. ſ. 64.

No volunteer ſoldier, either in Great Britain, Ireland, Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, or Sark, or the iſlands thereto belonging, or in any of his majeſty's plantations, ſhall be liable to be taken out of his majeſty's ſervice by any proceſs or execution, other than for ſome criminal matter, unleſs for a real debt, or other juſt cauſe of action; and unleſs before the taking out of ſuch proceſs or execution (not for a criminal matter) the plaintiff, or ſome perſon on his behalf, make affidavit before a judge of the court, out of which ſuch proceſs ſhall iſſue, or ſome perſon authoriſed to take affidavits in ſuch courts, that to his knowledge the original ſum juſtly due to the plaintiff from the defendant, amounts to the value of 10*l.* over and above all coſts of ſuit, a memorandum of which oath ſhall be marked on the back of ſuch proceſs; for which memorandum or oath no fee ſhall be taken. And if any perſon ſhall be arreſted contrary to this act, it ſhall be lawful for one judge of ſuch court, upon complaint by the party, or his ſuperior officer, to examine into the ſame by the oath of the parties, or otherwiſe, and by warrant to diſcharge ſuch ſoldier, without fee, upon proof before him that ſuch ſoldier was legally liſted, and arreſted contrary to this act, and alſo to award to the party complaining, ſuch coſts as he ſhall think reaſonable; for the recovery whereof, he ſhall have the like remedy that the plaintiff might have had for his coſts. ſ. 65.

It ſhall be lawful for any plaintiff, upon notice given in writing of the cauſe of action to ſuch perſon ſo liſted, or left at his laſt place of reſidence before ſuch liſting, to file a common appearance in any action upon account of any debt, ſo as to intitle ſuch plaintiff to proceed to judgment and outlawry, and to have an execution thereupon, other than againſt the body of him ſo liſted. ſ. 66.

Soldiers confined for debt ſhall not be intitled to any pay until the day of return to the regiment, &c. ſ. 67.

If any high conſtable, conſtable, beadel, or other officer, or perſon, who by colour of this act ſhall quarter any officers or ſoldiers, ſhall neglect, for two hours, to quarter ſuch officers or ſoldiers when required, provided ſufficient notice be given before the arrival of ſuch troops; or ſhall receive, demand, or agree for any money or reward for excuſing any perſon from quartering any ſuch officer or ſoldier; or in caſe any perſon, liable to have any officer or ſoldier quartered on him, ſhall refuſe to receive or victual ſuch officer or ſoldier, or to allow according to this act the things before directed, or ſhall neglect to furniſh good and ſufficient hay and ſtraw for each horſe ſo quartered at the rate beforementioned, and ſhall be convicted before any juſtice of peace of the county, &c. within which ſuch offence ſhall be committed, either by confeſſion, or by oath of one witneſs; every perſon ſo offending, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch offence, any ſum not exceeding 5*l.* nor leſs than 40*s.* to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant of ſuch juſtice directed to any conſtable within the county or liberty, or to any of the overſeers of the poor of the pariſh where the offender dwells, the ſaid ſum to be applied in the firſt place in making ſatisfaction to any ſoldier for the expence he may have been put to in not being quartered as ſuch juſtice ſhall direct, and the remainder ſhall be paid to the overſeers of the poor of the pariſh wherein the offence ſhall be committed, for the uſe of the poor. ſ. 68.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of peace, within their reſpective counties, &c. by warrant, to require any high conſtable, conſtable, beadel, or other officer, who ſhall quarter any ſoldiers, to give an account in writing unto the ſaid juſtice, of the number of officers and ſoldiers quartered by them, and the names of the perſons, upon whom quartered, with an account of the place where ſuch houſekeeper dwells, and of the ſigns belonging to their houſes. ſ. 69.

Where any troops or parties have occaſion in their march to paſs regular ferries in Scotland, it ſhall be lawful for the commanding officer, either to paſs over with his party as paſſengers, or to hire the ferry boat entire; and in caſe he ſhall take paſſage for himſelf and party as paſſengers, he ſhall only pay for himſelf, and each perſon, half the ordinary rate; and in caſe he ſhall hire the ferry boat, he ſhall pay half the ordinary rate for ſuch boat; and where there are no regular ferries, officers, without or without parties, are to agree for boats as other perſons. ſ. 70.

When any perſon ſhall be inliſted as a ſoldier, he ſhall within four days, but not ſooner than twenty-four hours, after ſuch inliſting, be carried before the next juſtice of peace, or chief magiſtrate of any city or town corporate (not being an officer in the army) and before ſuch juſtice or chief magiſtrate, he ſhall be at liberty to declare his diſſent to ſuch inliſting; and upon ſuch declaration, and returning the inliſting money, and paying 20*s.* for charges, ſuch perſon ſhall be diſcharged in the preſence of ſuch juſtice; but if ſuch perſon neglect within twenty-four hours to return and pay ſuch money, he ſhall be deemed inliſted, as if he had given his aſſent before the juſtice; or if ſuch perſon declare his having voluntarily inliſted himſelf, then ſuch juſtice ſhall certify under his hand, that ſuch perſon is duly inliſted; ſetting forth the place of the birth, age, and calling (if known) and that the ſecond and ſixth ſections of the articles of war againſt mutiny and deſertion were read to him, and that he had taken the oath mentioned in the articles of war; and if any perſon ſo to be certified ſhall refuſe to take the ſaid oath of fidelity before the ſaid juſtice, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch officer, from whom he has received ſuch money, to confine ſuch perſon until he ſhall take the oath; and every military officer that ſhall offend herein, ſhall incur the like penalty as is inflicted upon any officer for making a falſe muſter, to be recovered as any penalties by this act. ſ. 71.

If any perſon ſhall receive the inliſting money from any officer (knowing it to be ſuch) and ſhall abſcond or refuſe to go before ſuch juſtice to declare his aſſent or diſſent, ſuch perſon ſhall be deemed inliſted, and may be proceeded againſt, as if he had taken the oath directed by the articles of war to be taken before ſuch juſtice or chief magiſtrate. ſ. 72.

Offences againſt any acts for puniſhing mutiny and deſertion, or any of the articles of war, may, during the continuance of this act, be inquired of, tried, adjudged, and puniſhed, by the like methods, as the like offences againſt this act. ſ. 73.

No perſon ſhall be puniſhed for any offence againſt any of the ſaid acts, or articles of war, committed more than three years before the iſſuing of the commiſſion for ſuch trial; unleſs the perſon accuſed, by reaſon of having abſented himſelf, or ſome other impediment, ſhall not have been amenable to juſtice within that period; in which caſe ſuch perſon ſhall be tried within two years after the impediment ſhall have ceaſed. ſ. 74.

The officers and perſons employed in the ſeveral trains of artillery ſhall be ſubject to all the penalties in this act, and ſhall in all reſpects be holden to be within the meaning of every part of this act. ſ. 75.

All officers and ſoldiers of any troops in pay, raiſed in any of the Britiſh provices in America, by authority of the reſpective governors or governments thereof, ſhall when they act in conjunction with his majeſty's Britiſh forces, be liable to martial law and diſcipline, in like manner as the Britiſh forces, and ſhall be ſubject to the ſame trial and puniſhments. ſ. 76.

And whereas the officers and ſoldiers of the ſaid troops, being taken priſoners in America, are frequently ſent over to Great Britain, it ſhall be lawful for the conſtables, and other civil magiſtrates, within England, Wales, and Berwick, to quarter the officers and ſoldiers of the American troops in all ſuch houſes as are liable to receive his majeſty's Britiſh forces: and all perſons on whom the officers and ſoldiers of the ſaid troops ſhall be legally quartered, refuſing to receive and provide for them as is directed for his majeſty's forces, ſhall be ſubject to the ſame penalties as in the caſe of the Britiſh forces. ſ. 77.

Where any corps beyond ſeas ſhall be relieved in order to return home, ſuch of the men as ſhall chooſe, may be inliſted, and incorporated with thoſe appointed to remain; and the occaſion of quitting ſuch former corps to be recited in inliſting certificate. ſ. 78.

This act ſhall extend to Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and the iſlands thereto belonging, as to the clauſes for muſtering and paying, and puniſhment of officers and ſoldiers charged with mutiny or deſertion, or other offences puniſhable by general court martial; and alſo to the clauſes which relate to the puniſhment of perſons who ſhall conceal deſerters, or ſhall knowingly buy, exchange, or receive, any arms, clothes, caps, or furniture, belonging to the king, or any regimental neceſſaries, from any ſoldier or deſerter, or who ſhall cauſe the colour of ſuch clothes to be exchanged. ſ. 79.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any of the militia forces of this kingdom, or Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, excepting only in ſuch caſe wherein, by any act for regulating the militia, the proviſions in this or any act for puniſhing mutiny and deſertion, are extended to the militia, and alſo except ſo far as relates to the muſtering of the militia, according to the proviſions after mentioned. ſ. 80.

When neceſſary, it ſhall be lawful for officers of the land and marine forces to ſit in conjunction upon courts martial, and to proceed in the trial of any officer or ſoldier of the land forces, as if ſuch courts martial were compoſed of officers of the land forces only; and the officers of land and marine forces are to rank according to the ſeniority of their commiſſions in either ſervice. ſ. 81.

Officers of the king's forces, and officers in the Eaſt India company's ſervice, may ſit in conjunction at courts martial, &c. and proceed as if ſuch courts martial were compoſed of officers of his majeſty's land forces, or of officers in the ſervice of the company, only: with this diſtinction, that, upon the trial of any officer or ſoldier of his majeſty's land forces, regard ſhall be had to the regulations made by this act; and the oaths adminiſtered to the court martial ſhall be in the terms by this act preſcribed: and upon the trial of any officer or ſoldier in the ſervice of the company, regard ſhall be had to the regulations made by 27 Geo. 2. c. 9. See EAST INDIA COMPANY, in PART I. page 140. ſ. 82.

Every regiment or corps of militia and fencible men, when embodied and in actual ſervice, ſhall be regularly muſtered by commiſſaries appointed for that purpoſe, in the ſame manner, and as often as the army is muſtered; and the magiſtrates ſhall have the ſame powers, and both officers and men ſhall be ſubject to the ſame regulations, as are impoſed on officers and ſoldiers of the army by this act. ſ. 83.

The officer commanding each regiment or corps of militia, or fencible men, ſhall certify, on the back of the muſter-roll, the names of thoſe men who are within ſix months of the time of the expiration of their ſervice, and alſo the number of men which have been inrolled ſince the laſt muſter, diſtinguiſhing the ballotted men from the ſubſtitutes; and every man ſo inrolled ſhall be intituled to receive his pay from the time of his inrollment. ſ. 84.

Perſons convicted of offences by which they become liable to pecuniary penalties under this act, the following ſhall be the form of conviction: ſ. 85.

Middleſex. BE it remembered, that on the ——— day of ——— in the year of our Lord ——— at ——— in ——— in the county aforeſaid, A. B. came before us C. D. and E. F. two of his majeſty's juſtices of the peace in and for the ſaid county, and informed us, upon oath, that G. Given, &c.

This act ſhall continue in force within Great Britain, from 24th March 1790, until 25th March 1791, and ſhall continue in force in Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark and Man, and the iſlands thereto belonging, from the 30th April, 1790, until 1ſt May in the year 1791; and ſhall continue in force within Gibraltar and in his majeſty's other dominions beyond the ſeas from 24th March 1790, until 25th March 1791. ſ. 86.

An act paſſes annually for the regulation of the marine forces while on ſhore whereby they are made ſubject to proviſions ſimilar to the foregoing.

South Sea Company.

By 9 Ann. c. 21. To make a proviſion for the public debts and deficiencies, which to 25th Dec. 1711, amounted to 8,971,325 l., and for raiſing the further ſum 500,000*l.* for the ſervice of the year, which makes the total amount to 9,471,325 l. and for paying an intereſt or annuity of ſix per cent. until the principal be paid as herein is mentioned which doth amount to the annual ſum of 568,279 l. 10 s. Certain duties in this act ſpecified were appropriated; but ſuch duties having been ſince repealed and conſolidated by 27 Geo. 3. c. 13. theſe incumbrances are now charged on the conſolidated fund. See general title, FUNDS.

Every year for ever, reckoning the year to begin from the 25th of Dec. the annual ſum of 568,279 l. 10 s. of the monies to ariſe by the duties, ſhall be the yearly fund for anſwering the annuities in this act expreſſed. ſ. 20.

All the money ariſing by the duties, or ſo much thereof as ſhall be ſufficient, ſhall be appropriated for the raiſing the ſaid yearly fund, and ſhall be iſſued out at the receipt of the exchequer without fee; and the officers in the exchequer, who ſhall make any delay in iſſuing the ſaid money, or ſhall be guilty of diverting the ſaid monies to any other uſe, ſhall be forejudged from their offices, and be rendered incapable to ſerve her majeſty in any office of truſt or profit; and alſo ſhall pay double the value of any ſum delayed or miſapplied to any perſon grieved thereby, and who will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 21.

In caſe the ſaid duties ſhall be ſo deficient as that within any one year the ſaid payments ſhall not be ſufficient to ſatisfy the ſaid yearly ſum of 568,279 l. 10 s. ſuch deficiency ſhall be made good out of the next aids to be granted by parliament. ſ. 22.

In caſe there ſhall be any ſurplus of the duties at the end of any year, ſuch ſurplus ſhall be applied towards diſcharging the principal of the capital ſtock of the intended company; and the yearly ſum of 568,279 l. 10 s. ſhall be abated in proportion. ſ. 23.

Upon one year's notice, upon re-payment by parliament of the principal ſum of which the capital ſtock of the intended company ſhall conſiſt, and of all arrears of the ſaid annuities, the duties hereby appropriated may be diſpoſed of by parliament, and the ſaid yearly fund charged thereupon ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 24.

It ſhall be lawful for her majeſty, by letters patent, to incorporate all perſons intitled to any of the public debts, deficiencies, or ſums of money, provided for by this act, with power to chooſe their governor, directors, and other officers; and the perſons ſo incorporated ſhall be capable in law to purchaſe and retain, to them and their ſucceſſors, lands and hereditaments not exceeding the yearly value of 1000 l. ſ. 25.

It ſhall be lawful for her majeſty, by the ſaid letters patent, or by commiſſion under the great ſeal, to direct how the tallies or debentures, provided for by this act, and the money intended to be made part of the capital ſtock of the ſaid corporation, ſhall be ſubſcribed into or made part of the ſaid capital ſtock; and alſo to direct how the officers of the exchequer may know how much the capital ſtock of the company doth conſiſt, that the officers may know whether they are to pay to the caſhier of the company the whole annual ſum of 568,279 l. 10 s. or only a proportionable part. ſ. 26.

If it appear that the joint ſtock of the company ſhall amount to more than 9,471,325 l. ſo that the annuity for the ſame ſhall amount to more than 568,279 l. 10 s., then there ſhall be added to the ſaid annual ſum ſo much more as ſhall make the ſame amount to 6 l. per cent. per ann. upon the whole capital ſtock, and ſuch additional annuity ſhall be chargeable upon the ſaid funds. ſ. 34.

Over and above the ſaid annual ſum, there ſhall be paid to the ſaid commpany the further annual ſum of 8000 l. for charge of management out of the ſame funds. ſ. 35.

It ſhall be lawful for her majeſty, by any commiſſion, or letters patent, under the great ſeal, to direct how the ſhares of every perſon in the ſtock of the company ſhall be tranſferable to ſuch perſons as ſhall freely and voluntarily accept of the ſame; and all transferrences made in ſuch manner, and no other, ſhall be good in law. ſ. 36.

The eſtates and ſtocks of the ſaid company, and the ſhares of each member therein, ſhall be perſonal and not real eſtate, and ſhall go to executors or adminiſtrators, and not to the heirs. ſ. 37.

The annuities iſſuing out of the ſaid yearly fund, or the ſhares of any members of the company in the capital ſtock of the ſame, or in the benefit of trade to be annexed thereto, or the ſtock or money to be raiſed for that purpoſe, ſhall be exempted from taxes. ſ. 38.

No member of the company ſhall, in reſpect of his being a member, governor, or director, or having any ſtock therein, be diſabled from being a member of parliament, or liable to be a bankrupt; and no ſtock in the company ſhall be liable to foreign attachment. ſ. 42.—The three laſt ſections are repeated in the ſubſequent acts for enlarging the South-ſea funds.

It ſhall not be lawful for the corporation to borrow, owe, or take up, any money on their bills or notes payable at demand, or at any leſs time than ſix months; and it ſhall not not be lawful for the corporation to diſcount bills or notes, or to keep books or caſh for any perſon, other than the books and caſh of the corporation. ſ. 43.

The ſaid yearly fund ſhall (under the penalties aforeſaid) be iſſued at the receipt of exchequer to the ſaid company, and the payment thereof ſhall be made weekly, ſo as by ſuch payments the whole of the annuities due to the company at the end of any quarter, be not exceeded. ſ. 44.

The corporation to be erected ſhall have for ever, the the ſole trade to and from all places of America, on the eaſt ſide thereof, from the river of Aranoca to the ſouthernmoſt part of the Terra del Fuego; and on the weſt ſide thereof, from the ſouthernmoſt part of the Terra del Fuego through the South Seas, to the northernmoſt part of America; and to all places within the ſaid limits, reputed to belong to the crown of Spain, or which ſhall hereafter be diſcovered, not exceeding 300 leagues from the continent of America, between the ſouthernmoſt part of Terra del Fuego and the northernmoſt part of America on the weſt ſide (except the kingdom of Brazil, and ſuch other places on the eaſt ſide of America as are in poſſeſſion of the crown of Portugal, and the country of Surinam in the poſſeſſion of the States General) it being intended that it may be lawful for all the ſubjects of her majeſty to trade to any part on the eaſt ſide of America, now in the poſſeſſion of the crown of Portugal, or the States General. ſ. 46.

The ſaid company, and every perſon licenſed by the ſaid corporation, may for ever traffic to and from the South Seas, and other parts within the limits aforeſaid. ſ. 47.

It ſhall be lawful for her majeſty, by her charter of incorporation, to empower the company to make laws for the good government of the ſaid trade, and to inflict puniſhments by impriſonments, mulcts, fines, and amercements, for breaches thereof, and to levy ſuch mulcts, &c. to the uſe of the company. ſ. 48.

If any of the ſubjects of her majeſty, other than the company, or their factors or ſervants, or perſons by them licenſed, ſhall viſit or frequent, trade or adventure unto or from the South Seas, or other the parts within the limits aforeſaid, or ſhall freight or fit out any ſhip, or lade any goods, with intent to trade to or from the South Seas, or other parts within the limits aforeſaid; every ſuch offender ſhall incur the forfeiture of all ſhips employed in ſuch trade, and all the goods laden thereupon, and all the proceed of the ſame, and alſo double the value thereof, one-fourth part to her majeſty, one-fourth part to ſuch as will ſeize or ſue for the ſame, and the other two fourth parts to the uſe of the company; ſuch penalty to be recovered with coſts in any of her majeſty's courts of record. ſ. 49.

The company ſhall have all the iſlands, cities, forts, towns, and places, which they, their factors or ſervants, or other perſons licenſed by them to trade, or ſuch of the ſhips of her majeſty as ſhe ſhall allow for the defence of the trade, ſhall diſcover or poſſeſs within the limits aforeſaid, to be holden of her majeſty in free and common ſocage, by fealty, and rendering to her majeſty the annual rent of one ounce of gold for the ſame, if demanded. ſ. 50.

The company ſhall have all ſhips and goods which ſhall be taken as prize by the ſhips employed or licenſed by the company within the limits aforeſaid, or by ſuch ſhips of her majeſty as ſhe ſhall allow for the defence of the trade, without any account; ſave only that the officers and ſeamen on board the ſaid ſhips of her majeſty, which ſhall be aſſiſting to the taking any ſuch ſhips or goods as prize, ſhall have ſuch ſhare thereof as her majeſty ſhall direct by the charter of incorporation. And it ſhall be lawful for the company and their ſervants, and other perſons employed or licenſed by them, to ſeize by force of arms, the perſons, ſhips, goods, or effects of any of the ſubjects of her majeſty who ſhall frequent, trade, or adventure into the South Seas or other the limits aforeſaid, and to detain to the uſe of the company, the ſhips, goods, and effects, ſo ſeized, and to ſend into Great Britain, the perſons of ſuch of the ſubjects of her majeſty as ſhall be ſo ſeized, in order to their being proſecuted according to law. ſ. 51.

In caſe any commanders or officers of ſuch ſhips of her majeſty, as ſhall be employed in ſecuring the ſaid trade, ſhall not conform themſelves to ſuch inſtructions as they ſhall receive from the directors of the the company in writing, every ſuch commander and officer ſhall be for ever incapable to ſerve her majeſty in any place of truſt or profit, and ſhall pay to the company double the value of all ſuch damage as the company ſhall ſuſtain by the breach of ſuch orders, to be recovered with coſts, in any court of record of her majeſty. ſ. 52.

All ſuch perſons as ſhall be born on board any of the ſhips employed about the ſaid trade, or in any the places which ſhall be diſcovered or poſſeſſed by the company, ſhall be deemed natural-born ſubjects. ſ. 53.

No ſhip which ſhall belong to, or be freighted by the company, or perſons licenſed by them to trade within the limits aforeſaid, ſhall be ſtopped or detained by any embargo or other reſtraint, unleſs ſuch ſhips be particularly named in ſuch embargo. ſ. 54.

It ſhall be lawful for her majeſty, by letters patent, to grant unto the company ſuch further powers as ſhe ſhall think fit for the encouraging the ſaid trade, ſo as ſuch powers, &c. be not contrary to the laws of this realm, or the prerogative of the crown, or the privileges of the governor and company of the bank of England. ſ. 55.

Upon importation of any goods by the company, and in all other caſes where ſecurity is required to be given by the company to the crown, it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners and officers of the cuſtoms, to take ſuch ſecurity by bonds under the common ſeal of the company. ſ. 56.

All bonds under the common ſeal of the company ſhall charge, as well the annual fund payable to the company, as the other ſtock and effects of the company; and all bonds under the common ſeal, whereby the company ſhall oblige themſelves to pay any money, ſhall be aſſignable at law, by indorſement upon ſuch bond, under the hand of the perſon to whom ſuch money ſhall in ſuch bond be made payable, his executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, and not otherwiſe; and every ſuch aſſignee may, in failure of payment, maintain his action of debt againſt the company as if ſuch bond had been made to ſuch aſſignee. And if any perſon ſhall counterfeit the common ſeal of the company, or ſhall forge or alter any bond, under the common ſeal of the company, or ſhall offer to diſpoſe of any ſuch forged or altered bond (knowing the ſame to be ſuch), or ſhall demand the money therein contained, or any part thereof, of the company, or their officers (knowing ſuch bond to be forged, &c.) with intent to defraud the company, or any other perſon, every perſon ſo offending (and being convicted) ſhall be guilty of felony, and ſuffer death without benefit of clergy. ſ. 57.—This clauſe is re-enacted in the ſubſequent acts.

It ſhall not be lawful for the company to ſail into any the limits beyond the ſouthernmoſt part of Terra del Fuego, except only through the ſtraits of Magellan, or round Terra del del Fuego, nor to go from thence into the Eaſt Indies, nor return to Great Britain, or any place in Europe, Aſia, Africa, and America, by any other way except through the ſtraits of Magellan, or by Terra del Fuego; and it ſhall not be lawful for the company, or any perſon licenſed by them, to trade in any goods of the product or manufacture of the Eaſt Indies, Perſia, China, or any other places within the limits granted to the united company of merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, and not granted to the corporation to be erected by virtue of this act, or with any ſhips coming from the places aforeſaid; ſuch India goods as ſhall be exported from Great Britain, and alſo ſuch gold, ſilver, wrought plate, and goods, that are the produce or manufactures of the Weſt Indies, or continent of America excepted. And it ſhall not be lawful for the company intended to be erected, or any perſons licenſed by them, to ſend any ſhip within the South Seas, from Terra del Fuego, to the northernmoſt part of America, above 300 leagues to the weſtward of the ſhores of Chili, Peru, Mexico, California, or any other the lands of America contained between Terra del Fuego and the northernmoſt part of America, upon pain that all ſuch ſhips going in or returning from the South Seas, otherwiſe than as aforeſaid, and all the goods on board them, and likewiſe all the goods of the Eaſt Indies, Perſia, China, or other the limits aforeſaid, ſo traded in, may be ſeized, and double the value thereof ſhall alſo be forfeited by the owners or employers thereof; one third part of which forfeitures to be to her majeſty, and other two third parts to the united company of merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, to be recovered with coſts in any of her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 58.

It ſhall be lawful for her majeſty, by her letters patent, to direct a ſtock, to conſiſt of 20*s.* upon every 100*l.* of the capital ſtock of the intended company, to be raiſed by the members thereof, in proportion to their ſtock, in ſuch manner as her majeſty ſhall direct, ſo as no other of her majeſty's ſubjects be thereby excluded from the fiſhing trade; the ſaid ſtock to be kept apart, and employed in the improving and carrying on the fiſhery, for the benefit of the company. ſ. 59.

Provided that no money ſhall be called in from the members of the corporation for carrying on the fiſhery, or other trade hereby granted, but by order of a general court of the company, called for that purpoſe, and whereof there ſhall be 14 days notice in the London Gazette. ſ. 60.

No perſon ſhall be elected governor, deputy-governor, or director of the ſaid corporation, during the time that he ſhall be governor, &c. of the bank, or of the united company of merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies; and every perſon elected governor, deputy-governor, or director, of the ſaid corporation, ſhall, during the time he ſhall be ſuch governor, &c. be incapable of being choſen governor, &c. of the bank, or of the Eaſt India company. ſ. 61.

By 10 Ann. c. 19. It ſhall be lawful for the treaſurers of the navy and ordnance, and the paymaſters of the guards, garriſons, and land forces, or any other officers or perſons who ſhall be entitled to any ſhares of the capital ſtock of the governor and company of merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas and other parts of America and for encouraging the fiſhery, for the public uſe, by warrant from three of the commiſſioners of the treaſury, to borrow any ſums of money upon credit of the ſaid public ſtock, and to mortgage ſuch ſtock to the lenders. ſ. 185.

All the money borrowed upon the credit of ſuch ſtock ſhall be applied by the ſaid treaſurers, &c. to ſuch public uſes whereunto the ſtock to be mortgaged would have been applicable. ſ. 186.

By 10 Ann. c. 30. Upon one year's notice upon repayment by parliament of the principal ſum, of which the capital ſtock of the company ſhall conſiſt, and of all arrears of the annuities, the duties by the act 9 Ann. c. 21. appropriated, may be diſpoſed of by parliament, and the ſaid yearly fund, and the annuities out of the ſame ſhall ceaſe; but the corporation, after ſuch redemption of the yearly fund, ſhall continue for ever, and enjoy all forts, factories, and acquiſitions, that they ſhall erect and make within the limits preſcribed by the ſaid act, and the lands that ſhall be by them purchaſed in Great Britain not exceeding 1000*l. per annum*; and the members thereof ſhall have the ſole benefit of trade to the South Seas, and all other benefits, as if no ſuch redemption were had; and after ſuch redemption of the ſaid yearly fund by parliament, or after one moiety thereof ſhall be redeemed, the ſaid governor and company may, by by-laws, made in their general court, direct what ſhare in the remaining capital ſtock, and ſtock in trade, ſhall qualify the members to vote in any general court, and for electing a governor, ſub-governor, deputy-governor, and for the being elected in the ſaid offices.—This proviſion is re-enacted in the ſeveral ſubſequent clauſes of redemption.

By 1 Geo. 1. ſtat. 2. c. 21. The ſum of 822,023*l.* 4*s.* 8*d.* ſhall be added to the capital ſtock of the South-Sea company, which, with the ſame addition, doth amount to 10,000,000*l.* and the treaſurer of the navy ſhall write the ſaid ſum of 822,032*l.* 4*s.* 8*d.* in the company's book as part of the capital ſtock, and the ſaid additional ſtock ſhall be transferable, and have the ſame dividends, and be ſubject to the ſame rules, as the reſt of the capital ſtock. ſ. 1.

All the revenues which by 9 Ann. c. 21. were appropriated for anſwering the yearly fund to be adjuſted by that act, as they ſhall ſeverally take effect, ſhall be applied for making good all payments which ſhall grow due on the increaſed fund, and the yearly ſum of 8000*l.* for management, under ſuch penalties for miſapplying or detaining any monies applicable to the payments by this act directed, as by the ſaid act 9 Ann. c. 21. or any other act relating thereto. ſ. 5.

The commiſſioner of the treaſury ſhall quarterly, at the four uſual feaſts, or within twenty days after, cauſe an account to be made of all the monies which, within the quarter then ended, ſhall have come into the exchequer, of the ſaid duties; and if the monies ſhall appear to fall ſhort of one-fourth part of the yearly ſums of 600,000*l.* (being the intereſt of the ten millions at 6 per cent.) and 8000*l.* for the preceding quarter; then every ſum ſo deficient ſhall, on demand made by the company or their caſhier by writing, left for the treaſurer of the navy at his pay office, or within 20 days after ſuch demand be made good by the ſaid treaſurer, out of any monies then in his hands, or firſt coming into his hands, for the ſervice of the navy, with preference to all other payments: and the treaſurer of the navy is required, (in default of money,) to diſpoſe of any tallies, orders, or other parliamentary ſecurities, as ſhall be in his hands, for the ſervice of the navy, to diſcharge the deficiency due to the company, and within 20 days after ſuch demand to pay the ſame in money. ſ. 6.

If any treaſurer of the navy ſhall delay to make ſuch payment of any public monies which ſhall be in his hands, or (in default of money) to diſpoſe of any the tallies, &c. and to apply the money for making good ſuch deficiency, he ſhall forfeit his office, and be liable to pay to the company the value of every ſum ſo neglected to be paid, with treble damages and full coſts, to be recovered in any of his majeſty's courts of record, wherein no privilege of parliament, &c. ſhall be allowed. ſ. 7.

There ſhall be annually, within 20 days after 25th Dec. an eſtimate in writing made by the treaſury, by a medium of three preceding years, of how much the revenues ſettled for payment of the ſaid yearly fund of 600,000 l. and 8000 l. will produce, from the 25th Dec. preceding ſuch account, and ending the 25th Dec. ſucceeding the ſame, and how much it is like to fall ſhort; and the treaſury ſhall cauſe ſuch eſtimate to be laid before the commons in parliament, if ſitting, otherwiſe at their next ſeſſion, that ſufficient proviſion may be made for the navy for that year. ſ. 8.

On one year's notice, on repayment by the parliament of the ſaid 10,000,000 l. and of all arrears of the ſaid yearly ſums of 600,000 l. and 8000 l. all the duties by 9 Ann. c. 21. appropriated, may be diſpoſed of by parliament, and the ſaid yearly fund of 600,000 l. and 8000 l. ſhall ceaſe; but the corporation ſhall continue for ever, and enjoy all ſuch forts, factories, and other benefits, &c. to which they would have been entitled by 10 Ann. c. 30. in caſe the redemption were made purſuant to that act. ſ. 9.

By 3 Geo. 1. c. 9. After the nativity of St. John Baptiſt 1718, the ſaid yearly fund of 600,000 l. ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 2.

The ſaid company ſhall have a yearly fund of 500,000 l. and the ſaid 8000 l. per annum, charged on the duties, &c. which by 9 Ann. c. 21. were chargeable with the ſaid former yearly payments, and paid quarterly out of the duties before mentioned. ſ. 3.

Orders ſhall be ſigned by the treaſury for payment of the monies to be paid to the company; which orders ſhall be effectual, and not determinable on the death or removal of any commiſſioners of the treaſury, nor ſhall any commiſſioners of the treaſury, &c. have power to revoke ſuch order. ſ. 8.

Weekly, or otherwiſe, as monies of the ſaid duties, &c. ſhall be brought into the exchequer, ſuch monies ſhall be iſſued on ſuch orders, ſo as ſuch weekly or other payments do not exceed the ſum of the quarterly payment which ſhall grow due at the end of each quarter. ſ. 9. — Theſe two laſt paragraphs are re-enacted in the ſubſequent acts under this title.

If the produce of the ſaid duties, &c. ſhall be ſo deficient, that the money ariſing thereby ſhall not extend to complete the payment at the end of any quarter, the deficiency of ſuch quarter ſhall be ſupplied out of the overplus of the ſaid duties in any ſubſequent quarter; and in default thereof by the ſpace of half a year, ſuch deficiencies ſhall be made good out of the general fund, or out of money to be raiſed at the exchequer for purchaſing annuities at 5 l. per cent. for every ſuch deficiency; which annuities ſhall be charged on the general fund, and be payable and transferable at the bank of England, till redemption by parliament. ſ. 12.

If, at the end of any quarter, there ſhall be a ſurplus of the monies brought into the exchequer, of the ſaid duties, &c. over and above the money due, for the ſaid yearly fund of 500,000 l. &c. ſuch ſurplus ſhall attend the diſpoſition of parliament. ſ. 14.

The company may borrow money upon bills, &c. under their common ſeal, or on credit of their capital ſtock, for ſuch intereſt, for any time not leſs than ſix months, as they ſhall think fit; which bills, &c. ſhall not be chargeable with ſtamp duties. ſ. 16.—The laſt two clauſes are re-enacted in ſubſequent acts.

The company ſhall continue a corporation, and ſhall receive the the ſaid yearly ſum of 500,000 l. and 8000 l. till the ſame be redeemed; and ſhall enjoy all their forts, factories, &c. and ſole benefit of trade to the South Seas. ſ. 18.

On one year's notice to be given by authority of parliament at any of the quarterly feaſt days, and on repayment by parliament of the ſaid ten millions, and on payment of all arrears of the ſaid yearly ſums of 500,000 l. and 8000 l. the ſaid yearly ſums ſhall determine. ſ. 20.

If notice ſhall be given by parliament for redemption of the ſaid yearly ſums, and payment be made of any ſum not leſs than one million at a time, and of all arrears then due for the ſaid yearly ſums, ſo much of the ſaid yearly ſum of 500,000 l. as ſhall bear proportion to the monies paid in part of the principal ſhall determine. ſ. 21.

After redemption of all the ſaid yearly ſums of 500,000 l. and 8000 l. the ſaid duties, &c. ſhall be redeemed by parliament, and ſhall not be applied without authority of parliament. ſ. 22.

All the powers and directions which by any former act or charter are granted to the company (being not determined or altered) ſhall continue. ſ. 23.

All ſuch transfers of ſtocks in the company's books, as are not by this act exempted from ſtamp duties, ſhall not be liable to any higher duties. ſ. 24.

Any vote of the houſe of commons, ſignified by their ſpeaker, to be delivered at the public office of the South Sea company, ſhall be deemed a ſufficient notice within this act, for redeeming their ſaid funds. ſ. 25. — This laſt proviſion is re-enacted in the ſubſequent clauſes of redemption.

By 5 Geo. 1. c. 19. reciting 8 Ann c. 4. for raiſing a yearly fund of 135,000 l. and that 1,500,000 l. was contributed on the ſaid act, and the annuities payable out of the ſaid fund by virtue thereof, amount to 32,625 l. per annum, in reſpect of fortunate tickets, and to 102,373 l. 12 s. per annum, in reſpect of tickets that did not prove fortunate; and 168,748 l. 5 s. in arrear thereon; and that the ſaid company is willing to permit the proprietors of the lottery annuities for the reſidue of the term of 32 years, to ſubſcribe their intereſt at 11 years purchaſe and a half; and to permit the proprietors of the ſum of 168,748 l. 5 s. to ſubſcribe the ſame; and to advance 778,750 l. it is enacted, that all ſuch duties as were granted by 8 Ann. c. 4. ſhall continue for ever.

The proprietors of the lottery annuities, and of the arrears amounting to 168,748 l. 5 s. may ſubſcribe ſuch annuities and arrears in books. ſ. 6.

All perſons by whom ſuch ſubſcriptions ſhall be made, &c. ſhall have in the increaſed capital of the company, ſhares as aforeſaid. ſ. 11.

A ſum attended with annuities of 87,342 l. 4 s. 5 d. was ſubſcribed in purſuance of this act, and a farther ſum in purſuance of 6 Geo. 1. c. 4.

The corporation ſhall advance into the exchequer, towards diſcharging the national debts, the ſum of 778,750 l. ſ. 12.

If all the ſaid annuities and arrearages be not ſubſcribed before the 20th of June 1719, the corporation ſhall advance into the exchequer ſo much of the ſaid ſum of 778,750 l. as ſhall bear proportion to the lottery annuities and arrearages ſubſcribed; and ſuch of the ſaid lottery annuities and arrearages as ſhall not be ſubſcribed, ſhall be paid out of the produce of the ſaid duties. ſ. 14.

The value of the ſaid lottery annuities, at 11 years and a half's purchaſe, and the ſaid arrearages, or ſo much as ſhall ſhall be ſubſcribed, and alſo the ſaid ſum to be advanced by the corporation, ſhall be deemed an additional ſtock of the corporation, and united to their preſent capital of ten millions. ſ. 17.

The company ſhall have, for the ſaid additional ſtock, an annuity of 5 l. per cent. per ann. united with their preſent annuity of 500,000 l. per annum. ſ. 18.

The ſaid corporation ſhall have towards the charge of management, an additional yearly ſum of 2000 l. or a ſum bearing the ſame proportion to 2000 l. per annum, as the additional ſtock, when adjuſted, ſhall bear to 2,500,000 l. ſ. 19.

The ſaid additional yearly fund, and the ſaid yearly ſum of 2000 l. or ſuch leſſer proportional ſum, ſhall be chargeable on the monies ariſing at the exchequer, of the ſaid duties. ſ. 21.

So much of the fund of 135,000 l. per annum, as by the act 8 Ann. c. 4. is applicable to the payment of ſuch of the ſaid lottery annuities as ſhall not be ſubſcribed into the ſtock of the ſaid company before the 20th of June 1719, ſhall be applied for payment of ſuch unſubſcribed lottery annuities. ſ. 22.

No member of the company, in reſpect of his having any ſhare therein, &c. ſhall be liable to any penalty, for not qualifying himſelf as perſons who ſhall take any office of profit or truſt. ſ. 27.

Contracts, bills, bonds, &c. under the common ſeal of the corporation, ſhall not be chargeable with any ſtamp duties. ſ. 30.

On one year's notice to be given by parliament, at any of the quarterly feaſt days, and on re-payment by parliament of the whole ſum whereof the company's capital ſtock, with the ſtock to be added, ſhall conſiſt, and on payment of all arrears, the ſaid yearly funds ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 32.

If at any time notice ſhall be given by parliament for redemption, and payment, according to ſuch notice be made of any ſum (not leſs than one million at a time) in part of the principal, and of all arrears; ſo much of the yearly fund, as ſhall bear proportion to the monies ſo paid in part, ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 33.

After redemption of all the ſaid yearly funds, the ſeveral duties, &c. ſhall be redeemed by parliament, and ſhall not be applied without authority of parliament. ſ. 34.

All things which by any former acts of parliament, or by any charters, are enacted or granted concerning the ſaid corporation (being not altered or determined) ſhall continue. ſ. 35.

By 6 Geo. 1. c. 4. The preamble recites 4 Will. & Mar. c. 3. whereby certain duties were granted, and ſtand charged with annuities amounting to 124,409 l. 1 s. 9 d. per annum, part purchaſed on a term of ninety-ſix years from 25th Jan. 1695, and other part upon a term of eighty-nine years from 25th Jan. 1702, the act 5 Will. & Mar. c. 20. whereby ſeveral additional duties were granted, and ſtand charged with annuities amounting to 15,236 l. 12 s. per annum, part purchaſed upon a term of ninety-ſix years from 25th Jan. 1695, and other part upon the term of eighty-nine years from 25th Jan. 1702, the act 12 Will. 3. c. 12.; and the act 12 Ann. c. 3. and that by virtue of the ſame and ſubſequent acts, the weekly payments therein mentioned, ſtand charged with annuities amounting to 104,745 l. 10 s. 6 d. 2 q. per ann. (above 1200 l. per annum, for charges of paying the ſaid annuities) purchaſed for ninety-nine years, from 25th March 1704. The monies ariſing by the ſaid duties ſhall be brought into the exchequer, that the South Sea company may out of the ſame be ſecured the payment of ſuch annuities as ſhall become payable to them in purſuance of this act. ſ. 4.

The commiſſioners of the treaſury ſhall conſtitute managers who ſhall prepare books, wherein ſhall be entered the particulars following, viz. one book for the names of perſons entitled to the annuities payable for the long terms of ninety-ſix, eighty-nine, and ninety-nine years, which ſhall be taken in, and the particular duties whereupon every ſuch annuity was charged; and there ſhall be entered in the ſame book ſuch prices as ſhall be agreed on between the corporation and the proprietors; and there ſhall be likewiſe entered the additions which are to be made to the capital ſtock of the company, after the rate of twenty years purchaſe, for taking in the ſaid long terms. ſ. 5 & 6.

The ſaid managers ſhall prepare books, wherein ſhall be entered the particulars following, viz. the names of perſons entitled to any of the annuities, payable out of the ſaid yearly fund of 81,000 l. for twenty-two years and three quarters from Chriſtmas 1719, who ſhall ſubſcribe the ſame, and every annuity ſo payable which ſhall be taken in, and the duties whereupon ſuch annuity was charged, and the prices agreed upon; and likewiſe the additions which are to be made to the capital ſtock of the company, after the rate of fourteen years purchaſe, for taking in the ſaid annuities. ſ. 7.

The managers ſhall alſo prepare books, wherein ſhall be entered the particulars following, viz. the names of the perſons entitled to any of the ſaid annuities payable upon unſubſcribed lottery tickets of the year 1710, out of the remainder of the yearly fund of 135,000 l. for twenty-three years from Michaelmas 1719, (being the remainder of the term of thirty-two years) who ſhall ſubſcribe the ſame; and every annuity ſo payable, which ſhall be taken in, and the duties upon which ſuch annuity was charged, and the prices agreed on; and likewiſe the additions to be made to the capital ſtock of the company, after the rate of fourteen years purchaſe, for taking in the ſaid lottery annuities. ſ. 8.

The ſaid managers ſhall prepare other books, wherein ſhall be entered every principal ſum carrying intereſt at 5 l. per cent. which ſhall have been paid off by the company to the proprietors of the ſaid principal ſums computed to amount together to 11,779,660 l. 11 s. 3 d. 3 q. and the names of the proprietors, and the duties on which the intereſt of 5 l. per cent. were charged; and there ſhall be alſo entered the additions which are to be made to the company's capital ſtock of 100 l. for every 100 l. ſo paid off. ſ. 9.

The ſaid managers ſhall alſo prepare other books wherein ſhall be entered every principal ſum paid off by the company to the proprietors of the ſaid principal ſums, computed to amount to 4,766,821 l. 15 s. 9 d. 2 q. and the names of the proprietors, and the duties out of which the ſame were payable; and the new additions to be made to the company's ſtock for every 100 l. ſo paid off. ſ. 10.

The South Sea company may redeem all or any the redeemable debts abovementioned, amounting to 16,546,482 l. 7 s. 1¼ d. and the intereſt or annuity in reſpect thereof to the proprietors ſhall ceaſe, and in lieu thereof a like annuity ſhall be paid to the South Sea company till the 24th of June, 1727, and from thence after the rate of 4 l. per cent. till redemption by parliament, ſo as ſuch debts be paid off at the rate of 100 l. for every 100 l. principal. ſ. 19 & 20.

The company may, before the firſt of March 1721, take in by purchaſe or ſubſcription all or any the abovementioned annuities of the ſaid terms of ninety-ſix, eighty-nine, and ninety-nine years, computed to 666,821 l. 8 s. 3½ d. per ann. and the lottery annuities, computed to 46,260 l. 6 s. 1 d. per ann. for the ſaid term of twenty-three years from Michaelmas 1719, and alſo the abovementioned annuities, computed to 81,000 l. per ann. for the ſaid term of twenty-two years and three quarters from Chriſtmas 1719, at ſuch prices as ſhall be agreed upon, ſo as ſuch prices be paid by the firſt of March 1721. ſ. 21.

The ſaid managers ſhall make up diſtinct accounts of all the annuities and debts that ſhall have been taken in, viz. one account of all the annuities taken in as part of the annuities computed to 666,821 l. 8 s. 3½ d. per ann. another account account of all the annuities taken in as part of the annuities computed to 81,000*l. per ann.* another account of the unſubſcribed lottery annuities, taken in as part of the annuities computed to 46,260*l.* 6*s.* 1*d. per ann.* another account of the principal ſums taken in as part of the abovementioned ſums computed to 563,300*l.* at 4*l. per cent.* by virtue of her majeſty's letters patent; another account of all the principal ſums taken in as part of the abovementioned ſums, computed to 1,055,990*l.* at 5*l. per cent.* and 652,020*l.* at 4*l. per cent.* by virtue of the acts 12 Ann. ſt. 2. cap. 9. and 1 Geo. 1. ſt. 1. cap. 2. another account of all the principal ſums taken in as part of the abovementioned ſum of 500,000*l.* at 4*l. per cent.* by one of the lottery acts of 5 Geo. 1. and another account of all the principal ſums taken in as part of the abovementioned 10,723,670*l.* 11*s.* 3¾*d.* for which annuities are payable by the caſhier of the bank at 5*l. per cent.* or as part of the abovementioned 3,051,501*l.* 15*s.* 9½*d.* for which annuities are payable by the ſame caſhier at 4*l. per cent.* ſ. 27.

The values at twenty years purchaſe for ſuch annuities computed to 666,821*l.* 8*s.* 3½*d. per ann.* and at fourteen years purchaſe for the lottery annuities, computed to 46,260*l.* 6*s.* 1*d. per ann.* and the values at cent. per cent. of the redeemable debts computed to 16,546,482*l.* 7*s.* 1¼*d.* which ſhall be taken in or paid off, ſhall be added to the preſent capital ſtock of the company; and the company, for every addition to their capital, after the 24th of June 1727, till redemption by parliament, ſhall have an addition to their yearly fund of 4*l. per cent.* ſ. 30.

The treaſury ſhall ſettle the addition to be made to the company's capital ſtock, according to the values ſpecified in ſuch accounts. ſ. 32.

The annuity payable to the company after Midſummer 1727, at 4*l. per cent.* till redemption, ſhall grow due quarterly at the four uſual feaſts (nevertheleſs to be ſatisfied by weekly or other payments) out of the monies to ariſe of the duties now chargeable with the ſaid annuity; and the ſeveral additions to the company's annuity by virtue of this act ſhall be charged in like manner: and in caſe any of the ſaid particular duties are temporary, every ſuch additional annuity till redemption, ſhall be payable out of the like duties by this act continued for ever. ſ. 33.

The treaſury ſhall cauſe an eſtimate to be taken of the whole annual coſt to the public, for paying and accounting for all the annuities and debts ſpecified in this act, and upon receiving the abovementioned accounts from the managers, ſhall allow to the company a proportion of the coſts for the annuities and debts then appearing to be taken in, viz. as 11,746,844*l.* 8s. 10*d.* (being their preſent capital) is to the yearly ſum of 9397*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.* being their preſent allowance for management) ſo the ſtock, which they are to have for the annuities and debts by ſuch account appearing to be taken in, ſhall be to the proportional ſum to be allowed to the company towards their charges; ſo as all the proportional ſums laſt mentioned do not exceed one year's coſt for paying and accounting for all the annuities and debts beforementioned. ſ. 34.

The ſums for charges of management ſhall be paid to the company as their preſent annuity, till the ſame funds be redeemed, and ſhall be charged upon the duties by this act charged with the company's annuity. ſ. 35.

Such of the ſaid annuities and debts as ſhall not be taken in or paid off in purſuance of this act, and the intereſt for the ſame, ſhall continue to be paid to the proprietors at the ſame offices, and out of the ſame duties, as if this act had never been. ſ. 42.

The South Sea company (in conſideration of the liberty given them of increaſing their capital ſtock by taking in, or paying off, all the redeemable debts, before computed to 16,546,482*l.* 7*s.* 1¼*d.*) ſhall pay into the exchequer, towards diſcharging the principal and intereſt of ſuch national debts as were incurred before the 25th of December 1716, the ſum of 4,156,306*l.* 4*s.* 11*d.* ſ. 44.

The ſame corporation (in conſideration of the increaſe made to their capital ſtock by taking in the ſaid annuities for the terms of ninety-ſix, eighty-nine, and ninety-nine years, and thirty-two years) ſhall pay into the exchequer four years and a half's purchaſe upon all ſuch of the annuities as ſhall be taken in, to be applied towards diſcharging the ſaid national debts incurred before the 25th of December 1716. ſ. 45.

The ſame corporation ſhall pay into the exchequer, towards diſcharging the ſaid national debts, one year's purchaſe upon all ſuch of the ſaid annuities of ninety-ſix, eighty-nine, and ninety-nine years, as ſhall not be taken in by the 1ſt of March 1721. ſ. 46.

The company may call in from their members, or by opening books of ſubſcription, or by granting annuities redeemable by the company, or by any other method, raiſe any ſums of money, as in a general court ſhall be ordered: and if any member ſhall neglect to pay his ſhare at the times appointed by notice in the Gazette, and fixed on the Royal Exchange, it ſhall be lawful for the company, not only to ſtop the dividend payable to ſuch member, but alſo to ſtop the transfers of the ſhares of every defaulter, and to charge him with intereſt at 5*l. per cent.* and if the principal and intereſt be unpaid three months, the court of directors ſhall have power to authoriſe perſons to ſell ſo much of ſuch defaulter's ſtock as will ſatisfy the ſame; and the company, in a general court, may cauſe any money ſo called in to be divided amongſt the members. ſ. 48.

The company may borrow money upon any contracts, bills, or bonds, under their common ſeal, or upon credit of their ſtock, for any time not leſs than ſix months. ſ. 49.

The money ſo called in from the members ſhall (if the company think proper) be deemed an additional ſtock; nevertheleſs the company, in reſpect of ſuch ſtock, ſhall not be intitled to any increaſe of their annuity. ſ. 52.

The company ſhall continue for ever one body corporate, by the name of The governor and company of merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas, and other parts of America, and for encouraging the fiſhery, and ſhall enjoy the ſaid funds till redemption, and ſhall enjoy for ever all their forts and acquiſitions, ſole benefit of trade to the South Sea, &c. ſ. 57.

Upon repayment by parliament of the whole ſum, whereof the company's capital ſtock ſhall conſiſt, and upon payment of all arrears to the quarterly feaſt then next preceding, and till payment be made, the funds and yearly ſums for management ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 58.

Upon repayment by parliament of any ſum (not leſs than one million at a time) in part of the ſaid capital, and upon payment of all arrears upon their yearly fund, then ſo much of their annuity as ſhall bear proportion to the monies paid in part of the principal ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 59.

After ſuch redemption, ſo much of the revenues applicable thereunto ſhall be underſtood to be redeemed by parliament, and ſhall not be iſſued without authority of parliament; nevertheleſs the corporation ſhall remain for ever, and ſhall enjoy all their forts, acquiſitions, &c. ſ. 60.

All powers, penalties, &c. concerning the company, or perſons employed under them, ſhall for ever continue. ſ. 61.

If the ſub-governor, deputy-governor, directors or other members, members, of the company, ſhall purchaſe any lands or revenues belonging to the crown, upon the account of the corporation, or lend money by way of loan or anticipapation on any branch of the revenue, other than ſuch parts only on which a credit of loan is granted by parliament; ſuch ſub-governor, &c. being convicted of conſenting, agreeing or approving, of ſuch lending, &c. ſhall forfeit treble the value of the money ſo lent, one fifth to the informer, to be recovered in the courts at Weſtminſter, and the reſidue to be diſpoſed of towards public uſes, as ſhall be directed by parliament. ſ. 66.

The ſums to be paid into the exchequer by the South Sea company (over and above the monies of the ſinking fund, to be applied for leſſening public debts, ſhall be iſſued in manner following, viz. firſt ſuch public debts carrying intereſt at 5*l. per cent.* or more, incurred before the 25th of December 1716, (not being part of the company's capital ſtock) as may be redeemed before the 25th of December 1722, ſhall be paid off; then the remainder of the ſaid ſums ſhall be applied towards paying off ſo much of the capital ſtock of the company, as ſhall carry intereſt at 5*l. per cent.* And the treaſury are to cauſe all the monies ariſing of the ſaid ſums to be applied in the manner hereby preſcribed. ſ. 67.

By 6 Geo. 1. c. 11. If any perſon ſhall forge or alter any receipt for ſubſcriptions, or any warrant for dividends, under the hands of the officers of the South Sea company, or any indorſement or writing thereon or therein, or ſhall tender any ſuch forged or altered receipt or warrant, or any receipt or warrant with ſuch counterfeit indorſement, or writing, knowing the ſame to be ſo forged, &c. to the company or any of their officers, or ſhall offer to diſpoſe of the ſame, with intent to defraud the company or any other perſon; every ſuch offender (being convicted) ſhall be adjudged a felon without benefit of clergy. ſ. 50.

By 7 Geo. 1. c. 5. On repayment by parliament to the South Sea company of any ſum not leſs than 500,000*l.* at a time, in part of the principal monies of the capital ſtock belonging to the company, and on payment of all arrears of their annuities and charges of management, ſo much of their annuities as ſhall bear proportion to the monies ſo paid in part of the principal ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 26.

By 7 Geo. 1. ſt. 2. The ſum of 4,156,306*l.* 4*s.* 11*d.* which in purſuance of 6 Geo. 1. cap. 4. ſect. 44. the South Sea company was to pay into the exchequer, and the ſeveral further ſums after the rates of four years and a half's purchaſe, and one year's purchaſe ſhall be diſcharged. ſ. 1.

The ſum of two millions, part of the captial ſtock which ſhall belong to the ſaid company ſhall be annihilated, and a proportional part of their annuities ſhall ceaſe for the benefit of the public. ſ. 2.

The company ſhall make an addition of 33*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* in ſtock upon every 100*l.* already allowed to the proprietors of the redeemable annuities, and of the ſecond, third, and fourth money ſubſcriptions; which, together with the ſtock already allowed them at the rate of 400*l. per cent.* ſhall be in full diſcharge of their redeemable annuities which were ſubſcribed, and in full diſcharge of the monies paid on the ſaid ſubſcriptions; and no more money ſhall be demanded by the company on any of the four money ſubſcriptions. ſ. 3.

For a further relief to be given to the proprietors of the irredeemable annuities in the ſecond ſubſcription, by an addition of ſtock valued at 150 l. per cent. the company ſhall make an addition in ſtock to the ſaid proprietors, over the ſtock allowed them by a reſolution of the general court; which additions ſhall be in the proportions following, viz. on every annuity of 100*l.* ſubſcribed for the remainder of ninety-nine years, in the ſecond ſubſcription, 203*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* ſtock; on every annuity of 98*l.* ſubſcribed for the remainder of ninety-ſix, or eighty-nine years, called fourteen per cent. in the ſaid ſecond ſubſcription, 178*l.* 5*s.* 4*d.* ſtock; on every 90*l. per ann.* ſubſcribed for the remainder of thirty-two years, called nine per cent. in the ſecond ſubſcription, 73*l.* 9*s.* 4*d.* ſtock; on every annuity of 100*l.* ſubſcribed for the remainder of thirty-two years, called benefits of the lottery 1710, in the ſecond ſubſcription, 65*l.* 16*s.* 8*d.* ſtock; on every 98*l. per ann.* ſubſcribed for the remainder of thirty-two years, called blank pay tickets of the ſaid lottery, in the ſecond ſubſcription, 126*l.* 14*s.* 8*d.* ſtock. ſ. 4.

All the increaſed capital ſtock, which was gained by the company by taking in public debts, after the diſtribution of ſuch parts as are by this act to be diſtributed, ſhall be divided among all the proprietors of the capital ſtock. ſ. 5.

By 8 Geo. 1. c. 21. It ſhall be lawful for the South Sea company to ſell their ſtock, as well that pledged to the company, as that which was allowed for ſubſcription receipts pledged as aforeſaid, or any part of their fund payable at the exchequer, not exceeding 200,000*l.* a year, by lottery or otherwiſe. ſ. 1.

If the company ſhall raiſe any of the money, by ſelling part of their annuities at the exchequer at 5*l. per cent.* ſuch part not to exceed 200,000*l. per ann.*) the contractors for purchaſing the ſame ſhall be capable in law to hold and enjoy the parts ſo purchaſed. ſ. 4.

The values to be computed at twenty years purchaſe, for ſuch parts of the annuities as ſhall be ſo purchaſed, ſhall become a capital ſtock of the perſons or bodies politic who ſhall purchaſe the ſame; and in caſe the purchaſe be made by any body corporate, ſuch body may unite the capital ſtock ſo created to their own capital; and every member of ſuch body corporate ſhall have credit for his ſhare in the ſtock ſo increaſed; and the capital ſtock of the South Sea company ſhall be leſſened ſo much as the parts ſold ſhall amount to. ſ. 7.

It ſhall be lawful for any bodies corporate, who ſhall have purchaſed any parts of the ſaid annuities, for enabling themſelves to pay for the ſame, to raiſe money, by opening books for taking in ſubſcriptions for ſale of any part of their capital ſtock ſo created, or by making calls of money from their members, or by borrowing money. ſ. 10.

The capital ſtock which any perſons in purſuance of this act ſhall be intitled unto, and the parts of the annuities of the South Sea company which ſhall be ſo purchaſed, and the particular ſhare of every member of ſuch bodies corporate in the ſame, ſhall be a perſonal and not a real eſtate, and ſhall be free from taxes; and if any body corporate ſhall be entitled thereto, the members of ſuch body may transfer their ſhares in the books of the company, in ſuch method as is preſcribed for transfers of original ſtock, &c. or may deviſe the ſame by will: and the parts of the annuities which ſhall be purchaſed by perſons (not being a body corporate) may be aſſigned by writing under their hands and ſeals; and ſuch aſſignments may be made toties quoties, ſo as ſuch aſſignments be notified in the books of the auditor of the receipt; and may be deviſed by will, ſo as ſuch will be entered in the ſame office within three months after the deceaſe of the teſtator. ſ. 11.

No member of any body corporate, which ſhall be intitled to ſtock purſuant to this act, ſhall in reſpect of his ſhare therein be liable to be a bankrupt, and the ſtock of ſuch bodies corporate ſhall not be liable to foreign attachment. ſ. 12.

The

The purchaſers of any parts of the annuities of the South Sea company ſhall hold and enjoy the ſame, till the parts ſo purchaſed be redeemed; and any body corporate purchaſing ſuch parts of the ſaid annuities ſhall continue a corporation, till the redemption of the parts purchaſed by them. ſ. 13.

On repayment by parliament to the perſons or bodies corporate, who ſhall be intitled to the capital ſtock in reſpect of the annuities ſo purchaſed, of the whole ſum whereof the ſaid capital ſhall conſiſt, and of all arrears thereof, the part of the annuities ſo purchaſed ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 14.

On repayment of any ſum (not leſs than one eighth part of ſuch capital ſtock at a time) in part of the principal, and of all arrears, ſo much of the ſaid purchaſed annuities as ſhall bear proportion to the monies ſo paid in part of the principal ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 15.

After redemption of the annuities, ſo much of the duties, &c. applicable thereto, ſhall be underſtood to be redeemed by parliament. ſ. 16.

So much of the capital ſtock of the South Sea company, as ſhall remain after ſale of ſuch parts as ſhall be ſold purſuant to this act, ſhall be redeemable by parliament, upon payment of ſuch ſums whereof their capital ſhall conſiſt, and of all arrears of their annuities, and of the yearly ſums allowed for charges of management; and the redemption of their capital may be made upon payment at one time, or ſeveral times, not being leſs than one million at a time. ſ. 17.

By 8 Geo. 1. cap. 22. The treaſury ſhall rectify the errors of thoſe employed in taking ſubſcriptions for increaſing the capital ſtock of the South Sea company, in an inſtrument dated the 9th of December 1720, by a new inſtrument, thereby declaring, that principal ſums amounting to 67,831*l.* 6*s.* 10*d.* ſhall be added to the principal ſums amounting to 11,172,593*l.* 15*s.* 10*d*, by the ſaid inſtrument declared to be added to the capital ſtock of the ſaid company, whereof 7,558,315*l.* 10*s.* 3*d.* as well as the ſaid 67,831*l.* 6*s.* 10*d.* omitted by miſtake, was for bank annuities payable by 3 Geo. 1. cap. 7. ſ. 2.

For rectifying a miſtake which tends to the prejudice of the public, the treaſury ſhall, by memorandums endorſed on the inſtrument dated the 28th of Sept. 1720, and upon the ſubſcription books wherein the miſtakes are inſerted, cauſe the ſum of 400*l.* part of the additional capital ſtock of 8,551,618*l.* 15*s.* by the ſaid laſt-mentioned inſtrument declared to be added to the ſaid capital ſtock, to be abated. ſ. 3.

The treaſury may inſpect any duplicates tranſmitted by the managers for taking ſubſcriptions for increaſing the capital ſtock of the company, and if they find any errors therein, they ſhall rectify the ſame. ſ. 4. — See FORGERY.

By 9 Geo. 1. c. 6. The clauſe in 7 Geo. 1. ſt. 2. ſ. 2. whereby it was enacted, that two millions of the capital ſtock of the South Sea company ſhould be annihilated, is repealed; and the ſaid two millions ſhall be revived, and added to the preſent capital ſtock of the company. ſ. 1.

The two millions by this act revived ſhall be divided amongſt all the proprietors of the ſtock. ſ. 2.

The whole capital ſtock of the South Sea company, computed 33,802,483 *l.*14*s.* ½*d.* ſhall be divided into two equal parts. ſ. 3.

One moiety of the ſaid ſtock, which will by computation amount to 16,901,241*l.* 17*s.* ¼*d.* ſhall be converted into a joint ſtock, attended with annuities, payable out of the South Sea company's funds, in lieu of all dividends, viz. with annuities at 5*l. per cent.* till the 24th June 1727, and from thence at 4*l. per cent.* till redemption by parliament; and the ſame moiety ſhall be called the joint ſtock of South Sea annuities; and the other moiety of the capital ſtock ſhall remain in the company as a joint ſtock, attended with the reſidue of the yearly funds, payable at the exchequer till redemption; and alſo attended with the ſeveral ſums for charges of management, and with all benefits of trade, &c. And as concerning the moiety ſo converted into South Sea annuities, every proprietor ſhall be entitled to annuities at 5*l. per cent.* till the 24th June 1727, and from thence at 4*l. per cent.* till redemption; and the South Sea company ſhall receive at the exchequer, out of the duties, &c. charged with their whole annuities yearly, the intereſt of the ſame moiety till redemption, in truſt for the proprietors; and all powers, &c. in force ſhall be continued for ſecuring the ſaid joint ſtock of South Sea annuities, and the yearly funds to attend the ſame. ſ. 4.

The ſaid annuities ſhall be payable half-yearly, at Lady-day and Michaelmas. ſ. 5.

If any deficiencey ſhall happen in the produce of the duties, &c. the South Sea annuities ſhall bear one half of ſuch deficiency, till the ſame be provided for by parliament. ſ. 6.

The ſhares which every perſon ſhall be intitled to in the annuities ſhall be written into new ledgers. ſ. 7.

The annuities ſhall be free from taxes. ſ. 8.

Perſons intitled to the annuities ſhall be poſſeſſed thereof as a perſonal eſtate, and the ſame ſhall not be liable to foreign attachment. ſ. 9.

All the principal monies in the joint ſtock of the South Sea annuities ſhall be deemed one capital or joint ſtock, on which the annuities ſhall be attending, and the ſhares therein ſhall be transferable; and the South Sea company ſhall cauſe to be kept in London an office and books, in which all transfers of the ſaid annuities ſhall be entered; which entry ſhall be ſigned by the parties making ſuch aſſignments, or their attornies; and the perſons to whom ſuch transfers ſhall be made ſhall under-write their acceptance, and no other method of transferring the ſaid ſtock and annuities ſhall be good: provided that any perſon may bequeath the ſame; but ſuch legatee ſhall receive no payment, till ſo much of the will as relates to South Sea annuities be entered in the office. ſ. 10.

No ſtamp duties ſhall be chargeable on any transfers of the annuities. ſ. 11.

The South Sea company ſhall enjoy in their own right the reſidue of the ſaid annuities, till redemption, and ſhall alſo have the ſums of 8000*l. per ann.* and 1397*l.* 9*s.* 6*d. per ann.* and other ſums, for charges of management; and ſhall alſo enjoy all profits of trade, and other privileges, &c. belonging to the company. ſ. 12.

As well the South Sea company, and their general courts, courts of directors and ſub-committees, as alſo the members of the company, in reſpect of the remaining moiety of the capital ſtock, and of the allowances for management, &c. ſhall enjoy the like powers, &c. as the company might have exerciſed if this act had not been. ſ. 13.

If any deficiency ſhall happen in the produce of the duties, &c. the company ſhall bear half of ſuch deficiency, till it be provided for by parliament. ſ. 14.

On repayment by parliament to the South Sea company of the whole capital ſum of 33,802,483*l.* 14*s.* ½*d. viz.* 16,901,241*l.* 17*s.* ¼*d.* for the uſe of the proprietors of the South Sea annuities, and the remaining 16,901,241*l.* 17*s.* ¼*d.* on account of the capital ſtock to be continued to the company, and on payment of all arrears, the annuities payable at the exchequer to the company, in truſt for the South Sea annuitants, and in their own right, as alſo the yearly ſums for management, ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 16.

On repayment of any ſum, not leſs than 500,000*l.* at a time, in part of the ſaid capital ſtock, ſo much of the yearly funds as ſhall bear proportion to the monies ſo paid in part ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 17.

After redemption of the ſaid capital ſums, ſo much of the duties applicable thereto ſhall be underſtood to be redeemed by parliament. ſ. 18.

By 1. Geo. 2. c. 8. Whereas the principal ſum of 500,000*l.* lottery annuities charged by 5 Geo. 1. c. 9. on the duties upon coals granted by 9 Ann. c. 22. were by 6 Geo. 1. c. 4. empowered to be ſubſcribed into the South Sea ſtock; and in purſuance thereof 434,605*l.*, part thereof, was taken into the ſaid ſtock, and the reſidue paid off: the commiſſioners of the treaſury are directed to pay off the ſaid 434,605*l.* on or before the 25th of June 1728, out of the monies to be advanced by the bank of England for the purchaſe of annuities, and at the ſame time to pay to the South Sea company, out of the ſinking fund, the farther ſum of 65,395*l.* which will compleat a ſum of 500,000*l.* for the redemption of a proportionable part of the annuities attending their whole principal monies, whether in capital ſtock or annuity ſtock; and 250,000*l.* being one moiety, ſhall be applied in diſcharge of ſo much of their capital ſtock; and the remaining 250,000*l.* ſhall be applied in diſcharge of ſo much of the joint ſtock of South Sea annuities. ſ. 19.

The South Sea company ſhall apply the ſame in equal moieties to the redemption of ſuch parts of their South Sea ſtock or annuities as ſhall belong to the company in their own right, and undiſtributed among the proprietors. ſ. 20.

The monies ſo to be paid to the South Sea company may be uſed by them in paying debts, dividends, or other ſervices, of the company. ſ. 21.

By 3 Geo. 2. c. 16. Whereas, by rectifying a ſmall error in the computing the amount of the South Sea ſtock, as recited in 9 Geo. 1. c. 6. and by deducting half a million paid off purſuant to 1 Geo. 2. c. 8. the capital ſum remaining due on each of the funds of South Sea ſtock and South Sea annuities, doth amount to 16,651,101*l.* 12*s.* 9*d.* ¼., and it is judged expedient, that one million be applied for paying off ſo much of the South Sea ſtock: out of the ſurpluſſes of the ſinking fund, ariſen at the feaſt of the nativity of St. John Baptiſt, 1730, there ſhall be iſſued to the South Sea company ſuch monies as ſhall be in the exchequer, for redeeming part of the capital ſtock due to the company, till the payments ſhall amout to one million; and a proportional part of the ſtock ſhall determine for the benefit of the public. ſ. 4.

The South Sea company ſhall, upon the receipt of the ſaid one million, diſtribute the ſame amongſt all the proprietors of their ſtock, towards ſinking ſo much of their ſhares in the ſtock. ſ. 5.

Where any proprietors ſhall out of the ſaid one million be paid off a dividend of capital which ſhall not amount to more than 100*l.* the company, at any time before the ſhutting of the books, are required to permit any proprietors of ſtock to transfer to ſuch proprietors any quantity of ſtock not exceeding the ſum ſo divided out of the capital, without ſtamps or other charges: and it ſhall be lawful for the company to ſell to any of their proprietors any parcel of their ſtock as now remains in the company, or in any perſons in truſt for them, as ſhall be ſufficient for the ſaid purpoſes, and no more. ſ. 7.

Where in purſuance of this act any payment ſhall be made of the capital of any ſuch ſtock as ſhall be veſted in truſt, &c. ſuch payments ſhall not be applied as dividends of profit, but ſhall remain in the hands of the truſtees, till otherwiſe diſpoſed of at intereſt; and the truſtees may lay out the ſame, or any part thereof, in the purchaſe of other capital ſtock of the ſame kind; and if ſuch truſtees by writing indorſed on, or annexed to, the receipts, and ſigned or acknowledged before one of the maſters of chancery, ſhall declare that the monies were the produce of the ſaid dividend, and the maſter ſhall certify the ſame by ſubſcribing his name (for which he ſhall be paid 1*s.*) the ſtock mentioned in ſuch receipts ſhall be liable to the ſame truſts as the reſt of the truſt ſtock remaining in ſuch truſtees, and the truſtees ſhall be indemnified. ſ. 8.

Nothing in this act ſhall reſtrain any truſtees from laying out any of the truſt monies in any other purchaſes or ſecurities. ſ. 9.

By 4 Geo. 2. c. 5. Out of the ſurpluſſes called the ſinking fund, at the feaſt of St. Michael 1731, there ſhall be iſſued to the governor and company of merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas, &c. towards redeeming part of the capital ſtock of annuities due to the ſaid company, until the payments amount to one million; and a proportional part of their ſaid annuities ſhall ceaſe, with like directions as to truſtees, &c. as in 3 Geo. 2. cap. 16. ſ. 1.

By 5 Geo. 2. c. 17. Out of the ſinking fund, at the nativity of St. John Baptiſt 1732, there ſhall be iſſued to the governor and company of merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas, &c. towards redeeming part of the annuities attending on the capital ſtock, 1,000,000*l.* ſterling; and a proportionable part of their ſtock ſhall ceaſe; with like proviſions as in 3 Geo. 2. cap. 16. ſ. 1.

By 6 Geo. 2. c. 25. Out of the ſinking fund at Michaelmas 1733, ſhall be applied to the South Sea company for redeeming part of the South Sea annuities, 1,000,000*l.* and a proportional part of their annuities ſhall ceaſe; with like proviſions as in 4 Geo. 2. c. 5. ſ. 2.

By 6 Geo. 2. c. 28. After the 24th of June 1733, the capital ſtock of the South Sea company, which amounts to 14,651,103*l.* 8*s.* 1*d.* and the ſhares of the reſpective proprietors, ſhall be divided into four equal parts. ſ. 1.

Three fourth parts of the ſaid capital ſtock, which will amount to 10,988,327*l.* 11*s.* ¾*d.* ſhall be converted into a joint ſtock attended with annuities payable out of the funds of the South Sea company after the rate of four per cent. until redemption by parliament, and ſhall be called The new joint ſtock of South Sea annuities; and the other fourth part amounting to 3,662,775*l.* 17*s.* ¼*d.* ſhall remain in the ſaid South Sea company as a trading or capital ſtock, attended with the reſidue of the annuities or funds payable at the exchequer to the ſaid company for their whole capital, until redemption, and attended with the ſums allowed for charges of management, and with all effects, profits of trade, debts, privileges, and advantages, belonging to the South Sea company. ſ. 2.

The proprietors of the ſaid three-fourth parts ſhall have, free of all charges, certain annuities of four per cent. on the ſaid ſum of 10,988,327*l.* 11*s.* ¾*d.* from the ſaid 24th of June 1733, until redemption by parliament; and the South Sea company, ſhall receive at the exchequer, out of the revenues charged with their annuities, the annuity to attend the ſaid three-fourth parts, ſo converted into the new joint ſtock of South Sea annuities, in truſt for the annuitants. ſ. 3.

The proprietors of the remaining fourth of the ſaid capital ſtock ſhall have proportional ſhares of the ſaid annuities, and all benefits of trade. ſ. 4.

The accountant of the company ſhall twice every year at Chriſtmas and Midſummer, or within one month after, ſtate an account of the company's affairs, which ſhall be laid before the next general court, in order to their declaring a dividend: and all dividends ſhall be made out of the clear profits, and ſhall not exceed what the company may reaſonably divide, without incurring any farther debt; provided that the company ſhall not at any time divide more than four per cent. per ann. until their preſent debts be paid off; and the South Sea company, and their trading ſtock, ſhall be, excluſively from the ſaid new South Sea annuities, liable to all the debts and incumbrances of the company. ſ. 5.

The new South Sea annuities ſhall be payable from the feaſt of St. John the Baptiſt 1733, half yearly. ſ. 6.

The trading capital ſhall be charged with the payment of the new annuities, as alſo for the payment of the former joint ſtock of South Sea annuities. ſ. 7.

Provided that the company ſhall have received the annuity payable to them at the exchequer; and on failure of paying the ſame, or within ſixty days after, then ſuch trading ſtock ſhall alſo be charged with the payment of intereſt of five per cent. ſ. 8.

If any deficiency ſhall happen in the funds of the South Sea company, the new South Sea annuities ſhall bear a proportional part of ſuch deficiency. ſ. 9.

The South Sea company ſhall be intitled to all powers and advantages penalties and directions, enacted by any former laws, for better ſecuring the whole capital ſtock of the funds of the ſaid South Sea company, or preventing the forging any dividend warrant, or transfers of annuities, comprehended in the act 8 Geo. 1. cap. 22. to be in force as to the ſaid new joint ſtock of South Sea annuities. ſ. 10.

The proportional ſhares, which every perſon ſhall have in the ſaid new South Sea annuities, ſhall be written off from the books of the company into books for that purpoſe. ſ. 11.

The new South Sea annuities ſhall be free from taxes. ſ. 12.

The ſaid new annuities ſhall be perſonal eſtate, and not liable to foreign attachment. ſ. 13.

The principal monies in the ſaid new joint ſtock of South Sea annuities ſhall be a joint ſtock, and any ſhare therein ſhall be transferrable; and the South Sea company ſhall cauſe to be kept within the city of London an office, and books, in which all tranfers of the new annuities ſhall be entered, and ſigned by the party making ſuch transfer, or his attorney; and the perſon to whom ſuch transfer ſhall be made, or his attorney, ſhall underwrite his acceptance; and no other method of transferring the annuities ſhall be good in law. ſ. 14.

Any perſon poſſeſſed of ſuch new annuities may bequeath the ſame in the ſame manner as any other perſonal eſtate. ſ. 15.

No ſtamp duties ſhall be chargeable upon the transfers of the new annuities. ſ. 16.

The South Sea company may exerciſe all ſuch powers, and enjoy the like immunities, benefits of trade and advantages, as if this act had not been made. ſ. 17.

No perſon ſhall be qualified for being governor (his majeſty excepted) unleſs ſuch governor ſhall have in his own name and right 5000*l.* in the trading ſtock, nor ſhall any perſon be qualified for being ſub-governor who ſhall not have 4000*l.* nor ſhall any perſon be qualified to be deputy-governor, unleſs ſuch deputy-governor ſhall have 3000*l.* and no perſon ſhall be qualified for a director who ſhall not have 2000*l.* in the trading ſtock. ſ. 19.

In every general court of the company, every member who ſhall have in his own name and right 500*l.* trading ſtock ſhall have one vote, and every member who ſhall have 2000*l.* ſhall have two votes, and every member who ſhall have 3000*l.* ſhall have three votes, and every member who ſhall have 5000*l.* ſhall have four votes. ſ. 21.

Where ſuch diviſion ſhall be made of any ſtock which ſhall be veſted in any perſons in truſt, the parcels of the ſaid new South Sea annuities, and of the ſaid trading ſtock, ſhall be liable to the ſame truſts. ſ. 23.

It ſhall be lawful for ſuch truſtees to ſell ſuch remaining trading ſtock, and within eight days to inveſt the money ariſing therefrom in the purchaſe of new South Sea annuities, and receipts ſhall be given by the perſons tranſferring; and in caſe ſuch truſtees, by writing indorſed on ſuch recipts, and ſigned before one of the maſters of chancery, ſhall declare that the monies in the receipts were the produce of the ſaid truſt ſtock, the annuity ſtock mentioned in ſuch receipts ſhall be ſubject to the ſame truſts. ſ. 24.

The fund of the trading ſtock ſhall not, without the conſent of the company, be liable to be redeemed by parliament, until the new South Sea annuities ſhall have been reduced by redemption by parliament to the ſum of 3,500,000*l.* ſ. 25.

The court of directors ſhall cauſe all the bonds owing by the company to be regiſtered: and no new bonds ſhall be iſſued, nor any bonds paid off, except the proprietors ſhall, in a general court, be firſt acquainted with the uſes for which the bonds are intended to be iſſued; and within fourteen days, and twenty-one days, from the time of holding the ſaid general court, one other general court ſhall be aſſembled to take the reſolutions of the proprietors, whether any new bonds ſhall be iſſued or not; provided that it may be lawful for the court of directors to affix the ſeal of the company to new bonds made out in lieu of bonds filled by indorſements, or worn out or loſt; and no calls ſhall be made, except the ſame notice ſhall be given in a general court, and the reſolutions of the proprietors taken in another general court. ſ. 26.

South Sea annuities may be bequeathed, as any other perſonal eſtate. ſ. 27 & 28.

By 7 Geo. 2. c. 17. It ſhall be lawful for the South Sea company to pay off the company's bonds, as they might have done in caſe the act 6 Geo. 2. cap. 28. had not been made. ſ. 1.

The intent of the ſaid act was, that no new bonds, or bonds bought up with the company's money, ſhould be iſſued, but by the conſent of the general court. ſ. 2.

By 9 Geo. 2. c. 34. Out of the ſinking fund at Chriſtmas 1736, there ſhall be iſſued to the South Sea company, for redeeming part of the New South Sea annuities 1,000,000*l.* with the uſual proviſions for annihilation, as in ſtat. 4 Geo. 2. cap. 5. ſ. 12.

By 10 Geo. 2. c. 17. Out of the ſupplies granted by parliament there ſhall be iſſued to the governor and company of merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas, &c. at the feaſt of St Michael 1737, ſums not exceeeding 1,000,000, for redeeming part of the Old South Sea annuities; with the uſual proviſions as before. ſ. 35.

By 24 Geo. 2. c. 2. The company ſhall continue a corporation till the annuities purchaſed on this act ſhall be redeemed. ſ. 31.

By 24 Geo 2. c. 11. The South Sea company ſhall receive ceive their preſent annuity of four per cent. on their capital ſtock until 25th Dec. 1757, and from thence the ſaid annuity ſhall be reduced to three per cent. until redemption; in diſcharge of all demands by the company on the king of Spain. ſ. 1.

The company ſhall continue to receive from the exchequer, out of the funds appropriated for that purpoſe, ſo much as ſhall from time to time be due for the intereſt of, and charges of management upon, ſuch part of the old and new South Sea annuities as are not redeemed, and on their capital ſtock, as they now receive. All rights with regard to the redemption of the ſaid capital ſtock are confirmed as they now ſtand. ſ. 2.

If any officer or ſervant of the ſaid company intruſted with any note, bill, dividend, warrant, bond, deed, or any ſecurity, money, or other effects of the ſaid company, or having any bill, &c. of any other perſon depoſited with the ſaid company, or with him as a ſervant of the ſaid company, ſhall ſecrete, embezzle, or run away with, any ſuch note, &c. every officer or ſervant ſo offending, and convicted, ſhall be deemed guilty of felony, and ſhall ſuffer death. ſ. 3.

By 26 Geo. 2. c. 16. The court of directors of the South Sea company ſhall conſiſt of one governor, one ſub-governor, one deputy-governor, and twenty-one directors only; and the majority of ſuch court of directors, whereof the governor, ſub-governor, or deputy-governor (except as in the charter of the ſaid company is excepted) to be always one, ſhall be a court of directors. ſ. 1.

At the next general election of directors, twenty-one directors who were at the laſt election choſen, may be again choſen; and at every ſubſequent election, no more than fifteen who were at the laſt preceding general election of directors choſen, ſhall be again choſen into the office of director. ſ. 2.

The ſalaries of the governors and directors of the ſaid company ſhall continue the ſame as they now are. ſ. 3.

Stage Coaches.

By 28 Geo. 3. c. 57. If the driver of any coach, chaiſe, or other carriage of the like ſort, travelling for hire, ſhall permit more than ſix perſons, at the ſame time, to ride upon the roof, or more than two perſons, beſides the driver, on the box, ſuch driver convicted, either by his own confeſſion, the view of a juſtice, or by the oath of one witneſs, before any juſtice for the county, &c. where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, ſhall, for every perſon ſo riding as an outſide paſſenger, over the number beforementioned, forfeit forty ſhillings; and in caſe the driver ſhall alſo be the owner of ſuch coach, then 4*l.*; and in default of payment of the ſaid penalties, the perſon offending ſhall be committed to the common gaol for one month. ſ. 1.

If the driver of any coach travelling with a greater number of perſons on the top or box thereof than is allowed by this act, cannot be found or known, or being found or known ſhall not attend in purſuance of any ſummons ſerved upon him, requiring his appearance before a juſtice, upon a complaint laid againſt him of any offence committed againſt this act, then the owner of ſuch coach ſhall be liable to the penalty laid upon ſuch driver. ſ. 2.

If any conſtable or peace officer ſhall refuſe or neglect to execute any warrant granted by any juſtice purſuant to this act, ſuch perſon convicted thereof before one juſtice, either by his own confeſſion, or upon the oath of one witneſs, ſhall forfeit 40 s.; and in caſe the perſon convicted doth not forthwith pay, or ſecure to be paid, the ſaid penalty, then it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice to commit ſuch perſon to the common gaol, for not exceeding one month. ſ. 3.

All penalties ſhall go, one half to the informer, and the other half to the ſurveyor of the highways of the pariſh where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, to be laid out in the amendment of the public roads within ſuch pariſh. ſ. 4.

The forms of the proceedings ſet forth in the ſchedule, ſhall be uſed upon all occaſions, with ſuch additions or variations only as be neceſſary to adapt them to the caſe; and no objection ſhall be allowed to be made, on account of want of form only. ſ. 5.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 36. If the driver of any coach, chaiſe, or other carriage of the like ſort drawn by three or more horſes, and travelling for hire, ſhall permit more than one perſon on the coach-box beſides himſelf, and four perſons on the roof; and if ſuch coach, &c. ſhall be drawn by leſs than three horſes, more than one perſon on the coach box, and three perſons on the roof, (except the driver of ſuch coach, &c. drawn by leſs than three horſes which ſhall not travel a greater diſtance than twenty-five miles from the poſt-office in London, and who ſhall not carry more than one perſon on the coach-box, and four perſons on the roof at the ſame time) to be conveyed in any ſuch coach, &c. ſuch driver ſhall pay to the collector of the tolls, at every turnpike gate through which ſuch carriage ſhall paſs, five ſhillings for each perſon above the number limited, which ſuch collector is authoriſed to demand, and receive; and if ſuch paſſengers, beyond the number limited, ſhall be ſet down, or taken up, whereby the payment of the five ſhillings may be evaded, then the driver being convicted, either by his own confeſſion, the view of a juſtice, or the oath of one witneſs, before any juſtice for the county, &c. where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, ſhall, for ſuch offence, be committed to the common gaol, for not exceeding one month, nor leſs than fourteen days, at the diſcretion of the juſtice. ſ. 1.

The ſaid five ſhillings for each paſſenger beyond the number allowed, ſhall be recovered in like manner as the turnpike tolls are by the act for repairing ſuch road authoriſed to be collected. ſ. 2.

There ſhall be painted on the outſide of each of the doors of every ſuch ſtage coach (the coaches carrying the mail, under the direction of the poſt-maſters general, excepted) in large characters, the chriſtian and ſurname of the proprietor, or of one of the proprietors, of ſuch carriage, and in the caſe of there being more than one proprietor, and one of them ſhall reſide within London or Weſtminſter, or the bills of mortality, then the name of ſuch laſt mentioned proprietor ſhall be the name to be put upon ſuch carriage. ſ. 3.

If the coachman ſhall permit any other perſon to drive the ſame, without the conſent of the paſſengers within ſuch coach, or ſhall quit the box without reaſonable occaſion, or for longer than ſuch occaſion may require, or ſhall, by furiouſly driving, or by any negligence or miſconduct, overturn the carriage, or in any manner endanger the perſons or property of the paſſengers, or the property of the owners of ſuch carriage, ſuch coachman ſhall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.* nor leſs than 40*s.* ſ. 4.

If any guard to any ſtage coach ſhall fire off the arms he is entruſted with, either while the coach is going on the road, or going through or ſtanding in any town, otherwiſe than for the defence of ſuch coach ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 20*s.* ſ. 5.

The penalties by the former act inflicted on peace officers refuſing or neglecting to execute warrants granted by juſtices, purſuant to the ſaid act, ſhall extend to all peace officers who ſhall refuſe or neglect to execute any warrants to be granted in purſuance of this act; and the penalties inflicted by this act ſhall be recovered, and applied in the ſame manner, as by the ſaid act is directed reſpecting the recovery of the penalties thereby inflicted; and the forms of proceedings relative to the matters contained in this act, ſhall be the ſame as thoſe contained in the ſchedule to the ſaid act, and ſhall be uſed on all occaſions, with ſuch additions or variations only as may be neceſſary to adapt them to the circumſtances of the caſe; and no objection ſhall be allowed to be made, on account of want of form only in ſuch proceedings. ſ. 6.

Stamps.

Acts regulating the management of the Stamp Duties, and enforcing the payment thereof.

By 5 Will. 3. c. 21. It ſhall be lawful for their majeſties under the great ſeal to appoint commiſſioners or officers; and the commiſſioners ſo appointed ſhall keep their head office within the cities of London and Weſtminſter, and are empowered to appoint inferior officers for ſtamping of vellum, parchment, and paper, or for collecting the duties; and the commiſſioners ſhall provide ſtamps which ſhall be publiſhed by proclamation under the great ſeal; and the ſaid ſtamps may be altered or renewed as their majeſty's think fit, ſo as public notification thereof be given by proclamation. ſ. 7.

The commiſſioners in providing the ſtamps ſhall take care that the impreſſion may be durable, and leaſt liable to be counterfeited. ſ. 8.

All vellum, &c. hereby intended to be charged with the duties, ſhall, before any of the things before mentioned be written, be brought to the head office, or ſome ſub-commiſſioner or officer, to be ſtamped; and the ſaid commiſſioners and officers are required, upon demand made by any perſon, to ſtamp any quantities of vellum, &c. he paying the duties, without any other fee. ſ. 9.—9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 25. ſ. 49.—9 Ann. c. 23. ſ. 25.

If any commiſſioner or officer ſhall fix any ſuch ſtamp to any vellum, &c. before the duties be paid or ſecured, he ſhall forfeit 100*l.*, one moiety to their majeſties, and the other moiety to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of their majeſty's courts of record. ſ. 10.

If any perſon ſhall write, or cauſe to be written, upon any vellum, &c. any of the things for which the ſaid vellum, &c. is hereby charged to pay any duty, before ſuch time as the ſaid vellum, &c. be ſtamped, or upon which there ſhall not be ſome ſtamp reſembling the ſame, or ſhall write any thing upon vellum, &c. that ſhall be ſtamped, for any lower duty, (ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 5 l. by 6 Will. 3. c. 12. ſ. 7.) one moiety to their majeſties, and the other moiety to them that will ſue for the ſame; and in caſe any perſon who in reſpect of any public office or employment, ſhall be entruſted to write any records, deeds, or writings, by this act charged, ſhall be guilty of any fraud to deceive their majeſties of any duty by this act payable, by writing any ſuch record upon vellum, &c. not ſtamped, or on which there ſhall not be ſome ſtamp reſembling the ſame, or upon vellum, &c. ſtamped with any ſtamp which he ſhall know to be counterfeited, or by writing any ſuch deed, &c. upon vellum, &c ſtamped for a lower duty, every ſuch perſon, being convicted, ſhall, (over and above the penalty aforeſaid) forfeit his office, and be diſabled to hold the ſame for the future. And if any attorney ſhall be guilty of any ſuch fraud, and be convicted thereof, he ſhall be diſabled to practiſe. And if any deed or writing by this act charged, ſhall be written by any perſon (not being a known clerk or officer) upon vellum, &c. not ſtamped, or ſtamped for a lower duty, there ſhall be paid to their majeſties (over and above the duty for every ſuch writing) 5 l. and no ſuch record, deed, or writing, ſhall be pleaded or given in evidence in any court, or admitted to be available in law or equity, until as well the duty as the ſaid 5 l. ſhall be paid, and a receipt produced for the ſame, and until the vellum, &c. be ſtamped; and their majeſties officers are required, upon payment of the duty and 5 l. to give a receipt for the ſame, and to ſtamp the writing. ſ. 11.

The commiſſioners may appoint a perſon to attend in any court or office, to take notice of the vellum, &c. upon which any the things aforeſaid ſhall be written, and of all other matters tending to ſecure their majeſties duties ariſing by this act, and the judges and others to whom it may appertain, at the requeſt of the commiſſioners, or any two of them, ſhall make ſuch orders, and do ſuch things for the better ſecuring of the duties as ſhall be reaſonably deſired; and every perſon commiſſionated by their majeſties, and every perſon to be employed for the ſtamping of vellum, &c. before his acting, ſhall take the oath following, viz.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will faithfully execute the truſt repoſed in me, purſuant to an act of parliament, intitled, An act for granting to their majeſties ſeveral duties upon vellum, &c. for four years, towards carrying on the war againſt France, without fraud or concealment; and ſhall from time to time true account make of my doing therein, and deliver the ſame to ſuch perſon or perſons as their majeſties, their heirs, and ſucceſſors, ſhall appoint to receive ſuch account; and ſhall take no fee, reward, or profit, for the execution or performance of the ſaid truſt, or the buſineſs relating thereunto, from any perſons, other than ſuch as ſhall be paid or allowed by their majeſties, their heirs, or ſucceſſors, or by the commiſſioners of their majeſties treaſury, or three of them now being, or by the treaſurer of the exchequer, or three or more of the commiſſioners of the treaſury for the time being.

Which oath ſhall be adminiſtered to any commiſſioner, by two commiſſioners, and any of the commiſſioners may adminiſter the oath to the ſub commiſſioners, or other perſons employed. ſ. 12.

The commiſſioners, and all officers under them, ſhall obſerve ſuch orders as they ſhall receive from the treaſury; and the commiſſioners ſhall take care that the ſeveral parts of this kingdom be furniſhed with vellum, &c. ſtamped. ſ. 13.—9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 25. ſ. 62.

None of the rates before expreſſed ſhall be payable by any perſon admitted to ſue or defend in forma pauperis. ſ. 14.—9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 25. ſ. 62.

All records and other proceedings in courts of law and equity, and all deeds and writings hereby charged, ſhall be engroſſed and written in ſuch manner as they have been uſually or are now written. ſ. 15.—9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 25. ſ. 64.

As often as their majeſties ſhall think fit to alter or renew the ſtamps, it ſhall be lawful for all perſons who ſhall have any vellum, &c. marked with the ſtamp which ſhall be altered or renewed, and upon which none of the things hereby charged ſhall be written, at any time within 60 days after ſuch intention ſhall be publiſhed by proclamation, to ſend ſuch vellum, &c. to the head office, or to ſuch officers as ſhall be appointed; and the commiſſioners are required to deliver to the perſons who ſhall bring any vellum, &c. the like quantity, and as good, ſtampt with ſuch new ſtamp, without taking any money, under the penalty of 100 l., to be divided as the other penalties; and in caſe any perſon ſhall neglect to bring ſuch vellum, &c. the ſame is to be of no other uſe than if it had never been ſtamped. ſ. 16.—9 & 10 Will. 3 c. 25. ſ. 65.

As often as their majeſties ſhall alter the ſtamps, the proclamation for giving notice ſhall, within 20 days after the date, be ſent to the mayor or other head officer of every city, corporation, borough, and market town, throughout the kingdom, which officers ſhall cauſe the ſame to be publiſhed either on the next market day, or next Sunday in the church immediately after divine ſervice upon pain of 200 l, to be ſued for in any of the courts at Weſtminſter, one moiety to their majeſties; the other moiety to ſuch perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 23.—9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 25 ſ. 67.

The commiſſioners, receivers general, or other perſons employed in collecting the duties, ſhall between the 28th June and the 29th Sept. yearly, exhibit their accounts to the auditors of the impreſt, or one of them, who ſhall examine upon oath the ſaid accountants, of what money was received, and what part thereof was paid into the receipt of the exchequer, or by virtue of any privy ſeal, or warrant of the treaſury, and to whom, and for what ſervice; and the accounts are to be declared before the lords commiſſioners of the treaſury, and chancellor of the exchequer. ſ. 24.

By 6 & 7 Will. 3. c. 12. The act 5 Will. & Mar. c. 21. ſhall not charge any warrant made by, or recognizance taken before any juſtice of peace, or any ſurrender of any copyhold eſtate, or copies of ſuch eſtate, or any certificate of marriage of a widow of any ſeaman, or proceedings of a court martial which relate to trial of any common ſoldier, or any decrees or proceedings before commiſſioners of ſewers, or in the court of ſtannaries. ſ. 2.

The officers at ſea ſhall pay the ſame duty that the officers of the army at land pay, and no more. ſ. 6.

The commiſſioners of his majeſty's treaſury ſhall once in the year at leaſt ſet the prices of all ſtampt vellum, parchment, and paper; and the commiſſioners ſhall ſtamp the price ſo ſet, upon every piece of vellum, parchment, or paper, by them ſold. ſ. 9.—9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 25. ſ. 68.

By 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 25. If any perſon ſhall write upon any vellum, &c. any of the things for which the ſaid vellum vellum, &c. ought to have a double or ſingle ſtamp, before ſuch time as the ſaid vellum, &c. ſhall be ſtamped, or upon parchment, &c. ſtamped for any lower duties, than the duties by this and the former act payable, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 10*l.* beſides coſts; one moiety of which 10*l.* ſhall be to the king, and the other moiety to him that will ſue for the ſame in any court of record; and in caſe any clerk or officer, entruſted to write any records, deeds, or writings, charged to pay a duty as aforeſaid, ſhall be guilty of any fraud to deceive his majeſty, of any duty by this or the former act payable by writing any ſuch record &c. upon vellum, &c. not ſtamped, &c. ſuch clerk, &c. being convicted, ſhall (over and above the penalty) forfeit his office, and be diſabled to hold the ſame for the future; and if any attorney belonging to any court ſhall be guilty of any ſuch fraud, and be convicted, he ſhall be diſabled to practiſe as an attorney. And if any deed or writing, by this act intended to be ſtamped, ſhall be written by any perſon (not being a known clerk or officer), upon vellum, &c. not ſtamped, &c. there ſhall be paid to his majeſty (over and above the duty) for every ſuch deed, &c. 10*l* and no ſuch record, deed, &c. ſhall be pleaded or given in evidence in any court, or admitted to be available in law or equity, until as well the ſaid duty as the 10*l.* be firſt paid to his majeſty, and a receipt produced for the ſame; and until the vellum, &c. be ſtamped. ſ. 59.

The commiſſioners for the ſaid duties may appoint a perſon to attend any court or office to take notice of the vellum, &c. upon which any the things aforeſaid ſhall be written. And every perſon commiſſionated as aforeſaid, and every perſon employed under them, before his acting, ſhall take the oath following. ſ. 60.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will faithfully execute the truſt repoſed in me, purſuant to the act of parliament for the further or additional duties upon ſtamped vellum, parchment, and paper, without fraud or concealment, and ſhall from time to time true account make of my doings, and deliver the ſame to ſuch perſon or perſons as his majeſty, his heirs, or ſucceſſors, ſhall appoint to receive ſuch account, and ſhall take no fee, reward, or profit, for the execution or performance of the ſaid truſt, or the buſineſs relating thereunto, from any perſons, other than ſuch as ſhall be paid or allowed by his majeſty, his heirs, or ſucceſſors, or by the commiſſioners of his majeſty's treaſury, or any three or more of them now being, or by the treaſurer of the exchequer, or three or more of the commiſſioners of the treaſury for the time being.

Which oath may be adminiſtered to any commiſſioner by three of the ſame commiſſioners, and any of the commiſſioners may adminiſter the like oath to ſuch other perſons employed under them. ſ. 61.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, or the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or the treaſurer of the exchequer, out of the duties, ariſing from this act, to cauſe to be paid ſalaries and other incident charges. ſ. 66.

By 1 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 22. If any clerk, attorney, or other perſon entruſted to enter or file any action, plaint, bail, appearance, admiſſion, or other thing, in reſpect whereof any duty ſhall be payable, ſhall neglect to enter, file, or record the ſame, within four months after ſuch perſon ſhall have received any money for the entry, &c. of ſuch action, &c. or ſhall have undertaken to enter, &c. the ſame, or ſhall neglect to enter, &c. before any ſuch action, &c. before any further proceeding relating to the ſame be had, or if any clerk, &c. ſhall tranſact, enter, record, or file, any ſuch further proceeding, relating to ſuch plaint, bail, or apppearance, before the ſame ſhall have been duly entered, &c. ſuch clerk, &c. ſhall forfeit 20*l.* with coſts; and no ſuch record or entry ſhall (in any ſuit againſt ſuch clerk, &c. for any offence againſt this act) be of itſelf concluding evidence of the time that the ſame was made or filed; but proof ſhall be admitted of the time that the ſame was actually entered or filed. Provided, that nothing in this act ſhall oblige any clerk, &c. to enter any appearance, where judgment is entered by confeſſion. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſhall write or cauſe to be written part of any writ, mandate, bond, affidavit, or other writing, in reſpect whereof any duty is payable, on any piece of vellum, &c. whereon there ſhall have been before written any other writ, &c. in reſpect whereof any duty is payable, before ſuch vellum &c. ſhall be again ſtamped, or ſhall fraudulently eraſe the name of any perſon, or any ſum, date, or other thing, or cut off any ſtamp from any piece of vellum, &c. with intent to uſe ſuch ſtamp for any other writing, in reſpect whereof any duty ſhall be payable; every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 20*l.* with coſts. ſ. 2.

Every perſon who ſhall (in any ſuit brought upon this act) be convicted of any the neglects or offences before mentioned, ſhall likewiſe incur all other forfeitures and diſabilities in the ſaid acts mentioned. ſ. 3.

No officer ſhall be ſubject to any penalties, for writing any of the things aforeſaid, in any book or roll without ſtamps, which ſhall have been firſt ſigned by the commiſſioners, or ſome officer by them authoriſed, ſo as the perſon having the cuſtody of ſuch book or roll, do (as often as required), permit the commiſſioners, or any officer by them appointed, to inſpect ſuch book or roll, and do alſo pay unto the receiver general of the duties, all ſums of money which according to the ſaid acts, ought to be paid, in reſpect of all ſuch things as ſhall be written in ſuch book or roll. ſ. 4.

All things (in reſpect whereof any of the duties ſhall be payable) ſhall be written in ſuch manner, that ſome part thereof ſhall be either upon, or as near as conveniently may be to the ſtamps, upon pain that the perſon who ſhall write any ſuch thing, contrary to the meaning hereof ſhall forfeit 10*l.* with coſts. ſ. 5.

One moiety of all the pecuniary penalties herein before mentioned, ſhall be to her majeſty, and the other moiety, with coſts, to any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any court of record. ſ. 6.

The comptroller and accountant general of the ſaid duties, ſhall annually paſs a general account in the exchequer, of the groſs produce of the duties; in which account there ſhall be charged all the monies due, for all the ſtamps put upon any vellum, &c. diſtinguiſhing thoſe for which ready money is paid at the office, from thoſe which ſhall be delivered over to be diſtributed, and all the monies which ſhall ariſe to her majeſty, for penalties relating to the ſaid duties, and all the monies which ſhall be paid by the regiſters of the univerſities, or by any officers of the law, or others, for entries made in books, and all the monies ariſing for vellum, &c. delivered out by the commiſſioners, and all monies ſecured by bonds for the ſaid duties, and all other things which ought to be charged in a groſs account, and in the diſcharge there ſhall be comprehended all the monies which ſhall have been duly paid by the receiver general; and all ſalaries and incident charges, and the monies which ſhall be paid for vellum, &c. provided by the commiſſioners, and all other things which by the courſe of the exchequer ought to be diſcharged. ſ. 8.

All

All the debts and arrears, which at the end of ſuch account ought to be charged, ſhall be duly ſet inſuper. ſ. 9.

The ſtocks of vellum, &c. which at the end of every ſuch account ought to remain in her majeſty's warehouſes, ſhall alſo be ſet down at the foot of ſuch account, and every annual account ſhall terminate on the 1ſt Aug. and be delivered to the auditors before the 25th Dec. and proſecuted ſo that the ſame may be finiſhed before the 1ſt May, under the penalty of forfeiting his office, and 100*l.* one moiety to the queen, and the other to ſuch perſon who will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 10.

If any ſuch comptroller, and accountant general, ſhall knowingly return any receiver, diſtributor, or other perſon, inſuper, for any monies or ſtamps duly anſwered, whereby he ſhall ſuſtain any damage, ſuch comptroller and accountant general ſhall pay treble damages to the party grieved, to be recovered by action of the caſe, in any her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, with coſts.

By 5 Ann. c. 19. No perſon ſhall incur any penalty, mentioned in 1 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 22. by reaſon of his tranſacting, entering, or filing, any further proceeding, ſubſequent to any action, plaint, bail, or appearance, which by any other perſon ought to be firſt entered or filed, in any of her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, before the ſame ſhall be duly entered or filed. ſ. 29.

By 8 Ann. c. 9. Every commiſſioner and officer for theſe duties, viz. on apprentices, &c. ſhall, before he ſhall act, take the oath following: viz.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will faithfully execute the truſt repoſed in me purſuant to the act of parliament, intituled, An act for laying certain duties upon candles, and certain rates upon monies to be given with clerks and apprentices, towards raiſing her majeſty's ſupply for the year 1710, without fraud or concealment, and ſhall from time to time true account make of my doings therein, and deliver the ſame to ſuch perſon or perſons as her majeſty, her heirs, and ſucceſſors, ſhall appoint to receive ſuch account; and ſhall take no fee, reward, or profit, for the execution or performance of the ſaid truſt, or the buſineſs relating thereto from any perſon or perſons, other than ſuch as ſhall be paid or allowed by her majeſty, her heirs, and ſucceſſors, or ſome other perſon, &c. under her or them to that purpoſe authoriſed.

which oath may be adminiſtered by two commiſſioners, or a juſtice of peace. ſ. 42.

The commiſſioners ſhall obſerve ſuch rules as they ſhall receive from the treaſury; and the officer neglecting his duty ſhall anſwer full damages, and treble coſts.

By 9 Ann. c. 23. All vellum, &c. upon which any certificate, &c. ſhall be written or printed, ſhall before ſuch writing or printing, be brought to the head office, and the commiſſioners ſhall upon demand, ſtamp any quantities of vellum, &c. the perſons demanding paying to the receiver general the duties payable by this act, without any other fee, which ſtamp ſhall be a ſufficient diſcharge for the duties. ſ. 25.

If any officer of the cuſtoms ſhall ſign any certificate or debenture, not ſtamped, or if any other perſon ſhall write or print, or cauſe to be written, &c. any ſuch certificate debenture, or bill of lading, licenſe, or almanack, or ſign ſuch bill of lading, or ſell, or expoſe to ſale, any ſuch almanack, before the vellum, &c. ſhall appear to have been ſtamped, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 10*l.* with coſts; and every ſuch officer of the cuſtoms, being convicted of ſuch offence, ſhall (over and beſides the penalty) forfeit his office, and be incapable to hold the ſame; and if any ſuch certificate, debenture, bill of lading, or licenſe, ſhall be written upon vellum, &c. not appearing to have been duly ſtamped, there ſhall be paid to her majeſty (over and above the duties) for every ſuch certificate, &c. 5*l.* and no ſuch certificate, &c. ſhall be available in law, unleſs as well the ſaid duties as the 5*l.* be firſt paid, and a receipt produced, and until the certificate, &c. be ſtamped. ſ. 27.

All public officers who ſhall have in their cuſtody any of the ſaid debentures, or any public books, files, records, remembrances, dockets, or proceedings, the ſight whereof may tend to the ſecuring of any her majeſty's ſtamp duties, ſhall permit any officer authoriſed by the commiſſioners to inſpect ſuch books, &c. and to take ſuch notes as ſhall be neceſſary, without fee, upon paying of 5*l.* with coſts. ſ. 28.

Every commiſſioner and officer who ſhall act in the managing the duties hereby granted, ſhall before he act take the oath following, viz.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will faithfully execute the truſt repoſed in me, purſuant to the act of parliament, whereby certain duties are charged upon certificates, debentures, bills of lading, almanacks, and certain licences, to be ſtamped, as is therein mentioned, without fraud or concealment; and ſhall from time to time true account make of my doings therein, and deliver the ſame to ſuch perſon or perſons as her majeſty, her heirs, or ſucceſſors, ſhall appoint to receive ſuch account; and ſhall take no fee, reward, or profit, for the execution or performance of the ſaid truſt, or the buſineſs relating thereto, from any perſon or perſons, other than ſuch as ſhall be allowed by her majeſty, her heirs, or ſucceſſors, or ſome other perſon or perſons under her or them to that purpoſe authoriſed.

Which oath may be adminiſtered by two commiſſioners, or any juſtice of peace. ſ. 29.

The commiſſioners and officers ſhall obſerve ſuch orders as they ſhall receive from the treaſury, or the treaſurer of the exchequer; and no fee ſhall be taken by any officers, relating to the ſaid ſtamp duties, from any of her majeſty's ſubjects; and in caſe any officer entruſted, in relation to the ſtamp duties, ſhall neglect to perform any thing by this act required, whereby any of her majeſty's ſubjects may ſuſtain any damage, ſuch officer ſhall be liable by any action founded on this ſtatute, to anſwer to the party grieved all ſuch damages, with treble coſts. ſ. 30.

The commiſſioners ſhall take care that the ſeveral parts of the kingdom be ſufficiently furniſhed with vellum, &c. ſtamped. ſ. 35.

The commiſſioners of the treaſury ſhall once every year ſet the prices of ſtampt vellum, &c. and ſhall ſtamp the price upon every piece of parchment or paper by them ſold. ſ. 36.

All penalties hereby impoſed, relating to the ſaid duties upon ſtampt vellum, &c. ſhall be one moiety to her majeſty, and the other, with coſts, to ſuch perſon as ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, for offences committed in England, and in her majeſty's court of exchequer in Scotland, for offences committed in Scotland. ſ. 37.

By 10. Ann. c. 19. If any perſon ſhall write or print, or cauſe to be written or printed, or ſign any of the laſt-mentioned things, viz. ſurrenders, &c. or ſell or expoſe to ſale any ſuch pamphlet or newſpaper, (the ſaid pamphlets exceeding one ſheet excepted) before the vellum, &c. whereupon the ſame ſhall be written or printed, ſhall appear to have been duly ſtamped, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 10*l.* with coſts; and every ſteward or other officer offending herein, and being convicted, ſhall (over and beſides the penalty), forfeit his office, and be incapable to hold the ſame; and if any of the ſaid things ſhall be written upon vellum, &c. not appearing to have been duly ſtamped, there ſhall be paid to her majeſty (over and above the duties) for every ſuch thing, 5 l.; and no ſuch thing ſhall be available in law or equity, unleſs as well the ſaid duties as the 5 l. be firſt paid and a receipt produced, and until the vellum, &c. be ſtamped; and the receiver general and his deputy are required, upon payment of the duty, and of the 5 l., to give a receipt for ſuch money; and the proper officers are thereupon to ſtamp ſuch matter. ſ. 105.

Every commiſſioner and officer, who ſhall act in the managing the duties laſt mentioned, ſhall before he act take the oath following:

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will faithfully execute the truſt repoſed in me, purſuant to the act of parliament, where by certain duties are charged upon ſurrenders of, and admittances to, copyhold lands or tenements, and other the matters and things thereby directed to be ſtamped, as is therein mentioned, without fraud or concealment, and ſhall, from time to time, true account make of my doings therein and deliver the ſame to ſuch perſon or perſons, as her majeſty, her heirs, and ſucceſſors, ſhall appoint to receive ſuch account, and ſhall take no fee or reward, or profit, for the execution or performance of the ſaid truſt or the buſineſs relating thereto, from any perſon or perſons, other than ſuch as ſhall be allowed by her majeſty, her heirs, and ſucceſſors, or ſome other perſon, &c. by her or them to that purpoſe authorized.

Which oath may be adminiſtered by any two of the commiſſioners, or any juſtice of peace. ſ. 106.

The ſtamps provided in purſuance of any act of parliament ſhall, notwithſtanding the addition of any letters or numerical figures to diſtinguiſh one die from another of the ſame device, be adjudged lawful ſtamps. ſ. 179.

All courts and judges ought judicially to take notice of the proclamation iſſued by king William and queen Mary, and of the ſtamps thereby publiſhed, and which ſhall hereafter be publiſhed by proclamation. ſ. 180.

The commiſſioners of the ſtamp duties may keep their head office in any of the inns of court, or of the pariſhes of St. Andrew, Holborn, St. Clement Danes, St. Paul, Covent Garden, or St. Giles in the Fields, though not within London or Weſtminſter. ſ. 181.

By 10 Ann. c. 26. Nothing in any act of parliament for granting duties upon ſtampt vellum, &c. ſhall charge any warrants or inſtruments ſigned by the chief juſtices in eyre, or by any warden, lieutenant, or other officer, of her majeſty's foreſts or chaces for any thing relating to their offices. ſ. 74.

By 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 9. Where more than one of the things charged ſhall be written upon one piece of vellum, &c. the duties ſhall be charged on every one of ſuch things. ſ. 24.

All vellum, &c. ſhall (before any the things, in reſpect whereof any ſtamp duty is payable, hereby and by the former acts, ſhall be thereupon written) be brought to the head office and ſtamped; and if any of the ſaid things ſhall be written on vellum, &c. not appearing to have been ſtamped according to this act, there ſhall be paid to her majeſty, (over and above the duties), 5 l.; and no ſuch thing ſhall be available, or given in evidence, unleſs, as well the duty hereby charged as the 5 l. be firſt paid to her majeſty, and a receipt produced for the ſame, and until the vellum, &c. be ſtamped. ſ. 25.

Every commiſſioner and officer, who ſhall act in the collecting the ſtamp duties laſt mentioned, ſhall, before he act in the ſame, take the oath following. viz.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will faithfully execute the truſt repoſed in me, purſuant to the act of parliament made in the 12th year of the reign of her majeſty queen Anne, whereby certain additional duties are charged or made payable in reſpect of the ſeveral matters or things engroſſed or written as therein is mentioned, without fraud or concealment, and ſhall from time true account make of my doings therein, and deliver the ſame to ſuch perſon or perſons as her majeſty, her heirs, and ſucceſſors, ſhall appoint to receive ſuch account, and ſhall take no fee, reward, or profit, for the execution or performance of the ſaid truſt, or the buſineſs relating thereto, from any perſon or perſons, other than ſuch as ſhall be allowed by her majeſty, her heirs, or ſucceſſors, or ſome other perſon or perſons by her or them to that purpoſe authorized.

Which oath may be adminiſtered by two of the commiſſioners, or any juſtice of peace. ſ. 26.

By 12 Geo. 1. c. 33. It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners, out of the duties, to cauſe ſuch ſums to be paid for ſalaries and other incident charges as ſhall be neceſſary. ſ. 3.

None of the rates in this act ſhall be paid by any perſon admitted to ſue or defend in forma pauperis. ſ. 5.

All vellum, &c. charged by this act, ſhall be brought to the head office and ſtamped; and if any of the things ſo to be written ſhall be written upon vellum, &c. not appearing to have been ſtamped according to this act, there ſhall be paid (over and above the duties) 5 l. and no ſuch thing ſhall be available, or given in evidence, unleſs as well the duties as the 5 l. be firſt paid, and until the vellum, &c. be ſtamped; which 5 l. is to be applied to the ſame uſes as the duties hereby granted. ſ. 6.

Every commiſſioner and officer, who ſhall act in the managing the ſtamp duties hereby granted, ſhall take the oath following, viz.

I A. B. do ſwear that I will faithfully execute the truſt repoſed in me, purſuant to the act of parliament made in the 12th year of the reign of his majeſty king George, (intitled, An act for the relief of the ſuitors of the high court of chancery) whereby certain additional duties are charged or made payable in reſpect of the ſeveral matters and things engroſſed or written, as therein is mentioned, without fraud or concealment; and ſhall from time to time true account make of my doings therein, and deliver the ſame to ſuch perſon or perſons as by the ſaid act are empowered to receive ſuch account; and ſhall take no fee, reward, or profit, whatſoever, for the execution or performance of the ſaid truſt, or the buſineſs relating thereto, from any perſon or perſons whatſoever, other than ſuch as by the ſaid act is allowed of.

Which oath may be adminiſtered by two of the commiſſioners, or by one juſtice of peace. ſ. 7.

All receivers general, and other officers concerned in the managing or paying the duties ariſing by this act, or in the accounts thereof, ſhall perform their duties, under the like penalties as are preſcribed by 9 Will. 3. c. 44. which ſee in SALT. ſ. 10.

The receiver general, controller, or other perſon employed in receiving or paying the duties hereby granted, ſhall, between the 2d of Aug. and the 25th Dec. every year, exhibit their accounts thereof to the auditors of the impreſt, who ſhall examine upon oath the accountants; and the auditor ſhall have of every perſon accounting, 20 s. for every 1000 l. the account ſhall amount unto; which accounts

ſhall be ſigned by the auditor, and ſhall be a ſufficient diſcharge. ſ. 12.

By 29 Geo. 2. c. 12. Every piece of vellum, parchment, or paper, on which ſhall be written or printed any licenſe for ſelling ale or beer, or other exciſeable liquors by retail, ſhall be brought to the head office; and the ſaid commiſſioners, by their officers, ſhall upon demand ſtamp any quantities of vellum, &c. to be uſed for writing or printing ſuch licence, on paying to the receiver general of the ſtamp duties, or his deputy or clerk, the duty for the ſame, without any fee; which ſtamp to be put thereupon in purſuance of this act, ſhall be a diſcharge for the duty hereby payable. ſ. 3.

The commiſſioners, and all other officers employed in the collecting or managing the ſaid duty, ſhall in the execution of their offices, obſerve ſuch orders as they receive from the commiſſioners of the treaſury; and no fee ſhall be taken by any ſuch commiſſioners and officers relating to the ſaid duty, for any thing to be done in purſuance of this act; and in caſe any officer intruſted in the execution of this act, neglect to perform any thing by this act required, whereby any of his majeſty's ſubjects ſuſtain any damage, he ſhall be liable to anſwer to the party grieved all ſuch damage, with treble coſts of ſuit. ſ. 4.

The commiſſioners ſhall take care that the ſeveral parts of Great Britain, be ſufficiently furniſhed with vellum, &c. ſtampt as by this act is directed, to the end that the ſubjects of his majeſty may have it in their election to buy the ſame of the perſons employed by the commiſſioners, at the uſual rates above the ſaid duty, or to bring their own vellum, &c. to be ſtampt. ſ. 6.

The price of ſuch ſtampt vellum, &c. ſhall be yearly ſet, and ſuch price ſtampt, and ſuch allowance made upon preſent payment of the duty, for any quantity of the ſaid vellum, &c. ſo by the ſaid commiſſioners to be ſold, as by any former law relating to ſtampt vellum, &c. is directed. ſ. 7.

The commiſſioners and their officers ſhall be ſubject to ſuch penalties for any breach of the truſt hereby in them repoſed, or for miſapplying the money as by any former law relating to ſtampt vellum, &c. ſ. 9.

If any perſon cauſe to be written or printed any ſuch licence as aforeſaid, before the vellum, parchment, or paper whereupon ſuch licence is written or printed, appear to have been duly ſtamped, every perſon ſo offending ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 10*l.* with coſts of ſuit; to be recovered as penalties by any former laws relating to ſtamped vellum, &c. And if any ſuch licence be ſo written or printed contrary to this act, there ſhall be paid to his majeſty, over and above the duty hereby payable, 5*l.* to be applied as the ſaid duty: and no ſuch licence ſhall be available in law, or be given in evidence, or admitted in any court, unleſs as well the duty hereby charged, as the ſaid 5*l.* be firſt paid, and a receipt produced for the ſame under the hand of the receiver general of the ſtamp duties, or of his deputy or clerk, and until the vellum, &c. on which ſuch licence is written or printed be ſtamped according to this act; and the ſaid receiver general, or his deputy, or clerk, ſhall upon payment or tender of the duty payable by this act, and of the ſaid 5*l.* give a receipt for ſuch money, and thereupon the officers ſhall ſtamp ſuch licence. ſ. 20.

Nothing in this act, or in any former law relating to ſtamped vellum, &c. ſhall extend to charge with any duty ſuch vellum, &c. on which any licence to be granted by the commiſſioners of exciſe of England or Scotland, or by their officers, to retail diſtilled liquors or ſtrong waters, ſhall be written or printed. ſ. 25.

If any action be brought for any thing done by virtue of this act, the defendant may plead the general iſſue: and if the plaintiff diſcontinue ſuch action, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 28. — alſo 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 30. ſ. 9.

[By 7 Geo. 3. c. 44. There ſhall be allowed in Great Britain, to every perſon who ſhall, at one time, bring to be ſtamped, or buy of the commiſſioners, vellum, parchment, or paper, charged with any duties by 29 Geo. 2. c. 12. which ſhall, in the whole, amount to 10*l.* or upwards, after the rate of four per cent. per annum for ſix months upon the preſent payment of the ſaid duties at the head office. ſ. 9. alſo 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 30. ſ. 3.]

By 32 Geo. 2 c. 35. If any of the things ſo to be written, be written contrary to the meaning hereof, upon vellum, &c. not appearing to have been ſtamped according to this act, there ſhall be paid (over and above the ſtamp duties) for every ſuch thing 5*l.* and no ſuch thing ſhall be available in law or equity, or be given in evidence, or admitted in any court, unleſs as well the duty hereby charged as the ſaid 5*l.* be firſt paid to the receiver general of the ſtamp duties, or his deputy, or clerk; and until the vellum, &c. upon which ſuch thing is written be ſtamped according to the meaning hereof: and the ſaid receiver general, and his deputy, or clerk, are required upon tender of the ſaid duties, and of the ſaid 5*l.* and ſuch other ſums as by former acts are payable, to give a receipt for ſuch monies; and the other proper officers are to ſtamp ſuch things with the proper ſtamps, which 5*l.* is to be applied to the ſame uſes as the duties hereby granted. ſ. 13.

By 5 Geo. 3. c. 46. There ſhall be allowed in Great Britain to every perſon who ſhall at one time bring to be ſtamped, or buy of the commiſſioners parchment or paper, the duties whereof ſhall amount to 10*l.* or upwards, after the rate of 4*l.* in the 100*l.* per annum for ſix months upon the preſent payment of the duties, at the head office. ſ. 6.

All public officers in Great Britain, who ſhall have in their cuſtody any books, papers, files, records, remembrances, dockets, papers, and proceedings, the ſight or knowledge whereof may tend to the ſecuring any ſtamp duties, or to the proof or diſcovery of any fraud or omiſſion, ſhall permit any officer thereunto authoriſed by the commiſſioners, to inſpect all ſuch books, &c. and to take thereout notes or memorandums, without fee; upon pain of 50*l.* ſ. 38.

It ſhall be lawful for all perſons who ſhall have in their poſſeſſion any ſtamped vellum, parchment, or paper, written or ingroſſed upon, inadvertently and undeſignedly ſpoiled, obliterated, or by any means rendered unfit for the purpoſe intended, before the ſame is executed, and which ſhall not have been uſed for any other purpoſe, or in any other manner, nor any money, or other conſideration, paid to the attorney, ſolicitor, or other perſon employed to tranſact the buſineſs, or to the writer thereof, for the duty, to bring or ſend ſuch ſtamped paper, vellum, or parchment, unto the head office in London or Weſtminſter; and upon oath (which the commiſſioners are to adminiſter) that ſuch ſtamped vellum, parchment, or paper, hath not been executed by any party, uſed for any other purpoſe, or in any other manner, and that no money, or other conſideration, hath been paid or given for the duty (except the money firſt for paid ſuch duty) the commiſſioners are to ſtamp the like quantity of vellum, parchment, or paper, with the reſpective duties ſtamped on the vellum, parchment, or paper, ſo written upon, ſpoiled, obliterated, or rendered unfit for uſe, without taking any money, or other conſideration. ſ. 39.

All

All penalties and forfeitures by this act, not otherwiſe diſpoſed of, ſhall go, the one moiety to his majeſty, and the other to the perſon who ſhall inform and ſue in any court of record, with coſts. ſ. 41.

In caſe any officer employed in the execution of the acts, in relation to the duties, ſhall refuſe or neglect to do any matter by the acts required whereby any of his majeſty's ſubjects ſhall ſuſtain any damage whatſoever, ſuch officer ſhall be liable, by any action to be founded on this ſtatute, to anſwer to the party grieved, all damages, with treble coſts. 30 Geo. 2. c. 19. ſ. 24.—32 Geo. 2. c. 35. ſ. 15.—5 Geo. 3. c. 47. ſ. 6.

The commiſſioners ſhall take care that the ſeveral parts of Great Britain ſhall be ſufficiently furniſhed with vellum, &c. ſtamped, that the ſubjects may have it in their election either to buy the ſame of the officers employed by the commiſſioners, at the uſual rates, or to bring their own vellum, &c. to be ſtamped. 30 Geo. 2. c. 19. ſ. 20.—16 Geo. 3. c. 34. ſ. 12.

All ſuch parts of any acts relative to any turnpike, highway, paving, road, bridge, incloſure, navigation, or canal, or any other matter, paſſed before 5th Dec. 1782, as exempt any mortgage, aſſignment, transfer, or other ſecurity for borrowing money, or any nomination, contract, bond, warrant, judgment, or other writing whatſoever, liable to ſtamped duties, from being ſtamped, ſhall be repealed. 23 Geo. 3. c. 58. ſ. 13.

The ſaid repeal ſhall not extend to any transfer of any public or government funds; or to any inſtruments whatſoever, concerning the public revenue, or public funds; or to any other writings expreſsly exempted from the ſtamp duties, by any act granting ſuch duties, unleſs where ſuch exemption has been repealed. ſ. 14.

Any perſon ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. 30 Geo. 2. c. 19. ſ. 74.—32 Geo. 2. c. 35. ſ. 23.—2 Geo. 3. c. 36. ſ. 10.—5 Geo. 3. c. 46. ſ. 44.—5 Geo. 3. c. 47. ſ. 12.—17 Geo. 3. c. 50. ſ. 28.—23 Geo. 3. c. 58. ſ. 20.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 82. Whereſoever any perſon ſhall be convicted before a juſtice for any offence againſt any act now in being, or hereafter to be made, touching the duties on ſtamped vellum, &c. by which any pecuniary penalty ſhall be forfeited, the ſaid juſtice ſhall levy the ſaid penalty in ſuch manner as in ſuch act is contained, and apply the ſame to ſuch uſes as are therein directed, in caſe the ſame or any other acts relating thereto ſhall direct the application thereof; and in default of ſuch directions, then to apply the ſame in ſuch manner as is herein-after directed. ſ. 1.

One moiety of all penalties (except where a different application ſhall be preſcribed) ſhall be paid to the informer, proſecuting for the ſame within ſix months, and the other moiety (the charges for the recovery being firſt deducted) ſhall be paid to his majeſty, in manner after directed. ſ. 2.

Every diſtribution of any penalty directed to be made by this or any other act touching the ſaid duties, upon conviction before a juſtice, ſhall be confined to the proſecuting for the ſame within the time before limited; and in default of ſuch proſecution within the time aforeſaid, no informer ſhall have any part of ſuch penalty, but the whole ſhall belong to his majeſty, and ſhall be recoverable by the ways in ſuch acts directed. ſ. 3.

All penalties and ſhares of penalties payable to his majeſty, touching the ſaid duties, ſhall be paid into the hands of the receiver general of the duties on ſtamped vellum, &c. (or ſome perſon authoriſed by the commiſſioners) who ſhall keep a diſtinct account thereof, and pay the ſame (the charges of paying and accounting for the ſame being deducted) into the exchequer, on or before Auguſt in every year, unleſs the ſame ſhall be a Sunday or holiday, and then on the day following; and in the office of the auditor there ſhall be kept books, in which all monies ariſing from the penalties payable to his majeſty, ſhall be entered ſeparate from all other monies payable to his majeſty upon any account whatſoever; and the ſaid monies ſo paid into the exchequer, ſhall be applied to the uſe of his majeſty, in ſuch manner, as before this act. ſ. 4.

Where any penalty for any offence committed againſt this, or any act now or hereafter to be made, touching the duties, on ſtamped vellum, &c. ſhall be incurred, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice to cauſe the conviction to be made out in the form following, mutatis mutandis, as the caſe ſhall be; and ſuch conviction ſhall be good without ſtating the caſe or the facts of evidence in any more particular manner, viz.

Every ſtatute now in force touching the ſaid duties, not hereby altered or repealed, ſhall be put in execution. ſ. 8.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 12.

By 27 Geo. 3. c. 13. To prevent the multiplication of ſtamps, on which ſeveral duties are impoſed, it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners, inſtead of diſtinct ſtamps, to cauſe one new ſtamp to be provided, to denote the ſeveral rates, on every inſtrument, matter, or thing, from time to time, as ſhall be thought needful, and to repair, renew, or alter the ſame as there ſhall be occaſion. ſ. 41.

Inſtead of the duties impoſed by ſeveral acts being received in diſtinct ſums, according to the proportions by which the ſame are impoſed, it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners, and all officers concerned in the management of the ſaid duties, to conſolidate the monies ariſing from the ſaid rates into one ſum, to the amount of all the duties, and to receive the ſame accordingly; and to keep at the head office one diſtinct account of the monies ariſing from the conſolidated duties, and to bring into the ſame account all duties under the management of the commiſſioners, which ſhall be denoted by the ſame ſtamp, without any ſeparation of the ſeveral parts thereof, or diſtinction taken as to the uſes to which the ſame are appropriated, or the act granting or regulating the ſame. ſ. 42.

All monies ariſing from the duties on ſtamped vellum, &c. ſhall be paid into the hands of the receiver general, who ſhall keep one account only of all the duties, and pay the ſame accordingly, (the charges of raiſing, paying, and accounting, being deducted) into the exchequer, from time to time, weekly; viz. on Wedneſday in every week if not an holiday, and if an holiday, then on the next day, for the purpoſes hereinafter declared. ſ. 43.

The commiſſioners and other officers under them, ſhall obſerve ſuch rules and orders as they ſhall receive from the commiſſioners of the treaſury. ſ. 44.

The ſaid commiſſioners and their officers, and all other officers concerned in the management of the duties, ſhall be ſubject to ſuch penalties for breach of truſt or for miſapplying money contrary to this act, as by any former law relating to the duties are inflicted; and all powers, &c. by any former act relating to the duties on ſtamped vellum, &c. not hereby altered, ſhall be in force, with reſpect to the duties hereby conſolidated, and ſhall be put in execution for raiſing the ſame, as fully as if they had been repeated in this act. ſ. 45.

If any perſon ſhall forge, or procure to be forged, any ſeal, ſtamp, or mark, to reſemble any ſeal, &c. directed to be allowed or uſed, in purſuance of this or any former act relating to the duties on ſtamped vellum, &c. for denoting the duties, or ſhall counterfeit the impreſſion of the ſame, with intent to defraud his majeſty of any of the duties, or ſhall utter or ſell any vellum, &c. with ſuch counterfeit ſtamp thereupon, knowing the ſame to be counterfeit, or ſhall fraudulently uſe any ſeal, &c. directed or allowed to be uſed, with intent to defraud his majeſty of any of the duties; every perſon ſo offending, ſhall be adjudged a felon, without benefit of clergy. ſ. 46.

Nothing herein ſhall charge any label, ſlip, or memorandum, containing the heads of inſurances to be made by the corporations of the Royal Exchange aſſurance, or London aſſurance, or the corporations of the Royal Exchange aſſurance of houſes and goods from fire, and London aſſurance of houſes and goods from fire, to the payment of the duties on contracts or agreements. ſ. 3.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to charge the duty of 6*s.* on any memorandum or agreement for any leaſe, at rack rent of any meſſuage under the yearly value of 5*l.*; or to charge any memorandum or agreement for the hire of any labourer, artificer, manufacturer, or menial ſervant; or to charge any memorandum, letter, or agreement, made for or relating to the ſale of any goods; or to charge any memorandum or agreement where the matter of agreement ſhall not exceed 20*l.*; or to charge any memorandum or agreement made in Scotland, that ſhall be ſtamped with the duty required on deeds in Scotland. ſ. 4.

No memorandum or agreement not ſtamped, ſhall be void, in caſe the ſame ſhall be ſtamped at the head office, or the duty ſhall be paid thereon, and a receipt given thereon for the ſame by the proper officer within 21 days after the ſame ſhall have been entered into. ſ. 5.

Almanack.

Every almanack for one year, or for any time leſs, which ſhall be printed on one ſide of one ſheet of paper, by 9 Ann. c. 23. ſ. 23. 1 d.—by 30 Geo. 2. c. 19. ſ. 1. 1 d. — and by 21 Geo. 3. c. 56. ſ. 1. 2*d.* — IN THE WHOLE fourpence.

Every other printed almanack for one year, by 9 Ann. c. 23. ſ. 23. 2*d.*—and by 30 Geo. 2. c. 19. ſ. 1. 2 d.— IN THE WHOLE fourpence.

If any almanack ſhall be made to ſerve for ſeveral years, the rates ſhall be paid for every year, 9 Ann. c. 23. ſ. 23. 30 Geo. 2. c. 19. ſ. 1.—21 Geo. 3. c. 56.

By 9 Ann. c. 23. Where any almanack ſhall contain more than one ſheet, it ſhall be ſufficient to ſtamp one of the ſheets. ſ. 26.

The commiſſioners may deliver to the perſons by whom almanacks are to be printed, paper ſtampt, for the printing ſuch almanacks, upon their giving ſecurity to pay the amount of the duties within three months after ſuch delivery; and the commiſſioners, upon bringing to them any number of the copies of ſuch almanacks, within the ſaid three months, and requeſt made, ſhall cancel all the ſtamps on ſuch copies, and abate ſo much of the money due upon ſuch ſecurity as ſuch cancelled ſtamps ſhall amount to. ſ. 38.

Nothing in this act ſhall prejudice any right the univerſities or company of ſtationers, or any perſons have to printing any almanack ſubject to the duties. ſ. 52.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge any calendar in any bible or common-prayer book, or charge any other almanack with more than the duty for three years. ſ. 53.

By 30 Geo. 2. c. 19. Every perſon who ſhall ſell or expoſe to ſale, any almanack liable to any duty, by this or any former act impoſed, not being ſtamped as by this or any former act is directed, ſhall for every ſuch offence be liable to the ſame puniſhment as is inflicted on any hawker of unſtamped newſpapers, by 16 Geo. 2. c. 26. and every juſtice of peace ſhall have the like power to convict ſuch offender as by the ſaid act is granted, and every perſon who apprehends ſuch offender ſhall be intitled to the like reward as by the ſaid act is granted. ſ. 26.

By 21 Geo. 3. c. 56. Every almanack or calendar ſhall be printed in ſuch manner, that ſome part of ſuch printing ſhall be upon the ſtamp, and if any perſon ſhall print, or cauſe to be printed, any almanack or calendar otherwiſe than as aforeſaid, or ſhall ſell, or expoſe to ſale, any ſuch almanack, before the paper whereupon ſuch almanack ſhall be printed ſhall have been marked, and on which the ſtamp, at the time of ſuch ſale, ſhall be plain and viſible, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit ten pounds, to be levied as by the ſtamp laws. ſ. 5.

If any almanack ſhall be ſold, or expoſed to ſale, with the ſtamp affixed thereto in any other manner than as the ſame ſhall have been impreſſed on the paper at the ſtamp office, ſuch almanack ſhall be deemed an unſtamped almanack, and the perſon ſelling, or expoſing the ſame to ſale, ſhall be ſubject to the ſame penalty as if they had ſold, or expoſed to ſale, an unſtamped almanack. ſ. 6.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge any calendar or perpetual almanack, or any other calendar or almanack, with more than the duty that would be payable by this act, in caſe ſuch almanack was made for three years only. ſ. 7.

If any perſon ſhall forge, or procure to be forged, any ſtamp, or ſhall counterfeit the impreſſion of the ſame, with an intent to defraud, or ſhall utter, or ſell, any paper or almanack, with ſuch counterfeit ſtamp, knowing the ſame to be counterfeit, or ſhall uſe any ſtamp allowed to be uſed by this or any other act relating to the ſtamp duties, with intent to defraud, every perſon ſo offending, ſhall be adjudged a felon without benefit of clergy. ſ. 9.

Out of the duties granted by this act, there ſhall be paid 500 l. a year to the univerſity of Oxford, and 500 l. to Cambridge; to be paid half-yearly, at Midſummer and Chriſtmas. ſ. 10.

Perſons ſued in execution of this act, may plead the general iſſue and recover treble coſts. ſ. 12.

Appeal.

Any appeal from the court of admiralty, arches, or prerogative courts of Canterbury or York, by 5 Will. 3. c. 21. 40 s.—by 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 25. ſ. 11. 40 s.—and by 12 Ann. ſtat. 2. c. 9. ſ. 21. 40 s. — IN THE WHOLE ſix pounds.

Bills of exchange and promiſſory Notes.

By 23 Geo. 3. c. 49. ſ. 2. There ſhall be paid throughout Great Britain, for every piece, &c. upon which any foreign or inland bill of exchange, promiſſory note, or other note, draft, or order, ſhall be written where the ſum expreſſed therein, ſhall not amount to fifty pounds 6d.; and where the ſum ſhall amount to fifty pounds, or upwards, 1 s.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge any draft or order for the payment of money on demand, upon any banker or perſon acting as a banker, reſiding or tranſacting the buſineſs of a banker within 10 miles of the abode of the perſon drawing ſuch draft. ſ. 4.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge any bill of exchange, promiſſory or other note, draft or order, payable upon demand, iſſued in Scotland, where the ſum ſhall not exceed 21 s. ſ. 5.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge any bill of exchange, promiſſory or other note, draft, or order, payable upon demand, with any higher duty than 3 d. where the ſum ſhall not amount to 10 l. ſ. 6.

No foreign bill of exchange, promiſſory note, or other note, draft, or order, ſhall be charged with any higher duty than 6*d.*; but every duplicate and triplicate of ſuch foreign bill, &c. ſhall be chargeable with the like duty of 6*d.* ſ. 8.

All promiſſory and other notes and bills iſſued by the bank of England, ſhall be exempted from the duties upon notes, upon payment of the annual ſum of 12,000 l. into the exchequer, by half yearly payments, on 10th Oct. and 5th April. ſ. 9.

The duty on any bill of exchange, &c. ſhall be paid by the perſon giving the ſame. ſ. 12.

All vellum, paper, &c. to be ſtamped before written, &c.: and if ſuch bill of exchange, &c. ſhall not be ſtamped, or ſhall be ſtamped for a lower duty than aforeſaid, no ſuch bill of exchange, &c. ſhall be pleaded or given in evidence or be available in law or equity. ſ. 14.

The ſame allowance ſhall be made on preſent payment of the duties, only in ſuch manner as by any former law relating to ſtamped vellum, &c. is allowed. ſ. 18.

Stamps may be altered and renewed. ſ. 19.

Any perſon counterfeiting the ſtamps, or uttering ſuch counterfeits, ſhall ſuffer death as a felon without benefit of clergy. ſ. 20.

Duties granted by this act to be levied as thoſe under former ſtamp acts. ſ. 21.

The penalties ſhall go one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety with coſts to the perſon who ſhall inform, &c. in any court at Weſtminſter for offences committed in England, Wales, or Berwick, and in the court of ſeſſion, court of juſticiary, or court of exchequer in Scotland, by action of debt, &c. ſ. 22.

Perſons ſued, &c. may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 26.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 1. c. 7. Every perſon who ſhall write or ſign, or cauſe to be written or ſigned any bill of exchange, promiſſory or other note, liable to any ſtamp duty charged by the act of laſt ſeſſion, without being firſt ſtamped, or upon which there ſhall not be ſome ſtamp reſembling the ſame, he ſhall, for every ſuch bill, &c. forfeit 5 l. to be recovered as in the ſaid act is directed, or as after mentioned. ſ. 1.

All drafts or orders, for the payment of money on demand, upon any banker, or perſons acting as bankers, not drawn payable to the bearer, ſhall be liable to the duties, the exemption in the ſaid act notwithſtanding. ſ. 3.

No ſtamp duty ſhall be required for any draft, order, or note, wherein the ſum does not amount to forty ſhillings. ſ. 4.

No bill of exchange, &c. ſhall be ſtamped after the ſame ſhall have been written or ſigned, unleſs upon payment of 10 l.; and the officers are, upon payment of the duty, and the 10 l. to give a receipt for the ſame, and to ſtamp ſuch bill of exchange, &c. receipt or other diſcharge, with the ſtamp required by the before recited act. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice near the place where the offence ſhall be committed, to hear and determine any offence againſt this, or the act of laſt ſeſſion, which ſubjects the offender to the penalty of 5 l. for writing or ſigning, or cauſing to be written or ſigned, any bill of exchange, &c. or any receipt or diſcharge given upon the payment of money, without being firſt duly ſtamped; which juſtice is, upon any information or complaint, to ſummon the party accuſed, and alſo the witneſſes on either ſide, and to examine into the fact; and upon proof thereof, either by the confeſſion of the party, or by the oath of one witneſs, to give judgment for the penalty, and to award his warrant under hand and ſeal, for levying the penalty of 5 l. on the goods of the offender; and to cauſe ſale to be made thereof, in caſe they ſhall not be redeemed within ſix days, rendering to the party the overplus, (if any); and where goods cannot be found ſufficient to anſwer the penalty, to commit ſuch offender to priſon for three months, unleſs ſuch penalty ſhall be ſooner paid: and if any perſon find himſelf aggrieved by the judgment of ſuch juſtice, then he may, upon giving ſecurity to the amount of the penalty, together with ſuch coſts as ſhall be awarded in caſe ſuch judgment ſhall be affirmed, appeal to the juſtices at the next general quarter ſeſſions which ſhall happen after fourteen days next after ſuch conviction ſhall have been made, and of which appeal notice ſhall be given, who are to ſummon and examine witneſſes upon oath, and finally to hear and determine the ſame: and in caſe the judgment of ſuch juſtice ſhall be affirmed, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtices to award the perſon to pay ſuch coſts occaſioned by ſuch appeal, as to them ſhall ſeem meet. But it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice, where he ſee cauſe, to mitigate ſuch penalties (coſts of the officers and informers, being always allowed, above ſuch mitigation), and ſo as ſuch mitigation do not reduce the penalties to leſs than a moiety above the ſaid coſts. ſ. 9.

If any perſon ſhall be ſummoned as a witneſs to give evidence before ſuch juſtice, and ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear (his expences being firſt paid or tendered), without a reaſonable excuſe, to be allowed of by ſuch juſtice, or appearing, ſhall refuſe to be examined on oath, and give evidence before ſuch juſtice, then ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 40 s. to be levied in ſuch manner, as is herein directed as to other penalties, without a reaſonable excuſe for ſuch refuſal to be allowed of by ſuch juſtice. ſ. 10.

All forfeitures in this act (the charges for the recovery thereof being firſt deducted) ſhall be divided, one moiety to the receiver general of ſtamp duties, for the uſe of his majeſty, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall inform. ſ. 11.

No perſon ſhall be liable to be convicted before any juſtice, for any offence committed againſt this or the act of laſt ſeſſion, unleſs complaint be made within one year. ſ. 12.

Bills of Lading.

Any note or bill of lading which ſhall be ſigned for any goods exported by 9 Ann. c. 23. ſ. 23. 4*d.*—By 19 Geo. 3. c. 66.

c. 66. ſ. 1. 4*d.*—And by 23 Geo. 3. c. 58. ſ. 1. 4*d.*—IN THE WHOLE, one ſhilling.

Births, Marriages, and Burials.

By 23 Geo. 3. c. 67. There ſhall be paid upon the entry of any burial, marriage, birth, or chriſtening, in the regiſter of any pariſh, precinct, or place in Great Britain, a ſtamp duty of 3 d. ſ. 1

The duty to be under the management of the commiſſioners of ſtamps. ſ. 2.

Every parſon, vicar, or curate, or other perſon having authority to make entries of burials, marriages, births, or chriſtenings, who ſhall enter any burial, &c. in the regiſter for any pariſh, precinct, or place in Great Britain, before the parchment, &c. on which the entry of ſuch regiſter ſhall be made, ſhall have been ſtamped, ſuch parſon &c. ſhall forfeit 5*l.* ſ. 3.

Every parſon or perſon having authority to make the entry, is hereby veſted with power, previous to the making thereof in the regiſter, to demand and receive from the undertaker, or perſon employed in the funeral, or from the parties married, or from the parent of the child, whoſe birth is regiſtered, or other perſon requiring the chriſtening of ſuch child, 3*d.*: and if ſuch undertaker, or perſon employed in ſuch funeral, or if the parties married, or the parent or perſon bringing the child, ſhall neglect or refuſe, on demand, to pay the ſaid duty, he ſhall forfeit 5*l.* ſ. 4.

The churchwardens and overſeers of every pariſh, ſhall provide books for the regiſtering of burials, marriages, births, and chriſtenings, with ſtamps for each entry, and ſhall pay for ſuch books and the ſtamps out of the rates under their management, and ſhall receive back the money ſo paid, from the perſon authoriſed by this act to receive the duty on the entry of any burial, &c. and in the caſe of extra-parochial places, ſuch books, with ſtamps, ſhall be provided by the perſon whoſe duty it ſhall be to make entries of burials, &c. ſ. 5.

No parſon, vicar, curate, or other perſon, ſhall be ſubject to the penalties for entering any burial, &c. in any pariſh regiſter, without ſtamps, where a licence, under the hands of three commiſſioners, or ſome officer by them empowered, ſhall have been granted, ſignifying their leave that the entry of any burial, &c. to be written in ſuch regiſter, may be therein written without ſtamps, ſo as the perſon having the cuſtody of ſuch regiſter, do as often as he ſhall be thereto required, permit the commiſſioners, or any officer by them appointed, to inſpect ſuch regiſter; and do alſo as often as he ſhall be thereto required by the commiſſioners or any other by them authoriſed, pay unto the receiver general of the ſaid duties, or ſuch other officer as the commiſſioners ſhall appoint, all money which, according to this act, ought to be paid in reſpect of ſuch entries as ſhall be written in ſuch regiſter. ſ. 6.

Nothing herein ſhall charge the entry in any pariſh regiſter of the burial of any perſon who ſhall be buried from any workhouſe or hoſpital, or at the ſole expence of any charity; nor the entry in any pariſh regiſter of the birth of any child whoſe parents ſhall receive pariſh relief. ſ. 7.

The proviſions of this act, with reſpect to the regiſters of births, burials, and marriages, ſhall extend to Quakers; and the regiſters now kept by them, ſhall be ſubject to the ſtamp duties. ſ. 8.

The receiver general of the ſtamp duties at the head office, and the head diſtributors, or other perſons appointed by the commiſſioners to receive the duty impoſed, ſhall make an allowance to every perſon receiving the duty, as a recompence for his trouble in accounting for the ſame, after the rate of 2*s.* in the pound, out of the monies accounted for, and paid to ſuch receiver general, &c. according to the directions herein before. ſ. 9.

All proſecutions for recovery of the duties, as alſo for all forfeitures and offences againſt this act, ſhall be heard and determined by any juſtice near to the place; and if the party find himſelf aggrieved by the judgment of ſuch juſtice, he ſhall appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions, who are to hear and determine the ſame, and their judgment therein ſhall be final: and ſuch juſtice is, upon complaint, to ſummon the party accuſed, and upon his appearance, or refuſal or neglect to appear, to proceed to the examination of the fact; and upon due proof, either by the confeſſion of the party, or by the oath of one witneſs, to give judgment thereupon, and to award warrants under his hand for the levying ſuch forfeiture upon the goods of the offender; and to cauſe ſale to be made of the ſaid goods, if they be not redeemed within fourteen days, rendering to the party the overplus. ſ. 10.

It ſhall be lawful for the juſtice to mitigate ſuch forfeiture, coſts to the officers and informers being always allowed over ſuch mitigation, and ſo that ſuch mitigation do not reduce the penalties to leſs than a moiety above coſts. ſ. 11.

All forfeitures (charges for the recovery being firſt deducted) ſhall be divided, one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to ſuch perſon who ſhall inform. ſ. 12.

No perſon employed by virtue of this act in receiving or accounting for the duties, ſhall be diſqualied from voting at any election of members to ſerve in parliament. ſ. 13.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 15.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 75. The proviſions of the laſt act ſhall extend to all his majeſty's proteſtant ſubjects diſſenting from the church of England; and the regiſters of births, burials, and chriſtenings of ſuch of them as uſe infant baptiſm; and the regiſters of births and burials of ſuch proteſtant diſſenters as do not uſe infant baptiſm, ſhall be ſubject to the ſtamp duties by the ſaid act impoſed upon regiſters.

By 9 Ann. c. 23. All makers of playing cards or dice, before they begin to make any cards or dice, ſhall give notice in writing of the uſual place where they make the ſame, to the officers next adjacent; and as often as any perſon ſhall ſet up the employment of making cards or dice, the like notice ſhall be given, upon pain of 50*l.* And every perſon, who ſhall make cards or dice in any place not notified, ſhall forfeit 50*l.* And all ſuch perſons ſhall permit the officers to enter ſuch place for making of cards and dice, and take an account of the cards and dice, under the penalty of 10*l.* for every refuſal. And no maker of cards and dice ſhall ſuffer the ſame to be removed from the place of making, until ſuch mark upon the dice, and ſuch ſeal upon the paper and thread incloſing every pack of cards, ſhall be put thereon, as the commiſſioners ſhall appoint; upon pain of forfeiting all ſuch cards and dice, and treble the value. ſ. 41.

The makers of cards and dice ſhall once in every twenty-eight days make entry upon oath, with the commiſſioners or their officer next adjacent, of all the cards and dice made within the time; and ſhall once in ſix weeks clear all the duties; on pain of forfeiting 20*l.* for every default in making entry, and double the duty for non-payment. ſ. 42.

Every maker of cards and dice, who ſhall endeavour to defraud her majeſty by any concealment, ſhall forfeit 20*l.* And all penalties impoſed by this act in relation to the ſaid duties ſhall be divided, one moiety to the queen, and the other moiety to ſuch perſon who will ſeize or ſue for the ſame. ſ. 43.

By 10 Ann. c. 19. No playing cards or dice ſhall be ſold or expoſed to ſale, or uſed in play in any public gaming houſe, unleſs the paper and thread which ſhall have incloſed the ſame ſhall have been ſealed and ſtamped according to 9 Ann. c. 23. and unleſs one of the cards of each pack ſo ſold be alſo ſtamped on the ſpotted ſide; upon pain that every perſon who ſhall ſell or expoſe to ſale any ſuch cards or dice, ſhall forfeit for every pack of cards, and every one of ſuch dice, 5*l.* beſide coſts, to be recovered and diſtributed as the penalties relating to the duties impoſed by the ſaid act on cards and dice. ſ. 162.

If any perſon ſhall make cards or dice in any place before he ſhall have given notice of his intention to make cards or dice in ſuch place, ſuch perſon ſhall, over and above the penalties, forfeit all the cards and dice, and all materials and utenſils for making cards and dice, which ſhall be found in ſuch place, or ſhall have been made there; and no materials begun to be wrought for making of cards or dice ſhall be removed, until the ſame ſhall have been compleatly made, or the duties be paid or ſecured; upon pain that every perſon who ſhall remove, or permit to be removed, any ſuch materials, ſhall forfeit double the duty with coſts. ſ. 166.

For the prohibiting of the importing of cards and dice in ſect. 167. ſee IMPORTATION, &c. articles prohibited to be imported.

All pieces of ivory, bone or other matter, made or uſed for any play, with any letters, figures, ſpots or other marks thereupon, to denote any chance, ſhall be adjudged to be dice, and charged with the duties on dice; and if there ſhall be more than ſix chances on any one of ſuch pieces, ſuch piece ſhall be charged with the duty of 5*s.* payable for a pair of dice; and if there ſhall be more than the number of chances uſually in a pair of dice, ſuch one piece ſhall be charged with a further duty proportionate to the number of chances exceeding. ſ. 168.

It ſhall be lawful for any officer for the ſaid ſtamp duties to enter into any place where cards or dice ſhall be made, or expoſed to ſale, or ſuſpected to be privately made, or into any public gaming place, and there ſearch what quantity of cards or dice ſhall be making, and whether the cards or dice expoſed to ſale, or uſed in play, be duly ſtamped; and if the occupier of any place where cards or dice are made, or expoſed to ſale, or of any ſuch public gaming houſe, ſhall refuſe entrance or liberty of ſearch to ſuch officers, ſuch occupier ſhall forfeit 10*l.* with coſts as aforeſaid. ſ. 169.

It ſhall be lawful to remove any cards or dice from the place where the ſame are made, without ſtamping the ſame, or paying the duties, provided that within one month after the ſame ſhall be made, and before the ſame be removed, a bond be entered into to her majeſty, with ſurety, in a penal ſum of double the duties, with condition for the exporting ſuch cards or dice beyond the ſeas within a time to be limited, and that the ſame ſhall not be relanded in Great Britain, and that ſuch bond be left in the hands of the commiſſioners, and a certificate given by them, or ſuch officer as ſhall be appointed, that ſuch bond is entered into. ſ. 170.

It ſhall be lawful for any two juſtices of peace reſiding near the place where any pecuniary forfeitures not exceeding 20*l.* upon any of the acts touching any duties under the management of the commiſſioners for her majeſty's duties on ſtampt vellum, &c. ſhall be incurred, to hear and determine the ſame; which juſtices are required upon any information exhibited within one year after ſeizure made, or ſuch offence committed, to ſummon the party accuſed, and the witneſſes; and if upon appearance or contempt the party ſhall be convicted, to iſſue warrants for levying any pecuniary penalties on the goods of the offender, and to cauſe ſale to be made in caſe they ſhall not be redeemed within ſix days; and any party aggrieved may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 172.

It ſhall be lawful for the juſtices to mitigate any ſuch penalties, ſo as ſuch mitigation do not reduce the penalties to leſs than double the duties over and above the coſts. ſ. 173.

No certiorari ſhall ſuperſede execution or other proceedings upon any order made by the juſtices in purſuance of this act. ſ. 174.

By 5 Geo. 1. c. 19. Bonds entered into to her majeſty in double the duties on cards and dice, with condition for exporting the ſame, purſuant to 10 Ann. c. 19. if no proof of fraud be made within two years after the dates of the bonds, or if judgment be not obtained within one year after the proſecution commenced, ſuch bonds ſhall be void, and ſhall be delivered up by the officers to be cancelled, without fee. ſ. 48.—See 29 Geo. 2. c. 13. ſ. 7.

By 6 Geo. 1. c. 21. If any perſon ſhall fraudulently get off any ſtamp, in reſpect whereof duties are payable on playing cards; or ſhall file or new ſpot dice which have been ſold or played with, or ſhall fraudulently incloſe playing cards in any outſide paper ſealed and ſtamped, the ſame having been once made uſe of for that purpoſe; or ſhall ſell or expoſe to ſale, any playing cards not ſtamped on the ſpotted ſide, and incloſed in paper and thread ſealed and ſtamped as by 10 Ann. c. 19., every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 10*l.* to be recovered in any court at Weſtminſter, one moiety to the king, the other to the informer; and the perſon recovering ſhall be allowed his coſts. ſ. 55.

[All mayors, town clerks, and others, who ſhall take recognizances from perſons for whom ale licenſes are intended tended for ſelling ale and other exciſeable liquors, ſhall be obliged to make out ale licenſes, duly ſtamped, before ſuch recognizances be taken, under the penalty of 10*l.* And all proviſions by this act, and by 1 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 22. for prevention of ſuch frauds and omiſſions as are herein and therein mentioned, by razures and interlineations of things chargeable with the ſtamp duty, ſhall extend to the frauds relating to any ſtamp duties impoſed ſince the ſaid act. ſ. 56.]

Every cardmaker ſhall, at the time of entering every parcel of cards, enter into bond to his majeſty, with ſureties, in treble the duties on ſuch cards, with condition for the true payment of the duties within ſix weeks after the date of ſuch bond. ſ. 57.

If any cardmaker, upon entry of any quantity of cards, ſhall pay down all the duty, the commiſſioners ſhall pay ſuch maker the like allowance as for preſent payment of the ſtamp duties. ſ. 58.

If the commiſſioners for the ſtamp duties ſhall have cauſe to ſuſpect that perſons make cards or dice in any place without ſending notice, and affidavit be made thereof before any juſtice of peace declaring the ground of ſuſpicion, any officer of the duties on cards and dice may, in the day time, in the preſence of a conſtable or other peace officer, by warrant from ſuch juſtice, break open ſuch place, and ſeize all cards, dice, tools, or materials there found, and detain the ſame as the commiſſioners ſhall direct; and in caſe the ſame ſhall not within five days be claimed and replevied by the owners, they ſhall be forfeited, and may be ſold by direction of the commiſſioners; one moiety of the produce (charges deducted) to be to his majeſty, and the other to the party who ſhall diſcover the ſame. ſ. 59.

By 29 Geo. 2. c. 13. All playing cards made in Great Britain for exportation, ſhall before they are packed up for exportation be incloſed in paper and thread, in packs or parcels, in ſuch manner as the commiſſioners for managing the duties on ſtampt vellum, &c. direct, to diſtinguiſh them from other cards liable to the duties thereon impoſed; and one card in every pack of playing cards ſo made or intended for exportation, or ſo many cards in every ſuch pack as the commiſſioners direct, ſhall be ſtampt on the ſpotted ſide with ſuch mark as the commiſſioners direct; and if any perſon utter to be uſed within Great Britain, or uſe or permit to be uſed in any public gaming-houſe, any playing cards ſo ſtampt and diſtinguiſhed as cards for exportation, every perſon ſo offending, ſhall for every pack of cards ſo uttered or uſed, or permitted to be uſed, forfeit 20*l.* to be recovered and diſtributed as penalties by any former law relating to cards and dice. ſ. 6.

No bond entered into purſuant to the 10 Ann. cap. 19. for exporting cards and dice, ſhall be vacated or delivered up, until proof be made, that ſuch cards or dice have been entered and ſhipped for exportation as cards and dice, and not as ſtationary wares; and until a certificate of ſuch entry and ſhipping, ſigned by the proper officers of the cuſtoms be produced; which certificate the ſaid officers are to give without fee; notwithſtanding 5 Geo. 1. cap. 19. ſ. 7.

If any perſon ſell or buy any cover or label, before made uſe of for denoting the duty payable on cards, in order to be made uſe of for the incloſing any pack of cards, every perſon ſo offending, ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 20*l.* to be recovered in manner aforeſaid, and to be diſtributed, one moiety to the uſe of his majeſty, and the other moiety to any perſon who ſhall inform and ſue for the ſame. ſ. 8.

If either the buyer or ſeller of any ſuch cover or label, inform againſt the other party concerned in buying or ſelling ſuch cover or label, the party ſo informing ſhall be admitted to give evidence againſt the party informed againſt, and ſhall be indemnified againſt the penalties ſo incurred. ſ. 9.

If any perſon ſell or diſpoſe of any cards, called waſte cards, unleſs he before ſuch ſale mark the back or plain ſide of every painted card, in ſuch manner as to render the ſame unfit to be uſed in play; every perſon ſo offending ſhall, for every ſuch offence, forfeit 20*l.* to be recovered and diſtributed in manner aforeſaid. ſ. 10.

If any action be brought for any thing done by virtue of this act, the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff diſcontinue, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 11.

By 5 Geo. 3. c. 46. Every maker of playing cards in Great Britain, ſhall ſend to the commiſſioners, or to their officers, a ſufficient quantity of paper to have as many ſeveral aces of ſpades marked thereon as ſuch maker ſhall deſire; and no pack of playing cards made for play in Great Britain, or for exportation, ſhall be uſed in play or exported without one ace of ſpades marked as after mentioned: and the commiſſioners ſhall cauſe a new ſtamp, mark, or plate, to be prepared, with ſuch device as they think proper, to denote the ſaid ace, as well in every pack made for uſe or play in Great Britain, as for exportation, ſo as that in ſuch device there ſhall be ſome diſtinguiſhing mark between cards for home, and cards for foreign conſumption; and the commiſſioners ſhall, from time to time, renew, alter, or add to, ſuch device, as they think proper. ſ. 9.

Every maker ſhall ſend to the commiſſioners, or their officers, jews or wrappers, made for incloſing cards for uſe or play in Great Britain, with his name, and any other particular word or thing printed thereon, as the commiſſioners ſhall direct, in order that the ſame may be ſtamped, and delivered again to ſuch maker; and the commiſſioners ſhall and may denote one of the ſixpenny duties on ſuch jew or wrapper. ſ. 10.

Separate accounts ſhall be kept by the proper officer with every card maker of the cards made by him for uſe in Great Britain, and of thoſe made for exportation; the charges in which accounts ſhall be made out from the number of aces of ſpades, labels, and jews or wrappers, delivered; and every ſuch card maker ſhall, once in every 28 days, attend at the ſtamp office, or on the diſtributor of ſtamps next to where he ſhall make cards, and adjuſt, ſettle, and ſign the ſame; and in caſe any difference ſhall ariſe in ſettling ſuch accounts, then ſuch card maker ſhall immediately, or within one week after, if he carries on his trade within ten miles of London; and, if at a greater diſtance, then within 20 days, apply to the commiſſioners to ſettle the ſame, whoſe determination ſhall be final; and if ſuch card maker ſhall neglect, or refuſe to apply, then ſuch accounts, ſigned or not by him, ſhall be concluſive, and evidence againſt him. ſ. 11.

In caſe any pack of playing cards, or part, ſhall be damaged, defaced, or ſpoiled, in making, ſo as to be unfit for play; then, on oath thereof by the maker, (which the commiſſioners are to adminiſter,) ſuch maker ſhall be allowed another ace of ſpades, inſtead of the ace damaged, defaced, or ſpoiled, on producing and delivering ſuch damaged ace. ſ. 12.

If any maker ſhall uſe, in the making up any pack of cards, any ace of ſpades, jew, or wrapper, uſed before, he ſhall forfeit 20*l.* ſ. 13.

If any perſon ſhall ſell or buy any ſuch ace of ſpades, jew, or or wrapper, in order to be made uſe of in, about, or for the incloſing, any pack or parcel of cards, he ſhall forfeit 20 l. ſ. 14.

If either the buyer or ſeller ſhall inform againſt the other, the party informing ſhall be admitted to give evidence, and ſhall be indemnified againſt the penalties incurred. ſ. 15.

If any perſon ſhall reland, or cauſe to be relanded, any parcel of cards, after entered and ſhipped for exportation, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 50 l. ſ. 16.

If any perſon concerned in the relanding of ſuch exportation cards, ſhall inform againſt any other party concerned, the perſon informing ſhall be admitted to give evidence, and be indemnified againſt the penalties incurred. ſ. 17.

By 16 Geo. 3. c. 34. ſ. 17. If any perſon ſhall ſell any cards (by way of ſecond-hand cards) in packs or parcels, after the wrapper or cover, in which the ſame have been incloſed and tied, ſhall have been broke open, unleſs he ſhall, before ſuch ſale, mark the back or plain ſide of every painted or pictured card, in ſuch manner as to render the ſame unfit to be uſed in play; every perſon ſo offending ſhall, for every pack ſo ſold, forfeit 5 l. to be recovered and diſtributed in the manner directed by 29 Geo. 2.

Gloves.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 55. All perſons vending in Great Britain any gloves or mittens, made of ſilk or leather, or any other materials, ſhall annually take out a licence. ſ. 1.

For every licence granted to any perſon ſo vending ſuch gloves, &c. there ſhall be charged a ſtamp-duty of one ſhilling.

For every pair of gloves or mittens, made of ſilk or leather, or any other materials, above the value of 4 d. and not exceeding 10 d. which ſhall be uttered, or ſold by retail in Great Britain, there ſhall be charged a ſtamp-duty of one penny.

Above the value of 10 d. and not exceeding 1 s. 4 d.—two pence.

Exceeding the value of 1 s. 4 d.—three pence.

The ſaid duties ſhall be under the management of the commiſſioners for duties on ſtamped vellum, &c. who are to employ officers, and allow ſalaries and charges neceſſary, and to provide and uſe ſtamps to denote the duties, and to do all other things for putting this act into execution. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall, unleſs licenſed as after preſcribed, utter, or ſell, any gloves or mittens, upon pain to forfeit 20 l. ſ. 3.

Two commiſſioners, or ſome perſon authoriſed by them, ſhall grant licences to perſons to ſell gloves in any place within Great Britain, for one year, from the day of the date of ſuch licence; and all perſons who ſhall take out ſuch licence, ſhall take out a freſh licence for another year, ten days at leaſt before the expiration of that for which he ſhall be licenſed, if he ſhall continue to ſell gloves; and ſhall in like manner renew ſuch licence from year to year, paying down the ſums due for the ſtamps on ſuch licence, as long as he ſhall continue to ſell gloves. ſ. 4.

Every perſon vending or expoſing to ſale gloves by retail, ſhall cauſe the words, dealer in gloves, to be painted or written over the door, or front of the place at which he keeps ſuch gloves for ſale, to denote that ſuch perſon is a dealer in gloves, and licenſed: And if any perſon ſhall ſell any gloves by retail, without fixing ſuch notice, every perſon ſo vending or expoſing to ſale any gloves, ſhall, for every pair of gloves ſold, forfeit 5 l. ſ. 5.

If any perſon ſhall cauſe the words, dealer in gloves, to be affixed, without being licenſed, he ſhall forfeit 40 l. ſ. 6.

All perſons who ſhall ſell leſs than twelve dozen pair of gloves at one time, to one perſon, ſhall be deemed a retailer of gloves. ſ. 7.

Every perſon, uttering or vending by retail, or expoſing to ſale, any gloves, &c. liable to the duty, ſhall apply to the commiſſioners, or to the officers, for paper-tickets, ſtamped with the duties, to be paſted or affixed, by the perſon vending, to the inſide of the right hand glove, in ſuch form as the commiſſioners ſhall direct; and every pair of gloves ſold by any retail dealer, ſhall have affixed upon the inſide of the right hand glove of each pair, ſuch ſtamped ticket, in ſuch manner and in ſuch part as the commiſſioners ſhall direct. ſ. 8.

If any retail dealer ſhall vend, or expoſe to ſale, or if any perſon ſhall purchaſe, or receive in exchange for any other article, any gloves, &c. ſubject to the duties, unleſs the ſtamp ticket ſhall be affixed, and ſtamped as directed, or ſhall have any ticket affixed thereto, ſtamped with a ſtamp of leſs value than by this act is directed to be affixed; ſuch

perſon ſhall forfeit for every pair ſold, or expoſed to ſale, or bought or received in exchange, 20*l.* And if the party offending ſhall be a retail dealer, licenſed, the commiſſioners may, if they think fit, after conviction, refuſe to grant to ſuch offender any licence in future. ſ. 9.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any perſon licenſed, who ſhall ſell to any retailer alſo licenſed, any gloves, &c. although the ſtamp ticket ſhall not be affixed, and ſtamped as directed. ſ. 10.

If any perſon ſhall, with intent to defraud his majeſty of the duties, cut, tear, or take off, any ſtamp, or ſhall, with the like intent, affix in any glove, &c. any ticket, the ſame having been once made uſe of, and ſhall knowingly ſell, or expoſe to ſale, any pair of gloves, &c. with ſuch ticket, then every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 20*l.* ſ. 11.

If any perſon ſhall ſell or buy ſuch ticket, to be again made uſe of, to be ſold with and affixed to any glove, &c. liable to the duty, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 20*l.* ſ. 12.

If either buyer or ſeller of ſuch ticket, or of any pair of gloves, &c. not having the proper ticket affixed thereto, ſhall inform againſt the other party concerned, the party offending ſhall be admitted to give evidence againſt the party informed againſt, and ſhall be indemnified from the penalties by him incurred. ſ. 13.

Where any retail dealer ſhall deliver in any bill for any gloves, &c. ſubject to the duties, ſuch perſon ſhall make a diſtinct charge for the ſtamps affixed to the gloves, &c. charged in ſuch bill. ſ. 14.

All pecuniary penalties hereby impoſed, ſhall be divided (if ſued for within ſix months from the time of ſuch penalty being incurred) in manner following; one moiety to his majeſty, and the other, with full coſts, to the perſon who ſhall ſue. ſ. 17.

All pecuniary penalties, impoſed on any perſon for offences againſt this act, may be recovered in any court at Weſtminſter, for offences committed in England, Wales, or Berwick, and in the court of ſeſſions, court of juſticiary, or court of exchequer in Scotland, for offences committed in Scotland, by action of debt, &c. ſ. 18.

Such diviſion of the penalties ſhall be reſtricted to the proſecuting within the time before limited; and in default of ſuch proſecution within the time, no informer ſhall have any part of ſuch penalties, but the whole ſhall belong to his majeſty, and ſhall be recoverable in manner aforeſaid. ſ. 19.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice near where the offence ſhall be committed, to hear and determine any offence againſt this act which ſubjects the offender to any pecuniary penalty; which juſtice is, upon information or complaint, to ſummon the party accuſed, and alſo the witneſſes on either ſide, and ſhall examine into the fact; and upon proof thereof, either by confeſſion of the party, or by the oath of one witneſs, to give judgment for the penalty, and to iſſue his warrant under his hand and ſeal, for levying any penalty ſo adjudged on the goods of the offender; and to cauſe ſale to be made thereof, in caſe they ſhall not be redeemed within ſix days, rendering to the party the overplus; and where goods cannot be found ſufficient to anſwer the penalty, to commit ſuch offender to priſon for three months, unleſs ſuch penalty ſhall be ſooner paid: And any perſon aggrieved by the judgment of ſuch juſtice, may, upon giving ſecurity to the value of ſuch penalty, together with ſuch coſts as ſhall be awarded, in caſe ſuch judgment ſhall be affirmed, appeal to the juſtices at the next general quarter ſeſſions, who are to ſummon witneſſes upon oath, and finally to hear and determine the ſame; and in caſe the judgment of the juſtice ſhall be affirmed, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtices to award the perſon to pay ſuch coſts, occaſioned by ſuch appeal, as to them ſhall ſeem meet. ſ. 20.

If any perſon, ſummoned as a witneſs before ſuch juſtice, either on the part of the proſecutor, or of the perſon accuſed, ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear, without a reaſonable excuſe for ſuch neglect or refuſal, to be allowed of by ſuch juſtice, then ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 40*s.* to be levied in ſuch manner as other penalties. ſ. 21.

The juſtice ſhall cauſe the conviction to be made out in the form following, or in any other form to the ſame effect mutatis mutandis, viz.

BE it remembered, That on the ——— day of ——— in the year of our Lord ———, in the county of ———, A. B. of ———, was convicted before me C. D. one of his majeſty's juſtices of the peace for the ſaid county, reſiding near the place where the offence was committed, for that the ſaid A. B. on the ——— day of ———, now laſt paſt, did [here ſtate the offence as the caſe may be], contrary to the ſtatute in that caſe made and provided; and I do declare and adjudge that the ſaid A. B. hath forfeited the ſum of ——— of lawful money of Great Britain, for the offence aforeſaid, to be diſtributed as the law directs.

Given under my hand and ſeal, the —— day of ——

It ſhall be lawful for the ſaid juſtice, where he ſee cauſe, to mitigate ſuch penalties, reaſonable coſts of the officers and informers, as well in making diſcovery as in proſecuting, being always allowed over ſuch mitigation, and ſo as ſuch mitigation do not reduce the penalties to leſs than one moiety above the coſts, and no ſuch conviction ſhall be removed by certiorari. ſ. 23.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 26.

Grants.

Any grant of lands in fee, leaſe for years, or other grant of profit, not herein particularly charged, that ſhall paſs the great ſeal, the ſeal of the exchequer, the ſeal of the duchy or county palatine of Lancaſter, or the privy ſeal not directed to the great ſeal, by 5 Will. 3. c. 21. ſ. 2.—40*s.*—And by 9 and 10 Will. 3. c. 25. ſ. 6.—40*s.*—IN THE WHOLE, four pounds.

Hats.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 51. There ſhall be paid throughout Great Britain the duties following: ſ. 1.

All perſons vending by retail any hats, called felt or wool, ſtuff or beaver hats, or any leather or japanned hats, ſhall annually take out a licence.

And where the perſon, vending by retail ſuch hats, ſhall reſide within London and Weſtminſter, or within the bills of mortality, or within the borough of Southwark in Surrey, there ſhall be charged a ſtamp-duty of 40 s.

And where the perſon ſhall reſide in any city or market town, other than the cities of London and Weſtminſter, or Southwark in Surrey, there ſhall be charged a ſtamp-duty of 5 s.

And where the perſon ſhall reſide in any other part of Great Britain, not being a city or market town, there ſhall be charged a ſtamp-duty of 5 s.

For every felt or wool, ſtuff or beaver hat, or any leather or japanned hat, not exceeding the price of 4 s. uttered, or ſold, by any perſon taking out ſuch licence, there ſhall be charged a ſtamp-duty of 3 d.

Exceeding the value of 4 s. and not above the value of 7 s. —6 d.

Above the value of 7 s. and not exceeding the value of 12 s. —1 s.

Exceeding the value of 12 s.—2 s.

The duties ſhall be under the management of the commiſſioners for the duties on ſtamped vellum, &c. ſ. 2.

No perſon required by this act to be licenſed ſhall, unleſs licenſed as after preſcribed, vend any felt or wool, ſtuff or beaver hats, or any leather or japanned hats, in Great Britain, upon pain to forfeit 50 l. ſ. 3.

Two commiſſioners, or ſome perſon authoriſed by them, ſhall grant licences for one year, to commence from the day of the date of ſuch licence; and all perſons who ſhall take out ſuch licence, ſhall take out a freſh licence for another year, ten days at leaſt before the expiration of that for which he ſhall be licenſed, if he ſhall continue to ſell hats by retail; and ſhall, in like manner, renew ſuch licence from year to year, paying down the ſums due for the ſtamps on ſuch licence, as long as he ſhall continue to ſell hats by retail. ſ. 4.

Every perſon vending or expoſing to ſale hats by retail, and who ſhall have taken out a licence, ſhall cauſe the words dealer in hats by retail, to be painted or written either over the door, or in the front of the place at which he keeps ſuch hats for ſale, to denote that ſuch perſon is a dealer, and licenſed; and if any perſon licenſed ſhall ſell any hats, without fixing out ſuch notice, every perſon ſo vending or expoſing to ſale any hats ſhall, for every hat ſold, forfeit 40 s. ſ. 5.

If any perſon ſhall cauſe the words to be affixed without being licenſed, he ſhall forfeit 50 l. ſ. 6.

All perſons who ſhall ſell any leſs than one dozen of hats at one time to one perſon, ſhall be deemed a retailer, and liable to take out a licence. ſ. 7.

Every perſon vending by retail, or expoſing to ſale, any hats liable to the duty, ſhall apply to the commiſſioners, or to the officers appointed by them, for paper tickets, ſtamped with the duties to be affixed, by the perſon vending, to the lining in the inſide of the crown of ſuch hats, in ſuch manner as the commiſſioners ſhall direct; and every hat ſold, by any perſon taking out the licence, ſhall have affixed thereto ſuch ſtamped ticket, and in ſuch manner, and in ſuch part of the inſide, as the commiſſioners ſhall direct. ſ. 8.

If any perſon ſhall vend, or expoſe to ſale, or ſhall purchaſe, or receive in exchange for any other article, any hat ſubject to the duties, unleſs the ſtamp ticket ſhall be affixed and ſtamped, or that ſhall have any ticket affixed thereto, ſtamped with a ſtamp of leſs denomination than by this act is directed to be affixed; ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit for every hat ſo ſold, &c. 10 l. ſ. 9.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend, to any perſon licenſed, who ſhall ſell to any other retailer alſo licenſed, any hat, although the ſtamp ticket ſhall not be affixed. ſ. 10.

If any perſon ſhall fraudulently cut, tear, or take off, any ſtamp by which any duties are payable for any hat, or ſhall fraudulently affix in any hat, any ticket hereby directed to be ſtamped, the ſame having been once made uſe of, and ſhall hereafter ſell, or expoſe to ſale, any hat with ſuch ticket ſo fraudulently cut, &c.; then every perſon ſo offending, ſhall forfeit 20 l. ſ. 11.

If any perſon ſhall ſell or buy ſuch ticket, in order to be again made uſe of to be affixed to any hat liable to the duty, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 20 l. ſ. 12.

If either buyer or ſeller of ſuch ticket, or of any hat not having the proper ticket affixed thereto, ſhall inform againſt the other party concerned, the party offending ſhall be admitted to give evidence againſt the party informed againſt, and ſhall be indemnified from the penalties by him incurred. ſ. 13.

Where any perſon licenſed ſhall deliver in any bill for hats (ſubject to the duties), ſuch perſon ſhall make a diſtinct charge for the ſtamp affixed to the hat charged in ſuch bill. ſ. 14.

Counterfeiting ſtamps, felony without clergy. ſ. 15.

Proviſions of former acts, &c. extended to this. ſ. 16.

All pecuniary penalties hereby impoſed, ſhall be divided (if ſued for within ſix months); one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety, with full coſts, to the perſon who ſhall inform. ſ. 17.

All pecuniary penalties which ſhall exceed 20 l. may be recovered in any court at Weſtminſter, for offences committed in England, Wales, or Berwick, and in the court of ſeſſions, juſticiary, or exchequer in Scotland, for offences committed in Scotland, by action of debt, &c. ſ. 18.

Such diviſion ſhall be reſtricted to the proſecuting for the ſame, within the time before limited, and in default of ſuch proſecution within the time, no informer ſhall have any part of ſuch penalties, but the whole ſhall belong to his majeſty, recoverable as aforeſaid. ſ. 19.

Any juſtice near where the offence ſhall be committed, may hear and determine any offence, which ſubjects the offender to any pecuniary penalty not exceeding 20 l.; which ſaid juſtice is, upon information, or complaint, to ſummon the party accuſed, and witneſſes on either ſide, and examine into the fact; and upon proof by confeſſion of the party, or oath of one witneſs, to give judgment for the penalty, and to iſſue his warrant under hand and ſeal for levying any penalties ſo adjudged, on the goods of the offender, and to cauſe ſale to be made thereof, in caſe they ſhall not be redeemed within ſix days, rendering the overplus; and where goods cannot be found, to commit ſuch offender to priſon, for three months, unleſs ſuch penalty ſhall be ſooner paid: and any perſon aggrieved by the judgment of ſuch juſtice, may, upon giving ſecurity to the value of ſuch penalty, together with ſuch coſts as ſhall be awarded in caſe ſuch judgment ſhall be affirmed, appeal to the juſtices at the next general quarter ſeſſions, who are to ſummon witneſſes upon oath, and finally to hear and determine the ſame; and in caſe the judgment of ſuch juſtice ſhall be affirmed, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtices to award the perſon to pay coſts occaſioned by ſuch appeal. ſ. 20.

If perſons ſummoned as witneſſes before ſuch juſtice, ſhall neglect neglect or refuſe to appear without excuſe, to be allowed of by ſuch juſtice, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 40*s.*; to be levied as other penalties: provided it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid juſtice, where he ſee cauſe, to mitigate ſuch penalties, coſts of the officers and informers being always allowed, over ſuch mitigation, and ſo as ſuch mitigation do not reduce the penalties to leſs than one moiety above the coſts. ſ. 21.

It ſhall be lawful for perſons licenſed to export any number of hats, not leſs than two dozen in one package, without having the ſtamp ticket affixed thereto, upon giving notice to the diſtributor of ſtamps living neareſt to the place where the perſon exporting ſhall reſide, and obtaining from him a certificate thereof, which he is to give, without fee. ſ. 24.

Perſons ſued &c. may plead the general iſſue, and have treble coſts. ſ. 26.

Horſes.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 31. There ſhall be paid throughout Great Britain. ſ. 1.

For every horſe, mare, or gelding, entered to ſtart or run for any plate, prize, ſum of money, or other thing whatſoever, two pounds two ſhillings:

Every perſon exerciſing the trade of an horſe dealer, within London and Weſtminſter, the weekly bills of mortality, or within Southwark in Surrey, and who ſhall take out a licence to exerciſe the ſaid trade of an horſe dealer, ſhall pay annually ten pounds:

And every perſon exerciſing the ſaid trade without the cities of London and Weſtminſter, the bills of mortality, or Southwark, and who ſhall take out a licence to exerciſe the ſaid trade ſhall pay annually, five pounds.

The duties ſhall be under the management of the commiſſioners for duties on ſtamped vellum, &c. who are to employ officers, and to allow ſalaries and charges neceſſary, and to provide ſtamps to denote the duty, and to repair, renew, and alter the ſame, and to do all other things neceſſary for putting this act in execution. ſ. 2.

Two commiſſioners, or ſome perſon authoriſed by them, ſhall grant licences to perſons to exerciſe the trade of an horſe dealer within Great Britain, for one year, to commence from the day of the date of ſuch licence; and all perſons, who ſhall take out ſuch licence for exerciſing the ſaid trade, ſhall, in order to be exempted from the duty impoſed on any horſe, &c. kept and uſed by him, take out a freſh licence for another year, ten days at leaſt before the expiration of that year for which he ſhall have been licenſed, if he continue to uſe the ſaid trade, and ſhall, in like manner, renew ſuch licence from year to year, paying down the ſums due on ſuch licences, as long as he ſhall continue to uſe the ſaid trade. ſ. 3.

Every perſon exerciſing the buſineſs of an horſe dealer, and who ſhall have taken out a licence, ſhall cauſe the words licenſed to deal in horſes, to be painted or written, either on a ſign hung out, or on ſome viſible place in the front of the places at which he keeps ſuch horſes for ſale, to denote that ſuch perſon is a dealer, and licenſed; and if any perſon licenſed, ſhall ſell any horſe without fixing or hanging out ſuch token, every licenſed horſe dealer ſo offending, ſhall forfeit 5*l.* ſ. 4.

The owner of every horſe, &c. entered to ſtart or run for any plate, prize, ſum of money, or other thing, ſhall, previous to the entering or ſtarting ſuch horſe, &c. pay 2*l.* 2*s.* as the duty for one year; which money ſhall be paid, for the uſe of his majeſty, into the hands of the clerk of the courſe, book-keeper, or perſon authoriſed to make the entry of ſuch horſe, &c. being to ſtart or run: and if any owner of ſuch horſe, &c. ſhall, previous to the ſtarting, neglect or refuſe to pay the 2*l.* 2*s.* for ſuch entrance, the owner of ſuch horſe, &c. ſhall forfeit 20*l.* ſ. 5.

Every clerk of the courſe, or peſon receiving the 2*l.* 2*s.* as entrance money, ſhall, within fourteen days after receipt thereof, give an account of all monies received by him for horſes ſo entered to ſtart, to the diſtributor of ſtamps in the county where the race was run, upon demand by ſuch diſtributor, and producing his appointment under the hands and ſeals of three commiſſioners; and in caſe of not accounting for and paying the ſame, he ſhall, for every default in not delivering ſuch accounts, pay 100*l.* and for every default of payment of the monies due, forfeit double the amount of the monies due on the accounts at the time of ſuch default. ſ. 6.

The ſaid head diſtributors of ſtamps, to whom ſuch money ſhall be paid, ſhall make an allowance of 1*s.* in the pound to ſuch clerk of the courſe, &c. for all monies ſo accounted for and paid by him to ſuch diſtributor. ſ. 7.

All penalties ſhall be divided, one moiety to his majeſty, and the other, with coſts, to the perſon who ſhall inform. ſ. 18.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice reſiding near the place where the offence ſhall be committed, to determine any offence againſt this act; which juſtice is, upon information or complaint, to ſummon the party accuſed, and alſo the witneſſes on either ſide, and ſhall examine into the fact; and upon proof thereof, either by confeſſion of the party, or by the oath of one witneſs, to give judgment for the penalty, and to iſſue warrants, under his hand and ſeal, for levying any penalties ſo adjudged on the goods of the offender, and to cauſe ſale to be made thereof, in caſe they ſhall not be redeemed within ſix days, rendering to the party the overplus; and where goods cannot be found ſufficient to anſwer the penalty, to commit ſuch offender to priſon for three months, unleſs ſuch penalty be ſooner paid: and perſons aggrieved by the judgment of ſuch juſtice, may, upon giving ſecurity to the amount of the penalty, together with ſuch coſts as ſhall be awarded in caſe judgment ſhall be affirmed, appeal to the juſtices at the next general quarter ſeſſions, who are to ſummon and examine witneſſes upon oath, and finally determine the ſame; and in caſe the judgment be affirmed, ſuch juſtices are to award the perſon to pay ſuch coſts occaſioned by ſuch appeal, as to them ſeem meet. ſ. 19.

If any perſon ſummoned as a witneſs before ſuch juſtice, ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear, without a reaſonable excuſe, to be allowed of by ſuch juſtice, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 40*s.* to be levied as other penalties. ſ. 20.

The ſaid juſtice, where he ſee cauſe, may mitigate ſuch penalties, coſts being always allowed over ſuch mitigation, and ſo as ſuch mitigation do not reduce the penalties to leſs than a moiety above the coſts. ſ. 21.

Defendants may plead the general iſſue, and have treble coſts. ſ. 23.

By 29 Geo. 3. c. 49. It ſhall not be lawful for the commiſſioners, or any perſon authoriſed by them, to grant any licence to any perſon to uſe the trade of an horſe dealer, unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall produce to the commiſſioners, or perſon authoriſed, a declaration in writing, ſigned by him, that he doth ſeek his living by buying and ſelling of horſes, and ſhall, in the ſaid declaration, ſet forth the particular place where ſuch trade is to be exerciſed; and every licence granted to any perſon other than to ſuch as ſhall ſeek their living by buying and ſelling horſes, ſhall be void. ſ. 8.

Inſtitution.

Any inſtitution or licence that ſhall paſs the ſeal of any ordinary, or any eccleſiaſtical court, by 5 Will. 3. c. 21. ſ. 3. 5*s.*—by 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 25. ſ. 14. 5*s.*—and by 12 Ann. ſtat. 2. c. 9. 5*s.*—IN THE WHOLE, fifteen ſhillings.

By 28 Geo. 3. c. 28. Every licence appointing any ſtipendary curate, in which the annual amount of the ſtipend ſhall be inſerted, that ſhall paſs the ſeal of any archbiſhop, biſhop, chancellor, or other ordinary, or any eccleſiaſtical court, ſhall be exempted from any of the before duties, and be available in evidence.

Inſurance.

By 22 Geo. 3. c. 48. There ſhall be paid, throughout Great Britain, the yearly ſum of one ſhilling and ſix-pence upon every one hundred pounds, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs ſum, that ſhall be inſured by any perſon by any policy of inſurance for inſuring houſes, furniture, goods, wares, merchandizes, or other property, from loſs by fire. ſ. 1.

Nothing herein ſhall charge any public hoſpital to the payment of the duty ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall publicly or privately inſure, or keep any office for inſuring houſes, or property, from fire in Great Britain, without firſt taking out a licence from the commiſſioners for the ſtamp duties. ſ. 4.

Nothing herein ſhall exclude the Royal Exchange and London Aſſurance from aſſuring houſes, or other property, from fire, as they now do, without taking out any licence. ſ. 5.

The commiſſioners for ſtamp duties are, under their hands and ſeals, to grant a licence for inſuring houſes, &c. to all perſons applying for the ſame; which licence ſhall ſet forth the names and other deſcription of the perſons, and alſo the principal place where ſuch buſineſs of inſuring houſes, &c. ſhall be principally carried on. ſ. 6.

All perſons who ſhall inſure, or keep any office for inſuring houſes, &c. from fire, without ſuch licence, or in any place, except the place named in the licence, or ſuch other places as ſhall be ſubordinate to the place named in ſuch licence, and be kept by ſome agents to perſons having ſuch licence, or in any other manner contrary to ſuch licence, or this act, ſhall forfeit, for every day in which ſuch offence ſhall be committed, 50 l. and alſo double the amount of the premiums of inſurance which ſuch perſons ſhall receive on ſuch day. ſ. 7.

All perſons to whom ſuch licence ſhall be granted, ſhall, at receiving ſuch licence, give ſecurity with ſureties, to be approved of by the commiſſioners of ſtamps, by bond to his majeſty, in ſuch ſum as the commiſſioners think reaſonable, ſo as the ſame do not exceed the probable amount of the duty payable by ſuch perſons for half a year; with condition, that if ſuch perſons make out, ſign, and deliver, an account of all money received for the duty, and make payment of all money payable in purſuance of this act; and alſo obſerve all directions herein, ſuch bond ſhall be void, but otherwiſe to be in force. ſ. 8.

Every licence taken out under this act, ſhall have force only for one year; but if a licence be granted to two or more, and any of them die, it ſhall continue until expiration in favour of the ſurvivors. ſ. 9.

Where ſuch buſineſs of inſuring is carried on by companies not incorporate, or by a greater number of partners than four, the licence granted by the commiſſioners ſhall be granted to two of ſuch company for the whole; and in ſuch caſe, the licence ſhall continue in force until the end of one year, notwithſtanding the deaths of all the perſons to whom ſuch licence ſhall be granted. ſ. 10.

All perſons ſo to be licenſed who ſhall grant any policy for inſuring property from fire, or ſhall continue to inſure, ſhall by themſelves, or perſons employed by them, previouſly to the granting or continuing ſuch policy, receive from the perſon whoſe property ſhall be inſured, 1*s.* 6*d.* for every 100 l. and ſhall give a receipt for the duty paid for one year's duty on ſuch policy, from the date thereof; and in default of receiving ſuch year's duty, ſuch perſon ſo granting ſuch policy ſhall be accountable to his majeſty for the ſaid year's duty, as if the ſame had been received. ſ. 11.

The perſons intitled to the benefit of ſuch policy, ſhall, at the end of the year, for which ſuch policy ſhall be granted, or within 15 days thereafter, and ſo at the end of every ſubſequent year, pay to the inſurer one year's duty; and ſuch inſurer ſhall, on ſuch payment, give a receipt for the duty to the perſon paying the ſame; and in caſe of default of payment of ſuch duty, the policy ſhall, as to the inſured, be void. ſ. 12.

In caſe of inſurance for leſs than a year, the inſured ſhall pay only ſo much of the yearly duty as ſhall bear a proportion to the part of the year for which ſuch policy is given. ſ. 14.

In caſe of any policy for one or more years, and part of a year, the inſured ſhall, as to ſuch part of a year, only be liable to ſo much of the duty as ſhall bear a proportion to ſuch part of a year, if the inſured ſhall, on the firſt payment of the duty, pay as well the proportion of the duty for ſuch part of a year, as the whole of the firſt year's duty; except a fraction leſs than a penny, which ſhall not be accounted for. ſ. 15.

In caſe of a new policy before the expiration of an old one, for inſuring a greater or different ſum, the ſame proportionable abatement which ſhall accrue on the new policy, ſhall be made, as the inſurer ſhall make in reſpect of the premium. ſ. 16.

It ſhall be lawful for all inſurers againſt fire, to take by one payment the duty hereby impoſed for the whole of the term for which the policy ſhall be granted, if the perſon inſured ſhall ſo deſire; and in conſideration of ſuch prompt payment of the duty as by this act would not be payable till a future time, and in ſuch caſe, ſuch inſurer may make the ſame abatement of the duty as the inſurer ſhall make, in conſideration of receiving the premium for the whole term of inſurance by one payment. ſ. 18.

Where the property of a perſon inſured for a term ſhall ceaſe before the expiration of the term, the commiſſioners of ſtamps are, upon proof of the truth of the fact, to pay back to the perſon appointed to receive the tax, ſo much of the duty as ſhall appear to have been paid for the unexpired term of the inſurance. ſ. 19.

All perſons who ſhall obtain a licence for any office of inſurance, ſhall keep a true account in writing, in which ſhall be inſerted the number of the policy, the name of the perſon inſuring, with his abode, the ſum inſured, and the time for which the ſame is inſured; and alſo the day of the month and year in which ſuch policy ſhall be iſſued; which account ſhall be open for the inſpection of any perſon authoriſed under the hands and ſeals of the commiſſioners for ſtamps. ſ. 20.

All perſons who ſhall have any licence for an inſurance office within London or Weſtminſter, or within five miles of either of them, whether the licence ſhall or ſhall not extend to any office out of the ſaid limits, ſhall, ſome time within two months after the 25th December, 25th March, 24th June, and 29th Sept. in every year, or at ſuch other times after the expiration of the two months, as may be appointed by the commiſſioners, giving a previous public notice of 14 days, days, by advertiſement in the London Gazette, deliver to the ſaid commiſſioners, or perſons appointed by them, at the head office, true copies of the accounts before directed to be kept by ſuch inſurance office, for the quarter completed before ſuch day of delivery, or notice; and at the ſame time ſhall pay ſuch ſums which ſhall appear due on ſuch accounts, to the receiver general for the duties at the head office, upon pain of forfeiting, for every default in not delivering true copies of ſuch account, 500*l.* and for every default in payment of the monies due, double the amount of the money payable. ſ. 21.

All inſurance offices which ſhall, under this act, obtain any licence for an office not within London or Weſtminſter, or within five miles of either of them, without having any office within the limits, ſhall, ſome time within two months after 25th Dec. 25th March, 24th June, and 29th of Sept. in every year, or at ſuch other times after the expiration of the ſaid two months as may be appointed by the head diſtributor, or perſon authoriſed to receive the duties, giving a previous notice of fourteen days, by advertiſement in the London Gazette, or in the newſpaper publiſhed in the county where ſuch diſtributor reſides, deliver to ſuch head diſtributor, or perſon, true copies of the accounts before directed to be kept for the quarter completed before ſuch day of delivery, or notice; and at the ſame time ſhall pay to ſuch head diſtributor, or perſon, all money due upon ſuch accounts, under the penalty of forfeiting, for not delivering ſuch accounts, 200*l.* and for default in payment of the monies due on ſuch accounts, double the amount of the monies due. ſ. 22.

The receiver general of the ſtamp duties at the head office, and the head diſtributors, or perſons appointed by the commiſſioners to receive the duties, ſhall make an allowance to all perſons licenſed, for their trouble in receiving the duties and making out ſuch account, after the rate of one ſhilling in the pound, out of the monies by them accounted for and paid, according to the directions herein. ſ. 23.

Perſons employed in receiving and accounting for the duties, ſhall not be thereby diſqualified from voting at any election of members to ſerve in parliament. ſ. 24.

All penalties ſhall be divided, one moiety to his majeſty, and the other, with coſts, to the perſon who ſhall inform, in any court at Weſtminſter, for offences in England, Wales, or Berwick, or in the court of ſeſſions, or exchequer, in Scotland, for offences in Scotland, by action of debt, &c. ſ. 25.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 27.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 82. The ſaid duty on money inſured by any perſons in any policy of inſurance made in Great Britain, for inſuring of any houſes, furniture, goods, wares, merchandizes, or other property, within any foreign kingdom or ſtate in amity with his majeſty, ſhall ceaſe.

Medicines.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 79. There ſhall be paid throughout Great Britain the duties following:

For every packet, box, bottle, phial, or other incloſure, containing any drugs, oils, waters, eſſences, tinctures powders, or other preparation whatſoever, to be uſed externally or internally, as medicines or medicaments, for the prevention, cure, or relief of any diſorder incident to the human body, which ſhall be uttered or vended in Great Britain, there ſhall be charged a ſtamp duty according to the rates following, viz. where the contents of ſuch packet, &c. ſhall not exceed the value of 1*s.* there ſhall be charged a ſtamp duty of one penny halfpenny.

Where the contents ſhall exceed 1*s.* and not 2*s.* 6*d.* three pence.

Where the contents ſhall be above 2*s.* 6*d.* and under 5*s.* ſix pence.

And where the contents ſhall be of the value of 5*s.* or upwards, one ſhilling.

Nothing

Nothing herein ſhall charge with the duties any drugs named in the book of rates; ſee the tables in IMPORTATION, &c.; nor any drugs vended entire, without any mixture with any other drug whatſoever, by any ſurgeon, apothecary, chemiſt, or druggiſt, who hath ſerved a regular apprenticeſhip, or by any perſon who hath ſerved as a ſurgeon in the navy or army, or by any other perſon licenſed in purſuance of this act; but all ſuch drugs may be vended by ſuch ſurgeons, &c. or perſons diſcharged from the duties. ſ. 3.

Nothing herein ſhall charge with the duties any mixture, compoſition, or preparation whatſoever, compounded with drugs, medicated or chemical preparations, or other ingredients bearing different denominations, which ſhall be vended by ſuch ſurgeon, apothecary, chymiſt, or druggiſt, or by ſuch perſon who hath ſerved as a ſurgeon in the navy or army, the different denominations of which mixtures are known in the prevention, cure, or relief of any diſorder, incident to the human body; and wherein the perſon vending the ſame, hath not, nor claims to have, any ſecret art for the mixing the ſame, nor hath, nor claims to have, any excluſive right to the mixing or vending the ſame, and which compoſitions have not been nor ſhall be expoſed to ſale, under any letters patent, nor have been, nor ſhall be, by any public notice, advertiſement, or by written or printed hand bills, recommended to the public by the makers or venders thereof, as noſtrums, medicines, ſpecifics, or otherwiſe, for the cure or relief of any ſuch diſtemper. ſ. 4.

Every perſon in Great Britain, uttering or vending any drugs, oils, waters, eſſences, tinctures, powders, or other preparations, to be uſed externally or internally, as medicines, or medicaments, ſubject to the duties, ſhall, annually, take out a licenſe; and on every licenſe ſo taken out by ſuch perſon, who ſhall reſide within London, Weſtminſter, Southwark, or within the limits of the penny-poſt, or within Edinburgh, there ſhall be charged a ſtamp duty of twenty ſhillings; and on every licenſe taken out by any other perſon there ſhall be charged a ſtamp duty of five ſhillings. ſ. 5.

Duties to be under the management of the commiſſioners for ſtamps. ſ. 6.

Commiſſioners, or ſome perſon authoriſed by them, ſhall grant licenſes to perſons to vend any drugs, &c. ſubject to the duties; and the ſaid licenſes ſhall continue one year, commencing from the day of the date of ſuch licenſe; and all perſons who ſhall take out ſuch licenſe, ſhall take out a freſh licenſe for another year, ten days before the expiration of that year for which he ſhall be licenſed, if he continue to utter ſuch drugs; and ſhall renew ſuch licenſe from year to year, paying down the ſums due for the ſtamps, as long as he ſhall continue to vend ſuch drugs. ſ. 7.

No perſon ſhall vend any drugs, &c. ſubject to the duty unleſs he ſhall have firſt obtained a licenſe, as before directed, upon pain to forfeit 5 l. ſ. 8.

Every perſon making or vending ſuch drugs, &c. ſhall ſend to the commiſſioners of ſtamps, or their officers, paper covers, wrappers, or labels, made for incloſing ſuch packets, &c. intended to contain ſuch drugs, &c. with their names, and any other particular word printed thereon, to denote the value at which the ſame are intended to be ſold, in ſuch manner as the commiſſioners ſhall direct, that the ſame may be ſtamped with the duties, and marked with ſuch other mark as the commiſſioners ſhall direct, and delivered again to ſuch maker or vender; and all packets, &c. containing any drugs, &c. vended, or expoſed to ſale, by any perſon whatſoever, ſhall have affixed thereto, ſuch covers, &c. ſtamped as aforeſaid. ſ. 9.

No perſon ſhall vend any packet, &c. containing any drug, &c. ſubject to the duties, unleſs the cover, &c. be affixed thereto, and ſtamped as by this act is directed; or that ſhall have any cover, &c. affixed thereto, or ſtamped with a ſtamp of leſs value than directed, under pain that ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit for every packet, &c. containing ſuch drug, &c. 5 l. ſ. 10.

If any perſon ſhall cut, tear, or take off any ſtamp, on any packet, &c. containing any drug, &c. after the ſame ſhall have been ſold, or ſhall fraudulently affix to ſuch packet, &c. any cover ſo ſtamped, the ſame having been made uſe of, or ſhall vend, any packet, &c. containing any drug, &c. with ſuch cover, &c. ſo fraudulently cut, torn, or taken off, and affixed thereto, all perſons ſo offending ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 11.

If any perſon ſhall ſell, or buy, any ſuch cover, &c. which hath before been made uſe of for incloſing any packet, &c. in order to be again made uſe of for the like purpoſe, or ſhall ſell or buy any packet, &c. with ſuch cover, &c. which hath before been made uſe of, affixed thereto, ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 12.

If either the buyer or ſeller of ſuch cover, &c. ſhall inform againſt the other party concerned in buying or ſelling, the party informing ſhall be admitted to give evidence againſt the party informed againſt, and ſhall be indemnified from the penalties by him incurred, and receive the ſame benefit as any other informer. ſ. 13.

The commiſſioners ſhall allow to every perſon that ſhall be ſupplied with or bring paper to the head office to be ſtamped, the duty whereof ſhall amount to 10 l. or upwards, after the rate of two pounds per cent. per ann. and if ſuch duty ſhall amount to 50 l. or upwards, after the rate of 5 l. per cent. per ann. on payment of the duty. ſ. 14.

Every perſon who ſhall make or expoſe to ſale, ſuch medicines, liable to the duties, before they make or expoſe to ſale ſuch medicines, ſhall give notice in writing of the uſual place where they ſhall make or expoſe to ſale the ſame; and alſo of all drugs, &c. ſubject to the duties that ſhall be made, or expoſed to ſale by them, or intended ſo to be; which notice ſhall be given to the commiſſioners, or to their officers next adjacent to where ſuch medicines ſhall be made or ſold; and the like notice ſhall be given by ſuch perſons as often as they change their places, or ſhall change or vary the articles in which they deal; and which notice ſhall contain the names of ſuch drugs, &c. which the ſame have been or ſhall be called, and the qualities thereof, and the price at which the ſame ſhall be intended to be vended, on pain that every perſon making default in giving ſuch notice ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 15.

The duties and all proviſions in this act ſhall extend to charge with the duties all articles mentioned in the ſchedule, by the names therein mentioned, and alſo all pills, powders, lozenges, tinctures, potions, cordials, electuaries, plaſters, unguents, ſalves, ointments, drops, lotions, oils, ſpirits, medicated herbs, and waters, chemical and officinal preparations whatſoever, of the ſame or the like properties, with thoſe articles ſpecified therein, made, vended, or expoſed to ſale by any perſon whatſoever, wherein the perſon making, vending, or expoſing to ſale the ſame, hath or claims to have, any unknown art for making the ſame, or hath or claims any excluſive right to the making the ſame, or which at any time heretofore have been or hereafter ſhall be prepared, vended or expoſed to ſale, under letters patent, or which at any time heretofore have been or hereafter ſhall be, be, by any public notice or advertiſement, or by written or printed papers or hand bills, held out to the public by the makers or proprietors thereof, as noſtrums or proprietary medicines, or as ſpecifics, or otherwiſe, and ſhall alſo extend to charge with the duties impoſed on licenſes, all perſons who ſhall vend or expoſe to ſale any ſuch preparations. ſ. 16.

All powers, &c. preſcribed by any former act, relating to the ſtamp duties ſhall be of effect with relation to the duties hereby impoſed. ſ. 18.

All pecuniary penalties ſhall be divided, if ſued for within ſix months, one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety with full coſts of ſuit to the perſon who ſhall inform. ſ. 19.

Penalties may be recovered in any court at Weſtminſter, for offences committed in England, Wales, or Berwick, and in court of ſeſſion, juſticiary, or exchequer, in Scotland, for offences committed in Scotland, by action of debt, &c. ſ. 20.

Such diviſion ſhall be reſtricted to the proſecuting for the ſame within the time, before limited; and in default of ſuch proſecution within the time, no informer ſhall have any part of ſuch penalties, but the whole ſhall belong to his majeſty. ſ. 21.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice near where the offence ſhall be committed, to determine any offence which ſubjects the offender to any penalty, within ſix months, which juſtice is, on information or complaint, to ſummon the party accuſed, and alſo witneſſes on either ſide, and ſhall examine into the fact, and on proof either by confeſſion of the party, or oath of one witneſs, to give judgment for the penalty, and to iſſue his warrant under hand and ſeal, for levying any penalties adjudged on the goods of the offender, and to cauſe ſale to be made thereof, if not redeemed within ſix days, rendering to the party the overplus; and where goods cannot be found to anſwer the penalty to commit ſuch offender to priſon for three months; and any perſon aggrieved by the judgment of ſuch juſtice, may, on giving ſecurity to the amount of the penalty, together with ſuch coſts as ſhall be awarded in caſe ſuch judgment ſhall be affirmed, appeal to the juſtices at the next general quarter ſeſſions, who are to ſummon and examine witneſſes upon oath, and finally determine the ſame; and in caſe judgment ſhall be affirmed, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtices to award the perſon to pay ſuch coſts as to them ſhall ſeem meet. ſ. 22.

If any perſon ſummoned as a witneſs, before ſuch juſtice, ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear, without excuſe to be allowed of by ſuch juſtice, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 40*s.*, to be levied as other penalties. ſ. 23.

The juſtice ſhall cauſe the conviction to be made out in the form following. ſ. 24.

BE it remembered, that on the ——— day of ——— in the year of our Lord ——— in the county of ——— A. B. of ——— was convicted before me, C. By 10 Ann. c. 19. This act ſhall not charge any acts of parliament, proclamation, order of council, forms of prayer and thankſgiving, or any acts of ſtate, which ſhall be ordered by her majeſty to be printed, or the printed votes or other matters ordered to be printed by either houſe of parliament, or any books commonly uſed in ſchools, or books containing only matters of devotion, or any ſingle advertiſement printed by itſelf, or the daily accounts or bills of goods imported and exported, or the weekly bills of mortality, ſo as ſuch accounts or bills contain no other matters than what have been uſually compriſed therein. ſ. 102.

All vellum, &c. upon which any of the laſt-mentioned things ſhall be written or printed, (the paper to be uſed in printing pamphlets exceeding one ſheet excepted) ſhall before ſuch writing or printing, be brought to the head office, and the commiſſioners ſhall, upon demand, ſtamp any quantities of vellum, &c. paying the duties, without fee or delay; which ſtamp ſhall be a ſufficient diſcharge for the duties. ſ. 104.

For the penalty by this act on ſelling any paper, &c. unſtamped, which is 10*l.* ſee ſec. 105. in page 598, ante.

One printed copy of every ſuch pamphlet, printed or publiſhed within London or Weſtminſter, or the weekly bills of mortality, ſhall, within ſix days after the printing, be brought to the head office for ſtamping of vellum, &c. and the title thereof, with the number of ſheets, and the duty hereby charged, ſhall be entered, which duty ſhall be paid to the receiver general of the ſtamp duties, who ſhall give a receipt for the ſame, on ſuch printed copy, or the ſame ſhall be ſtamped to denote the payment of the duty; and one printed copy of every ſuch pamphlet, printed or publiſhed in any part of Great Britain, not within the limits laſt mentioned, ſhall, within 14 days after the printing, be brought to ſome head collector of the ſtamp duties, who is required to enter the title thereof, with the number of ſheets, and the duty hereby charged, which duty ſhall be thereupon paid to ſuch collector, who ſhall give a receipt for the ſame on ſuch copy. ſ. 111.

If any ſuch pamphlet, containing more than one ſheet, ſhall be printed or publiſhed, and the duty not paid, and the title regiſtered, and one copy ſtamped where required, within the times before limited, the author, printer, and publiſher, ſhall loſe all property therein, and every perſon concerned in the printing or publiſhing thereof ſhall forfeit 20*l.* with coſts. ſ. 112.

No perſon ſhall ſell, or expoſe to ſale, any ſuch pamphlet without the name and place of abode of ſome known perſon, by or for whom the ſame was really printed or publiſhed, printed thereupon, on pain that every perſon offending herein ſhall forfeit 20*l.* with coſts. ſ. 113.

Every perſon who ſhall print or publiſh any advertiſement, ſhall, within 30 days after the publication, pay the duty to the perſons hereby appointed, viz. to the receiver general, or his deputy or clerk, for all advertiſements printed or publiſhed within the limits of the weekly bills, and to the next adjacent head officer of the ſtamp duties, for all advertiſements printed or publiſhed in any place out of thoſe limits; and the commiſſioners and officers are required, upon payment of the duties, without fee, to ſtamp one copy of ſuch advertiſements, or to give a receipt for the duty; and in default of ſuch payment, the printer or publiſher ſhall be liable to pay treble the duties with coſts. ſ. 118.

All pecuniary penalties hereby impoſed relating to the duties on ſtamped vellum, &c. or upon cards, &c. (except ſuch touching which other directions are given) ſhall be divided, one moiety to her majeſty, and the other, with coſts, to ſuch as ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, for offences committed in England, and in her majeſty's court of ſeſſion, juſticiary, or exchequer, in Scotland. ſ. 119.

Provided that it ſhall be lawful for two juſtices of peace to hear and determine any offence againſt this act, in printing, ſelling, or expoſing to ſale, any pamphlets or newſpapers not ſtamped, which juſtices are required, on information exhibited, or complaint made within three months after any ſuch offence, to ſummon the party accuſed, and alſo the witneſſes, and upon the appearance or contempt of the party (upon proof of notice) to proceed to the examination, and give judgment; and where the party ſhall be convicted, either by view of the juſtices, or either of them, or upon ſuch information, to iſſue warrants for levying any pecuniary penalty on the goods of the offender, and to cauſe ſale to be made in caſe they ſhall not be redeemed within ſix days; and where goods cannot be found, to commit ſuch offender to priſon until ſuch penalty be paid; and any party aggrieved may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions. And it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices to mitigate any ſuch penalty, the reaſonable coſts of the informers being allowed, and ſo as ſuch mitigation do not reduce the penalty to leſs than one-fourth part over and above the coſts. ſ. 120.

All books and pamphlets ſerving chiefly to the purpoſe of an almanack, ſhall be charged with the duties on almanacks, but not with the duties on pamphlets or other printed papers. ſ. 175.

By 11 Geo. 1. c. 8. Journals, mercuries, and newſpapers, printed on one ſheet and half, ſhall not be deemed pamphlets, to be entered and to pay only for each impreſſion. ſ. 13.

By 16 Geo. 2. c. 26. In caſe any perſon ſell, hawk, or expoſe to ſale, any newſpaper, book, pamphlet, or paper, deemed a newſpaper, within the meaning of any act relating to the ſtamp duties, not being ſtamped as in the ſaid acts is directed, it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of peace to commit ſuch offender, being convicted before him by confeſſion, or by the oath of one witneſs, to the houſe of correction for any time not exceeding three months; and it ſhall be lawful for any perſon to apprehend and carry before a juſtice of the county or place where ſuch offence is committed, any perſon ſo offending; and every perſon ſo apprehending ſuch offender, and carrying him before ſuch juſtice, ſhall, upon conviction of ſuch offender, and producing a certificate of ſuch conviction, under the hand of ſuch juſtice (which certificate ſuch juſtice is to give without fee) be entitled to the reward of 20*s.* to be paid by the receiver general of the ſtamp duties. ſ. 5.

By 5 Geo. 3. c. 46. Neither the commiſſioners nor any officer appointed by them, ſhall ſell or deliver any ſtamped paper for printing any pamphlet, or any public news, intelligence, or occurrences, to be contained in one ſheet, or any leſſer piece of paper, unleſs the perſon applying for the ſame ſhall firſt give ſecurity for payment of the duties for advertiſements therein. ſ. 8.

By 13 Geo. 3. c. 65. It is declared that the duties granted on journals, mercuries, and other newſpapers, do extend to charge with the ſaid duties every ſheet, and every half-ſheet of paper on which any journal, mercury, chronicle, or other newſpaper, ſhall be printed, whether ſuch journals, &c. ſhall be contained in a greater or leſs number of ſheets, or half-ſheets.

By 29 Geo. 3. c. 50. All paper liable to the duties on newſpapers, ſhall, before printed, be brought to the head office, and the commiſſioners, by themſelves or officers, ſhall ſtamp any quantities brought to them, the perſons bringing the ſame paying to the receiver general or his deputy or clerk, the duties. ſ. 4.

It ſhall not be lawful for the commiſſioners, or their officers, to cancel any ſtamps of newſpapers, under pretence of their remaining unfold, in the hands of the printers, &c. nor to make any allowance on account of the ſame, or of the payment of any of the ſaid duties, other than ſuch as is after mentioned. ſ. 7.

The commiſſioners ſhall allow to every perſon who ſhall bring at one time to the head office, to be ſtamped, or buy of the commiſſioners or their agents, at the head office, paper ſtamped with the duties on newſpapers, the duties whereof ſhall amount to 10*l.* or upwards, after the rate of 4*l.* in the 100*l.* on preſent payment of the ſaid duties, ſo by them them brought or bought, which allowance ſhall be in lieu of all former allowances, by any former act. ſ. 8.

If any hawker of any newſpaper, or other perſon, ſhall let out any newſpaper for hire to any perſon, or to different perſons, or from houſe to houſe, he ſhall forfeit 5 l. to be recovered and applied as any other penalty may by any law relating to the duties on ſtamped vellum, &c. ſ. 9.

No printer or publiſher of any newſpaper, in which any advertiſements liable to the duties ſhall be inſerted, ſhall receive from the commiſſioners, or perſons employed by them, any ſtamped paper for printing any intelligence, or occurrences thereon, until the proprietors, or ſo many of them as are in the judgment of the commiſſioners, or three of them, of ſufficient ability, to anſwer the duties on advertiſements, ſhall join in the ſecurity directed to be given by 5 Geo. 3. for the payment of the duties on advertiſements; and in caſe any printer ſhall print, or cauſe to be printed or publiſhed, any advertiſement in ſuch newſpaper, before he ſhall have delivered in the names of ſuch proprietors, and ſuch proprietors, or ſo many of them as the commiſſioners ſhall deem neceſſary, ſhall have given ſecurity to his majeſty, for the payment of the duties on advertiſements which ſhall be printed therein, he ſhall forfeit 500 l. ſ. 10.

The commiſſioners, as often as the duties for advertiſements ſhall be in arrear for 30 days after the printing or publication thereof, ſhall cauſe to be delivered to the printer or publiſher of ſuch newſpaper, or left at the moſt uſual place for printing ſuch newſpaper, a true account in writing of all the money which ſhall become payable, and be claimed by the commiſſioners to be due in reſpect of ſuch advertiſements, diſtinguiſhing therein the times of the publication thereof; and the ſaid proprietors, &c. are, on the delivery of ſuch account, forthwith to pay to the commiſſioners, or to ſuch perſons as ſhall be employed by them, the amount of the duties contained in ſuch account: But if it ſhall appear on the ſettlements of the ſaid accounts before the commiſſioners, that any matter contained in ſuch newſpaper has been charged with ſuch duty, which ſhall not be chargeable therewith, the commiſſioners are to allow the ſame to the proprietors, &c. and to ſtrike ſuch ſurcharge out of the accounts. ſ. 11.

All arrears of the ſaid duties remaining unſettled for ten days after ſuch account ſhall be delivered, may be ſued for in the exchequer, at Weſtminſter, by action of debt or information, in the name of the attorney or ſolicitor general, and on ſuch action or information, a capias may iſſue, ſpecifying the amount of the duties ſued for; and the proprietors, &c. againſt whom ſuch action or information ſhall be brought, ſhall be obliged to give bail to the amount of the duties, (an affidavit thereof being firſt made and filed in the ſaid court). ſ. 12.

Perſons counterfeiting ſtamps, &c. to ſuffer death. ſ. 13.

Powers of former acts not hereby altered, to extend to this act. ſ. 14.

Duties by this act to be paid to the receiver general of ſtamps, and carried to the conſolidated fund. ſ. 15.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 16.

Pardon.

Any pardon of any crime, ſum of money, or forfeiture, or on which any warrant of reprieve or relaxation from any fines, puniſhments or other forfeitures, ſhall be written, &c. by 5 Will. 3. c. 21. 40*s.* — by 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 25. ſ. 3. (except general circuits, and Newgate pardons,) 40*s.* — and by 12 Ann. ſtat. 2. c. 9. ſ. 21. 40*s.* — IN THE WHOLE, ſix pounds.

N. B. If the relaxation from any fine or forfeiture does not exceed 100 l. ſuch relaxation is not ſubject to the duty of 12 Ann.

By 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 25. ſ. 50. Any general circuit or Newgate pardon ſhall be liable only to the ſingle duty of 40*s.* impoſed by 5 Will. 3. c. 21.

Perfumery.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 49. There ſhall be paid throughout Great Britain,

Upon every packet, box, bottle, phial, or other incloſure, containing any powders, paſtes, balls, balſams, ointments, oils, waters, waſhes, tinctures, eſſences, liquors, or other preparation, diſtinguiſhed by the name of ſweet ſcents, odours, or perfumes; or by the name of coſmetics, uſed or to be uſed by any perſon as ſweet ſcents, odours, perfumes, or coſmetics, which ſhall be uttered, vended, or expoſed to ſale, in Great Britain, mixed or unmixed with other materials, there ſhall be charged a ſtamp-duty according to the rates herein after expreſſed; and alſo upon every packet, box, bottle, phial, or other incloſure, containing any dentifrice, powders, tinctures, or other preparation whatſoever for the teeth or gums, which ſhall be vended, or expoſed to ſale in Great Britain, there ſhall be charged a ſtamp-duty, according to the like rates herein after expreſſed; and upon every roll, cake, or piece, packet, box, pot, or other incloſure of any pomatum, ointment, or other preparation for the hair, which ſhall be vended, or expoſed to ſale, in Great Britain, there ſhall be charged a ſtamp-duty, according to the like rates; and alſo upon every packet, or other incloſure, containing any hair powder, which ſhall be vended, or expoſed to ſale, in Great Britain, the price whereof ſhall exceed 2 s. for the pound weight, there ſhall be charged a ſtamp-duty, according to the like rates herein after expreſſed; (that is to ſay), ſ. 1.

Where ſuch articles ſhall not exceed the value of 8 d. there ſhall be charged a ſtamp-duty of one penny:

Where ſuch articles exceed 8 d. and not 1 s.—one penny halfpenny:

Where ſuch articles exceed 1 s. and not 2 s. 6 d. three pence:

Where ſuch articles ſhall exceed 2 s. 6 d. and ſhall be under 5 s. ſix pence:

And where ſuch articles ſhall be of the value of 5 s. or upwards, one ſhilling:

The ſaid duties to be paid upon each packet, box, bottle, phial, or incloſure, and upon each roll, cake, ball, or piece of ſuch articles, which ſhall be vended, or expoſed to ſale, according to the values above rated.

And alſo upon every incloſure containing any hair powder, the price whereof ſhall not exceed 2 s. for the pound weight, there ſhall be charged for each pound, or any leſs quantity than a pound, a ſtamp-duty of one penny.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to any drugs, &c. charged with duties, by 25 Geo. 3. c. 79.—See page 615. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge with the above duties any common ſoap imported into or made in Great Britain, and charged with duty of exciſe, which ſhall be vended wholly unmixed with any ſuch ſweet ſcents, odours, or perfumes, as aforeſaid. ſ. 3.

Every perſon in Great Britain vending ſuch wares, ſubject to the duties before impoſed, ſhall annually take out a licence; and upon every licence ſo taken out there ſhall be charged a ſtamp-duty of 1 s. ſ. 4.

The duties ſhall be under the management of the commiſſioners on ſtamped vellum, &c. ſ. 5.

Two commiſſioners, or ſome perſon authoriſed by them, ſhall grant licences to perſons to vend ſuch wares, to continue in force for one year, commencing from the date of ſuch licence; and all perſons who ſhall take out ſuch licence, ſhall take out a freſh licence for another year, ten days before the expiration of that for which he ſhall have been licenſed, if he continue to vend ſuch wares, paying down the ſums due for the ſtamps on ſuch licences ſo long as he ſhall continue to vend ſuch wares. ſ. 6.

No perſon ſhall vend, or expoſe to ſale, any ſuch wares, unleſs he ſhall have firſt obtained a licence, and then in force as before directed, upon pain to forfeit 5 l. ſ. 7.

Perſons vending ſuch wares, and licenſed, ſhall, within 20 days after ſuch licence ſhall have been granted, cauſe the words licenſed to deal in perfumery, to be painted or written in the front of the places at which he ſhall vend ſuch wares; and if any perſon licenſed ſhall, after the expiration of 20 days after ſuch licence ſhall have been granted, preſume to vend, or expoſe to ſale, any ſuch wares, without fixing or hanging out ſuch notice, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſ. 8.

If any perſon ſhall fix or hang out ſuch notice, or continue the ſame ſo fixed, without having a licence then in force, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 20 l. ſ. 9.

Perſons making, vending, or expoſing to ſale, ſuch wares, ſhall apply to the commiſſioners of ſtamps, or officers, for paper covers, wrappers, or labels, to be affixed to incloſures containing ſuch wares, or to be affixed to rolls, cakes, balls, or pieces of ſuch wares, as ſhall be vended, without any incloſure; upon which paper covers, the commiſſioners are to print ſome mark, or words, to denote the duties, and the rate: And the commiſſioners are alſo required to deliver to ſuch licenſed venders, ſufficient covers for the purpoſe aforeſaid, on payment of the ſums due for the ſtamps; and all incloſures, containing ſuch wares, and all rolls, cakes, balls, and pieces of ſuch other wares, vended, or expoſed to ſale, ſhall have ſufficiently paſted, ſtuck, faſtened, or affixed thereto, ſuch covers, ſtamped as aforeſaid, in ſuch manner as the commiſſioners ſhall direct: And the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall direct the manner in which ſuch covers ſhall be paſted to the wares, or to the papers, thread, or thing incloſing the ſame; and to make ſuch rules as they think fit to prevent the covers from being made uſe of again, after ſold; which rules ſhall be delivered to all venders at the time of taking out the firſt licence; and ſo with every future licence, if any variation ſhall have been made in ſuch rules. ſ. 10.

No perſon ſhall vend, or expoſe to ſale, or offer or keep ready for ſale, in any place, of which notice ſhall have been ſent as after directed, any wares, ſubject to the duties, or receive any thing whatſoever by way of barter, or in exchange for any wares ſubject to the duties, unleſs the cover ſhall, previous to ſuch ſale, or expoſing or offering for ſale, be well affixed thereto, as the commiſſioners ſhall direct, and ſtamped as by this act directed, or that ſhall have any cover affixed thereto, ſtamped with a ſtamp of leſs denomination than directed, under pain that ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for any maker of hair powder, having made entry at any office of exciſe, to vend to any perſon dealing in hair powder, and licenſed by this act, and for ſuch licenſed perſon to buy for ſale any hair powder, the price whereof ſhall not exceed 2 s. per pound, and packed in any packages, each whereof ſhall contain 224 pounds of ſuch hair powder, without affixing to the ſame any label, ſtamped according to this act. ſ. 12.

Such makers of hair powder, who ſhall vend the ſame without ſtamps, under this act, ſhall keep books, wherein they ſhall enter in writing an exact account of all ſuch powder ſold without ſtamps, and the name of the perſons to whom, and the time when; which books any officer appointed by the ſaid commiſſioners, or three of them, may in the day view, and take any copy of the ſame, without hindrance, under the pain that every perſon offending in any of the particulars, ſhall forfeit 20 l. ſ. 13.

If any perſon ſhall fraudulently cut, tear, or take off, from any wares, any label, with any ſtamp, after ſold, or ſhall fraudulently affix to ſuch wares any ſuch label ſo fraudulently cut, &c. or ſhall vend, or expoſe to ſale, any ſuch wares, with ſuch label fraudulently cut, &c. the perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 14.

If any perſon ſhall ſell or buy, or give or receive any other thing whatſoever by way of exchange for any ſuch label, ſtamped (which hath been before made uſe of in the ſale of ſuch wares) in order to be again made uſe of for the like purpoſe; or ſhall ſell or buy, or give or receive any thing in exchange for ſuch wares, or any incloſure with ſuch label, which hath been before made uſe of, or affixed thereto; ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 15.

The commiſſioners ſhall allow to every perſon who ſhall be ſupplied with labels, after the rate of 5 l. in the hundred pounds, upon preſent payment of the duties upon the ſaid covers ſo to them ſupplied. ſ. 16.

Perſons who ſhall vend, or expoſe to ſale, any ſuch wares, liable to the duties, before they obtain a licence to vend the ſame, ſhall give notice in writing of the uſual places where they ſhall vend the ſame, or intend ſo to do; which notice ſhall be given to the commiſſioners, or to their officers next adjacent to the place where ſuch wares are vended; and the like notice ſhall be given by ſuch perſons as often as they change the places where ſuch goods are ſold; which notice ſhall contain the particular place and room wherein the ſame are vended, upon pain that every perſon making default in giving notice, ſhall forfeit 5 l.; and all ſuch wares ſubject to the duties, which ſhall be kept ready for ſale, or offered to ſale, in any place, whereof notice ſhall have been given, (except almond paſte, almond powder, bears greaſe, cold cream, Italian ſquare hard ſoap, Naples ſoft ſoap, perfumed and coloured hair powders above 2 s. per pound, rouge in pots, and waſh-balls of all ſorts which are allowed to be kept for and expoſed to ſale in ſuch place, in bulk or otherwiſe, without any ſtamped label affixed thereto, until the time of actual ſale) ſhall be deemed to require a label ſtamped, to be previouſly affixed thereon, in manner directed by the commiſſioners; and it ſhall be lawful for any officer, authoriſed by the commiſſioners, to enter in the day-time into any ſuch place or room whereof ſuch notice ſhall have been given, and there to ſearch whether the wares ſo kept ready for ſale in ſuch place have a label affixed thereto, or to the incloſures containing the ſame, according to this act; and if ſuch wares (except as herein excepted) ſhall be expoſed to ſale, or kept ready for ſale, in ſuch place, without any label, or with a label of leſs denomination than directed, or with a label affixed thereto unduly, and contrary to the directions of the commiſſioners, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch officer to affix to the ſaid wares, or to the incloſures thereof, a label ſtamped as aforeſaid (to be ſupplied by the ſaid officer) and if the owner or vender thereof, or perſon having the care thereof, ſhall not upon demand pay to the ſaid officer all money money due and payable in reſpect of the ſtamps upon the ſaid labels, ſo ſupplied, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 5*l.* above the duties. ſ. 17.

If any perſon ſhall obſtruct any of the ſaid officers, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 20*l.* ſ. 18.

In caſe any labels ſhall be damaged or ſpoiled in affixing the ſame upon ſuch wares, ſo as to be unfit for uſe, it ſhall be lawful for any perſon licenſed to bring ſuch labels, ſo ſtamped, together with the wares to which the ſame ſhall have been affixed, to the commiſſioners, or head officer appointed by them, and on oath (or affirmation) made by ſuch perſon, to the ſatisfaction of the commiſſioners or head officer (who are to adminiſter ſuch oath, and to examine into all circumſtances relating to the damaging the ſame) that ſuch labels have not been uſed for any other purpoſe, or in any other manner; and that none of them have been fraudulently rebought or returned after ſold; and that no money or conſideration hath been paid for the ſame, except the money firſt paid for ſuch labels; then the ſaid commiſſioners are, after deſtroying ſuch defaced labels, to deliver to ſuch licenſed perſon other labels of the ſame denomination, inſtead of the labels damaged, without taking any money. ſ. 19.

If any perſon ſo licenſed ſhall vend or expoſe to ſale any wares in any other place, than ſuch as are deſcribed in ſuch notice ſent to the commiſſioners, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 5*l.* ſ. 20.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the ſale of any wares by any licenſed perſon to any perſon in Great Britain for exportation, where ſuch wares ſo ſold ſhall be exported to foreign parts; and in ſuch caſe the perſon ſelling the ſame for exportation do, within three days after ſale, give notice in writing at the head office, or at the office of the diſtributor of ſtamps next adjacent to the place where he ſhall reſide, of all ſuch wares which ſhall be ſo ſold for exportation; which notice ſhall contain the quantities and denominations of ſuch wares, and the names of the perſon to whom the ſame are ſold, and the port from which the ſame is to be exported; and all ſuch notices ſhall be filed by the officers to whom the ſame are ſent, and a certificate thereof, containing the like quantities and denominations of the wares, and alſo the names and places expreſſed in ſuch notices ſhall, if required, be made out under the hands of the commiſſioners, or their officers, and delivered gratis to the perſon by whom ſuch notices were given; and in all proſecutions of offenders for ſelling or buying ſuch wares contrary to this act, ſuch certificate ſhall be evidence of notice, and of the quantities and denominations of the wares expreſſed therein. ſ. 21.

If any perſon licenſed, ſhall be convicted or proſecuted to final judgment, the licenſe ſhall thenceforth be void, and ſo upon each ſucceſſive conviction, every new licence ſhall be void; and it ſhall not be lawful for the commiſſioners, &c. after ſuch conviction, to grant any new licence to any perſon ſo convicted, unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall, when ſuch new licence is granted, give ſecurity by bond to his majeſty, with one or more ſureties, to be approved of by the commiſſioners, or officers appointed, in the following ſums, and on the following condition, viz. if ſuch perſon ſhall have been convicted for a firſt offence, then ſuch bond ſhall be 100*l.*; and if ſuch perſon ſhall have been convicted for a ſecond or ſubſequent offence, then ſuch bond ſhall be in double the ſum in the laſt preceding bond, entered into by ſuch perſon; and the condition of ſuch bonds ſhall be, that if ſuch perſon ſhall thenceforth obſerve this act, ſo far as he ſhall be concerned therein, then ſuch bonds ſhall be void, otherwiſe to be in full force; and the commiſſioners, or three of them, and any officer by them appointed, are to take the ſaid bond; and in caſe the perſon entering into ſuch bond, ſhall, during the continuance of ſuch licenſe, or any future licenſe, have acted contrary to this act, and to the condition, then the commiſſioners ſhall cauſe ſuch bond to be proſecuted, and which proſecution ſhall be carried on againſt the principal obligor, his or their ſureties, or his executors or adminiſtrators, as the commiſſioners think proper. ſ. 22.

Duties to extend to all articles included in the ſchedule annexed which enumerates all articles of perfumery. ſ. 23.

All powers preſcribed by former acts relating to the ſtamp duties ſhall be of force with relation to the duties hereby impoſed. ſ. 25.

All penalties ſhall be divided (if ſued for within ſix months), one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall inform. ſ. 26.

All penalties may be recovered with coſts in any court at Weſtminſter, for offences commmitted in England, Wales, or Berwick, and in ſeſſions, juſticiary, or exchequer, in Scotland, for offences committed in Scotland, by action of debt, &c. ſ. 27.

Such diviſion ſhall be reſtricted to the proſecuting for the ſame within the time before limited; and in default of ſuch proſecution, no informer ſhall have any part of ſuch penalties, but the whole ſhall belong to his majeſty. ſ. 28.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice near to determine any offence againſt this act, which juſtice is, on information or complaint, within ſix months, to ſummon the party accuſed, and on proof thereof, either by the voluntary oath of the party, or by the oath of one witneſs, to give judgment for the penalty; all which penalties ſo adjudged, ſhall be divided, one moiety to the informer, and the other moiety (the charges for recovery thereof being firſt deducted) to his majeſty, and to iſſue his warrant, under his hand and ſeal, for levying ſuch penalties on the goods of the offender, and to cauſe ſale to be made thereof, if not redeemed within three days, rendering to the party the overplus, if any; and where goods cannot be found to anſwer the penalty, to commit ſuch offender to priſon for three months; and any perſon aggrieved by the judgment of ſuch juſtice, may, upon giving ſecurity to the amount of the penalty, together with coſts to be awarded, in caſe ſuch judgment ſhall be affirmed, appeal to the juſtices at the next general quarter ſeſſions, who are to ſummon and examine witneſſes upon oath, and finally to determine the ſame; and in caſe the judgment ſhall be affirmed, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtices to award the perſon to pay coſts, occaſioned by ſuch appeal. ſ. 29.

If any perſon, ſummoned as a witneſs before ſuch juſtice, ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear, without excuſe allowed of by ſuch juſtice, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 40*s.* to be levied as other penalties. ſ. 30.

The juſtices ſhall cauſe the conviction to be made out in the manner following: ſ. 31.

BE it remembered, That on the ——— day of ——— in the year of our Lord ——— in the county of ———, A. B. of ———, was convicted before me C. D. one of his majeſty's juſtices of the peace for the ſaid county, reſiding near to the place where the offence was committed, for that the ſaid A. B. on the ——— day of ——— now laſt paſt did [Here ſtate the offence againſt the act], contrary to the form of the ſtatute in that caſe made and provided: And I do declare and adjudge, That he, the ſaid A. B. hath forfeited the ſum of ———, of lawful money of Great Britain, tain, for the offence aforeſaid; which ſum of ——— I do hereby mitigate to the ſum of ——— [here ſtate the mitigated penalty if neceſſary], to be diſtributed as the law directs.

Given under my hand and ſeal, the ——— day of ———

It ſhall be lawful for the ſaid juſtice, where he ſee cauſe, to mitigate ſuch penalties, coſts being always allowed, over ſuch mitigation, and ſo as ſuch mitigation do not reduce the penalties to leſs than one moiety above coſts; and no conviction ſhall be removed by certiorari. ſ. 32.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and have treble coſts. ſ. 35.

Plate.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 53. There ſhall be paid, throughout Great Britain, for all gold and ſilver plate, which ſhall be made or wrought within the ſame kingdom, the duties following. ſ. 1.

Upon all gold plate made or wrought, and which ſhall or ought to be touched, aſſayed, and marked in Great Britain, over and above all other duties already impoſed thereupon, a duty after the rate of eight ſhillings for every ounce troy; and proportionably for any greater or leſs quantity.

And upon all ſilver plate, a duty after the rate of ſix pence for every ounce troy:

To be paid by the makers or workers thereof. ſ. 1.

The duties on plate made in Great Britain, to be under the management of the commiſſioners of ſtamps, &c. ſ. 2.

Every working goldſmith and ſilverſmith, or other manufacturer of gold or ſilver, who ſhall work or make, or cauſe to be wrought, any gold or ſilver veſſel, plate or manufacture of gold or ſilver, required to be aſſayed, and marked, by the company of goldſmiths in London, Edinburgh, or by the Birmingham or Sheffield companies, or by the wardens and aſſayers at York, Exeter, Briſtol, Cheſter, Norwich, and Newcaſtle upon Tyne, ſhall ſend, with every parcel of ſuch gold or ſilver, to the aſſay-office of the ſaid companies, cities, and places, a note, containing the day of the month and year, the chriſtian and ſurname of the maker, and place of his abode, and alſo all the ſpecies in ſuch parcel of plate, and the number of each, with the total weight of ſuch parcel, and alſo the money payable for the duty upon the total weight of ſuch parcel; and alſo ſhall ſend, and pay, with every ſuch parcel, to the officer belonging to ſuch aſſay-office who ſhall receive ſuch gold or ſilver ſo ſent, the duty by this act directed to be paid upon ſuch parcel ſo required to be aſſayed. ſ. 4.

The wardens, or their deputy aſſay-maſter, weigher, or other perſon appointed by the ſaid companies or aſſay-officers, ſhall mark with the following new mark, that is to ſay, with the mark of the king's head, beſides the other marks, all ſuch pieces of gold or ſilver plate ſo ſent to be aſſayed; and ſhall, previous to the aſſaying ſuch plate, receive, for the uſe of his majeſty, from the perſon whoſe property is required to be aſſayed, eight ſhillings for every ounce of gold plate; and ſixpence for every ounce of ſilver plate, brought to the ſaid aſſay-offices to be aſſayed, and ſhall give a receipt for the duty paid to the perſon bringing ſuch plate; and in default of receiving ſuch duty, ſuch companies or aſſay-offices ſo aſſaying ſuch plate, ſhall be accountable to his majeſty, for the duty, as if the ſame had been received. ſ. 5.

The aſſay-maſter, weigher, or officer of the aſſay-offices, who ſhall receive the ſaid duties, with the notes, ſhall daily, as ſoon as he ſhall have entered the ſame in the book of the companies, deliver the ſaid notes, and pay the duties by him received, to the clerk or accountant of the ſaid companies, who ſhall file the ſame notes, and enter the ſame, and keep account in writing, in books to be kept for that purpoſe, of the duties received by him under this act; which account ſhall be open for the inſpection of any perſon authoriſed under the hands and ſeals of the commiſſioners of ſtamp-duties, to inſpect the ſame. ſ. 6.

The perſon appointed by the companies to receive the duties, ſhall, where ſuch plate is ſent to be aſſayed in the rough ſtate as heretofore has been uſual, make a deduction of one-ſixth from the weight, and an allowance of one-ſixth part of the duty, to the perſon bringing the ſame; and ſhall, at the bottom of the note, expreſs the deduction from the weight, and allowance of the duty: Provided nothing herein ſhall extend to any allowance being made on any quantity of ſilver plate, leſs in weight than one ounce troy, nor to any fractional part of an ounce. 25 Geo. 3. c. 64. ſ. 1.

No perſon whatſoever, making or ſelling, trading or dealing in, gold or ſilver wares, ſhall ſell, exchange, or expoſe to ſale, in Great Britain, any gold or ſilver veſſel, plate, or manufacture of gold or ſilver, made after 1 Dec. 1784, or export the ſame out of Great Britain, until ſuch time as ſuch manufacture of gold, and of ſilver (of the ſtandard directed by law), ſhall be marked with the new mark before directed, viz. the king's head, beſides all other marks already directed by law to be marked thereon, upon pain that ſuch perſon ſo offending, ſhall forfeit 50*l.*; and for default of not paying down the penalty upon conviction, ſhall be committed by the court, in which judgment ſhall be given, to the houſe of correction for not exceeding one year, nor leſs than ſix months, or until payment be made of the forfeiture; and alſo upon pain that ſuch manufacture of gold and ſilver, ſold, exchanged, or expoſed to ſale, without having the mark thereon as directed, ſhall be forfeited, one moiety to the king, and the other to ſuch perſon who ſhall ſue. 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 53. ſ. 8.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any jewellers works, viz. any gold or ſilver wherein any jewels or other ſtones ſhall be ſet (other than mourning rings), nor to any jointed night ear-rings of gold, or gold ſprings of lockets, nor to compel any of the wares of gold or ſilver to be ſtamped with the ſtamp directed by this act, which are excepted in 12 Geo. 2. c. 26.—See general title GOLD AND SILVER in Part I. ſ. 9.

When any parcel of gold or ſilver ſhall in any of the aſſay-offices be found to be of a coarſer allay than the ſtandard, and ſhall be cut, broken, and defaced, then (and where no intended fraud ſhall appear), the duty paid upon ſuch parcel upon the delivery thereof to be aſſayed, ſhall be returned to the worker by the companies who ſhall deface ſuch manufacture; and the ſaid companies ſhall make an entry in the books before directed to be kept of the ſpecies and weight of each parcel cut, and the names of the perſons to whom ſuch plate did belong, and the amount of the duty returned. ſ. 10.

The clerk or accountant of the company of goldſmiths in London ſhall, within two months after 25 March, 24 June, 29 Sept., and 25 December, in every year, or at ſuch other times, after the expiration of the two months, as may be appointed by the commiſſioners of ſtamp-duties, giving a previous public notice of fourteen days, or more, by advertiſement in the London Gazette, deliver, to the commiſſioners, or perſon appointed by them at the head office, true copies copies of the accounts before directed to be kept by ſuch clerks or accountants, for the quarter completed before ſuch day of delivery, or notice; and, at the ſame time, ſhall pay ſuch ſums which ſhall appear to be due on ſuch accounts to the receiver-general of the duties on ſtamped vellum, or officer appointed to receive the duties for the uſe of his majeſty, at the head office; upon pain of forfeiting, for every default in not delivering true copies of ſuch accounts, 500 l.; and for every default in payment of the monies due on ſuch accounts, double the amount of the money due. ſ. 13.

The wardens, or their deputies, or the clerk or accountant, or perſon appointed to receive the duty, by the goldſmiths company at Edinburgh, or by the companies of Birmingham and Sheffield, or the aſſay-offices at York, Exeter, Briſtol, Cheſter, Norwich, Newcaſtle upon Tyne, or other cities where any aſſay-office ſhall or may be eſtabliſhed, ſhall, within two months after 25 March, 24 June, 29 Sept. and 25 Dec. in every year, or at ſuch other times after the expiration of the two months as may be appointed by the head diſtributor, or perſon ſo to be authoriſed to receive the duties, giving a previous notice of 14 days, or more, by advertiſement in the London Gazette, or in the newſpaper, publiſhed in the county where ſuch head diſtributor reſides, deliver to ſuch head diſtributor, or perſon aforeſaid, true copies of the accounts directed to be kept by ſuch companies, for the quarter completed before ſuch day of delivery; and, at the ſame time, ſhall pay to ſuch head diſtributor, or perſon authoriſed, all money due upon ſuch accounts; under the penalty of forfeiting, for every default in not delivering ſuch accounts, 50 l.; and for every default in payment of the monies due on ſuch accounts, double the amount of the monies due on the ſaid account. ſ. 14.

The receiver-general of the ſtamp-duties, at the head office, and the head diſtributor of ſtamped vellum, or perſon appointed by the commiſſioners to receive the duties, ſhall make an allowance to all clerks, accountants, or perſons appointed by ſuch companies, for their trouble in originally receiving the ſaid duties, and making out ſuch account, at the rate of 6 d. in the pound out of the monies by them accounted for and paid. ſ. 15.

If any perſon ſhall caſt, counterfeit, or cauſe to be caſt, or counterfeited, the ſtamp uſed, or directed to be uſed in purſuance of this act, for ſtamping of gold or ſilver plate; or ſhall caſt, or counterfeit, or cauſe to be caſt, or counterfeited, any ſtamp, in imitation of any ſtamp, or made with any ſtamp uſed; or ſhall ſtamp, or cauſe to be ſtamped, any wrought plate of gold or ſilver, or any wares of braſs or other baſe metal ſilvered or gilt over and reſembling plate of gold or ſilver, with any ſtamp which ſhall be forged, in imitation of any ſtamp uſed by the ſaid companies or aſſayers, or by any maker or worker of gold or ſilver plate; or ſhall tranſpoſe, or cauſe to be tranſpoſed from one piece of wrought plate to another, or to any veſſel of ſuch baſe metal as aforeſaid, any ſtamp made with any ſtamp uſed as aforeſaid by the aſſayers, &c. or by any maker of gold or ſilver plate, or ſhall ſell, exchange, or expoſe to ſale, or export out of this kingdom, any wrought plate, or any veſſel of ſuch baſe metal, with ſuch forged ſtamp, or any ſtamp which ſhall be tranſpoſed from any other piece of plate, knowing ſuch ſtamp to be counterfeited, or tranſpoſed; or ſhall wilfully have any ſtamp counterfeited, in imitation of any ſtamp uſed as aforeſaid; ſuch perſon ſhall be guilty of felony, without benefit of clergy. ſ. 16.

Penalties ſhall be divided, one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety, with coſts, to the perſon who ſhall inform, in any court at Weſtminſter, for offences in England, Wales, or Berwick, or in the exchequer in Scotland, for offences committed in Scotland, by action of debt, &c. ſ. 17.

Perſons ſued, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 19.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 64. In caſe any perſon ſhall, during the continuance of the duties impoſed upon wrought plate, exported by way of merchandize, for foreign parts, export any plate of gold or ſilver, wrought in this kingdom, which is charged with the duties of 8 s. per ounce, and 6 d. per ounce, and the ſame ſhall appear to have been made or marked after 1 Dec. 1784, and the duties paid, and ſhall give ſecurity, before ſhipping thereof for exportation, that the quantities of ſuch plate, intended to be exported, ſhall not be relanded in Great Britain; and ſhall make proof, upon oath, that the ſame were actually made or marked after the ſaid time, which ſecurity ſhall be taken in the king's name, and the oath adminiſtered by the cuſtomer or collector of the port of exportation, without fee; then, without any notarial act as in the former act mentioned, the ſaid cuſtomer or collector ſhall give to the exporter thereof a debenture, expreſſing the kinds and quantities of ſuch plate ſo exported, or ſhipped to be exported; and the exportation or ſhipping thereof being certified by the ſearcher upon the debenture, the collector or receiver of the duty upon plate, at the aſſay offices where aſſayed, ſhall, upon the debenture, ſo certified, being produced to him, forthwith pay a drawback, after the rate of 8 s. per ounce troy, of gold; and 6 d. for every ounce troy, of ſilver, out of the duties then in the hands of the ſaid receiver, without fee; and if the ſaid collector ſhall not have money in his hands to pay ſuch debenture, then the receiver general of the ſtamp-duties is to pay the ſaid debenture, out of the duties ariſing by this act. ſ. 3.

The exporters of gold and ſilver watches ſhall mark or engrave in the inſide of every caſe or box of each watch, incloſing the works thereof, the ſame numbers and figures which ſhall be marked on the works of the watch incloſed in ſuch caſe. ſ. 4.

All ſecurities and bonds, required to be taken as aforeſaid, ſhall continue in force, until ſuch exporter of wrought plate, ſhall produce and deliver to ſuch cuſtomer or collector the bill of lading thereof, and which ſhall have at the foot the receipt of the maſter of the veſſel on board of which the ſaid plate were ſhipped, and alſo a receipt or certificate, on the back of ſuch bill of lading, under the hand of the perſon to whom ſuch wrought plate were conſigned, certifying that the ſame have been received, and mentioning in ſuch receipt or certificate the true kinds of plate conſigned and received, and the name of the perſon conſigning the ſame, and alſo, if ſuch plate ſhall conſiſt of watches, the numbers or figures marked in the inſide of the caſe of each watch, then ſuch ſecurities ſhall be delivered up and cancelled. ſ. 5.

Where the veſſel, on board of which ſuch plate, &c. were ſhipped, ſhall be loſt, or ſhall not, within three years, return to any port in Great Britain; upon proof thereof to the cuſtomer or collector at the port at which the drawback was received, and the bonds given, the ſaid cuſtomer or collector ſhall deliver up to ſuch exporters their ſecurities, that the ſame may be cancelled, if no fraud in the mean time appeared, or no proſecution thereon ſhall have been commenced. ſ. 6.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 31. the ſec. 6. of 12 Geo. 2. c. 26. ſee PART I. p. 451. ſo far as the ſame relates to the not obliging obliging the wares of ſilver therein ſpecifically mentioned, and ſuch other wares of ſilver therein generally named, to be ſtamped; and alſo the ſec. 9. 24 Geo. 3. c. 53. ſo far as the ſame relates to the not compelling any of the wares of ſilver to be ſtamped with the ſtamp directed by the laſt-mentioned act, which are excepted in the ſaid act, 12 Geo. 2. ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 1.

All penalties incurred by any perſon making, or dealing in ſilver wares, for having, on or before 28 May 1790, ſold, exchanged, or expoſed to ſale, any of the articles following, made of ſilver, being of the ſtandard directed by law, and not weighing 10 penny-weights of ſilver each, or weighing 10 penny-weights of ſilver or more each, viz. rings, collets for rings or other jewels, chains, necklace beads, lockets, hollow or raiſed buttons, ſleeve buttons, thimbles, coral ſockets and bells, ferrils, pipe lighters, cranes for bottles, book claſps of any ſize, any ſtock or garter claſps jointed, nutmeg graters of any ſize, rims of ſnuff boxes whereof tops or bottoms are made of ſhell or ſtone, ſliding pencils, toothpick caſes, tweezer caſes, pencil caſes, needle caſes, any philligree work, any ſorts of tippings or ſwages on ſtone or ivory caſes, any mounts, ſcrews, or ſtoppers to ſtone or glaſs bottles or phials, any ornaments put to amber or other eggs or urns, any wrought ſeals, or ſeals with cornelian or other ſtones ſet therein; or any ſilver veſſel, plate, or manufacture of ſilver, ſo richly engraved, carved or chaſed, or ſet with jewels or other ſtones, as not to admit of an aſſay to be taken of, or mark ſtruck thereon, without damaging the ſame, not weighing 10 penny-weights of ſilver each, or weighing 10 penny-weights of ſilver or more each, or any other ſilver veſſel, plate, or manufacture of ſilver whatſoever, being of the ſtandard directed by law, not weighing 10 penny-weights of ſilver each, and not being ſtamped with the ſtamps mentioned in 12 Geo. 2. or 24 Geo. 3. ſhall be diſcharged; and all perſons, againſt whom any action of debt, &c. hath been or ſhall be brought, to recover ſuch penalties, ſhall be diſcharged therefrom, and againſt all ſuch penalties; and all perſons, againſt whom ſuch action ſhall be brought, may plead the general iſſue. ſ. 2.

Nothing in the ſaid acts, or either of them, ſhall oblige any of the following wares of ſilver to be ſtamped with the marks mentioned in the 12 Geo. 2. or to be marked with the new mark of the king's head, mentioned in 24 Geo. 3. viz. chains, necklace beads, lockets, any philligree work, ſhirt buckles or broaches, ſtamped medals, or ſpouts to china, ſtone, or earthenware teapots, or any of them, of any weight whatſoever. ſ. 3.

Nothing in the ſaid acts ſhall oblige any of the following wares of ſilver to be ſtamped with the marks mentioned in 12 Geo. 2. with the new mark of the king's head, mentioned in 24 Geo. 3. viz. tippings, ſwages, or mounts, or any of them, not weighing ten penny-weights of ſilver each, ſave and except only necks and collars for caſtors, cruets, or glaſſes, appertaining to any ſort of ſtands or frames. ſ. 4.

Nothing in the ſaid acts ſhall oblige any wares of ſilver whatſoever, not weighing five penny-weights of ſilver each, to be marked with the marks of 12 Geo. 2. or 24 Geo. 3. except only the following ſilver wares, viz. necks, collars, and tops for caſtors, cruets, or glaſſes appertaining to any ſort of ſtands or frames, buttons to be affixed to or ſet on any wearing apparel, ſolid ſleeve buttons, and ſolid ſtuds, not having a biſſilled edge ſoldered on, wrought ſeals, blank ſeals, bottle tickets, ſhoe claſps, patch boxes, ſalt ſpoons, ſalt ſhovels, ſalt ladles, tea ſpoons, tea ſtrainers, caddy ladles, buckles (ſhirt buckles or broaches, before mentioned, excepted), and pieces to garniſh cabinets, or knife caſes, or tea cheſts, or bridles, or ſtands, or frames. ſ. 5.

Policies.

And any policy whereby the property of one or more perſons in houſes and goods, or both, ſhall be inſured to a greater amount in the whole than 1000*l.* an additional 5*s.* by 17 Geo. 3. c. 50.—IN THE WHOLE, eleven ſhillings.

By 10 Ann. c. 26. All inſtruments and writings for the payment of any money upon the loſs of any ſhip or goods, or upon any loſs by fire, or for any other purpoſe for which any policy of aſſurance hath been uſually made, ſhall be deemed policies of aſſurance, and charged with the duty. ſ. 68.

The ſame duty upon ſuch policies ſhall be under the government of the commiſſioners appointed to manage the duties on ſtamped vellum, &c. who are required to employ the neceſſary officers, and to cauſe new ſtamps to be provided. ſ. 69.

All vellum, parchment and paper, upon which any ſuch policy ſhall be written or printed, ſhall, before any name of any perſon, or any particular day or ſum of money, ſhall be written or printed therein, be brought to the head office; and the commiſſioners ſhall upon demand ſtamp any quantities of ſuch vellum, &c. without fee; which ſtamp to be put thereupon ſhall be a diſcharge for the duty. ſ. 70.

If any perſon ſhall write any name of any perſon, or any day or ſum of money, in ſuch policy of aſſurance, or execute the ſame before the ſame ſhall appear to have been ſtamped, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 5*l.* one moiety to her majeſty, and the other moiety, with coſts, to ſuch perſon as ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of her majeſty's courts of record; and if any ſuch policy ſhall be ſubſcribed upon vellum, &c. not appearing to have been ſtamped, there ſhall be paid to her majeſty (over and above the duties) 5*l.* and no ſuch policy ſhall be available, or be given in evidence, unleſs as well the duty as the 5*l.* be firſt paid, and a receipt produced, and the policy ſtamped. ſ. 71.

By 5 Geo. 3. c. 35. The ſtamp duty ſhall charge every ſkin, &c. upon which ſhall be ingroſſed, &c. any policy of aſſurance, or any charter party. ſ. 10.

Every deed, inſtrument, note, memorandum, letter, or other minument or writing, between the captain or maſter, or owner of any veſſel, and any merchant, trader, or other perſon, in reſpect to the freight or conveyance of any effects, laden or to be laden on board of any veſſel, ſhall be deemed a charter party. ſ. 11.

By 5 Geo. 3. c. 46. If the properties of more than one perſon in any ſhip or cargo, or both, or of more than a particular number of perſons in general partnerſhip, or of more than one corporation, to a greater amount than 100*l.* be aſſured on the ſame policy, ſuch policy ſhall be void, and the premium paid thereon ſhall remain the property of the aſſurer, and if any riſque diſtinct from the riſque mentioned in the original policy, and upon which any further premium premium ſhall be given, ſhall be by any writing or declaration not duly ſtamped, added to the original policy, ſuch additional aſſurance ſhall be void, and the premium paid remain the property of the aſſurer. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful to aſſure the properties of any number of perſons, in any ſhip, cargo, or both, by one policy ſtamped with five ſtamps, of 5 s. each. ſ. 4.—But ſee 7 Geo. 3. c. 44. & 8 Geo. 3. c. 25. poſtea.

By 7 Geo. 3. c. 44. It ſhall be lawful to aſſure, or cauſe to be aſſured, the properties of any number of perſons whatſoever, in any ſhip, cargo, or both, not exceeding in the whole 1000 l. by a policy ſtamped with 5 s. and it ſhall be lawful to aſſure the properties of any number of perſons whatſoever, in any ſhip, cargo, or both, to the amount of any ſum whatſoever, by one policy ſtamped with two ſtamps of 5 s. each; and every policy ſo ſtamped, ſhall be valid. ſ. 1.

If any riſque, diſtinct from the riſque mentioned in the original policy, and upon which any further premium ſhall be given, ſhall be, by any writing or declaration not ſtamped, added to ſuch original policy, ſuch additional aſſurance ſhall be void, and the premium paid thereon ſhall remain the property of the aſſurer. ſ. 2.

If any perſon ſhall be proſecuted for aſſuring properties in any ſhip, cargo, or both, to a greater amount than 1000 l. with a ſtamp of 5 s. only; the proof, as to the amount of value aſſured, ſhall lie on the perſon proſecuted, and not on the perſon who ſhall ſue. ſ. 7.

By 8 Geo. 3. c. 25. All policies of aſſurance by which the property of one perſon, or one general partnerſhip, or one body politic or corporate, in any ſhip, or cargo, or both, ſhall be aſſured to the amount of more than 1000 l. ſhall be ſtamped with two 5 s. ſtamps; and ſuch policy, not ſo ſtamped, ſhall be void, and the premium paid thereon ſhall remain the property of the aſſurer. ſ. 4.

If any perſon ſhall be ſued, for aſſuring the property of one perſon, or one general partnerſhip, or one body politic or corporate, in any ſhip, or cargo, or both, to a greater amount than 1000 l. by a policy ſtamped with 5 s. only; then, the proof as to the amount aſſured ſhall lie on the perſon ſued, and not on the perſon who ſhall ſue. ſ. 5.

If any riſque diſtinct from the riſque mentioned in the original policy, and upon which any further premium ſhall be given, ſhall be, by any writing or declaration not duly ſtamped, added to ſuch original policy, ſuch additional aſſurance ſhall be void, and the premium paid thereon ſhall remain the property of the aſſurer. ſ. 6.

By 17 Geo. 3. c. 50. If any perſon ſhall ſign, ſeal, execute, or ſubſcribe, any policy of inſurance, or other deed, whereby houſes and goods ſhall be anyways inſured from loſs by fire, before the vellum, &c. ſhall appear to have been ſtamped, ſuch perſon ſhall, for ſuch offence, forfeit 10 l.; one moiety to his majeſty, and the other, with coſts, to ſuch perſon as ſhall ſue in any court of record: And if ſuch policy ſhall be ſo ſigned, &c. upon vellum, &c. not appearing to have been duly ſtamped, then there ſhall be paid to his majeſty (above the duties hereby payable) for every ſuch policy 5 l.; and no ſuch policy ſhall be available, unleſs as well the duty hereby charged, as the 5 l. ſhall be firſt paid to the uſe of his majeſty, and a receipt produced for the ſame, under the hand of the receiver-general of the ſtamp-duties, or his deputy, and until the vellum, &c. on which ſuch policy is ſo ſigned, &c. ſhall be ſtamped according to the true meaning thereof; and the ſaid receiver-general and his deputy are, upon payment or tender of the duty, payable by virtue hereof, and of the 5 l. to give a receipt for ſuch money; and the other officers are thereupon to ſtamp ſuch policy with the proper ſtamp. ſ. 24.

RECEIPTS for Payment of Money.

By 23 Geo. 3. c. 49. There ſhall be paid throughout Great Britain, for every piece, &c. on which any receipt or other diſcharge given on the payment of money, amounting to 2 l. and not 20 l. ſhall be written, two pence; amounting to 20 l. and upwards, four pence. ſ. 3.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge any receipt for any money paid into the bank of England, or the houſe of any banker, or any receipt, or other diſcharge given for any money received on any dividend, payable from the public or government funds eſtabliſhed by parliament, or any receipt given on the back of any bill of exchange, promiſſory or other note, or on any bank note or bank poſt bill; or to any letter acknowledging the ſafe arrival of any bills, notes, or remittances; or any receipt indorſed on, or contained in the body of any deed, bond, mortgage, or other obligatory inſtrument, already directed to be ſtamped, or to any releaſe or acquittance by deed, or to any receipt given by the treaſurer of the navy for any money impreſted to, or received by him for the ſervice of the navy; or to the receipt of any agent for money, on account of the pay of the army or ordnance; or to any receipt given by any officer, ſeaman, or ſoldier, or their repreſentative, for wages, &c. due to them from the navy, army, or ordnance. ſ. 4.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any receipt given on the back of any foreign bill of exchange. ſ. 7.

The whole ſum for which any receipt ſhall be be given, ſhall be really inſerted in ſuch receipt; and all perſons who ſhall give or accept any receipt in which a leſs ſum ſhall be expreſſed than the ſum actually received, with an intent to evade the duties, or ſhall divide the ſum actually paid in divers receipts, to evade the duties, or ſhall be guilty of, or concerned in any fraudulent contrivance whatſoever, to defraud his majeſty of any of the duties on receipts, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 20 l. to be recovered as hereafter directed. ſ. 10.

All receipts expreſſed to be in full, or as a ſatisfaction of all demands, and all general acknowledgments of debts or demands being diſcharged, ſhall be deemed receipts for above 20 l. and be liable to the duty of four pence. ſ. 11.

The duty on any receipt ſhall be paid by the perſon by whom the ſame ſhall be required, except ſuch receipts as ſhall be for money paid to perſons in reſpect of any ſalary, penſion, debt, or other ſum payable from his majeſty to ſuch perſons, in which caſe the duty ſhall be paid by the perſon giving the ſame. ſ. 12.

All unſtamped receipts, not amounting to 2 l. and which ſhall (by the inſertion of the words In full of all demands, or otherwiſe), be given as a general acknowledgment of all debts being diſcharged may be given in evidence, and may be available in law for ſuch ſum ſo expreſſed, but not as a general acknowledgment of all debts being diſcharged. ſ. 15.

All receipts impreſſed with a ſtamp of 2 d. in which any money, amounting to 2 l. and not amounting to 20 l. ſhall be expreſſed, and which ſhall, (by the inſertion of the words In full of all demands, or otherwiſe) be given as a general acknowledgment of all debts being diſcharged, may be given in evidence, and may be available for ſuch ſum ſo expreſſed, but not as a general acknowledgment of all debts being diſcharged. ſ. 16.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 1. c. 7. Every perſon who ſhall write or ſign, or cauſe to be written or ſigned any receipt or other diſcharge, given for the payment of money liable to any ſtamp duty charged by the act of the laſt ſeſſion without being firſt ſtamped, or on which there ſhall not be ſome ſtamp reſembling the ſame, he ſhall, for every ſuch receipt, forfeit 5 l. to be recovered as in the ſaid act is directed or as after mentioned. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon required to give any receipt, to provide the paper ſtamped, and ſuch perſon may add the value of the ſtamp to the account of the perſon requiring the ſame, or to the demand for the diſcharge of which the receipt was required; which charge ſo made ſhall be good in any court. ſ. 5.

Nothing in this or the recited act ſhall charge any duty on any receipt given for the purchaſe of any ſtock or fund, or in the ſtocks of the corporations of the bank of England, Eaſt India, or South-Sea companies, or for the dividends payable on ſuch ſtocks. ſ. 6.

Nothing in this or the act of laſt ſeſſion, ſhall charge any receipt given for drawbacks or bounties on the exportation of any goods from this kingdom, nor to any certificates of over-entry of any duties of cuſtoms, nor to any portage bills allowed to maſters of veſſels, for making a true report of their cargo at the cuſtom houſe. ſ. 7.

No receipt or other diſcharge given for the payment of money ſhall be ſtamped after the ſame ſhall have been written or ſigned, unleſs on payment of 10 l.; and the officers are, on payment of the duty and the 10 l., to give a receipt for the ſame, and to ſtamp ſuch receipt, or other diſcharge, with the ſtamp required by the before-recited act. ſ. 8.

For the mode of recovering the penalties, ſee the firſt part of ſec. 9. in page 605, ante.

And perſons aggrieved by the judgement of the juſtice may, upon giving ſecurity to the amount of the penalty, with coſts, appeal to the juſtices at the next general quarter ſeſſions, which ſhall happen after fourteen days next after ſuch conviction ſhall have been made, and of which appeal notice ſhall be given who are to ſummon and examine witneſſes upon oath, and finally to hear and determine the ſame; and in caſe the judgment of ſuch juſtice ſhall be affirmed, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtices to award the perſon to pay ſuch coſts occaſioned by ſuch appeal, as to them ſhall ſeem meet: but it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice, where he ſee cauſe, to mitigate ſuch penalties, (coſts of the officers and informers being always allowed above ſuch mitigation) and ſo as ſuch mitigation do not reduce the penalties to leſs than a moiety above the ſaid coſts. ſ. 9.

If any perſon ſhall be ſummoned as a witneſs, to give evidence before ſuch juſtice, and ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear (his expences being firſt paid or tendered), without a reaſonable excuſe, to be allowed of by ſuch juſtice, or appearing ſhall refuſe to be examined on oath and give evidence before ſuch juſtice, then ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 40*s.* to be levied in ſuch manner as is herein directed as to other penalties, without a reaſonable excuſe for ſuch refuſal, to be allowed of by ſuch juſtice. ſ. 10.

All forfeitures in this act (the charges for the recovery thereof being firſt deducted) ſhall be divided, one moiety to the receiver general of ſtamp duties, for the uſe of his majeſty, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall inform. ſ. 11.

No perſon ſhall be liable to be convicted before any juſtice for any offence committed againſt this, or the act of laſt ſeſſion, unleſs complaint be made within one year. ſ. 12.

Receipts for Payment of Legacies.

Any receipt or other diſcharge for any legacy left by any will or other teſtamentary inſtrument, or for any ſhare of a perſonal eſtate divided by force of the ſtatute of diſtributions, or the cuſtom of any place, the amount whereof ſhall not exceed 20 l. by 20 Geo. 3. c. 28. ſ. 1. 2*s.* 6*d.*—by 23 Geo. 3. c. 58. ſ 1. 2*s.* 6*d.*—In the whole, five ſhillings.

Stannaries.

By 16 Car. 1. c. 15. Whereas king Edward 1. did grant divers franchiſes to the tinners of the ſtannaries in the county of Devon; and in the parliament 50 Edw. 3. certain articles of the charter were explained, viz. Where the king granted that all the tinners aforeſaid working in thoſe ſtannaries that are the king's demeſne, while they work in the ſame, ſhould be free of all pleas touching the king's courts, ſo as they ſhould not anſwer before any juſtices or officers of the king, of any plea ariſing within the ſaid ſtannaries, unleſs before the warden of the ſaid ſtannaries (except pleas of land, life and member), nor ſhould depart from their work by ſummons of any of the king's officers; and that they ſhould be quit of all tallage, aids, and other cuſtoms, in towns, ports, fairs, and markets, within the county aforeſaid, for their own goods: whereupon a declaration was made, that the words, working in thoſe ſtannaries, and while they work in the ſame, ſhould be underſtood only of workmen working in thoſe ſtannaries without fraud, and not of others; and a farther declaration was made, that the juriſdiction ſhould extend only in places where the workmen work: and the like charter was made to the tinners of Cornwall. ſ. 1, 2, & 3.

The ſaid declaration ſhall be obſerved, without this, that the words of the charters in locis ubi operantur be expounded, of the vill, tithing, and hamlet, where ſome tin-work in work is ſituate, and not elſewhere, and no longer than the ſame ſhall be in working. And if any perſon ſued in the ſaid ſtannaries, ſhall tender his oath in court, that he is not, nor at the time of the ſuit commenced was, a tinner, ſuch defendant ſhall be diſcharged, unleſs the plaintiff make oath that the plaintiff is a true and working tinner, without fraud or deceit, and that the cauſe of his ſuit aroſe within the ſtannaries, or concerneth tin or tin-works. And if any perſon being not re vera a working and labouring tinner, ſet on work within one half year next before, ſhall ſue in any the ſaid courts, or before the warden, vice-warden or ſteward, of the ſtannaries, any perſon not a tinner, the defendant ſhall have his action at common law againſt ſuch perſon, wherein he ſhall recover 10*l.* and his damages and coſts; provided ſuch action be brought within two years after the ſuit brought in the ſtannary courts. ſ. 4.

In all caſes where the plaintiffs or defendants are to have coſts by the laws of this realm, the plaintiffs and defendants ſhall have like coſts in the ſtannary courts. ſ. 5.

It ſhall be lawful for the ſaid tinners, to ſue any foreigners at the common law. ſ. 6.

No perſon ſhall be charged as ſurety by return of any bailiff of the ſtannaries, unleſs the perſon returned ſurety, ſhall in the preſence of two witneſſes ſign a note, that ſuch perſon is become ſurety, which note ſhall mention the names of the plaintiffs and defendants, and the ſum in demand, and the nature of the action, and ſhall be ſigned by the witneſſes, and returned and filed in the court; and no bailiff of the ſtannaries ſhall be admitted as a witneſs to ſuch note. ſ. 8.

No defendant ſhall be condemned for not appearing upon the bailiffs returning him arreſted, unleſs a note under the hand of the party arreſted, and ſubſcribed by two ſuch witneſſes, be returned into court, at or before the day of appearance; and the bailiff ſhall take but 4*d.* for ſuch note; and none ſhall be bailed upon arreſt there, till he give ſuch note. ſ. 10.

In caſe any the ſaid bailiffs ſhall return a reſcous againſt any perſon, he ſhall be admitted to traverſe the return; which if it be found with him, he ſhall be no further troubled. ſ. 11.

By 27 Geo. 2. c. 6. All the proviſions and regulations in the 20 Geo. 2. c. 19. (ſee title Labourers), relating to ſervants in huſbandry, handycrafts-men, miners, colliers, keel-men, pit-men, glaſs-men, porters, and other labourers, ſhall extend to the tinners and miners employed in the ſtannaries in the counties of Devon and Cornwall reſpectively. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall reſtrain any perſon from applying to the ſtannary courts, or to the warden, vice-warden, or ſtewards of the ſtannaries, in relation to any of the matters before-mentioned. ſ. 3.

Stores.

By 9 and 10 Will. 3. c. 41. It ſhall not be lawful for any perſon, other than perſons authoriſed by contracting with his majeſty's principal officers or commiſſioners of the navy, ordnance or victualling office, for his majeſty's uſe, to make any ſtores of war or naval ſtores, with the marks uſed upon his majeſty's ſtores, viz. cordage of three inches and upwards wrought with a white thread laid the contrary way, or ſmaller cordage from three inches downwards with a twine in lieu of a white thread laid the contrary way, or any canvas with a blue ſtreak in the middle, or any other ſtores with the broad arrow; upon pain that every ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit ſuch goods, and 200*l.* with coſts, one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the informer, to be recovered in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 1.

Such perſon in whoſe cuſtody ſuch ſtores marked as aforeſaid ſhall be found, and perſons who ſhall conceal ſuch ſtores, being indicted and convicted of ſuch concealment, or of the having ſuch goods in keeping, ſhall forfeit ſuch goods and 200*l.* with coſts, one moiety to his majeſty, and the other to the informer, and ſhall alſo ſuffer impriſonment until payment of the forfeiture; unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall, upon his trial, produce a certificate of three principal officers or commiſſioners of the navy, ordnance or victuallers, expreſſing the numbers, quantities or weights, of ſuch goods, and the reaſon of ſuch goods coming to his hands. ſ. 2.

The principal officers or commiſſioners of the navy, ordnance or victualling office, may ſell any ſtores ſo marked, as they might before this act; and ſuch as ſhall buy ſuch ſtores may keep the ſame, producing certificates of three of the ſaid officers or commiſſioners, that they bought ſuch goods from them, or from ſuch as did buy the ſaid ſtores; in which certificates the quantities ſhall be expreſſed, and the time when and where bought. ſ. 4.

Any perſon ſued for diſcovering or ſeizing any ſuch ſtores, may plead the general iſſue; and in caſe the defendants make proof that ſuch ſtores were marked as aforeſaid, and the plaintiffs or proſecutors ſhall not make proof that they were ſo employed, or had ſuch certificate as aforeſaid, and that they did ſhew the ſame to ſuch defendants before the ſuit commenced, ſuch defendant ſhall be acquitted, unleſs ſuch defendants upon ſight of ſuch certificate did not deliver back unto ſuch plaintiffs or proſecutors all ſuch ſtores in as good plight as they were at the time of ſuch certificate ſhewn; and in caſe ſuch defendants ſhall be acquitted, &c. they ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 5.

Nothing in this act ſhall hinder any of the principal officers and commiſſioners of the navy, or any chief commander of any of his majeſty's ſhips at ſea, to lend ſtores to any merchant ſhip in diſtreſs or otherwiſe, as might be done before this act, in caſe ſuch goods be reſtored with all poſſible conveniency; provided ſuch perſons ſo borrowing ſtores have ſuch certificate, which the ſaid principal officers and commiſſioners, or commander in chief, are required to give. ſ. 8.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 25. made perpetual by 9 Geo. 1. c. 8. The treaſurer, comptroller, ſurveyor, clerk of the acts, and commiſſioners of the navy, or one of them, ſhall by warrant empower any perſon to ſearch for embezzled ſtores, &c. as juſtices of peace may do in caſes of felony, and puniſh the offenders by fine and impriſonment, the fine not exceeding 20*s.* and the impriſonment not exceeding one week, in the next gaol, or in the hands of the meſſenger attending them, ſuch goods not exceeding the value of 20*s.* and if the offence require a ſeverer puniſhment, they may commit ſuch offender to the next gaol, &c. till he enter into recognizance, with ſureties, to appear and anſwer the ſame in the exchequer, or other court where his majeſty ſhall queſtion him, within one year following, on proceſs duly ſerved. ſ. 3.

The ſaid treaſurer, &c. where the value of goods embezzled from his majeſty's yards, &c. ſhall be under the value of 20*s.* ſhall have power, on the oath of one witneſs, or confeſſion of the offender, to convict the party, and to impoſe ſuch fine as aforeſaid, not exceeding double the value of the goods; which fine ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods by warrant of ſuch officer; and for want of ſuch diſtreſs, the party ſhall be committed to the next gaol for any time not exceeding three months. ſ. 4.

The ſaid treaſurer, &c. on oath of one witneſs, that his majeſty's ſtores, &c. are conveyed into any ſhip being at anchor, and not ready to ſail that tide, within any of the roads, harbours, &c. in his majeſty's dominions, may authorize any perſons by their warrant (in which the quantity and quality of ſuch goods ſhall be ſpecified) in the day-time to go on board ſuch ſhip, &c. and in caſe of reſiſtance to break open the hatches, &c. and ſearch for ſuch goods, &c. and ſeize the ſame for his majeſty's uſe, unleſs the ſaid officers and commiſſioners ſhall find, upon hearing the matter, that they were unduly ſeized, and thereupon reſtore them to the party. ſ. 5.

Every perſon who ſhall counterfeit the hand of the ſaid treaſurer, &c. or of the vouching officers of his majeſty's navy, &c. to any bill, ticket or other papers, by virtue whereof his majeſty's naval treaſure may be diſpoſed of, or ſhall knowingly produce any ſuch counterfeit ticket, &c. may be committed to priſon by any of the ſaid officers or commiſſioners, till he find ſurety to appear at the next aſſizes or quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for the lord high admiral, &c. or for the treaſurer, &c. of the navy, to adminiſter oaths in caſes relating to the receiving, iſſuing and accounting for, any of his majeſty's treaſure, victuals, ſtores or proviſions of his navy, or for the preſervation of due order therein, or in any other matter relating to the navy. ſ. 9.

Nothing herein ſhall repeal any clauſes, &c. in 22 Car. 2. c. 5. which ſee in PART I. page 376. ſ. 11.

For other proviſions in this act relating to theſe and other offences, ſee Title Seamen.

By 9 Geo. 1. c. 8. If any perſon ſhall be convicted of having in his cuſtody any timber, thick ſtuff or plank, marked with the broad arrow, or of concealing any timber, &c. ſo marked, he ſhall ſuffer and forfeit as for concealing any other ſtores contrary to 9 and 10 Will. 3. c. 41. ſ. 3.

Any juſtice, before whom any offender ſhall be convicted of the crimes before mentioned, may mitigate the penalty, and commit the offender to gaol till payment of the forfeiture, or may puniſh ſuch offender corporally, by cauſing him to be whipped, or committed to ſome public workhouſe, to be kept to hard labour for three months, or a leſs time. ſ. 4.

Where any diſpute ſhall ariſe between the perſons on whoſe informations any perſon offending in the premiſſes ſhall be proſecuted, the juſtice before whom the offender ſhall be convicted ſhall determine the ſame. ſ. 5.

By 17 Geo. 2. c. 40. It ſhall be lawful for any judge, juſtice or juſtices at the aſſizes, or juſtices of peace at the general quarter-ſeſſions, to try, and determine, by indictment or otherwiſe, the offences mentioned in the 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 41. and the 9 Geo. 1. c. 8. and the ſaid judge, juſtice or juſtices of aſſize, or juſtices of peace, before whom ſuch offender is indicted, or tried and convicted of the offences in the ſaid acts mentioned, may impoſe any fine, not exceeding 200 l. on ſuch offender, one moiety to be paid to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the informer; and may mitigate the penalty, and commit the offender until payment; or in lieu thereof puniſh ſuch offender corporally, by cauſing him to be publicly whipped, and committed to ſome houſe of correction, or workhouſe, to be kept to hard labour for three months, or leſs time. ſ. 11.

Suit of Court.

Stat. Marleber. 52 Hen. 3. c. 9. None that is infeoffed by deed ſhall be diſtrained to do ſuit to the court of his lord, without he be ſpecially bound thereto by his deed, theſe only except whoſe anceſtors have uſed to do ſuch ſuit before the firſt voyage of king Hen. 3. into Britain; likewiſe none that is infeoffed without deed from the time of the conqueſt, or any other ancient feoffment, ſhall be diſtrained to do ſuch ſuits, unleſs his anceſtors uſed to do it before the ſaid voyage; and they that are infeoffed by deed to do a certain ſervice, as for ſervice of ſo many ſhillings by year, to be acquitted of all ſervice, ſhall not be bound to ſuch ſuits contrary to the form of their feoffment. And if any inheritance whereof but one ſuit is due deſcend unto many heirs, whoſo hath the eldeſt part ſhall do ſuit for himſelf and his fellows, and the other coheirs ſhall be contributaries; and if many feoffees be ſeiſed of an inheritance, whereof but one ſuit is due, the lord ſhall have but that one ſuit; and if thoſe feoffees have no warrant or meſne which ought to acquit them, then all the feoffees, according to their portion, ſhall be contributaries for doing the ſuit. And if the lords diſtrain the tenants for ſuch ſuits contrary to this act, at the complaint of the tenants the lords ſhall be attached to appear in the king's court at a ſhort day to make anſwer thereto, and ſhall have but one eſſoin therein, if they be within the realm; and the diſtreſſes ſhall be delivered to the plaintiff until the plea be determined: and if the lords which took diſtreſſes come not at the day, the ſheriffs ſhall be commanded to cauſe them to come at another day; at which day if they come not, he ſhall be commanded to diſtrain them by all their goods, ſo that the ſheriff ſhall anſwer to the king of the iſſues of the inheritance, and that he have their bodies before the juſtices at a certain day; ſo if they come not at that day, the plaintiff ſhall go without day, and his diſtreſſes ſhall remain delivered until the lords have recovered the ſuit by award of the king's court; and in the mean time ſuch diſtreſſes ſhall ceaſe, ſaving to the lords their right to recover thoſe ſuits when they will ſue: and when the lords of the courts come in to anſwer the plaintiffs of ſuch treſpaſſes, and be convicted thereupon, then by award of the king's court the plaintiffs ſhall recover damages. ſ. 1.

If the tenants withdraw ſuch ſuits as they were wont to do, then by like ſpeedineſs of juſtice the lords of the courts ſhall obtain juſtice to recover their ſuits with their damages; and this muſt be underſtood of withdrawing from themſelves, and not of withdrawing from their anceſtors. Nevertheleſs the lords of courts ſhall not recover ſeiſin of ſuch ſuits againſt their tenants by default, as they were wont to do. And touching ſuits withdrawn before the time aforementioned, let the common law run. ſ. 2.

Stat. Glouc. 6 Edw. 1. c. 8. Sheriffs ſhall plead pleas of treſpaſs in their counties as they have been accuſtomed; and none ſhall have writs of treſpaſs before juſtices, unleſs he ſwear by his faith that the goods were worth 40 s. at leaſt; and if he complain of beating, he ſhall ſwear by his faith that his plaint is true: touching wounds and maims a man ſhall have his writ as before. And defendants in ſuch pleas may make their attornies where appeal lieth not, ſo that if they be attainted, being abſent, the ſheriff ſhall be commanded to take them. And if the plaintiffs in ſuch treſpaſſes cauſe themſelves firſt to be eſſoined after the appearance, day ſhall be given them unto the coming of the juſtices in eyre, and the defendants in the mean time ſhall be in peace. If the defendant eſſoin himſelf in the king's ſervice, and do not bring his warrant in at the day given, he ſhall recompence the plaintiff's damages for the day 20 s. or more, after the diſcretion of the juſtices, and nevertheleſs ſhall be grievouſly amerced.

By 8 Eliz. c. 2. If any perſon ſhall procure any other to be attached or arreſted to anſwer to any action in the Marſhalſey, or in any court within London, or in any city, borough, town corporate or other place, where any liberty is uſed to hold plea in actions perſonal, and do not in all courts, having their continuance de die in diem within three days after the defendant ſhall be bailed, or appear by force of any arreſt or attachment (and in all other courts at the next court to be holden after ſuch arreſts or attachments and appearance) unleſs a further day be given by the court, exhibit his declaration; or if after his declaration he do not proſecute his ſuit with effect, or ſhall ſuffer the ſame to be diſcontinued, or be nonſuited, or apparently for vexation delay the ſame, the judges of ſuch court ſhall by their diſcretion from time to time, as they ſhall perceive any ſuch default or delay, award to ſuch perſon ſo moleſted, his coſts by occaſion of ſuch attachment, arreſt and ſuit. ſ. 3.

If any perſon ſhall maliciouſly, or for vexation, procure any other to be arreſted or attached to anſwer in any the courts aforeſaid, at the ſuit of any perſon where there is no ſuch perſon known, or without the conſent of ſuch perſon at whoſe ſuit ſuch arreſt or attachment ſhall be had, every perſon that ſhall ſo procure any arreſt, &c. and ſhall be accuſed by indictment, preſentment, or by the teſtimony of two witneſſes, or other due proof, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment ſix months, and before he be delivered ſhall pay unto the party arreſted or attached treble coſts, and ſhall alſo forfeit unto ſuch perſon in whoſe name he ſhall procure ſuch arreſt, &c. if there be ſuch perſon known, 10 l. ſ. 4.

Every perſon to whom any coſts, damages or ſums of money by this act ſhall be awarded, may have his remedy by action of debt, bill, or plaint in any court of record, againſt ſuch perſons, their heirs, executors or adminiſtrators, as ought to pay the ſame. ſ. 5. See part of this act in Arreſts.

By 43 Eliz. c. 6. Continued indefinitely by 3 Car. 1. c. 4. and 16 Car. 1. c. 4. If any ſheriff, or other perſon, having authority to break writs, make any warrant for the ſummons of any perſon, as upon any writ or ſuit, or for the arreſt or attaching of any perſon by his body or goods, to appear in any her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, or elſewhere, not having before that the original writ or proceſs warranting the ſame, upon complaint thereof to the juſtices of aſſize of the county, or to the judges of the court out of which the proceſs iſſued, not only the party that made ſuch warrant, but the procurers thereof, ſhall be ſent for by attachments, or otherwiſe, as the judges ſhall think good, and be examined upon their oaths. And if the offence be confeſſed or proved by witneſſes, the judges ſhall commit the offenders to the gaol of the county, or court where the ſame ſhall be examined, until they have ſatisfied the party grieved, not only the ſum of 10 l. but alſo all ſuch coſts and damages, as the judges ſhall ſet down that the party hath ſuſtained thereby; and 20 l. a-piece for their offence to her majeſty. ſ. 1. See Sheriffs.

If upon any action perſonal in any her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, (not being for title or intereſt of lands, nor concerning the freehold or inheritance of lands, nor for any battery) it ſhall appear to the judges, and be ſo ſignified by the juſtices before whom the ſame ſhall be tried, that the debt or damages ſhall not amount to 40 s. the judges ſhall not award for coſts to the plaintiff, any more than the ſum of the debt or damages ſo recovered, but leſs at their diſcretions. ſ. 2.

By 17 Car. 2. c. 8. ſ. 1. Made perpetual by 1 Jac. 2. c. 17. In all actions perſonal, real or mixt, the death of either party between the verdict and the judgment, ſhall not be alledged for error; ſo as ſuch judgment be entered within two terms after ſuch verdict.

Where any judgment after a verdict ſhall be had by any executor or adminiſtrator, an adminiſtrator de bonis non may ſue a ſcire facias, and take execution upon ſuch judgment. ſ. 2.

By 22 and 23 Car. 2. c. 9. For making effectual 43 Eliz. c. 6. for avoiding trifling ſuits in the courts at Weſtminſter, be it enacted, that in all actions of treſpaſs, aſſault and battery, and other perſonal actions, wherein the judge at the trial ſhall not find and certify under his hand upon the record, that an aſſault and battery was proved, or that the freehold or title of the land mentioned in the declaration was chiefly in queſtion, the plaintiff, in caſe the jury ſhall find the damages to be under 40 s. ſhall not recover more coſts than damages; and if any more coſts ſhall be awarded, the judgment ſhall be void, and the defendant may have his action againſt the plaintiff for ſuch vexatious ſuit in any of the courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 136.

By 8 and 9 Will. 3. c. 11. Where ſeveral perſons ſhall be made defendants to any action of treſpaſs, aſſault, falſe impriſonment or ejectione firmae, and any of them ſhall be acquitted by verdict, every perſon ſo acquitted ſhall have his coſts, as if a verdict had been given againſt the plaintiff, unleſs the judge before whom ſuch cauſe ſhall be tried, ſhall immediately after the trial, in open court, certify upon the record under his hand, that there was a reaſonable cauſe for making ſuch perſon a defendant. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſhall proſecute in any court of record, any action, wherein upon demurrer judgment ſhall be given againſt ſuch plaintiff or demandant, or if after judgment for the defendant, the plaintiff or demandant ſhall ſue a writ of error, and the judgment ſhall be affirmed, or the writ of error diſcontinued, or the plaintiff nonſuit therein, the defendant or tenant ſhall have judgment to recover his coſts, and have execution for the ſame by capias ad ſatisfaciendum, fieri facias, or elegit. ſ. 2.

In all actions of waſte, and actions of debt upon the ſtatute for not ſetting forth tythes, wherein the ſingle value or damage found by the jury ſhall not exceed 20 nobles, and in all writs of ſcire facias, and prohibitions, the plaintiff obtaining judgment or execution after plea pleaded or demurrer joined, ſhall likewiſe recover his coſts; and if the plaintiff ſhall become nonſuit, or ſuffer a diſcontinuance, or a verdict ſhall paſs againſt him, the defendant ſhall recover his coſts. ſ. 3.

In all actions of treſpaſs in any his majeſty's courts, wherein at the trial of the cauſe it ſhall appear, and be certified by the judge upon the back of the record, that the treſpaſs was wilful and malicious, the plaintiff ſhall recover full coſts. ſ. 4.

Nothing herein ſhall alter the laws in being as to executors or adminiſtrators, where they are not at preſent liable to coſts. ſ. 5.

In all actions in any court of record, if any plaintiff happen to die after an interlocutory judgment, and before final judgment, the action ſhall not abate, if ſuch action might be originally maintained by the executors or adminiſtrators of ſuch plaintiff; and if the defendant die after interlocutory judgment, and before final judgment, the action ſhall not abate, if ſuch action might be originally proſecuted againſt the executors or adminiſtrators of ſuch defendant; and the plaintiff, or his executors or adminiſtrators, ſhall have a ſcire facias againſt the defendant, his executors or adminiſtrators, to ſhew cauſe why damages in ſuch action ſhould not be aſſeſſed and recovered; and if ſuch defendant, &c. ſhall appear at the return of ſuch writ, and not alledge matter ſufficient to arreſt the final judgment, or (being returned warned, or upon two writs of ſcire facias it be returned that the defendant, &c. had nothing, &c.) ſhall make default, a writ of inquiry ſhall be awarded, which being executed and returned, judgment final ſhall be given. ſ. 6.

If there be two or more plaintiffs or defendants, and one of them die, if the cauſe of ſuch action ſhall ſurvive, the action ſhall not abate; but ſuch death being ſuggeſted upon the record, the action ſhall proceed at the ſuit of the ſurviving plaintiffs againſt the ſurviving defendants. ſ. 7.

In all actions in any of his majeſty's courts of record, upon any bond, or on any penal ſum, for non-performance of covenants, the plaintiff may aſſign as many breaches as he ſhall think fit, and the jury upon trial of ſuch action ſhall aſſeſs, not only ſuch damages and coſts as have been uſually done, but alſo damages for ſuch of the ſaid breaches as the plaintiff ſhall prove; and like judgment ſhall be entered on ſuch verdict as hath been uſually done in ſuch actions; and if judgment ſhall be given for the plaintiff on a demurrer, or by confeſſion, or nihil dicit, the plaintiff upon the roll may ſuggeſt as many breaches as he ſhall think fit, upon which ſhall iſſue a writ to the ſheriff, to ſummon a jury to appear before the juſtices of aſſize or niſi prius, to enquire of the truth of thoſe breaches, and to aſſeſs the damages; in which writ it ſhall be commanded to the juſtices that they make return thereof: and in caſe the defendant, after ſuch judgment entred, and before any execution executed, ſhall pay into court to the uſe of the plaintiff ſuch damages, together with the coſts, a ſtay of execution on the judgment ſhall be entred; or if by reaſon of any execution executed, the plaintiff, or his executors, &c. ſhall be ſatisfied all ſuch damages together with their coſts, and all reaſonable expences for executing the execution, the body, lands, or goods of the defendant ſhall be diſcharged from the execution, which ſhall likewiſe be entred upon record; but in each caſe ſuch judgment ſhall remain, as a ſecurity to anſwer to the plaintiff, his executors, or adminiſtrators, ſuch damages as may be ſuſtained for further breach of any covenant in the ſame indenture, &c. contained, upon which the plaintiff may have a ſcire facias upon the judgment againſt the defendant, or againſt his heir, terre-tenants, executors, or adminiſtrators, ſuggeſting other breaches, and to ſummon them to ſhew cauſe why execution ſhall not be had, upon which there ſhall be the like proeeeding as was in the action of debt; and upon ſatisfaction, as aforeſaid, of ſuch future damages, coſts, and charges, all further proceedings on the judgment are again to be ſtayed, and ſo toties quoties. ſ. 8.

Surety of the peace.

By 21 Jac. 1. c. 8. Proceſs of the peace or good behaviour to be granted out of the chancery or king's bench, ſhall be void, unleſs ſuch proceſs be granted upon motion made in open court, and upon declaration in writing, upon their corporal oaths, by the parties which ſhall deſire ſuch proceſs, of the cauſes for which ſuch proceſs ſhall be granted, and unleſs ſuch motion and declaration be mentioned to be made upon the back of the writ; the ſaid writings there to be entred and remain of record; and if it ſhall afterwards appear to the court, that the cauſes expreſſed in ſuch writings be untrue, the judges ſhall award coſts and damages unto the parties grieved, and the parties ſo offending may be committed until they pay the ſaid coſts and damages. ſ. 2.

All writs of ſuperſedeas to be granted by either of the courts aforeſaid, ſhall be void, unleſs ſuch proceſs be granted upon motion, and upon ſuch ſureties as ſhall appear upon oath, to be aſſeſſed at 5*l.* lands, or 10*l.* in goods, in the ſubſidy-book, which oaths, and the names of ſuch ſureties, with the places of their abode, and where they ſtand aſſeſſed, ſhall be entered of record; and unleſs it ſhall alſo appear to the judges, that the proceſs of the peace or good behaviour, is proſecuted by ſome party grieved. ſ. 3.

The judges of the courts aforeſaid, upon proof of any miſdemeanors committed in the obtaining of writs of ſuperſedeas, or procuring ſurety, may likewiſe puniſh the falſe and inſufficient ſureties, and the procurers thereof, ſo as ſuch puniſhment extend not to life or member. ſ. 4. See CERTIORARI.

Swearing and curſing.

By 19 Geo. 2. c. 21. If any perſon profanely curſe or ſwear, and be convicted on the oath of one witneſs before any juſtice of peace, or before the mayor, juſtice, bailiff or other chief magiſtrate, of any city or town corporate, or by confeſſion, he ſhall forfeit as is herein after mentioned; viz.

Every day labourer, common ſoldier, common ſailor and common ſeaman, 1 s.

Every other perſon under the degree of a gentleman, 2 s.

And every perſon of or above the degree of a gentleman, 5 s.

And in caſe any ſuch perſon after conviction offend a ſecond time, he ſhall forfeit double; and for every other offence after a ſecond conviction, treble the ſum firſt forfeited. ſ. 1.

In caſe any perſon profanely ſwear or curſe, in the hearing of any juſtice of peace, or of any mayor, &c. every ſuch juſtice, mayor, &c. ſhall convict every ſuch offender in the manner herein after ſet forth, without any other proof. ſ. 2.

In caſe any perſon profanely ſwear or curſe, in the hearing of any conſtable, petty conſtable, tythingman or other peace officer, every ſuch peace officer ſhall, in caſe ſuch perſon be unknown, ſeize and detain him, and carry him before the next juſtice, or mayor, &c. of the place wherein ſuch offence was committed; and the ſaid juſtice, mayor, &c. ſhall, on the oath of ſuch peace officer, convict the offender in manner after directed; and in caſe ſuch perſon be known to ſuch peace officer, he ſhall make information before ſome juſtice, mayor or chief magiſtrate, in order that the offender may be convicted and puniſhed. ſ. 3.

Every ſuch juſtice of peace, mayor or other chief magiſtrate, ſhall, upon information given upon oath of any ſuch peace officer, or of any other perſon, cauſe the offender to appear before him; and upon ſuch information being proved, convict ſuch offender in ſuch manner as by this act is preſcribed: and in caſe ſuch offender pay not immediately the ſum forfeited, or give ſecurity to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice or magiſtrate, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice, &c. to commit the offender to the houſe of correction for the county, &c. where ſuch offence is committed, to be kept to hard labour for ten days. ſ. 4.

In caſe any common ſoldier in his majeſty's ſervice, or any common ſailor or ſeaman be convicted of profane curſing ing or ſwearing, and pay not immediately the penalty, or give ſecurity for the ſame, and the coſt of the information ſummons and conviction, inſtead of being committed to the houſe of correction, he ſhall be publicly ſet in the ſtocks for one hour, for every ſingle offence; and for any number of offences, whereof he is convicted at the ſame time, two hours. ſ. 5.

If any juſtice of peace, mayor, or other chief magiſtrate of any town corporate, wilfully omit the performance of his duty in the execution of this act, he ſhall forfeit 5*l.* one moiety to the uſe of the informer, and the other moiety to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh wherein he reſides; to be recovered in any court of record at Weſtminſter; wherein no eſſoin, &c. ſhall be allowed. ſ. 6.

If any conſtable, petty conſtable, tythingman, or other peace officer, wilfully omit the performance of his duty in the execution of this act, and be convicted by the oath of one witneſs, before any juſtice of peace, or before the mayor or other chief magiſtrate of any town corporate, he ſhall forfeit 40 s. to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by a warrant of ſuch juſtice or chief magiſtrate; and to be diſpoſed of, one moiety to the uſe of the informer, and the other moiety to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offence is committed; and in caſe ſuch offender have not ſufficient goods whereon to levy the penalty, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice, &c. to commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction for the county or place, to be kept to hard labour for one month. ſ. 7.

Juſtices, mayors, or other chief magiſtrates before whom any perſon is convicted of profane ſwearing or curſing, ſhall cauſe the conviction to be drawn up in the form following.

Middleſex } BE it remembered, that on the ——— day of to wit. } ——— in the ——— year of his Majeſty's reign, A. B. was convicted before me one of his Majeſty's juſtices of the peace for the county, riding, diviſion, or liberty aforeſaid; or before me mayor, juſtice, bailiff, or other chief magiſtrate of the city or town of ——— within the county of ———, (as the caſe ſhall be) of ſwearing one or more profane oath or oaths, or of curſing one or more profane curſe or curſes, as the caſe ſhall be.

Given under my hand and ſeal, the day and year aforeſaid.

Which form and conviction ſhall not be removed by certiorari into the king's bench, but ſhall be final; and the ſaid juſtice, mayor, or other chief magiſtrate, before whom ſuch conviction is made, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be wrote upon parchment, and returned to the next general or quarter ſeſſions of the peace for the county wherein ſuch conviction was made, to be filed by the clerk of the peace, and be kept amongſt the records of the ſaid county. ſ. 8.

All juſtices of peace, and every mayor or other chief magiſtrate of any town corporate, ſhall put this act in execution within their ſeveral juriſdictions, although ſuch juſtice or magiſtrate be rated, and pay to the relief of the poor of any pariſh or place where any offence is committed. ſ. 9.

All penalties inflicted by this act, for profane curſing and ſwearing, ſhall be diſpoſed of for the benefit of the poor of the pariſh wherein ſuch offence was committed; and all charges of information and conviction ſhall be paid by the party offending, if able, over and above the penalties, which charges ſhall be aſcertained by the juſtice of peace, mayor, or other magiſtrate, before whom ſuch conviction is made: and in caſe ſuch party be not able, or ſhall not immediately paythe ſaid charges, or give ſecurity for the ſame, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice, &c. to commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour for ſix days, over and above ſuch time for which ſuch offender may be committed in default of payment of the penalties; and in ſuch caſe no charges of information and conviction ſhall be paid by any perſon. ſ. 10.

If any action be commenced againſt any juſtice, conſtable, or other perſon, for doing any thing in purſuance of this act, concerning the ſaid offences, the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict be given for the defendant, &c. the defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 11.

No perſon ſhall be proſecuted or troubled for any offence againſt this ſtatute, unleſs the ſame be proved or proſecuted within eight days after the offence committed. ſ. 12.

This act ſhall be publicly read four times in the year, in all pariſh churches and public chapels, by the parſon, vicar, or curate, immediately after morning or evening prayer, on four Sunday, viz. the Sunday next after the 25th of March, 24th of June, 29th of Sept. and 25th of Dec.; or in caſe divine ſervice be not performed in any ſuch church or chapel on any of the Sundays before mentioned, then upon the firſt Sunday after any of the ſaid quarterly days on which divine ſervice is performed, under pain of forfeiting 5*l.* for every neglect; to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, by warrant of any juſtice or other chief magiſtrate. ſ. 13.

The clerk of the juſtice, mayor, bailiff, or other chief officer, before whom proceedings upon this act ſhall be had, may take for the information, ſummons, and conviction of every offender 1 s. and no more. ſ. 14.

The 21 Jac. 1. c. 20. and the 6 & 7 Will. 3. c. 11. ſhall be repealed. ſ. 15.

There ſhall be paid to his majeſty by every hawker, pedlar, petty chapman or other trading perſon, going from town to town, or to other men's houſes, and travelling either on foot, or with horſes or otherwiſe, in England, Wales, or Berwick, carrying to ſell any goods, a duty of 4 l. for each year; and every perſon ſo travelling with a horſe or other beaſt bearing or drawing burden ſhall pay yearly 4 l. for each beaſt above the firſt-mentioned duty of 4 l.

The commiſſioners, or two of them, are required upon the terms aforeſaid to grant a licence to every hawker, &c. for which licence there ſhall be taken only 1 s. unleſs ſuch hawker, &c. ſhall travel with horſe or other beaſt, and in that caſe there ſhall be paid 2 s. above the duties; and the commiſſioners ſhall keep a diſtinct account of the duties, and pay the money into his majeſty's exchequer upon Wedneſday in every week (unleſs a holiday) and then on the day after, and upon neglect of the ſame ſhall incur the penalties as other the officers of the exchequer. 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 27. ſ. 4.

Any perſon ſued for putting in execution this act, may plead the general iſſue not guilty; and if the plaintiff be nonſuit, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 6.

This act ſhall not prohibit any perſon from ſelling acts of parliament, forms of prayer, proclamations, gazettes, licenſed almanacks, or other printed papers licenſed, or any fiſh, fruits or victuals, nor hinder any makers of goods within the kingdom, or their children, apprentices, agents or ſervants, from carrying or ſelling the goods of their own making; nor any tinkers, coopers, glaziers, plumbers, harneſs-menders, or other perſons uſually trading in mending kettles, tubs, houſehold goods or harneſs, from going about and carrying materials for mending the ſame. ſ. 9.

There ſhall be kept in his majeſty's exchequer in the office of the auditor of receipts one book, in which all monies paid by virtue of this act ſhall be entred. ſ. 10.

If any officer in the exchequer ſhall miſapply any of the monies, ſuch officer ſhall forfeit his office, and be incapable of any place of truſt, and ſhall pay the treble value of any ſums ſo miſapplied to the perſons grieved, their executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, who will ſue for the ſame in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no eſſoign, &c. privilege of parliament, or other privilege, ſhall be allowed. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners of his majeſty's treaſury, out of the monies raiſed by this act, to pay to the commiſſioners, their clerks, or other perſons, ſuch ſums of money as they may deſerve for their ſervice. ſ. 14.

This act ſhall not extend to give power for the licenſing of any hawker, &c. to ſell any wares in any city, borough, town corporate, or market-town, otherwiſe than might have been done before. ſ. 15.

By 3 Ann. c. 4. Perſons trading in the woollen or linen manufactures of this kingdom, and ſelling the ſame by wholeſale, ſhall not be deemed hawkers, pedlars, or petty chapman, within any act, but ſuch perſons, and thoſe immediately employed under them, may carry abroad and ſell the ſaid manufactures. ſ. 14.

By 4 Geo. 1. c. 6. No maker or wholeſale trader in Engliſh bone-lace, and ſelling the ſame by wholeſale, ſhall be deemed a hawker, pedlar, or petty chapman, within 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 25. and 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 27. And ſuch perſons may go from houſe to houſe to their cuſtomers, who ſell again, without being liable to the penalties in the ſaid acts.

By 29 Geo. 3. c. 26. It ſhall not be lawful for any hawker, either by opening a room or ſhop, and expoſing to ſale any goods, by retail, in any town, pariſh, or place (not being a houſeholder there, or the ſame not being an uſual place of his abode, or of his carrying on buſineſs), or by any other means, to ſell, either by himſelf, or any auctioneer (whether licenſed or not), broker, appraiſer, agent, ſervant, or other perſon, on his behalf, any goods, by outcry, knocking down of hammer, candle, lot, parcel, or other mode of ſale at auction, or whereby the beſt bidder is to be the purchaſer; and every perſon ſo vending, contrary to ſuch prohibition, ſhall forfeit 50 l. ſ. 4.

Every hawker, &c. ſhall, at the time of receiving his licence, and without any diſcount, pay all duties impoſed upon him, to the commiſſioners for licenſing hawkers, &c. or ſome perſon deputed by them, in writing under their hands and ſeals; and upon payment thereof, a licence ſhall be granted to them, ſubſcribed by the commiſſioners, or two of them, for him to travel and trade, according to 9 Will. 3. ſ. 5. and according to the duties which ſhall then be paid upon ſuch licence. ſ. 5.

Before any perſon ſhall receive any licence, ſuch perſon ſhall produce to the commiſſioners, or their deputy, a certificate, ſigned by one clergyman officiating within the pariſh wherein ſuch perſon has his reſidence, and alſo two inhabitants of the ſaid pariſh, atteſting that the perſon applying is of good character, and fit to be licenſed to exerciſe the trade of a hawker. ſ. 6.

The certificate ſhall be in the form following. ſ. 7.

WE A. B. the miniſter, and C. D. and E. F. being two houſeholders reſiding at in the pariſh (chapelry, or otherwiſe, as the caſe may be) of in the county of do hereby certify that G. E. F. }

Every perſon to whom ſuch licence ſhall be granted, under this act, and who ſhall trade with, or under ſuch licence, ſhall cauſe to be written, painted, or printed, in large legible Roman capitals, upon the moſt conſpicuous part of every pack, box, bag, trunk, caſe, cart, or waggon, or other vehicle or conveyance, in which he ſhall carry his goods, and of every room and ſhop in which he or ſhe ſhall trade, and likewiſe upon every hand bill, or advertiſement, which he ſhall give out, the words Licenſed Hawker, together with the number, name, or other mark upon his licence; and ſuch perſon, in any reſpect making default herein, ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 8.

If any perſon other than to whom ſuch licence ſhall have been granted, ſhall write, &c. or keep written, &c. upon any pack, &c. or in any room, &c. the words Licenſed Hawker, or Licenſed Pedlar, or any other word to that effect; every perſon offending herein ſhall forfeit, 10 l. ſ. 9.

If any hawker ſhall be convicted of dealing in, or ſelling any kind of ſmuggled, contraband, or prohibited, goods, or dealing in or ſelling any goods, fraudulently or diſhoneſtly procured, either by themſelves, or through others with their privity, ſuch hawker, &c. ſhall forfeit his licence, and for ever be incapable of obtaining or holding any new licence, or dealing, under the ſame, above all forfeitures, to which he ſhall be by law ſubject for ſuch illicit dealing. ſ. 10.

If ſuch hawker, &c. ſhall trade as aforeſaid without, or contrary to, or otherwiſe than as allowed by ſuch licence, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 10 l.; and if any perſon trading under any licence, upon demand made by any perſon appointed to demand ſuch licence, by the commiſſioners for licenſing hawkers, or two of them, under their hands and ſeals, and upon producing ſuch authority to ſuch perſon ſo trading, or upon demand made by any juſtice, mayor, conſtable, or other officer of the peace, where he ſhall ſo trade, or by any officer of cuſtoms or exciſe, ſhall refuſe to produce his licence, or ſhall not have his licence ready to produce, then the perſon ſo refuſing, or not having his licence to produce, ſhall forfeit 10 l. and for nonpayment thereof, ſhall ſuffer as a common vagrant, and be committed to the houſe of correction. ſ. 11.

If any perſon ſhall forge any licence, or ſhew any forged licence, for any of the purpoſes aforeſaid, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 100 l. ſ. 12.

In caſe any perſon ſhall let out to hire or lend any licence to him granted, or ſhall trade with any licence granted unto any other perſon, or in which his own real name ſhall not be inſerted as the name of the perſon to whom the ſame is granted, the perſon letting out to hire ſuch licence, and the perſon trading with any licence granted to any other perſon, or any licence in which his own real name ſhall not be inſerted as the name of the perſon to whom the ſame is granted, ſhall each forfeit 40 l.; and in caſe any perſon ſhall be convicted for lending his licence to any other perſon, contrary to this act, ſuch licence ſhall be void, and he ſhall be incapable of having any licence again granted to him. ſ. 13.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon to ſeize any hawker, &c. who ſhall be found trading without a licence, or who, being found trading, ſhall refuſe or neglect to produce to ſuch perſon a licence, after being required ſo to do, for a reaſonable time in order to give notice to a conſtable, or peace officer, who are to carry ſuch perſons ſeized, unleſs they, in the mean time, produce their licences, before one juſtice, which juſtice is to examine into the fact charged, and upon proof, either by confeſſion of the party, or oath of one witneſs, that the perſon brought before him had ſo traded, and no licence being produced by ſuch offender before the juſtice, to convict the offender of trading without a licence; and thereupon it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice, by warrant, to cauſe the 40 l. to be forthwith levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch offender, or of the goods with which ſuch offender ſhall be found trading, rendering the overplus, if any, to the owner, after deduction of the charges for taking the diſtreſs, and out of the ſaid ſale to pay the penalties; and in the mean time to commit ſuch offender to the common gaol where the ſaid offence ſhall be committed, until the penalties and charges of diſtreſs ſhall be levied by ſuch diſtreſs and ſale, or until the ſame ſhall be otherwiſe paid by ſuch offender. ſ. 14.

If any conſtable, or officer of the peace, ſhall refuſe or neglect, upon notice, or on his own view, to be aiding in the execution of this or the ſaid act, being thereunto required, ſuch officer convicted, upon his confeſſion, or by the oath of one witneſs, before any juſtice, ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 15.

No hawker ſhall vend, or expoſe to ſale, any goods whatſoever, in any city or market town in England, Wales, or Berwick, or within the diſtance of two miles from the middle of the moſt central market-place of ſuch city or town, by the moſt uſual roads; and in caſe ſuch perſon ſhall vend, or expoſe to ſale, any goods whatſoever, in any city or market town, or within the diſtance of two miles from the middle of the moſt central market-place of ſuch city or town, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 16.

Nothing herein ſhall hinder any perſon from ſelling, or expoſing to ſale, any ſort of goods in any public mart, market, or fair, but ſuch perſon may do therein as they lawfully might have done before this act. ſ. 17.

If any hawker ſhall vend any goods, in ſuch city, town, or place, contrary to any of the proviſions in this act contained, ſuch hawker ſhall be ſubject to the like penalties as are inflicted on hawkers travelling without licence. ſ. 18.

Perſons who, on 1ſt May, were licenſed to trade as hawkers may ſet up or exerciſe any craft, myſtery, or occupation, uſed within this realm, in any place where they ſhall be reſident inhabitants, although not brought up in ſuch craft, and alſo ſet any perſon on work in ſuch craft, although ſuch perſon ſhall not have been apprentice therein, 5 Eliz. c. 5. (ſee LABOURERS,) to the contrary notwithſtanding; and if ſuch perſon, or their wives or children, ſhall be proſecuted for uſing ſuch craft, and ſhall make it appear that they had ſuch licence, they ſhall, upon the general iſſue, be found not guilty, in any action againſt him; and in all caſes where coſts are allowed, ſuch perſon ſo acquitted, ſhall receive double coſts; and no ſuch perſons, their wives or children, during the time they uſe ſuch craft, in any pariſh, ſhall be removeable therefrom to his laſt ſettlement, until ſuch perſon ſhall become actually chargeable to ſuch pariſh. ſ. 19.

No wholeſale trader in Engliſh bone-lace, in woollen, linen, ſilk, cotton, or mixed goods, or any of the goods or manufactures of Great Britain, and ſelling the ſame by wholeſale, ſhall be deemed a hawker, &c. within this or any other act relative to hawkers; and all ſuch perſons, their children, apprentices, ſervants, or agents, ſelling by wholeſale only, ſhall go from houſe to houſe, and from ſhop to ſhop, to any of their cuſtomers, who ſell again by wholeſale or retail, without being ſubject to any penalties, in this or any of the ſaid acts, touching hawkers. ſ. 20.

Nothing in this act ſhall prohibit any perſon from ſelling any printed papers, licenſed by authority, or any fiſh, fruit, or victuals; nor hinder the real worker of any goods or manufactures of Great Britain, or his children, apprentices, agents, or ſervants, uſually reſiding with ſuch real workers only, from carrying abroad or expoſing to ſale, and ſelling by retail, or otherwiſe any of the ſaid goods, of his own making, in any market, or fair, and in every city, and market town; nor any tinkers, coopers, glaziers, plumbers, harneſs-menders, or other perſons uſually trading in mending kettles, tubs, houſehold goods, or harneſs, from going about and carrying with them proper materials for mending the ſame. ſ. 21.

All pecuniary penalties, of a greater ſum than 20 l. ſhall be recovered, with coſts, in any court of record at Weſtminſter, by action of debt, &c.; and one moiety ſhall belong to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall inform. ſ. 22.

Where the pecuniary penalty doth not exceed 20 l. it ſhall be recoverable before one juſtice, on proof of the offence either by voluntary confeſſion of the party accuſed, or by the oath of one witneſs; and one moiety ſhall belong to his majeſty, and the other to the informer; and in caſe of nonpayment, the juſtice, by warrant under hand and ſeal, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, and the overplus, after deducting the penalty and expence of diſtreſs and ſale, ſhall be rendered to the owner; and ſhall alſo commit the offender to the priſon of the county, &c. there to remain until the penalties, and charges of taking diſtreſs, ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale, or until the ſame ſhall be paid by ſuch offender; and it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice by warrant to cauſe ſuch offender to be apprehended and brought before him to anſwer to any charge for ſuch penalty, and to commit ſuch offender to priſon until the hearing of ſuch complaint, unleſs he enter into a recognizance before ſuch juſtice, with two ſureties, in a ſufficient ſum to be ordered by ſuch juſtice, to appear at the hearing. ſ. 23.

No perſon committed to gaol, for any offence againſt this act, ſhall be detained in ſuch gaol longer than three months. ſ. 24.

Perſons aggrieved by the judgment of ſuch juſtice, may, upon entering into a recognizance with two ſureties, to be approved by ſuch juſtice, to the amount of the penalty and forfeiture, together with a ſum in the judgment of ſuch juſtice adequate to the coſts which may be awarded, conditioned to pay ſuch penalties and coſts as ſhall be adjudged, in caſe ſuch judgment ſhall be affirmed, appeal to the next general quarter ſeſſions, who are to ſummon and examine witneſſes upon oath, and finally to determine the ſame, or, at their diſcretion, to ſtate the facts ſpecially for the determination of the court of king's bench thereon; and in caſe the judgment of ſuch juſtices ſhall be affirmed, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtices, or the court of king's bench, to award the perſon to pay ſuch coſts occaſioned by ſuch appeal as to them ſhall ſeem meet. ſ. 25.

A conviction in the form following, ſhall be good, without alledging more than the ſubſtance of the offence. ſ. 26.

BE it remembered, That on the ——— day of ——— in the year of our Lord ———, at ———, in the county of ———, A. B. came before me C. Given under my hand and ſeal the* —— day of ——

No conviction ſhall be removed by certiorari, or otherwiſe, into the king's bench, or any other court, ſave upon an appeal, as by this act directed. ſ. 27.

The act 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 27. or any other law now in force relating to the duties (other than ſo far as the ſame are inconſiſtent with, or contradictory to any thing in this act, and other than in ſuch caſes for which different proviſions are preſcribed by this act), ſhall be put in execution in managing the duties hereby granted. ſ. 29.

If any perſon ſummoned as a witneſs before any juſtice, touching this act, or 9 & 10 Will. 3. ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear, without excuſe, to be allowed of by ſuch juſtice; or, appearing, ſhall refuſe to be examined upon oath, and give evidence before ſuch juſtice, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 10 l. to be recovered as the other penalties. ſ. 30.

The duties before granted ſhall be paid to the caſhier of the duties on hawkers, who ſhall keep a ſeparate account of the duties, and pay the ſame (the charges of raiſing, paying, and accounting, being deducted) into the exchequer, in ſuch manner as the duties now charged on hawkers are directed to be paid; and in the office of the auditor ſhall be kept books, in which all monies ariſing from the ſaid duties, and paid into the receipt, ſhall be entered ſeparate from all other monies payable to his majeſty, upon any account whatſoever; and the ſaid money, ſo paid into the exchequer, ſhall be a fund for the payment of the annuities, and other charges as are directed to be paid, under 25 Geo. 3. c. 32. See ANNUITIES, public, in PART I. page 25. ſ. 31. *

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 32.

Horſes, Coaches, Carts, and other Carriages.

By 23 Geo. 3. c. 66. There ſhall be paid throughout Great Britain the duties following.

Every perſon who ſhall keep any waggon, wain, cart, or other ſuch carriage, with three or four wheels (except ſuch carriages as are now charged with duty of exciſe), ſhall pay annually 4 s. for every ſuch carriage.

And every perſon who ſhall keep any cart or other carriage, with two wheels, (except ſuch as are now charged with duty of exciſe), ſhall pay annually 2 s. for every ſuch carriage.

No perſon ſhall be obliged to pay the yearly ſum of 4 s. for more than one ſuch carriage employed in agriculture only, nor for more than three ſuch carriages employed for any other purpoſe, on which the ſaid duty of 4 s. is charged, where ſuch carriages are kept for his own uſe only, and ſhall not be uſed for the carriage of any goods for hire, or let out for hire. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge with the duty any cart with two wheels, employed in agriculture only, and not employed in parks or pleaſure grounds, or uſed for the carriage of goods for hire, or let out for hire. ſ. 3.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to carts with two wheels drawn by one horſe only, and employed only for the carriage of peats or turf for fuel, and not let out for hire. ſ. 4.

In caſe any waggon, or other carriage, ſhall be preſſed for the purpoſe of conveying any arms, ammunition, or other baggage, under any law for preventing mutiny, or for the regulation of the marine forces while on ſhore, and the owner ſhall be paid for ſuch carriage, the ſame ſhall not be deemed to be a working for hire within this act. ſ. 5.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 31. Every perſon who ſhall keep any horſe, mare, or gelding, for riding or drawing any coach, berlin, landau, chariot, calaſh, chaiſe, or other carriage, whereof any duty is payable, ſhall pay annually for every horſe, &c. ten ſhillings; and by 29 Geo. 3. c. 49. an additional annual duty of five ſhillings for one of ſuch horſes. IN THE WHOLE, fifteen ſhillings.

Every perſon who ſhall keep three, four, or five horſes, and no more, ſhall be charged with an additional annual duty of ſeven ſhillings and ſixpence for each horſe exceeding one. IN THE WHOLE, ſeventeen ſhillings and ſixpence for each above the firſt. 29 Geo. 3. c. 49.

Every perſon who ſhall keep ſix or more horſes ſhall be charged with an additional annual duty of ten ſhillings for each horſe exceeding the number of one. IN THE WHOLE, one pound for each above the firſt, 29 Geo. 3. c. 49.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge with the duties any horſe belonging to any non-commiſſioned officer or private ſoldier of any of the regiments of cavalry in his majeſty's ſervice, nor any horſe belonging to and kept for ſale, and not for hire, in the ſtables of any dealer in horſes, licenſed purſuant to this act. (See STAMPS in page 613, ante) nor any horſe let to hire for travelling poſt, &c. by any poſtmaſter licenſed according to 25 Geo. 3. (ſee page 341, ante.) 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 31. ſ. 2.—29 Geo. 3. c. 49. ſ. 2.

" By 25 Geo. 3. c. 47. There ſhall be paid for every " coach, berlin, landau, chariot, calaſh with four wheels, " chaiſe marine, chaiſe with four wheels, and caravan, " that ſhall be kept by any perſon for his own uſe, or to " be let out to hire (except carriages licenſed by the " commiſſioners for the duties on hackney coaches) the " yearly ſum of 7 l.

" By 29 Geo. 3. c. 49. Every perſon who ſhall keep " one coach, &c. with four wheels, or caravan, for his own " uſe, or to be let out to hire, except hackney coaches " and carriages* let out to travel poſt, by any perſon " licenſed to let poſt horſes, (ſee 4th ſec. of this act, poſt) " ſhall be charged with an additional yearly ſum of 20 s. " in reſpect of ſuch one carriage. IN THE WHOLE, eight " pounds for the firſt carriage with four wheels.

" Every perſon who ſhall keep two of any ſuch carriages, " ſhall pay an additional annual duty of 20 s. for one of ſuch

" carriages,

* The appropriation of theſe duties appears to be repugnant to 27 Geo. 3. c. 13 (See FUNDS, page 426.) whereby the then exiſting duties on hawkers. &c. were carried to, and made part of, the conſolidated fund; and all the public annuities were, by the ſame act, charged upon that fund.

* Such carriages therefore are only ſubject to the duty of 7 l. impoſed by 25 Geo. 3.

" carriages, and an additional yearly ſum of 2*l.* for every " other of ſuch carriages, viz. 8*l.* for the firſt, and 9*l.* " for the ſecond carriage with four wheels. 29 Geo. 3. " c. 49.

" Every perſon who ſhall keep three or more of any ſuch " carriages, ſhall pay an additional yearly ſum of 20*s.* for " one of ſuch carriages, and an additional yearly ſum of " 3*l.* for every other of ſuch carriages: 29 Geo. 3. c. 49. " viz. 8l. for the firſt, and 10l. for each carriage above " the firſt where three or more are kept.

" For every calaſh, chaiſe, or chair, with two or three " wheels, drawn by one or more horſes, that ſhall be " kept by any perſon for his own uſe, or to be let " out to hire, the yearly ſum of 3*l.* 10*s.* 25 Geo. 3. " c. 47."

The duties hereby impoſed on carriages, and alſo the duties on waggons, and on horſes, ſhall be aſſeſſed and received by ſuch perſons, in ſuch manner, and with ſuch allowances, and under ſuch penalties, as are preſcribed for aſſeſſing the duties on houſes and windows, by 20 Geo. 2. c. 3; 20 Geo. 2. c. 42.; 21 Geo. 2. c. 10.; 26 Geo. 2. c. 17.; 31 Geo. 2. c. 22.; 21 Geo. 3. c. 8.; 6 Geo. 3. c. 38.; 19 Geo. 3. c. 59.; and 24 Geo. 3. c. 38.; and all the powers in the ſaid act, relative to the duties on houſes, &c. ſhall be in force, and put in execution throughout Great Britain, for aſſeſſing and paying the duties hereby placed under the management of the ſaid commiſſioners for taxes. 25 Geo. 3. c. 47. ſ. 7.

The commiſſioners for putting in execution the acts relative to the duties on houſes and windows, ſhall be commiſſioners for executing this act, in all counties, &c. within Great Britain; and ſuch commiſſioners ſhall, in the counties, &c. for which they are commiſſioners, meet for the firſt time on 5th July, 1785, for the purpoſe of raiſing the duty on coaches, &c. and on 10th Oct. 1785, for raiſing the duties on waggons, &c. and on horſes; and afterwards ſhall, in like manner, meet every year, at ſuch time as the commiſſioners ſhall appoint before the 30th April, and ſhall then divide themſelves to act in ſeparate diſtricts, and proceed in the execution of this act, for aſſeſſing the duties in ſuch manner as is preſcribed by the acts relative to the duties on houſes and windows. ſ. 11.

If there ſhall not have been a meeting of the commiſſioners within the times, or according to the manner hereby preſcribed, the commiſſioners, or two in the counties wherein ſuch default ſhall have happened, may meet at any other time as ſoon as may be after the time preſcribed to execute this act. ſ. 12.

No perſon ſhall act as a commiſſioner (except in adminiſtering the oath herein after expreſſed) until he ſhall have taken the oaths for acting as a commiſſioner of the duties on houſes, &c. and alſo the following oath, viz.

I A. B. do ſwear, That I will truly and faithfully execute the office of a commiſſioner, according to an act made in the 25th year of the reign of king GEORGE the third, for transferring the receipt and management of certain duties therein mentioned from the commiſſioners of exciſe, and the commiſſioners of ſtamps reſpectively, to the commiſſioners for the affairs of taxes; and alſo for making further proviſions in reſpect to the ſaid duties ſo transferred; and will determine, without favour or affection, upon all appeals which ſhall be brought before me, under the ſaid act, according to the beſt of my ſkill and knowledge.

So help me GOD.

Which oath two commiſſioners are to adminiſter, and if any perſon ſhall act before he have taken ſuch oaths, he ſhall forfeit 100*l.* ſ. 13.

The aſſeſſment of the ſaid duties on carriages and horſes ſhall be made for one year, from the 5th April in every year. ſ. 14.

The duties ſhall be paid quarterly, on 5th Jan. the 5th April, the 5th July, and 10th Oct. in every year. ſ. 15. alſo 25 Geo. 3. c. 49. ſ. 7.

If there ſhall be a neglect of appointment of aſſeſſors for the duties on houſes, or if the aſſeſſors appointed ſhall neglect what is required of them by this act, then the ſurveyor or inſpector appointed under the acts relative to the duties on houſes, are to do ſuch ſervices as by the ſaid acts are required from ſuch aſſeſſors. 25 Geo. 3. c. 47. ſ. 17.

Every aſſeſſor, or ſurveyor, or inſpector, ſhall, before he preſumes to act in the employment, take (beſides the oaths or affirmations required to be taken by aſſeſſors by the acts relative to the duties on houſes) an oath, or make and ſubſcribe a ſolemn affirmation, in the following form:

I A. B. do ſwear [or affirm, as the caſe may require], that in making the aſſeſſment, which by the authority of an act made in the 25th year of the reign of king GEORGE the third, for transferring the receipt and management of certain duties, therein mentioned, from the commiſſioners of exciſe, and the commiſſioners of ſtamps reſpectively, to the commiſſioners for the affairs of taxes, I will charge all perſons according to the beſt of my ſkill and knowledge.

So help me GOD.

Which oath two commiſſioners are to adminiſter; and if any perſon preſume to act before he ſhall have taken the oath or affirmation, he ſhall forfeit 20*l.* ſ. 18.

The commiſſioners ſhall, in the precepts to be from time to time directed by them to the inhabitants of the pariſhes within their diſtricts, naming whom they ſhall think fit to be aſſeſſors under the acts relative to the duties on houſes, cauſe notice to be inſerted, that ſuch perſons are alſo appointed aſſeſſors of the duties upon carriages and horſes. ſ. 19.—and by 29 Geo. 3. c. 49. ſ. 13. of being appointed aſſeſſors of the additional duties on horſes and carriages.

Aſſeſſors ſhall, within 14 days after their appointment yearly, give notice in writing for every perſon keeping any carriage or horſe liable to the duties, at his dwelling houſe, to produce, within 14 days next enſuing the day of giving ſuch notice, one liſt in writing, of carriages liable to the duties kept by ſuch perſon; the ſaid liſt to deſcribe the greateſt number kept at one time in the courſe of the year, ending 5th April preceding ſuch notice, and to expreſs the denomination of each carriage, and its number of wheels, diſtinguiſhing which are kept for private uſe, and which for hire, and which are uſed as public ſtage coaches; and another liſt in writing of the number of horſes liable to the duties kept by him, ſuch liſt to contain the greateſt number kept in the courſe of the year ending on ſuch preceding 5th April; and ſuch perſon ſhall, after ſuch notice given, make out the liſts, and ſign the ſame with his own hand, and deliver the ſame to ſuch aſſeſſor after the expiration of 14 days from the notice being given, when he ſhall call for the ſame: and if ſuch perſon ſhall neglect or refuſe to make out, ſign, and deliver ſuch liſts, then ſuch aſſeſſor ſhall, from information, make an aſſeſſment upon ſuch perſon for the carriages and horſes, liable to the duties, kept by him; and ſuch aſſeſſment ſo made, ſhall be concluſive upon the perſon charged, who ſhall not appeal therefrom, unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall prove that he was not at his dwelling houſe at the time of the delivery of ſuch notice, nor between that day and the time limited for for delivering ſuch liſts to the aſſeſſor, or unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall prove ſuch other excuſe for not having delivered his liſts as the commiſſioners ſhall think reaſonable. 25 Geo. 3. c. 47. ſ. 20.

If any perſon aſſeſſed in one pariſh for carriages or horſes, (or ſervants, by 25 Geo. 3. c. 43. ſ. 27.) ſhall be again aſſeſſed in another pariſh, the commiſſioners within ſuch latter pariſh, on application, may alter any aſſeſſment of ſuch perſon aſſeſſed twice, on proof that ſuch perſon hath paid the duties for the ſame carriages, &c. in another place, or hath been aſſeſſed for the ſame, which proof ſhall be made as to the payment, by producing a receipt, ſigned by the collector, or other reaſonable evidence, to the ſatiſfaction of the commiſſioners; and as to the party having been aſſeſſed elſewhere, ſhall be made in like manner, either by producing a copy of the aſſeſſment, ſigned by two commiſſioners, which the clerk then attending the commiſſioners ſhall deliver gratis to the party requiring the ſame, or, in default of ſuch copy, by other evidence, to the ſatisfaction of the commiſſioners. ſ. 22.

Every perſon called upon by this act to give liſts ſhall, when he give in ſuch liſts at the ſame time return a liſt or declaration ſigned by him, of the number of ſuch carriages and horſes (and ſervants, by 25 Geo. 3. c. 43. ſ. 28.) he ſhall mean to pay for at every other place, ſpecifying the particular pariſh wherein he means to pay for ſuch other carriages; and the aſſeſſors ſhall enter the liſt laſt mentioned at the end of their aſſeſſments, and deliver them to the ſurveyor for each pariſh, in order that he may tranſmit the particulars to the commiſſioners. ſ. 23.

Aſſeſſors ſhall not be bound by ſuch liſts delivered to them, but may, if they find, upon examination, that any carriages or horſes (or ſervants, by 25 Geo. 3. c. 43. ſ. 29.) are omitted, ſurcharge the ſame, and make a true aſſeſſment upon every perſon keeping ſuch carriages or horſes. ſ. 24.

Aſſeſſors ſhall make and deliver in writing their aſſeſſments of the duties on coaches, carriages, and horſes (and ſervants*, by 25 Geo. 3. c. 43. ſ. 30.) unto the commiſſioners, or two of them, within three months after their being appointed aſſeſſors; and the commiſſioners, or two of them, ſhall, within one month, or as ſoon as convenient, ſet their hands to the aſſeſſments, and to ſuch ſurcharge, made in the mean time, either by the aſſeſſors, ſurveyors, or inſpectors, as after mentioned, and ſhall likewiſe nominate two perſons named in ſuch aſſeſſments to be collectors, or two ſuch perſons as the commiſſioners ſhall think reſponſible, and ſhall deliver ſuch aſſeſſments ſo allowed of, unto the perſons nominated collectors, who are to collect and pay the duties and to give acquittances for the ſame; for whoſe paying unto the receiver general, appointed by his majeſty, or the treaſury, in manner hereby directed, ſuch money as the collectors ſhall be charged with under this act, the pariſh for which they are employed ſhall be anſwerable. ſ. 25.

Every ſurveyor or inſpector of houſes and windows, ſhall examine any liſt made out and ſigned by any perſon, or any aſſeſſment, before the commiſſioners ſhall have ſigned the ſame, and amend ſuch liſts and aſſeſſments if he ſee cauſe; and every perſon in whoſe cuſtody ſuch liſts or aſſeſſments ſhall be, ſhall, upon the requeſt of ſuch ſurveyor, produce the ſame: and if ſuch ſurveyor ſhall diſcover, that any perſon who ought to be charged with the duties ſhall have been omitted or under-rated, ſuch ſurveyor ſhall certify the ſame in writing under his hand, by way of ſurcharge, to two commiſſioners, in order to have ſuch omiſſion or under-rate rectified in the aſſeſſment; and ſuch commiſſioners are to cauſe the ſame to be rectified, and the duties levied accordingly. ſ. 26. The ſame power, by 25 Geo. 3. c. 43. ſ. 31. as to the duties on ſervants.

Where any perſon liable to deliver liſts to the aſſeſſor, ſhall refuſe or neglect, within the time to deliver ſuch liſt, he ſhall forfeit 10*l.* ſ. 27. The ſame as to liſts of ſervants, by 25 Geo. 3. c. 43. ſ. 32.

Where any aſſeſſor, ſurveyor, or inſpector, ſhall make a ſurcharge upon any perſon for any carriage, or horſe, (or ſervant, by 25 Geo. 3. c. 43. ſ. 32.) omitted in ſuch liſt, ſuch ſurcharge ſhall be made after the rate of double the duty for every carriage, &c. omitted; and the aſſeſſor ſhall receive, for his own uſe, one moiety of the ſum charged by every ſurcharge juſtly made. ſ. 28.

The inhabitant houſeholder of any houſe, in which there ſhall be any lodger keeping any carriage, or horſe, ſhall, within a week after requiſition, by notice in writing left at ſuch houſe, by any aſſeſſor, ſurveyor, or inſpector, deliver to ſuch aſſeſſor, a liſt in writing of every lodger who ſhall keep any carriage or horſe, or ſhall have kept ſuch carriage, or horſe, (or ſervants, by 25 Geo. 3. c. 43. ſ. 34.) from 5th April in each preceding year; which liſt ſhall expreſs the chriſtian and ſurname of ſuch lodger, and ſhall contain an account of every carriage, &c. liable to the duty; and if any inhabitant houſeholder ſhall refuſe to deliver ſuch liſt, or omit, or miſrepreſent, any deſcription which ought to be therein, he ſhall forfeit 10*l.* ſ. 29.

Perſons over-rated by any aſſeſſment, or ſurcharge, may appeal to the commiſſioners; and two of them are to determine ſuch appeals, except where it appear to the commiſſioners that the perſon appealing, ſhall have omitted to deliver in his liſts, and ſhall not aſſign cauſe for ſuch omiſſion; in which caſe the commiſſioners may diſmiſs the appeal: provided that at hearing the appeal, a liſt ſhall be produced by the appellant upon oath, of the greateſt number of carriages and horſes kept by him.; and ſuch appeals ſhall be determined on the days appointed by the acts with reſpect to the duties on houſes. ſ. 30. The ſame proviſo as to the duties on ſervants, by 25 Geo. 3. c. 43. ſ. 35.

The commiſſioners ſhall not, upon the appeal, make any abatement in the charge or ſurcharge but the ſame ſhall ſtand good, unleſs it appear to the commiſſioners by oath, that ſuch perſon is over-rated, and every perſon intending to appeal, ſhall give ten days notice to the ſurveyor or one of the aſſeſſors, and ſuch ſurveyor and aſſeſſors may then and there attend to juſtify the aſſeſſment; and ſuch ſurveyor and aſſeſſors, and appellant, ſhall have power to be preſent during the hearing and determining the ſame: and the commiſſioners are, upon ſuch appeal, although they confirm the ſurcharge, upon application of ſuch appellant to remit the penalty, if they ſhall be of opinion that there was any doubt whether the carriage or horſe ſurcharged was rateable within this act, and was not omitted by ſuch appellant with any intention to defraud the revenue. ſ. 31. The ſame as to the duty on ſervants, by 25 Geo. 3. c. 43. ſ. 36.

If on ſuch hearing it appear to the commiſſioners, that ſuch ſurcharge was falſely and vexatiouſly made, then ſuch ſurveyor, &c. ſurcharging, ſhall forfeit ſuch penalties as in the acts relative to the duties on houſes, are inflicted on ſurveyors, &c. for neglect of duty. ſ. 32. The ſame as to the duty on ſervants, by 25 Geo. 3. c. 43. ſ. 37.

All appeals once determined by the commiſſioners ſhall be final, except as after excepted. ſ. 33. The ſame as to the duty on ſervants, by 25 Geo. 3. c. 43. ſ. 38.

If the ſurveyor or inſpector, or perſon appealing, in England, Wales, and Berwick, ſhall apprehend the determination made by the commiſſioners to be contrary to this act, and ſhall then declare himſelf diſſatisfied, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſon to require the commiſſioners to ſtate ſpecially, and ſign the caſe upon which the queſtion aroſe, together with their determination thereupon; and the commiſſioners are to ſtate and ſign ſuch caſe, and cauſe the ſame to be delivered to the party, to be by him tranſmitted to one of the juſtices of the king's bench or common pleas, or to one of the barons of the exchequer; and ſuch juſtice and baron is to return an anſwer to ſuch caſe, with his opinion thereupon ſubſcribed thereto, according to which the aſſeſſment ſhall be altered or confirmed; and if either the ſurveyor, or perſon appealing, in Scotland, ſhall apprehend the determination to be contrary to this act, and ſhall declare himſelf diſſatisfied with ſuch determination, ſuch perſon diſſatisfied may require the commiſſioners to ſtate and ſign the caſe, &c. and to cauſe the ſame to be delivered to the party, to be by him tranſmitted to one of the judges of the court of ſeſſion, or of the barons of the exchequer in Scotland; and ſuch judge is to return an anſwer, &c. according to which the aſſeſſment ſhall be altered or confirmed. ſ. 34. The ſame as to the duty on ſervants, 25 Geo. 3. c. 43. ſ. 39.

Notwithſtanding ſuch caſe tranſmitted to the judges, the determination of the commiſſioners ſhall ſtand with reſpect to the payments precedent to the opinion certified by ſuch juſtice. ſ. 35.

Every penalty of a greater ſum than 20 l. ſhall be recovered in any court of record at Weſtminſter, within England, &c. or in the court of ſeſſion, court of juſticiary, or court of exchequer in Scotland, by action of debt, &c. and one moiety ſhall belong to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall inform. ſ. 36.

The aſſeſſments ſhall be made for all horſes whatſoever belonging to any perſon within Great Britain, which ſhall, on any occaſion, be uſed for riding, or in drawing any carriage, now or hereafter ſubject to exciſe duty. ſ. 37.

Where the penalty doth not exceed 20 l. it ſhall be recoverable before two juſtices, on proof of the offence, either by the confeſſion of the party, or the oath of one witneſs; and one moiety ſhall belong to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the informer; and in caſe of nonpayment, ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hands and ſeals of ſuch juſtices; and the overplus, after deducting the penalty, and expences of diſtreſs and ſale, ſhall be rendered to the owner; and for want of ſufficient diſtreſs, the offender ſhall be ſent by ſuch juſtices to the priſon of ſuch county, for not exceeding ſix months, nor leſs than one. ſ. 39.

All conſtables, and other his majeſty's officers, ſhall be aiding in the execution of this act, and obey ſuch precepts as ſhall be to them directed by the commiſſioners. ſ. 40. alſo 29 Geo. 3. c. 49. ſ. 20.

All actions for any offence againſt this act, ſhall be brought within one year; and perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 41.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 79. No perſon who ſhall keep any horſe, mare, or gelding, uſed truly for the purpoſe of huſbandry, or of drawing any carriage (except ſuch as was heretofore liable to exciſe) or carrying burdens in the courſe of the trade of the perſon to whom ſuch horſe ſhall belong, ſhall in reſpect thereof be chargeable with the duty, or be conſtrued to be within the meaning of 24 Geo. 3. in caſe ſuch horſe, &c. ſhall not be uſed for any other purpoſe of riding, ſave as after, viz. When returning from any place to which any load ſhall have been drawn or carried, or in going to any place from whence any load ſhall be to be brought back by ſuch horſe, or on account of ſuch horſe, &c. having been uſed for the purpoſe of riding to procure medical aſſiſtance, or to or from market, or to or from any place of public worſhip, or to or from any election of members to ſerve in parliament, or to or from any court of juſtice, or to or from any meeting of the commiſſioners of taxes. ſ. 1.

No duty ſhall be levied for any horſe, whereof the owner, by reaſon of his poverty, is exempted from the aſſeſſments towards the church and poor. ſ. 2.

No perſon occupying a farm, the rent or value of which ſhall be leſs than 70 l. a year, and making a livelihood ſolely thereby, ſhall be chargeable with the duty on account of any horſe being occaſionally uſed in riding; provide ſuch horſe be bona fide kept and uſually employed for the purpoſes of huſbandry. ſ. 4.

All the oaths, required by the acts relative to the duties on houſes and windows, &c. may be adminiſtered by two commiſſioners. ſ. 6.

Commiſſioners may adminiſter to any other commiſſioner the oaths required to be taken by ſuch commiſſioners, although the commiſſioners adminiſtering the ſame have not themſelves previouſly taken the oaths. ſ. 7.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge with the additional duties on carriages by this act impoſed, any coach, &c. with four wheels, or caravan, let to hire for travelling poſt for a day, or leſs period of time, or by the mile, or from ſtage to ſtage, by any perſon licenſed to let poſt horſes by the commiſſioners for duties on ſtamped vellum, &c. and whereon the name and abode of the perſon licenſed ſhall be painted, according to the act. ſ. 4.

If the aſſeſſors under the acts ſhall, upon examination, find that any perſon to whom a licence to exerciſe the trade of an horſe-dealer hath been granted, doth keep any horſe for riding, or for the purpoſe of drawing ſuch carriage as aforeſaid, and not for ſale; and ſuch perſon licenſed ſhall, upon notice given, neglect or refuſe to make out, ſign, and deliver a liſt in writing of the number of ſuch horſes ſo uſed, or ſhall omit any horſe in ſuch liſt, then ſuch aſſeſſor ſhall, from information, make a true aſſeſſment upon ſuch perſon licenſed, and charge him for the real number of horſes kept by him for riding, or drawing ſuch carriage, notwithſtanding ſuch licence. ſ. 6.

The duties (charges of raiſing excepted) ſhall be paid into the exchequer at Weſtminſter, and carried to The Conſolidated Fund. ſ. 8.

By 20 Geo. 2. c. 3. The duties ſhall be charged only upon the occupiers, and not on the landlord, except as after. ſ. 5.

The commiſſioners of the land tax ſhall be commiſſioners for the duties on houſes and windows, which ſaid commiſſioners ſhall meet yearly at the moſt uſual place of meeting, at ſuch time as ſhall be appointed for the firſt general meeting of the commiſſioners of the land tax, or on ſuch other day as they ſhall think proper before April 30, yearly; and at ſuch firſt meeting they may agree to ſubdivide themſelves and the other commiſſioners not then preſent, in ſuch manner as to them ſhall ſeem meet; alſo at ſuch firſt meeting they, or the major part of them then preſent, ſhall direct their ſeveral or joint precepts to ſuch inhabitants, and ſuch number of them as they think convenient to be preſenters and aſſeſſors, requiring them to appear before the ſaid commiſſioners at ſuch time and place as they ſhall appoint, not exceeding ten days; and at their appearance the commiſſioners ſhall openly read, or cauſe to be read, to the aſſeſſors, the ſeveral duties, and openly declare the effect of their charge unto them, and how they ought to make their aſſeſſments; and ſhall then prefix another day for the ſaid perſons to appear before the commiſſioners, and bring in their certificates in writing under their hands, to be verified upon their oath, of every dwelling-houſe inhabited, and of the number of windows in each houſe, together with the names of the occupiers, and the money they ought to pay, without concealment or favour, upon pain of forfeiture, of not exceeding 5 l. nor leſs than 40 s. and ſhall then alſo return the names of two or more ſufficient perſons to be collectors of the duties, for whom the pariſh or place ſhall be anſwerable; and every aſſeſſor, before he acts, ſhall take the oaths of allegiance and ſupremacy. ſ. 6.

The duties ſhall be aſcertained, and the certificates thereof returned to the commiſſioners, on or before the 4th June yearly; and on return of the aſſeſſments, three or more commiſſioners ſhall, at leaſt ten days before the rates ſhall become due, iſſue their warrants or eſtreats under their hands and ſeals to the collectors, for the ſpeedy collecting and levying the ſame, as they ſhall become due; of all which the collectors ſhall make demand of the parties chargeable, or at their laſt abode, within ten days after the duties ſhall become due, and on payment thereof to give acquittances under their hands gratis, and ſuch acquittances ſhall be a diſcharge to every perſon; and the collectors ſhall pay all ſums they receive within 20 days after receipt thereof, at ſuch place as the commiſſioners appoint, unto the receiver-general, or his deputy; who in default ſhall levy by warrant of three commiſſioners upon the collector, by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, ſuch money as he hath received and not paid. ſ. 7.

The collectors ſhall cauſe a copy of the aſſeſſments, and collection made by them, to be ſigned by them, with ſuch alterations as be neceſſary by reaſon of new houſes or otherwiſe, to be delivered unto three commiſſioners within ten days after the firſt meeting of the commiſſioners yearly. ſ. 8.

The commiſſioners, or three, ſhall peruſe the aſſeſſments, and examine the aſſeſſors; and if within ten days after delivery they ſuſpect any houſe or perſons to be omitted, or the full number of windows not ſet down, or that any dwelling-houſe is not duly charged, they may ſummon the perſon inhabiting ſuch houſe to be examined; and if any perſon ſummoned neglect to appear, not having a reaſonable excuſe, he ſhall pay double the ſum he ought to have been ſet at; and the commiſſioners, or three, ſhall enquire into the number of windows in any houſe charged or omitted, and enlarge or diminiſh the aſſeſſments, ſo that ſuch rates may be ſet upon every houſe according to this act; and the commiſſioners, or three, ſhall after examination thereof ſet their hands to the aſſeſſments, and appoint two of the perſons named in the aſſeſſment, collectors for the places for which they were preſented; and ſhall deliver ſuch aſſeſſment unto the collectors for the year enſuing, who are to collect and pay the duties, and give acquittances. ſ. 9.

See 21 Geo. 2. c. 10. ſ. 4. infra.

The commiſſioners ſhall cauſe duplicates of the aſſeſſments within three months at fartheſt after 25 March yearly (the appeals being firſt determined) to be delivered unto the receivers-general, and tranſmitted into the offices of the king's remembrancer in the exchequer in England and Scotland reſpectively; for which duplicates the officers ſhall give acquittances gratis, ſo as every of them may be charged to anſwer their collections; and the ſaid duplicates ſhall be made for the ſame hundreds for which diſtinct duplicates are uſually made out for the land-tax; and in every duplicate ſhall be inſerted the names of the aſſeſſors and collectors. And the receivers-general ſhall pay the money received into the exchequer, by quarterly payments upon the days before appointed, or within 40 days after; and in caſe any receiver-general or deputy pay any part of the monies to any perſon other than into the exchequer, and within the times limited (except the charges of receiving, levying and accounting), ſuch receiver-general ſhall, for each offence of himſelf or deputy, forfeit 500 l. to him that ſhall ſue in any court of record; and if any ſurveyor of the duties wilfully under-rate or over-rate, or omit to charge any perſon liable, or be guilty of any corrupt practices in the execution of his office, he ſhall forfeit 100 l. and be diſmiſſed. ſ. 10. Alſo 18 Geo. 3. c. 26. ſ. 21.

Every receiver-general ſhall have two-pence in the pound for all monies paid into the exchequer, and every collector ſhall have three pence in the pound for what money he pays to the receiver-general or deputies; and for writing the aſſeſſments, warrants, eſtreats and duplicates, the clerks of the commiſſioners ſhall by warrant under three commiſſioners hands receive from the receivers-general or deputies three-halfpence in the pound of all monies received by ſuch warrants, provided the warrants be made out, and the duplicates delivered to the receiver-general, and into the offices of the king's remembrancer, within the times limited by this act, and not otherwiſe. And if any perſon refuſe to pay the ſums appointed by this act upon demand by the officer or collector, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch collector to diſtrain the perſon ſo refuſing by his goods, and the diſtreſs to keep for four days at the charge of the owners; and if the owners do not pay the money due within the ſaid four days, then the ſaid diſtreſs to be appraiſed by two inhabitants where taken, and to be ſold for payment of the money, and the overplus over the charges to be reſtored to the owner; and it ſhall be lawful to break open in the day-time, any houſe upon warrant of three commiſſioners, calling to their aſſiſtance the conſtable, &c. where any neglect or reſiſtance is made; and if any perſon appointed to pay the duties charged neglect to pay the ſame for twenty days after demand, where no diſtreſs can be found, three commiſſioners may by warrant commit ſuch perſon to the common gaol until payment. ſ. 11.

The commiſſioners ſhall give the collectors notice at what time and place the appeals may be heard; and every collector ſhall within ten days after, cauſe public notice to be given in every pariſh church or chapel, after divine ſervice on the Lord's day, of the time and place appointed, and ſhall cauſe the like notices to be fixed in writing upon the door of each church or chapel on the ſame day; and the commiſſioners, or three, ſhall examine the parties complaining, upon oath, concerning the number of windows in the houſe for which he is charged, and ſhall abate or enlarge the aſſeſſment; and the ſame ſo enlarged, on non-payment ſhall be eſtreated into the exchequer. And every perſon intending to appeal ſhall give notice in writing to one of the aſſeſſors. ſ. 12.

No letters patent of any liberties or exemptions ſhall exempt any perſon, city, or town, or the inhabitants, from the charge; and all non-obſtantes in ſuch letters patent in bar of any acts for the ſupply of his majeſty are declared void. ſ. 14.

The parents, guardians, and tutors of infants upon default of payment, ſhall be liable, and if they neglect to pay, it ſhall be lawful to proceed againſt them as againſt other perſons making default; and all parents, &c. making payment, ſhall be allowed the ſums paid for ſuch infants. ſ. 15—18 Geo. 3. c. 26. ſ. 28.

If any collector neglect to pay any money by him received, the commiſſioners, or three, in their diviſions, ſhall impriſon the perſon and ſeize the eſtate as well freehold as copyhold, and all other eſtate real and perſonal of ſuch collector, or which ſhall come into the hands of his heirs, executors, or adminiſtrators; and ſhall appoint a general meeting of the commiſſioners for ſuch county, &c. and cauſe public notice to be given of the place where ſuch meeting is appointed, ten days before; and the commiſſioners preſent at ſuch meeting, in caſe the monies detained by ſuch collector be not paid, ſhall ſell ſuch eſtates to ſatisfy the receiver-general the ſum detained by ſuch collector. ſ. 16.

In all privileged and other places extraparochial, and not within the precincts of the aſſeſſors, the commiſſioners, or three, ſhall appoint two perſons living in or near to be aſſeſſors, and ſhall appoint collectors. ſ. 17.

No perſon inhabiting in any city, ſhall be compelled to be an aſſeſſor or collector in any place out of the limits of the ſaid city, &c. ſ. 18.

No ſtay of proſecution, upon any command, warrant, motion, or order by non vult ulterius proſequi, ſhall be allowed by any court, in any ſuit for the penalties by this act inflicted, in order to the conviction or diſability of any perſon. ſ. 20. Alſo 18 Geo. 3. c. 26. ſ. 43.

If any aſſeſſor, collector, or perſon appointed by the commiſſioners, wilfully neglect his duty in the execution of this act, the commiſſioners, or three, ſhall impoſe on ſuch perſon any fine not exceeding 20 l. nor leſs than 5 l for one offence; to be levied and certified as aforeſaid, and given in charge to the receivers general amongſt the rates; and the commiſſioners ſhall from time to time call for an account from the receivers general of all monies received of the collectors, and of the payment thereof into the exchequer; and in caſe of a failure in the premiſſes, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be levied and paid. And in caſe of any controverſy between the commiſſioners concerning the rates, the commiſſioners concerned ſhall have no voice, but withdraw during the debate. And the receiver-general or deputies ſhall give acquittances gratis to the collectors for monies received, which ſhall be a diſcharge to the collectors. And the collectors ſhall deliver to the receivers-general or their deputies, a ſchedule in parchment under their hands and ſeals, ſigned by three commiſſioners, containing the names and abode of every perſon with their collections, that make default of payment; and the ſums charged on ſuch perſon ſhall be returned into the exchequer in England and Scotland, whereupon every perſon making default may be charged by proceſs: and all officers herein concerned, ſhall take care that ſuch proceſs be iſſued and made effectual. ſ. 21.

All conſtables and officers ſhall be aſſiſting in the execution of this act, and obey all precepts or warrants to them directed by the commiſſioners. ſ. 22. —Alſo 18 Geo. 3. c. 26. ſ. 44. — and 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 38. ſ. 49.

All monies payable by this act ſhall be paid by the collectors of the reſpective counties and places unto ſuch receiver-general, appointed as aforeſaid, or his deputies appointed under his hand and ſeal, whereof notice ſhall be given by the receiver-general unto the commiſſioners within their diviſions, within twenty days after their firſt general meeting, and within twenty days after every death or removal of any deputy; and the receipt of ſuch receiver-general or his deputy ſhall be a diſcharge unto every collector. ſ. 23.

The collectors ſhall not be obliged to travel above ten miles from the place of their habitations to make their payments. ſ. 24.

If any receiver-general return unto the exchequer in England or Scotland, any money to be in arrear after received by ſuch receiver-general or deputy, or cauſe any perſon to be ſet inſuper in the ſaid courts for money ſo received, he ſhall forfeit to ſuch perſon double the damages thereby occaſioned; to be recovered by action of debt, and ſhall alſo forfeit to his majeſty double the ſum unjuſtly returned or ſet inſuper. ſ. 25.

No receiver, his heirs, &c. ſhall in any accounts of the monies wherewith he is chargeable (unleſs paſſed in the exchequer within two years after the end of the year for which ſuch rates are payable) be allowed to ſet inſuper any place, for any arrears, but the ſame ſhall remain a debt upon ſuch receiver and his ſecurities. ſ. 26.

No commiſſioner ſhall be liable for the execution of this act to any of the penalties mentioned in 25 Car. 2. c. 2. ſ. 27. See RECUSANTS.

All penalties for which there is no particular way of levying herein preſcribed, ſhall be levied by warrant under the hands and ſeals of three commiſſioners, by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the offender. ſ. 28.

Such dwelling-houſes only where the occupier is exempted from the taxes towards church and poor, ſhall be diſcharged of the duties, and that only in ſuch caſes where the dwelling-houſes ſo occupied are cottages not containing above nine windows. ſ. 29.

His majeſty or the treaſury, may appoint officers for the ſurvey and inſpection of the duties in Great Britain, and for viewing and numbering the windows in each houſe, and for examining the aſſeſſments: any of which officers ſhall have power to examine the aſſeſſments of the houſes or windows rated in every pariſh, and at ſeaſonable times, with a conſtable, to examine whether there be any more windows than rated, and ſhall have liberty to paſs through any houſe into any court or backſide thereunto belonging, and externally to view the windows in ſuch houſe that cannot be otherwiſe ſeen or numbered; and to make like view twice in the year; and if ſuch officer find that any perſon or premiſſes are under-rated or not rated, he ſhall certify the ſame to the commiſſioners; who ſhall cauſe ſuch rate to be ſet according to this act. ſ. 30.

Where any houſe is inhabited by two families, ſuch houſe ſhall pay the rates as if inhabited by one only. ſ. 31.

Each diſtinct chamber in any college or hall in the univerſities verſities of Great Britain, ſhall be ſubject to the ſame rates as if it were an entire houſe. ſ. 32.

Every houſe left to the care of any ſervant, who doth not pay to the church and poor, ſhall be ſubject to the like rates as if it were inhabited by the occupier, to be paid by the occupiers. ſ. 33.

In caſe there be any arrear of the rates by reaſon of the failure of any collector for which any pariſh ſhall be anſwerable, it ſhall be lawful for three commiſſioners to cauſe ſuch arrear to be re-aſſeſſed within the pariſh on all houſes liable to the rates, and to cauſe the ſame to be levied as the rates, and to cauſe the money ſo raiſed to be paid to the receiver-general, or into the exchequer. ſ. 34.

Where any dwelling-houſe is let in different apartments to ſeveral perſons, and the landlord pays other taxes, ſuch landlord ſhall be deemed the occupier and be charged with the rates. ſ. 35.

No collector ſhall collect by any rate or book other than ſuch as ſhall be ſigned by the commiſſioners; and in caſe any collector collect the ſame by any other rate, or receive ſuch rates from any perſon not charged, or collect from any perſon more than is charged, and not pay the whole money by him collected, or fraudulently alter ſuch rate, he ſhall forfeit 20*l.* ſ. 36.

The ſurveyors ſhall examine the rates for any pariſh or place before the commiſſioners have ſigned the ſame, and amend ſuch rates if they ſee cauſe; and if ſuch ſurveyor after the rates are ſigned, find that any dwelling-houſes or windows have been omitted or under-rated, he ſhall certify the ſame under his hand, by ſurcharge, to three commiſſioners, in order to have ſuch omiſſion or under-rate certified in the aſſeſſment; and ſuch commiſſioners are to cauſe the ſame to be rectified. ſ. 37.

When two or more windows are fixed in one frame, if the partition between ſuch windows is of the breadth of 12 inches, the window on each ſide ſhall be deemed a diſtinct window; and all windows in frames extended ſo far as to give light into more rooms than one, ſhall be reckoned ſo many ſeparate windows as there are rooms enlightened thereby. ſ. 38.

If any occupier of any dwelling-houſe open any windows which have been ſtopped up, after the aſſeſſments are ſettled and the warrants for collecting the rates ſigned by the commiſſioners, without firſt giving notice in writing to the ſurveyor, he ſhall forfeit 20*s.* for each window opened as aforeſaid. ſ. 39.

In pariſhes or places where there is not a ſufficient number of acting commiſſioners, it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners in any neighbouring pariſh within the ſame county to make out and ſign ſuch aſſeſſments or duplicates which are wanting. ſ. 40.

Where perſons quit their dwelling-houſes without firſt paying the rates charged upon them, the commiſſioners within the pariſh where the rates are unpaid, ſhall ſign and cauſe to be tranſmitted a certificate thereof to the commiſſioners within the pariſh where the perſon making ſuch default reſides; which commiſſioners ſhall raiſe the ſaid rates, and cauſe the monies ſo raiſed to be paid to the collectors of the pariſh from whence the ſaid perſon removed. ſ. 41.

All perſons employed in the execution of this act, ſhall obſerve ſuch orders as they receive from the treaſury. ſ. 42.

Out of the monies to ariſe of the ſaid rates, it ſhall be lawful for the treaſury to appoint ſalaries for the ſurveyors and other officers, and to diſcharge all incident expences. ſ. 43.

If any perſon be proſecuted for any thing done in purſuance of this act, he may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 66. Alſo 18 Geo. 3. c. 21. ſ. 45.

By 20 Geo. 2. c. 42. ſ. 1. Where the commiſſioners mentioned in the 20 Geo. 2. c. 3. have omitted or ſhall omit to meet at the times directed by the ſaid act, it ſhall be lawful for them, or two of them, to meet and execute the powers thereby given, at any other times as there ſhall be occaſion. ſ. 1. Alſo 18 Geo. 3. c. 26. ſ. 11.

The ſaid commiſſioners, or two, ſhall appoint ſuch aſſeſſors, and for ſuch diſtricts within their limits, as they judge proper, out of the perſons by their precepts ordered to appear before them; and if any of the perſons on whom ſuch precepts be ſerved, neglect to appear, or they or any of the collectors or officers appointed under the ſaid act, wilfully neglect or refuſe to take the oaths appointed by the ſaid act, or to take upon them their offices, the ſaid commiſſioners, or two, are to impoſe on every perſon ſo neglecting any fine not exceeding 5*l.* for one offence, to be levied as other fines by the ſaid act are directed. ſ. 2. See ſ. 3. in WALES.

Quakers, being appointed aſſeſſors for the ſaid duties upon houſes and windows, inſtead of the oaths appointed by the ſaid act may make and ſubſcribe the declaration of fidelity preſcribed by 1 Will. & Mar. ſtat. 1. c. 18. See NONCONFORMISTS. And all certificates returned to the commiſſioners verified by any ſuch perſons upon their affirmation, ſhall be as valid as if verified upon their oath. ſ. 4.

By 21 Geo. 2. c. 10. Every kitchen, ſcullery, buttery, pantry, larder, waſh-houſe, laundry, bakehouſe, brewhouſe, and lodging-room belonging to, or occupied with any dwelling-houſe, whether the ſame ſhall or ſhall not be within, or contiguous to, or disjoined from the body of ſuch dwelling-houſe, ſhall be deemed part of ſuch dwelling-houſe; and all windows or lights therein ſhall be charged with the duties granted by 20 Geo. 2. c. 3. ſ. 1.

Sky-lights, and windows or lights in ſtair-caſes, garrets, cellars, paſſages, and in all other parts of dwelling-houſes, to what uſe ſoever applied, ſhall be chargeable with the ſaid duties. ſ. 2.

No commiſſioner of the land tax ſhall act as a commiſſioner for putting in execution the ſaid act, unleſs he be duly qualified; on pain of forfeiting for every ſuch acting 20*l.* to be levied as other penalties by this act. ſ. 3.

That part of the ſaid act, (ſ. 9.) whereby the commiſſioners have power to enlarge or diminiſh the aſſeſſments delivered to them, before they ſet their hands to ſuch aſſeſſments, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 4.

No aſſeſſment delivered to the commiſſioners, ſhall be altered before the time appointed for hearing appeals, and then only upon hearing the appeal upon a general appeal-day. ſ. 5.

The ſurveyors of the duties ſhall twice in every year, viz. on or before the 10th of Auguſt and the 10th of Jan. yearly, certify under their hands, by way of ſurcharge, to three commiſſioners, what dwelling-houſes or windows have been omitted in the aſſeſſment for the current year; and thereupon, and upon oath that notice was left at the dwelling-houſes of the occupiers, that the ſurveyors intended to charge them for ſuch number of windows, the commiſſioners ſhall cauſe ſuch aſſeſſments to be rectified and delivered to the collectors, and the duties to be levied accordingly. ſ. 6.

All appeals made to the commiſſioners, between the 25th of March and the 20th of Auguſt yearly, ſhall be heard and determined by the commiſſioners upon days by them appointed between the 20th of Auguſt and the 15th of Sept. following; and all appeals made between the 29th of Sept. and the 20th of Jan. following yearly, ſhall be heard upon days appointed between the 20th of Jan. and the 10th of Feb. following yearly. ſ. 7.

The commiſſioners ſhall not upon hearing any appeal, make any abatement in the charge or ſurcharge, unleſs it appear by examination upon oath, that ſuch perſon is overrated by the ſaid aſſeſſment or ſurcharge; and every perſon intending to appeal ſhall give at leaſt ten days notice in writing to the ſurveyor, or to one or more of the aſſeſſors of the pariſh wherein he is rated, and ſuch ſurveyor and aſſeſſors may attend to juſtify the aſſeſſment and ſurcharge; and ſuch ſurveyor and aſſeſſors, and appellant, unleſs they miſbehave, ſhall have liberty to be preſent during the hearing ſuch appeal. ſ. 8.—Alſo 18 Geo. 3. c. 26. ſ. 40. as to the new duty on houſes, and by 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 38. ſ. 45. as to the new duty on windows.

All appeals once determined by the commiſſioners, ſhall be final, except as is after directed. ſ. 9.—Alſo 18 Geo. 3. c. 26. ſ. 41. as to houſes, and by 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 38. ſ. 46. as to windows.

If the ſurveyor, or perſon appealing in England, Wales or Berwick, then declare himſelf diſſatisfied with ſuch determination, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch ſurveyor or perſon to require the commiſſioners to ſtate ſpecially and ſign the caſe upon which the queſtion aroſe, together with their determination, which ſhall be delivered to the party making ſuch requeſt, to be by him tranſmitted to one of the juſtices of the king's bench or common pleas, or one of the barons of the coif of the exchequer; and every ſuch juſtice and baron is to return an anſwer to ſuch caſe, with his opinion thereupon ſubſcribed; according to which the aſſeſſment ſhall be altered or confirmed: and if the ſurveyor or perſon appealing in Scotland then declare himſelf diſſatisfied with ſuch determination, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch ſurveyor or perſon diſſatisfied, to require the commiſſioners to ſtate ſpecially and ſign the caſe upon which the queſtion aroſe, together with their determination, which ſhall be delivered to the party making ſuch requeſt, to be by him tranſmitted to one of the judges of the court of ſeſſion, or of the barons of the exchequer in Scotland; and every ſuch judge and baron is to return an anſwer to ſuch caſe, with his opinion thereupon ſubſcribed; according to which the aſſeſſment ſhall be altered or confirmed. But the determination of the commiſſioners ſhall ſtand with reſpect to the payments become due precedent to the opinion certified by ſuch judge. ſ. 10.—Alſo 18 Geo. 3. c. 26. ſ. 42. as to the new duty on houſes, and by 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 38. ſ. 47. as to windows.

No window or light ſhall be deemed to be ſtopped up, unleſs it be ſtopped up with ſtone, or brick, or plaiſter upon lath, or upon any other material commonly uſed to plaiſter upon, or with the ſame kind of materials whereof the outſide of ſuch dwelling-houſe doth chiefly conſiſt. ſ. 11.

The payment of the duties ſhall not entitle the perſon paying to a legal ſettlement in the pariſh. ſ. 13.

If any perſon wilfully obſtruct or moleſt any aſſeſſor or ſurveyor in his office, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 5 l. to be levied as the duties. ſ. 14.

All fines levied by warrant of the commiſſioners (except one moiety of fines impoſed for opening any window after ſtopped up, without giving notice, which ſhall be paid to the informer) ſhall be paid to the collector; and ſhall be added to the aſſeſſments of the duties delivered to the collectors, and to the duplicates, and be given in charge to the receivers-general, and be paid to them amongſt the ſaid duties, and be paid into the exchequer. ſ. 15.

The commiſſioners and aſſeſſors ſhall be aſſeſſed for ſuch duties, by the aſſeſſors appointed for the place wherein ſuch commiſſioners and aſſeſſors reſide, in the ſame manner as other perſons. ſ. 16.

Where there ſhall be arrears of the duties unpaid, it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners to cauſe the monies in arrear to be levied by the collectors, in the ſame manner and under the like penalties as the duties; and the monies received ſhall be paid to the receivers-general to be paid into the exchequer. ſ. 17.

Every occupier of any chamber in the inns of court or chancery, ſhall pay for every window in his chamber 1 s. ſ. 18.

If any action be brought for any thing done in execution of the ſaid act or of this act in England, Wales, or Berwick, the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuit, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 20.

The ſurveyor appointed ſhall have power twice in the year to enter into, and paſs through any houſe within any city or royal burgh in Scotland, and view the ſame internally as well as externally, and to view any other houſe in Scotland externally, in like manner as ſurveyors are impowered to view houſes by 20 Geo. 2. c. 3. ſ. 30. ſ. 21.

The ſaid duties with reſpect to windows in Scotland, liable for the ſame, ſhall be paid by the inhabitants or occupiers of the dwelling-houſes, their heirs or executors half yearly, viz. at the 29th of Sept. and 25th of March, by equal portions. ſ. 22.

For the execution of the ſaid act in Scotland, the commiſſioners of the land-tax being duly qualified, ſhall be commiſſioners for putting in execution this act within the reſpective ſhires, ſtewartries, cities, or boroughs in Scotland for which they are commiſſioners of the land-tax, and ſhall adminiſter an oath to ſuch as be appointed aſſeſſors for the faithful adminiſtration of their office. ſ. 23.

Every perſon occupying any dwelling-houſe in any edifice or land in Scotland, having more than nine windows, whether ſuch dwelling-houſe be in a ſeparate building and under a ſeparate roof, or be part of any edifice, land or building, and under the ſame roof with other dwelling-houſes, and which dwelling-houſe any perſons ſhall have been in poſſeſſion of after the term of Whitſunday or Martinmas preceding any of the half-yearly days appointed for the payment of the ſaid duties, ſhall be deemed the occupier and tenant of ſuch houſe. ſ. 26.

In caſe the commiſſioners appointed for putting the ſaid act in execution in Scotland, ſhall not iſſue their precepts for chuſing aſſeſſors, or if the aſſeſſors ſhall not bring in their certificates, it ſhall be lawful for the ſurveyors to make a certificate under their hands, of every dwelling-houſe within the pariſhes in which they act, and of the number of windows in each houſe, with the names of the occupiers and of the ſums they ought to pay, and to return ſuch certificates to the ſurveyors general at Edinburgh, who are to deliver the ſame to the barons of the exchequer in Scotland; and the ſaid barons or any two of them are to appoint collectors, and the barons of the exchequer in Scotland ſhall have the ſame powers as are given to the commiſſioners by the ſaid former act or this act. ſ. 2. Qu. If in force ſince 26 Geo. 2. c. 17. See SCOTLAND, Houſes.

All penalties in Scotland (other than thoſe incurred by any collector) ſhall be payable to the collector of the place place where the ſame are incurred; and (where no other way is herein preſcribed) ſhall be levied by warrant under the hands of three or more commiſſioners of ſupply for ſuch ſhire, ſtewartry, city, or borough, by poinding and diſtraining, and ſale of the offender's goods, rendering the overplus to the owner after deduction of reaſonable charges; and the collector of every ſhire, &c. ſhall keep an account of all fines, forfeitures and ſums levied in force of this act, ſeparate from his account of the ſingle duties contained in the aſſeſſment delivered to him by the commiſſioners; and ſhall lay ſuch account before the commiſſioners half-yearly, at the time of their ſtated half-yearly meetings; and the commiſſioners ſhall have power to deduct and allow to ſuch collector ſuch part of the ſums charged in his ſaid ſeparate account, as to them ſeems meet, for defraying the expence of levying the ſame, or other incidental expences not hereby provided for; and the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall cauſe to be tranſmitted certificates of the balance remaining due on every ſuch account, to the offices of the King's remembrancer in the exchequer in Scotland, and of the receiver-general of the duties aforeſaid at Edinburgh, that ſuch balance may be made a charge upon ſuch collector, and paid over to the ſaid receiver-general, and by him into the exchequer at Weſtminſter. ſ. 28.

By 6 Geo. 3. c. 38. The yearly ſums charged upon every window, ſhall be paid over and above the duties upon houſes. ſ. 3.

No houſe or cottage in Scotland that has not more than five windows, ſhall pay the duty of 1 s. on each houſe. ſ. 4.

The duties ſhall be paid quarterly, on 5 Jan. 5 April, 5 July, and 10 Oct. ſ. 5.

The ſaid rates ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, into the exchequer, as preſcribed or appointed by 20 Geo. 2. c. 3. 31 Geo. 2. c. 22. 2 Geo. 3. c. 8. 20 Geo. 2. c. 42. and 21 Geo. 2. c. 10. And all the powers, &c. contained in the ſaid acts, for the raiſing the rates thereby granted, ſhall be in force, for raiſing the rates by this act granted. ſ. 7.

The duties ſhall be aſſeſſed annually for one year, to commence from the 5th of April in each year. ſ. 9.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and have treble coſts.

By 18 Geo. 3. c. 26. The commiſſioners ſhall cauſe notice to be inſerted in the precepts directed by them to the inhabitants of the pariſhes within their diſtricts, whom they ſhall think fit to be aſſeſſors under the before acts, that ſuch perſons are alſo appointed aſſeſſors of the duties upon houſes. ſ. 12.

In caſe the commiſſioners of ſupply in Scotland neglect to appoint aſſeſſors, or in caſe the aſſeſſors appointed neglect to perform what is required of them, then the ſurveyor appointed under the authority of any of the before acts, ſhall do the like ſervices as are required from the aſſeſſors. ſ. 13.

Every aſſeſſor ſhall, before he act, take (beſides the oaths required to be taken by aſſeſſors, by the aforeſaid acts) an oath, or make and ſubſcribe the ſolemn affirmation following:

I A. B. do ſwear, (or affirm, as the caſe may require) that, in the aſſeſſment which I ſhall make of the houſes and houſehold offices within the diſtrict or pariſh for which I am appointed an aſſeſſor, I will rate each at the true annual value, according to the beſt of my judgment and ſkill, and that I will truly and faithfully execute the truſts repoſed in me, by virtue of an act of the eighteenth year of his preſent majeſty, for impoſing a new duty on all houſes of 5 l. a year, and upwards.

So help me GOD.

Which oath two commiſſioners are to adminiſter. ſ. 15.

If any aſſeſſor act before he ſhall have taken the oath, &c. he ſhall forfeit 20 l.; to be recovered in any court of record, by action of debt, &c. and the forfeitures (charges for recovery being firſt deducted) ſhall be diſtributed, one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to him who ſhall inform. ſ. 16.

Aſſeſſors ſhall, before 24th June in all future years, aſcertain the full rent which every houſe is really worth to be let, and ſhall make an aſſeſſment in writing, according to ſuch eſtimate, upon the occupiers; and ſhall, by writing under their hands, certify the number of houſes and other premiſes, together with each of ſuch houſes occupied, together with the rents eſtimated for the ſame, and the names of the occupiers, and the money charged on them for the ſame; and likewiſe ſhall, on or before 24th June in every year deliver the aſſeſſments, made by them, unto the commiſſioners. ſ. 17.

The commiſſioners, or two of them, ſhall, within one month after receipt of the ſame, ſet their hands to the aſſeſſments and ſurcharges made in the mean time, either by the aſſeſſors or ſurveyors, teſtifying their allowance of the ſame; and ſhall likewiſe nominate two of the perſons named in each aſſeſſment to be collectors for the diviſions for which they ſhall be preſented, and ſhall deliver ſuch aſſeſſments unto the collectors who are to collect and pay the duties, and to give acquittances for the ſame; for whoſe paying unto the receiver general, ſuch money as they ſhall be charged withal, the pariſh for which they are employed ſhall be anſwerable. ſ. 18.

In all privileged and other places, being extra-parochial, and not within the conſtablewicks or precincts of the aſſeſſors, the commiſſioners, or three, ſhall nominate two perſons in or near the ſaid places to be aſſeſſors, and alſo two collectors. ſ. 19.

The commiſſioners ſhall, yearly, cauſe two duplicates of ſuch aſſeſſments to be made out and tranſmitted in the ſame manner, and at like times, as is directed by the aforeſaid acts, with reſpect to the duplicates of the aſſeſſments therein mentioned. ſ. 21.

Surveyors under the ſaid acts, are empowered to inſpect and ſuperviſe the aſſeſſments for any pariſh before the commiſſioners ſhall have ſigned the ſame, and to alter ſuch aſſeſſment if they ſee cauſe; and every perſon in whoſe cuſtody ſuch aſſeſſment ſhall be, is, upon requeſt of any ſurveyors, to produce the ſame; and if any ſurveyors ſhall, after any aſſeſſment ſhall be made out and allowed as aforeſaid, find upon his ſurvey, that any houſes ſhall have been omitted to be charged, or ſhall have been under-rated, ſuch ſurveyor ſhall certify the ſame in writing, under his hand, by way of ſurcharge, to any two commiſſioners, at the ſame times they make their ſurcharges for the duties on houſes and windows, in order to have ſuch omiſſion or under-rate rectified in the aſſeſſment; and the commiſſioners are to cauſe the ſame to be rectified. ſ. 23.

If any ſurveyor ſhall omit to make a ſurcharge for the firſt half year, he may make a ſurcharge for the whole year. ſ. 24.

Where any houſe ſhall be divided into different ſtories, tenements, lands, or landings, and ſhall be inhabited by two or more families, the ſame ſhall pay the duties as if ſuch houſe was inhabited by one family only. ſ. 25.

Each apartment, in any college or hall in any of the univerſities of Great Britain, ſhall be ſubject to the duties as if the ſame were an entire houſe. ſ. 26.

Every chamber in any of the inns of court or chancery, ſhall be ſubject to the duties as if the ſame were an entire houſe. ſ. 27.

Parents, guardians, and tutors of infants, upon default of payment by ſuch infants, ſhall be liable to payments, and if they neglect or refuſe to pay, it ſhall be lawful to proceed againſt them in like manner as againſt any other perſon making default; and all parents, &c. making payment, ſhall be allowed all ſums paid in their accounts. ſ. 28.

This act ſhall not charge any houſe, or premiſes in the poſſeſſion of his majeſty, or any of the royal family, or charge any ambaſſador or foreign miniſter reſiding in Great Britain with payment of the duties. ſ. 29.

The commiſſioners or two of them, and the ſurveyors and aſſeſſors or any perſon authoriſed by them, may inſpect and take copies of any book, kept by any pariſh officer concerning the rates payable to the poor, or any other public taxes in Great Britain; and if any perſon in whoſe cuſtody the ſaid books ſhall be, ſhall refuſe or neglect to permit the inſpection or copies to be made, or to attend the commiſſioners with their books, when required, then every perſon who ſhall ſo refuſe, ſhall forfeit 40*s.* ſ. 30.

No dwelling houſe ſhall be eſtimated at any leſs value yearly than that at which the ſame ſtands rated to the public rates, where charged by a pound rate, and according to the full annual value thereof; and when ſuch premiſes are charged by a pound rate, according to any proportionate part of the real annual value thereof, the ſame ſhall not be eſtimated at leſs than the full annual value upon which ſuch proportions have been computed. ſ. 31.

No farm houſe ſhall be rated as aforeſaid. ſ. 32.

And it is declared, that all houſes, bona fide uſed for the purpoſes of huſbandry only, ſhall be deemed to be farm houſes. ſ. 33.

No ſuch farm houſe, which ſhall be occupied by the owner thereof, ſhall be intitled to ſuch exemption, which ſhall be valued under this act at more than 10*l. per annum*, diſtinct from the land therewith occupied. ſ. 34.

Nothing herein ſhall charge any hoſpital, or houſe provided for the reception of poor perſons, to the payment of the duty. ſ. 35.

No occupier of any houſe in any pariſh, ſhall be charged to the poor's rate or highway duty for any duties impoſed payable by this act, but ſuch owners ſhall continue to be rated to the poor's rate and highway duty in ſuch manner as they were rated to the ſaid rates at the time of paſſing this act. ſ. 36.

The payment of the rates ſhall not intitle the perſon paying to a legal ſettlement in ſuch pariſh. ſ. 37.

No houſes ſhall be deemed to be inhabited houſes except the ſame ſhall be inhabited by the owner, or by a tenant. ſ. 38.

Perſons overcharged or over-rated, may appeal to the commiſſioners, and the commiſſioners ſhall determine ſuch appeals; and ſuch appeals ſhall be determined on the days appointed, and in manner directed, in the acts before mentioned. ſ. 39.—Alſo 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 38. ſ. 44. as to the new duty on windows.

By 19 Geo. 3. c. 59. The duties on houſes ſhall be aſſeſſed annually for one year, to commence from 5th April in each year, and the aſſeſſments ſhall be made out and certified, and the ſurcharges certified, and the appeals heard at the ſame times as the aſſeſſments, ſurcharges, and appeals, are made, certified, and heard, on the duties on houſes and windows. ſ. 4.

Every coach houſe, ſtable, brew houſe, waſh houſe, laundry, wood houſe, bake houſe, dairy, and other offices, and all yards, courts, and curtilages, and gardens, not exceeding one acre, belonging to and occupied with any dwelling houſe, chargeable to the duties, ſhall be valued together with ſuch houſe, and be charged with the duties. ſ. 5.

In caſe the commiſſioners for putting in execution this act, ſhall neglect to appoint aſſeſſors, or the aſſeſſors appointed ſhall neglect to perform what is required of them, by the act of laſt ſeſſion and this act, then it ſhall be lawful for the ſurveyor appointed to do ſuch ſervices as are required from ſuch aſſeſſors. ſ. 6.

No aſſeſſments delivered to the commiſſioners ſhall be altered or diminiſhed before the time for hearing appeals, and then only upon the commiſſioners hearing the matter of the appeal particularly relating thereto, or concerning the ſame, upon a general appeal day. ſ. 8.

All ſhops and warehouſes attached to the dwelling houſe, or having any communication therewith (except warehouſes and buildings upon or near wharfs, occupied by wharfingers, and who have dwelling houſes upon the wharfs, and who are to be rated in reſpect of the ſaid houſes only), ſhall be charged with the duties, together with the houſe. ſ. 9.

No warehouſe, being a diſtinct building, and not part of the dwelling-houſe or ſhop, but employed ſolely for lodging goods, wares, and merchandize, or for carrying on ſome manufacture, (although the ſame may adjoin to, or have an internal communication with the dwelling-houſe), ſhall be charged with the duties. ſ. 10.

All houſes within Great Britain, of the annual value of 5*l.* and upwards, inhabited by any perſon whatſoever, ſhall be ſubject to the duty, except ſuch as are expreſsly excepted by the laſt act; provided no houſe ſhall be conſidered as an inhabited houſe, in which a ſervant or other perſon only reſides to take care of the ſame. ſ. 11.

Where any houſe ſhall be divided into different ſtories or tenements, let in different apartments to ſeveral perſons, the landlord or owner ſhall be deemed to be the occupier, and ſhall be charged with the duties. ſ. 12.

Every hall and office whatſoever, that are charged with any other taxes ſhall be ſubject to the duties, and ſhall be charged as inhabited houſes, and the perſons to whom the ſame belong, ſhall be charged as the occupiers thereof. ſ. 13.

No perſon ſhall act as a commiſſioner until he hath firſt taken (beſides the oaths required to be taken by any other act) an oath, or made and ſubſcribed his ſolemn affirmation. ſ. 14. viz.

I A. B. do ſwear, (or affirm, as the caſe may require) that I will truly and faithfully execute the office of a commiſſioner, and will determine upon all appeals which ſhall be brought before me according to the beſt of my ſkill and judgment, purſuant to the acts of parliament in that behalf.

So help me GOD.

No perſon ſhall be capable of acting as a commiſſioner within London and the liberty of Saint Martin le Grand, nor within Weſtminſter, unleſs ſuch perſon be poſſeſſed of lands or perſonal eſtate, to the value of 2000*l.* at leaſt after payment of all his debts, which qualification they ſhall

ſwear

ſwear to previous to their acting, or make and ſubſcribe his ſolemn affirmation in the following form:

I A. B. do ſwear (or affirm, as the caſe may require) that I truly and bona fide have ſuch an eſtate, conſiſting of (ſpecifying the ſame) of the clear yearly value of 2000 l. over and above what will ſatisfy and diſcharge all my debts.
So help me GOD.

And if any perſon ſhall preſume to act before he ſhall have taken ſuch oaths or affirmations, he ſhall forfeit 200 l.; one moiety to his majeſty, the other to any perſon who will inform. ſ. 15.

Penalties ſhall be recovered in any court of record at Weſtminſter, with coſts, by action of debt, &c. ſ. 20.

Perſons ſued may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 21.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 38. No one perſon ſhall be ſubjected to the payment of any of the duties by this act impoſed for more than two houſes which he ſhall occupy at the ſame time: provided he pay the ſaid duties for two ſuch houſes as ſhall contain the greateſt number of windows of any two houſes in his occupation. ſ. 11.

Such perſon intending to be relieved from the payment of more than two, ſhall, when called upon by the collectors for the payment of the duties, deliver to them in ſuch pariſh wherein any houſe in his occupation, other than the two containing the greateſt number of windows, is ſituated, a declaration in writing of the two houſes in his occupation for which he is to pay; on receiving which, ſuch collectors ſhall diſcharge from their book the rates made for ſuch houſe exempted; which notice the collectors are to deliver to the ſurveyor, for enabling them to make a deduction from the charge againſt ſuch collectors. ſ. 12.

If any perſon ſhall omit or neglect to pay for ſuch two houſes, according to the notice they give the collectors, they ſhall forfeit 50 l. ſ. 13.

The rates impoſed by this act to be paid in addition to thoſe charged by act 6 Geo. 3. c. 38. and 19 Geo. 3. c. 59. ſ. 14.

The duties ſhall in England be paid quarterly, on 5 Jan. 5 April, 5 July, and 10 Oct. by equal portions; and in Scotland, on or before 25 March yearly, for the half year betwixt Martinmas-day and Whitſunday, and 29 Sept. yearly, for the half year betwixt Whitſunday and Martinmas. ſ. 16.

The duties ſhall be charged only upon the inhabitants of the houſes, and not on the landlord, (except as after mentioned) any agreement entered into previous to this act, relative to the payment of any duties on ſuch houſes, or ſuch inhabitants, to the contrary notwithſtanding. ſ. 17.

No duty ſhall be levied for any houſe, whereof the occupier is exempt from the uſual taxes towards church and poor. ſ. 18.

The duties to be aſſeſſed and collected in the ſame manner, and under the ſame penalties, &c. as thoſe granted by the following acts: 20 Geo. 2. c. 3. 20 Geo. 2. c. 42. 21 Geo. 2. c. 10. 26 Geo. 2. c. 17. 31 Geo. 2. c. 22. 2 Geo. 3. c. 8. 18 Geo. 3. c. 26. and 19 Geo. 3. c. 59. ſ. 19.

The monies that ſhall ariſe by the additional duties on inhabited houſes, granted by this act, (which duties ſhall be paid by the perſons who ſhall be appointed to receive the ſame, into the hands of the receiver general of the cuſtoms) be paid by him into the receipt of the exchequer, upon the ſeveral diſtinct heads of ſubſidy, or cuſtoms; and in caſe the amount of the duties impoſed on tea, together with the monies hereby directed to be paid to the ſaid receiver general, ſhall in any one quarter exceed 87,136 l. 16 s. 8 $\frac{1}{4}$ d. being the one-fourth part of 348,547 l. 6 s. 9 d. the average produce of the duties on teas for five years, the ſaid receiver general ſhall pay over ſuch ſurplus into the hands of the receiver general of exciſe, which ſhall be by him diſtributed to the heads of exciſe to which the duties of exciſe on teas repealed by this act were applicable; and ſhall be by him paid into the exchequer, at the rate of 138,979 l. 5 s. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per quarter, being the one-fourth part of 555,917 l. 3 s. 6 d. the average of the exciſe duties on tea for five years; and ſuch money, ſo paid into the exchequer, by the receiver general of the cuſtoms, and receiver general of the exciſe, ſhall be applied to the ſame uſes as former duties on teas. ſ. 20.

The receipt of the receiver general of the cuſtoms ſhall be a diſcharge to the perſons who ſhall be appointed to receive the additional duties on inhabited houſes; and alſo the receipt of the receiver general of the exciſe ſhall be a ſufficient diſcharge to the receiver general of the cuſtoms for ſuch monies as he ſhall pay in purſuance of this act; and the receipts ſhall be allowed by the auditor in paſſing their accounts. ſ. 21.

If in any one quarter there ſhould be a ſurplus of monies ariſing by this act, the ſame ſhall be applied towards making good the ſums charged on the next quarter. ſ. 22.

Separate aſſeſſments ſhall be made out for raiſing the duties hereby impoſed, which ſhall be brought in by the aſſeſſors, in writing under their hands, and be verified upon their oaths, and not otherwiſe, as required by 20 Geo. 2. upon pain of forfeiture, of not exceeding 20, nor leſs than 5 l. and the commiſſioners ſhall cauſe true duplicates of the aſſeſſments to be made out, and tranſmitted as directed by the former acts relating to the duties upon houſes, and windows. ſ. 23.

The commiſſioners for putting in execution the before mentioned acts, ſhall be commiſſioners for putting in execution this act, and ſhall meet yearly as the commiſſioners think proper before 30 April yearly; and ſhall then divide themſelves to act in ſeparate diſtricts, and proceed in the execution of this act, in ſuch manner as preſcribed by the before mentioned acts, except in caſes in which alteration is made by this. ſ. 24.

In caſe the commiſſioners ſhould not meet at the time preſcribed, they, or two, may meet and execute this act at any other time. ſ. 25.

The commiſſioners ſhall cauſe notice to be inſerted in the precepts directed to aſſeſſors under the before mentioned acts, that ſuch perſons are alſo appointed aſſeſſors of the duties on houſes and windows, granted by this act. ſ. 26.

In caſe no aſſeſſors ſhall be appointed, ſurveyors may do their duty. ſ. 27.

Surveyors ſhall, twice in every year, on or before 10 January, and 10 Auguſt, yearly, certify in writing, under their hands, by way of ſurcharge, to three commiſſioners, what houſes have been omitted to be charged, or been under-charged, for the then year; and upon oath being firſt made that notice was left in writing at the dwelling-houſes of the occupiers charged, that the ſurveyors intended to charge them in ſuch manner, and according to ſuch number of windows, as they ſhall be charged for by ſuch certificate, the commiſſioners, or three, ſhall cauſe ſuch aſſeſſment to be rectified according to ſuch certificate, and delivered to the collectors. ſ. 28.

If any ſurveyor ſhall omit to make a ſurcharge for the firſt half year, he may make a ſurcharge for the whole year. ſ. 29.

Where

Where houſes are let in different tenements, the landlord ſhall be deemed the occupier. ſ. 30.

All dwelling rooms in every hall and office, belonging to any perſon, or body politic or corporate, charged with other taxes, ſhall be ſubject to the duties granted by this act, and ſhall be charged as inhabited houſes; and the perſon to whom the ſame ſhall belong, ſhall be charged as the occupier thereof; and each chamber in any college or hall in the univerſities of Great Britain, ſhall be ſubject to the duties, as if the ſame was an entire houſe. ſ. 31.

Every chamber in any of the inns of court or chancery, ſhall be ſubject to the duties as an entire houſe. ſ. 32.

This act ſhall not extend to any houſe in the poſſeſſion of his majeſty, or any of the royal family, nor charge any ambaſſador or foreign miniſter, reſiding in Great Britain, with the duties. ſ. 33.

The regulations provided by 18 and 19 Geo. 3. for exempting all warehouſes and buildings requiſite for carrying on manufactures, trades, occupations, and callings, from the duties on inhabited houſes, impoſed by thoſe acts, ſhall exempt all ſuch warehouſes and buildings from the duties impoſed by this act. ſ. 34.

Nothing herein ſhall charge any hoſpital, charity ſchool, or houſe provided for the reception and relief of poor perſons, to the payment of the duty, except ſuch apartments therein as are occupied by the officers or ſervants thereof, which ſhall be ſubject to the duty (according to the number of windows in each) as other inhabited houſes. ſ. 35.

Parents and guardians liable to pay for infants, &c. ſ. 36.

The payment of any of the rates ſhall not entitle the perſon to a ſettlement in ſuch pariſh. ſ. 37.

No houſe ſhall, within this act, be deemed an inhabited houſe, except the ſame ſhall be inhabited by the owner, or his ſervant, or by a tenant or tenants renting the ſame. ſ. 38.

No perſon ſhall be capable in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, of acting as a commiſſioner, (unleſs in adminiſtering oaths) until he ſhall have taken the oaths appointed by 1 Geo. 1. c. 13. (ſee OATHS), which, and any others preſcribed to be taken by this act, two commiſſioners may adminiſter. ſ. 39.

If any commiſſioner ſhall preſume to act, before he ſhall have taken the oaths, he ſhall forfeit to his majeſty 200 l. ſ. 40.

Commiſſioners in Scotland to take the oaths of allegiance and abjuration, &c. on penalty of 20 l. ſ. 41.

Every aſſeſſor ſhall, before he preſumes to act, take the following oath:

I A. B. do ſwear, [or affirm, as the caſe may require] that, in the aſſeſſment which I ſhall make of the houſes and houſehold offices within the diſtrict or pariſh for which I am appointed an aſſeſſor, I will rate each according to the whole number of windows therein, to the beſt of my knowledge and judgment; and that I will truly and faithfully execute the truſts repoſed in me by virtue of an act of the 24th year of his preſent majeſty, for repealing the ſeveral duties on tea, and for granting to his majeſty other duties in lieu thereof; and alſo ſeveral duties on inhabited houſes; and upon the importation of cocoa nuts and coffee; and for repealing the inland duties of exciſe thereon.

Which two commiſſioners are to adminiſter. ſ. 42.

All penalties, for which there is no way of levying appointed, ſhall be recovered in any court of record at Weſtminſter, with coſts. ſ. 48.

Land.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 2. The ſum of 2,037,627 l. 9 s. 0 d.$\frac{1}{4}$. ſhall be raiſed within Great Britain as in the act. ſ. 1.

The ſum of 1,989,673 l. 7 s. 10$\frac{1}{4}$ d. part of the ſaid ſum, ſhall be raiſed within one year from 25 March 1790, and ſhall be taxed in the ſeveral counties, cities, borough, towns, and places of England, Wales, and Berwick, according to the proportions mentioned in the act. ſ. 2.

Towards raiſing the ſeveral ſums hereby charged on the reſpective counties, &c. in England, &c. all perſons, bodies politic and fraternities, having any eſtate in ready money, or in debts owing to them within Great Britain, or without, or having any eſtate in goods, or perſonal eſtate (except ſuch ſums as they owe, and debts deſperate, and except the ſtock upon lands, and houſhold ſtuff, and except debts owing from his majeſty) ſhall pay unto his majeſty 4 s. in the pound, according to the yearly value for one year, viz. for every 100 l. and for every 100 l. worth 20 s. and all perſons and commiſſioners having any public office of profit in England, &c. their clerks, agents, and other inferior miniſters (military officers in muſter by the muſter-maſter general or in pay in his majeſty's army or navy in reſpect of ſuch offices excepted) ſhall, towards raiſing the ſaid ſums, pay unto his majeſty 4 s. for every 20 s. which they receive in one year, by virtue of any ſalaries, profits, or advantages to them accruing by reaſon of their offices; and all perſons having an annuity or yearly payment either out of the receipt of his majeſty's exchequer in England, or out of any branch of his majeſty's revenue in England, &c. or ſecured to be paid by any perſon in England, &c. (not iſſuing out of lands, and not being by act of parliament exempted from taxes) ſhall pay unto his majeſty 4 s. for every 20 s. by the year, for every ſuch annuity, for one whole year. ſ. 3.

All manors, meſſuages, lands, and tenements, and all quarries, mines of coal, tin, &c. and other mines, iron works, ſalt works, allum mines and works, all parks, chaces, warrens, woods, underwoods, coppices, and all fiſhings, tythes, tolls, annuities, and other yearly profits, and all hereditaments, within the ſeveral counties, &c. as well within antient demeſne and other liberties as without, within England, &c. and all perſons, bodies politic and brotherhoods corporate or not corporate, having any ſuch manors, &c. ſhall be charged with as much equality as poſſible by a pound rate towards the ſaid ſums, ſo that the full ſums hereby appointed ſhall be levied and paid into the receipt of exchequer, by four quarterly payments; the firſt payment to be on or before the 24th of June 1790. ſ. 4.

Where any manors, &c. are ſubject to annual payments, it ſhall be lawful for the owners of ſuch manors, &c. to deduct out of ſuch annual payment ſo much of the pound rate aſſeſſed upon the ſaid manors, &c. as a like rate for every ſuch annual payment ſhall by proportion amount unto, ſo as ſuch annual payment amount unto 20 s. per ann. or more; and all perſons intitled to ſuch annual payments, are to allow ſuch deductions upon receipt of the reſidue of ſuch annual payments, without fee. ſ. 5.

The perſons appointed commiſſioners of the land-tax for 1786 and 1787, being ſtill living, and duly qualifying themſelves, ſhall be commiſſioners for putting this act in execution, within the ſame counties, &c. reſpectively. ſ. 6.

The commiſſioners ſhall meet at the uſual places within each of the counties, &c. on or before the 30th of April 1790, and afterwards as often as neceſſary; and they ſhall aſcertain the proportions to be charged upon every hundred or other diviſion towards making up the ſum charged upon the

the county, &c. by charging in proportion to the ſum aſſeſſed on the ſame diviſions by act of parliament, 4 Will. and Mary, c. 1. and ſhall, if they ſee cauſe, ſubdivide themſelves and the commiſſioners not then preſent, ſo as three or more be appointed for the ſervice of each hundred or diviſion; nevertheleſs not to reſtrain the commiſſioners from acting in any other part of the county, &c. ſ. 7.

The commiſſioners at ſuch general meeting ſhall alſo ſet down what commiſſioners ſhall act in each diviſion, and ſhall deliver copies of ſuch writings to the receiver-general appointed by his majeſty. And the commiſſioners within the ſeveral diviſions, or two of them, are to cauſe the proportions charged on the reſpective diviſions to be equally aſſeſſed within every pariſh and place therein; and to direct their precept to ſuch inhabitants, high-conſtables, petty-conſtables, bailiffs, and other officers, as they think convenient, to be aſſeſſors, requiring them to appear before the commiſſioners, at ſuch place and time, not exceeding eight days after the date of ſuch precept, as they ſhall appoint; and at their appearances the commiſſioners ſhall read to them the ſeveral charges in this act, and declare the effect of their charge. And if any ſuch conſtable or other inhabitants abſent themſelves, without lawful excuſe, to be made out by the oath of two witneſſes (which oaths the commiſſioners are to adminiſter) or if any officer or perſon appearing refuſe to ſerve, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit to his majeſty ſuch ſum as the commiſſioners think fit, not exceeding 5 l. nor leſs than 40 s. And after ſuch charge given, the commiſſioners ſhall take care that warrants be directed to two at leaſt of the moſt ſufficient inhabitants of each pariſh, &c. requiring them to be aſſeſſors of the rates; and ſhall alſo therein appoint a day and place for the aſſeſſors to appear, and bring in their aſſeſſments: which aſſeſſors are to aſſeſs the ſum given them in charge upon all monies, debts, perſonal eſtates, offices, &c. and by an equal pound rate upon all manors, lands, &c. within the places for which they be aſſeſſors; and ſhall bring a certificate of the aſſeſſment, and ſhall return two or more ſufficient perſons to be collectors, for whoſe paying in to the receiver-general, or his deputy, ſuch monies as they be chargeable withal, the pariſh, &c. wherein they are ſo employed ſhall be anſwerable; and if any aſſeſſor neglect to ſerve, not having lawful excuſe, to be witneſſed by two witneſſes, or not perform his duty, ſuch aſſeſſor ſhall forfeit to his majeſty ſuch ſum as the commiſſioners think fit, not exceeding 40 l. to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, and to be charged upon the receivers-general. And the aſſeſſors are to deliver one copy of their aſſeſſments ſubſcribed by them unto the commiſſioners, within the time prefixed: and the commiſſioners, or three of them, are to ſign and ſeal two duplicates of the aſſeſſments; and one of them to deliver to two reſponſible perſons to be collectors, which the commiſſioners are to nominate, with warrant to the collectors to collect the ſame, ſo as the ſeveral ſums may be paid to the receiver-general at the times hereby limited. And the commiſſioners are at the ſame time to give the collectors notice at what time and place the appeals of any perſons who think themſelves over-rated, may be heard; which days of appeal ſhall be at leaſt 30 days from the time of delivering the duplicates to the collectors: and every collector is required, within ten days after the receipt of ſuch duplicates, to cauſe notice to be given in every church or chapel within his diſtrict, immediately after divine ſervice on the Lord's-day (if divine ſervice be performed therein within that time) of the time and place appointed for hearing appeals; and ſhall cauſe the like notices to be fixed upon the door of each church or chapel on the ſame day: and the collectors are required, upon the application of any perſons who think themſelves over-rated, to permit ſuch perſons, their ſtewards, or other repreſentatives, to inſpect the duplicates of ſuch aſſeſſments upon the diviſion at all reaſonable times of the day, without fee; and every perſon ſo intending to appeal to the commiſſioners ſhall give notice in writing to one or more of the aſſeſſors; and all appeals once heard and determined by the commiſſioners, or three of them, or the major part preſent, on the days appointed ſhall be final. And the commiſſioners are to deliver a ſchedule in parchment, under their hands and ſeals, containing the whole ſum aſſeſſed upon each pariſh, &c. and the chriſtian and ſirnames of the aſſeſſors and collectors, unto the receiver general of each county, &c. or his deputy, and ſhall tranſmit a like ſchedule into the king's remembrancer's office of the exchequer; and this the commiſſioners ſhall cauſe to be done upon or before the 8th of Aug. 1790, or within 20 days after (all appeals being firſt determined) for which duplicates the remembrancer, or his deputy, ſhall give a receipt gratis, under the penalty of 10 l. to be recovered to the king's uſe, as other penalties by this act. ſ. 8.

The collectors ſhall levy the rates ſo aſſeſſed; which collectors are to demand the ſums of the parties themſelves if they can be found, or elſe at the place of their laſt abode, or upon the premiſſes charged; and the collectors ſhall levy the monies, and pay unto the receivers-general, or their deputies, all the rates by them collected at ſuch times or places as the commiſſioners, or two of them, appoint. ſ. 9.

The money received by the collectors ſhall be paid to the receiver-general, or his deputy, appointed under his hand and ſeal, (whereof notice under the hand and ſeal of the reſpective receivers-general ſhall be given to the commiſſioners, or two of them, within ten days after the next general meeting, and ſo from time to time within ten days after every death or removal of any deputy) and the receipt of ſuch receiver-general, or his deputy (which receipt ſhall be given gratis) ſhall be a diſcharge to every collector, and for the payment the collectors ſhall not be obliged to travel above ten miles from their habitations. ſ. 10.

If any receiver-general die, or be removed, or if any receiver-general for the laſt aid be not appointed for the preſent, notice thereof ſhall be given by the commiſſioners for the affairs of taxes, to two or more commiſſioners acting for each diviſion in ſuch county, &c. before the time appointed by this act for the firſt quarterly payment, and ſo from time to time upon the death or removal of any ſuch receiver-general. ſ. 11.

The ſum of 497,418 l. 6 s. 11 $\frac{9}{16}$ d. for the firſt quarterly payment, ſhall be paid unto the receivers-general on or before the 24th of June 1790; and the like ſum for the ſecond quarterly payment on or before the 29th of September 1790; and the third quarterly payment on or before the 25th of December 1790; and the laſt quarterly payment on or before the 25th of March 1791. ſ. 12.

Every receiver-general, within one month after he has received the full ſum charged on any diviſion for ſuch payment, ſhall give to ſuch commiſſioners as act in ſuch diviſion, a receipt under his hand and ſeal, which ſhall be a diſcharge to each diviſion for ſuch payment; which receivers-general are required, within 20 days after the receipt of any money, to tranſmit the money into the receipt of the exchequer; and the treaſury are to allow to the receiver-general of each county, &c. a ſalary not exceeding 2 d. in the pound upon the clearing of his accounts. ſ. 13.

The collectors ſhall upon collection of the whole ſum, and payment thereof have 3 d. in the pound out of the laſt payment of their quarterly payments; and the receiver-general, upon the receipt of the whole aſſeſſments of the county, &c. (in caſe he has received the ſeveral duplicates of each pariſh, and duplicates be returned to the office of the remembrancer of the exchequer) ſhall allow, according to warrant given by the commiſſioners, or two of them, three halfpence in the pound, for the commiſſioners clerks, for writing the aſſeſſments, duplicates, and copies, and all warrants, orders, and inſtructions. ſ. 14.

All duplicates of the aſſeſſments, made and delivered, by the aſſeſſors to the commiſſioners, or to their clerks, and in the cuſtody of ſuch commiſſioners or clerks, and all minute books, and other public books and papers relating to the land tax, in the cuſtody of ſuch clerks, removed from ſuch office, or in the cuſtody of the executors, adminiſtrators, or repreſentatives of any perſon who died during his holding ſuch office, or after his removal from the ſame, or in the cuſtody of his agent or attorney, or of any other perſons whomſoever, ſhall be deemed the property of the commiſſioners, as records of the ſaid commiſſioners for their uſe; and ſhall be placed, and remain in the cuſtody of them the commiſſioners, or their clerks for the time being, or of ſuch other perſons as the commiſſioners, or three, ſhall appoint. ſ. 15.

All perſons aforeſaid, having in their cuſtody ſuch books or papers, ſhall, within one month after notice in writing, ſigned by three commiſſioners, or a true copy thereof, given to, or left at the abode of, ſuch perſons, deliver up all ſuch books and papers unto ſuch perſon as the commiſſioners, by ſuch notice, ſhall order; whoſe receipt for the ſame ſhall be a diſcharge: And if any ſuch perſons ſhall neglect to deliver the ſame within the time limited by ſuch notice and demand made, he ſhall forfeit 50 l.; one moiety to be paid to the receiver-general of the land tax of the county, and by him applied in aid of the land tax of ſuch county, and accounted for accordingly; and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall ſue; and ſhall be recovered, with coſts, by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter. ſ. 16.

If any perſon neglect to pay any ſum whereat he is aſſeſſed, upon demand by the collectors, it ſhall be lawful for the collectors to levy the ſum by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, or to diſtrain upon the tenements charged, and the diſtreſs to keep four days, at the coſts of the owners; and if the owners do not pay the money within the four days, the diſtreſs to be appraiſed by two inhabitants or other ſufficient perſons, and ſold by the collectors; and it ſhall be lawful to break open in the day-time any houſe, and, upon warrant under the hands and ſeals of two commiſſioners, any cheſt where goods are, calling to their aſſiſtance the conſtables, &c. and if any difference happen upon taking ſuch diſtreſs, the ſame ſhall be determined by the commiſſioners, or two of them; and if any perſon aſſeſſed neglect to pay for ten days after demand, or convey his goods whereby the money cannot be levied, any two commiſſioners are authoriſed, by warrant to commit ſuch perſon (except a peer or peereſs) to the common gaol until payment of the money and charges. And the tenants of all tenements rated are to pay ſuch money rated upon ſuch tenements, and deduct out of the rent ſo much as in reſpect of the ſaid rents of ſuch tenements the landlord ought to pay; and the landlords mediate and immediate, are to allow ſuch deductions. ſ. 17.

Every tenant paying the ſaid aſſeſſments ſhall be acquitted of ſo much as if the ſame had been paid unto ſuch perſon to whom his rent is due. And if any difference ariſe between landlord and tenant, or any other, concerning the rates, the commiſſioners, or two of them, ſhall have power to ſettle the ſame. And in caſe the proportions ſet by this, or any former act upon the reſpective counties, &c. be not fully paid, or if any of the aſſeſſments be rated upon any perſon not of ability to pay, or upon any empty houſe or land, or the aſſeſſment happens not to be paid to the receiver-general, the commiſſioners, aſſeſſors, and collectors, are required to reaſſeſs ſuch money upon the diviſions wherein ſuch deficiency happens or pariſhes therein, as to the commiſſioners ſeems agreeable to juſtice. ſ. 18.

If any aſſeſſor, collector, or other perſon, wilfully neglect to perform his duty in the execution of this act, or be guilty of any fraud or abuſe, the commiſſioners, or three of them, have power to impoſe fines, ſo as the ſame exceed not 40 l. which fines ſhall not be diſcharged but by conſent of the majority of the commiſſioners who impoſed the ſame; but ſhall be levied by warrant of the commiſſioners, or two of them, by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and in default of goods the offender (not being a peer or peereſs) to be committed by warrant to priſon till payment: and all fines impoſed by virtue of this act, ſhall be paid to the receivers-general, and by them into the receipt of the exchequer; and ſhall be inſerted in the duplicates tranſmitted to the king's remembrancer. ſ. 19.

If any collector neglect to pay any money received, the commiſſioners, or two of them, are authoriſed to impriſon the perſon, and ſeize the eſtate as well freehold as copyhold both real and perſonal of ſuch collector; and the commiſſioners who ſo ſeize the eſtate ſhall appoint a time for a general meeting of the commiſſioners and cauſe public notice to be given of the place ſix days before; and the commiſſioners at ſuch general meeting, in caſe the monies be not paid, ſhall ſell ſuch eſtates to ſatisfy, into the hands of the receiver-general, the ſum detained. ſ. 20.

Collectors ſhall, if required, give ſecurity to three commiſſioners, equal to the amount of the whole rate in each diſtrict, for their duly paying to the receiver-general ſuch monies aſſeſſed as ſhall come to their hands; which ſecurity the commiſſioners, or three, are to take; and on failure of the collectors giving ſuch ſecurity, if required, the commiſſioners ſhall appoint other two perſons, who can give ſuch ſecurity, reſiding within the pariſhes where they ſhall be chargeable, to be collectors. Provided if no perſons can be found who are willing or able to give ſuch ſecurity, then the perſons who were firſt named by the commiſſioners, ſhall be collectors. ſ. 21.

At the expiration of the times preſcribed for payment of the quarterly aſſeſſments, the commiſſioners, or two of them, within their diviſion ſhall call before them the collectors, and aſſure themſelves of the whole payment of the ſums charged upon the diviſion; and in caſe of any failure the commiſſioners, or two of them, are to cauſe the ſame to be levied. ſ. 22.

In caſe any controverſy ariſe concerning the aſſeſſments which concerns any of the commiſſioners, the commiſſioners ſo concerned in their own right or as agent ſhall have no voice, but ſhall withdraw at the time of the debate; and in default thereof the commiſſioners preſent are to impoſe fines upon ſuch commiſſioner refuſing to withdraw not exceeding 20 l. and all queſtions touching any of the ſaid rates in England, &c. ſhall be finally determined by the commiſſioners, without further ſuit in the king's bench or any other court. ſ. 23.

No privileged place or perſon ſhall be exempted from the ſaid taxes; and all fee-farm and other rents and ſums of money iſſuing out of lands, ſhall be liable to be taxed; and the tenants are to pay. ſ. 24.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge any college or hall in the univerſities of Oxford or Cambridge, or of the colleges of Windſor, Eaton, Winton, or Weſtminſter, or the corporation of the governors of the charity for the relief of the poor widows and children of clergymen, or the college of Bromley, or any hoſpital in reſpect of the ſites of the ſaid colleges, &c. or any maſter, fellow, ſcholar, or exhibitioner of any ſuch college or hall, or any reader, officer, or maſter of the univerſities, or any maſters or uſhers of ſchool for any ſtipend, rents, profits, or exhibitions ariſing in reſpect of the ſaid employments; or charge any houſes or lands, which on or before the 25th of March 1693, did belong to the ſites of any college or hall, or to Chriſt's Hoſpital, St. Bartholomew, Bridewell, St. Thomas, and Bethlehem Hoſpitals, in London and Southwark; or to the corporation of the governors of the charity for the relief of the poor widows and children of clergymen, or the college of Bromley; or ſhall charge any hoſpitals or alms houſes in England, &c. in reſpect only of any rents or revenues, which on or before the ſaid 25th of March 1693, were payable to the ſaid hoſpitals or alms houſes to be diſburſed for the immediate uſe of the poor only. ſ. 25.

No tenants that hold any lands or houſes by leaſe from the ſaid corporation, hoſpitals, or alms houſes, ſhall claim any exemption by this act; but the houſes and lands which they ſo hold ſhall be rated for ſo much as they are yearly worth over and above the rents reſerved. ſ. 26.

Nothing in this act ſhall diſcharge any tenant of houſes or lands belonging to the ſaid colleges, &c. who by their leaſes are obliged to pay all taxes and impoſitions. ſ. 27.

Any queſtion how far any lands belonging to any hoſpital not exempted by name out of this act, ought to be charged by the land tax, ſhall be determined by the commiſſioners or three of them upon appeal. ſ. 28.

Such lands belonging to any hoſpital or alms-houſe, or ſettled to any charitable uſe, as were aſſeſſed in the fourth year of king Will. & queen Mar., ſhall be charged towards this aid; and no other lands then belonging to any hoſpital or alms-houſe, or ſettled to any charitable or pious uſes. ſ. 29.

All auditors, receivers, and their deputies, who audit or receive any fee-farm rents, or other chief rents, due to his majeſty, or to any perſon claiming under the crown, ſhall allow 4 s. for every pound of the ſaid rents, and a proportional rate for any greater ſum than 10 s. to the party paying the ſame, without fee, upon the penalty of 20 l. to the party grieved, to be recovered by action of debt or upon the caſe with coſts. And if any ſuch auditor ſet inſuper any perſon for any money which by this act ought to be allowed or delay to allow the ſame in the proper accounts, ſuch auditor or perſon acting for ſuch auditor, ſhall forfeit 100 l. to the party grieved, and ſhall be incapable to enjoy any place of truſt under his majeſty. ſ. 30.

The fee-farm rents, for which a deduction is to be made by this act, are ſuch fee-farm rents only, as are anſwerable to his majeſty, or have been purchaſed from the crown by virtue of two acts of parliament 22 Car. 2. c. 6. & 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 24. provided ſuch deduction do not exceed the ſum aſſeſſed by this act upon the whole eſtates out of which ſuch purchaſed fee-farm rents iſſue. ſ. 31.

The officers in the receipt of exchequer and other public offices, upon requeſt by the aſſeſſors, ſhall deliver gratis liſts of all penſions or annual payments, &c. to any commiſſioner or officer for the execution of this act. And where any penſions or other allowances are payable at the receipt of exchequer, or by the cofferer of his majeſty's houſehold, or out of any other public office, or by any of his majeſty's receivers, the tax charged for ſuch annuities ſhall (in caſe of nonpayment) be ſtopt out of the ſame; and the proper officers ſhall keep accounts of all monies ſtopt, and (upon requeſt) give copies of ſuch accounts to the collectors for the places where the monies are aſſeſſed. ſ. 32.

Where any perſon inhabiting within London or any other city or town corporate hath his dwelling-houſe in one of the pariſhes therein, and hath any goods in any other pariſhes within the ſame, ſuch perſon ſhall be taxed for ſuch goods in the pariſh where he dwelleth. ſ. 33.

No clauſe in this act ſhall extend to the leſſening the full ſum appointed to be levied. ſ. 34.

Nothing in this act ſhall alter any agreements touching the payment of taxes. ſ. 35.

All places ſhall be aſſeſſed in ſuch county or allotment as the ſame have been uſually aſſeſſed in. ſ. 36.

The hundred of Weſt Barnfield formerly taxed in the lathe of Alesford in Kent may (if the commiſſioners think fit) be aſſeſſed in the lath of Skray, as likewiſe may the tithing of Northmore in the county of Oxford be aſſeſſed in the hundred of Bampton, and the tithings of Charlbury, Fallar, and Finſtock, in the hundred of Chadlington in the ſaid county; as alſo the town of Leeds in the county of York, in the hundred of Skyrack; and the pariſh of Ombersley, in the county of Worceſter, in the lower diviſion of Oſwaldſlow hundred; and the pariſh of Aldemaſton, in the eaſtern diviſion of Oſwaldſlow hundred; and the pariſh of Yardley in Bromſgrove diviſion of Halfſhire hundred in the ſaid county; and the foreſt of Chute ſhall be aſſeſſed where the ſame was aſſeſſed to the firſt aid of 4 s. in the pound, granted to king William and queen Mary; and the pariſh of Upton upon Severn, in the county of Worceſter, formerly taxed in the lower diviſion of Oſwaldſlow hundred may be aſſeſſed in the lower diviſion of Perſhore hundred in the ſaid county; and the profits of the navigation of the rivers Calder and Ayre, in the weſt riding of the county of York, ſhall be aſſeſſed one moiety at Wakefield, and the other moiety at Leeds. ſ. 37.

And whereas the palace of Somerſet Houſe has been uſually aſſeſſed within the liberty of the duchy of Lancaſter, in the Strand, but the inhabitants have evaded payment of the rates, it is enacted that the inhabitants of apartments within the ſaid palace ſhall be liable to the aſſeſſments. ſ. 38.

If any ſuit be commenced againſt any perſons for what they do in purſuance of this act, ſuch perſons may plead the general iſſue, not guilty; and if the plaintiff become nonſuit the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 39.

In caſe any lands or houſes be unoccupied, and no diſtreſs can be found by reaſon whereof the pariſh is forced to make good the tax; it ſhall be lawful for the collectors, conſtables, or tythingmen, of the pariſh, to enter and diſtrain upon the lands and houſes, when there ſhall be any diſtreſſes found; and the diſtreſs (if not redeemed within four days) to ſell; and the ſaid collector, &c. is to diſtribute the money raiſed to the parties who contribute to the tax. ſ. 40.

Where any wood lands are aſſeſſed, and no diſtreſs can be had, it ſhall be lawful for any collector, conſtable, headborough, or tythingman, by warrant of two commiſſioners at ſeaſonable times to cut and ſell ſo much of the wood (timber trees excepted) as ſhall pay the aſſeſſment, and the charge incident thereunto; and it ſhall be lawful for the perſons to whom ſuch wood is ſold, to fell and carry away the ſame, rendering the overplus (if any) to the owner. ſ. 41.

Where any tax is charged on any tithes, tolls, profits of markets, fairs, or fiſheries, or other annual profits not diſtrainable, in caſe the ſame be not paid within ſix days after ſuch aſſeſſment charged or demanded, it ſhall be lawful for the collector or other officer appointed by warrant of two commiſſioners to ſeize and ſell ſo much of the ſaid tithes, &c. as is ſufficient for the levying the tax. ſ. 42.

If any ſuch receiver-general return into the exchequer any ſums to be in arrear after the ſame have been received, or cauſe any perſons or places to be ſet inſuper, for any ſums received, ſuch receiver-general ſhall pay to every perſon damaged treble the damage, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. and ſhall alſo forfeit to his majeſty double the ſum ſo unjuſtly returned. ſ. 43.

The commiſſioners ſhall tax every aſſeſſor. ſ. 44.

No perſon inhabiting in any city, &c. ſhall be compelled to be an aſſeſſor or collector out of the ſaid city, borough, or town corporate. ſ. 45.

Every aſſeſſment in reſpect of any tenement which an ambaſſador or public miniſter of any foreign ſtate occupies, ſhall be paid by the landlord. ſ. 46.

In all privileged and other places, being extraparochial, or not within the precincts of the aſſeſſors, and in all pariſhes where two ſufficient inhabitants cannot be found, the commiſſioners, or two of them, ſhall nominate perſons living in or near the ſaid places to be aſſeſſors; and alſo appoint collectors. ſ. 47.

No commiſſioner, aſſeſſor, or collector, ſhall be liable to any penalties other than ſuch as by this act are inflicted. ſ. 48.

No perſon ſhall be capable of acting as a commiſſioner until he ſhall have taken the oaths appointed by 1 Geo. 1. c. 13. and 6 Geo. 3. (ſee OATHS.) which it ſhall be lawful for any two commiſſioners to adminiſter to any other commiſſioners. ſ. 49.

If any commiſſioner preſume to act before he has taken the oaths, he ſhall forfeit to his majeſty 200 l. ſ. 50.

Every perſon aſſeſſed for his office ſhall be rated where the ſame is exerciſed. ſ. 51.

The right honourable the maſter of the rolls, the maſters in chancery, ſix clerks, clerks of the petty-bag, examiners, regiſters, clerks of the inrolments, clerks of the affidavit and ſubpœna offices, and all other officers of the court of chancery, that execute their offices within the liberty of the rolls, ſhall there be aſſeſſed; and all annuities payable to officers in reſpect of their offices, ſhall be aſſeſſed where ſuch officers are aſſeſſed for their offices; and all other annuities not charged upon lands, ſhall be aſſeſſed in the places where they are payable; and every perſon rated in reſpect of any perſonal eſtate ſhall be rated where he reſides; and if any perſon who ought to be taxed in reſpect of his perſonal eſtate be out of the realm ſuch perſon ſhall be rated where he was laſt abiding within this realm. ſ. 52.

Where any perſon has goods in any county other than the county where he reſides, it ſhall be lawful at any time before the 24th of Auguſt 1790, to aſſeſs ſuch perſon for ſuch goods in any county where the ſame be; and every perſon aſſeſſed for any manors, &c. ſhall be aſſeſſed where ſuch premiſſes lie. ſ. 53.

If any perſon be doubly charged, then upon certificate made by any two commiſſioners for the place of his laſt reſidence, of the ſum charged upon him (which the commiſſioners are required to give without fee) and upon oath made of ſuch certificate before any juſtice of peace of the place where the certificates are made, the perſon ſo doubly charged ſhall, for ſo much as is ſo certified, be diſcharged in every other county. ſ. 54.

This act ſhall not extend to the inhabitants of Scotland, Ireland, Jerſey, or Guernſey, for aſſeſſing any ſuch perſonal eſtate, which they have within thoſe places, for the ſaid ſum hereby charged upon England, Wales, and Berwick; and if any perſon that ought to be taxed in England, &c. for his perſonal eſtate, by changing his reſidence or other fraud, eſcape from the taxation, and the ſame be proved before the commiſſioners, or before one juſtice of peace of the county where ſuch perſon reſideth, at any time within one year after ſuch tax made, every perſon ſo eſcaping ſhall be charged at treble the value as he ought to have been; the ſaid treble value, upon certificate made into the exchequer by the commiſſioners or juſtices, to be levied on the goods and lands of ſuch perſons. ſ. 55.

Every houſeholder ſhall upon demand of the aſſeſſors give an account of the names and qualities of ſuch perſons as lodge in their houſes, under the penalty of forfeiting to his majeſty 5 l. to be levied as any other penalty in this act mentioned. ſ. 56.

Every perſon having any ſhare in the New River, or in the Thames water-works, or in Marybone, or in Hampſtead water-works, and every perſon, having any ſhare in any office for inſuring houſes in caſes of fire, or in any lights, or in the King's Printing Houſe, ſhall pay 4 s. for every 20 s. of the yearly value; and they, and all companies of merchants in London, and the bank of England, and all ſalaries and penſions (taxable in London) payable at the general poſt-office and exciſe-office, ſhall be aſſeſſed by the commiſſioners for the ſaid city, and the ſame ſhall be paid by the governors, treaſurers, or receivers of the ſaid offices and ſtocks, and be deducted out of their next dividend; and every perſon having any ſalary in reſpect of any office exerciſed in the ward of London where the poſt-office is ſituated, ſhall be aſſeſſed in the ſame ward. ſ. 57.

So often as any of the ſaid governors, treaſurers, or receivers of the ſaid offices or ſtocks neglect to pay the ſums whereat the perſons having ſhares in the ſaid offices or ſtocks are aſſeſſed, it ſhall be lawful for the collectors, or any of them to levy the ſum ſo aſſeſſed by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods jointly belonging to the perſons who have ſuch ſhares. ſ. 58.

Every reputed papiſt of the age of 18 years who has not taken the oaths required by 1 Will. & Mar. c. 8. ſhall pay double. ſ. 59.

Provided that if any ſuch papiſt, within ten days after the firſt meeting of the commiſſioners in the places where he ought to be taxed, take the ſaid oaths before two commiſſioners, he ſhall not be doubly aſſeſſed. ſ. 60.

Every perſon of the age of 18 years, who has not taken the oaths, and upon ſummons of two commiſſioners refuſes to take the oaths, or neglects to appear in order to take the oaths, ſhall pay double. ſ. 61.

Any two commiſſioners, upon information or upon any cauſe of ſuſpicion, ſhall cauſe every perſon ſuſpected to be ſummoned to take the ſaid oaths. ſ. 62.

It ſhall be ſufficient for quakers to make the declaration of fidelity contained in 1 Will. & Mar. ſt 1. c. 18. ſ. 63.

Where any aſſeſſors required to make double aſſeſſments upon papiſts or others, for not taking the oaths, neglect to do their duty, the commiſſioners, or two of them, ſhall cauſe ſuch papiſts, &c. to be doubly charged. ſ. 64.

Where the owners of any lands are liable to be doubly charged as papiſts, &c. ſuch owners only ſhall be charged with with the double rates, and tenants are diſcharged of the ſame, any covenant for payment of taxes notwithſtanding. ſ. 65.

There ſhall be kept in his majeſty's exchequer, in the office of the auditor of the receipt, one regiſter, in which all the money paid into the exchequer for the duties hereby granted, ſhall be entered apart from all other monies. ſ. 112.

Where any office of profit is executed by deputy, ſuch deputy ſhall pay ſuch aſſeſſment, and deduct the ſame out of the profits; and in caſe of non-payment, ſuch deputy ſhall be liable to ſuch diſtreſs as is preſcribed againſt any perſon enjoying any office of profit; and there ſhall be the like remedies for recovering the monies aſſeſſed upon any ſuch office to the land tax for the year 1706, and for any ſubſequent year not yet ſatisfied, in all caſes where the accounts of thoſe years are not otherwiſe cleared in the exchequer. ſ. 113.

At every time and place appointed by the commiſſioners for the collectors to pay in the monies to the receiver general, the receiver general, or his deputy, ſhall deliver a liſt to ſuch perſon as the commiſſioners, or three of them, appoint, containing the ſums then or before paid by the reſpective collectors. And in caſe there be any neglect in delivering ſuch liſt, ſuch receiver general or his deputy ſhall forfeit not exceeding 20*l.* to be impoſed by any three commiſſioners, to be anſwered into the receipt of exchequer. ſ. 114.

Where any perſons, who, in purſuance of any former act for granting an aid to queen Anne, or his late majeſty, or his preſent majeſty, by a land tax, diſtrain the goods of any collector on non-payment of money, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſons making ſuch diſtreſs, out of the money ariſing by the ſale of ſuch goods, to keep in their hands ſo much money, as the commiſſioners, or two of them, (who order ſuch diſtreſs) judge reaſonable for making ſuch diſtreſs, as alſo for the charges. ſ. 115.

No receiver ſhall in any accounts (unleſs ſuch account be declared and paſſed in the exchequer within two years after the 24th of March 1790), be allowed to charge any county or place for any monies in arrear, but the ſame ſhall remain a debt upon ſuch receiver. ſ. 116.

Upon every ſuch writ of diſtringas hereafter to be iſſued upon any ſuch inſuper, the ſheriff or other officer ſhall return iſſues after the rate of 5*l.* at leaſt for every 100*l.* of the ſum ſet inſuper; which iſſues ſo returned ſhall be forthwith drawn down into the great roll of the pipe; and proceſs, according to the courſe of the exchequer, ſhall iſſue for levying the ſame at the firſt general iſſuing of proceſs for his majeſty; unleſs the treaſury, or chancellor of the exchequer, or barons of the exchequer, or one of them, order the drawing down ſuch iſſues into the pipe, or the iſſuing ſuch proceſs, to be reſpited. ſ. 117.

The perſons who receive the profits of the water-works in Shrewſbury, ſhall be charged with the tax, and ſhall be allowed the ſame on their accounts. ſ. 118.

Where in purſuance of the acts for the land tax, in the reign of queen Anne, king George the firſt, and his preſent majeſty, ſeveral pariſhes have been diſcharged by the exchequer, of certain overplus ſums, wherewith they were overburthened, by reaſon of double taxes formerly charged; the eaſe ſo given ſhall accrue only to the reſpective pariſhes formerly overburthened, and ſhall not leſſen the proportions to be raiſed in any other place. ſ. 119.

Where the lands of a whole pariſh are charged with more than 4*s.* in the pound, becauſe the eſtates of papiſts and others, formerly doubly taxed, by their taking the oaths, or the being come to proteſtants, are liable only to a ſingle aſſeſſment, it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners of the diviſion, or two of them, upon complaint, to examine into the matter, and at any time before the 29th of Sept. 1790, to certify to the barons of exchequer, the names of ſuch perſons, and how much their double tax did amount to, and how much the ſum charged upon the lands in ſuch place, by occaſion of their being now liable to a ſingle aſſeſſment, doth exceed 4*s.* in the pound; and the barons of the exchequer, or two of them, are to enquire, by the oaths of two witneſſes, concerning the truth of the certificates; and they have power at any time before the laſt day of Nov. 1790, to diſcharge the overplus charged upon ſuch place; and the ſaid overplus may be diſcharged upon the duplicates to be returned for ſuch place, and ſhall be allowed upon the account of the receivers general; and ſuch place ſo diſcharged by the barons, and no others, ſhall have the benefit of the ſums ſo diſcharged; and no officer ſhall take any fee for ſuch diſcharge, which certificate, or a copy thereof, whereby the ſaid places have been diſcharged by the barons of the exchequer, ſhall be produced by the perſons claiming the benefit thereof to the commiſſioners at their next general meeting. ſ. 120.

It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners within any diviſion, (other than ſuch commiſſioners as have been collectors of the land tax there), to iſſue their precepts to ſuch collectors, who are ſuſpected to have received any money, by any acts which within ſeven years have been made, for granting a land tax, and to have converted the ſame to their own uſe; and if ſuch collectors be dead, then to iſſue ſuch precept to their heirs, executors, or adminiſtrators, requiring ſuch collectors, their heirs, &c. to appear before the commiſſioners; and upon their appearances or default, the commiſſioners ſhall have power to enquire by examination of witneſſes upon oath, or any other lawful ways, what ſums the collectors did convert to their own uſe; and to iſſue their warrants requiring ſuch collectors, &c. to pay the ſame to his majeſty's uſe, viz. in caſe there be any deficiency remaining upon ſuch pariſh, &c. ſuch deficiency ſhall be ſatisfied; and where there is no deficiency, or there be an overplus more than ſufficient to diſcharge ſuch deficiency, the commiſſioners ſhall require the monies ſo found, found, to be paid to the receiver general, towards diſcharging ſo much of the proportions to be charged on ſuch pariſh by this act. ſ. 121.

Such payments ſhall be ſufficient diſcharges to the collectors. ſ. 122.

If any ſuch collector neglect to pay according to ſuch order of the commiſſioners, the commiſſioners, or two of them, are authoriſed to impriſon ſuch collector, till payment, and to ſecure the eſtate as well freehold as copyhold, and all other eſtate real and perſonal of ſuch collector; and the commiſſioners ſhall appoint a time for a general meeting, and cauſe public notice to be given ſix days before ſuch meeting; and the commiſſioners at ſuch meeting are to ſell ſuch eſtates, and ſatisfy the ſum detained in the hands of ſuch collectors. ſ. 123.

The commiſſioners ſhall cauſe the monies in arrear, upon former land taxes, to be re-aſſeſſed, and anſwered. ſ. 124.

No receiver general, his agents or ſervants, ſhall maintain any action againſt any hundred for their being robbed of the ſaid monies, unleſs the perſons carrying ſuch monies be in company, three at leaſt, to atteſt the truth of their being robbed. ſ. 115.

Tolls for repairing the roads, ſhall not be liable to be rated by this act, and the perſons employed in collecting ſuch tolls and repairing ſuch roads, ſhall not be liable to be taxed by reaſon of their ſaid employments. ſ. 126.

Where the commiſſioners, or five of them, ſhall ſuſpect that the aſſeſſors have in fraud of any pariſh ſince the 6th of May 1717, been omitted to be charged for their own eſtates, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch commiſſioners, before the 29th Sept. 1790, to ſummon and examine ſuch aſſeſſors or any other perſons upon oath; and the commiſſioners ſhall compute the wrong which ſuch pariſh hath ſuſtained, and award ſatisfaction; and by warrant cauſe the ſums to be levied upon the perſons, or the executors, or adminiſtrators of the perſons, ſo omitted to be charged; which ſums ſhall be paid to the collectors, to the end the pariſhes may be eaſed to this preſent aid, or to the next aid. ſ. 127.

Such commiſſioners as are to tranſmit the duplicates in the king's remembrancer's office ſhall diſtinguiſh the groſs ſum payable in every diviſion for double taxes. ſ. 128.

The ſum to be raiſed by the town of Cambridge ſhall be levied by rating all lands, woods, fiſhings, and ſluices, upon the river Cam alias Grant, and all other hereditaments in the ſaid town and precincts thereof; and eſtates in goods belonging to the ſaid town, or any the members of the ſame, except as in this act before is excepted. ſ. 129.

The collectors ſhall demand the entire ſum aſſeſſed for the whole year on fairs, and the booths and ſtandings in the ſame, from the parties who ſet to ſale any goods or otherwiſe occupy the ſame, or elſe upon the premiſes charged with ſuch aſſeſſments, at any time within ſeven days after the firſt proclaiming of ſuch fairs: and in default of payment ſhall levy the ſum aſſeſſed by diſtreſs and ſale of goods found in the ſaid booths. ſ. 130.

The collectors ſhall have all ſuch power of making diſtreſs as is hereby given to collectors in other caſes; and the tenants of ſuch booths and ſtandings are to pay ſuch money rated thereon, and to deduct the ſame out of the rent payable to their landlords. ſ. 131.—Any part of this act may be repealed this ſeſſion. ſ. 132.

The ſum of 47954*l.* 1*s.* 2*d.* by this act granted, ſhall be raiſed in Scotland, by an eight months ceſs of 5994*l.* 5*s.* 1*d*$\frac{3}{4}$.; the ſaid ceſs to be raiſed out of the land rent of Scotland, according to the monthly proportions within the reſpective ſhires, ſtewartries, cities, and boroughs in the act expreſſed. ſ. 133.

The proportion of the boroughs in Scotland ſhall be rated as their tax roll is ſettled by themſelves. ſ. 134.

The ſaid new ſupply in Scotland is to be paid at the terms following, viz. the two firſt months on or before the 24th of June 1790; the ſecond two months ceſs on or before the 29th of Sept. 1790; the third two-months ceſs on or before the 25th of Dec. 1790; and the remaining two-months ceſs on or before the 25th of March 1791. ſ. 135.

The perſons named in the land-tax acts of 26 & 27 Geo. 3. or ſuch of them who have qualified or ſhall qualify themſelves, according to the laws of Scotland, ſhall be commiſſioners for raiſing the ſupplies in Scotland for the ſame ſhires and ſtewartries reſpectively; and the ſaid commiſſioners have power to chooſe their clerk, and to do every thing concerning the ſaid ſupply, as is preſcribed by the ceſs act of the ſixth of Nov. 1706, and other acts made in any former parliament of Scotland, to which the ſaid act doth relate. ſ. 136.

Execution ſhall be done in Scotland for bringing in the ſaid ſupply, as is provided by the ſame acts; and the firſt meeting of commiſſioners of ſhires ſhall be at the reſpective head burghs the 30th of April 1790; and the ſheriffs and ſtewarts, or their deputies, ſhall intimate the ſame to the commiſſioners, with power to the commiſſioners to appoint the ſubſequent diets and their conveners, as alſo to appoint collectors, with ſuch caution as they think fit. ſ. 137.

All clauſes in former acts of parliament of Scotland, in relation to the bringing in of the ceſs, and quartering, and touching riding money, ſhall ſtand in force as to the ſupply now impoſed. ſ. 138.

No perſon, whether heretor or collector, liable in payment of the ſaid ſupply ſhall be holden to produce the receipts of the ſame, after three years, unleſs diligence be done therefore by denunciation within three years; in which caſe one year farther is added. ſ. 139.

Every debtor owing money at ſix per cent. ſhall in the payment of his annual rents have retention of a ſixth part of ſix per cent. and this retention to be from the 11th of Nov. 1789, to the 11th of Nov. 1790; and it ſhall be uſury for any creditor to refuſe to grant the ſaid retention. ſ. 140.

The ſaid ſum of of 47,954*l.* 1*s.* 2*d.* ſhall be raiſed in Scotland, in the reſpective ſhires, ſtewartries, cities, and boroughs, free of all charges to his majeſty, and ſhall be paid at Edinburgh, to ſuch perſons as the treaſury ſhall appoint. ſ. 141.

No commiſſioner within any county in Scotland, ſhall be capable to be a commiſſioner of the land tax, who is not infeoft in ſuperiority or property, or poſſeſſed as proprietor or life-renter of lands valued in the tax-roll of the county to 100*l.* Scots per annum, except the eldeſt ſons and heirs apparent of perſons ſo infeoft; and every perſon who ſhall act as a commiſſioner, without being ſo infeoft, &c. ſhall forfeit 20*l.* ſterling for every ſuch acting, to be recovered by action, complaint, or petition, in a ſummary way, at the ſuit of any heretor within the county, before the county or ſtewart court, or before the lords of ſeſſion; and in caſe of any ſuch ſuit, the perſon complained of ſhall be obliged to prove that he is infeoft, &c. or otherwiſe ſhall forfeit the penalty without any proof on the plaintiff's part, other than that the perſon complained of hath taken upon him to act as a commiſſioner. ſ. 142.

Every

Every commiſſioner in Scotland ſhall, before his acting, take and ſubſcribe the oaths of allegiance and abjuration, and ſubſcribe the aſſurance appointed to be taken by perſons in offices of truſt in Scotland, upon pain of forfeiting 20*l.* ſterling; which oaths any two commiſſioners may adminiſter. ſ. 143.

Provided that any provoſt, baillie, dean of guild, treaſurer, maſter of the merchants company, or deacon convener of the trades of any royal borough, and any baillie of any borough of regality, or barony, herein named a commiſſioner in any county, ſhall be capable of acting. And it ſhall not be lawful for the court of ſeſſion, or any other courts or magiſtrates in Scotland, to grant any ſtay to the bringing in of the ſaid ſupply. ſ. 144.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſons to lend to his majeſty not exceeding two millions, upon the credit of the rates by this act granted. See EXCHEQUER. ſ. 145.

Offices and Penſions.

By 7 Geo. 1. ſtat. 1. c. 27. ſ. 19. and 12 Geo. 1. c. 2. ſ. 1. His majeſty, by warrant under the great or privy ſeal, or ſign manual, may cauſe a deduction to be made, not exceeding 6*d.* in the pound, out of all monies which ſhall be paid for penſions and annuities charged upon any of the hereditary or temporary duties; and for all ſalaries, fees, and wages, payable for offices of profit, granted by or derived from the crown, and for all other payments from the crown whatſoever; the pay of commiſſion and non-commiſſion officers and private men in the navy or army only excepted.

By 31 Geo. 2. c. 22. There ſhall be yearly paid, 1*s.* above all other duties, for every 20*s.* of the yearly value of all ſalaries, fees, and perquiſites, received for all offices and employments of profit in Great Britain; and 1*s.* for every 20*s.* of all penſions and other gratuities payable out of any revenue belonging to his majeſty in Great Britain, exceeding the value of 100*l. per annum*.

A deduction ſhall be made of the ſaid ſum of 1*s.* out of every 20*s.* payable for the ſalary or fees of any offices payable by the crown in Great Britain which exceed 100*l. per annum*, and for any penſion or gratuity payable out any revenue belonging to his majeſty in Great Britain, of exceeding 100*l. per annum*, and the money ſo deducted by the officers of the exchequer in England, ſhall remain there for the purpoſes herein after declared; and the monies ſo deducted by any officer of the duchies of Lancaſter and Cornwall, or by any other perſons by whom the ſaid ſalaries and penſions are payable in England, ſhall be by them paid into the receipt of the exchequer at Weſtminſter; and the money ſo deducted by any officers of the exchequer in Scotland, or by any other perſons by whom the ſaid ſalaries, &c. are payable in Scotland, ſhall be paid at Edinburgh, to ſuch perſons as the commiſſioners of the treaſury appoint to be receiver general, or receivers thereof for his majeſty's uſe, who ſhall pay the ſame into the receipt of the exchequer at Weſtminſter; and the officers of the exchequer are to keep diſtinct accounts of all ſums by them retained or received for the ſaid duty. ſ. 2.—See 32 Geo. 2. c. 33. ſ. 1 & 2.

Such part of the ſums hereby granted, as are payable for the profits of any office in England, Wales, and Berwick, which ariſe from perquiſites, ſhall be computed and paid according to the annual value at which ſuch profits ſtand valued in the laſt aſſeſſment to the land tax. ſ. 3. See 32 Geo. 2. c. 33. ſ. 5.

Provided that ſuch profits ariſing from ſuch perquiſites be deemed to have been valued in ſuch laſt aſſeſſment to the land tax at ſo much only as the entire ſum at which ſuch office was valued in the ſaid aſſeſſment, exceeds the amount of the ſalary, wages, or fees, payable in reſpect of the ſame office. ſ. 4.

The commiſſioners of the land tax for the time being, within England, Wales, and Berwick, ſhall be commiſſioners for putting ſo much of this act in execution as relates to the duty upon the perquiſites of offices in England, &c. ſ. 5.

The commiſſioners ſhall meet at the uſual places within each of the counties, &c. yearly on or before 3d July, and afterwards as often as neceſſary; and ſo many as be preſent ſhall, if they ſee cauſe, ſubdivide themſelves and the other commiſſioners not preſent, ſo as three may be appointed for the ſervice of each hundred; nevertheleſs not thereby to reſtrain any of them from acting as commiſſioners in any other part of the county; and the ſaid comiſſioners within the hundreds, &c. are at ſuch general meeting, or within eight days after, to ſet down in writing the amount of the duty, to be paid by all commiſſioners or other officers, their clerks, agents, ſecondaries, ſubſtitutes, and other inferior miniſters and perſons, having any of the ſaid offices or employments, the ſalary, wages, fees, and perquiſites whereof exceed 100*l. per annum*, within their hundreds, &c. in proportion to the laſt aſſeſſment to the land tax; and the ſaid commiſſioners, or three, are within the time above limited, to ſign and ſeal two duplicates of the rates, and one of them to deliver to the collectors of the land tax, or two reſponſible perſons, to be collectors of this duty for each pariſh, with warrant to collect ſuch rates, ſo as the ſame may be paid to the receiver general, at the times herein limited. And if any perſon think himſelf aggrieved, by being over-rated, ſuch perſon may appeal to the barons of the exchequer, and the barons, or one of them, ſhall determine ſuch appeals before the laſt day of Michaelmas term yearly. And the collectors are, upon the application of any perſon who thinks himſelf over-rated, to permit ſuch perſon to inſpect the duplicates without fee: and every perſon intending to appeal ſhall give notice thereof in writing, to one of the collectors; and all appeals once determined by the barons, ſhall be final. The commiſſioners are to deliver a ſchedule in parchment, under their hands and ſeals, containing the whole ſum rated within each pariſh, &c. unto the receiver general of each county, &c. and ſhall tranſmit a like ſchedule into the king's remembrancer's office of the exchequer; and this the commiſſioners ſhall cauſe to be done before the firſt day of Hilary Term, or within 20 days after (all appeals being firſt determined) for which duplicates the remembrancer, or his deputy, ſhall give a receipt gratis. ſ. 6.

The ſaid duty ſhall (ſave as herein otherwiſe provided) be raiſed as the land tax. ſ. 7.

The perquiſites of any offices ſhall pay and be rated in ſuch county in which the ſame were laſt aſſeſſed. ſ. 10.

The firſt half-yearly payment of the aſſeſſments ſhall be paid unto the receivers general of the counties, &c. before 10th Oct. and the laſt before the 5th April yearly. ſ. 11.

Every receiver general in England, &c. within one month after he has received the full ſum charged within any diviſion for ſuch payment, ſhall give to ſuch commiſſioners as act in ſuch diviſion, a receipt under his hand and ſeal, which ſhall be a diſcharge to each diviſion; which receivers general are, within 20 days after the receipt of any money of the duties by this act granted, to tranſmit the money into the receipt of the exchequer. ſ. 12.

If any collector ſhall keep in his hands any money, longer than by this act is directed (other than the allowance made to him), or pay any part thereof to any perſon other than the receiver general of ſuch county, ſuch collector ſhall forfeit 40*l.*; and in caſe any receiver general or deputy, pay any part of the monies paid to him, other than into the exchequer, and within the times limited, or pay any part by any warrant of the treaſury, or under-treaſurer, or upon any tally of pro, or tally of anticipation, or other way, whereby to divert the payment thereof into the exchequer, ſuch receiver general ſhall, for every offence of himſelf or his deputy, forfeit 500*l.* to him that ſhall ſue in any court of record, by bill, &c. ſ. 13.

The commiſſioners of ſupply, for raiſing the land tax within Scotland, ſhall be commiſſioners for levying the duty within the ſame, and ſhall put in execution this act, and have power to chuſe their own clerk, and to do every thing concerning the ſupply, as is preſcribed by the ceſs act of 6th Nov. 1706, and other acts of any former parliament of Scotland, to which the ſaid act of 6th Nov. 1706, doth relate. ſ. 14.

Execution ſhall be done in Scotland for bringing the ſaid duty to be raiſed there, as provided by the ſame acts in all points not altered by this act; and the firſt meeting of the commiſſioners for ſhires in Scotland, ſhall be at the head burghs the ſecond Monday in July in every year; and the ſheriffs, or their deputies, ſhall intimate the ſame to the commiſſioners, with power to the commiſſioners to appoint the ſubſequent diets of their meetings and their conveners, and alſo to appoint collectors with ſuch caution as they think fit. ſ. 15.

All clauſes in former acts of parliament of Scotland, and convention of eſtates there, in relation to the bringing in of the ceſs, and quartering, and touching riding money, ſhall ſtand in force, as to the ſupply now impoſed upon Scotland. ſ. 16.

The clerk of the ſheriff's court in each ſhire in Scotland, ſhall yearly, on or before 10 June, deliver to the commiſſioners of ſupply for ſuch ſhire, a liſt of all offices of profit exerciſed in ſuch ſhire, and in every burgh within the ſame; and ſhall within the time aforeſaid deliver a duplicate of ſuch liſt to the deputy remembrancer of the exchequer in Scotland; and in caſe any clerk of the ſheriff's court neglect to deliver ſuch liſt or the duplicate thereof, within the time before mentioned, or wilfully omit out of ſuch liſts or duplicate any office that ought to have been inſerted, he ſhall forfeit 50*l.* ſterling. ſ. 17.

The commiſſioners ſhall yearly, on or before 10 July, ſet down in a rate prepared by them, the annual value of every office exerciſed in ſuch ſhire, and in every burgh within the ſame; and therein rate the ſaid ſum of 1*s.* for every 20*s.* of the annual value on the officers and perſons who execute any ſuch office, the ſalary and perquiſites whereof exceed 100*l.* per annum; and in caſe the ſaid commiſſioners of ſupply for any ſhire in Scotland neglect to make ſuch rate within the time limited, the ſheriff depute of the county ſhall on or before 25 July yearly make ſuch rate; and a note of the ſaid reſpective rates ſhall within ſix days after the perfecting thereof be lodged by the clerk of the commiſſioners, or the ſaid ſheriff depute reſpectively, in the hands of the collector of the ceſs or land tax for each county and burgh within Scotland, who ſhall be collector thereof; and every ſuch collector and his cautioners, or ſecurity, ſhall be bound ipſo facto by virtue of this act, for the due performance by ſuch collector, of all parts of the duty hereby committed to him in reſpect of the ſaid rates, and that under the penalty of 100*l.* ſterling; and every ſuch collector of the ceſs ſhall be intitled to an allowance from the receiver-general of 3*d.* per pound of the money by him paid to ſuch receiver-general; and the perſons ſo rated with the ſaid duty on their offices, ſhall pay in the duty on or before the 10th of October yearly, for the half year betwixt Whitſunday and Martinmas, and on or before the 5th of April yearly, for the half year betwixt Martinmas and Whitſunday, to the collector of the ceſs perſonally, or at his office for receiving the land tax; unleſs ſuch perſon enter an appeal againſt the aſſeſſment, in which caſe ſuch appeal ſhall be diſcuſſed before payment, and in caſe of appeal, ſuch payment ſhall be made within ten days after diſcuſſing or diſmiſſing ſuch appeal; and every perſon ſo rated ſhall, in caſe of his not paying in the duties to the collector of the ceſs, upon the day upon which he is to pay the ſame, or within three days after, forfeit treble the value. ſ. 18.

Perſons aſſeſſed, in caſe they conceive themſelves injured by the aſſeſſment, or of the collectors or other officer of the crown, if he judges the crown to be leaſed by the aſſeſſment, may appeal to the barons of the exchequer in Scotland, who are to determine finally all ſuch appeals on or before the laſt day of the term of Martinmas yearly; and every ſuch appellant ſhall, within ten days after the note in writing of his charge being delivered to him, or left at his houſe by the collector, by himſelf or ſome other perſon on his behalf, deliver to the collector of the ceſs at his office a note of the grievance, whereof he ſeeks redreſs by appeal; and ſuch collector is to make an entry of all ſuch notices. ſ. 19.

In caſe the party giving ſuch notice of appeal neglect to inſiſt thereon before the ſaid barons within the time before limited, then ſuch appeal ſhall be held to be fallen from, and the aſſeſſment ſhall ſtand in force; and in all caſes of appeals fallen from, or upon hearing whereof the barons vary not the rate, the barons ſhall order the appellant to pay to the collector any ſum not exceeding 20*s.* ſterling for coſts. ſ. 20.

Every perſon aſſeſſed for any office in Scotland, ſhall be rated and pay in the ſhire where the ſame is exerciſed, although the profits ariſing by ſuch office are payable elſewhere. ſ. 21.

The money impoſed on offices in Scotland, ſhall be raiſed in Scotland in the reſpective ſhires, ſtewartries, cities, and boroughs, free of all charges to his majeſty, ſave as is herein before mentioned; and ſhall be paid at Edinburgh to ſuch perſons as the commiſſioners of the treaſury appoint to be receiver-general or receivers thereof, for his majeſty's uſe; which receivers ſhall be accountable for the ſame in the exchequer. ſ. 22.

Where any perſon ſhall have two or more offices in Great Britain, the ſalary and perquiſites whereof together exceed 100*l.* a year, ſuch perſon ſhall be rated and pay the ſaid ſum of 1*s.* in the pound for the profits of ſuch offices. ſ. 23.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the pay of commiſſion or non-commiſſion officers or private men ſerving in the navy or army. ſ. 24.

No commiſſioner of the land tax in England, &c. or commiſſioner of the ſupply in Scotland, poſſeſſed of any office ſubject to the duty hereby impoſed, ſhall act in rating his own office, but ſhall withdraw until the rating thereof be ſettled by the reſt of the commiſſioners preſent; and in default thereof the reſt of the commiſſioners preſent ſhall impoſe ſuch fine as to them is thought fit, upon ſuch commiſſioner miſſioner ſo refuſing to withdraw, or acting in his own cauſe, not exceeding 100 l. ſterling; and cauſe the ſame to be levied as other fines impoſed by this act are to be levied in England and Scotland reſpectively. ſ. 25.

Where any fees, ſalaries, or other profits on any offices charged by this act, are payable at the receipt of the exchequer, or by the cofferer of his majeſty's houſhold, or out of any other public office, or by any of his majeſty's receivers or paymaſters in Great Britain, the duty charged in reſpect of ſuch offices ſhall (in caſe of nonpayment) be ſtopped out of the ſame, or out of any money paid upon ſuch ſalaries or profits, or for arrears thereof, and be applied to the ſatisfaction of the duties not otherwiſe paid; and the proper officers in the exchequer, and other public offices, ſhall keep accounts of all monies ſtopped, and upon requeſt give copies of ſuch accounts to the collectors for the reſpective pariſhes where the ſaid monies are rated by this act. ſ. 26.

Where any office chargeable by this act is executed by deputy, ſuch deputy ſhall pay the aſſeſſment charged thereon, and deduct the ſame out of the profits of ſuch office; and in caſe of nonpayment ſuch deputy ſhall be liable to ſuch diſtreſs as by this act is preſcribed againſt any perſon having any office of profit, and to all other remedies and penalties. ſ. 27.

There ſhall be kept in the exchequer, viz. in the office of the auditor of the receipt, one book of regiſter, in which all the money paid into the exchequer for the duties on offices and penſions hereby granted, ſhall be entered diſtinct from all other monies. ſ. 28.

All penalties, triple values and forfeitures, incurred by this act in Scotland, ſhall be recovered at the ſuit of the reſpective collectors by diſtraining or poynding, according to the law of Scotland, upon warrants granted and ſubſcribed by any two commiſſioners for ſupply, or by the ſheriff, or deputy ſheriff, of the county from whom ſuch warrants are required, and they are reſpectively to grant the ſame under the penalty of 10 l. ſterling toties quoties, upon certificate made to them, or either of them, by the collector of the ceſs, that ſuch penalties are incurred, and ſuch duties not paid; which warrants ſhall be executed by the conſtables or ſheriff officers of the county; and the goods poynded ſhall be valued by any two perſons appointed by the ſheriff officer or conſtable, which two perſons ſhall be obliged to value the ſame, under the penalty of 40 s. ſterling for each neglect; which valuation ſhall be made upon the ground, or at the houſe where the ſame were poynded, and ſhall be ſold at the value by the officer or conſtable who does poynd, and the value to be applied, in the firſt place to the ſatisfaction of the duty triple value or penalty, and in the ſecond place, to the payment for the trouble of the officer or conſtable ſo poynding, at the rate of 2 s. per pound of the forfeitures for which the goods be poynded; unleſs the owner redeem the ſame by payment of the appraiſed value within four days after the poynding and valuation to the officer who poynded the ſame; and in caſe any ſurplus remain, ſuch ſurplus ſhall be returned to the owner; and in caſe no purchaſer appear at the ſale, the ſaid goods ſo poynded ſhall be conſigned and lodged in the hands of the ſheriff depute of the county or his ſubſtitute; and if not redeemed by the owner within four days after the conſignment, the ſame ſhall be rouped and ſold by order of the ſheriff, at ſuch time and place as he appoints; he always being liable to the payment of the triple value of the penalty incurred to the collector of the ceſs, and to the officer or conſtable who poynded the ſame for their trouble, in caſe the value of the goods ſo ſold amount to the extent of the penalties incurred and to the fees due to the officer or conſtable, and ſhall be in the third place intitled to 1 s. per pound of the value for his own trouble, after allowance of the penalties and of what is to be paid to the officer or conſtable ſo poynding, the expence of preſerving the goods or cattle ſo poynded during the four days allowed to the owner to redeem them, and the expence of the ſale; and the expence ſhall be allowed to the ſheriff for preſerving the goods or cattle diſtrained during the four days that the owner is allowed to redeem after conſignment in his hands, as alſo the expence of the ſale. ſ. 29.

The officer or conſtable who diſpoſes of ſuch goods or cattle ſo poynded and ſold, ſhall pay in the ſums ariſing from the ſale, in ſo far as extends to the penalties for which the ſame were poynded, within ten days after the receipt of the price, allowing what is above allowed for his own expence; and if the goods or cattle diſtrained be diſpoſed of by the ſheriff, he ſhall within four days after receipt of the price, pay in the ſame to the collector of the ceſs, after deduction of what is to be paid to the officer or conſtable who made the poynding, and of what is allowed to be retained by him, and ſhall remain liable to the collector of the ceſs until payment, and ſubject to be poynded and diſtrained therefore in the ſame manner as is above provided with regard to any perſon liable to penalties in virtue of this act. ſ. 30.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. he ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. ult.

By 32 Geo. 2. c. 33. All ſums due, and deducted by virtue of 31 Geo. 2. c. 22. in reſpect of ſalaries or fees of offices in England, &c. ſhall by the perſons deducting the ſame be paid into the hands of receivers, appointed by his majeſty, and it ſhall be lawful for ſuch receivers to retain out of the monies ſo paid into their hands ſuch ſum for their trouble as his majeſty ſhall appoint, not exceeding 3 d. in the pound; and the ſaid receivers ſhall give ſecurity for their good behaviour, by bond in ſuch penalty and with ſuch ſureties as the commiſſioners of the treaſury think fit; and the payments of the ſums ſo deducted ſhall be made to ſuch receivers in the courſe of the quarter wherein they be deducted; and ſuch receivers ſhall, within the next enſuing quarter, pay the ſame into the receipt of the exchequer at Weſtminſter: and the perſons making the deductions are required, at the requeſt of ſuch receivers, to deliver to them an account of all the ſalaries and penſions by the ſaid perſons payable, and of the names of the perſons intitled to the ſame; of which accounts the receivers are to enter copies in books to be by them kept. ſ. 1.

All ſums deducted in England, &c. for the duties payable for the ſalaries, &c. ſhall be accounted for to ſuch receivers as ſhall be in purſuance of this act, &c. appointed by his majeſty; and the accounts ſhall be audited and paſſed by ſuch receivers, or one of them, and not by the auditors of the impreſts or exchequer. ſ. 2.

If any diſpute ariſe whether the fees or ſalary of any office, or whether any penſion be chargeable, or touching the ſum to be deducted, ſuch diſputes ſhall be heard by the barons of the exchequer in England, or in Scotland reſpectively; and ſuch hearing is to be given on the complaint in writing before the barons, either by the party who thinks himſelf aggrieved, or by the receiver. ſ. 3.

The complainant ſhall give a copy of his complaint to the perſon againſt whom the ſame is made, within ten days after the ſame is lodged with the barons; and the barons in England and Scotland reſpectively ſhall determine ſuch diſputes in a ſummary way, and their determination ſhall be binding without further appeal. ſ. 4.

The commiſſioners of the land tax for the time being ſhall aſcertain, according to their judgment, the amount of the perquiſites ariſing from every office within their reſpective diſtricts, diſtinct from the ſalary fees and wages, independently of any former valuation; and ſhall aſſeſs all ſuch offices whereof the perquiſites exceed 100 l. a year, at 1 s. for every 20 s. ariſing by the ſaid offices. ſ. 5.

The receivers ſhall tranſmit to the commiſſioners of the land tax in every diſtrict where any office is to be aſſeſſed, an account of all ſuch offices whereof the fees and ſalaries do not exceed 100 l. a year; and if the ſaid commiſſioners find the perquiſites ariſing from the ſaid office, with the ſalary, &c. as certified by ſuch receivers, to exceed together 100 l. a year, then they are to aſſeſs ſuch office, and to cauſe the duty to be levied thereon. ſ. 6.

In all future aſſeſſments to the land tax, the ſaid offices ſhall not be aſſeſſed at any higher rates than thoſe whereat the ſame were aſſeſſed in the 31ſt year of his preſent majeſty's reign. ſ. 7.

The word perquiſites in the 31 Geo. 2. c. 22. and in this act, ſhall for the purpoſes of the ſaid act, and of this act, be taken for ſuch profits of offices and employments in Great Britain, as ariſe from fees eſtabliſhed by cuſtom or authority, and payable either by the crown or the ſubjects, in conſideration of buſineſs done in the courſe of executing ſuch offices. ſ. 8.

Whereas in 31 Geo. 2. c. 22. ſ. 25. it is provided, that no commiſſioner of the land tax in England, &c. or of ſupply in Scotland, poſſeſſed of any office ſubject to the duty, ſhall act in rating his own office; nothing in this or in the ſaid act ſhall extend to any ſuch commiſſioner, for making or ſigning any aſſeſſment in purſuance of the ſaid act or of this act, provided ſuch commiſſioner withdraw until the rating of his own office ſhall be ſettled. ſ. 9.

The duty of 1 s. in the pound charged by the ſaid act upon penſions ſhall not be charged on, or payable out of, ſuch penſions or gratuities, which his majeſty ſhall be pleaſed to declare in the inſtrument directing payment thereof to be intended as charitable donations. ſ. 10.

Nothing in the ſaid act ſhall extend to the charging the ſaid duty upon any military officers ſerving on the ſtaff, or belonging to any of his majeſty's garriſons, regiments, troops, companies, the royal hoſpital of Chelſea, or the hoſpitals of the army. ſ. 11.

The ſaid act, or this act, ſhall not charge any penſion or ſum iſſuing out of, or charged upon, any revenues belonging to his majeſty in Great Britain, that have been by his majeſty's royal predeceſſors, or by act of parliament granted in fee or fee-tail, or till redeemed by payment of any ſum of money mentioned in any grant or act of parliament. ſ. 12.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge any offices in either of the two univerſities in England. ſ. 13.

By 5 Geo. 3. c. 40. The receivers-general of the duties in Scotland may retain in their hands, out of the monies received, ſuch money as his majeſty may appoint, not exceeding 3 d. in the pound; and by 9 Geo. 3. c. 41. a further ſum not exceeding 100 l. per ann. as a compenſation for their trouble.

Servants.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 43. ſ. 3. There ſhall be paid throughout Great Britain, by every perſon who ſhall retain or employ any male ſervant, the yearly ſums following, viz.

For one, 1 l. 5 s.
Two, 1 l. 5 s. each:
Three, and not more than four, 1 l. 10 s. each:
Five, and not more than ſeven, 1 l. 15 s. each:
Eight, and not more than ten, 2 l. each:
And for eleven, and upwards, 3 l. each:
And every male perſon, of the age of 21 years and upwards, never having been married, who ſhall employ any male ſervant, ſhall pay the annual ſum of 1 l. 5 s. for each male ſervant, over the duties before mentioned.

The ſaid duties ſhall be payable for every male ſervant who ſhall be employed in any of the following capacities, viz. maitre d'hotel, houſe-ſteward, maſter of the horſe, groom of the chamber, valet de chambre, butler, under-butler, clerk of the kitchen, confectioner, cook, houſe-porter, footman, running footman, coachman, groom, poſtillion, ſtable-boy, and the reſpective helpers in the ſtables of ſuch coachman, groom, or poſtillion, gardener (not being a day labourer), park-keeper, game-keeper, huntſman or whipper-in, waiters in taverns, coffee-houſes, inns, ale-houſes, or any other houſes licenſed to ſell wine, ale, or other liquors by retail (other than occaſional waiters) or by whatſoever names, male ſervants really acting in any of the ſaid capacities ſhall be called, or whether ſuch male ſervants ſhall be employed in one or more of the ſaid capacities, or in any other buſineſs jointly with the ſame. ſ. 4.

And there ſhall alſo be paid by every perſon who ſhall employ any female ſervant, the duties following, viz. ſ. 5.

Every perſon who ſhall employ one, ſhall, for ſuch female ſervant, pay annually 2 s. 6 d.
For two, 5 s. each:
Three or more, 10 s. each:
And every male perſon, of the age of 21 years and upwards, never having been married, who ſhall employ one female ſervant, and not more, ſhall, for ſuch ſervant, pay annually 2 s. 6 d. above the duty for one:
Employing two, for each 5 s. above the duty of 5 s. before mentioned:
And employing three or more female ſervants, ſhall for each pay annually 10 s. above the duty of 10 s. before mentioned.

The duties ſhall not extend to any male or female ſervant employed bona fide for the purpoſes of huſbandry, farmers, dairy, or manufacture, or of any trade (other than waiters, as aforeſaid) by which the maſter ſhall earn a livelihood. ſ. 6.

The duty for every coachman, groom, poſtillion, or helper, let out to hire by way of job, ſhall be paid by the maſter, for whoſe uſe ſuch coachman ſhall be employed; and the duty for every gardener, retained by any perſon who ſhall contract for the keeping of any garden, ſhall be paid by the perſon for whoſe uſe and in whoſe garden ſuch gardener ſhall be employed. ſ. 7.

Nothing in this act ſhall exempt any perſon from the payment of any of the duties, in reſpect of any ſervant employed in any of the capacities aforeſaid, on account that ſuch ſervant is bound as an apprentice to ſuch perſon, except ſuch apprentices as are impoſed upon any maſter, under the powers given to magiſtrates and pariſh officers by act of parliament, ſo as the number of ſuch apprentices, impoſed upon any maſter, does not exceed two: and nothing herein ſhall exempt any ſuch apprentices who are employed as livery ſervants. ſ. 8.

This act ſhall not charge with any of the duties, the butler, ler, manciple, cooks, gardeners, or porters, of any college or hall within either of the univerſities of Oxford or Cambridge, or the univerſities of Edinburgh, Glaſgow, Aberdeen, or Saint Andrew, in Scotland, or of the colleges of Weſtminſter, Eaton, or Wincheſter; or the ſervants of his majeſty, or any of the royal family; or of any ambaſſador or foreign miniſter reſiding in Great Britain. ſ. 9.

Nothing herein ſhall charge with any of the duties any of the royal hoſpitals of Chriſt, Saint Bartholomew, Bridewell, Bethlem, Saint Thomas, in the city of London and borough of Southwark, or Guy's, or the Foundling hoſpital. ſ. 10.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge with the duty any officer ſerving in any regiment of horſe or dragoons, under the rank, or not receiving the pay of a field officer, provided he retains no more than one ſervant; nor any officer ſerving in any regiment of artillery, infantry, or marines, or corps of engineers, for any ſervant who is actually a ſoldier in the regiment to which ſuch officer ſhall belong; nor any officer in his majeſty's navy, under the rank of a maſter and commander in actual employ, for any ſervant who is borne upon the books of the ſhip to which ſuch officer ſhall belong. ſ. 11.

Where any officer on half pay from the navy, army, or marines, diſabled by loſs of a limb, or wound received in ſervice, ſhall be charged for the duty for one male ſervant only, it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners, on an appeal to them by ſuch officer, and proof on oath made that he is an officer on half pay, and diſabled, to the ſatisfaction of the commiſſioners, to make an abatement of the whole duty from the charge againſt ſuch officer. ſ. 12.

Nothing in this act ſhall ſubject any maſter to the payment of any of the duties for any female ſervant who ſhall be retained by him, where it ſhall be made appear, by an extract from the regiſter of the births kept in the pariſh, where ſuch ſervant was born, that at the time of the aſſeſſment ſhe ſhall be under 14, or above 60 years. ſ. 14.

Duties to be collected by ſuch perſons, and paid into the exchequer under ſuch penalties, &c. as are appointed for the duties on houſes and windows, by 20 Geo. 2. c. 3. and c. 42.—21 Geo. 2. c. 10.—26 Geo. 2. c. 17.—31 Geo. 2. c. 22.—6 Geo. 3. c. 38.—19 Geo. 3. c. 59.—and 24 Geo. 3. c. 38. ſ. 15.

Commiſſioners of the aforementioned duties on houſes, &c. to put this act in execution; and ſhall meet yearly at ſuch time as the commiſſioners think proper, on or before 30 April; and ſhall then divide themſelves to act in ſeparate diſtricts, and proceed in the execution of this act, for aſſeſſing the duties in the ſame manner as is preſcribed by the acts relative to the duties on houſes and windows. ſ. 16.

Two commiſſioners, on default of meeting on the day above mentioned, may meet afterwards, &c. ſ. 17.

No perſon ſhall act as a commiſſioner (except in adminiſtering the oath after expreſſed) until he ſhall have taken the oaths requiſite to qualify him for acting as a commiſſioner of the duties on houſes and windows, and alſo the following oath:

I A. B. do ſwear, That I will truly and faithfully execute the office of a commiſſioner, according to an act made in the 25th year of king GEORGE the third, to repeal the duties on male ſervants, and for granting new duties on male and female ſervants; and that I will determine upon all appeals which ſhall be brought before me under the ſaid act, according to the beſt of my ſkill and knowledge.

So help me GOD.

Which two commiſſioners are to adminiſter; and if any perſon ſhall act before he ſhall have taken ſuch oaths, he ſhall forfeit 100 l. ſ. 18.

The duties ſhall be made for one year, from the 5 April in every year. ſ. 19.

The duties ſhall be paid quarterly, on the 5 Jan. 5 April, 5 July, and 10 October, in every year, by equal portions. ſ. 20.

If aſſeſſors neglect their duty, ſurveyors, &c. may perform the ſame. ſ. 22.

Every aſſeſſor, or ſurveyor or inſpector, authorized to act as an aſſeſſor, ſhall, before he preſumes to act, take (beſides the oaths or affirmations relative to the duties on houſes and windows) an oath, or make and ſubſcribe a ſolemn affirmation, in the following form:

I A. B. do ſwear, (or affirm, as the caſe may require) That in the aſſeſſment which I am required to make by authority of an act made in the 25th year of king GEORGE the third, to repeal the duties on male ſervants, and for charging new duties upon male and female ſervants, I will act according to the beſt of my ſkill and knowledge.

So help me GOD.

Which two commiſſioners are to adminiſter; and if any aſſeſſor ſhall preſume to act before he ſhall have taken the ſaid oath or affirmation, he ſhall forfeit 20 l. ſ. 23.

The commiſſioners ſhall, in the precepts directed by them to the inhabitants of pariſhes, naming aſſeſſors under the acts relative to the duties on houſes and windows, cauſe notice to be inſerted, that ſuch perſons are alſo appointed aſſeſſors of the duties granted by this act. ſ. 24.

Aſſeſſors ſhall, within 14 days after appointment yearly, give notice in writing, for every perſon keeping any male or female ſervant at his houſe, to produce, within 14 days next enſuing the day of giving ſuch notice, ſeparate liſts in writing of his male and female ſervants, ſuch liſt to deſcribe the chriſtian and ſurname of each ſervant, and the capacity in which each ſhall have been employed, and to contain the greateſt number, male and female, retained at any one time in the courſe of the year ending 5 April preceding; and ſuch perſon ſhall, after ſuch notice, make out the liſts, and ſign the ſame with his own name, and deliver the ſame to ſuch aſſeſſors, who are to call for the ſame: And if ſuch perſon ſhall neglect to make out, ſign, and deliver ſuch liſts, then ſuch aſſeſſors ſhall, from information, make an aſſeſſment upon ſuch perſon, for the ſervants liable to duties kept by him; and ſuch aſſeſſment ſhall be final on the perſon charged, who ſhall not be at liberty to appeal therefrom, unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall prove that he was not at his houſe at the time of the delivery of ſuch notice, nor between that day and the time limited for delivering ſuch liſt to the aſſeſſor; or unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall prove ſuch other excuſe as the commiſſioners ſhall think reaſonable. ſ. 25.

The remaining clauſes are the ſame as thoſe in 25 Geo. 3. c. 47. from the 22d ſec. incluſive, mutatis mutandis, which clauſes ſee in page 638, ante.

Every penalty of a greater ſum than 20 l. ſhall be recovered in any court of record at Weſtminſter, if the matter ſhall ariſe within England or Wales, or Berwick, or in the court of ſeſſion, court of juſticiary, or court of exchequer in Scotland, if the matter ſhall ariſe in that kingdom, by action of debt, &c. and one moiety ſhall belong to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall inform. ſ. 42.

Where the penalty doth not exceed 20 l. it ſhall be recoverable coverable before two juſtices, on proof of the offence, either by confeſſion of the party, or by the oath of one witneſs; and one moiety ſhall belong to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the informer; and in caſe of nonpayment, ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hands and ſeals of ſuch juſtices; and the overplus, after deducting the penalty, and expences of diſtreſs and ſale, ſhall be rendered to the owner; and, for want of diſtreſs, the offender ſhall be ſent by ſuch juſtices to the priſon of ſuch county, for not exceeding ſix months, nor leſs than one. ſ. 43.

All conſtables ſhall be aiding in the execution of this act, and obey ſuch precepts as ſhall be to them directed by the commiſſioners, or three of them. ſ. 44.

All actions for any offence againſt this act, ſhall be brought within one year; and perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 45.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 70. Every perſon who ſhall have living in their houſes two or more lawful children or grandchildren, under the age of 14 years, ſhall, in reſpect of every two ſuch children, be exempted from the payment of the duties by the ſaid act impoſed for one female ſervant, viz. if any perſon, having two ſuch children, ſhall have one female ſervant, and not more, he ſhall be wholly exempted from the duty thereby impoſed; if any perſon having two ſuch children ſhall have two female ſervants, and not more, he ſhall pay for one female ſervant, at the ſame rate as if he retained only one, and ſo in proportion for any greater number, abating one female ſervant, and lowering the duty in the manner in the ſaid act provided for every two ſuch children.

Tenures.

Stat. quia emptores terrarum, 18 Edw. 1. c. 1. It ſhall be lawful to every freeman to ſell his lands, or part of them, ſo that the feoffee ſhall hold the ſame of the chief lord of the fee, by ſuch ſervice and cuſtoms as his feoffor held.

Stat. quia emptores terrarum, 18 Edw. 1. c. 2. If he ſell any part of ſuch lands, the feoffee ſhall hold it of the chief lord, and ſhall be charged with the ſervices for ſo much as pertaineth to the chief lord for the ſame parcel, according to the quantity of the land ſold; and the ſame part of the ſervice ſhall remain to the lord, to be taken by the hands of the feoffee, for which he ought to be attendant to the ſame chief lord, for the parcel of the ſervice due.

Manner of doing homage. 17 Edw. 2. ſt. 2. When a freeman ſhall do fealty to his lord, he ſhall hold his right hand upon a book, and ſhall ſay thus: "Hear you my "lord R. that I P. ſhall be to you both faithful and true, "and ſhall owe my fidelity unto you, for the land that I "hold of you, and lawfully ſhall do ſuch cuſtoms and ſer"vices as my duty is to you, at the terms aſſigned: So "help me God and all his ſaints."

By 16 Car. 1. c. 20. No perſon ſhall be diſtrained or compelled by any writ or proceſs of the court of chancery or exchequer, or otherwiſe by any means whatſoever, to take upon him the order and dignity of knighthood, nor ſhall ſuffer any fine or moleſtation by colour of his having not taken upon him the ſaid order; and every writ or proceſs, and all proceedings contrary to this act, ſhall be void. ſ. 2.

By 12 Car. 2. c. 24. The court of wards and liveries, and all wardſhips, liveries, primer ſeiſins and ouſterlemains, values, and forfeitures of marriages, by reaſon of any tenure of the king, or of any other by knights ſervice, and all mean rates, and all other gifts, grants, charges, incident or ariſing for wardſhips, liveries, primer ſeiſins, or ouſterlemains, ſhall be taken away. And all fines for alienations, ſeizures, and pardons for alienations, tenures by homage, and all charges incident or ariſing, for wardſhip, livery, primer ſeiſin, or ouſterlemain, or tenure by knights ſervice, eſcuage, and alſo aide pur file marier, and pur faire fitz chivalier, ſhall be taken away. And all tenures by knights ſervice of the king, or of any other perſon, and by knights ſervice in capite, and by ſocage in capite, of the king, and the fruits thereof, ſhall be taken away. And all tenures of any honours, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, held either of the king or of any other perſon, ſhall be turned into free and common ſocage. ſ. 1.

The ſame ſhall forever be diſcharged of all tenure by homage, eſcuage, voyages royal, and charges for the ſame, wardſhips incident to tenure by knights ſervice, and values and forfeitures of marriage, and all other charges incident to tenure by knights ſervice, and of aide pur file marier, and aide pur faire fitz chivalier. ſ. 2.

All tenures to be created by the king, of any eſtate of inheritance by the common law, ſhall be in free and common ſocage only, and not by knights ſervice, or in capite, and ſhall be diſcharged of all wardſhip, value, and forfeiture of marriage, livery, primer ſeiſin, ouſterlemain aide pur faire fitz chivalier, and pur file marier. ſ. 4.

Provided that this act ſhall not take away any rents certain, heriots, or ſuits of court, incident to any former tenure now taken away, or other ſervices incident to tenure in common ſocage, or the fealty and diſtreſſes incident thereunto. And ſuch relief ſhall be paid in reſpect of ſuch rents, as in caſe of a death of a tenant in common ſocage. ſ. 5.

Any thing herein ſhall not take away any fines for alienation due by particular cuſtoms of particular manors and places, other than fines for alienation of lands holden immediately of the king in capite. ſ. 6.

This act ſhall not take away tenures in frank almoign, or ſubject them to greater ſervices; nor alter any tenure by copy of court roll, or any ſervices incident thereunto; nor take away the honorary ſervices of grand ſerjeantry, other than of wardſhip, marriage, &c. ſ. 7.

This act ſhall not infringe any title of honour, feodal or other, by which any perſon may have right to ſit in the lords houſe of parliament. ſ. 11.—Confirmed 13 Car. 2. ſt. 1. c. 7.

Theatres, and Places of public Entertainment.

By 3 Jac. 1. c. 21. If any perſon ſhall, in any ſtage play, interlude, ſhew, maygame, or pageant, jeſtingly and profanely uſe the name of God, or of Chriſt Jeſus, or of the Holy Ghoſt, or of the Trinity, he ſhall forfeit 10*l.* one moiety to the king, the other moiety to him that will ſue for the ſame in any court of record at Weſtminſter.

By 10 Geo. 2. c. 19. All perſons who ſhall for gain exhibit any ſtage play, interlude, ſhew, opera, or other theatrical or dramatical performance, or act any part or aſſiſt therein, within the precinct of either of the univerſities, ties, or within five miles of the city of Oxford, or town of Cambridge, ſhall be deemed rogues and vagabonds; and it ſhall be lawful for the chancellor of either of the univerſities, or the vice-chancellor, or his deputy, to commit ſuch perſons to any houſe of correction within the counties of Cambridge or Oxford, reſpectively, to be kept to hard labour for one month, or to the common gaol of the city or county of Oxford, or town or county of Cambridge reſpectively, for one month, any licence or other privilege notwithſtanding.

By 10 Geo. 2. c. 28. Every perſon who ſhall for gain act or repreſent any interlude, tragedy, comedy, opera, play, farce, or other entertainment of the ſtage, or any part therein, in caſe ſuch perſon ſhall not have any legal ſettlement in the place where the ſame ſhall be acted, without authority of letters patent from his majeſty, or without licence from the lord chamberlain of his majeſty's houſehold, ſhall be deemed a rogue and a vagabond within the act 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 23.—ſ. 1.

If any perſon, having or not having a legal ſettlement, ſhall, without ſuch authority or licenſe, act or repreſent for gain, any interlude, &c. ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 50*l.* and in caſe the ſaid 50*l.* ſhall be paid or recovered, ſuch offender ſhall not for the ſame offence ſuffer any of the penalties inflicted by the ſaid act. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall for gain, act or repreſent any new interlude, &c. or any new act, ſcene, or other part, added to any old interlude, &c. or any new prologue or epilogue, unleſs a copy thereof be ſent to the lord chamberlain 14 days before the repreſenting thereof, with an account of the place where, and the time when the ſame is intended to be firſt repreſented, ſigned by one of the maſters of ſuch playhouſe, &c. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for the lord chamberlain, when he ſhall think fit, to prohibit the repreſenting any interlude, &c. or any part thereof, or any prologue or epilogue; and in caſe any perſon ſhall for gain act or repreſent any new interlude, &c. before a copy thereof ſhall be ſent as aforeſaid, or ſhall for gain act or repreſent any interlude, &c. contrary to ſuch prohibition; every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 50*l.*, and every licenſe or authority by which the managers ſet up ſuch playhouſes or company ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 4.

No perſons ſhall be authoriſed by any letters patent, or by the licenſe of the lord chamberlain, to act or repreſent for gain any interlude, &c. in any part of Great Britain, except in the city of Weſtminſter, and in ſuch places wherein his majeſty ſhall in perſon reſide, during ſuch reſidence only. ſ. 5.

The pecuniary penalties inflicted by this act, for offences committed within England, Wales, and Berwick, ſhall be recovered in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter; and for offences committed in Scotland, by action or ſummary complaint before the court of ſeſſion or juſticiary, or for offences committed in any part of Great Britain, in a ſummary way before two juſtices of peace, by the oath of one witneſs, or confeſſion of the offender, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and for want of diſtreſs the offender ſhall be committed to any houſe of correction, for any time not exceeding ſix months, to be kept to hard labour, or to the common gaol of ſuch county, &c. for any time not exceeding ſix months; and any perſons aggrieved by the order of ſuch juſtices, may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions; and the penalties for any offence againſt this act ſhall belong, one moiety to the informer, the other to the poor of the pariſh. ſ. 6.

If any interlude, &c. ſhall be repreſented in any place where wine, ale, beer, or other liquors, ſhall be ſold or retailed, the ſame ſhall be deemed to be repreſented for gain. ſ. 7.

No perſon ſhall be proſecuted for any offence againſt this act, unleſs ſuch proſecution be commenced within ſix calendar months after the offence committed; and if any ſuit be brought againſt any juſtice of peace, or other perſon, for doing any thing in purſuance of this act, ſuch ſuit ſhall be commenced within ſix calendar months after the act; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict ſhall be for the defendant, &c. he ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 8.

By 25 Geo. 2. c. 36. Made perpetual by 28 Geo. 2. c. 19. ſ. 1. Any houſe, garden, or place, kept for public dancing, muſic, or other public entertainment of the like kind, in London and Weſtminſter, or within 20 miles thereof, without a licenſe from the laſt preceding Michaelmas quarter ſeſſions of the peace, for the county, city, or diviſion, in which ſuch houſe or place is ſituate, under the hands and ſeals of four juſtices there aſſembled, ſhall be deemed a diſorderly houſe or place. And every ſuch licenſe ſhall be ſigned and ſealed by the ſaid juſtices in open court, and afterwards be read publicly by the clerk of the peace, with the names of the juſtices ſubſcribing the ſame; and no ſuch licenſe ſhall be granted at any adjourned ſeſſions; nor ſhall any fee be taken for any ſuch licenſe; and it ſhall be lawful for any ſuch conſtable, or other perſon authoriſed by warrant of a juſtice of peace of the county, diviſion or liberty, where ſuch houſe or place is ſituate, to enter the ſame, and ſeize every perſon found therein, that they may be dealt with according to law. And every perſon keeping ſuch houſe or place without ſuch licenſe, ſhall forfeit 100*l.* to ſuch perſon as will ſue for the ſame, and be otherwiſe puniſhable as in caſes of diſorderly houſes. ſ. 2.

In order to give public notice what places are licenſed purſuant to this act, there ſhall be affixed in ſome notorious place over the entrance of every ſuch houſe or place kept for any of the ſaid purpoſes, and ſo licenſed, an inſcription in large capital letters, in the following words, viz. Licenſed according to act of parliament of the 25th of king George the ſecond. And no ſuch houſe or place, although licenſed, ſhall be open for any of the ſaid purpoſes before five in the afternoon. And the affixing and keeping up ſuch inſcription, and the ſaid reſtriction in point of time ſhall be inſerted in and made conditions of every ſuch licenſe: and in caſe of any breach of either of the ſaid conditions, ſuch licenſe ſhall be forfeited, and be revoked by the juſtices in their next general or quarter ſeſſions, and ſhall not be renewed; nor ſhall any new licenſe be granted to the ſame perſon, or any other perſon on his behalf, or for his uſe, directly or indirectly, for keeping any ſuch houſe or other place for any of the purpoſes aforeſaid. ſ. 3.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the theatres royal in Drury-Lane and Covent-Garden, or the king's theatre in the Haymarket; nor to ſuch performances and public entertainments as ſhall be lawfully carried on by virtue of letters patent, or licenſe of the crown, or of the lord chamberlain of his majeſty's houſehold. ſ. 4.

Any perſon intitled to any of the forfeitures by this act impoſed, may ſue for the ſame by action of debt in any court of record at Weſtminſter, in which it ſhall be ſufficient to declare, that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff in the ſum of —— being forfeited by an act, intitled, An act for the better preventing of theſts and robberies, and for regulating places of public entertainment and puniſhing perſons keeping diſorderly houſes: and the plaintiff if he recover ſhall have his full coſts. ſ. 13.

No action ſhall be brought by virtue of this act, unleſs the ſame be commenced within ſix calendar months after the offence committed. ſ. 14.

By 28 Geo. 3. c. 30. It ſhall be lawful for juſtices, in general or quarter ſeſſion, to grant a licenſe to any perſon, making application by petition, for the performance of ſuch tragedies, comedies, interludes, operas, plays, or farces, as ſhall be repreſented at either of the patent or licenſed theatres in Weſtminſter, or as ſhall in manner preſcribed by law, have been ſubmitted to the inſpection of the lord chamberlain, at any place within their juriſdictions, or within any city, town, or place, within the limits of the ſame, for not exceeding 60 days, to commence within the then next ſix months, and to be within ſuch four months as ſhall be ſpecified in the licenſe, ſo as there be only one licenſe in uſe at the ſame time within the juriſdiction ſo given, and ſo as ſuch place be not within 20 miles of London, Weſtminſter, or Edinburgh, or eight miles of any patent or licenſed theatre, or 10 miles of the reſidence of his majeſty, or of any place within the ſame juriſdiction, at which, within ſix months preceding, a licenſe under this act ſhall have been had and exerciſed, or within 14 miles of either of the univerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, or within two miles of the outward limits of any city or place, having peculiar juriſdiction; and ſo alſo as no licenſe ſhall have been had and exerciſed at the ſame place within eight months then next preceding. ſ. 1.

No ſuch licenſe ſhall be granted by the juſtices to be exerciſed within any city or place, having peculiar juriſdiction, unleſs proof ſhall be made, that the majority of juſtices acting for ſuch peculiar juriſdiction, have, at a public meeting, ſigned their conſent to the ſaid application, or unleſs an expreſs condition ſhall be therein inſerted, that the ſame ſhall not be valid until it ſhall have been approved by the majority of the juſtices of ſuch peculiar juriſdiction, at a meeting holden expreſsly for taking the ſame into conſideration. ſ. 2.

No ſuch licenſe ſhall be granted by the juſtices within any city, town, or place, unleſs notice ſhall have been given by the perſon applying for ſuch licenſe, at leaſt three weeks before ſuch application, to the mayor, bailiff, or other chief civil officer of ſuch city, of his intending to make ſuch application. ſ. 3.

Tithes.

By 18 Edw. 3. ſt. 3. c. 7. Writs of ſcire facias ſhall not be granted to warn prelates and other clerks, to anſwer of tithes in the chancery; ſaving to the king his right.

By 45 Edw. 3. c. 3. A prohibition ſhall be granted, and upon the ſame an attachment, in caſe where great wood is ſold of the age of 20 or 40 years, or of greater age, and the parſons ſue the merchants that buy the ſame in the court chriſtian for the tithe of the wood in the name of ſilva caedua.

By 5 Hen. 4. c. 11. The farmers and occupiers of lands and other poſſeſſions of aliens ſhall pay all manner of tithes thereof due, to the parſons and vicars of holy church, in whoſe pariſhes the lands and poſſeſſions are ſituated, as the law of holy church requireth, notwithſtanding that the lands or poſſeſſions are ſeiſed into the king's hands, and notwithſtanding any prohibition. Qu. If in force ſince the aboliſhing the ſupremacy of the church of Rome.

By 27 Hen. 8. c. 20. Every ſubject of this realm, Ireland and Wales, according to the eccleſiaſtical laws and ordinances of this church of England, and after the laudable uſages and cuſtoms of the pariſh or other place where he dwelleth or occupieth, ſhall pay his tythes, offerings, and other duties of holy church; and for ſubſtractions of any of the ſaid tythes or duties, the parſon, vicar, curate, or other party aggrieved, may by proceſs of the king's eccleſiaſtical laws of the church of England, convent the perſon offending before his ordinary or other competent judge, having authority to hear and determine the right of tythes, and compel the perſon offending to yield their ſaid duties; and in caſe the ordinary, or his commiſſary, or the archdeacon, or his official, or any other competent judge, for any contempt, contumacy, diſobedience, or other miſdemeanor of the defendant, make information and requeſt to any of the king's moſt honourable council, or to the juſtices of peace of the ſhire where ſuch offender dwelleth, to aſſiſt the ordinary or judge to order or reform ſuch perſon in any cauſe before rehearſed; the king's ſaid honourable council, or ſuch two juſtices of peace, whereof one to be of the quorum, ſhall have power to cauſe to be attached the perſon againſt whom ſuch information ſhall be made, and to commit the ſame perſon to ward till he ſhall have found ſurety before any the king's counſellor, or juſtice of peace, to the uſe of the king, to give due obedience to the proceſs, decrees, and ſentences, of the eccleſiaſtical court wherein ſuch ſuit ſhall depend; and the king's ſaid counſellors, or two juſtices of peace, ſhall have power to take and record recognizances and obligations in any cauſe above written. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not extend to any inhabitant of the city of London for any tithe, offering or other eccleſiaſtical duty, to be paid within the ſame city. ſ. 2.

Provided that every party to any ſuch ſuit, may have his lawful action, demand, or proſecution, appeals, prohibitions, and all other lawful defences and remedies in every ſuch ſuit, according to the ſaid eccleſiaſtical laws and ſtatutes of this realm. ſ. 3.

This act ſhall take effect, until the king and ſuch other 32 perſons which his highneſs ſhall appoint for the making of ſuch laws as his highneſs ſhall affirm, to be called the eccleſiaſtical laws of this church of England. ſ. 4.

By 32 Hen. 8. c. 7. All perſons of this realm and other his majeſty's dominions, ſhall truly ſet out or pay all tithes and offerings according to the cuſtoms and uſages of the places where ſuch tithes or duties ſhall grow; and in caſe any perſons, of their ungodly and perverſe will, withhold any tithes or offerings, the parſon, or party eccleſiaſtical, or lay, having cauſe to demand the ſaid tithes or offerings, may convent the perſons offending before the ordinary, his commiſſary, or other competent judge, according to the eccleſiaſtical laws; and the ordinary, &c. having the parties, or their lawful procurators before him, ſhall proceed to the examination, hearing, and determination, of ſuch matter, ordinarily or ſummarily, according to the courſe of the eccleſiaſtical laws. ſ. 2.

In caſe any of the parties appeal from the ſentence of the ordinary, &c. the judge ſhall adjudge to the other party reaſonable coſts, and ſhall compel the party appellant to pay the ſame by compulſory proceſs and cenſures of the laws eccleſiaſtical, taking ſurety of the other party to reſtore the coſts, if the principal cauſe be adjudged againſt him; and ſo every ordinary or judge eccleſiaſtical, ſhall adjudge adjudge coſts to the other party upon every appeal in any ſuit of ſubtraction or detention of tithes, or in any other ſuit concerning the duty of ſuch tithes or offerings. ſ. 3.

If any perſons, after ſentence definitive given againſt them, obſtinately and wilfully refuſe to pay their tithes or duties, or ſuch ſums of money wherein they be condemned for the ſame, two juſtices of peace of the ſhire, whereof one of the quorum, ſhall have authority, upon information, certificate, or complaint, made in writing by the eccleſiaſtical judge that gave the ſentence, to cauſe the party refuſing, to be attached and committed to the next gaol, till he ſhall have found ſurety to the uſe of the king to perform the ſentence. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall be ſued or compelled to pay tithes for any lands which by the laws of this realm are not chargeable with ſuch tithes. ſ. 5.

This act ſhall not bind the inhabitants of London to pay their tithes and offerings within the city otherwiſe than before. ſ. 6.

Where any perſons which ſhall have any eſtate of inheritance, freehold, term, right, or intereſt, in any parſonage, vicarage, portion, penſion, tithes, oblations, or other eccleſiaſtical or ſpiritual profit, made temporal, or admitted to be in temporal hands by the laws of this realm, ſhall be diſſeiſed, or otherwiſe put from their lawful inheritance or intereſt by any perſon claiming title to the ſame; the perſons ſo diſſeiſed, or put from their right, their heirs, wives, and ſuch other to whom ſuch injury ſhall be done, ſhall have their remedy in the king's temporal courts, or other temporal court, as the caſe ſhall require, for the recovery of ſuch inheritance or intereſt, by writs of praecipe quod reddat, aſſiſe of novel diſſeiſin, mortdanceſter, quod ei deforceat, writs of dower, or other writs original, as the caſe ſhall require: and writs of covenant, and other writs for fines and other aſſurances of any ſuch parſonage, vicarage, portion, penſion, or other profit, called eccleſiaſtical or ſpiritual, ſhall be granted in the chancery, as hath been uſed for lands. ſ. 7.

Provided that this act ſhall not give remedy or ſuit in the courts temporal, againſt any perſon which ſhall refuſe to ſet out his tithes, or detain his tithes or offerings. ſ. 8.

By 2 & 3 Edw. 6. c. 13. Every of the king's ſubjects ſhall juſtly, without fraud, ſet out and pay all manner of their predial tithes in kind as they happen, as have been of right paid within forty years before this act, or of right or cuſtom ought to have been paid. And no perſon ſhall carry away any ſuch or like tithes which have been paid within the ſaid forty years, or of right ought to have been paid, in the places titheable, before he hath juſtly ſet forth for the tithe, the tenth part of the ſame, or otherwiſe agreed for the tithes with the parſon, vicars, or other owner or farmer of the tithes, under the pain of treble value of the tithes. ſ. 1.

Whenſoever the ſaid predial tithes ſhall be due, it ſhall be lawful to every party, to whom the tithes ought to be paid, or his ſervant, to ſee their tithes truly ſet forth, and the ſame quietly to carry away; and if any perſon carry away his corn or hay, or other predial tithes, before the tithe be ſet forth, or willingly withdraw his tithes of the ſame, or of ſuch other things whereof predial tithes ought to be paid, or do ſtop the parſon, vicar, owner, or their farmers, to view and carry away their tithes, by reaſon whereof the tithe is loſt or impaired; upon proof thereof made before the ſpiritual judge, or any other judge, to whom heretofore he might have made complaint, the party ſo withdrawing or ſtopping ſhall pay the double value of the tithe ſo taken, loſt or carried away, beſides coſts, to be recovered before the eccleſiaſtical judge, according to the king's eccleſiaſtical laws. ſ. 2.

Every perſon which ſhall have any beaſts or cattle titheable, depaſturing in any waſte or common ground, whereof the pariſh is not certainly known, ſhall pay their tithe for the increaſe of the ſaid cattle to the parſon, owner, or their farmers, of the pariſh or place where the owner of the ſaid cattle inhabiteth. ſ. 3.

No perſon ſhall be ſued, or compelled to pay tithes for any lands, which by the laws of this realm, or by any privilege or preſcription, are not chargeable with ſuch tithes, or that be diſcharged from any compoſition real. ſ. 4.

All ſuch barren heath or waſte ground, other than ſuch as be diſcharged of tithes by act of parliament, which before this time have paid no tithes by reaſon of barrenneſs, and ſhall be improved and converted into arable ground or meadow, ſhall after ſeven years after ſuch improvement pay tithe for the corn and hay growing upon the ſame. ſ. 5.

If any ſuch barren, waſte or heath ground, hath before this time been charged with tithes, and that the ſame be hereafter improved and converted into arable ground or meadow; the owners ſhall, during ſeven years after the improvement, pay ſuch kind of tithe as was paid for the ſame before the improvement. ſ. 6.

Every perſon exerciſing merchandizes, bargaining and ſelling, clothing, handicraft, or other art or faculty, being ſuch perſons, and in ſuch places, as within theſe forty years have uſed to pay perſonal tithes, or of right ought to pay, other than ſuch as be common day-labourers, ſhall yearly at or before Eaſter, pay for his perſonal tithes, the tenth part of his clear gains, his charges and expenſes according to his eſtate or degree to be deducted. ſ. 7.

In all ſuch places where handicraftſmen have uſed to pay their tithes within theſe forty years, the ſame cuſtom ſhall continue. ſ. 8.

If any perſon refuſe to pay his perſonal tithes, it ſhall be lawful to the ordinary of the dioceſe where the party is dwelling, to call the party before him, and examine him by all lawful means, other than the party's own oath, concerning the payment of the ſaid perſonal tithes. ſ. 9.

All perſons, which by the laws of this realm ought to pay their offerings, ſhall yearly pay their offerings to the parſon, vicar, proprietary, or their deputies or farmers, of the pariſhes where they dwell; and that at ſuch four offering days, as heretofore within four years hath been accuſtomed, and in default thereof pay for their ſaid offerings at Eaſter following. ſ. 10.

This act ſhall not extend to any pariſh towards the ſea-coaſts, the commodity whereof conſiſteth chiefly in fiſhing, and have uſed to ſatisfy their tithes by fiſh, but that every ſuch pariſh ſhall pay their tithes as they have of ancient time within this forty years accuſtomed, and ſhall pay their offerings as aforeſaid. ſ. 11.

This act ſhall not extend to the inhabitants of London and Canterbury, nor to any other place that hath uſed to pay their tithes by their houſes. ſ. 12.

If any perſon ſubtract any manner of tithes, obventions, profits, or other duties before-mentioned, he ſhall be ſued in the king's eccleſiaſtical court; and it ſhall not be lawful to the parſon, vicar, owner, or other their farmers, to ſue ſuch freeholders of tithes, or other duties aforeſaid, before any other judge than eccleſiaſtical: and if any archbiſhop, biſhop, chancellor, or other judge eccleſiaſtical, give any ſentence in the aforeſaid cauſes, and (no appeal nor prohibition hanging) the party condemned do not obey the ſentence, it ſhall be lawful to ſuch judge eccleſiaſtical, to excommunicate the party diſobeying; in which ſentence of excommunication, if the party wilfully endure forty days, upon publication thereof in the pariſh church where the party is moſt abiding, the judge eccleſiaſtical may at his pleaſure ſignify to the king, in chancery, the condition of the ſaid party excommunicate, and thereupon require proceſs de excommunicato capiendo. ſ. 13.

If any party for any cauſe before rehearſed ſue for any prohibition in the king's court, the party before any prohibition ſhall be granted, ſhall deliver to ſome of the judges of the court the copy of the libel in the eccleſiaſtical court, ſubſcribed with the hand of the party; and under the copy of the libel ſhall be written the ſuggeſtion, whereof the party demandeth the prohibition: and in caſe the ſuggeſtion by two witneſſes be not proved in the court within ſix months after the prohibition ſhall be granted, the party that is hindred by ſuch prohibition, ſhall upon his requeſt have a conſultation, and ſhall alſo recover double coſts and damages. ſ. 14.

This act ſhall not give any miniſter or judge eccleſiaſtical any juriſdiction to hold plea of any matter contrary to the ſtatute Weſtm. 2. c. 5. the ſtatutes of articuli cleri, circumſpecte agatis, ſilva caedua, the treatiſe de regia prohibitione, nor againſt the ſtatute 1 Edw. 3. c. 20. nor yet hold plea in any matter whereof the king's court ought to have juriſdiction. ſ. 15.

Where ſuch cuſtom hath been in many parts of Wales, that of ſuch goods as hath been given with the marriage of any perſon their tithes have been exacted by the parſons and curates, no ſuch tithes of marriage goods ſhall be exacted. ſ. 16.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 6. made perpetual by 3 Ann. c. 18. For the more eaſy recovery of ſmall tithes, where the ſame do not amount to above the yearly value of 40 s. from any one perſon; every perſon ſhall truly ſet out and pay all ſmall tithes, and compoſitions for the ſame, with all offerings, oblations, and obventions, to the rectors, vicars, and other perſons to whom they ſhall be due, according to the rights, cuſtoms, and preſcriptions uſed within the pariſhes; and if any perſon ſhall ſubtract, or fail in the payment of ſuch ſmall tithes, offerings, &c. twenty days after demand, it ſhall be lawful for the perſons, to whom the ſame ſhall be due, to make their complaint in writing unto two juſtices of peace within that place where the ſame ſhall grow due; neither of which juſtices is to be patron of the church whence the tithes ariſe, nor intereſted in ſuch tithes, &c. ſ. 1.

If any complaint ſhall be brought to two juſtices of peace concerning ſmall tithes, offerings, &c. the juſtices are required to ſummon in writing, by reaſonable warning, every perſon againſt whom complaint ſhall be made; and after his appearance, or upon default of appearance, the ſaid ſummons being proved upon oath, the juſtices ſhall proceed to hear and determine the complaint, and upon the proofs ſhall in writing adjudge the caſe, and give ſuch compenſation upon ſuch tithes, &c. as they ſhall judge reaſonable, and alſo coſts not exceeding 10 s. ſ. 2.

If any perſon ſhall neglect, by ten days after notice, to pay any ſuch ſum, as upon ſuch complaint ſhall by two juſtices be adjudged, the conſtables and church-wardens of the pariſh, or one of them, ſhall by warrant of the ſaid juſtices diſtrain the goods of the party, and after detaining them three days, in caſe the ſum adjudged together with reaſonable charges be not paid, ſhall make public ſale of the ſame. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for all juſtices of peace, in the examination of all matters offered to them by this act, to adminiſter an oath to any witneſs. ſ. 4.

This act ſhall not extend to any tithes, &c. within London, nor to any other city or town corporate where the ſame are ſettled by act of parliament. ſ. 5.

No complaint concerning any ſmall tithes, &c. ſhall be determined by juſtices of peace, unleſs the complaint be made within two years after the ſame tithes, &c. become due. ſ. 6.

Any perſon aggrieved by any judgment given by two juſtices may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions; and if the juſtices then preſent find cauſe to confirm the judgment, they ſhall give coſts againſt the appellant, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and no proceedings by virtue of this act, ſhall be removed, or ſuperſeded by certiorari, or other writ, unleſs the title of ſuch tithes, &c. be in queſtion. ſ. 7.

Where any perſon complained of for ſubtracting ſmall tithes, &c. ſhall before the juſtices inſiſt upon any preſcription, compoſition or modus, agreement or title, and deliver the ſame in writing to the juſtices ſubſcribed by him, and ſhall then give to the party complaining ſecurity to the ſatisfaction of the juſtices, to pay all ſuch coſts and damages, as upon a trial at law ſhall be given againſt him, in caſe the ſaid preſcription, &c. ſhall not be allowed; the juſtices ſhall forbear to give judgment in the matter, and the perſons complaining ſhall be at liberty to proſecute ſuch perſons for their ſubtraction in any other court. ſ. 8.

Every perſon who ſhall by virtue of this act obtain any judgment, or againſt whom any judgment ſhall be obtained, before juſtices of peace for ſmall tithes, &c. ſhall cauſe the judgment to be inrolled at the next quarter-ſeſſion; and the clerk of the peace is required on tender thereof to inrol the ſame; and he ſhall not aſk for the inrolment any fee exceeding 1 s. ſ. 9.

If any perſon againſt whom ſuch judgment ſhall be had, ſhall remove out of the county, &c. after judgment, and before the levying the ſum, the juſtices who made the judgment, or one of them, ſhall certify the ſame to any juſtice of peace of ſuch other county, wherein the perſon ſhall be inhabitant; which juſtice is required, by warrant directed to the conſtables or church-wardens of the place, to levy the ſum adjudged upon the goods of ſuch perſon. ſ. 10.

The juſtices who ſhall hear and determine any of the matters aforeſaid, ſhall have power to give coſts, not exceeding 10 s. to the party proſecuted, if they find the complaint falſe and vexatious; which coſts ſhall be levied in manner aforeſaid. ſ. 12.

If any perſon ſhall be ſued for any thing done in execution of this act, and the plaintiff ſhall diſcontinue, &c. ſuch perſon ſhall recover double coſts. ſ. 13.

Any perſon who ſhall begin any ſuit for recovery of ſmall tithes, &c. in his majeſty's court of exchequer, or in any eccleſiaſtical court, ſhall have no benefit by this act for the ſame matter. ſ. 14.

By 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 16. made perpetual by 1 Geo. 1. c. 26. Every perſon who ſhall ſow hemp or flax, ſhall pay to every parſon, vicar, or impropriator of ſuch pariſh or place, yearly 5 s. for each acre of hemp and flax, before the ſame be carried off the ground; for the recovery of which, the parſon, &c. ſhall have the uſual remedy. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not extend to charge any lands diſcharged by any modus decimandi, ancient compoſition, or otherwiſe. ſ. 2.

Tobacco.

By 12 Car. 2. c. 34. Confirmed by 13 Car. 2. c. 14. No perſon ſhall ſet, plant, improve to grow, make or cure, any tobacco, either in ſeed, plant, or otherwiſe, within England, Wales, Guernſey or Jerſey, or Berwick, or in Ireland, under the penalty of forfeiture of ſuch tobacco, or the value thereof, or of 40 s. for every pole of ground ſo planted, &c. one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any court of record. ſ. 1.

All ſheriffs, juſtices of peace, mayors, bailiffs, and conſtables, upon information made, that there is any tobacco ſet or growing within their precincts, ſhall within ten days cauſe to be burnt, plucked up or deſtroyed, all ſuch tobacco. ſ. 2.

In caſe any ſhall reſiſt any perſons in the execution of this act, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 5 l. in manner aforeſaid. And in caſe any perſon ſhall not pay the money, diſtreſs ſhall be made, and ſale; and in caſe no diſtreſs be found, ſuch party ſhall be committed to the common gaol in the county for two months. ſ. 3.

This act ſhall not extend to the hindring of the planting of tobacco in any phyſic garden of either univerſity, or in any other private garden for phyſic or chirurgery, ſo as the quantity exceed not half of one pole in any one place. ſ. 4.

By 15 Car. 2. c. 7. Every perſon that ſhall ſet, plant, or ſow, any tobacco within England, Wales, Guernſey and Jerſey, Berwick, or Ireland, ſhall, over and above the penalty of the ſaid former act, forfeit 10 l. for every pole of ground that he ſhall ſo plant, ſet or ſow; one-third part to the king, one other third to the uſe of the poor of ſuch pariſh, and the other third part to them that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 18.

In caſe any ſhall reſiſt any perſons in the execution of the ſaid act, 12 Car. 2. c. 34. they ſhall, over and above the penalties therein mentioned, be committed to the common gaol of the county, until they have entred into recognizance to his majeſty, with two ſureties, of 10 l. not to commit the like offence again. ſ. 19.

This act ſhall not extend to the hindrance of planting tobacco in any phyſic-garden of either of the univerſities, or any other private garden for chirurgery, ſo as the quantity exceed not the half of one pole in any one place. ſ. 20.

By 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 26. All juſtices of peace ſhall, a month before every quarter-ſeſſions, iſſue their warrants to all high conſtables, petty conſtables, and tithingmen, requiring them to make diligent ſearch and inquiry, what tobacco is ſown, ſet, planted, growing, curing, cured or made, within their reſpective limits, and by whom; and to make preſentment in writing, upon oath, at the next quarter-ſeſſions, of the names of all ſuch perſons as have ſown, &c. any tobacco, and what quantity of land is, or was ſown, &c. therewith, and who are the immediate tenants or occupiers of the lands planted, who ſhall be deemed planters thereof. ſ. 2.

Which preſentment ſhall be filed by the clerk of the peace, and ſhall be a conviction of all perſons ſo preſented, unleſs ſuch perſons (having notice of ſuch preſentment by delivery of a copy, or by leaving a copy at their place of abode, in the preſence of one witneſs, ten days before the next quarter-ſeſſions), ſhall at the quarter-ſeſſions next after ſuch notice traverſe ſuch preſentment, and find ſureties for the trying ſuch traverſe at the quarter-ſeſſions next after. ſ. 3.

All conſtables, tithingmen, bailiffs, and other public officers, ſhall within fourteen days after warrant from two juſtices of peace, calling to their aſſiſtance ſuch perſons as they ſhall find convenient, pluck up, burn, tear, and deſtroy all tobacco-ſeed, plant, leaf, planted, ſowed, or growing. ſ. 4.

If any tobacco ſhall be ſuffered to grow fourteen days after the receipt of ſuch warrant, ſuch conſtables, &c. ſhall forfeit 5 s. for every pole of ground ſo ſet, planted, or ſowed, one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to them that ſhall ſue for the ſame, in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 5.

In caſe any perſon ſhall neglect to aſſiſt (being required) any conſtable, &c. in the execution of this act, ſuch perſon, upon conviction before two juſtices of peace, ſhall forfeit 5 s. to be levied by warrant from the juſtices by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and in caſe no diſtreſs can be found, ſuch offender ſhall be committed to the common gaol of the county for one week. ſ. 6.

If any perſon ſhall forcibly reſiſt any conſtable, or other perſon, in the execution of this act, ſuch perſon, upon conviction before two juſtices of peace, ſhall forfeit 5 l. to be levied by warrant from the juſtices, by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and in caſe no diſtreſs can be found, ſuch offender ſhall be committed to the common gaol of the county for three months. ſ. 7.

If any action ſhall be proſecuted againſt any perſon for what he ſhall do in purſuance of this act, or either of the before-mentioned acts, ſuch perſon may plead the general iſſue not guilty. ſ. 8.

This act ſhall not extend to the hindering the planting of tobacco in any phyſic garden of either univerſity, or in any other private garden for phyſic or chirurgery, ſo as the quantity exceed not half a pole in one place. ſ. 9.

By 6 Ann. c. 22. It ſhall not be lawful for any commander of any of her majeſty's ſhips of war, or purſer thereof, to ſell or deliver to any of her majeſty's ſeamen or marines on board of ſuch ſhip, any tobacco of the growth of Europe, nor any tobacco mixed with tobacco of the ſaid growth. ſ. 12.

All tobacco to be uſed on board any of her majeſty's ſhips of war in Europe, ſhall be of the growth of the Britiſh plantations which hath paid her majeſty the duties, and been manufactured in Great Britain; upon pain that every commander or purſer who ſhall knowingly offend herein, ſhall forfeit their places, and 3 s. for every pound of tobacco ſo ſold and delivered; one moiety to the queen, and the other moiety to the informer who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 13.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 46. Every perſon who ſhall cut, or procure to be cut, any wallnut leaves, hop leaves, ſycamore leaves, or other leaves or materials (not being tobacco leaves), into the form of any the uſual cuts, which tobacco ſhall be cut into for ſale; or ſhall colour or cure, or procure to be coloured or cured, any ſuch leaves, &c. to make them reſemble tobacco; or ſhall ſell or offer to ſell knowingly any ſuch leaves, &c. mixed or unmixed with tobacco, as if the ſame were tobacco, ſhall forfeit for every pound-weight 5 s. one moiety to his majeſty (bearing the charge of proſecution), and the other to the informer; to be recovered with coſts in any the courts at Weſtminſter, or in the exchequer in Scotland. ſ. 1.

All perſons who ſhall export, or put on board for exportation, any ſuch leaves, &c. or endeavour to obtain a drawback for the ſame as if it were tobacco, ſhall forfeit 5 s. for every pound-weight, over and above all other penalties. ſ. 2.

All leaves, &c. ſo cut, &c. and all utenſils made uſe of in cutting or curing the ſame, may be ſearched for and ſeized by any officer of the cuſtoms, or by any perſons thereto authorized by the treaſury, or the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms in England or Scotland. ſ. 3.

No houſe, &c. ſhall be opened to ſearch for ſuch leaves, &c. but at ſeaſonable hours, and not without a warrant from two juſtices of peace; and ſuch leaves, &c. which ſhall be ſeized within the limits of any port, or within ſix miles of the ſame, ſhall be brought to the next cuſtom-houſe ware-houſe; and if ſeized at a greater diſtance, ſhall be ſecured by order of two juſtices, at the king's charge, till the cauſe of ſuch ſeizure ſhall be determined by the juſtices at the next or ſecond quarter-ſeſſions after ſuch ſeizure; and all ſuch leaves, &c. after condemnation, ſhall be openly burnt at his majeſty's charge. ſ. 4.

All ſervants and labourers imployed in cutting, &c. ſuch leaves, &c. or in vending the ſame, and being convicted by the oath of one perſon, before two juſtices, ſhall by them be committed to the common gaol or houſe of correction, to be kept at hard labour not exceeding ſix months. ſ. 5.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuit, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 6.

If any perſon ſhall make, mix or colour, any ſnuff with oker, umber, or any other colouring (except with water tinged with Venetian red only), or ſhall mix with any ſnuff, any fuſtick or yellow ebony, touchwood, or other wood, or any dirt, ſand or duſt ſifted from tobacco, or knowingly ſell or expoſe to ſale ſuch ſnuff; he ſhall forfeit the ſnuff, and 3 l. for every pound-weight thereof, to be recovered in any court at Weſtminſter, or in the exchequer in Scotland, one moiety to his majeſty, and the other to the proſecutor. ſ. 7.

By 5 Geo. 1. c. 11. The act 1 Geo. 1. c. 46. and all the powers therein ſhall be in force againſt any perſon who ſhall make, mix, or colour, any ſnuff with okers, umber, or other colouring (except water tinged with Venetian red only), or ſhall mix with any ſnuff, fuſtick, or yellow ebony, touchwood, or other wood, or any dirt, ſand, or ſmall tobacco, ſifted from tobacco, called tobacco duſt. ſ. 22. Qu. As to the force of this and the preceding act ſince 29 Geo. 3. c. 6. ſ. 84 and 93. which ſee under EXCISE in PART I. pages 310 and 312.

By 19 Geo. 3. c. 35. So much of 12 Car. 2. and 15 Car. 2. or of any other act made in this kingdom, which prohibits the ſetting, planting, or improving to grow, making, or curing tobacco, either in ſeed, plant, or otherwiſe, in Ireland, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 1.

No tobacco the growth, product, or manufacture of Ireland, ſhall be exported from thence to any port whatſoever out of Ireland, except to Great Britain; under the like ſecurities as are preſcribed in 12 Car. 2. for encouraging and increaſing of ſhipping and navigation, with reſpect to tobacco, and other enumerated goods of the growth, &c. of the Engliſh plantations. ſ. 2.

Tolls.

By 3 Edw. 1. c. 31. Touching them that take outrageous toll in market-towns, if any do ſo in the king's town, let in fee-farm, the king ſhall ſeize into his own hand the franchiſe of the market; and if it be another's town, and the ſame be done by the lords of the town, the king ſhall do in like manner; and if it be done by a bailiff, without the command of his lord, he ſhall reſtore to the plaintiff as much more for the outrageous taking as he had of him, and ſhall have 40 days impriſonment. Touching citizens and burgeſſes to whom the king or his father hath granted murage to encloſe their towns, which take ſuch murage otherwiſe than it was granted, they ſhall loſe their grant for ever, and ſhall be grievouſly amerced.

Treaſon.

By 25 Edw. 3. ſt. 5. c. 2. When a man doth compaſs or imagine the death of the king, or of his wife, or of their eldeſt ſon and heir; or if a man doth violate the king's wife, or the king's eldeſt daughter unmarried, or the wife of the king's eldeſt ſon and heir; or if a man levy war againſt the king in this realm, or be adherent to the king's enemies in his realm, giving to them aid and comfort in the realm or elſewhere, and thereof be probably attainted of open deed by men of his condition; and if any man counterfeit the king's great or privy ſeal, or his money, and if a man bring falſe money into this realm counterfeit to the money of England, knowing the money to be falſe, to merchandize or make payment, in deceit of the king and of his people; and if a man ſlay the chancellor, treaſurer, or the king's juſtices of the one bench or the other, juſtices in eyre, or juſtices of aſſiſe, and all other juſtices aſſigned to hear and determine, being in their places doing their offices; the caſes above rehearſed ought to be judged treaſon, which extendeth to the king and his royal majeſty: and of ſuch treaſon the forfeiture of the eſcheats pertaineth to the king, as well of the lands holden of other as of himſelf. And there is another manner of treaſon, when a ſervant ſlayeth his maſter, or a wife her huſband, or when a man ſecular or religious ſlayeth his prelate to whom he oweth faith and obedience; and of ſuch treaſon the eſcheats ought to pertain to every lord of his own fee. And if any other caſe ſuppoſed treaſon happen before any juſtices, they ſhall tarry without going to judgment till the caſe be ſhewed before the king and his parliament, whether it ought to be judged treaſon or felony. And if any man of this realm ride armed diſcovert or ſecretly, with men of arms, againſt any other to ſlay him, or rob him, or to take him, or keep till he hath made fine or ranſom; it is not the mind of the king, nor his council, that it ſhall be judged treaſon, but it ſhall be judged felony or treſpaſs according to the laws; ſaving to the king the year and the waſte, and the forfeitures of chattels. And writs of ſcire facias ſhall be granted in ſuch caſe againſt the land-tenants without other original, and without allowing any protection.

By 11 Hen. 7. c. 1. No perſons that attend upon the king and ſovereign lord of this land for the time being, in his perſon, and do him true and faithful ſervice of allegiance, or be in other places by his commandment in his wars, within this land or without, for the ſame ſervice of allegiance, ſhall be convict or attaint of high treaſon, or of other offences by act of parliament or otherwiſe, whereby they ſhall forfeit life, lands, poſſeſſions, goods, or other things, but ſhall be for that ſervice diſcharged of any trouble or loſs; and any acts or proceſs contrary to this ordinance ſhall be void; provided that no perſon take any benefit by this act, which ſhall decline from his allegiance.

By

By 26 Hen. 8. c. 13. No offenders in high treaſon ſhall have benefit of ſanctuary. ſ. 3.

If any of the king's ſubjects commit or practice out of this realm any treaſon, ſuch treaſons ſhall be inquired and preſented by the oaths of twelve men, upon good and probable evidence, in ſuch county of this realm, and before ſuch perſons, as it ſhall pleaſe the king to appoint by commiſſion under his great ſeal, in like manner as treaſons committed within this realm; and upon every indictment found of any ſuch treaſons, and certified into the king's bench, like proceſs ſhall be had againſt the offenders as if the treaſon had been found to be done within the realm; and all proceſs of outlawry againſt offenders in treaſon inhabiting out of the realm at the time of the outlawry pronounced ſhall be effectual. ſ. 4.

Every offender convict of high treaſon by preſentment, confeſſion, verdict or proceſs of outlawry, ſhall forfeit to the king all lands which ſuch offender ſhall have of any eſtate of inheritance at the time of ſuch treaſon committed or after; ſaving to every perſon, other than the offenders, their heirs and ſucceſſors, all rights, &c. ſ. 5. Qu. If this act is in force ſince 1 & 2 Phil. & Mar. c. 10.

By 33 Hen. 8. c. 20. If any perſon ſhall commit high treaſon when in good memory, and after confeſſion thereof before any the king's council ſhall fall to lunacy; if it ſhall appear by the teſtimony of four of the king's council, that ſuch perſons at the time of doing their treaſon, and at the time of their confeſſion, were of good memory, the king's commiſſion of oyer and terminer ſhall be awarded; by virtue of which the commiſſioners ſhall inquire of the treaſons; and in the abſence of the perſons indicted, without any arraignment or plea, ſhall ſwear the jury, to try whether the perſons be guilty or not guilty; and if found guilty, they ſhall have ſuch judgment, and ſuffer ſuch pains of death, &c. as in caſes of high treaſon. ſ. 1. But this is repealed by 1 & 2 Phil. & Mar. c. 10. ſ. 1.

If any perſons ſhall be convicted of high treaſon by authority of parliament, or by the common law, and afterwards fall to lunacy, yet they ſhall ſuffer execution; and if any perſon ſhall be attainted of high treaſon by the common law, ſuch attainder ſhall be of as good force as if it had been by authority of parliament. And the king ſhall be adjudged in actual poſſeſſion of the lands and goods of the offenders, which his highneſs ought to have if the attainder had been by authority of parliament, without any office or inquiſition found. ſ. 3.

Saving to all perſons, other than ſuch perſons attainted, and their heirs and perſons claiming by them after the treaſon committed, all right, &c. ſ. 4.

By 35 Hen. 8. c. 2. All treaſons, miſpriſions of treaſons, or concealments of treaſons, committed out of this realm, ſhall be inquired of, heard and determined, before the king's juſtices for pleas to be holden before himſelf, by lawful men of the ſhire where the ſaid bench ſhall fit, or elſe before ſuch commiſſioners, and in ſuch ſhire as ſhall be aſſigned by the king's commiſſion, and by men of the ſame ſhire, in like manner as if ſuch treaſons, &c. had been committed within the ſame ſhire. ſ. 1.

Provided that if any peers be indicted of ſuch treaſons, &c. they ſhall have their trial by their peers in manner accuſtomed. ſ. 2. Qu. If in force ſince 1 & 2 Phil. & Mar. c. 10. See 4 Inſt. 124.

By 1 Edw. 6. c. 12. All offences made treaſon or petit treaſon by any ſtatute are repealed, but only ſuch as were treaſon or petit treaſon by 25 Edw. 3. ſt. 5. c. 2. ſ. 2.

If any perſon by open preaching or expreſs words do affirm, that the king, his heirs or ſucceſſors, kings of this realm, is not, or ought not to be king of England, France and Ireland, or do compaſs or imagine by open preaching or expreſs words to depoſe or deprive the king, his heirs, or ſucceſſors, from their royal eſtate or titles to the realms aforeſaid, or do openly publiſh by expreſs words, that any other perſon than the king, &c. of right ought to be kings of the realms aforeſaid; ſuch offenders being convicted, their aiders, &c. for their firſt offence, ſhall forfeit to the king all their goods, and alſo ſuffer impriſonment at the king's pleaſure. And if any perſon being once convicted, ſhall eftſoons commit any the offences before mentioned, other than ſuch as be expreſſed in 25 Edw. 3. and ſhall be thereof convicted, ſuch offenders, their aiders, &c. for their ſecond offence, ſhall forfeit to the king the whole profits of their lands and ſpiritual promotions for term of life of ſuch offenders, and ſhall alſo forfeit to the king all their goods, and ſuffer during their lives perpetual impriſonment. And if any perſon being two times convicted of the ſame offences, ſhall eftſoons commit any of the ſaid offences to be thereof convicted, ſuch third offence ſhall be judged high treaſon. ſ. 6.

This ſtatute ſhall not repeal any act concerning the counterfeiting the coin, or for the clipping, waſhing, or filing, of the coin, or concerning the bringing into this realm counterfeit money. ſ. 8.

Provided that no perſon ſhall be put to anſwer for any of the offences aboveſaid concerning treaſons by open preaching or words only, unleſs he be accuſed within 30 days after the words ſpoken, if the accuſers be within this realm during the ſpace of 30 days after the offence committed; and if the accuſer ſhall be out of this realm during the ſaid 30 days, the party ſhall be accuſed within ſix months; or elſe the parties, their aiders, &c. not to be impeached; and the accuſation ſhall be made to one of the king's council, or to one of the juſtices of aſſiſe, or juſtices of peace, being of the quorum, or two juſtices of peace within the ſhire where the offence ſhall be committed. ſ. 19.

Concealment or keeping ſecret any high treaſon ſhall be adjudged miſpriſion of treaſon, as heretofore. ſ. 20.

This act ſhall not make any perſon to be offender for calling the French king by the name of the king of France. ſ. 21.

No perſon ſhall be indicted or convicted for any offence of treaſon, petit treaſon, miſpriſion of treaſon, or for any words before ſpecified, for which he ſhall ſuffer pains of death, impriſonment, or forfeiture of goods or lands, unleſs he be accuſed by two lawful witneſſes, or ſhall willingly confeſs the ſame. ſ. 22. All that is made treaſon by this act is repealed by 1 Mar. ſt. 1. c. 1.

By 5 & 6 Edw. 6. c. 11. If any of the king's ſubjects do commit or practice, out of this realm, any the offences by any act now in force made treaſon, ſuch treaſons ſhall be inquired and preſented by the oaths of twelve men, upon probable evidence, in ſuch county, and before ſuch perſons, as it ſhall pleaſe the king to appoint by commiſſion under his great ſeal, in like manner as treaſons committed within this realm; and upon every indictment found of any ſuch treaſons, and certified into the king's bench, like proceſs ſhall be had as if the treaſon had been found to be committed within the realm. ſ. 6.

All proceſs of outlawry againſt offenders in treaſon, being reſiant out of the realm at the time of the outlawry pronounced, ſhall be as effectual as if ſuch offenders had been dwelling within this realm. ſ. 7.

Provided that if the party outlawed ſhall within one year year after the outlawry pronounced, or judgment given upon the outlawry, yield himſelf unto the chief juſtice of England, and offer to traverſe the indictment or appeal whereupon the outlawry ſhall be pronounced, he ſhall be received to the traverſe, and being thereupon found not guilty, he ſhall be acquitted. ſ. 8.

Every offender convict of high treaſon according to the common law, ſhall forfeit to the king all lands which ſuch offender ſhall have of any eſtate of inheritance in his own right at the time of ſuch treaſon committed, or any time after. ſ. 9.

Concealment or keeping ſecret of high treaſon, ſhall be deemed only miſpriſion of treaſon, as heretofore. ſ. 11.

No perſon ſhall be indicted or attainted for any of the offences aforeſaid, or for any treaſons that now be, or hereafter ſhall be, unleſs the offender be accuſed by two lawful accuſers; which at the time of the arraignment of the party, if they be living, ſhall be brought in perſon before the party accuſed, and maintain that, that they have to ſay againſt the party to prove him guilty; unleſs the party ſhall willingly without violence confeſs the ſame: ſaving to every perſon, other than the offenders, and their heirs, and ſuch as claim to their uſes, all rights, &c. ſ. 12.

The wife, whoſe huſband ſhall be attainted of treaſon, ſhall not have dowry of any the lands of the perſon attainted of treaſon. ſ. 13.

The treaſons made by this act are repealed by 1 Mar. ſt. 1. c. 1.

By 1 Mar. ſt. 1. c. 1. No offence being by act of parliament made treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, ſhall be adjudged to be high treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, but only ſuch as be declared treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, by 25 Edw. 3. ſt. 5. c. 2. ſ. 3.

By 1 Mar. ſt. 2. c. 6. If any perſon falſely forge and counterfeit any ſuch kind of coin of gold or ſilver, as is not the proper coin of this realm, and ſhall be current within this realm by the conſent of the queen, or if any perſon do falſely forge, or counterfeit the queen's ſign manual, privy ſignet, or privy ſeal, ſuch offence ſhall be deemed high treaſon. ſ. 2.

By 1 & 2 Phil. & Mar. c. 10. All trials for treaſon ſhall be according to the courſe of the common law; ſaving to every perſon, other than the offenders, all rights, &c. ſ. 8.

Concealment or keeping ſecret of high treaſon ſhall be deemed only miſpriſion of treaſon, as heretofore. ſ. 9.

In caſes of high treaſon concerning coin, or for counterfeiting the queen's ſignet, privy ſeal, great ſeal, or ſignet manual, ſuch manner of trial ſhall be obſerved, as heretofore, by the common law. ſ. 13.

By 1 & 2 Phil. & Mar. c. 11. If any perſon ſhall bring into this realm, or any the dominions of the ſame, any falſe and counterfeit money being current within this realm, knowing the ſame to be falſe and counterfeit, to the intent to utter or make payment with the ſame within this realm, ſuch perſons ſo offending, their counſellors and abettors, ſhall be deemed offenders in high treaſon. ſ. 2.

All perſons that ſhall be accuſed of any offence concerning the impairing, counterfeiting, or forging, of any coin current within this realm, may be indicted, tried or attainted, by ſuch like evidence, and in ſuch manner, as hath been uſed at any time before the firſt year of king Edward 6. ſ. 3.

By 5 Eliz. c. 11. Clipping, waſhing, rounding, or filing, for wicked gain's ſake, of any the monies of this realm, or of the dominions thereof, or of the monies of any other realm ſuffered to be current within this realm, or the dominions thereof by the queen, ſhall be adjudged treaſon; and the offenders, their counſellors, conſenters, and aiders, being convicted, ſhall ſuffer death, and forfeit all their goods, and ſhall alſo forfeit all their lands during their lives only. ſ. 2.

Perſons which have grant to enjoy the forfeitures of lands or goods of men attainted in high treaſon, ſhall have all ſuch forfeitures by force of this act. ſ. 3.

Any attainder by this act ſhall not make any corruption of blood to any the heirs of any ſuch offender, or make the wife loſe her dower. ſ. 4.

If any peer of this realm be indicted of any offence made treaſon by this act, he ſhall have his trial by his peers, as heretofore. ſ. 5.

By 14 Eliz. c. 3. If any perſon falſely forge or counterfeit any ſuch coin of gold or ſilver as is not the coin of this realm, nor permitted to be current, ſuch offence ſhall be deemed miſpriſion of high treaſon; and the offenders, their procurers, &c. being convicted, ſhall be impriſoned, and forfeit ſuch lands and goods, as in caſes of miſpriſion of treaſon for concealment of high treaſon.

By 18 Eliz. c. 1. If any perſon ſhall, for wicked lucre's ſake, impair, diminiſh, falſify, ſcale, or lighten, the proper monies of this realm, or any the dominions thereof, or the monies of any other realms allowed to be current at the time of the offence committed, within this realm or any the dominions of the ſame by proclamation, it ſhall be deemed treaſon, and the offenders, their counſellors, &c. being convicted, ſhall ſuffer death, and forfeit all their goods, and ſhall alſo forfeit to the queen all their lands during their lives only. ſ. 1.

Any attainder by this act ſhall not make any corruption of blood to the heirs of ſuch offenders, or make the wife loſe her dower. ſ. 2.

If any peer of this realm be indicted of any offence made treaſon by this act, he ſhall have his trial by his peers. ſ. 3.

By 23 Eliz. c. 1. All perſons which ſhall pretend to have power, or ſhall put in practice, to abſolve, perſuade, or withdraw, any of the queen's ſubjects, or any within her dominions, from their natural obedience to her majeſty; or to withdraw them for that intent from the religion by her authority eſtabliſhed, to the Romiſh religion; or to move them to promiſe obedience to any authority of the ſee of Rome, or of any other ſtate, within her dominions; or ſhall do any overt act to that intent, ſhall be adjudged traitors; and if any perſon ſhall be willingly abſolved or withdrawn as aforeſaid, or willingly be reconciled, or promiſe obedience to any ſuch pretended authority, every ſuch perſon, their procurers and counſellors thereunto, being convicted, ſhall be judged and ſuffer as in caſes of high treaſon. ſ. 2.

All perſons that ſhall wittingly be aiders or maintainers of perſons ſo offending, or which ſhall conceal any offence aforeſaid, and ſhall not within 20 days diſcloſe the ſame to ſome juſtice of peace or other high officer, ſhall be judged and ſuffer as offenders in miſpriſion of treaſon. ſ. 3.

If any peer of this realm be indicted of any offence made treaſon or miſpriſion of treaſon by this act, he ſhall have his trial by his peers as in like caſes. ſ. 14.

It is to be obſerved, that this act does not mention her majeſty's heirs or ſucceſſors.

By 28 or 29 Eliz. c. 2. No record of attainder that now is for any high treaſon, where the party attainted hath been executed for the ſame treaſon, ſhall by the heirs of ſuch perſon, ſon, or by any other claiming under ſuch heirs, be reverſed for error. ſ. 1.

By 7 Will. 3. c. 3. All perſons that ſhall be indicted for high treaſon, whereby any corruption of blood may be made to ſuch offenders, or their heirs, or for miſpriſion of ſuch treaſon, ſhall have a copy of the indictment, but not the names of the witneſſes, delivered unto them five days at leaſt before they be tried, to enable them to adviſe with counſel; their attornies or agents requiring the ſame, and paying the officer his fees for writing thereof, not exceeding 5*s.* and every ſuch perſon ſhall be admitted to make his defence by counſel, and to make any proof that he can produce by lawful witneſſes, upon oath, for his juſt defence; and in caſe any perſon ſo accuſed ſhall deſire counſel, the court before whom ſuch perſon ſhall be tried, or ſome judge of that court, ſhall immediately upon requeſt aſſign ſuch counſel, not exceeding two, as the perſon ſhall deſire, to whom ſuch counſel ſhall have free acceſs at all ſeaſonable hours. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall be indicted, tried or attainted, of high treaſon, whereby any corruption of blood may be made, or of miſpriſion of ſuch treaſon, but upon the teſtimony of two witneſſes, either both of them to the ſame overt act, or one of them to one and the other of them to another overt act of the ſame treaſon, unleſs the party ſhall willingly, without violence, in open court, confeſs the ſame, or ſhall ſtand mute, or refuſe to plead, or in caſes of high treaſon ſhall peremptorily challenge above the number of 35 of the jury. ſ. 2.

Provided that any perſon indicted for any the treaſons or miſpriſions aforeſaid may be outlawed, and thereby attainted; and in caſes of high treaſon, where by law, after ſuch outlawry, the party may come in and be tried, he ſhall have the benefit of this act. ſ. 3.

If two or more diſtinct treaſons of divers kinds be alledged in one indictment, one witneſs produced to prove one of the treaſons, and another witneſs produced to prove another, ſhall not be deemed two witneſſes to the ſame treaſon. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall be indicted, tried, or proſecuted, for any ſuch treaſon or miſpriſion of ſuch treaſon, committed within England, Wales, or Berwick, unleſs the indictment be found within three years after the offence done: except that if any perſon be guilty of deſigning, endeavouring, or attempting any aſſaſſination on the body of the king, by poiſon or otherwiſe, ſuch perſon may be proſecuted at any time. ſ. 5.

And all perſons who ſhall be accuſed and tried for ſuch treaſon as aforeſaid, or for miſpriſion of ſuch treaſon, ſhall have copies of the panel of the jurors, duly returned by the ſheriff, and delivered to them two days at leaſt before they be tried; and all perſons indicted ſhall have the like proceſs of the court to compel their witneſſes to appear at ſuch trials, as is uſually granted to compel witneſſes to appear againſt them. ſ. 6.

No evidence ſhall be given of any overt act that is not expreſsly laid in the indictment. ſ. 7.

No indictment, for any of the offences aforeſaid, nor any proceſs or return thereupon, ſhall be quaſhed on the motion of the priſoner or his counſel, for miſwriting, miſ-ſpelling, falſe or improper Latin, unleſs exception be taken in court by the priſoner or his counſel before any evidence given in open court upon ſuch indictment; nor ſhall any ſuch miſwriting, &c. after conviction, be cauſe to ſtay or arreſt judgment; but judgment given upon ſuch indictment may be reverſed upon a writ of error, as if this act had not been. ſ. 8.

Upon the trial of any peer or peereſs for treaſon or miſpriſion, all the peers who have a right to ſit and vote in parliament ſhall be ſummoned 20 days before ſuch trial; and every peer ſo ſummoned and appearing ſhall vote in the trial, firſt taking the oaths, and ſubſcribing and repeating the declaration mentioned in 30 Car. 2. ſt. 2. ſ. 10.

This act ſhall not extend to any impeachment or other proceedings in parliament. ſ. 11.

This act ſhall not extend to any indictment of high treaſon for counterfeiting his majeſty's coin, his great ſeal or privy ſeal, his ſign manual or privy ſignet. ſ. 12.

By 8 and 9 Will. 3. c. 26. made perpetual by 7 Ann. c. 25. No perſon (except perſons employed in his majeſty's mints, for the uſe of the mints only, or perſons authorized by the treaſury) ſhall knowingly make or mend, or aſſiſt in the making or mending, of any puncheon, counter puncheon, matrix, ſtamp, dye, pattern or mould, of ſteel, or other metal, or of ſpaud, or fine founders earth, or ſand or other materials, in which there ſhall be the figure of either ſide, or flat of any gold or ſilver coin current; nor ſhall knowingly make or mend, or aſſiſt in the making or mending, of any edger or edging tool, not of common uſe in any trade, but contrived for marking of money round the edges with letters, grainings or other marks, reſembling thoſe on money; nor any preſs for coinage, nor any cutting engine, for cutting round blanks by a ſcrew out of flatted bars of gold, ſilver, or other metal; nor ſhall knowingly buy, ſell, or conceal, or without authority or ſufficient excuſe knowingly have in his cuſtody any ſuch puncheon, &c. and if any perſon ſhall offend in the matters aforeſaid, ſuch offenders, their counſellors, procurers, aiders, and abettors, ſhall be guilty of high treaſon. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſhall without authority knowingly convey, or aſſiſt in the conveying, out of his majeſty's mint any puncheon, or other inſtrument uſed about the coining of monies there, or any uſeful part of ſuch inſtruments, as well the perſons offending, their counſellors, procurers, aiders, or abettors, as alſo all perſons knowingly receiving or concealing the ſame, ſhall be guilty of high treaſon. ſ. 2.

If any perſon (other than the perſons employed in his majeſty's mints, or ſuch as ſhall have authority from the treaſury) ſhall mark on the edges any current coin; or if any perſon ſhall mark on the edges any diminiſhed or counterfeit coin, with letters or grainings like thoſe on the edges of money coined in his majeſty's mint, ſuch offence ſhall be high treaſon, and the offenders, their counſellors, procurers, aiders, and abettors, being convicted, ſhall ſuffer death as in caſe of high treaſon. ſ. 3.

If any perſon ſhall colour, gild, or caſe over with gold or ſilver, or with any waſh or materials producing the colour of gold or ſilver, any coin reſembling the current coin, or any round blanks of baſe metal, or of coarſe gold or ſilver, of a fit ſize and figure to be coined, or ſhall gild over any ſilver blanks of a ſize and figure reſembling the current gold coin, ſuch perſons, their counſellors, &c. ſhall be guilty of high treaſon. ſ. 4.

If any puncheon, dye, ſtamp, edger, cutting engine, preſs, flaſk, or other inſtrument for coining or counterfeiting gold or ſilver monies, or any part of ſuch tool, ſhall be hid in any place, or found in the houſe or poſſeſſion of any perſon not employed in coining in his majeſty's mints, nor having the ſame by authority, any perſons diſcovering are required to ſeize the ſame, and to carry them to ſome juſtice of peace, to be produced in evidence againſt any perſon who ſhall be proſecuted for ſuch offence; and after they ſhall have been produced in evidence, they ſhall by order of the court, court, or in the preſence of ſome juſtice of peace, in caſe there be no trial, be deſtroyed; and if any counterfeit or diminiſhed money ſhall be produced in any court of juſtice in evidence, or otherwiſe, the judges ſhall cauſe ſuch monies to be cut in pieces in court, or in the preſence of ſome juſtice of peace, and then to be delivered to ſuch perſons to whom the ſame ſhall appertain. ſ. 5.

This act ſhall not make any corruption of blood, or make the wife of any offender to loſe her dower; and perſons accuſed of offences made treaſon or felony by this act, ſhall be tried by ſuch evidence, and in ſuch manner, as any offenders for counterfeiting the king's money. ſ. 7.

The crimes mentioned in the act 6 and 7 Will. 3. c. 17. (ſee page 232, ante) may be heard and determined upon indictment or preſentment, either in his majeſty's court of king's bench, or before juſtices of oyer and terminer, or juſtices of aſſize or gaol-delivery. ſ. 8.

No proſecution ſhall be made for any offence againſt this act, unleſs commenced within three months. ſ. 9. See 1 Ann. ſtat. 1. c. 9. ſ. 2.

By 1 Ann. ſt. 1. c. 9. re-enacted after the union by 7 Ann. c. 25. ſ. 2. The proſecution of ſuch as offend againſt the act 8 Will. 3. c. 26. by making or mending any coining tool therein prohibited, or by marking of money round the edges with letters or grainings, may be commenced at any time within ſix months after ſuch offence committed. ſ. 2.

By 1 Ann. ſtat. 2. c. 17. If any perſon ſhall endeavour to deprive or hinder any perſon who ſhall be the next in ſucceſſion to the crown for the time being, according to the limitations in 1 Will. and Mar. ſt. 2. c. 2. and 12 and 13 Will. 3. c. 2. which ſee in KING, from ſucceeding after the deceaſe of her majeſty to the imperial crown of this realm, viz. during the time her majeſty ſhall have no iſſue, the princeſs Sophia, electoreſs and ducheſs dowager of Hanover; and after the deceaſe of the ſaid princeſs, the next in ſucceſſion to the crown; and the ſame maliciouſly and directly ſhall attempt by any overt act, ſuch offence ſhall be high treaſon. ſ. 3.

By 2 and 3 Ann. c. 20. Be it enacted and declared, that if any officer or ſoldier in her majeſty's army ſhall either upon land out of England, or upon the ſea, hold correſpondence with any rebel or enemy of her majeſty, or give them advice or intelligence, or ſhall treat with ſuch rebels or enemies without her majeſty's licence, or licence of the general, lieutenant-general, or chief commander, ſuch perſon ſhall be guilty of high treaſon. ſ. 34.

If any officer or ſoldier of her majeſty's army, either upon land out of England, or upon the ſea, ſhall raiſe any mutiny or ſedition in the army, or ſhall refuſe to obey his ſuperior officer, or ſhall reſiſt any officer in the execution of his office, or ſhall ſtrike, draw, or offer to draw any weapon againſt his ſuperior officer, every perſon ſo offending ſhall be guilty of felony; and the offenders being convicted, or indicted or arraigned, and ſtanding mute, or challenging peremptorily above 20 of the jury, ſhall ſuffer death. ſ. 35.

The treaſons and felonies before mentioned may be enquired of, heard and determined, in the queen's bench, by good men of the county where the court ſhall ſit, or before ſuch commiſſioners, and in ſuch county, as ſhall be aſſigned by the queen. ſ. 36.

If any perſon ſhall in a court martial be tried and acquitted, or convicted of any of the offences herein before mentioned, ſuch acquittal or conviction ſhall be a bar to any indictment or proceeding for the ſame offence. ſ. 40.

No attainder for any crime made felony by this act ſhall make any corruption of blood to any heir of ſuch offender, or debar the wife of her dower. ſ. 41.

If any peer ſhall commit any of the offences aforeſaid beyond the ſeas, and ſhall not have been there tried for the ſame by martial law, and after his return into this realm ſhall be indicted of any offence hereby declared to be treaſon or felony, he ſhall have his trial by his peers. ſ. 42.

Every perſon who ſhall be accuſed for any thing made treaſon by this act, ſhall be entitled to the benefit of the act 7 Will. 3. c. 9. ſ. 43. Qu. If all this act (for puniſhing mutiny, &c.) be not expired?

By 6 Ann. c. 7. If any perſon ſhall maliciouſly, adviſedly, and directly, by writing or printing, maintain and affirm, that the pretended prince of Wales, who ſtiles himſelf king of Great Britain, or king of England, by the name of James the third, or king of Scotland, by the name of James the eighth, hath any right or title to the crown, or that any other perſon hath any right or title to the ſame, otherwiſe than according to an act made in England, 1 Will. and Mar. ſt. 2. c. 2. and one other act, 12 Will. 3. c. 2. and the acts made in England and Scotland for the union of the two kingdoms; or that the kings of this realm, with the authority of parliament, are not able to make laws and ſtatutes to bind the crown, and the deſcent thereof; ſuch perſon ſhall be guilty of high treaſon. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſhall maliciouſly and directly, by preaching, teaching, or adviſed ſpeaking, declare and affirm, that the pretended prince of Wales, who ſtiles himſelf king of Great Britain, &c. hath any right or title to the crown, or that any other perſon hath any right or title to the ſame, otherwiſe than according to an act made in England, 1 Will. and Mar. ſt. 2. c. 2. and 12 Will. 3. c. 2. and the acts made in England and Scotland, for the union of the two kingdoms; or that the kings of this realm, by authority of parliament, are not able to make laws to limit the crown, and the inheritance thereof; ſuch perſon ſhall incur the penalty of praemunire, 16 Ric. 2. c. 5. ſ. 2.

Provided that no perſon ſhall be proſecuted by virtue of this act for any words ſpoken, unleſs the information of ſuch words be given upon oath to a juſtice of peace within three days after ſuch words ſpoken, and the proſecution of ſuch offence be within three months after ſuch information; and no perſon ſhall be convicted for ſuch words ſpoken, but by the oaths of two witneſſes. ſ. 3.

See other parts of this act in COMMISSIONERS, KING, PARLIAMENT.

By 7 Ann. c. 21. After the deceaſe of the perſon who pretended to be prince of Wales during the life of the late king James, &c. no attainder for treaſon ſhall extend to the diſheriting of any heir, nor to the prejudice of any perſon, other than the offender during his life. ſ. 10.

After the deceaſe of the perſon who pretended, &c. when any perſon is indicted for high treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, a liſt of the witneſſes that ſhall be produced on the trial for proving the ſaid indictment, and of the jury, mentioning the names, profeſſion, and place of abode, of the witneſſes and jurors, ſhall be given at the ſame time that the copy of the indictment is delivered to the party indicted; and copies of all indictments for the offences aforeſaid, with ſuch liſts, ſhall be delivered to the party indicted ten days before the trial, and in preſence of two witneſſes. ſ. 11. But this ſhall not extend to any indictment of high treaſon for counterfeiting his majeſty's coin, the great ſeal, or privy ſeal, his ſign manual, or privy ſignet, or to any indictment of high treaſon, or to any proceedings thereupon againſt any offender, who by any act now in force is to be indicted, arraigned, tried, and convicted by ſuch evidence, and in ſuch manner as is uſed againſt againſt offenders for counterfeiting his majeſty's coin. 6 Geo. 3. c. 53. ſ. 3.

By 15 Geo. 2. c. 28. If any perſon waſh, gild, or colour any lawful ſhilling or ſixpence, or any counterfeit ſhilling or ſixpence, or add to or alter the impreſſion of ſuch coins, with intent to make ſuch ſhilling reſemble or paſs for a guinea, or ſuch ſixpence paſs for an half guinea; or file, or alter, waſh or colour any halfpennies or farthings, or add to or alter the impreſſion of an halfpenny or farthing, with intent to make an halfpenny paſs for a ſhilling, or a farthing paſs for a ſixpence, the perſon ſo offending, their counſellors, aiders, and procurers, ſhall be adjudged guilty of high treaſon. ſ. 1.

By 20 Geo. 2. c. 30. Every perſon impeached by the commons of Great Britain of any high treaſon, whereby any corruption of blood may be made to ſuch offender or his heir, or for miſpriſion of ſuch treaſon, ſhall be admitted to make his defence by counſel not exceeding two, who ſhall be aſſigned on the application of the party impeached at any time after the articles of impeachment are exhibited by the commons.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 48. The judgment to be awarded againſt any woman convicted of high treaſon, petit treaſon, or of abetting, procuring, or counſelling any petit treaſon, ſhall not be that ſuch woman ſhall be drawn to the place of execution, and be there burned to death, but that ſuch woman, ſo convicted, ſhall be drawn to the place of execution, and be there hanged by the neck until ſhe be dead. ſ. 1.

If any woman ſhall be convicted of petit treaſon, or of abetting, procuring, or counſelling any petit treaſon, then ſuch woman ſhall be ſubject to ſuch further pains as are ſpecified with reſpect to perſons convicted of wilful murder, in 25 Geo. 2. c. 37. and the court before whom ſuch woman ſhall be convicted, ſhall paſs ſentence at ſuch time, and ſhall give ſuch orders with reſpect to the time of execution, the diſpoſal of the convict's body after execution, and all ſuch other matters as are directed to be given by the ſaid act, with reſpect to perſons convicted of murder. ſ. 2.

Whenever any woman ſhall be convicted of high treaſon, or of petit treaſon, or of abetting, procuring, or counſelling any petit treaſon, and judgment ſhall be given thereon according to this act, then ſuch woman, being ſo attainted of ſuch crimes, ſhall be ſubject to the like forfeitures, and corruption of blood, as before this act. ſ. 4.

Trees.

By 6 Geo. 3. c. 48. Every perſon who ſhall wilfully cut or break down, bark, burn, pluck up, lop, top, crop, or otherwiſe deface, damage, ſpoil, or deſtroy, or carry away, any timber tree, or trees likely to become timber, or any part thereof, or the lops or tops thereof, without the conſent of the owner thereof firſt had, or in any of his majeſty's foreſts or chaſes, without the conſent of the ſurveyor, or his deputy, or perſon intruſted with the care of the ſame, and ſhall be thereof convicted upon the oath of one witneſs, before one juſtice, ſhall, for the firſt offence, forfeit not exceeding 20 l. as to ſuch juſtice ſhall ſeem meet, together with the charges previous to and attending ſuch conviction, to be aſcertained by ſuch juſtice; and upon non-payment thereof, ſuch juſtice ſhall commit the offender to the common gaol, for not exceeding twelve, nor leſs than ſix months, or until the penalty and charges be paid; and if any perſon ſo convicted ſhall be guilty of the like offence a ſecond time, and ſhall be thereof convicted in like manner, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit not exceeding 30 l. together with the charges attending ſuch conviction; and upon non-payment thereof, ſuch juſtice ſhall commit the offender to the common gaol, for not exceeding 18, nor leſs than twelve months, or until the penalty and charges be paid; and if any perſon ſo convicted ſhall be guilty of the like offence a third time, and ſhall be thereof convicted in like manner, ſuch perſon ſhall be guilty of felony, and the court ſhall tranſport ſuch perſon for 7 years to any of his majeſty's plantations in America, in like manner as other felons. ſ. 1.

All oak, beach, cheſnut, walnut, aſh, elm, cedar, fir, aſh, lime, ſycamore, and birch trees, (and poplar, alder, larch, maple, and hornbeam trees, by 13 Geo. 3. c. 33.) ſhall be deemed timber trees within this act. ſ. 2.

Every perſon who ſhall pluck up, or cut, ſpoil, or deſtroy, or take away, any root, ſhrub, or plant, out of the fields, nurſeries, gardens, or garden grounds, or other cultivated lands, of any perſon whomſoever, without the conſent of the owner firſt had, and ſhall be thereof convicted upon the oath of one witneſs, before one juſtice, ſhall for the firſt offence forfeit not exceeding 40 s. together with the charge previous to and attending ſuch conviction, to be aſcertained by ſuch juſtice; and if any perſon ſo convicted ſhall again commit the like offence, and be convicted in manner aforeſaid, ſuch perſon ſhall for ſuch ſecond offence, forfeit not exceeding 5 l. together with the charges attending the conviction; and if any perſon ſo before convicted ſhall a third time commit the like offence, and ſhall be thereof convicted, ſuch perſon ſhall, for ſuch third offence, be deemed guilty of felony; and the court ſhall tranſport ſuch perſon for ſeven years to any of his majeſty's plantations in America, as other felons. ſ. 3.

Every perſon who ſhall go into the woods, underwoods, or wood grounds, of any of his majeſty's ſubjects, not being the owner thereof, and ſhall there cut, lop, top, or ſpoil, ſplit down, or damage, or otherwiſe deſtroy, any kind of wood or underwood, poles, ſticks of wood, green ſtubs, or young trees, or carry away the ſame; or ſhall have in his cuſtody any kind of wood, underwood, &c. and ſhall not give a ſatisfactory account how he came by the ſame, and ſhall be thereof convicted before one juſtice, on the oath of one witneſs, ſhall for the firſt offence forfeit not exceeding 40 s. together with the charges attending ſuch conviction; and if any perſon ſhall commit any of the offences aforeſaid a ſecond time, he ſhall forfeit not exceeding 5 l. together with the charges attending ſuch conviction; and if a third time, ſuch perſons convicted thereof ſhall be deemed incorrigible rogues, and puniſhed as ſuch. ſ. 4.

Juſtices for the counties, cities, ridings, diviſions, or places, wherein any offences againſt this act ſhall be done, are to put this act in execution, and adminiſter an oath to any witneſſes. ſ. 5.

It ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice, unleſs the forfeitures ſhall be paid down upon conviction forthwith, where not otherwiſe directed, by warrant, to commit ſuch offender, for the firſt offence, to the houſe of correction for one month, to hard labour, and to be once whipped there; and for the ſecond offence, for three months, and to be whipped there once in every one of the ſaid three months. ſ. 6.

If any perſon ſhall hinder, or attempt to prevent, the ſeizing or ſecuring any perſon employed in carrying away any ſuch timber or other trees, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 10 l. to the perſon who ſhall convict ſuch offender; and if not paid on conviction, the perſon convicted ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction to hard labour for not exceeding ſix months. ſ. 7.

One moiety of all forfeitures, not otherwiſe directed, ſhall go to the informer, and the other to the perſon aggrieved. ſ. 8.

The conviction of every offender againſt this act ſhall be certified by the juſtice before whom made, to the next general quarter ſeſſions of the peace, to be filed amongſt the records of the ſeſſions; and ſuch conviction ſhall be on parchment or paper, in the following form (as the caſe ſhall happen) or in words to the like effect, viz.

Treſpaſs.

By 3 Ed. 1. c. 20. Treſpaſſers in parks and ponds ſhall be impriſoned for three years, make fine, and find ſureties, and in default ſhall abjure.

By 37 Hen. 8. c. 6. If any perſon maliciouſly and unlawfully cut, or cauſe to be cut off, the head or dam of any ponds, pools, motes, ſtews, or other ſeveral waters, or the head or pipes of any conduit of any perſon, or maliciouſly and unlawfully burn any wain or cart laden with coals or other goods of any other perſon, or maliciouſly and unlawfully burn any heap of wood of any other perſon, prepared for the making of coal, billets, or talwood, or maliciouſly and unlawfully cut out the tongue of any tame beaſt of any other perſon (the beaſt then being in life) or maliciouſly and unlawfully cut off the ear of any the king's ſubjects, otherwiſe than by authority of law, chancemedley, ſudden affray or adventure; or maliciouſly or unlawfully bark any fruit trees of any other perſon; ſuch offenders ſhall not only forfeit unto the party grieved treble damages, to be recovered by action of treſpaſs at common law, but alſo ſhall forfeit to the king 10*l.* in name of a fine. ſ. 4.

By 43 Eliz. c. 7. All lewd perſons which ſhall cut or unlawfully take away any corn growing, or rob any orchards or gardens, or break or cut any hedge, pales, rails or fence, or dig, pull up or take up, any fruit trees, to the intent to take the ſame away, or ſhall cut or ſpoil any woods or underwoods, poles or trees ſtanding, not being felony, and their procurers or receivers knowing the ſame, being convicted by confeſſion, or one witneſs, before ſome juſtice of peace, mayor or other head officer, where the offence ſhall be committed, or the party apprehended, ſhall give ſuch recompence for the damages as by ſuch head officer or juſtice of peace ſhall be appointed, for the firſt fault; and if ſuch offenders ſhall be thought in the diſcretion of the juſtice, &c. not able, or do not make ſatisfaction for the damages, the juſtice, &c. ſhall commit the offenders to ſome conſtable or other inferior officers of the city, &c. or hamlet where the offence ſhall be committed, or the party apprehended, to be whipped; and for every ſuch offence for which the offenders ſhall be eſtſoons committed, to receive the ſaid puniſhment of whipping. ſ. 1.

If any conſtable or inferior officer do not at the command of any juſtice of peace, or other head officer, execute by himſelf, or ſome other, the puniſhment limited by this ſtatute, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice to commit the conſtable, &c. to the common gaol, until the offenders be by the ſaid conſtable, or by his procurement, whipped. ſ. 2.

Provided that no juſtice of peace, or other head officer, do execute this ſtatute for any the offences aforeſaid done unto himſelf, unleſs he be aſſiſted with one or more other juſtices of peace whom the offence doth not concern. ſ. 3. See 15 Car. 2. c. 2. in Woods.

By 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 7. If any perſon ſhall in the night time maliciouſly and unlawfully maim, wound, or hurt, any horſes, ſheep, or other cattle, whereby the ſame ſhall not be killed, or ſhall deſtroy any plantations of trees, or throw down any incloſures, ſuch offenders ſhall forfeit unto the party grieved treble the damage, to be recovered by action of treſpaſs, or upon the caſe, at common law. ſ. 5.

Upon requeſt of the party injured, any three juſtices of peace (whereof one of the quorum) may enquire, as well by the oaths of twelve men as by examination of witneſſes, and iſſue out warrants, as well for the ſummoning of jurors, as for the apprehending of perſons ſuſpected, and to take their examination, as alſo to cauſe other perſons to appear and give information upon oath concerning the premiſſes; ſo as no perſon be proceeded againſt for any offence concerning which he ſhall be examined as a witneſs, and ſhall make a true diſcovery thereof: and in caſe any perſon ſhall refuſe to be examined, being duly ſummoned; it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices to commit the party ſo refuſing to the common gaol, until he ſhall ſubmit to be examined upon oath. ſ. 6.

Provided that no perſon who ſhall be puniſhed for any offence by this act, ſhall be puniſhed for the ſame by any other law; nor ſhall be queſtioned for the ſame, unleſs he be proceeded againſt within ſix months after the offence. ſ. 7.

By 13 Geo. 3. c. 32. If any perſon ſhall ſteal and take away, or maliciouſly pull up or deſtroy, any turnips, potatoes, toes, cabbages, parſnips, peaſe, or carrots, growing or being in any garden, lands, or grounds, open or incloſed, and ſhall be thereof convicted before any juſtice, either by the confeſſion of the party offending, or by the oath of one witneſs, every perſon ſo offending, and being convicted, ſhall forfeit not exceeding 10 s. over the value of the goods ſtolen, as to ſuch juſtice ſhall ſeem meet; which ſhall be diſtributed between the owner of ſuch turnips, &c. and the overſeers of the poor, or perſons having the charge of the funds of the poor of ſuch pariſh where the offence ſhall be committed, for the uſe of the poor, in ſuch proportion as ſuch juſtice ſhall think fit; or the whole of ſuch ſums ſhall be given to the owner of ſuch turnips, &c. or to the overſeers, for the uſe of the poor, according to the diſcretion of ſuch juſtice; and in default of payment of ſuch penalty, ſuch juſtice ſhall commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one month, unleſs ſuch penalty be ſooner paid; and if the offence is committed in Scotland, ſuch juſtice ſhall commit ſuch offender to priſon, for not exceeding one month, unleſs ſuch penalty be ſooner paid; and the bringing of the offender before ſuch juſtice may be done, and the proceedings againſt offenders, under this act, may be carried on, in the moſt ſummary manner. ſ. 1.

In all informations, and other proceedings, the evidence of the owner of ſuch turnips, &c. and of the inhabitants of the pariſh where the offence ſhall be committed, ſhall be taken. ſ. 2.

Where ſuch conviction ſhall be upon the oath of the owner, the whole of the penalty ſhall be paid to the overſeer for the uſe of the poor. ſ. 3.

The juſtices ſhall cauſe the conviction to be drawn up in the following form. ſ. 4.

Be it remembered, that on the —— day of —— in the year of our Lord 17—, A. B. having been brought before me, or having been duly ſummoned, and not having appeared, or having appeared (as the caſe may be) and having confeſſed, or being convicted (as the caſe may be) of the charge exhibited againſt him, is duly convicted (ſpecifying the offence, time, &c.) Given under my hand and ſeal the day and year aforeſaid.

No perſon ſhall be proſecuted unleſs ſuch proſecution be begun within 30 days. ſ. 5.

Trial.

Stat. of York, 12 Edw. 2. ſt. 1. c. 2. When a deed is denied in the king's court, wherein witneſſes be named, proceſs ſhall be awarded to cauſe ſuch witneſſes to appear, as hath been uſed, ſo that if none of them came in at the great diſtreſs returned, or if it be returned, that they have nothing, or that they cannot be found, yet the taking of the inqueſt ſhall not be deferred; and if the witneſſes come in at the great diſtreſs, and the inqueſt for ſome cauſe remaineth untaken, the witneſſes ſhall have like day given them, as is aſſigned for the taking of the inqueſt; at which day, if the witneſſes do not appear, the iſſues that were firſt returned upon them ſhall be forfeit; and the taking of the inqueſt ſhall not be deferred becauſe of their abſence. And for abſence of witneſſes dwelling within franchiſes where the king's writ original doth not run, the taking of an inqueſt ſhall not be deferred.

By 9 Edw. 3. ſt. 1. c. 4. When any deeds be put forth in bar of any action, bearing date in a place within franchiſe, although there be witneſſes of the franchiſes named in the deeds, if the deeds be denied, proceſs ſhall be made into the county where the plea ſhall be moved, to have the inqueſt of the county and the witneſſes; and if the witneſſes come not at the great diſtreſs returned, the juſtices ſhall proceed to the taking of the inqueſt, as if the deed did bear date in the ſhire where the plea was moved, and the witneſſes were of the ſame county.

By 28 Edw. 3. c. 13. In all inqueſts and proofs to be taken amongſt aliens and denizens, be they merchants or other, before any juſtices or miniſters, although the king be party, the one half of the inqueſt or proof ſhall be denizens, and the other half aliens, if ſo many aliens be in the place; and if there be not ſo many aliens, then ſhall there be put in ſuch inqueſts or proofs as many aliens as ſhall be found, which be not parties. ſ. 2.

By 8 Hen. 6. c. 29. The ſtatute 2 Hen. 5. ſt. 2. c. 3. [which ſee in JURORS] ſhall not be prejudicial to the ordnance 28 Edw. 3. c. 13. notwithſtanding that the aliens have not lands to the value of 40 s. by the year.

By 20 Hen. 6. c. 9. Ladies of peers, married or ſole, being indicted of treaſon or felony by them done, ſhall be put to anſwer and judged before ſuch judges and peers of the realm, as peers ſhould be if they were indicted.

By 2 and 3 Edw. 6. c. 24. Where any perſon ſhall be feloniouſly ſtricken or poiſoned in one county, and die of the ſtroke or poiſoning in another county, an indictment found by jurors of the county where the death ſhall happen, ſhall be as effectual as if the ſtroke or poiſoning had been committed in the ſame county. ſ. 2.

The juſtices of gaol delivery, and oyer and terminer, in the county where ſuch indictment ſhall be taken, and alſo the juſtices of the king's bench, after the indictment ſhall be removed before them, may proceed upon the ſame, as they ſhould in caſe ſuch felonious ſtroke and death, &c. had grown all in one county; and ſuch party, to whom appeal of murder ſhall be given, may ſue appeal of murder in the ſame county where the party ſhall die, as well againſt the principal as againſt every acceſſary, in whatſoever county the acceſſary ſhall be guilty. ſ. 3.

Where any murder or felony ſhall be committed in one county, and another ſhall be acceſſary in any other county, an indictment found againſt ſuch acceſſary in the county where ſuch offence of acceſſary ſhall be committed, ſhall be as effectual as if the principal offence had been committed within the ſame county; and the juſtices of gaol delivery, or oyer and terminer, or two of them, in ſuch county where the offence of ſuch acceſſary ſhall be committed, ſhall write to the cuſtos rotulorum where ſuch principal ſhall be convicted, to certify them whether ſuch principal be convicted or diſcharged of ſuch principal felony; who upon ſuch writing ſhall make certificate under his ſeal, whether ſuch principal be convicted or diſcharged; and the juſtices of gaol delivery, &c. ſhall proceed upon ſuch acceſſary in ſuch manner, as if both the principal offence and acceſſary had been committed in the county where the offence of the acceſſary was committed. ſ. 4.

By 4 & 5 Ann. c. 16. Every venire facias for the trial of any iſſue in any ſuit in any of her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, ſhall be awarded of the body of the county where ſuch iſſue is triable. ſ. 6.

Provided that nothing in this act before contained ſhall extend to any appeal of felony or murder, or to any indictment or preſentment of treaſon, felony, or murder, or other matter, or to any action or information upon any penal ſtatute. ſ. 7.

In any actions in any of her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, where it ſhall appear to the court, that it will be neceſſary, that the jurors ſhould have the view of the place in queſtion, the courts may order ſpecial writs of diſtringas or habeas corpora, by which the ſheriff or other officer ſhall be commanded to have ſix out of the firſt 12 of the jurors, or ſome greater number, at the place in queſtion, ſome convenient time before the trial, who ſhall have the matters in queſtion ſhewn to them by two perſons in the writ named, to be appointed by the court. ſ. 8.

By 24 Geo. 2. c. 18. Every venire facias, for the trial of any iſſue in any action, or information upon any penal ſtatute in any court of record at Weſtminſter, in the counties palatine of Lancaſter, Cheſter, and Durham, and the principality of Wales, ſhall be awarded of the body of the county where ſuch iſſue is triable. ſ. 3. — See CLERGY, FELONY, JURIES, MURDER, PIRATES.

Truſts.

By 29 Car. 2. c. 3. All declarations or creations of truſts of lands ſhall be manifeſted by writing, ſigned by the party enabled to declare ſuch truſt, or by his laſt will in writing, or elſe ſhall be void. ſ. 7.

Where any conveyance ſhall be made of lands, by which a truſt ſhall ariſe or reſult by implication or conſtruction of law, or be transferred or extinguiſhed by operation of law; ſuch truſt ſhall be of like force, as if this ſtatute had not been made. ſ. 8.

All grants and aſſignments of any truſt ſhall be in writing ſigned by the party granting or aſſigning the ſame, or by ſuch laſt will, or elſe ſhall be void. ſ. 9.

It ſhall be lawful for every ſheriff or other officer, to whom any writ or precept ſhall be directed, upon any judgment, ſtatute, or recognizance, to do execution of all ſuch lands, tithes, and hereditaments, as any other perſons be ſeiſed or poſſeſſed in truſt for him againſt whom execution is ſued, as if the party againſt whom execution ſhall be ſued, had been ſeiſed of ſuch lands, &c. of ſuch eſtate as they be ſeiſed of in truſt for him at the time of the execution ſued; which lands, &c. ſhall be accordingly held, freed from all incumbrances of ſuch perſons ſeiſed or poſſeſſed in truſt. And if any ceſtuy que truſt ſhall die, leaving a truſt in fee-ſimple to deſcend to his heir, ſuch truſt ſhall be aſſets by deſcent, and the heir ſhall be chargeable with the obligation of his anceſtor, as if the eſtate in law had deſcended to him. ſ. 10.

Provided that no heir, that ſhall be chargeable by reaſon of any eſtate or truſt made aſſets by this law, ſhall by reaſon of any plea, confeſſion of the action, or ſuffering judgment by nient dedire, or other matter, be chargeable to pay the condemnation out of his own eſtate; but execution ſhall be ſued of the whole eſtate ſo made aſſets, in whoſe hands ſoever it ſhall come after the writ purchaſed; in the ſame manner as by the common law, where the heir pleading a true plea, judgment is prayed againſt him thereupon. ſ. 11.—See FRAUDS, IDEOTS, INFANTS.

Turky Company.

By 26 Geo. 2. c. 18. Every ſubject of Great Britain, deſiring admiſſion into the Turky Company, ſhall, upon requeſt to the governor, or deputy governor, be admitted into the ſaid company within 30 days after ſuch requeſt; paying for his admiſſion for the uſe of the company, 20*l.* ſ. 1.

The following oath ſhall be taken by every perſon upon admiſſion, either before the governor or deputy governor of the company, or before two juſtices, which juſtices are to certify under their hands and ſeals that the ſaid oath was taken by ——— on the ——— day of ——— before us, two of his majeſty's juſtices of the peace in and for ——— ſ. 2.

YOU ſwear to be good, faithful, and true, to our ſovereign lord king George, his heirs and ſucceſſors; you ſhall be obedient and aſſiſtant to the governor, his deputy, and aſſiſtants of the company of merchants of England trading into the Levant ſeas, in all lawful matters; you ſhall truly hold and keep to your power (having no ſingular regard to yourſelf, to the hurt and prejudice of the common weal of the ſaid company), all ſtatutes, acts, and ordinances, which have been duly made, according to the grant of privileges granted to the ſaid company, and conſiſtent with an act of parliament made in the 26th year of the reign of his majeſty king George the ſecond, intituled, An act for enlarging and regulating the trade into the Levant ſeas: the ſecrets of the ſaid company you ſhall not diſcloſe; and if you ſhall know any perſon or perſons, that intend any hurt, harm, or prejudice to our aforeſaid ſovereign lord, the king's majeſty, his heirs, or ſucceſſors, or to the ſaid company, or the privileges of the ſaid company, you ſhall give knowledge thereof to the ſaid governor, deputy, or aſſiſtants, or to ſome of them; and you ſhall not colour or free any goods, belonging to any one not free of the ſaid company.

So help you GOD.

Perſons free of the company may ſeparately or jointly export from Great Britain, to any port within the limits of the letters patent, of Jac. 1. & Car. 2. incorporating the ſaid company in any Britiſh or plantation-built ſhips navigated according to law, at any time, and to any freemen of the company, or ſons or apprentices of freemen, being his majeſty's chriſtian ſubjects, ſo long as they remain under and ſubmit to the protection and direction of the Britiſh ambaſſadors and conſuls, any goods not prohibited by law to be exported; and alſo to import from any place within the limits of the ſaid letters patent, raw ſilk or any other goods, purchaſed within the ſaid limits, not prohibited by law to be imported, upon paying or ſecuring the duties, and ſuch impoſitions as ſhall be charged, for defraying the neceſſary expences of the company. ſ. 3.

The exportation of gold or ſilver, either in foreign coin or bullion, ſhall remain ſubject to the by-laws of the company. ſ. 4.

The governor, or deputy-governor and company, in general court aſſembled, may make by-laws, but no ſuch by-law ſhall be valid, unleſs confirmed at a ſubſequent general court held one month after the general court at which ſuch by-law was made; and if ſeven of the freemen think themſelves aggrieved by any by-law, it ſhall be lawful for them to preſent an appeal to the commiſſioners, for trade and plantations; who are to hear ſuch appeal, and to approve or diſapprove ſuch by-law. ſ. 5.

Such by-law ſhall be in force, till ſuch appeal be ſo heard and the by-law diſapproved. ſ. 6.

Such appeal ſhall be brought within 12 calendar months after ſuch by-law made and confirmed. ſ. 7.

The perſons appealing ſhall at the ſame time give notice in writing of ſuch appeal, to the governor, deputy-governor, or ſecretary of the company. ſ. 8.

No ſuch by-law ſhall be of any greater force than the ſame would have been if no ſuch appeal had been given by this act. ſ. 9.

Whenſoever any general court of the ſaid company is appointed for making any by-law, public notice thereof ſhall be given in the London Gazette, at leaſt 20 days before the holding ſuch general court. ſ. 10.

All rules made for preventing infection ſhall remain in force as if this act had never paſſed. ſ. 11.

No

No goods liable to retain the infection of the plague, and coming from the Levant without a clean bill of health, ſhall be landed in any part of Great Britain or Ireland, or of the iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, unleſs it appear to the ſatisfaction of his majeſty, or of his privy council, that the ſaid goods have been ſufficiently opened and aired in the lazarets of Malta, Ancona, Venice, Meſſina, Leghorn, Genoa, and Marſeilles, or one of them. ſ. 12.

By 20 Geo. 3. c. 18. Such goods as may be exported from or imported into Great Britain, in Britiſh ſhips, by any perſon free of the company, may, in like manner, be exported from, or imported into any port in Ireland, by any perſon free of the ſaid company, in Britiſh or Iriſh veſſels, legally navigated, on paying ſuch impoſitions as ſhall be aſſeſſed on all goods to be exported and imported as aforeſaid, or on any ſhips laden with the ſame, for defraying the expences of the company. ſ. 3.

The oath required by 26 Geo. 2. to be taken by perſons upon their admiſſion to their freedoms in the ſaid company, may be taken before two juſtices in Ireland. ſ. 4.

Vacations.

By 28 Hen. 8. c. 11.

THE year, in which the firſt-fruits ſhall be paid to the king, ſhall be immediately after the avoidance of any benefice ſpiritual; and the tithes, fruits, rents, and other profits belonging to any archdeaconry, parſonage, or other ſpiritual benefice, dignity, or office, within the king's dominions, during the vacation of the ſame, ſhall belong to ſuch perſon as ſhall be next preſented, &c. towards payment of the firſt-fruits. ſ. 3.

If any ordinary take the fruits, tithes, profits, or caſualties, belonging to any parſonage or ſpiritual benefice, &c. during the vacation of ſuch benefice, &c. and the ſame, upon reaſonable requeſt, doth not reſtore to the next incumbent, or interrupt the incumbent to have the ſame, every perſon ſo doing ſhall forfeit the treble value of ſo much as he ſhall have received; the moiety of which forfeiture ſhall be to the king, and the other moiety to the incumbent, to be recovered in any of the king's courts. ſ. 4.

Provided that it ſhall be lawful to every ordinary, to retain ſo much of the profits as ſhall amount to pay ſuch perſons as ſhall ſerve the cure during the vacation, their reaſonable ſtipend, and alſo for the collection of ſuch tithes, &c. during the vacation. ſ. 5.

In caſe the incumbent die, and before his death hath cauſed any of his glebe lands to be manured and ſown with corn, he may make his teſtament of the profits of the corn. ſ. 6.

If the fruits of the vacation be not ſufficient to pay the curate's ſtipend, the ſame ſhall be paid by the next incumbent within 14 days after he hath poſſeſſion. ſ. 10.

Vagrants.

By 39 Eliz. c. 17.—Continued indefinitely by 3 Car. 1. c. 4. & 16 Car. 1. c. 4. All idle and wandering ſoldiers or mariners, or idle perſons, which ſhall be wandering as ſoldiers or mariners, ſhall ſettle themſelves in ſome ſervice, or other lawful courſe, without wandering, or repair to the places where they were born, or to their dwelling places, betaking themſelves to ſome lawful trade, upon pain that all perſons offending ſhall be reputed as felons without benefit of clergy. ſ. 2.

Every idle and wandering ſoldier or mariner, which coming from his captain from the ſeas, or from beyond the ſeas, ſhall not have a teſtimonial of ſome juſtice of peace, near the place where he landed, ſetting down the place and time when he landed, and the place of his dwelling or birth, unto which he is to paſs, and a convenient time limited for his paſſage, or having ſuch teſtimonial, ſhall wilfully exceed the time above 14 days, every ſuch idle and wandering ſoldier or mariner, as alſo every other idle perſon wandering as ſoldier or mariner, which ſhall forge any ſuch teſtimonial, or have with him ſuch teſtimonial forged, knowing the ſame to be forged, every ſuch act ſhall be felony without benefit of clergy. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for the juſtices of aſſize, juſtices of gaol delivery, and the juſtices of peace having power to hear and determine felonies, to hear and determine all ſuch offences in their general ſeſſions, and to execute the offenders: except ſome honeſt perſon valued at the laſt ſubſidy to 10*l.* in goods, or 40*s.* in lands, or elſe ſome honeſt freeholder as by the juſtices ſhall be allowed, will be contented, before ſuch juſtices, to take them into his ſervice for one year, and will be bound by recognizance of 10*l.* to the queen, if he keep not the perſon for one year, and bring him to the next ſeſſion for the peace, and gaol delivery after the year: and if ſuch perſon depart within the year, without the licence of him that retained him, then to be adjudged as a felon, and not have benefit of clergy. ſ. 4.

Provided that if any ſuch idle and wandering perſon fall ſick by the way, ſo that he cannot travel within the time limited in his teſtimonial, no ſuch to be within the danger of the ſtatute, ſo as he ſettle himſelf in ſome lawful courſe within convenient time after the recovery of his ſickneſs. ſ. 5.

When any ſuch ſoldier or mariner ſhall repair to the place of his dwelling or birth, according to the teſtimonial, and cannot get work; upon complaint made by ſuch ſoldier or mariner, to two juſtices of peace, they ſhall take order to ſet him to ſome honeſt labour; and for want of ſuch work, the two juſtices ſhall tax the hundred for the relief of ſuch. ſ. 6.

If any ſuch ſoldier or mariner ſhall reſort to ſome juſtice of peace and make known his poverty, the juſtice ſhall have power to licenſe the ſoldier or mariner to paſs the next way to the place where he is to repair, and to limit him ſo much time as ſhall be neceſſary for his travel thither; and he purſuing his licence, may for his neceſſary relief aſk the relief that any perſon ſhall willingly give him. ſ. 7.

This

This act ſhall not work any corruption of blood in the heirs of any offender. ſ. 8.

By 7 Jac. 1. c. 4.—Continued indefinitely by 3 Car. 1. c. 4. & 16 Car. 1. c. 4. There ſhall be provided, within every county, one or more houſes of correction, together with mills, turns, cards, and ſuch implements, to ſet rogues or other idle perſons on work. ſ. 2.

The juſtices of peace at their quarter ſeſſions, ſhall elect one or more to be governor or maſter of the houſe ſo to be provided, which ſhall have power to ſet ſuch rogues, vagabonds, idle, and diſorderly perſons, as ſhall be ſent to the houſe, to work, and to puniſh the ſaid rogues, &c. by putting fetters or gives upon them, and by moderate whipping; and the ſaid rogues, &c. during ſuch time as they ſhall continue in the houſe of correction, ſhall not be chargeable to the country, but ſhall have ſuch allowance, as they ſhall deſerve by their own labour. ſ. 4.

The maſters of the houſes of correction ſhall have ſuch ſums of money yearly, as ſhall be thought meet by the juſtices at the quarter ſeſſions, to be paid quarterly beforehand by the treaſurers appointed by 43 Eliz. c. 2. ſ. 14. (See PRISONS,) (the ſaid maſter giving ſecurity for the performance of the ſervice) which if the treaſurer ſhall neglect, the maſter ſhall have authority to levy the ſame in ſuch manner as by the ſaid ſtatute the treaſurers are appointed to levy the weekly payment. ſ. 6.

Wilful people having children, and being able to labour, and running away out of their pariſhes, ſhall be deemed incorrigible rogues; and if ſuch man or woman, being able to work, ſhall threaten to run away and leave their families, the ſame being proved by two witneſſes before two juſtices of peace, they ſhall be ſent to the houſe of correction (unleſs they put in ſureties for diſcharge of the pariſh) to be dealt with as a ſturdy wandering rogue, and to be delivered at the meeting or quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 8.

If the maſters of the houſes of correction ſhall not every quarter ſeſſions yield account unto the juſtices of all perſons committed to their cuſtody; or if the perſons committed ſhall be troubleſome to the country, by going abroad, or otherwiſe eſcape from the houſe of correction; the juſtices ſhall ſet fines upon the maſter, which ſhall be paid to the treaſurer. ſ. 9.

By 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 12. — Made perpetual by 12 Ann. ſt. 1. c. 18. In caſe any conſtable, headborough, or tithingman, ſhall die, or go out of the pariſh, any two juſtices of peace may make and ſwear a new conſtable, &c. until the lord of the manor ſhall hold a court, or until the next quarter ſeſſions, who ſhall approve of the ſaid officers, or appoint others. And if any officer ſhall continue above a year, the quarter ſeſſions may diſcharge him and appoint another until the lord ſhall hold a court. ſ. 15.

It ſhall be lawful for the juſtices of peace in quarter ſeſſions, to tranſport ſuch rogues, vagabonds, and ſturdy beggars, as ſhall be convicted, and adjudged to be incorrigible, to any of the Engliſh plantations. ſ. 23.—Qu. If this laſt clauſe is in force ſince the repeal of 39 Eliz. c. 4. by 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 23.

By 6 Geo. 1. c. 19. The juſtices of peace may commit vagrants, and other criminal perſons charged with ſmall offences, either to the common gaol or houſe of correction, as they ſhall think proper. ſ. 2.

By 14 Geo. 2. c. 33. The juſtices of peace of any county or diviſion at their general or quarter ſeſſions, where there are no aſſizes, great ſeſſion, or general gaol delivery held, upon the preſentment of the grand jury, ſhall have as full power to repair or enlarge any houſe of correction, or to purchaſe any houſe for a houſe of correction, or to build any houſe of correction, or to purchaſe land to erect ſuch houſe of correction upon, and to make a convenient backſide thereto, as if ſuch preſentment had been made at the aſſizes, great ſeſſion, or general gaol delivery, as is directed by 13 Geo. 2. c. 24. repealed; ſee 17 Geo. 2. c. 5. ſ. 30, & 34. and by the ſame ways as are provided by the ſaid act. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of peace to ſend any perſon apprehended as a vagabond, to the houſe of correction in the county or diviſion where he dwells, or to any other houſe of correction in the next county, &c. as is moſt convenient for the paſſing ſuch perſon. ſ. 3.

By 17 Geo. 2. c. 5. All perſons who threaten to run away and leave their wives or children to the pariſh, and all perſons who unlawfully return to ſuch pariſh or place from which they have been legally removed, by order of two juſtices of peace, without bringing a certificate from the pariſh whereunto they belong, and all perſons not having wherewith to maintain themſelves, live idle and refuſe to work for the uſual wages, and all perſons going about from door to door, or placing themſelves in the ſtreets, highways, or paſſages, to beg alms in the pariſhes where they dwell, ſhall be deemed idle and diſorderly perſons; and it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of peace to commit ſuch offenders (being convicted by his own view, or by confeſſion, or by the oath of one witneſs), to the houſe of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding one month; and it ſhall be lawful for any perſon to apprehend and carry before a juſtice any ſuch perſons going about from door to door, or placing themſelves in ſtreets, highways, or paſſages, to beg alms in the pariſhes where they dwell; and if they reſiſt or eſcape, they ſhall be ſubject to the ſame puniſhment as rogues and vagabonds are made liable to by this act; and it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid juſtice, by warrant, to order any overſeer of the poor of the pariſh or place where ſuch offender is apprehended, to pay 5 s. to any perſon apprehending them, for every offender ſo apprehended; which ſhall be allowed to ſuch overſeer in his account, he producing the juſtice's order, and a receipt under the hand of the perſon to whom ſuch ſum was paid: but if ſuch overſeer neglect to pay the ſaid ſum, the ſaid juſtice, on oath thereof made, may, by warrant order the ſame to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch overſeer; who in ſuch caſe ſhall not be allowed the ſum ſo levied in his account. ſ. 1.

All perſons going about as patent gatherers, or gatherers of alms under pretences of loſs by fire or other caſualty, or going about as collectors for priſons or hoſpitals, all fencers and bearwards, all common players of interludes, and all perſons who for hire or reward act or cauſe to be acted any interlude or entertainment of the ſtage, or any part therein, not being authoriſed by law; all minſtrels, jugglers, all perſons pretending to be gypſies, or wandering in the habit of Egyptians, or pretending to have ſkill in phyſiognomy, palmeſtry, or like crafty ſcience, or pretending to tell fortunes, or uſing any ſubtil craft to deceive, or playing or betting at unlawful games, and all perſons who run away and leave their wives or children to the pariſh, and all petty chapmen and pedlars wandering abroad, not being licenſed or authoriſed by law, and all perſons wandering abroad, and lodging in alehouſes, barns, outhouſes or in the open air, not giving a good account of themſelves, and all perſons wandering abroad and begging, pretending to be ſoldiers, marines, ſeafaring men, or pretending to go to work in harveſt, and all others wandering abroad and begging, ſhall be deemed rogues and vagabonds. ſ. 2.

This

This act ſhall not extend to ſoldiers wanting ſubſiſtence, having certificates from their officers or the ſecretary at war, or to ſeafaring men licenſed by ſome teſtimonial, under the hand and ſeal of ſome juſtice of peace, ſetting down the time and place of their landing or diſcharge, and the place to which ſuch ſoldiers or marines are to paſs, and the names of the chief towns through which they are to paſs, and limiting the time of their paſſage, while they continue in the way to the place to which they are to paſs, and during the time ſo limited; or to any perſon going abroad to work in harveſt, ſo as he carry with him a certificate ſigned by the miniſter and one of the churchwardens or overſeers of the poor of the pariſh where he inhabits, declaring that he hath a dwelling houſe or place there, in which he inhabits. ſ. 3.

All end-gatherers offending againſt 13 Geo. 1. c. 23. and being convicted, and all perſons apprehended as rogues and vagabonds, and eſcaped from the perſons apprehending them, or refuſing to go before a juſtice, or to be examined upon oath, or to be conveyed by any ſuch paſs as is herein after directed, or knowingly giving a falſe account of themſelves, after warning given them of their puniſhment, and all rogues and vagabonds who break or eſcape out of any houſe of correction before the expiration of the term for which they were committed, and all perſons who after having been puniſhed as rogues and vagabonds and diſcharged, again commit any of the ſaid offences, ſhall be deemed incorrigible rogues. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon to apprehend offenders againſt this act, and to convey to ſome juſtice of peace the perſons ſo apprehended, to be proceeded againſt as is herein after directed. And in caſe any conſtable or other ſuch officer refuſe or neglect to uſe his beſt endeavours to apprehend or convey to ſome juſtice any ſuch offender, it ſhall be deemed a neglect of duty and he ſhall be puniſhed as is herein after directed: and in caſe any other perſon charged by any juſtice ſo to do, refuſe or neglect to uſe his beſt endeavours to apprehend and deliver to the conſtable, or ſuch other officer, or to carry ſuch offender before ſome juſtice, where no officer can be found, being convicted upon view, or by the oath of one witneſs, before a juſtice, he ſhall forfeit 10*s.* to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh; to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant from any juſtice: and in caſe any perſon, not being a conſtable or officer, apprehend any ſuch rogue or vagabond, and deliver him to a conſtable, or other officer, or convey him to ſome juſtice, according to this act, or if any conſtable or other ſuch officer, ſo apprehend and convey ſuch rogue or vagabond, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice, to reward any ſuch conſtable or other perſon, by making an order under hand and ſeal upon the high conſtable, to pay 10*s.* to the perſon ſo apprehending him, within one week after demand, and producing ſuch order, and giving a receipt; and the ſame ſhall be allowed by the treaſurer of the county or liberty to ſuch high conſtable, on his paſſing his accounts and delivering ſuch order and receipt, and alſo his own receipt for the ſame, to ſuch treaſurer; and the ſaid juſtices, at the general or quarter ſeſſions, ſhall allow the ſame to ſuch treaſurer in his accounts, upon his producing the vouchers aforeſaid; and in cities and places where there are no high conſtables, ſuch petty conſtables and other officers ſhall pay or retain ſuch reward, and be allowed it by virtue of this act, in their reſpective accounts, upon their producing and delivering up the like vouchers; and in caſe any high conſtable, or where there is no high conſtable, ſuch petty conſtable or other officer, refuſe or neglect to pay ſuch reward on demand, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice, by warrant, to levy the ſum of 20*s.* by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, and thereout to allow to the perſon intitled, the ſaid reward of 10*s.* and ſuch other recompence for his trouble, time, and expences, as the ſaid juſtice thinks fit. ſ. 5.

The juſtices of peace for every county, town corporate, diviſion, or liberty, or any two of them ſhall, four times in the year, or oftner, if need be, meet in their reſpective diviſions, and by their warrant command the conſtables or other peace officers of every hundred, pariſh, town, and hamlet, (who ſhall be aſſiſted with ſufficient men of the ſame places) to make a general privy ſearch in one night throughout their ſeveral limits, for the apprehending of rogues and vagabonds; and every juſtice ſhall, on receiving information that rogues and vagabonds are in any place within his juriſdiction, iſſue his warrant to the conſtable or other officer of ſuch place, to ſearch for and apprehend them; and ſuch rogues and vagabonds as they apprehend upon ſuch ſearches, they ſhall cauſe to be brought before any juſtice of peace of the ſame county, &c. ſ. 6.

Where any rogues or vagabonds, apprehended by any conſtable or other perſon, or upon ſuch ſearch, are brought before any juſtice, ſuch juſtice ſhall inform himſelf, by the examination upon oath of the perſon apprehended, or of any other perſon, of the condition and circumſtances of the perſon ſo apprehended, and of the pariſh where he was laſt legally ſettled; the ſubſtance of which examination ſhall be put into writing, and be ſigned by the perſon examined, and by the juſtice, and be tranſmitted to the next general or quarter ſeſſions of the peace, there to be filed; and ſuch juſtice ſhall order all ſuch perſons ſo apprehended, to be publicly whipt by the conſtable, petty conſtable, or tithingman, or ſome other perſon appointed by ſuch conſtable, &c. of ſuch pariſh or place where ſuch perſons were apprehended; or order ſuch perſons to be ſent to the houſe of correction until the next general or quarter ſeſſions, or for any leſs time; and after ſuch whipping or confinement, ſuch juſtice may, by a paſs under hand and ſeal, in the manner and form hereafter directed, cauſe ſuch perſons to be conveyed to the place of their laſt legal ſettlement; but if it cannot be found, then to the place of their birth; or if ſuch perſons be under the age of 14 years, and have any father or mother living, then to the place of abode of ſuch father or mother, there to be delivered to ſome churchwarden or overſeer of the poor; which paſs ſhall be in the form or to the effect following:

To the conſtable of ——— in the county of ——— or to the tithingman or other officer (as the caſe is; or if the offender is committed to the houſe of correction, then to the governor or maſter thereof) and alſo to all conſtables and other officers whom it may concern, to receive and convey, and to the churchwardens, chapelwardens, or overſeers of the poor of the pariſh, town, or place, (as the caſe is) of ——— in the county of ——— or either of them, to receive and obey.

Whereas, ——— was (or were) apprehended in the pariſh of ——— (or in the town of ——— or other place, deſcribing it) as a rogue and vagabond, or as rogues and vagabonds, viz. wandering and begging there (or as the caſe ſhall be) and upon examination of the ſaid ——— taken before ——— upon oath (which examination is hereunto annexed) it doth appear, that his, her, or their laſt legal ſettlement is at ——— in this county, or, in the county of ——— or, that the ſaid ——— was (or were) born in the pariſh of ——— in this county (or in the county of ———) and

———) and hath (or have) not ſince obtained any legal ſettlement; or that the ſaid ——— is (or are) under the age of 14 years, and hath (or have) a father and mother living or abiding in the pariſh (or town) of ——— (or other place, deſcribing it.) Theſe are therefore to require you the ſaid conſtable, or other officer, (or governor or maſter of the houſe of correction, as the caſe ſhall be) to convey the ſaid ——— in the next direct way to the ſaid pariſh (or town) of ——— (or other place) within the ſaid county, and there to deliver him, her, or them, to ſome churchwarden, chapelwarden, or overſeer of the poor of the ſame pariſh, town, or place, to be there provided for according to law, (or in caſe the ſaid pariſh, town, or place, to which ſuch perſon is to be ſent, lies in ſome other county or franchiſe, having ſeparate general or quarter ſeſſions of the peace, then the form ſhall be as followeth, viz.) To convey the ſaid ——— to the pariſh (or town) of ——— that being the firſt pariſh (or town) in the next precinct through which he, ſhe, or they, ought to paſs in the direct way to the ſaid pariſh, or town of ——— to which he, ſhe, or they, is, or are, to be ſent, and to deliver him, her, or them, to the conſtable or other officer of ſuch firſt town or pariſh, in ſuch next precinct, together with this paſs, and the duplicate of the examination of the ſaid ——— taking his receipt for the ſame; and the ſaid ——— is, or are, to be thence conveyed on in like manner to the ſaid pariſh, or town of ——— there to be delivered to ſome churchwarden, chapelwarden, or overſeer of the poor of the ſame pariſh, town, or place, to be there provided for according to law. And you the ſaid churchwardens, chapelwardens, and overſeers of the poor, are hereby required to receive the ſaid perſon, or perſons, and provide for him, her, or them, as aforeſaid.

Such juſtice ſhall make a duplicate of ſuch paſs and examination, and ſign the ſame; and ſhall tranſmit the duplicate of the ſaid paſs annexed to the examination, to the next general or quarter ſeſſions of the peace, there to be filed; and ſhall annex the duplicate of the examination to the paſs, and ſend it with the ſame; and the ſaid paſs, examination, and duplicates, may be read in any court of record in England, Wales, or Berwick, as evidence. ſ. 8.

Where any offender againſt this act is committed to the houſe of correction until the next general or quarter ſeſſions, and the juſtices at ſuch ſeſſions adjudge ſuch perſon a rogue or vagabond, or an incorrigible rogue; they may order ſuch rogue or vagabond to be kept in the ſaid houſe of correction to hard labour for any further time not exceeding ſix months; and ſuch incorrigible rogue, for any further time not exceeding two years, nor leſs than ſix months from the making ſuch order of ſeſſions; and during ſuch confinement, to be corrected by whipping, in ſuch manner and at ſuch times and places within their juriſdictions as they think fit; and ſuch perſon may afterwards be ſent away by ſuch paſs, mutatis mutandis, as aforeſaid; and if ſuch perſon, being a male, is above the age of 12 years, the juſtices at their ſeſſions may, at any time before he is diſcharged, ſend him to be employed in his majeſty's ſervice, either by ſea or land. And in caſe any ſuch incorrigible rogue, ſo kept in the houſe of correction, before the expiration of the time for which he or ſhe is ſo detained, break out or eſcape from the ſaid houſe of correction, or offend again in like manner, ſuch perſon ſhall be deemed guilty of felony, and being convicted, ſhall be tranſported for any time not exceeding ſeven years. ſ. 9.

The juſtice who makes the paſs, ſhall cauſe likewiſe to be delivered to the conſtable, or other officer appointed to convey them, a certificate, aſcertaining how they are to be conveyed, by horſe, cart, or on foot, and what allowance ſuch officer is to have for conveying them, (according to the rates appointed by the general or quarter ſeſſions of the peace, as is herein after directed) in the form, or to the effect following, viz. ſ. 10.

Whereas by a paſs (reciting the ſubſtance of the ſaid paſs) I (or we) do hereby order and direct the ſaid perſon (or perſons) to be conveyed on foot, (or in a cart, or by horſe, &c.) to the ſaid town (or pariſh) of ——— in ——— (or other place, deſcribing it) in the way to ſuch pariſh (town or place, as the caſe ſhall be) in ——— days time; for which the ſaid conſtable (&c.) is to be allowed the ſum of ——— and no more.

Given under my hand (or our hands) this ——— day, &c.

The conſtable, or officer who receives ſuch paſs and certificate, ſhall convey the perſon named in ſuch paſs in ſuch manner, and in ſuch time, as by the ſame paſs is directed, the next direct way to the place where he or ſhe is to be ſent, if ſuch place be in the ſame county or franchiſe where the ſaid perſon was apprehended; but if the place to which the perſon ſo apprehended is to be ſent, lies in ſome other county or franchiſe, he ſhall deliver the ſaid perſon to the conſtable or other ſuch officer of the firſt town or place in the next county or franchiſe, in the direct way to the place to which ſuch perſon is to be conveyed, together with the ſaid paſs and duplicate of examination, taking his receipt for the ſame; and ſuch conſtable, or other officer, ſhall without delay apply to ſome juſtice of peace in the ſame county or franchiſe, who ſhall make the like certificate as before (mutatis mutandis) and deliver it to the ſaid conſtable or other officer, who ſhall convey the perſon unto the firſt pariſh or place in the next county or franchiſe in the direct way to the place to which ſuch perſon is to be conveyed; and ſo in like manner from one county or franchiſe to another, till they come to the place to which ſuch perſon is ſent; and the conſtable or other officer, who delivers ſuch perſon to the churchwarden or other perſon ordered to receive him by ſuch paſs, ſhall deliver the ſaid paſs with the duplicate of examination, taking their receipt for the ſame; and if the churchwarden or perſon who receives any perſon ſo ſent think the examination to be falſe, he is hereby empowered to carry the perſon ſo ſent before ſome juſtice of peace, who, if he ſee cauſe, may commit ſuch perſon to the houſe of correction, till the next quarter ſeſſions, and the juſtices there if they ſee cauſe, may deal with ſuch perſon as an incorrigible rogue, but the perſon ſo ſent ſhall not be removed from the place to which ſent, but by order of two juſtices, in the ſame manner as other poor perſons are removed to the place of their ſettlement. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of peace, before whom any vagrants are carried, to order ſuch vagrants to be ſearched, and their bundles to be inſpected by the conſtable, tithingman, churchwarden, or overſeer of the poor, in the preſence of the ſaid juſtice; and if it appear, that any ſuch vagrants have ſufficient to pay their paſſage, either in the whole or in part, to the pariſh to which they belong, then the ſaid juſtice ſhall order ſo much of the money to be paid, or other effects found upon ſuch vagrants to be ſold, and employed towards the expence of taking up and paſſing ſuch vagrants, returning the overplus (if any be), be), after deducting the charges of ſuch ſale to ſuch vagrants. ſ. 12.

The conſtable, or other officer of any pariſh or place in the counties of Cumberland, Northumberland, Durham, or town of Berwick, ſhall, upon any perſon being delivered to them by a paſs and examination, according to the direction of this act, whoſe place of legal ſettlement is in Scotland, deliver the ſaid examination to the clerk of the peace for ſuch reſpective county, to be kept among the records of the ſeſſions of that county, and convey ſuch perſon with the ſaid paſs, into the next adjoining ſhire, ſtewartry, or place in Scotland, and deliver him to ſome conſtable or other officer of the next pariſh or diſtrict within the ſaid ſhire, &c. taking his receipt for him, and ſuch officer ſhall receive ſuch perſon, and give ſuch receipt and diſpoſe of him according to law; and in caſe any ſuch vagrant, after being ſo ſent into Scotland, be found wandering, begging, or miſbehaving in England, he ſhall be deemed an incorrigible rogue, and be puniſhed as ſuch. ſ. 13.

Every maſter of any ſhip or pacquet boat bound for Ireland, the iſles of Man, Jerſey, Guernſey, or Scilly, ſhall, upon warrant to him directed, under the hand and ſeal of a juſtice of the peace of the county or place where ſuch ſhip lies, take on board the ſame, ſuch vagrants as be named in the ſaid warrant, and convey them to ſuch place in Ireland, the iſles of Man, Jerſey, Guernſey, or Scilly, as ſuch ſhip is bound to, or ſhall arrive at; and for the charges thereof, ſuch maſter ſhall take, and the conſtable or perſon who ſerves him with the ſaid warrant ſhall pay him ſuch rate per head, as the juſtices of the peace at their quarter ſeſſions appoint; and ſuch maſter ſhall, on the back of the ſaid warrant, ſign a receipt for the money, and alſo for the vagrants; which warrant, ſo indorſed, ſhall then be produced to the juſtice who ſigned the ſame, and upon his allowance thereof, under his hand, the money ſo paid ſhall be repaid by the county, in ſuch manner as by this act the money to be paid for conveying vagrants is directed; and every maſter of ſuch ſhip neglecting or refuſing to receive or tranſport ſuch vagrants, or to indorſe and ſign ſuch receipt, ſhall forfeit 5 l. to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the ſhip, or any goods within the ſame, by warrant of any juſtice for the ſame county, &c. ſ. 14.

Provided that no maſter of any ſhip be compelled to take on board more than one vagrant for every 20 tons burthen of ſuch ſhip. ſ. 15.

The juſtices of peace of any county, &c. ſhall, at the general or quarter ſeſſions of the peace, appoint what rates per mile, or otherwiſe, ſhall be made for the paſſing or maintaining of rogues, vagabonds, or incorrigible rogues, and may likewiſe make ſuch other orders for the more regular proceeding therein, within their reſpective juriſdictions, as they think proper; which rates and orders ſhall be obſerved by all juſtices conſtables and other perſons within the ſame juriſdictions. ſ. 16.

In caſe any petty conſtable or other ſuch officer of any pariſh, or place, bring to any high conſtable any ſuch certificate as aforeſaid, aſcertaining how and for what rates he is required to convey any vagabonds, &c. together with a receipt from any conſtable, or other perſon to whom the perſon ſo to be conveyed was delivered, the ſaid high conſtable ſhall pay unto ſuch petty conſtable, the rates aſcertained by ſuch certificate, taking from ſuch petty conſtable ſuch certificate, and his receipt for the ſame; and the ſaid high conſtable ſhall be allowed the ſame by the treaſurer of the county, &c. on his paſſing his accounts, upon his producing and delivering up ſuch certificate and receipt, and giving his own receipt to ſuch treaſurer; and the juſtices at the general or quarter ſeſſions ſhall allow the ſame to ſuch treaſurer in his accounts, upon his producing and delivering up the vouchers, aforeſaid; and in caſe any high conſtable refuſe or neglect to pay the ſaid petty conſtable, or other perſon, the rates aſcertained by ſuch certificate and receipt, on demand, it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice, by warrant to levy double the ſum, by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, and thereout to allow the ſaid petty conſtable, or other perſon, the ſum aſcertained by ſuch certificate and receipt, and ſuch other recompence for his trouble, time, and expences, as the ſaid juſtice thinks fit; and the overplus (if any) ſhall be returned to ſuch high conſtable upon demand; and in cities and places where there is no high conſtable, ſuch petty conſtables or other officers, ſhall be allowed what they ſo pay purſuant to ſuch certificate, in their accounts, upon their producing and delivering up ſuch vouchers; or in caſe any maſter of a houſe of correction deliver ſuch certificate and receipt to any treaſurer, ſuch treaſurer ſhall pay the rates therein aſcertained to ſuch maſter of a houſe of correction, taking his receipt, which ſhall be allowed to ſuch treaſurer in his accounts, on his producing and delivering up ſuch vouchers. ſ. 17.

In caſe any ſuch petty conſtable, or other officer or maſter of any houſe of correction, counterfeit any ſuch certificate, receipt, or note, or make, or knowingly permit to be made, any alteration therein, he ſhall forfeit 50 l. and in caſe he convey not the perſons to the place where they ought to be conveyed, or deliver them not to the proper perſon, or if any conſtable or other perſon refuſe to receive any ſuch perſons ſent to them, or to give a receipt as before directed, the conſtable or other perſon ſhall forfeit 20 l. which forfeiture ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, by warrant of the juſtices where ſuch offence is committed, at their general or quarter ſeſſions; one moiety to be paid to the perſon who firſt makes information, and the other moiety to the treaſurer of the county or place, to be applied as part of the public ſtock; and the overplus (if any) ſhall be returned to ſuch conſtable, &c. upon demand. ſ. 18.

The pariſh or place to which any rogue, vagabond, or incorrigible rogue, is conveyed by paſs aforeſaid, ſhall employ in work, or place in ſome workhouſe or almshouſe, the perſon ſo conveyed to them, until he or ſhe betake themſelves to ſome ſervice or employment; and in caſe any ſuch perſon refuſe to work, the overſeers of the poor of the ſaid pariſh may cauſe ſuch perſon to be carried before ſome juſtice of peace, in order to be ſent to the houſe of correction, there to be kept to hard labour. ſ. 19.

Where perſons by lunacy or otherwiſe are furiouſly mad, and dangerous to be permitted to go abroad, it ſhall be lawful for two juſtices where ſuch lunatic is found, by warrant directed to the conſtables, churchwardens, and overſeers of the poor of the pariſh or place, to cauſe ſuch perſon to be apprehended, and kept ſafely locked up in ſome ſecure place within the county or precinct, as ſuch juſtices direct, and if ſuch juſtices find it neceſſary, to be there chained; if the laſt legal ſettlement of ſuch perſon be in any place within ſuch county; and if ſuch ſettlement be not there, ſuch perſon ſhall be ſent to the place of his laſt legal ſettlement, by a paſs, mutatis mutandis, as aforeſaid, and ſhall be locked up or chained, by warrant of two juſtices of the county or precinct to which ſuch perſon is to be ſent, and the charges of removing, and of maintaining, and curing ſuch perſon during ſuch reſtraint (which ſhall be for ſuch time only as ſuch madneſs continues) ſhall be paid (being firſt proved upon oath) by order of two juſtices, directing the churchwardens or overſeers where any goods, lands, or tenements, of ſuch perſon be, to ſeize and ſell ſo much of the goods, or receive ſo much of the rents of the lands as is neceſſary to pay the ſame, and to account for what is ſo ſeized, ſold, or received, to the next quarter ſeſſions; but if ſuch perſon hath not an eſtate to pay the ſame, over and above what is ſufficient to maintain his or her family, then ſuch charges ſhall be paid by the pariſh or place to which ſuch perſon belongs, by order of two juſtices directed to the churchwardens or overſeers. ſ. 20.

This act ſhall not abridge the prerogative of the king, or the power of the lord chancellor, or the chancellor or vice-chancellor of the county palatine of Lancaſter, or of the chamberlain or vice-chamberlain of the county palatine of Cheſter, concerning ſuch lunatics, or reſtrain any friend or relation of ſuch lunatics from taking them under their own care. ſ. 21.

In caſe any conſtable or other officer or maſter of any houſe of correction, be negligent in his duty in the execution of this act, in any caſe for which no puniſhment is particularly provided, or in caſe any perſon diſturb the execution of this act, or reſcue any perſon apprehended or paſſing by virtue thereof, or be aſſiſting to his or her eſcape, and be thereof convicted, upon the oath of one witneſs, before a juſtice, where ſuch offence is committed, the perſon ſo offending for every ſuch offence ſhall forfeit any ſum not exceeding 5 l. nor leſs than 10 s. to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offenders goods, by warrant from ſuch juſtice; and if ſufficient diſtreſs cannot be found, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice to commit the perſons ſo offending to the houſe of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding two months. ſ. 22.

If any perſon ſhall knowingly permit any rogue, vagabond, or incorrigible rogue, to lodge in his or her houſe, barn, or other outhouſe or buildings, and ſhall not apprehend and carry ſuch vagabond, &c. before ſome juſtice, or give notice to ſome conſtable, or other officer ſo to do, ſuch perſon being thereof convicted, either on confeſſion or upon oath of one witneſs before a juſtice where ſuch offence is committed, ſhall forfeit any ſum not exceeding 40 s. nor leſs than 10 s. one moiety to the informer, and the other moiety to the poor of the pariſh, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant from ſuch juſtice; and if any charge be brought upon any pariſh or place, by means of any ſuch offence, the ſame ſhall be anſwered to the ſaid pariſh by ſuch offender, and be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and if ſufficient diſtreſs cannot be found, ſuch offender ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction by the juſtice, for any time not exceeding one month. ſ. 23.

And whereas perſons are often found offending againſt this act having children with them, if any ſuch child above the age of ſeven years be committed to the houſe of correction as aforeſaid, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices at the quarter ſeſſions, if they ſee convenient, at any time before ſuch child be diſcharged, to order ſuch child to be placed out in ſuch manner as they think fit, as a ſervant or apprentice to any perſon within their juriſdictions, who is willing to take ſuch child, to ſerve ſuch perſon till ſuch child arrive at the age of 21 years, or for any leſs time: and if any offender who was found with ſuch child, be again found with the ſame child, (which was ſo placed out as aforeſaid) offending againſt this act, ſuch offender ſhall be deemed an incorrigible rogue. ſ. 24.

And whereas women wandering and begging are often delivered of children in pariſhes to which they do not belong, where any ſuch woman is ſo delivered and becomes chargeable, it ſhall be lawful for the churchwardens or overſeers of the poor of ſuch pariſh or place, to detain ſuch woman in their cuſtody until they can ſafely convey her to ſome juſtice of the peace, who ſhall examine her, and commit her to the houſe of correction, until the next general or quarter ſeſſions, who may (if they ſee convenient) order her to be publicly whipt, and detained in the houſe of correction, for any further time, not exceeding ſix months; and upon application by the churchwardens or overſeers of the place where ſhe was delivered, the juſtices at ſuch ſeſſions ſhall order the treaſurer of the county or diſtrict to pay them ſuch a ſum as is adjudged a ſatisfaction for the charges ſuch place has been put to on ſuch woman's account; and if ſuch woman be detained and conveyed to a juſtice as aforeſaid, the child of which ſhe is delivered, if a baſtard, ſhall not be ſettled in the place where ſo born, but the ſettlement of ſuch woman ſhall be deemed the ſettlement of ſuch child. ſ. 25.

Any perſons aggrieved by any act of any juſtice out of ſeſſions, concerning the execution of this act, may appeal to the next general or quarter-ſeſſions of the county, &c. giving reaſonable notice thereof, whoſe order thereupon ſhall be final. ſ. 26.

In all cities and towns, where by ſpecial acts of parliament the charge of paſſing vagrants is to be defrayed in other manner than is by this act directed, or where ſuch vagrants, by virtue of ſpecial ſtatutes, are to be apprehended and conveyed to the places whither they are to be ſent by any perſons or officers, other than thoſe named for that purpoſe in this act, ſuch charge ſhall be defrayed in ſuch cities and towns as before the making of this act; and the perſon or officer liable to ſuch ſervice in the ſaid cities and towns, by the ſaid ſpecial acts of parliament, ſhall continue liable. And if any perſon be delivered to a bedel or conſtable within the city or liberties of the city of London, to be conveyed on, as directed by this act, the ſaid bedel or conſtable ſhall not deliver ſuch perſon in any other precinct within the ſaid city or liberties, but in the next county, as directed by this act. ſ. 27.

Where any perſons offending againſt this act, have been committed to the houſe of correction, until the next general or quarter ſeſſions, if, upon the examination of the perſons ſo committed, no place can be found to which they may be ſent by a paſs, the ſaid juſtices ſhall at the ſaid ſeſſions order ſuch perſons to be detained and employed in the houſe of correction, until they can provide for themſelves, or until the juſtices at ſeſſions can place them out in ſome lawful calling, as ſervants, apprentices, ſoldiers, mariners, or otherwiſe, either within this realm, or his majeſty's colonies in America, which the ſaid ſeſſions are impowered to do in ſuch manner as they think fit. ſ. 28.

This act ſhall not prejudice the heirs or aſſigns of John Dutton, of Dutton, late of the county of Cheſter Eſq; concerning the liberty which they lawfully may uſe within the county palatine of Cheſter, and county of Cheſter. ſ. 29.

Upon the preſentment of the grand jury at the aſſizes, great ſeſſion, general or gaol delivery, held for any county or liberty, that there is no houſe of correction; or that the houſe of correction already provided therein is not ſufficient, and that it will be neceſſary to provide one or more; the juſtices of the peace of any county, &c. at the general or quarter-ſeſſions, ſhall have power to build or enlarge one or more fit houſes of correction, or to buy or hire one or more fit houſes for that purpoſe, with a convenient backſide adjoining, or to purchaſe land and erect ſuch houſe of correction upon part thereof, and to lay out the reſt for ſuch backſide; and the ſaid juſtices at the general or quarter-ſeſſions ſhall agree upon raiſing ſuch ſums as upon examination of workmen, or others, appear to be neceſſary for building or enlarging ſuch houſes of correction, or for purchaſing or hiring houſes or land for that purpoſe: and if it be thought neceſſary to buy any houſe or land, the houſe or land ſo purchaſed, ſhall be conveyed to ſuch perſons as the ſaid juſtices at ſeſſions think fit, in truſt and for the uſe aforeſaid. ſ. 30.

The juſtices of peace for any county, &c. at their general or quarter-ſeſſions ſhall take care that the houſes of correction already provided, or hereafter to be provided within their reſpective juriſdictions (except ſuch houſes of correction as have been, or ſhall be erected or maintained by any particular founder), be duly fitted up and ſupplied with ſufficient implements and furniture for keeping, relieving, ſetting to work, and correcting all idle and diſorderly perſons, rogues, vagabonds, incorrigible rogues, and others, who ſhall be ſent to, or confined in the ſame; and two juſtices within the reſpective hundreds or juriſdictions, where there is any houſe of correction, or any two juſtices appointed at the general or quarter-ſeſſions for that purpoſe, ſhall viſit the ſame twice, or oftner if need be, in every year, and examine into the eſtate and management thereof, and report the ſame to the next general or quarter-ſeſſions; to the intent, that if any thing be amiſs therein, the ſame may, by order of ſuch general or quarter-ſeſſions, be reformed; and the ſaid juſtices, at their reſpective general or quarter-ſeſſions, ſhall have the like power over the houſes of correction to be erected or purchaſed by virtue of this act, as they now have by law over thoſe already erected; and further, that if the maſters of the ſaid houſes of correction keep not the ſaid idle and diſorderly perſons, rogues, vagabonds, or incorrigible rogues, to hard labour, and correct them according to the directions of the warrants by which they be committed or detained, or otherwiſe miſbehave, the ſaid juſtices at ſeſſions, are to impoſe ſuch fines upon them, as they think fit, in the ſame manner as fines may be impoſed on maſters of houſes of correction, for the neglect therein mentioned by 7 Jac. 1. c. 4. which fines ſhall be paid to the treaſurer of the county or diviſion, and ſhall be accounted for by him as part of the public ſtock; and the ſaid juſtices at their ſeſſions may appoint and remove the maſters or other officers of ſuch houſes of correction, and make ſuch orders as they think fit for the better governing the ſaid houſes of correction, and for employing, relieving, and puniſhing the perſons therein, or for ſending them to or from thence, which ſaid orders of ſuch juſtices ſhall be final: and no certiorari ſhall be granted for the removal of the ſame: and in caſe the perſon removed by order of any general or quarter-ſeſſions, neglect to quit the poſſeſſion of ſuch houſe of correction, from whence he is ordered to be removed, for ten days next after notice given him in writing by the clerk of the peace, it ſhall be lawful for any two juſtices (upon producing to them ſuch orders of ſeſſions, or an atteſted copy thereof, and upon oath by one witneſs, of ſuch notice having been given to the perſon ſo removed, and of his having neglected to quit poſſeſſion) by warrant under their hands and ſeals, to direct the ſheriff of the ſame county, or place, to remove him out of ſuch houſe of correction, and he is hereby required to clear the poſſeſſion thereof, in like manner as upon a writ of habere facias poſſeſſionem. ſ. 31.

Where any offenders are committed by any juſtice to the houſe of correction for offences cogniſable out of the general or quarter-ſeſſions of the peace, and the time and manner of their puniſhment is not by law expreſsly limited, the ſaid juſtice ſhall commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction, there to be kept to hard labour until the next general or quarter-ſeſſions, or until diſcharged by due courſe of law; and it ſhall be lawful for two juſtices (of which the juſtice who committed ſuch offender to be one), to diſcharge the ſaid offender before the ſaid ſeſſions, if they ſee cauſe; and if he be not ſo diſcharged, the ſaid ſeſſions may either diſcharge him, or continue him in cuſtody for ſuch time as they ſee fit, not exceeding three months. ſ. 32.

The juſtices of peace at the general or quarter-ſeſſions, ſhall cauſe ſuch ſums as be neceſſary for the execution of this act, to be raiſed in the ſame manner as rates are directed to be raiſed by 12 Geo. 2. c. 29. See Title COUNTY RATES. ſ. 33.

If any perſon be ſued for any thing done in execution of this act, he may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. the defendant may recover treble coſts. And this act ſhall commence from the 1ſt of June 1744; and from that time, 13 Geo. 2. c. 24. ſhall be repealed; but all the acts therein mentioned to be repealed, are hereby declared to be repealed. ſ. 34.

By 25 Geo. 2. c. 36. It ſhall be lawful for any two juſtices of peace, in caſe any perſon apprehended upon any general privy ſearch, or by any ſpecial warrant, be charged before them with being a rogue and vagabond, or an idle and diſorderly perſon, or with ſuſpicion of felony (although no direct proof be then made thereof), to examine ſuch perſon upon oath, not only as to the place where he was laſt legally ſettled, but alſo as to his means of livelihood; the ſubſtance of which examination ſhall be put into writing, and be ſigned by the perſon ſo examined; and the ſaid juſtices ſhall ſign the ſame, and tranſmit it to the next general or quarter-ſeſſions of the peace for the ſame county, city, or liberty, to be filed and kept on record: and if ſuch perſon make it not appear to ſuch juſtices, that he has a lawful way of getting his livelihood, or procure not ſome reſponſible houſe-keeper to appear to his character, and give ſecurity for his appearance before ſuch juſtices, at ſome other day (in caſe the ſame be required), to commit ſuch perſon to ſome priſon, or houſe of correction, for any time not exceeding ſix days; and in the mean time to order the overſeers of the poor of the pariſh or place in which ſuch perſon is apprehended, to inſert an advertiſement in ſome public paper, deſcribing ſuch ſuſpicious perſon, and any thing found upon him, or in his cuſtody, and which he is ſuſpected not to have come honeſtly by, and mentioning the place to which ſuch perſon is committed, and ſpecifying when and where ſuch perſon is to be again brought before them to be re-examined; and if no accuſation be then laid againſt him, ſuch perſon ſhall be diſcharged, or otherwiſe dealt with according to law. ſ. 12.

By 26 Geo. 2. c. 34. All rogues, vagabonds, and incorrigible rogues, ſent by paſſes from one county, riding, diviſion, corporation, or franchiſe, into any other county, &c. ſhall be delivered to the conſtable, or other ſuch officer, of the firſt town, pariſh, or place in the next county, &c. and ſhall be by ſuch conſtable, &c. conveyed forward in the manner by the 17 Geo. 2. c. 5. directed; and the treaſurer of each county, &c. ſhall pay to ſuch conſtable, &c. the charges of conveying ſuch vagabonds, &c. upon ſuch conſtables, &c. producing to him the certificate, and ſuch other vouchers as are required by the ſaid act to be delivered to the high conſtables; and the ſums ſo paid ſhall be allowed by the juſtices to ſuch treaſurer in his accounts, on his producing the vouchers aforeſaid, together with the receipt of the ſaid conſtable. ſ. 2.

By 22 Geo. 3. c. 64. As ſoon as houſes of correction ſhall be made, or altered and completed according to this act, the juſtices at their general quarter ſeſſions, ſhall order them to be fitted up in ſuch manner as to them ſhall ſeem fit; and ſhall alſo provide ſuch mills, looms, utenſils, and implements, as they judge proper for employing the perſons who ſhall be committed to ſuch houſes of correction for hard labour: and the ſaid juſtices ſhall, at every general quarter ſeſſions, call upon the keeper of ſuch houſe of correction to produce to them in writing a liſt of the perſons then in cuſtody, with a deſcription of the offences, and the time for which every ſuch perſon was committed, diſtinguiſhing particulary thoſe who are directed by the warrant to be kept to hard labour, and alſo the age and ſex of every perſon committed to hard labour, and in what trade, manufacture, or buſineſs, ſuch perſon hath been employed, and what he hath been moſt accuſtomed to, and is beſt qualified for, and how each perſon has behaved during his confinement, according to the beſt of his information and obſervation; which liſt the keeper is to make out, and deliver to the chairman of ſuch quarter ſeſſions, as ſoon as ſuch court ſhall be aſſembled; and the court ſhall, before the end of that ſeſſion, give ſuch directions for the future employment of the priſoners as to them ſhall ſeem meet; and the juſtices ſhall, at their general quarter ſeſſion, from time to time, order a ſufficient quantity of materials for manufactures to be provided for the uſe of the perſons who ſhall be committed to ſuch houſes of correction for hard labour, of ſuch kinds as they think proper; and ſhall employ ſome fit perſon to be the keeper of ſuch houſe of correction, and may appoint a temporary aſſiſtant to inſtruct ſuch priſoners in any buſineſs which the juſtices think proper to be ſet on foot there. ſ. 3.

The rules in the ſchedule annexed, ſhall be obſerved at every houſe of correction, ſubject to ſuch additions as ſhall be made by the juſtices at their quarter ſeſſions, held next after Midſummer or Michaelmas, and which they are to make at their diſcretion; provided ſuch addition ſhall not be contradictory to the rules eſtabliſhed by this act: and, for the purpoſe of having them more generally known, and attended to, the governors of every houſe of correction ſhall cauſe the ſame to be printed in plain legible characters, and fixed up in ſome conſpicuous part of every priſon. ſ. 4.

The juſtices at their general quarter ſeſſions, may cauſe ſuch ſums as ſhall be neceſſary for erecting or repairing houſes of correction, and the ſupport of priſoners there, to be raiſed in the ſame manner as the county rates. ſ. 5.

The want of houſes of correction, or the inſufficiency thereof, may be preſented at the quarter ſeſſions by a juſtice, on his own view or knowledge, as well as by the grand jury, purſuant to 17 Geo. 2.; which preſentment by the juſtice ſhall be proceeded upon in the ſame manner as if it had been made by the grand jury. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for the governor of every houſe of correction, to employ all priſoners therein, and kept at the expence of the county, in ſome work which is not ſevere, although ſuch priſoner was not, by the warrant of commitment, ordered to be kept to labour; and ſuch governor ſhall enter a ſeparate account of the work done by every perſon under that deſcription, and ſhall account with and pay to him one half of the nett profits, which he ſhall have earned, at the time of his diſcharge, and not before. ſ. 7.

No governor or keeper of any houſe of correction, or aſſiſtant under ſuch governor, ſhall ſell, or be licenſed to ſell, or have any benefit whatſoever, directly or indirectly, from the ſale of any wine, ale, beer, ſpirituous or other liquors, or any other article uſed in ſuch houſe of correction, or by any perſon confined therein, during ſuch employment; and every perſon offending therein ſhall, on complaint upon oath, and conviction for the offence, before a magiſtrate, forfeit 10*l.* and ſhall be diſmiſſed from his employment by order of the juſtices at their next general quarter ſeſſions, on proof being made upon oath before them of the ſaid offence; and no wine, ale, ſpirituous or other liquors, ſhall be brought into the houſe of correction to be drank there, unleſs for a medical purpoſe, by a written direction, under the hand of the apothecary or ſurgeon uſually attending ſuch houſe of correction; and the directions given by the laſt-mentioned act for the inſpection and controul by the juſtices over the maſter or keeper of ſuch houſe of correction, ſhall be enforced, and ſuch governor puniſhed for his neglect of duty or miſbehaviour, according to the ſaid act. ſ. 8.

The juſtices, in their quarter ſeſſions, ſhall fix a ſalary for the governor or keeper, and may moreover allow him ſome proportion of the profits earned by the priſoners. ſ. 9.

No woman ſhall be appointed keeper of any houſe of correction. ſ. 10.

The governor ſhall have power to put handcuffs or fetters upon any priſoner who ſhall behave in a refractory manner, or ſhew a diſpoſition to break out of priſon; but ſuch governor ſhall give notice thereof to one of the viſiting juſtices, within 48 hours after the priſoner ſhall be ſo fettered; and he ſhall not continue ſuch fettering longer than ſix days, without obtaining an order in writing from one of the viſiting juſtices. ſ. 11.

The juſtices at their general quarter ſeſſions, may, if they think fit, appoint a miniſter of the church of England, to perform divine ſervice there every Sunday, and may appoint ſuch ſalary for his trouble as they think fit, not exceeding 20*l. per annum*, to be paid by the treaſurer of the county, out of the county rates; but ſuch ſalary to be diminiſhed, at any future quarter ſeſſions, if the juſtices think fit. ſ. 12.

Penalties ſhall, in default of payment, after due ſummons and demand made, be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hand and ſeal of any juſtice, rendering the overplus, after charges of diſtreſs deducted; and in caſe ſufficient diſtreſs ſhall not be found, then, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice to commit ſuch offender to the common gaol or houſe of correction for not exceeding ſix months, nor leſs than one; and ſuch penalty ſhall be paid to the treaſurer of the county, in aid of the common ſtock, out of which the expences attending the execution of this act are to be paid. ſ. 13.

Rules, Orders, and Regulations, to be obſerved and enforced at every Houſe of Correction provided and eſtabliſhed, or to be provided and eſtabliſhed, under the Authority of the Acts of the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King James the Firſt, the ſeventeenth of King George the Second, and the twenty-ſecond of King George the Third.

I. THAT the ſeveral perſons who ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction to be kept to hard labour, ſhall be employed ployed (unleſs prevented by ill health) every day, during their confinement (except Sundays, Chriſtmas, and Good Friday), for ſo many hours as the day-light in the different ſeaſons of the year will admit, not exceeding twelve hours, being allowed thereout to reſt half an hour at breakfaſt, an hour at dinner, and half an hour at ſupper, and that the intervals ſhall be noticed by the ringing of a bell.

II. That the governor of each houſe of correction ſhall aaapt the various employments which ſhall be directed by the juſtices at their quarter ſeſſions, to each perſon, in ſuch manner as ſhall be beſt ſuited to his or her ſtrength and ability, regard being had to age and ſex.

III. That the males and females ſhall be employed, and ſhall alſo eat and be lodged, in ſeparate apartments, and ſhall have no intercouſe or communication with each other.

IV. That every perſon ſo committed ſhall be ſuſtained with bread, and any coarſe but wholeſome food, and water; but perſons under the care of the phyſician, ſurgeon, or apothecary, ſhall be ſuſtained with ſuch food and liquor as he ſhall direct.

V. That the governor, and ſuch other perſons (if any) as ſhall be employed by the juſtices to aſſiſt the governor, ſhall be very watchful and attentive in ſeeing that the perſons ſo committed are conſtantly employed during the hours of work; and if any perſon ſhall be found remiſs or negligent in performing what is required to be done by ſuch perſon to the beſt of his or her power and ability, or ſhall wilfully waſte, ſpoil, or damage the goods committed to his or her care, the governor ſhall puniſh every ſuch perſon in the manner hereafter directed.

VI. That if any perſon ſo committed ſhall refuſe to obey the orders given by the governor, or ſhall be guilty of profane curſing or ſwearing; or of any indecent behaviour or expreſſion; or of any aſſault, quarrel, or abuſive words, to or with any other perſon; he or ſhe ſhall be puniſhed for the ſame in the manner hereafter directed.

VII. That the governor ſhall have power to puniſh the ſeveral offenders for the offences herein-before deſcribed, by cloſer confinement; and ſhall enter in a book, to be kept by him for the inſpection of the juſtices at the quarter ſeſſions, and the viſiting juſtice or juſtices, the name of every perſon who ſhall be ſo puniſhed by him, expreſſing the offence, and the duration of the puniſhment inflicted.

By 23 Geo. 3. c. 88. If any perſon ſhall be apprehended having upon him any picklock key, crow, jack, bit, or other implement, with an intent feloniouſly to break and enter into any dwelling-houſe, warehouſe, coach-houſe, ſtable, or outhouſe; or ſhall have upon him any piſtol, hanger, cutlaſs, bludgeon, or other offenſive weapon, with intent feloniouſly to aſſault any perſon; or ſhall be found in or upon any dwelling-houſe, warehouſe, coach-houſe, ſtable, or outhouſe, or in any incloſed yard or garden, or area belonging to any houſe, with an intent to ſteal any goods; ſuch perſon ſhall be deemed a rogue and vagabond, within 17 Geo. 2.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 55, after reciting, '22 Geo. 3. c. 64. whereby it was enacted, That the juſtices, within England and Wales, at their quarter ſeſſions next after Midſummer, from the time of paſſing that act, ſhould nominate one juſtice within their diſtricts, to examine the houſes of correction; and the juſtice ſo nominated was to inſpect the ſame, and report his opinion at the Michaelmas quarter ſeſſions then next following (as to the ſtate thereof, and the additions or alterations neceſſary to make them more convenient, having regard to the claſſing of the perſons who ſhould be kept there, according to the nature of their crimes and puniſhments, and to the providing proper places for the employment of ſuch perſons who were committed to hard labour, and to the keeping every part of ſuch priſons clean; and the ſaid juſtice nominated, was thereby required to employ perſons to make plans and eſtimates of new buildings, or additions or alterations; which, with the report of the ſaid juſtice, were to be laid before the court at the ſaid Michaelmas quarter ſeſſions; or at the Epiphany quarter ſeſſions then next following); which court was to conſider the ſame, and if they approved ſuch plans, they might adjourn the quarter ſeſſions to a further day, for receiving propoſals from perſons inclined to undertake ſuch work, of which notice ſhould be publiſhed, and then to contract with perſons to do the ſame; or if they diſapproved ſuch plans or eſtimates, to direct others to be made, and adjourn their ſeſſions to ſome further day, to receive ſuch new plans and eſtimates, and alſo propoſals from perſons inclined to undertake the work; and the juſtices, in ſettling and adjuſting ſuch plans, were to provide ſeparate apartments for all perſons committed upon charges of felony, or convicted of any theft or larceny, and committed to the houſe of correction for puniſhment by hard labour, to prevent any communication between them and the other priſoners; and alſo proper apartments, covered or open, for employing the perſons kept to hard labour; and they were alſo to provide ſeparate apartments, in each diviſion of the houſe of correction for women; and the general quarter ſeſſions were, upon ſuch report, to make ſuch order as to them ſhould ſeem juſt;' ENACTS, That it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices, who have omitted to examine into the ſtate of the houſes of correction, to examine, and fully to execute the act at the next or any ſubſequent quarter ſeſſion to be holden after the paſſing of this act, as fully as they could have done if they had proceeded therein at the quarter ſeſſions held next after Midſummer, Michaelmas, or Chriſtmas, from the time of paſſing the ſaid act. ſ. 1.

Where the amount of any eſtimate, approved by the juſtices, for building, rebuilding, enlarging, or removing, and fitting up any houſe of correction, under this act, ſhall exceed one half of the amount of the ordinary annual aſſeſſment for the county rate (to be taken on a proportion of the laſt five years), then it ſhall be lawful for the quarter ſeſſions to borrow on mortgage of the rates by inſtruments in the form, in the ſchedule, not leſs than 50*l.* nor exceeding 100*l.* each, at legal or lower intereſt, and to ſecure ſuch money upon the credit of the rates; and the juſtices aſſembled, are to agree with any perſon for the loan of ſuch money, and by their order to confirm ſuch agreement; and ſuch agreement eſtabliſhed by ſuch order, and ſigned by the chairman and two juſtices preſent at making ſuch order, ſhall be effectual for ſecuring to the perſon advancing any money, all money, with intereſt for the ſame; and copies or extracts of ſuch agreements or ſecurities ſhall be kept with the clerk of the peace, or officer having the cuſtody of the records of the ſeſſions; and all perſons are impowered (by indorſing his name on the back of ſuch ſecurity), to aſſign the ſame unto any perſon; and ſuch aſſignee may in like manner transfer the ſame again, and ſo toties quoties. ſ. 2.

The juſtices ſhall not only charge the rates, with the intereſt of the monies borrowed, but alſo with the payment of a further ſum, equal at leaſt to the ſum charged for the intereſt of ſuch ſecurities; which ſums ſhall be aſſeſſed on ſuch county, as county rates are, and applied in diſcharge of the intereſt, and of ſo many of the principal ſums on the ſecurities as ſuch money will extend to diſcharge in each year, until the whole ſhall be fully paid; and the juſtices are to fix one or more days in each year, on which ſuch payment ſhall be made, and ſhall make orders for aſſeſſments in due time, ſo as to provide for the regular payment thereof; and they are to appoint a perſon to keep an account of all receipts and payments, in a book apart from all other accounts; and the ſaid books ſettled, to deliver into court at every general or quarter ſeſſions; and the ſaid juſtices are, at ſuch ſeſſions, to inſpect ſuch accounts, and make orders for carrying this act into execution; and if it appear to the juſtices, that the perſon appointed has neglected the order, and has not duly applied the money in hand, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit double the amount of the money not applied; and the juſtices, in ſeſſion, ſhall direct in what order ſuch ſecurities ſhall be diſcharged, by drawing lots or otherwiſe, firſt diſcharging all ſecurities which ſhall bear the higheſt intereſt. ſ. 3.

The quarter ſeſſions ſhall make proviſions by means of the rates, and by their orders, in ſuch manner that the whole money borrowed ſhall be fully paid within 14 years. ſ. 4.

Juſtices may diſpoſe of old houſes of correction, and the ground on which they ſtand, at the beſt prices that can be gotten for the ſame; which monies ſhall be applied to the purpoſes of this act; and in caſe of any purchaſe of lands, which ſhall exceed what is neceſſary to be uſed, the juſtices may ſell the ſame, and apply the money for the purpoſes aforeſaid. ſ. 5.

Bodies politick, &c. may ſell and convey lands, &c. unto ſuch perſons as ſhall be named by the juſtices, in truſt, and for the purpoſe of erecting new houſes of correction, or enlarging old houſes of correction. ſ. 6.

Purchaſe money exceeding 100 l. to be laid out to purchaſe of lands, ſubject to the ſame uſes, and until ſuch purchaſes are made, the money to be laid out in government ſecurities. ſ. 7.

The ſections 8, 9, & 10, direct a jury to be ſummoned to aſcertain the conſideration to be paid for ſuch purchaſe, in the ſame manner as 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 54. ſ. 14, 15, & 16, which clauſes are abridged in page 375, ante.

Upon payment of the money ordered to be paid for the purchaſe of ſuch lands, or upon refuſal or inability to receive the ſame, leaving the ſame in the hands of ſuch perſons as the quarter ſeſſions ſhall appoint, for the uſe of the party, or in caſe of the party not being to be found, then, upon notice to be publiſhed in ſome paper circulating in the county, the ſaid lands purchaſed, ſhall veſt in the perſon who ſhall be authoriſed to take the ſame; and it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices, or two, their workmen or agents, to enter upon, and take poſſeſſion of, the ſaid lands, &c. ſ. 11.

Where any juſtice is, by any act, authoriſed to convict any perſon before him, in a ſummary way, without the intervention of a jury, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice, if he think fit, to commit ſuch perſon, ſo convicted in ſuch ſummary way, to the houſe of correction within his juriſdiction, in lieu of the common gaol. ſ. 12.

By 27 Geo. 3. c. 11. It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice, to commit either to the common gaol, or to any houſe of correction within his juriſdiction, ſuch vagrants, and other criminals, offenders, and perſons charged with, or convicted of ſmall offences, as by any law he is or ſhall be authoriſed to commit to the common gaol.

Victuals.

Stat. of the pillory, 51 Hen. 3. ſt. 6. If a baker or a brewer be convict becauſe he hath not obſerved the aſſize, the firſt, ſecond, and third time, he ſhall be amerced according to his offence, if it be not over grievous; but if the offence be grievous and often, he ſhall ſuffer puniſhment of the body, viz. a brewer to the tumbrel, or ſome other correction. Firſt, ſix lawful men ſhall be ſworn truly to gather all meaſures of the town, viz. buſhels, half and quarter buſhels, gallons, pottles, and quarts, as well of taverns as of other places; meaſures and weights, viz. pounds, half pounds, and other little weights, wherewith bread of the town or of the court is weighed; and upon every meaſure, buſhel and weight, the name of the owner ſhall be written; and likewiſe they ſhall gather the meaſures of mills: after which twelve men ſhall ſwear to make true anſwer to all ſuch things as ſhall be demanded of them in the king's behalf upon articles here following; and ſuch things as be ſecret, they ſhall utter ſecretly, and anſwer privately: and the bailiff ſhall be commanded to bring in all the bakers and brewers with their meaſures: and firſt, they ſhall inquire the price of wheat, how a quarter of the beſt wheat was ſold the laſt market-day, and how the ſecond wheat, and how the third, and how a quarter of barley and oats; after, how the bakers bread doth agree; alſo upon how much increaſe or decreaſe in the price of wheat a baker ought to change the aſſize and weight of his bread; alſo for default in the weight of the bread a baker ought to be amerced, or to be judged unto the pillory; alſo if any ſteward or bailiff for any bribe doth releaſe puniſhment of the pillory and tumbrel. ſ. 1.

Alſo if they have in the town a pillory of convenient ſtrength, ſtrength, after they ſhall enquire of the aſſize and price of wine, after the departure of the juſtices in eyre, and if any corrupted wine be in the town; alſo of the aſſize of ale, how much brewers have ſold contrary to the aſſize; and they ſhall preſent their names, that they be amerced or judged to the tumbrel. ſ. 2.

Alſo if there be any that ſell by one meaſure and buy by another; alſo if any do uſe falſe ells, weights or meaſures; and if any butcher ſell contagious fleſh; alſo they ſhall enquire of cooks that ſeethe fleſh or fiſh with bread or water, or otherwiſe, that is not wholeſome, or after that they have kept it ſo long that it loſeth its natural wholeſomeneſs, and then ſeethe it again and ſell it; or if any buy fleſh of Jews, and then ſell it to Chriſtians; and alſo foreſtallers that buy any thing afore the due hour, or that paſs out of the town to meet ſuch things as come to the market, to the intent they may ſell the ſame in the town unto regrators. ſ. 3.

The aſſize of bread is repealed by 8 Ann. c. 18. and by 31 Geo. 2. c. 29. ſ. 1.

Stat. of York, 12 Edw. 2. ſt. 1. c. 6. No officer in city or borough, that ought to keep aſſizes of wines and victual, ſhall merchandize for wines nor victual; and if any do, and be thereof convict, the merchandize ſhall be forfeit to the king, and the third part thereof ſhall be delivered to the party that ſued the offender; and the chancellor, treaſurer, barons of the exchequer, juſtices of either bench, and juſtices aſſigned to take aſſizes, ſhall admit ſuch plaints by writs and without writs, and ſhall determine them, and ſhall perform all things contained in theſe articles; and the king may aſſign his juſtices to execute this in cities and boroughs.

Stat. de cibariis utendis, 10 Edw. 3. ſt. 3. None ſhall cauſe himſelf to be ſerved at dinner or ſupper with more than two courſes, and each meſs with two ſorts of meat at moſt, be they fleſh or fiſh, with common potages: except in the great feaſts, viz. the eve and day of Chriſtmas, St. Stephen's day, new year's day, the days of epiphany and the purification, the eve and day of Eaſter, and the morrow of Eaſter, aſcenſion-day, the day of pentecoſt and the morrow, the day of Trinity, the nativity of St. John Baptiſt, the day of St. Peter and Paul, the days of the aſſumption and nativity of our lady, and the day of all ſaints, on which days any one may be ſerved with three courſes at moſt in manner aforeſaid.

By 23 Edw. 3. c. 6. Butchers, fiſhmongers, regrators, hoſtelers, brewers, bakers, poulterers, and other ſellers of victual, ſhall be bound to ſell the ſame for a reaſonable price; and if any ſell victuals in other manner, and thereof be convict [viz. by ſuit in the county, wapentake, tithing or ſuch other the king's courts, c. 4.] he ſhall pay double the ſame that he received to the party damnified, or in default of him to any other that will ſue; and the mayors and bailiffs of cities, boroughs, market towns and others, and of the ports and other places, ſhall have power to enquire; and in caſe the mayors and bailiffs be negligent, and be thereof convict before the juſtices aſſigned, they ſhall pay the treble of the thing ſold to the party damnified, or in default of him to any other that will ſue, and be grievouſly puniſhed towards the king.

By 13 Ric. 2. c. 8. confirmed by 4 Hen. 4. c. 25. Victuallers ſhall have reaſonable gains, according to the diſcretion of the juſtices of peace, and no more, upon pain to be grievouſly puniſhed according to the diſcretion of the juſtices, where no pain is limited in certain; and ſheriffs, ſtewards of franchiſes, mayors and bailiffs, and all other that have aſſize of bread and ale, ſhall take no amercement or fine for any default touching the aſſize for which a man ought to have bodily puniſhment; and mayors, &c. that have the ſurvey of victuals in cities, &c. ſhall put the ſtatute 23 Edw. 3. c. 6. in execution.

By 12 Edw. 4. c. 8. No perſon (other than mayors and governors of cities and towns, or other intitled by charter) by colour of letters patent obtained, or to be obtained, ſhall uſe any ſuch office as ſurveyors of victuallers, upon pain of 40 l. the one half to the king to the uſe of his houſe, the other half to him that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt.

By 3 Hen. 8. c. 8. As often as any victualler is choſen to bear office within any city, borough, or town corporate, which ſhould have the aſſiſing and correction of victuals, two diſcreet perſons of the ſame city, &c. not being victuallers, ſhall be choſen by the commonalty in like form as the ſaid officer ſhall be choſen; which two perſons, with the ſaid officer, ſhall be ſworn truly to ceſs the prices and aſſiſes of victual for the time that ſuch victualler ſhall abide in the office; and it ſhall be lawful to the ſaid officers, after the victuals be ceſſed by the ſame officer and the ſaid two perſons, or one of the two perſons, the other being abſent, to ſell wines and all other victual. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not diſcharge any miniſter of the cities of London, York, and Coventry, for any wine or victual to be ſold by retail within the ſaid cities. ſ. 2.

By 25 Hen. 8. c. 2. Upon every complaint of enhancing of prices of cheeſe, butter, capons, hens, chickens, and other victuals, without reaſonable cauſe, in any the king's dominions, the lord chancellor, lord treaſurer, lord preſident, lord privy ſeal, lord ſteward, lord chamberlain, and all other lords of the king's council, the treaſurer and comptroller of the king's houſe, the chancellor of the duchy, the juſtices of either bench, the chancellor, chamberlains, under treaſurer and barons, of the exchequer, or 7 of them, whereof the lord chancellor, lord treaſurer, lord preſident, or lord privy ſeal, to be one, ſhall have power to ſet reaſonable prices of all ſuch victual, and proclamation ſhall be made of ſuch prices. ſ. 1.

All fermors, owners, broggers, and other victuallers, keeping any of the ſaid victuals to the intent to ſell, ſhall ſell at ſuch prices as ſhall be ſet by the proclamation, upon the pains limited in the proclamation. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not be hurtful to mayors or other officers of cities, boroughs, or towns corporate, or others having authority to ſet prices of ſuch victuals. ſ. 3.

No perſon, unleſs by licenſe under the great ſeal, ſhall convey any victuals beyond the ſea, except for the victualling of ſhips, and except barrelled butter and meal to be carried to Iceland, upon pain of the value of the thing conveyed, the one half to the king, and the other half to the party that will ſue. ſ. 4. Moſt kinds of victuals are now permitted to be exported by ſubſequent acts.

By 2 and 3 Edw. 6. c. 15. Revived, continued, and confirmed, by 22 and 23 Car. 2. c. 19. which is now expired. If any butchers, brewers, bakers, poulterers, cooks, coſtermongers, or fruiterers, ſhall conſpire, covenant, promiſe, or make any oaths, that they ſhall not ſell their victuals but at certain prices; or if any artificer do conſpire, &c. that they ſhall not do their works but at a certain price, or ſhall not take upon them to finiſh that another hath begun, or ſhall do but a certain work in a day, or ſhall not work but at certain times; every perſon ſo conſpiring, &c. being convict by evidence, confeſſion or otherwiſe, ſhall forfeit for the firſt offence 10 l. to the king, if he pay the ſame within ſix days after conviction, or elſe ſhall ſuffer 20 days impriſonment, and ſhall only have bread and water for his ſuſtenance; and for the ſecond offence ſhall forfeit 20 l. if he pay the ſame within ſix days, or elſe ſhall ſuffer puniſhment of the pillory; and for the third offence ſhall forfeit 40 l. if he pay the ſame within ſix days, or elſe ſhall ſit on the pillory, and loſe one of his ears, and alſo ſhall be taken as a man infamous. ſ. 1.

If any ſuch conſpiracy, &c. be made by any ſociety or company of any craft of the victuallers above mentioned, with the conſent of the more part of them, beſides the puniſhment for the offender, their corporation ſhall be diſſolved. ſ. 2.

Juſtices of aſſize, juſtices of peace, mayors, bailiffs, and ſtewards of leets, at their ſeſſions, leets, and courts, ſhall have power to enquire, hear and determine all offences againſt this ſtatute. ſ. 3.

View.

Stat. Weſtm. 2. 13 Edw. 1. c. 48. View ſhall not be granted but where the view is neceſſary; as if one loſe land by default, and moveth a writ to demand the ſame land; and where one by an exception dilatory abateth a writ after the view, as by non-tenure, or miſnaming of the town, &c. if he purchaſe another writ; in this caſe, and in the caſe before mentioned, the view ſhall not be granted, if he had view in the firſt writ. In a writ of dower, where the demand is of land that the huſband aliened to the tenant or his anceſtors, though the huſband died not ſeized, yet view ſhall not be granted. In a writ of entry alſo that is abated, becauſe the demandant miſnamed the entry, if he purchaſe another writ of entry, if the tenant had view in the firſt writ he ſhall not have it in the ſecond. In all writs alſo where lands be demanded by reaſon of a leaſe, made by the demandant or his anceſtor unto the tenant, and not to his anceſtor, as that which he leaſed to him being within age, not whole of mind, being in priſon, &c. view ſhall not be granted; but if the demiſe were made to his anceſtor, view ſhall lie as before.

Stat. de viſu ter. incert. temp. ſ. 1. View ſhall not be granted in a writ of ward, in a writ of cuſtoms and ſervices, in a writ of advowſon of a church, but in caſe when there be more churches than one in a town, and all of one ſaint, in a writ of dower, and in a nuper obiit.

Union of Churches.

By 37 Hen. 8. c. 21. An union or conſolidation of two churches, or of a church and chapel in one, the one of them not being above the yearly value of 6 l. as valued to the king, and not diſtant from the other above one mile, may be had by the aſſent of the ordinary of the dioceſe, and of the incumbents, and of all ſuch as have a right to the patronages, being of full age. And ſuch unions ſhall continue for ever in ſuch manner as by writing under the ſeals of ſuch ordinaries, incumbents and patrons, ſhall be declared. ſ. 3.

All unions and conſolidations, which have heretofore been by the aſſent of the ordinaries, incumbents and patrons, in fee-ſimple, ſhall alſo continue for ever. ſ. 4.

Saving unto the king all tenths and firſt-fruits. ſ. 5.

Provided that all unions to be had within any city or town corporate, without the aſſent of the mayor, ſheriffs, and commonalty of the city, or of ſuch bodies corporate of other towns, by the names of their corporations under their common ſeal, ſhall be void. ſ. 6.

Where the inhabitants of any poor pariſh, or the more part of them, within one year after the union or conſolidation of the ſame pariſh, by writing ſhall aſſure the incumbent for the yearly payment of ſo much money as with the ſum that the pariſh is rated at in the king's court ſhall amount to 8 l. to be paid yearly by the inhabitants to the incumbent and his ſucceſſors, ſuch unions or conſolidations ſhall be void. ſ. 7.

By 17 Car. 2. c. 3. In every city or town corporate, which have a mayor and aldermen and particular juſtices of peace, or bailiffs or other chief officers and aſſiſtants, and where two or more churches or chapels and the pariſhes lie within the corporation convenient to be united; the biſhop, with the conſent of the mayor, aldermen and juſtices, or bailiffs or other chief officers, or the major part of them, and of the patrons, may unite the churches, &c. and ſhall appoint at which church the inhabitants ſhall meet, which ſhall be the church preſentative thereafter. ſ. 1.

Notwithſtanding ſuch union, each of the pariſhes ſhall continue diſtinct as to all rates and privileges, and churchwardens ſhall be elected for each. ſ. 2.

Where one or more of the churches ſhall be full, the union ſhall take effect upon the firſt avoidance; and the ſeveral patrons ſhall preſent by turns, in ſuch order as the biſhop, with the conſent of the mayor, &c. and of the patrons, ſhall determine; ſaving to the king all tenths and firſt-fruits, and alſo reſerving all procurations and penſions. ſ. 3.

Provided that no union made by virtue of this act be effectual, until it be regiſtered in the regiſter book of the biſhop. ſ. 4.

No union made by virtue hereof ſhall be effectual, where the ſettled maintenance belonging to the incumbents ſhall exceed 100 l. per ann. unleſs the major part of the pariſhioners under their hands deſire otherwiſe. ſ. 5.

Every miniſter of churches united according to this act ſhall be the incumbent thereof, ſo as ſuch miniſter be a graduate in one of the univerſities of this kingdom. ſ. 6.

Every owner of any impropriation or tithes may give and annex the ſame to the parſonage or vicarage of the pariſh church where the ſame lie, or ſettle the ſame in truſt for the parſonage, &c. or the curates there ſucceſſively where the parſonage is impropriate, and no vicar endowed, without licence of mortmain. ſ. 7.

If the ſettled maintenance of any parſonage or vicarage with cure ſhall not amount to 100 l. per ann. it ſhall be lawful for the incumbent to purchaſe to him and his ſucceſſors lands, rents, tithes, or other hereditaments, without licenſe of mortmain. ſ. 8.

By 4 and 5 Will. and Mar. c. 12. Where any churches ſhall be united by virtue of the act 17 Car. 2. c. 3. and one of the churches ſhall be demoliſhed, as often as the church preſentative ſhall be out of repair, or there ſhall be need of decent ornaments for performance of divine ſervice, the pariſhioners of the pariſh whoſe church ſhall then be demoliſhed, ſhall pay towards the charges of ſuch repairs and ornaments, ſuch proportion as the biſhop ſhall by the union direct, and for want of ſuch direction, one third part of ſuch charges; and the ſame ſhall be rated, and in default thereof ſuch proceedings ſhall be had againſt them as for the reparation and ornaments for their own pariſh church. ſ. 2.

Voucher.

Stat. Marleber. 52 Hen. 3. c. 27. None vouched to warranty before the juſtices in eyre in plea of land ſhall be amerced becauſe he was not preſent when he was vouched, except the firſt day of the coming of the juſtices; but if the party vouched be within the ſhire, the ſheriff ſhall be commanded manded to cauſe him to come within the third or fourth day, according to the diſtance of the place, as it was wont to be done; and if he dwell without the ſhire, he ſhall have reaſonable ſummons of 15 days at leaſt.

Stat. Weſtm. 1. 3 Edw. 1. c. 40. In writs of poſſeſſion, of mortdanceſtor, of coſinage, of aiel, nuper, obiit, of intruſion, &c. whereby lands are demanded which ought to deſcend, revert, remain or eſcheat, by the death of any anceſtor, or otherwiſe, if the tenant vouch to warranty, and the demandant counterpleadeth him, and will aver by aſſiſe, or by the country, or otherwiſe as the court will award, that the tenant or his anceſtor was the firſt that entered after the death of him of whoſe ſeiſin he demandeth, the averment ſhall be received, if the tenant will abide thereupon; and if not, he ſhall be further compelled to another anſwer, if he have not his warrantor preſent that will warrant him freely, and incontinent enter into the warranty; ſaving unto the demandant his exceptions againſt him, if he will vouch further, as he had againſt the firſt tenant. In all writs of entry which make mention of degrees, none ſhall vouch out of the line. And in other writs of entry where no mention is made of degrees (which writs ſhall not be maintained but where the other writs of degrees cannot lie) and in a writ of right, if the tenant vouch to warranty, and the demandant will counterplead him, and be ready to aver by the country, that he that is vouched, nor his anceſtors, had never ſeiſin of the land, &c. ſince the time of him on whoſe ſeiſin the demandant declareth until the writ purchaſed and the plea moved, whereby he might have infeoffed the tenant or his anceſtors, the averment ſhall be received, if the tenant will abide thereupon; and if not, the tenant ſhall further anſwer, if he be not preſent that will warrant him freely, and incontinent enter in anſwer; ſaving unto the demandant his exceptions againſt him, as againſt the firſt tenant: and the ſaid exception ſhall have place in a writ of mortdanceſtor, and in other writs before named, as well as in writs that concern right; and if the tenant have a deed that compriſeth warranty of another man, his recovery by a writ of warranty of charters ſhall be ſaved to him.

Stat. Weſtm. 2. 13 Edw. 1. c. 6. Like as the tenant ſhould loſe the land in demand, in caſe where he vouched, and the vouchee could diſcharge himſelf of the warranty, in the ſame wiſe ſhall the warrantor loſe where he denieth his warranty, and it be found, and tried againſt him, that he is bound to warrantize. And if an inqueſt be depending between the tenant and warrantor, and the demandant will require a writ of venire facias to the jury, it ſhall be granted him.

Stat. of Vouchers, 20 Edw. 1. ſt. 1. Where the tenant in a plea of land voucheth to warranty, and the demandant will aver, that neither the vouchee nor none of his anceſtors, ſince the time that the anceſtor of the demandant was ſeized, was in poſſeſſion of the lands, his averment ſhall be admitted, whether the party vouched be abſent or preſent. ſ. 3.

By 14 Edw. 3. ſt. 1. c 18. If the tenant vouch to warranty a dead man, and the demandants will aver that the vouchee is dead, or that there is none ſuch, their averment ſhall be received.

Upholſters.

By 11 Hen. 7. c. 19. No perſons ſhall make, or put to ſale in fairs or markets, any featherbeds, bolſters or pillows, except they be ſtuffed with one manner of ſtuff, viz. with dry pulled feathers, or elſe with clean down alone, and with no ſcalded feathers nor fendown, nor none other unlawful and corrupt ſtuff; except any perſons for their own uſe make any of the ſaid wares, ſo they be not offered to be ſold in fairs and markets, upon pain of forfeiture. And in likewiſe quilts, mattreſſes and cuſhions, ſhall be ſtuffed with one manner of ſtuff, viz. with clean wool, or with clean flocks alone, and with no unlawful ſtuff, upon pain of forfeiture of all ſuch unlawful wares.

By 5 and 6 Edw. 6. c. 23. No perſons ſhall make to the intent to ſell, or offer to be ſold, any featherbed, bolſter or pillow, except the ſame be ſtuffed with dry pulled feathers or clean down only, without mingling of ſcalded feathers, fendown, thiſtledown, ſand, lime, gravel, unlawful or corrupt ſtuff, hair, &c. upon pain of forfeiture of all ſuch featherbeds, &c. or the value thereof. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall make to the intent to ſell, or put to ſale, any quilt, mattreſs or cuſhions, which ſhall be ſtuffed with any other ſtuff than feathers, wool or flocks alone, upon pain of forfeiture of all ſuch quilts, &c. or the value thereof; the moiety of which forfeitures to be to the king, the other moiety to ſuch as will ſue. ſ. 2.

Uſes.

By 27 Hen. 8. c. 10. Where any perſons ſhall be ſeized of any honours, lands, or other hereditaments, to the uſe or truſt of any other perſons, ſuch perſons that ſhall have any ſuch uſe or truſt ſhall be deemed in lawful ſeiſin and poſſeſſion of the ſame honours, &c. of like eſtates as they ſhall have in uſe, truſt or confidence; and the eſtate and poſſeſſion that was in ſuch perſons that ſhall be ſeized to the uſe or truſt, ſhall be adjudged in them that ſhall have ſuch uſe or truſt. ſ. 1.

Where divers perſons ſhall be jointly ſeized to the uſe or truſt of any of them, thoſe which ſhall have ſuch uſe or truſt ſhall be adjudged to have only ſuch eſtate, poſſeſſion and ſeiſin, of the lands, &c. as they had in the uſe or truſt; ſaving to all perſons, other than thoſe which be ſeized to any uſe or truſt, all right, &c. ſ. 2.

Alſo ſaving to all thoſe perſons which ſhall be ſeized to any uſe, all ſuch former rights, as they might have had to their own proper uſe. ſ. 3.

Where divers perſons be ſeized, to the uſe that ſome other perſons ſhall have an annual rent out of the lands, the ſame perſons, their heirs and aſſigns, that have ſuch uſe and intereſt to have ſuch annual rents, ſhall be adjudged in poſſeſſion and ſeiſin of the ſame rent, of like eſtate as they had in the uſe, and as if a ſufficient grant had been made to them by ſuch as ſhall be ſeized to the uſe of ſuch rent; and every ſuch perſon as ſhall have any uſe or intereſt in or to any ſuch rent or profit, ſhall lawfully diſtrain for non-payment, and in their own names make avowries, or by their bailiffs or ſervants make coniſances and juſtifications, and have all other remedies, as if the ſame rents had been actually granted to them. ſ. 4. 5.

This act ſhall not diſcharge or ſuſpend any ſtatute, recognizance or other bond, by the execution of any eſtate in any lands. ſ. 10. See other parts of this act in JOINTURES and WILLS. See TRUSTS.

Uſury.

By 37 Hen. 8. c. 9. No perſon ſhall ſell his merchandizes to any perſon, and within three months after buy the ſame, or any part thereof, upon a leſſer price, knowing them to be the ſame. ſ. 2. Upon pain to forfeit treble the value of the things ſold; and alſo ſuffer impriſonment, and make fine and ranſom at the king's will; one moiety of which forfeiture ſhall be to the king, and the other to him that will ſue in any the king's courts of record. ſ. 6.

By 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 16. No perſon upon any contract which ſhall be made after the 29th of September 1714, ſhall take for loan of any monies, wares, &c. above the value of 5 l. for the forbearance of 100 l. for a year. And all bonds, contracts, and aſſurances for payment of any money to be lent upon uſury, whereupon there ſhall be reſerved or taken above five in the hundred, ſhall be void; and every perſon which ſhall receive, by means of any corrupt bargain, loan, exchange, chevizance, ſhift, or intereſt, of any wares, or other thing, or by any deceitful way, for the forbearing or giving day of payment for one year, for their money or other thing, above 5 l. for 100 l. for a year, &c. ſhall forfeit the treble value of the monies, and other things lent. ſ. 1.

Every ſcrivener, broker, and ſolicitor, who ſhall take for brokage, or procuring the loan or forbearing of any money, above the rate of 5 s. for 100 l. for a year, or above 12 d. above the ſtamp duties, for making or renewing of the bond, or for any counterbond, ſhall forfeit 20 l. with coſts, and ſuffer impriſonment for half a year, the one moiety of which forfeitures to be to the queen, and the other moiety to him that will ſue for the ſame in the county where the offences are committed. ſ. 2.

Wager of Law.

Mag. chart. 9 Hen. 3. c. 28.

NO bailiff ſhall put any man to his law, nor to an oath, upon bare ſaying without witneſſes brought in.

By 5 Hen. 4. c. 8. To eſchew miſchiefs which be as well within London as other places, of that that divers fained ſuits of debt have been taken by the people of the ſaid places againſt divers people, ſurmiſing that they have accounted before auditors aſſigned, of divers receipts, duties and contracts, had betwixt them, and that they were found in arrearages upon the account in divers great ſums, where there was never receipt nor duty betwixt ſuch parties, to the intent to make them againſt whom ſuch ſuits were taken, to put them in inqueſt, and to put them from the waging of their law; the judges before whom ſuch actions ſhall be ſued in cities and boroughs, ſhall have power to examine the attornies and other, and thereupon to receive the defendants to their law, or to try the ſame by inqueſt, after the diſcretion of the judges.

Wales.

Stat. Walliae, 12 Edw. 1. The juſtice of Snaudon ſhall have the keeping of the king's peace in Snaudon and the lands of Wales adjacent, and ſhall do juſtice to all according to the king's original writs, and the laws and cuſtoms underwritten. ſ. 2.

There ſhall be ſheriffs, coroners, and bailiffs of commotes in Snaudon, &c. viz. the ſheriff of Angleſey, of Caernarvon, of Merioneth, of Flint, who ſhall be intendant to the juſtice of Cheſter, and anſwer at the exchequer of Cheſter. ſ. 3.

There ſhall be coroners in the ſame counties, to be choſen by the king's writ. ſ. 8.

The ſheriff ſhall exerciſe his office in this form, viz. when any one complains of any treſpaſs done to him againſt the king's peace, whether it be of the taking and unjuſt detaining of cattle, or de namio vetito, or of debt, or of other contract not kept, &c. by writ or without writ; he ſhall firſt take pledges of proſecuting, or by his faith if he be poor, and afterwards ſhall do execution in this manner; the defendants in every caſe ſhall be ſummoned, that they be at the next county to anſwer to the plaintiffs; at which county, the ſummons being made and witneſſed, if they come not, they ſhall be again ſummoned that they be at the next county, &c. at which if they come not, they ſhall be a third time ſummoned, &c. at which county if they come not, the plaintiffs, by conſideration of the county, as well in pleas by writ as in plaints without writ, ſhall recover their demands with their damages, as well in moveables as immoveables: and for ſuch defaults pain ſhall be incurred to the king according to the law and cuſtom of Wales; and when the parties appear, they ſhall proceed to judgment by conſideration of the county. ſ. 11.

The county ought to be held in this manner, viz. from month to month in the place where the king ſhall order; and this on Monday in one county, on Tueſday in another county, on Wedneſday in the third county, and on Thurſday the fourth county, and not on other days; and the ſheriff ſhall thus proceed to hold his county. ſ. 12.

Firſt he ſhall hear and receive before him, and the coroner and ſuitors of the county, the preſentments of the felonies and caſualties, which ſhall have happened between the two counties, of the death of man, in this manner; the four next towns, to the place where the manſlaughter or caſualty ſhall have happened, ſhall come to the next county, together with the finder, and the Waleſcherie, that is, the kindred of the man ſlain, and ſhall there preſent the fact, and the manner of it; ſaying, that ſuch a day and place it happened, that ſuch a one, known or unknown, was found ſlain by felony, or drowned, or dead by misfortune, and ſuch a one found him, who is preſent, &c. and this preſentment ſhall be enrolled, as well in the roll of the coroner, as in the roll of the ſheriff; and if there be man or woman who will ſue by appeal, pledges of proſecuting ſhall be received, and if the appellees appear, they ſhall be taken, and kept in priſon until the coming of the juſtices; and if they do not appear, they ſhall be put to the exigent from county to county; and if at the fourth county they come not, and be not bailed, they ſhall be outlawed; and if they appear not at the firſt county at which they are demanded, their lands lands and goods ſhall be taken and ſeized into the hands of the king, and delivered to the townſhips to keep. ſ. 13.

In the ſame manner they ſhall proceed in appeal of wounding, maim, rape, burning, and robbery, if the appellees appear not; and if they appear, and find ſufficient pledges, ſix at leaſt, they ſhall be replevied. ſ. 14.

Againſt appellees of the force, command, or receiving, there ſhall be no proceeding to outlawry until ſome one be convict of the fact. ſ. 15.

The ſheriff ſhall make his turn in every commote twice in the year, &c. to which turn all the freeholders and reſiants ſhall come, except clerks and women; and the ſheriff, by the oath of twelve freeholders or more, ſhall enquire of the underwritten heads touching the crown. ſ. 16.

Of ſeducers of the king, and realm, of the queen, and their children, and their conſenters. ſ. 17.

Of thieves, manſlayers, robbers, murderers, and felonious burners, their receivers and conſenters, &c. ſ. 18.

Alſo of rights withdrawn from the king, and of thoſe who have appropriated to themſelves royal rights without warrant, &c. ſ. 19.

The ſheriff in his turn ſhall firſt call before him all the people of the commote, and cauſe them to ſwear, that they will preſent the truth to the twelve or more jurors elected by the ſheriff, &c. ſ. 20.

The ſheriff in taking of verdicts ſhall not ſeek occaſions againſt the preſenters, nor take fines of them for not taking occaſion againſt them. ſ. 21.

There ſhall alſo be in every commote in Wales, one coroner at leaſt, to be choſen by the king's writ in full county, &c. ſ. 23.

The writ of novel diſſeiſin. "The king to the ſheriff of "Angleſey greeting; A. hath complained to us, that B. and "C. have unjuſtly, and without judgment, diſſeiſed him "of his freehold in N. after our peace proclaimed in Wales "in the 11th year of our reign; we therefore command "you, that if the ſaid A. make you ſecure of proſecuting "his claim, you ſhall cauſe that tenement, &c. to be in "peace until a certain day, which our juſtice ſhall make "known to you, &c. Dated at Karnarvan, &c. or elſe-"where." ſ. 27.

There ſhall be letters patents made in theſe words, until the king order otherwiſe: "The king to his juſtice greet-"ing; know ye that we have conſtituted you our juſtice, "together with thoſe whom you ſhall think fit to be aſſo-"ciated to you, to take aſſizes of novel diſſeiſin and mort-"danceſter in the parts of Wales; and therefore we com-"mand you, that at certain days and places which you "ſhall to this appoint, you take thoſe aſſizes, doing therein "what to juſtice ſhall appertain, according to the law and "cuſtom of our realm, &c." ſ. 31.

A common writ, which in ſome caſe toucheth the right, and in ſome caſe the poſſeſſion. "The king, &c. com-"mand A. that juſtly, &c. he render to B. the manor of "N. with the appurtenances, which the ſaid A. to him de-"forceth, as he ſaith; and unleſs he do it, and the afore-"ſaid B. make you ſecure of proſecuting his claim, then "ſummon by good ſummoners the aforeſaid A. that he be "before our juſtice, &c." ſ. 34.

In like manner the writ ſhall be granted before the juſtices in the bench, if the demandant will. ſ. 36.

Writs of debt ſhall not be granted to be pleaded before the juſtice, of a leſs ſum than 40 s. but pleas of debt, which amount not to 40 s. ſhall be pleaded in the county, and in the commote. ſ. 41.

The form of a writ of attorney: "The king to the ſhe-"riff greeting; know that A. hath attorned before us B. "and C. to gain or loſe in a plea which is before you by our "writ, between him the ſaid A. demandant, and D. te-"nant, of a meſſuage with the appurtenances in N. and "therefore we command you, that you receive the ſaid B. "and C. or either of them, if both can not be preſent, in-"ſtead of the ſaid A. &c." ſ. 47.

In a writ of mortdanceſtor the proceedings ſhall be thus: pledges being found to proſecute, and the aſſize being elected, and the view had by the jurors, the tenant ſhall be ſummoned by two good ſummoners, that he be before the juſtice at a certain day, &c. and the ſummons ſhall contain 15 days at leaſt, at which day, if he come, the juſtice ſhall proceed; and if he come not he ſhall be puniſhed for his default, according to what is contained in the law of Wales, viz. by three cows or the price of them; and he ſhall be reſummoned by other ſummoners, &c. at which day, whether he come or not, the juſtice ſhall proceed, unleſs he cauſe himſelf to be eſſoined de ultra mare, and then ſhall be given him the ſpace of forty days, that he may have eb and flode; but if he be within the four ſeas, and falſely eſſoin himſelf de ultra mare, and be convict thereof by good proof or enquiry, he ſhall be puniſhed as for a default by the amercement which is contained in the law of Wales, and he ſhall be precluded from ſaying any thing againſt the aſſize, unleſs he can vouch to warranty. ſ. 55.

In no writ of plea of land lieth any eſſoin, but only the eſſoin de ultra mare, and this before the tenant or deforcient appear in court, and the eſſoin de ſervitio domini regis, which lies at any time of the plea, when the king will warrant it; but if he who cauſeth himſelf to be eſſoined de ſervitio domini regis, fail of the king's warrant, he ſhall be puniſhed for his default by amercement according to the law of Wales, and ſhall refund to his adverſary the coſts of the day by the diſcretion of the juſtice. ſ. 56.

In the writs of mortdanceſtor, the proceedings ſhall be thus: the writ being firſt read, in which is contained the demand of the demandant, the deforcient ſhall be aſked, if he can ſay any thing wherefore the aſſize ought to remain, which if he cannot, the juſtice ſhall take the aſſize. ſ. 57.

The deforcient may ſay many things againſt the aſſize, viz. that the anceſtor, of whoſe death, &c. committed felony, for which he was hanged, or confeſſing the felony before coroner abjured Wales. ſ. 59.

Of pleas which are determined by inqueſts or juries, ſome are of immoveables as of tenements, ſome of moveables as of debts and chattles, ſome of both, ſome of treſpaſſes; but firſt of immoveables. ſ. 63.

When the deforcient appears, becauſe the demand of the demandant cannot be known by the words of the writ, inaſmuch as there are many, and as it were an infinite number of differences, the demandant muſt count againſt the deforcient, and expreſs the nature of his demand, and this by words containing the truth, not obſerving that hard cuſtom, qui cadit a ſyllaba, cadit a tota cauſa. ſ. 65.

When by the affirmance of the one party, and the denial of the other, they are deſcended to a lawful iſſue, the plea ſhall be determined by verdict of the inqueſt; becauſe pleas of land in thoſe parts are not determined by battle, nor by the great aſſize. ſ. 66.

Of moveables, viz. of debt the defendant ſhall be ſummoned to be before the juſtice at a certain day, at which if he come not, he ſhall be again ſummoned, and if he come not at the ſecond day, nor eſſoin himſelf, the debt ſhall be adjudged to the demandant by default, together with his damages by the diſcretion of the juſtice, or by inqueſt of the country, at the will of the juſtice. If the debtor come, the plaintiff muſt declare his demand, viz. that he is bound to him in 100 marks, &c. or for things ſold, or of other contracts, upon which he muſt produce ſuit, or the writing obligatory, or ſhew a tally; then the debtor ſhall anſwer, and if he acknowledge the debt, it ſhall be adjudged and levied of his lands and chattles, &c. If he deny the debt, and his obligation be brought forth againſt him, the writing muſt be verified by the witneſſes named in the writing, if they be living, together with the country; and if there be no witneſſes named, or if they be dead, it ſhall be verified by the country alone. If the plaintiff have no obligation, but only produce ſuit or tally, the adverſe party may defend, that he is not bound to him, and defend this, by the law, viz. by his own oath, together with 11 ſwearing with him, or by the country, at his election. ſ. 67.

If the debtor alledge payment, he muſt ſhew an acquittance; or the demandant may defend by the law, that he hath received nothing, or by the country. ſ. 68.

This writ of debt ſhall not be granted of a leſs ſum than 40*s.* ſ. 69.

In a writ of covenant, if at the ſecond ſummons the defendant comes not, nor is eſſoined, the petition of the demandant ſhall be heard, and the thing in demand ſhall be taken, if it be a tenement, into the hand of the king; and if it be a chattle, it or the value thereof ſhall be taken into the king's hand, and another day ſhall be given, &c. ſ. 71.

In ſome caſe an action lies to demand a tenement by writ of covenant, and in ſome caſe money or damages, or the tenement. ſ. 73.

In perſonal treſpaſſes, the plaintiff ſhall ſwear, before the juſtice hear him, that his action exceeds the ſum of 40*s.* ſ. 76.

Inheritances ſhall remain partible among heirs males, as it hath been accuſtomed, but baſtards ſhall have no part. ſ. 88.

By 28 Edw. 3. c. 2. All the lords of the marches of Wales ſhall be attending to the crown of England, as they and their anceſtors have always been, and not to the principality of Wales.

By 9 Hen. 4. c. 4. No thief or felon in Wales, openly known, ſhall be ſuffered to diſclaim out of the ſeigniory where the felony was done, and ſuch diſclaim ſhall be put out; and all thieves ſhall be put to anſwer in the lordſhips where they are taken, without being delivered by diſclaimer, or by letters of the marches.

By 26 Hen. 8. c. 4. Upon the charge given to any inqueſt, ſworn before any juſtice, or other officer within Wales or the marches, upon any traverſe againſt the king, or the trial of any recognizance broken, or any other forfeiture forfeited to the king, and upon trial of any murderer, felon, or acceſſary of felony, one perſon ſhall be ſworn in preſence of the juſtice, &c. for the true and diligent keeping of the jurors; and the perſon ſo ſworn, without the ſpecial command of the juſtice, &c. ſhall not ſuffer to be miniſtred to the jurors any bread, drink, meat, fire, or light, nor ſhall ſuffer the jurors to ſpeak to any perſon; nor without the command aforeſaid ſhall ſpeak to the jurors, but only to demand of their agreement, until the jurors ſhall have given their verdict; and if the officer, &c. do not execute the premiſſes, he ſhall be puniſhed and impriſoned, and make fine and ranſom to the king, by the diſcretion of the juſticer, &c. ſ. 1.

By 26 Hen. 8. c. 6. All perſons dwelling within Wales, or in the lordſhips marchers, upon ſuch warning as hath been uſed, ſhall appear before the juſtice or other officer, at every ſeſſions and court in any place within Wales, or within the juriſdictions of the lordſhips marchers, and ſhall give their perſonal attendance; upon pain of ſuch fines and amerciaments, as ſhall be aſſeſſed by the juſtice or other officer, to the king's uſe, if it be within any of the king's lordſhips marchers, and if it be within any other lordſhips marchers, then to the uſe of the lord; the ſaid forfeitures to be levied by diſtreſs. ſ. 1.

If any ſteward, or other officer of any lordſhip marcher, do fain or procure any untrue ſurmiſe againſt any perſon that ſhall give attendance before them at ſuch courts, and upon the ſame commit them contrary to law; upon ſuit to the king's commiſſioners, they ſhall have power to ſend for ſuch ſteward or officer, and alſo for the perſon impriſoned; and if he can prove that his impriſonment was without cauſe, the commiſſioners ſhall aſſeſs the officer to pay to the the perſon wrongfully impriſoned 6*s.* 8*d.* for every day. ſ. 2.

The commiſſioners ſhall ſet further fine upon the officer to be paid to the king; and in caſe the officer refuſe to appear before the commiſſioners, they ſhall ſet upon ſuch officer ſuch fine as ſhall be thought convenient, and compel the officer, by impriſonment, as well to pay ſuch fine, as to pay unto every perſon ſo impriſoned ſuch ſums as they ſhall be ceſſed for their wrong impriſonment. ſ. 3.

No perſon dwelling in Wales, or the lordſhips marchers, repairing to any court within Wales, &c. ſhall bring to the court, or within two miles from the ſame, nor to any town, church, fair, market, or other congregation (except it be upon a hute or outcry of felony) nor in the highways, in affray of the king's peace, or the king's people, any bill, long-bow, croſs-bow, hand-gun, ſword, ſtaff, dagger, halberd, moreſpike, ſpear, or other weapon, privy coat or armour; upon pain of forfeiture of the armour, and to ſuffer impriſonment, and make fine and ranſom to the king, by the diſcretion of the commiſſioners of his marches, except it be by the aſſent of the ſaid juſtices, or other officer, or of the commiſſioners of the marches. ſ. 4.

No perſon, without licenſe of the commiſſioners in writing, ſhall within Wales or the marches, or in any ſhires adjoining, levy any commorth, bydale, tenants ale, or other collections, under colour of marriage, or ſuffering of their children ſaying or ſinging the goſpels, or for redemption of any murder or felony, or other cauſe; nor ſhall make any games of running, wreſtling, leaping, or other games (ſhooting excepted) upon pain of one year's impriſonment, and ſuch fine as by the commiſſioners ſhall be thought convenient; and the commiſſioners ſhall have power to hear and determine the ſaid offences by their examination; and no perſon ſhall caſt any thing into any court within Wales, or in the lordſhips marchers, by name of an arthel, by reaſon whereof the court may be diſturbed, upon pain of one year's impriſonment. ſ. 5.

All courts within Wales or the lordſhips marchers ſhall be kept within the ſureſt place, where the juſtice ſhall appoint. And for the puniſhment and ſpeedy trials of felonies, &c. committed within any lordſhip marcher of Wales, the juſtices of gaol delivery, and of the peace, in the ſhires of England, where the king's writ runneth, next adjoining to the lordſhip marcher, or other places in Wales, where ſuch felonies ſhall be committed, ſhall have power to enquire by verdict of twelve men of the ſame ſhires within England, there to cauſe all ſuch felons, &c. to be indicted according to the laws of this land, in like manner as if the felonies, &c. had been committed within the ſaid ſhires in the realm; and to hear, determine, and judge the ſame. ſ. 6.

All foreign pleas pleaded by any of the ſaid malefactors ſhall be tried and determined in the ſaid ſhires; and the acquittal quittal or fine making, for any of the cauſes aforeſaid in any of the lordſhips marchers, ſhall be no bar for any perſon, being indicted in the ſaid ſhires within two years after ſuch felony done. ſ. 7.

The ſaid juſtices of peace and gaol delivery ſhall have power to award proceſs, as well of outlawry as otherwiſe, againſt offenders ſo indicted, according to the laws of England. And the ſaid juſtices, or two of them, afore whom any ſuch offender ſhall be outlawed, ſhall ſend unto the king's officers of his lordſhip's marchers, or to their deputies, or unto the lords marchers, or their officers, where ſuch offence ſhall be done, or where ſuch offender ſhall be reſiant, a certificate under ſeal of ſuch outlawry, commanding them under pain of 100*l.* to apprehend and attach the bodies of the offenders, and keep them till ſuch time, before the next ſeſſions of gaol delivery of the ſhire where ſuch offenders ſhall be outlawed or attainted, as ſhall be thought expedient to convey ſuch offenders, by indenture to be made between the deliverers and the receivers, from one lordſhip marcher to another, and unto the time that ſuch offenders be delivered before the ſaid juſtices of gaol delivery, upon pain of 100*l.* ſ. 8.

Every officer or lord to whom any certificate ſhall be directed as aboveſaid, ſhall, at the next ſeſſions and gaol delivery, after the attachment of ſuch offenders, return the certificate, and what they have done in that behalf, upon the pain aforeſaid; ſaving to all offenders all exceptions to the outlawry as accuſtomed. ſ. 9.

If any perſon indicted, outlawed, or attainted, by force of this act, find ſureties before the juſtices of gaol delivery, that he ſhall not commit any felony or felonious offence, nor be acceſſary to any felony, &c. but at all times be of good behaviour; the juſtices ſhall for one time only, admit ſuch offender to a fine, and diſcharge ſuch offender of every ſuch felony, murder, &c. ſo that the ſame offender ſtand not appealed of the ſaid offence; and ſuch offender ſhall be for the ſame offences done within any of the lordſhips marchers diſcharged. ſ. 10.

This act ſhall not abridge any liberties of any lord marcher, unleſs the offenders be indicted or attainted by force of this act within two years after ſuch felonious offence committed. ſ. 11.

Every officer upon command given by the commiſſioners ſhall bring or deliver every offender to the officer of the lordſhip marcher, or other place, where any ſuch offence ſhall be committed upon the bounds of the ſaid lordſhips, or to the ſaid commiſſioners, as the officers ſhall be commanded, under pain of 40*l.* ſ. 13.

By 27 Hen. 8. c. 5. The lord chancellor ſhall have power to appoint juſtices of peace, juſtices of the quorum, and juſtices of gaol delivery, in the counties of Cheſter, Flint, Angleſey, Kayernarvan, Mereoneth, Cardigan, Kayermerthen, Pembroke, and Glamorgan, by commiſſion under the great ſeal, which ſhall have power to enquire, hear and determine, all things inquirable, &c. before juſtices of peace, &c. in other ſhires of England. ſ. 1.

The eſtreats of the iſſues, fines, and amerciaments, before ſuch juſtices of peace, &c. in the ſaid counties of Cheſter and Flint, ſhall be returned into the exchequer of Cheſter before the chamberlain. ſ. 2.

The eſtreats in the counties of Angleſey, Kaernarvan, and Mereoneth, ſhall be returned into the exchequer at Kaernarvan before the chamberlain of North Wales. ſ. 3.

The eſtreats before the juſtices of Kayermerthen and Cardigan, ſhall be returned into the king's exchequer at Kayermerthen before the chamberlain of South Wales. ſ. 4.

The eſtreats before the juſtices of Pembroke, ſhall be returned into the king's exchequer at Pembroke. ſ. 5.

The eſtreats before the juſtices of Glamorgan, ſhall be returned into the king's exchequer at Caierdiff. ſ. 6.

The juſtices of Cheſter, Flint, Angleſey, Kayernarvan, Mereoneth, Cardigan, Kayermerthen, Pembroke and Glamorgan, ſhall be paid of the ſaid iſſues, &c. like fees, as other juſtices of peace, and clerks of the peace, in other ſhires. ſ. 7.

By 27 Hen. 8. c. 7. It ſhall be lawful to all the king's ſubjects, &c. freely to paſs through the foreſts in Wales, both on horſeback and on foot, as well driving cattle as carrying wares, or otherwiſe, without any fine or impoſition; and if any of the foreſters, rulers, walkers, fermers, or their aſſigns, exact any forfeitures, &c. and be thereof convicted, they ſhall incur the dangers of the ſtatute for robberies by the king's highway, and be tried before the juſtices of peace in the next ſhire, according to the law of England. ſ. 4.

If any beaſt of any of the king's ſubjects come into the ſaid foreſts by ſtrays, thief-ſtolen, or otherwiſe, and there be marked and ſeized by any of the foreſters, &c. and the owners within one year and a day find the cattle, and prove the ſame to be their cattle, the ſame ſhall be re-delivered according to the law of England, the owners paying for the keeping; and if any of the foreſters, &c. deny the re-deliverance, ſuch foreſter, &c. ſhall forfeit to the party aggrieved the double value of ſuch cattle; and the party grieved may have his action of detinue for the cattle to be tried in the next ſhire; and like proceſs of outlawry to be had as in an action of treſpaſs. ſ. 5.

By 27 Hen. 8. c. 26. The dominion of Wales ſhall be and continue united to the realm of England, and perſons born in Wales ſhall have all liberties as other the king's ſubjects. ſ. 1.

All perſons inheritable to lands in Wales ſhall inherit the ſame after the Engliſh tenure without partition; and the laws of England, and no other, ſhall be uſed in Wales. ſ. 2.

Divers of the lordſhips marchers ſhall be united to ſhires of England, and divers to ſhires of Wales, in manner following: and the reſt of the lordſhips marchers ſhall be divided into counties, viz. the counties of Monmouth, Brecknock, Radnor, Montgomery, Denbigh: and the lordſhips, &c. of Monmouth, Chepſtow, Matherne, Llanvihangel, Magour, Goldecliffe, Newport, Wellonge, Llanwerne, Caerlion, Uſk, Treleck, Tintern, Shynfreth, Gronſmont, Wite-caſtle, Reglan, Calicote, Biſton, Abergavenny, Penroſe, Grenefield, Maghen and Hochuyſlade, ſhall be parts of the ſhire of Monmouth; and the town of Monmouth ſhall be the ſhire town; and the county court ſhall be kept at Monmouth and Newport, alternis vicibus. ſ. 3.

All actions real within the county of Monmouth, and all actions perſonal of 40*s.* or above, and all actions mixt, ſhall be ſued by original writ out of the chancery in England, and heard, determined, and tried, before the juſtices in England, by aſſize, or niſi prius, within the county of Monmouth, in like manner as all other actions in any ſhire of England; and the juſtices of the king's bench, or common bench of Weſtminſter, ſhall have power to direct proceſs to the ſheriff and other officer of the county of Monmouth, and alſo to direct writs of venire facias to the ſheriff, for the trial of every iſſue joined before them, and alſo to award commiſſions of niſi prius into the county of Monmouth, for the trial of ſuch iſſues joined before them, in like like manner as to every ſhire of England; and the ſheriffs and eſcheators of the county of Monmouth, ſhall make their accounts in the exchequer in England. ſ. 4.

The lordſhips, &c. of Brecknock, Creckhowel, Tretowre, Penkelly, Engliſh-Talgarth, Welſh-Talgarth, Dynas, the Haye, Glynebogh, Broyulles, Cantercely, Lando, Blaynllinby, Eſtrodew, Buelthe and Lingros, ſhall be parts of the county of Brecknock; and the town of Brecknock ſhall be the ſhire town. ſ. 5.

The lordſhip, &c. of New Radnor, Eliſtherman, Elueles, Bongherd, Glaſebery, Glawdiſtre, Mibilles-church, Meleneth, Blewagh, Knighton, Norton, Preſton, Commothuder, Rayder, Gwethronyon and Stanage, ſhall be parts of the county of Radnor; and the town of New Radnor ſhall be the ſhire town, and the county court ſhall be kept at New Radnor, and Rothergowy, alternis vicibus. ſ. 6.

The lordſhips, &c. of Mountgomery, Kedwenkerry, Cawrſland, Aruſtely, Keveliock, Doythur, Poweſland, Cluneſland, Baleſley, Tempceſter and Alceſter, ſhall be parts of the county of Mountgomery; and the town of Mountgomery ſhall be the ſhire town; and the county court ſhall be holden at Mountgomery and Magenleth, alternis vicibus. ſ. 7.

The lordſhips, &c. of Denbighland, Ruthin, St. Taſſe, Kinllethowen, Bromfilde, Yale, Chirke and Chirkeland, Moleſdale and Hopeſdale, ſhall be parts of the county of Denbigh; and the town of Denbigh ſhall be the ſhire town; and the county court ſhall be kept at Denbigh and Wrixham, alternis vicibus. ſ. 8.

The king ſhall have one chancery and exchequer at his caſtle of Brecknock, and one other at his caſtle of Denbigh; and the ſheriffs and other officers accountants of the counties of Brecknock, Radnor, Mountgomery and Denbigh, ſhall be yearly appointed by the king, and ſhall yearly make their accounts before the king's auditors, and ſuch chamberlain or baron of the ſaid exchequer as ſhall be appointed by the king. ſ. 9.

Juſtice ſhall be miniſtered to the king's ſubjects of the ſaid ſhires of Brecknock, Radnor, Mountgomery and Denbigh, according to the laws of England, and according to ſuch cuſtoms and laws uſed in Wales aforeſaid, as the king and his council ſhall allow, after ſuch form as within the three ſhires of North Wales. ſ. 10.

The lordſhips, &c. of Oſweſter, Whetington, Maſbroke, Knoking, Elleſmer, Downe and Churbury hundred, in the marches, ſhall be united to the county of Salop; and the lordſhips of Oſweſter, Whetington, Maſbroke and Knoking, ſhall be named the hundred of Oſweſter; and the lordſhip of Elleſmer ſhall be united to the hundred of Pymhill; and the lordſhip of Downe ſhall be united to the hundred of Churbury. ſ. 11.

The lordſhips of Ewyas Lacy, Ewyas Harold, Clifford, Wynforton, Yerdeſly, Huntingdon, Whytney, Wygmore, Logharneys and Stepulton, in the ſaid marches, ſhall be united to the county of Hereford; and the lordſhips of Wygmore and Logharneys ſhall be named in the hundred of Wygmore; and the lordſhip of Ewyas Lacy ſhall be named the hundred of Ewyas Lacy; and the lordſhip of Ewyas Harold ſhall be united to the hundred of Webtree; and the lordſhips of Clifford, Wynforton, Yerdeſley, Whitney and Huntingdon, ſhall be named the hundred of Huntingdon. ſ. 12.

The lordſhips of Wollaſtone, Tindam and Becheley, in the ſaid marches between Chepſtow-bridge and Glouceſterſhire, ſhall be united to the county of Glouceſter, and to the hundred of Weſebery. ſ. 13.

entry of the judgments, 12 d. and for every writ of execution 6 d; for the exemplification of every record in the ſaid actions 2 s.; for every warrant of attorney 4 d. In all actions real and mixt, aſſizes, quare impedit, appeals of felony, murder, or maim, the prenotary to have for the declaration or plaint, 2 s., and for the plea, replication, rejoinder, ſur-rejoinder, if enrolled, 1 s., and for the writing of every venire, tales, habeas corpora and diſtr', for every of them 6 d., and for the entry of the judgment, 2 s., and for the writing of the writs of execution, 1 s.; and for writs of grand cape and petit cape, and writs of view, writs upon voucher, and all other writs in ſuch actions, 12 d; and for every warrant of attorney, 4 d., and for the eſſoins, 4 d., and for the adjournment, 2 d., and for the bail of every perſon of felony, 12 d., and for the bail for treſpaſs, 6 d., and for the appearance and bailing of common mainprize, 2 d. ſ. 50.

For writing writs for the peace and good abearing granted by the juſtices in ſeſſions, 6 d., and for the entering of every recognizance taken before the juſtices for every cauſe other than before expreſſed, 12 d., and if with condition 2 s. and upon every acquittal and deliverance of felons or murderers by verdict, or by allowance of pardon, the prenotaries to have 2 s., and if it be upon indictments certified from the juſtices of peace afore the great ſeſſions, the clerk of the peace to have alſo 12 d., and upon the delivery of any ſuſpect of felony or murder by proclamation, the prenotary to have 12 d. ſ. 51.

The king ſhall have all fines, iſſues, amercements, and all forfeitures of recognizances before the juſtices in the ſeſſion; and the prenotaries ſhall yearly eſtreat the ſame into the exchequer appointed for that limit, that the ſheriffs levy the ſame, which ſheriffs ſhall yearly make their accounts before the king's auditors. ſ. 52.

There ſhall be juſtices of peace and quorum, and one cuſtos rotulorum, in every of the 12 ſhires. ſ. 53.

The juſtices of peace, juſtices of quorum, and cuſtos rotulorum, ſhall be appointed by the chancellor, under the great ſeal of England. ſ. 54.

Such perſons as ſhall be juſtices of peace within the ſaid ſhires ſhall be of good name and fame, and may exerciſe the office albeit they may not diſpend 20 l. or be learned in the laws; and before they excute their commiſſion they ſhall take their oaths before the chancellor, or one of the juſtices in Wales, by virtue of the king's writ of dedimus, or before any other perſon to be limited by the lord chancellor, as juſtices of peace in England. ſ. 56.

The juſtices of peace, or two of them, whereof one to be of the quorum, ſhall keep their ſeſſions four times in the year, and at other times upon urgent cauſes, as juſtices of peace in England, and ſhall have like power in all things, and fees of the king for the time of their ſitting, as well for themſelves as for their clerks, as in England. ſ. 57.

No juſtices of peace, clerk of the peace, nor other clerk or any juſtice of peace in Wales, ſhall take for the writing of any warrant of the peace, or good abearing, above 6 d., and for entering of pledges or boroughs to pay the king's fine upon any indictment 9 d., and if it be with proteſtation, then 12 d., and for a ſuperſedeas not above 8 d., and for a recognizance 12 d. And the juſtices of peace ſhall certify all recognizances taken before them for the peace or good abearing, into their ſeſſions next after the taking; and recognizance taken before any of them for ſuſpicions of felony, ſhall be certified before the great ſeſſions next after. ſ. 58.

All fines and amercements before the juſtices of peace ſhall be aſſered by two juſtices of peace, whereof one of the quorum. ſ. 59.

The ſaid fines and amercements, and all iſſues loſt before the juſtices of peace, and all forfeitures before the ſame juſtices, ſhall be yearly eſtreated by the clerks of the peace into the exchequer appointed for that limit, that proceſs may be awarded for the levying the ſame to the ſheriffs, who ſhall make their account before auditors; which auditors ſhall make allowance for the fees of the juſtices and clerks of the peace as in England. ſ. 60.

There ſhall be ſheriffs in every of the ſaid ſhires yearly appointed by the king; and none of the ſheriffs ſhall have their office longer than is uſed by the laws of England; and for the yearly nomination of the ſheriffs, the lord preſident, council, and juſtices of Wales, &c. ſhall yearly nominate three perſons in every ſhire, and ſhall certify their names to the lords of the council craſtino animarum, to the intent the king may appoint one of them to be ſheriff; and thereupon the ſheriffs ſhall have their patents and commiſſions under the great ſeal, and take oaths and knowledges of recognizances before the preſident and juſtices, by virtue of the king's writ of dedimus, for the due execution of their offices, and for their true accounts before the king's auditor or auditors aſſigned for Wales. ſ. 61.

The ſheriffs ſhall have power as ſheriffs in England, and ſhall execute proceſs and all lawful precepts of the juſtices of Wales, and alſo of the juſtices of peace, eſcheators, and coroners, in all things appertaining to their offices. ſ. 62.

The ſheriffs ſhall do all things for the miniſtration of juſtice, and for the conſervation of the peace, and the apprehenſion and redreſs of traitors, murderers, thieves, felons, and other offenders, as ſheriffs of England. ſ. 63.

The ſheriffs ſhall yearly account before ſuch the king's auditor or auditors, as ſhall be aſſigned by the king for Wales, and every ſheriff ſhall have for his fee 5 l. ſ. 64.

All mayors, ſheriffs, ſtewards, bailiffs, and other officers, of juſtice, in Wales, and all the king's ſubjects of the ſame, ſhall be obedient and aſſiſting to the juſtices of Wales, and alſo to the juſtices of peace, ſheriffs, and eſcheators, in things pertaining to their offices. ſ. 65.

Eſcheators ſhall be named in every ſhire by the lord treaſurer, by advice of the preſident, council, and juſtices; which eſcheators ſhall take their oaths, and knowledge their recognizances, before one of the ſaid juſtices, by virtue of the king's writ of dedimus, for the due execution of their offices, and for their true account to be made before the king's auditor, agreeable to the oath and recognizance uſed for eſcheators in England; and the eſcheators ſhall yearly have their patents and commiſſions under the great ſeal, and ſhall exerciſe their offices as in England. ſ. 66.

All perſons appointed to the ſaid offices may exerciſe their offices, if they may diſpend yearly 5 l. of freehold. ſ. 67.

There ſhall be two coroners to be elected in every of the 12 ſhires, as is uſed in England, by virtue of the writ de coronatore eligendo, to be awarded out of the chancery of England. ſ. 68.

The writ de coronatore eligendo within the county of Flint, ſhall be directed out of the exchequer of Cheſter. ſ. 69.

The juſtices of peace, or two of them, whereof one of the quorum, ſhall appoint in every hundred two gentlemen or yeomen to be chief conſtables. ſ. 70.

Every of the ſheriffs ſhall have a gaol within the caſtles of the ſhire town, or other convenient place, and ſhall make the bailiffs of the hundreds to attend upon the juſtices in their ſeſſions. ſ. 71.

The conſtables of the king's caſtles within the ſhire towns ſhall be charged with the gaols, until convenient places be aſſigned to the ſheriff. ſ. 72.

The ſheriffs ſhall keep their counties monthly, and their hundred courts for pleas under 40*s.* as in England, and ſhall take for the entering of plaints, proceſs, pleas, and judgments, ſuch ſmall fees as is uſed in England. ſ. 73.

All trials in their ſaid courts, or before any ſtewards in courts baron, ſhall be by wager of law, or verdict of ſix men, at the pleaſure of the plaintiff or defendant that pleaded the plea. ſ. 74.

The ſheriffs ſhall hold their turns yearly after Eaſter and Michaelmas, as in England. ſ. 75.

The king ſhall have all fines, iſſues, amercements and forfeitures loſt in any of the counties, hundreds, courts, and turns. ſ. 76.

The eſtreats of the turns, counties, and hundreds, ſhall be viewed, and the fines, iſſues, and amercements, affered by the juſtices of aſſizes. And no ſheriff ſhall levy any ſuch forfeiture, before the eſtreat be affered, upon pain to forfeit 40*s.* And the ſheriff upon every judgment before him in his county or hundred court, in any plaint under 40*s.* may award a capias ad ſatisfaciendum or a fieri facias, at liberty of the parties purſuant. ſ. 77.

Bills ſued before the juſtices in perſonal actions, whereof the debt or damage is under 40*s.* the ſheriffs ſhall have for the return of every bill 2*d.*, and for every venire fac', tales, habeas corpora, and diſtringas, 2*d.* And for writs of execution upon ſuch bill 12*d.* ſ. 78.

In bills ſued before the juſtices, in actions perſonal, above 40*s.* the ſheriff ſhall have for the return 4*d.*, and for the return of every venire fac', habeas corpora, diſtringas, and tales, 4*d.*, and for every execution 2*s.* And in perſonal actions by original writs returnable before the juſtices, the ſheriff ſhall have for every iterum ſum', diſtr', and alias diſtr', 4*d.* and for every venire, habeas corpora, diſtr' and tales, 6*d.* and for every execution 2*s.*; for the ſerving of every elegit 6*s.* 8*d.*; and in all real actions, or mixt, before the juſtices by original, for return of every original, 2*s.*, and for the return of every other writ and proceſs before judgment 2*s.*, and for every execution after judgment in actions real or mixt 2*s.* and for the ſerving of every writ of habere fac', ſeiſinam, 6*s.* 8*d.* ſ. 79.

For attachments upon capias or other proceſs, before the juſtices, by original or judicial writ, if he return cepi corpus, 2*s.* for a reddidit ſe upon an exigent of felony, in appeal of murder or maim, or upon an indictment of felony or murder, 2*s.*, and upon a reddidit ſe, upon an exigent of debt, treſpaſs, detinue, and other actions perſonal, 1*s.*, and for the making of replegiar', 1*s.*, and withernam upon the ſame, 1*s.*; for return of every writ of appeal of murder or felony, or maim, 1*s.*, and upon all other proceſs upon the ſame, as venire fac', tales, habeas corpora, and diſtr', 1*s.*; and in every action before the ſheriff by juſticies, for the ſummons, 4*d.*, and for every other proceſs, 4*d.*, and for every priſoner delivered by acquittal, or proclamation, for felony, 1*s.* ſ. 80.

Every ſheriff ſhall put ſuch perſons under common mainprize as they have reaſonable cauſe to ſuſpect, binding ſuch with two ſureties by recognizance, to appear before the juſtices at the next great ſeſſions, and ſhall certify the names of them before the juſtices. ſ. 81.

Every perſon that the ſheriff taketh to common mainprize, ſhall pay for his mainprize 2*d.*, and the ſheriff ſhall have for the return of a writ of falſe judgment out of a baſe court before the juſtices, 2*s.*, and the ſheriffs ſhall take no fee for the return of any writs of execution, unleſs he return the ſame executed. ſ. 82.

In all writs original or judicial, proceſs, pleas, or writings, not expreſſed in this ordinance, the fees thereof, as well for the ſeals as writing, ſhall be rated by the preſident, counſel, and juſtices, from time to time; and they ſhall have power to appoint what fee the ſheriffs eſcheators, and coroners, and their prenotaries and clerks, and other miniſters of juſtice, ſhall have, and to augment or diminiſh any fees above declared. ſ. 83.

No perſon for murder or felony ſhall be put to his fine, but ſuffer according to the laws of England; and the juſtices may reprieve the priſoner till they have advertiſed the king. ſ. 84.

The act 26 Hen. 8. cap. 6. concerning trials of felons in Wales, to be had in the next county within England adjoining where the king's writ runneth, ſhall ſtand in force. ſ. 85.

The ſaid act ſhall take effect concerning any of the ſaid offences perpetrated within the county of Merioneth, to be enquired of, heard, and determined, within the county of Salop, in manner as of like offences committed within any county of South Wales. ſ. 86.

The town of Abertannad ſhall be parcel of the county of Salop, and part of the hundred of Oſweſtre. ſ. 87.

In caſe any foreign plea or voucher be pleaded or made before the juſtices of Wales, between party and party, triable in any other ſhire within Wales, the juſtices ſhall ſend the king's writ, with a tranſcript of the record under ſeal, unto the juſtice of the county where the matter is triable, commanding the ſaid juſtice to proceed to the trial thereof; which trial he ſhall remand, with the whole record, unto the juſtice before whom the plea or voucher was pleaded. ſ. 88.

In caſe the foreign plea or voucher be triable within England, the juſtice ſhall proceed to trial thereof within the ſhire of Wales where the matter was pleaded. ſ. 89.

No perſons without authority ſhall make any rumours, tumults, unlawful aſſemblies, or outcries, at any of the ſaid courts or ſeſſions, nor any outcries and unlawful aſſemblies in great numbers at any other times, except for the apprehenſion or purſuing of murderers or felons, upon pain of impriſonment and a grievous fine. ſ. 90.

All lands in Wales that ſhall deſcend, ſhall be holden as Engliſh tenure, according to the common law, and not to be partible among heirs males after the cuſtom of gavelkind. ſ. 91.

No mortgages of lands within the ſaid ſhires ſhall be allowed, otherwiſe than after the common law. ſ. 92.

It ſhall be lawful to all perſons to alien their lands in Wales. ſ. 93.

If any perſon having lands within Wales ſhall be bound within England by ſtatute-ſtaple or recognizance, and pay not the debt; upon certificate made unto the chancery of England, by the clerk of the ſtaple, or by any juſtice of record before whom ſuch recognizance ſhall be acknowledged, proceſs ſhall be made to the ſheriffs of Wales, out of the chancery of England, after the courſe of the laws of England. ſ. 94.

Provided that for recognizances taken before the king's juſtices of his bench or common pleas, proceſs ſhall be had immediately from the ſaid juſtices. ſ. 95.

All writs, bills, plaints, pleas, proceſs, challenges, and trials, trials, ſhall be uſed throughout all the ſhires aforeſaid, as is uſed in North Wales, or as ſhall be deviſed by the preſident, counſel, and juſtices. ſ. 96.

Where there ſhall be many ſuits before the juſtices in pleas perſonal, which cannot be tried in the time of the great ſeſſions, the iſſues may be tried at a petty ſeſſions before the deputy juſtices, as hath been uſed in North Wales; and there ſhall be no ſuit before the juſtices by bill, under 20*s.* ſ. 99.

If any murder or felony be committed within Wales, the parties ſhall not make any end with the offenders, unleſs they firſt make one of the juſtices privy to the ſame, upon pain of impriſonment and grievous fine; the penalty to extend againſt ſuch as ſhall move any ſuch agreement, although the ſame never take effect. ſ. 100.

No other liberties or cuſtoms ſhall be uſed within any lordſhips in Wales or the county of Monmouth, but ſuch as be given to the lords of the ſame by virtue of 27 Hen. 8. cap. 26. and not altered by this ordinance. ſ. 101.

In actions perſonal before the juſtices in Wales, by original writ or bill, if nine of the jury be ſworn to try the iſſue, and the reſidue make default, or be tried out, the ſheriff ſhall immediately return other names, de circumſtantibus, until there be 12 ſworn, as before the juſtices of North Wales hath been uſed. ſ. 103.

If any goods be ſtolen and ſold in any fair or market, within Wales, no ſuch ſale ſhall change the property. ſ. 104.

No perſon ſhall buy any cattle within Wales, out of market or fair, unleſs he can bring witneſs of the name of the perſon, what place and time he bought the ſame, upon pain of ſuch fine as ſhall be ſet by the juſtices. ſ. 105.

If any goods be ſtolen in Wales, upon ſuit had, the tract ſhall be followed from townſhip to townſhip, or lordſhip to lordſhip, according to the cuſtoms in Wales, upon ſuch penalty as heretofore. ſ. 106.

Every perſon that hath lands in fee or freehold may paſs in all juries, attaint only except; albeit he may not diſpend 40*s.* by the year, ſaving every challenge for other cauſe. ſ. 107.

No juror ſhall paſs in attaint, unleſs he may diſpend 40*s.* by the year of freehold. ſ. 108.

Tenants and reſiants in Wales ſhall pay their tallage at the change of their lords, in ſuch places as hath been accuſtomed. ſ. 109.

All the king's ſubjects in Wales ſhall find at all parliaments, knights, citizens, and burgeſſes, and ſhall be charged to all ſubſidies granted by the commons, and pay all other duties to the king as they have been accuſtomed; fines for redemption of ſeſſions excepted. ſ. 110.

The town of Haverford-weſt ſhall find one burgeſs at every parliament, the charges of the ſame burgeſs to be borne by the mayor, burgeſſes, and inhabitants. ſ. 111.

The king ſhall have all felons goods, and goods of perſons outlawed, waifs, ſtrays, and other forfeitures and eſcheats, anſwered by the hands of the ſheriffs; ſaving the right of his ſubjects. ſ. 112.

All errors and judgments before the juſtices at the great ſeſſions, in pleas real or mixt, ſhall be redreſſed by writ of error out of the chancery returnable before the king's bench; and if the judgment be affirmed, then to make execution, and other proceſs as is uſed in the king's bench. ſ. 113.

No execution of any judgment given in any baſe court, ſhall be ſtayed by writ of falſe judgment. ſ. 114.

All proceſs for weighty cauſes ſhall be made into Wales by the ſpecial command of the chancellor of England, or any of the king's council in England, as heretofore. ſ. 115.

The town of Bewdley, in the pariſh of Ribbesford, in the county of Wigorn, ſhall be united to the county of Wigorn, and be within the hundred of Dodingtre. ſ. 116.

The lordſhip of Llanſtiffan, Uſterloys, and Langham, ſhall be part of the county of Caermarthen, and parcel of the hundred of Derles. ſ. 117.

The county court of the county of Radnor ſhall be holden at New Radnor and Preſton, alternis vicibus, and never at Rather Gowey. ſ. 118.

The town of Haverford-weſt ſhall be a county in itſelf, as before, at the will of the king, and ſeparated from the county of Pembroke, at the king's pleaſure. And the king's high juſtice of the county of Pembroke ſhall be high juſtice of the county and town of Haverford-weſt; and it ſhall he lawful unto the mayor, ſheriff, bailiffs, and burgeſſes, of the ſaid county and town of Haverford-weſt, to uſe all lawful liberties at the king's will, according to the laws of England; and the judicial ſeal of the ſhires of Pembroke, Caermarthen, and Cardigan, in cuſtody of the high juſtice there, ſhall be uſed in the county and town of Haverford-weſt, as the original and judicial ſeal of the ſame town. ſ. 124.

This act ſhall not be prejudicial to any perſon concerning any lands, ſervices, bondmen, tolls, or other hereditaments. ſ. 126.

All lands within Wales ſhall deſcend to the heirs according to the common law, and not as gavelkind. ſ. 127.

All liberties of the duchy of Lancaſter, ſhall be of the ſame force as before this act. ſ. 129.

By 1 Edw. 6. c. 10. If any writ of exigent be awarded in the king's bench or the common pleas againſt any perſon dwelling in Wales, or in the counties palatine of Cheſter, or the city of Cheſter, the juſtices ſhall have power to award one writ of proclamation according to the ſtatute 6 Hen. 8. c. 4. [See OUTLAWRY,] to ſuch ſheriffs of the counties in Wales, and of the counties palatine of Cheſter and the city of Cheſter, where the defendant ſhall dwell. And ſuch writ of proclamation ſhall have the ſame teſte and return as the exigent; and ſuch ſheriff ſhall make proclamation, and make return of the ſame: and all outlawries, upon ſuch exigents, and no writ of proclamation awarded to the ſheriff of the county where the defendant ſhall dwell, or not returned, to be void. ſ. 2.

Every ſheriff of Wales, and of the counties palatine of Cheſter, and of the city of Cheſter, ſhall have in the king's bench and common pleas, one deputy to receive writs; and all writs of proclamation aforeſaid ſhall be delivered to ſuch deputy of record. ſ. 3.

If any perſon dwelling in Wales ſhall be outlawed, writs of ſpecial capias utlagatum, ſingle capias utlagatum, non moleſtand, and other proceſs, may be directed to the ſheriff of any of the counties in Wales, as immediate officers to the king's ſaid courts, and ſuch writs may be delivered of record to the deputy of ſuch ſheriffs. ſ. 4.

If any ſuch writ of proclamation be delivered unto any of the ſaid ſheriffs, or his deputy, in form aforeſaid, and the ſheriff do not make true return of ſaid writ, ſuch ſheriff ſhall forfeit 5 l. the one half to the king, the other to ſuch as will ſue for the ſame in an action of debt upon this act, in any of the king's courts of record. ſ. 5.

This act ſhall not be prejudicial to the counties of Wales, or the counties palatine of Cheſter, or the city of Cheſter, otherwiſe than before declared. ſ. 6.

This act ſhall not be prejudicial to any lord marcher in Wales. ſ. 7.

By 1 & 2 Phil. & Mar. c. 15. As well ſpiritual lords marchers having lordſhips marchers, or lordſhips royal in Wales, and their ſucceſſors, as alſo the heirs of the lords temporal marchers, ſhall have the moiety of every forfeiture of common mainprize, recognizance for the peace or appearance, forfeited by their tenants within the lordſhips marchers, or lordſhips royal, to be paid by the hands of the ſheriff. ſ. 5.

And ſhall have all ſuch miſes and profits of their tenants, as the lords marchers uſed to have at their firſt entry into their lands, and hold all ſuch courts-baron, and courts-leet, and have all ſuch waif, ſtray, infang thefe, outfang thefe, treaſure trove, deodands, goods of felons and of perſons outlawed for felony or murder, wreck de mere, wharfage, and cuſtoms of ſtrangers, as in times paſt. ſ. 6.

By 5 Eliz. c. 25. In every of the ſhires of Wales, and in the counties palatine of Cheſter, Durham, and Lancaſter, where a full jury ſhall not appear before the juſtices, or by challenge of parties the jury is like to remain untaken for default of jurors, the juſtices upon requeſt by the plaintiff or demandant, ſhall have authority to command the ſheriff to name ſo many other perſons preſent as ſhall make up a full jury; which ſhall be added to the former panel. And in caſe ſuch perſons be preſent and do not appear, or do wilfully withdraw themſelves, ſuch juſtices ſhall ſet ſuch fine as they ſhall think good, to be levied as iſſues loſt by jurors. ſ. 2.

Where any jury ſhall be made full by command of the juſtices, ſuch perſons as were returned in the panel that ſhall make default, ſhall loſe iſſues as though the jury had remained for default of jurors. ſ. 3.

Provided that upon a reaſonable excuſe proved before the juſtices at the day of appearance, by the oaths of two witneſſes, the juſtices ſhall have authority to diſcharge ſuch juror. ſ. 4.

If the juſtices do not come, the jurors ſhall be diſcharged of iſſues. ſ. 5.

If upon any writ of habeas corpora or diſtringas, iſſues be returned upon any hundredors or jurors, where the ſame hundredors and jurors ſhall not be ſummoned and diſtrained, every ſuch ſheriff ſhall loſe for ſuch offence double ſo much as the iſſues returned ſhall amount unto; the moiety of all which forfeitures (other than the iſſues to be returned upon the jurors) ſhall be to the queen, and the other half to him that will ſue for the ſame in the queen's great court within the county where ſuch forfeiture ſhall happen; ſaving to all perſons all right to ſuch iſſues, &c. ſ. 6.

This act ſhall not extend to any city or town corporate, for the return of any inqueſt of perſons inhabiting in the ſaid cities, &c. but that they may return ſuch perſons as before, ſo that the ſheriff, &c. return reaſonable iſſues. ſ. 7.

By 5 Eliz. c. 28. The biſhops of Hereford, St. Davies, Aſaph, Bangor, and Landaff, ſhall take order, that the bible with the book of common prayer, as now uſed in Engliſh, be tranſlated into the Britiſh or Welſh tongue; and divine ſervice ſhall be uſed throughout the ſaid dioceſes, where the Welſh tongue is commonly uſed, in the Britiſh tongue. ſ. 1.

The bible and common prayer in the Engliſh tongue ſhall be had, in every church throughout Wales, in which the bible and common prayer in Welſh is to be had, and the ſame books ſhall remain in convenient places within the churches. ſ. 2.

By 18 Eliz. c. 8. The queen may at her pleaſure appoint two or more learned in the laws, to be juſtices of the counties of Cheſter, Flint, Denbigh, and Montgomery; and two or more juſtices of North Wales, viz. of Angleſey, Caernarvon, and Merioneth; and two or more juſtices of the ſhires of Radnor, Glamorgan, and Brecknock; and two or more juſtices of the ſhires of Cardigan, Caermarthan, and Pembroke, and the town and county of Haverfordweſt. ſ. 3.

Her majeſty may grant commiſſions of aſſociation under the great ſeal to any perſons learned, to be aſſociate with ſuch juſtices. ſ. 4. See 13 Geo. 3. c. 51. ſ. 3.

By 27 Eliz. c. 9. Every writ of covenant, and other writ, whereupon any fine ſhall be levied, the return thereof, the writ of dedimus, the return thereof, the concord, note, and foot, of every ſuch fine, the proclamations and the king's ſilver, and alſo every original writ of entry in the poſt, or other writ, whereupon any common recovery ſhall be ſuffered, the writs of ſummon. ad warrantiſandum, the returns of the ſaid writs, and every warrant of attorney of every demandant, tenant, and vouchee, in the courts of aſſizes, or great ſeſſions within the twelve ſhires of Wales, town and county of Haverfordweſt, and counties palatines, may upon the requeſt of any perſon be inrolled; and the inrolments ſhall be of as good force as the ſame being extant ought to be. ſ. 1.

No fine, proclamations upon fines, or common recovery, in Wales, or the counties palatine, ſhall be reverſed by writ of error for falſe Latin, raſure, interlining, miſentring of any warrant of attorney, or of any proclamation, miſreturning or not returning of the ſheriff, or other want of form in words, and not in ſubſtance. ſ. 2.

Every perſon that ſhall take the knowledge of any fine, or warrant of attorney for ſuffering any common recovery, within Wales or the counties palatine, ſhall with the certificate of the concord or warrant of attorney certify alſo the day and year wherein the ſame was acknowledged; and no perſon ſhall be bound to certify ſuch knowledge of any fine or warrant, except it be within one year next after the knowledge taken. ſ. 5.

No clerk or officer in Wales, or the counties palatine, ſhall receive any writ of covenant, or writ of entry, or other writ, whereupon any fine or common recovery is to paſs, unleſs the day of the knowledge of the ſame ſhall appear by ſuch certificate, upon pain of 40 s. And no attornment upon any ſuch fine ſhall be entred upon record, except the party have appeared in court in perſon, or by attorney warranted by the hands of one of the juſtices of the court, upon a writ of quid juris clamat, quem redditum redd', or per quæ ſervitia. And every entry of attornment in the courts aforeſaid, wherein there ſhall be no appearance as aforeſaid, ſhall be void without writ of error, or other means. ſ. 6.

There ſhall be an office for the inrolments in every of the twelve ſhires of Wales, town of Haverfordweſt, and counties palatine; and the juſtices ſhall take the charge of the inrolments aforeſaid, and in conſideration of their charges therein ſhall have the ſums following, viz. for the inrolment and examination of every fine, 5 s. and for the inrolment, &c. of every recovery, 5 s. and for every exemplification of the inrolment of every fine, 3 s. 4 d. and for every exemplification of the inrolment of every recovery, 3 s. 4 d. and for the ſearch of the rolls for one year, 4 d. and for the copy of one ſheet containing fourteen lines, 4*d.* And the juſtices of aſſizes, or great ſeſſions, or one of them, ſhall examine the inrolment of every ſuch fine and recovery, and write his name in the roll, upon pain of 40*s.* for every default; and it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices to take order in all things for the inrolments; and upon examination to aſſeſs ſuch fine or amerciament upon any clerk, ſheriff, or other perſon for his miſpriſion, contempt, and negligence, concerning fines or recoveries, as ſhall be thought meet, to be eſtreated amongſt other fines and amerciaments. ſ. 7.

The exemplification of any ſuch inrolment of fine or recovery, under the judicial ſeal, or under the ſeal of the county palatine, ſhall be of as good force as the original record. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful for the juſtices clerks, by their warrant, in the offices, to write out or inrol the ſame records; and the ſaid records ſhall not be carried forth of the ſaid offices. ſ. 9.

By 19 Car. 2. c. 5. The act 17 Car. 2. c. 7. [See AVOWRY] ſhall be extended to all cauſes of replevin in his majeſty's court of common pleas for the county palatine of Lancaſter, the court of great ſeſſions of Wales, the court of great ſeſſions, or aſſizes for the county palatine of Cheſter, and the court of common pleas for the county of Durham.

By 1 Will. & Mar. ſt. 1. c. 27. The court before the preſident and council in the marches of Wales, and all juriſdiction belonging unto, or exerciſed in the ſame, ſhall be taken away. ſ. 2.

The juſtices of the great ſeſſions ſhall yearly nominate three perſons for each ſhire in their circuits, to be ſheriffs, and ſhall certify their names to the lords of the moſt honourable privy council craſtino animarum, to the intent the king may appoint one of them to be ſheriff. ſ. 3.

All errors in pleas perſonal within the principality of Wales, ſhall be redreſſed by writ of error, in the ſame manner as errors in pleas real and mixed, by 34 & 35 Hen. 8. c. 26. ſ. 113. ſ. 4.

Provided that no judgments nor decrees paſſed in the ſaid court before the 1ſt of June 1689, be by this act annulled. ſ. 5.

By 5 Will. & Mar. c. 4. It ſhall be lawful for the king by commiſſion under the great ſeal, to conſtitute any number of juſtices of peace in any of the counties of Wales. ſ. 2.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 38. It ſhall be lawful for any perſon reſiding, or who ſhall have any goods, within Wales or the marches thereof, by their laſt wills, to diſpoſe of all their goods and perſonal eſtate, as the teſtators ſhall think fit, in as ample manner as any perſons may within any other part of the province of Canterbury; and the widows, children, and other the kindred of ſuch teſtators, ſhall be barred to claim any part of the goods or perſonal eſtate, in other manner than by the ſaid laſt wills. ſ. 1.

Nothing in this act ſhall take away any right, which any woman now married, or younger perſon now born, may have to the reaſonable part of their huſband's or father's eſtate, by virtue of the cuſtom. ſ. 2.

By 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 9. The clauſe 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 9. ſ. 136. [See SUITS] and all proviſions by any law in force made for prevention of frivolous and vexatious ſuits in the courts at Weſtminſter, ſhall be extended to all ſuch ſuits in the court of great ſeſſions of Wales, the court of great ſeſſions for the county palatine of Cheſter, the court of common pleas for the county palatine of Lancaſter, and the court of pleas for the county palatine of Durham. ſ. 1.

No ſheriff, or other officer within the ſaid principality, or counties palatine, upon any writ or proceſs out of any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, ſhall hold any perſon to ſpecial bail, unleſs an affidavit be firſt made and filed in court, ſignifying the cauſe of action, and that the ſame is 20*l.* and upwards; and bail ſhall not be taken for more than the ſums expreſſed in ſuch affidavit. ſ. 2.

By 8 Geo. 1. c. 25. Any judge or officer of any of the courts of great ſeſſion in Wales, or court of ſeſſion in the counties palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter, and Durham, that ſhall ſign any judgments, ſhall without fee, ſet down the day of the month and year upon the paper-book, docket, or record, which he ſhall ſign: which day ſhall be alſo entred upon the margin of the roll where the judgment ſhall be entred; and ſuch judgments, as againſt purchaſers bona fide for valuable conſideration, ſhall be judgments only from ſuch times as they ſhall be ſo ſigned, and ſhall not relate to the firſt day of the ſeſſion, or the day of return of the original, or filing the bail. ſ. 6.

By 6 Geo. 2. c. 14. In all perſonal actions, where the debt or damages ſhall not amount to 10*l.* in the courts of great ſeſſions and aſſize in Wales and Cheſter, and where the plaintiff ſhall ſue out an original writ or proceſs, and ſerve the defendant with a copy eight days before the commencement of the ſaid courts, and ſhall cauſe on the copy of ſuch proceſs to be written the notice in 5 Geo. 2. c. 27. [See ARRESTS] directed, the defendant ſhall appear at the return of ſuch proceſs, or before the third court; and in caſe the defendant ſhall not appear, it ſhall be lawful for the plaintiff or his attorney upon affidavit filed of the perſonal ſervice (for the filing whereof there ſhall be paid 1*s.*) to enter an appearance for ſuch defendant. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall have more than 5*s.* for making and ſerving a copy of ſuch proceſs. ſ. 2.

The act 4 Geo. 2. c. 26. [See PLEADINGS] that proceedings in the courts of juſtice ſhall be in the Engliſh language, ſhall extend to the courts of great ſeſſions, and all other courts within Wales. ſ. 3.

Where any perſon ſhall offend againſt the laſt mentioned act in Wales, the penalty may be ſued for, either in any of his majeſty's courts in Weſtminſter, or in the court of great ſeſſions where the offence ſhall be committed. ſ. 4.

By 20 Geo. 2. c. 42. In all caſes where the kingdom of England, or that part of Great Britain called England, hath been, or ſhall be mentioned in any act of parliament, the ſame has been, and ſhall be taken, to comprehend the dominion of Wales and town of Berwick upon Tweed. ſ. 3.

By 8 Geo 3. c. 14. The ſheriffs of the ſeveral counties in Wales ſhall provide neceſſary lodging and other accommodations for his majeſty's juſtices of the great ſeſſions, during each ſeſſion, as has been uſually provided by the ſheriffs within the ſeveral counties in England, for the juſtices of aſſize there; and his majeſty may, by warrant under his ſign manual, counterſigned by the high treaſurer, or three of the commiſſioners of the treaſury, authoriſe, during 1 Geo. 3. c. 1. the auditor of the land revenues of the crown ariſing within Wales, to allow all charges made by the ſheriffs, in the accounts by them delivered into the office of the ſaid auditor, of expences incurred by them in providing accommodations; and to direct that certificates ſhall be delivered by the ſaid auditor to the ſaid ſheriffs of the ſums ſo allowed in their accounts; and alſo to authoriſe the receiver general of the ſaid revenues to pay the ſums, certified upon the delivery to him of ſuch certificates, without any fee, to be paid by the ſheriff. ſ. 1.

No greater ſum ſhall be allowed than 10*l.* for which accommodations in one county during one ſeſſions. ſ. 2.

By 13 Geo. 3. c. 51. In caſe the plaintiff in any action upon the caſe for words, action of debt, treſpaſs on the caſe, aſſault and battery, or other perſonal action, where the cauſe ſhall ariſe within Wales, and which ſhall be tried at the aſſizes, at the neareſt Engliſh county to Wales, ſhall not recover 10 l.; if the judge who tried the cauſe, ſhall certify on the back of the record, that the defendant was reſident in Wales on the ſervice of the writ, or proceſs, on ſuch fact being ſuggeſted on the record or judgment roll, a nonſuit ſhall be entered againſt the plaintiff, and ſuch defendant ſhall be intitled to like judgment, to recover ſuch coſts againſt the plaintiff in every ſuch action, as if a verdict had been given for the defendant, unleſs the judge ſhall certify on the back of the record, that the freehold or title of the land mentioned in the declaration was chiefly in queſtion, or that ſuch cauſe was proper to be tried in ſuch Engliſh county. ſ. 1.

In all tranſitory actions ariſing within the principality, which ſhall be brought in any court of record out of Wales, and the venue therein, ſhall be laid in any county out of the principality, and the debt or damages found by the jury, ſhall not amount to 10 l. and it ſhall appear upon the evidence on the trial, that the cauſe aroſe in Wales, and that the defendant were reſident in Wales at the time of the ſervice of writ, or proceſs ſerved on him in ſuch action, and it ſhall be ſo certified, under the hand of the judge, upon the back of the record (on ſuch facts being ſuggeſted on the record or judgment roll), a nonſuit ſhall be entered thereon againſt the plaintiff, and the plaintiff ſhall pay to the defendant, in ſuch action, his coſts; and the defendant ſhall have like remedy to recover the ſame as in the caſe of a verdict given for the defendant in ſuch action; and, in the taxation of all coſts given to the defendant by this act, the officer ſhall allow to the plaintiff, out of the defendant's coſts, the full ſum given by the verdict to the plaintiff for his debt or damages: and, although no judgment ſhall be entered for the plaintiff upon ſuch verdict, yet ſuch verdict, without any judgment entered thereon, ſhall be bar to any action commenced by the plaintiff for the ſame. ſ. 2.

No juſtice for the county of Cheſter, or for any county, circuit, or ſhire, within Wales, ſhall have any power of exerciſing his office by deputy, except for the purpoſe of calling and adjourning any court, and receiving any motion, and for taking and proclaiming fines and arraigning recoveries, in ſuch court of each great ſeſſion and aſſizes, within the circuit of ſuch juſtice. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for the juſtices, by writing under the hand and ſeal of ſuch juſtice, to appoint any perſon to be his deputy for calling and adjourning any court, and receiving any motion, and for taking and proclaiming fines, and arraigning recoveries in ſuch court of each great ſeſſion and aſſizes, within their circuits, which perſon ſhall have full power ſo to do. ſ. 4.

His majeſty may, under his ſign manual, appoint one or more perſons, learned as aforeſaid, to execute the office of juſtice in the county palatine of Cheſter, or in any of the ſaid counties of Wales, for the then next enſuing great ſeſſions, in the place of any of the juſtices, who ſhall, by illneſs, be prevented attending ſuch ſeſſions, and ſo often as neceſſity ſhall require. ſ. 5.

The juſtices of great ſeſſions in Wales, upon motion on behalf of his majeſty, or on motion of any proſecutor or defendant in any indictment or information of any miſdemeanour, or on the motion of any plaintiff or defendant, in any action, in any courts of great ſeſſions, ſhall, in caſe ſuch juſtices think fit, order a jury to be ſtruck before the proper officer of ſuch courts, for the trial of any iſſue, in ſuch manner as ſpecial juries have been uſually ſtruck in courts of law at Weſtminſter, upon trials at bar; which jury ſo ſtruck ſhall be the jury returned for the trial of ſuch iſſue. ſ. 6.

The party who ſhall apply for ſuch ſpecial jury, ſhall not only pay the fees for ſtriking ſuch jury, but ſhall alſo pay all expences occaſioned by the trial by ſuch jury, and ſhall not have any other allowance for the ſame, upon taxation of coſts, than ſuch party would be intitled unto in caſe the cauſe had been tried by a common jury, unleſs the juſtice ſhall, immediately after the trial, certify in open court, under his hand, upon the back of the record, that the ſame was a cauſe proper to be tried by a ſpecial jury. ſ. 7.

No perſon who ſhall ſerve upon any jury, appointed by authority of this act, ſhall take for ſerving, more than the ſum which the juſtice who tries the iſſue ſhall think juſt, not exceeding 1 l. 1 s. except in cauſes where a view ſhall be directed. ſ. 8.

The juſtices of the courts of great ſeſſions ſhall, by one or more commiſſioners, under the ſeal of the ſaid courts, impower ſo many perſons as they think fit, in all the ſhires within their circuits in Wales, to take all ſuch affidavits as any perſon ſhall be deſirous to make before any of the perſons impowered in any cauſe depending, or in anywiſe concerning any of the proceedings in their circuits, as the juſtices of the king's bench, or common pleas, or treaſurer, chancellor, and barons of the exchequer uſe to do; which affidavits ſhall be filed in the offices of the ſaid courts of great ſeſſions, and may be read in the ſaid courts, as other affidavits taken in the ſaid courts now are; and all affidavits, taken as aforeſaid, ſhall be of the ſame force as affidavits taken in the ſaid courts; and all perſons forſwearing themſelves, in ſuch affidavits, ſhall be liable unto the ſame penalties, as if ſuch affidavits had been made in open court; which commiſſions ſhall be made out by the prothonotary, upon a fiat from the juſtices; and the ſaid prothonotary ſhall cauſe an entry to be made in a book to be kept for that purpoſe, of the names of the perſons to whom ſuch commiſſions are granted, and the times when iſſued; and the following fees ſhall be paid for each commiſſion, and no more (to wit); 2 s. for the fiat, 4 s. for making out the commiſſion, beſides the duty and value of the parchment; and 4 s. for ſealing the ſame; and every commiſſioner ſo impowered, ſhall take for ſwearing of every affidavit before him, 1 s. and no more. ſ. 9.

No perſon appointed a commiſſioner ſhall take any affidavit during the holding the great ſeſſions, or aſſizes, for the county in which ſuch cauſe ſhall be depending. ſ. 10.

Such officers of the ſaid courts of great ſeſſions, as have heretofore taken affidavits, may continue ſo to do. ſ. 11.

The juſtices of the courts of great ſeſſions may, by commiſſion, or under the ſeal of the ſaid courts, impower ſuch perſons (other than common attorneys or ſolicitors) as they think fit in the ſeveral ſhires within their circuits in Wales, to take recognizances of bail in any action depending in the ſaid courts, in ſuch manner, and by ſuch bail piece, as the juſtices of the courts of great ſeſſions have uſed to take the ſame; which recognizances, or bail pieces, together with an affidavit made of the due taking of ſuch bail, by ſome credible perſon preſent at the taking thereof, ſhall be tranſmitted to the prothonotary's office, there to be filed of record, paying ſuch fees as have uſually been received for taking of ſpecial bails by the juſtices clerks, and other officers of the courts, which recognizance of bail or bail piece ſhall be of the like effect, as if the ſame were taken before any of the juſtices; for the taking of which recognizance of bail or bail piece, the perſon ſo impowered ſhall receive only 2 s. ſ. 12.

The juſtices of great ſeſſions, in their courts, ſhall make ſuch rules for the juſtifying of bails, and making the ſame abſolute, as to them ſhall ſeem meet, ſo as the cognizor of ſuch bail be not compelled to appear in perſon in any of the ſaid courts, to juſtify; but the ſame may be determined by affidavit taken before the commiſſioners, touching the value of their eſtates. ſ. 13.

The attorney for the defendant ſhall give notice to the plaintiff's attorney of the taking of ſuch bail within eight days after the caption thereof, and the plaintiff may, within eight days after ſuch notice, take exception to ſuch bail, and enter the ſame in the prothonotary's office; and ſuch exception having been taken, the bail ſhall be juſtified before the juſtices, before the riſing of the ſecond court at the enſuing ſeſſions; and the bail bond taken by the ſheriff, under ſheriff, or other officer, for the defendant's appearance, ſhall remain in force until ſuch ſpecial bail ſhall have been finally juſtified; but the plaintiff, nevertheleſs, may file his declaration conditionally in the prothonotary's office; and the defendant, in caſe ſuch declaration ſhall have been delivered ſeven days before the firſt day of the ſeſſion next enſuing the return of ſuch writs, ſhall plead thereto, before the riſing of the ſecond court of ſuch great ſeſſions, unleſs further time ſhall be given him by the court. ſ. 14.

All original writs, bills, and all meſne proceſs whatſoever, by which any action ſhall be commenced in the courts of great ſeſſion for North and South Wales, ſhall be made returnable before his majeſty's juſtices reſpectively of the ſeveral counties of North and South Wales, on the firſt Wedneſday in any month, in each of the two vacations, annually, betwixt the two ſeſſions, or on the firſt day of the next ſeſſions, at the election of the plaintiff, or the attorney, who ſhall ſue out the ſame: And all ſuch writs or proceſs which ſhall iſſue out of the ſaid courts, returnable in the vacations, and whereon the defendant ſhall be arreſted or ſerved with a copy, ſuch defendant ſhall appear and file ſpecial bail, or enter a common appearance on the day of ſuch return, or within fourteen days next after; and in caſe of neglect in bailable actions, the ſheriff, or officer, ſhall, at the requeſt and coſts of the plaintiff, or attorney, aſſign to ſuch plaintiff the bail bond, by indorſement and atteſtation under his hand, in the preſence of two witneſſes; and the plaintiff, after ſuch aſſignment, may bring an action upon ſuch bail bond in his own name; and the ſaid courts may, by rule, give ſuch relief to the plaintiff and defendant, in the original action, and to the bail ſued upon the bail bond, as is agreeable to juſtice; and in caſe on ſervice of the copy of any writ (having notice thereunder written, purporting the intent of ſuch ſervice) returnable in the vacation time as aforeſaid, the defendant ſo ſerved, ſhall not appear at the return, or within fourteen days after, it ſhall be lawful for the plaintiff, upon affidavit made, and filed with the prothonotary of the ſaid courts, or his deputy, of the perſonal ſervice of ſuch writ as aforeſaid, to enter a common appearance for the defendant, and to proceed thereon as if ſuch defendant had entered his appearance; and ſpecial bail having been filed, or a common appearance entered, as the caſe ſhall require, the plaintiff may proceed to file his declaration; and the defendant, in caſe ſuch declaration ſhall have been delivered ſeven days before the firſt day of the ſeſſion next enſuing the return of ſuch writ, ſhall be bound to plead thereto, before the riſing of the ſecond court of ſuch great ſeſſion, to be holden for the county in which ſuch action ſhall have been brought, unleſs the court ſhall think proper to allow further time. ſ. 15.

Every officer or clerk belonging to the courts of great ſeſſions in Wales, who ſhall ſign any original writ or bill, relating to actions depending in the ſaid courts, ſhall, at the ſigning thereof, ſet down upon ſuch original writ or bill the day and year of his ſigning the ſame, which ſhall be entered upon the remembrance, or in the book where the abſtracts of ſuch original writ or bill ſhall be entered, upon pain to forfeit 5 l. for every neglect; to be recovered by any perſon who ſhall ſue by action of debt, &c. ſ. 16.

Where any penalty is given by any ſtatute, and the ſame is directed to be recovered in the courts of Weſtminſter, excepting ſuch as may by the laws now in being be ſued for only in the exchequer, and the offence for which ſuch penalty hath or ſhall be given, ſhall be done in any of the counties of Wales, and the defendant liable to the ſame ſhall be reſident within the juriſdiction of the great ſeſſion, it ſhall be lawful for the plaintiff, or proſecutor, or other perſon to whom ſuch penalty is given, in ſuch caſe, to ſue for and recover the ſame in the courts of great ſeſſion, in ſuch manner as he might have done in the courts at Weſtminſter; and the ſaid courts of great ſeſſion ſhall have juriſdiction as fully as if the ſaid courts had been named in the ſaid acts. ſ. 17.

Warrants of Attorney.

By 18 Hen. 6. c. 9. The act 10 Hen. 6. c. 4. in APPEARANCE ſhall endure for ever; and no officer ſhall do the contrary, upon pain of 40 s. every time that he ſhall be attainted by examination before the juſtices: and every attorney who hath not his warrant entred of record in all his ſuits, in which proceſs of capias and exigent is awardable, the ſame term in which the exigent is awarded or before, and thereupon attainted by like examination, ſhall incur the pain aforeſaid. See ARRESTS, ATTORNIES.

Warranty.

Stat. de bigam. 4 Edw. 1. ſt. 3. c. 6. In deeds where it is contained dedi et conceſſi tale tenementum, to be holden of the donors and their heirs by certain ſervices, the donor and his heirs ſhall be bound to warranty. And where it is contained dedi et conceſſi, &c. to be holden of the chief lords, or of others than the feoffors, no ſervice being reſerved, and without clauſe of warranty, the heirs ſhall not be bound to warranty; but the feoffor in his life only by reaſon of his own gift ſhall be bound to warranty.

By 4 Ann. c. 16. All warranties made by any tenant for life of any hereditaments, the ſame coming to any perſon in reverſion or remainder, ſhall be void; and all collateral warranties, made of any hereditaments by any anceſtor who has no eſtate of inheritance in poſſeſſion in the ſame, ſhall be void againſt his heir. ſ. 21. See VOUCHER.

Waſte.

Stat. Marleb. 52 Hen. 3. c. 24. Farmers during their terms ſhall not make waſte, ſale, nor exile, of houſes, woods, nor of any thing belonging to the tenements, without licence licence had by writing of covenant; which if they do, and thereof be convict, they ſhall yield damages, and ſhall be puniſhed by amercement grievouſly.

Stat. Glouc. 6 Edw. 1. c. 5. A man ſhall have a writ of waſte againſt him that holdeth by the law of England, or otherwiſe for term of life, or of years, or a woman that holdeth by dower; and he that is attainted of waſte, ſhall loſe the thing waſted, and ſhall recompence thrice ſo much as the waſte ſhall be taxed at.

Stat. Weſtm. 2. 13 Edw. 1. c. 14. Of waſte done to the damage of any perſon, there ſhall be no writ of prohibition, but of ſummons, ſo that he of whom complaint is ſhall anſwer for waſte done at any time; and if he come not after the ſummons, he ſhall be attached, and after the attachment he ſhall be diſtrained, and if he come not after the diſtreſs, the ſheriff ſhall be commanded, that in proper perſon he take with him twelve, &c. and go to the place waſted, and inquire of the waſte done, and return the inquiſition, and after the inquiſion returned they ſhall paſs unto judgment, as in the ſtatute of Glouceſt. c. 5.

Stat. Weſt. 2. 13 Edw. 1. c. 22. Where two or more hold wood, turfland or fiſhing, in common, and ſome of them do waſte, an action may lie by writ of waſte; and when it is paſſed unto judgment, the defendant ſhall chuſe either to take his part in a place certain by aſſignment of the ſheriff, and by the view and oath of his neighbours, or elſe he ſhall grant to take nothing in the ſame wood, turfland, &c. but as his fellows will; and if he chuſe to take his part in a place certain, the place waſted ſhall be aſſigned for his part.

Stat. of waſte, 20 Edw. 1. ſt. 2. Every heir, as well within age as of full age, ſhall have his recovery by writ of waſte, and it ſhall hold place for waſte and deſtruction made in lands of his own inheritance, as well in the times of his anceſtors, as at any other time.

By 11 Hen. 6. c. 5. Where people let their lands, and the tenants have granted their eſtate, and afterwards the firſt tenants continually occupy the lands, and in the ſaid lands do waſte and deſtruction; they in the reverſion may have a writ of waſte againſt the tenants for life, or years, where the firſt tenants before the grant of their eſtates were puniſhable of waſte, and where after the grant the firſt tenants take the profits at the time of the waſte done.

Watch and Ward.

By Stat. Winton, 13 Edw. 1. ſt. 2. c. 4. In great towns walled, the gates ſhall be cloſed from ſunſetting until ſun-riſing, and no man ſhall lodge in the ſuburbs but in the day-time, nor in the day-time without his hoſt will anſwer for him; and the bailiffs of towns every week, or at leaſt every fifteenth day, ſhall make inquiry of all perſons lodged in the ſuburbs; and if they find any that receive men of whom there is ſuſpicion, the bailiffs ſhall do right therein. And watches ſhall be made from the feaſt of aſcenſion unto Michaelmas, in every city, by ſix men at every gate; in every borough by twelve men; in every town by ſix or four, according to the number of the inhabitants; and they ſhall watch all night from ſun-ſetting unto ſun-riſing: and if any ſtranger paſs by them, he ſhall be arreſted unto the morning; and then if no ſuſpicion be found, he ſhall go quit; and if they find ſuſpicion they ſhall deliver him to the ſheriff, and he ſhall keep him until he be delivered in due manner; and if they will not obey the arreſt, hue and cry ſhall be levied upon them, and the watchmen ſhall follow them with all the town, with hue and cry from town to town, until they be taken and delivered to the ſheriff.

By Stat. Winton, 13 Edw. 1. ſt. 2. c. 6. The conſtables ſhall preſent before juſtices aſſigned ſuch defaults as they ſhall have found of purſuits, and of watches and of highways, and alſo ſhall preſent all ſuch as lodge ſtrangers in uplandiſh towns, for whom they will not anſwer. And the juſtices aſſigned ſhall preſent the ſame at every parliament to the king, and the king ſhall provide remedy.

Artic. ſuper chart. 28 Edw. 1. c. 17. The ſtatute of Wincheſter, 13 Edw. 1. ſt. 2. ſhall be read four times by the year, as well as the two great charters. And to the keeping of that ſtatute the three knights ſhall be charged, who are aſſigned thro' the counties to redreſs things done againſt the great charters.

By 5 Hen. 4. c. 3. The watch upon the ſea-coaſt ſhall be made by the number, in the places, and in manner, as they were wont; and the ſtatute of Wincheſter ſhall be holden, and in the commiſſions of the peace this article ſhall be put in, that the juſtices have power thereof to make inquiſition in their ſeſſions, and to puniſh them which be found in default.

War Chandlers.

By 23 Eliz. c. 8. Every perſon which ſhall in the making and melting of wax uſe any deceit, by mingling the ſame with roſin, tallow, turpentine, or other deceitful thing, to the intent to ſell the ſame, or offer the ſame to be ſold for wax, ſhall forfeit the corrupted wax; and if the ſame be ſold before ſuch fault be found, the melter or procurer thereof ſhall forfeit for every pound 2 s. one half to the queen, the other half to the party deceived, if he will ſue, or any other perſon that will ſue for the ſame in any the queen's courts of record. ſ. 1.

Every melter and maker up of unwrought wax ſhall have a ſtamp of the breadth of 6 d. wherein two letters ſhall be graven ſignifying his name, and ſhall ſtamp every piece of wax triangle in three places upon the outſide of the upper part of every piece, upon pain to forfeit the value of every piece offered to be ſold, and not marked. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall melt, mix, work, or ſell, any wrought wax, or wares wrought with wax, as in lights, ſtaff-torches, red wax or ſealing wax, book candle, ſearing candle, ſearing of dead corps, links, green wax, red wax, or any other work done with wax to be put to ſale, but with good ſtuff in convenient quantity. And every perſon that ſhall work or ſell ſuch ſtuff ſhall have a mark to ſet on his work; and ſuch as ſhall work, or to ſale put, any ſuch falſe wax, or wares wrought with wax, ſhall forfeit the ſame; the one half to the queen, and the other to the party deceived if he ſhall ſue, or otherwiſe to him that will ſue for the ſame, in any of the queen's courts of record. ſ. 3.

Every perſon which ſhall offer to be ſold any corrupted or falſe mingled wax, ſhall forfeit the wax; the one moiety to the queen, and the other to the party deceived if he ſhall ſue for the ſame, or otherwiſe to him that will ſue for the ſame. And all barrels, kilderkins, and firkins, filled with honey by the maker and filler, ſhall be marked with two letters for his name, each letter of an inch and half length at leaſt, burnt upon the head of the caſk with an iron, upon pain to forfeit 6 s. 8 d. for every caſk offered to be ſold and not marked; and if any perſon ſhall fill and ſell, or cauſe to be filled or offered to be ſold, any barrel, &c.

with honey, for a barrel, &c. containing leſs than 32 wine gallons the barrel, 16 gallons the kilderkin, and 8 gallons the firkin; every perſon ſo offending, ſhall forfeit for every half gallon lacking, 5 s. and every perſon that ſhall corrupt the honey, ſold or to be ſold, with any deceitful mixture, ſhall forfeit the veſſel and honey; the one moiety to the queen, and the other to him that will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 4.

This act, as touching the marking of wax, ſhall not extend to any perſon ſelling the wax of their own bees in open markets in ſmall pieces: nor to any ſervants or other perſons mingling or corrupting wax by command of their maſter, ſo as they will confeſs the ſame. ſ. 5.

If any perſon ſhall counterfeit any the marks above mentioned, or ſhall ſet the mark of any other perſon without conſent, every ſuch offender ſhall forfeit 5 l. the one moiety to the queen, and the other moiety to the party deceived if he will ſue for the ſame, or otherwiſe, to any other perſon that ſhall ſue in any the queen's courts of record; and for non-payment to be ſet on the pillory in the next market-town, and ſuffer three months impriſonment. ſ. 6. See EXCISE diviſion, Candles.

Wears.

Mag. chart. 9 Hen. 3. c. 23. All wears ſhall be put down by Thames and Medway, and through England, but only by the ſea coaſts.

By 25 Edw. 2. ſt. 4. c. 4. All mills, wears, ſtanks, ſtakes, and kidels, ſet up in the time of king Edward I. and after, whereby ſhips and boats be diſturbed, ſhall be pulled down without being relevied; and thereupon writs ſhall be ſent to the ſheriffs, and juſtices ſhall be thereupon aſſigned, at all times needful.

By 45 Edw. 3. c. 2. The ſtatute 25 Edw 3. c. 4. ſhall be kept. And if any ſuch annoyance be done, it ſhall be pulled down by proceſs contained in the ſtatute; and he that ſhall relevy ſuch annoyance, and thereof be attainted, ſhall incur the pain of an hundred marks to the king, to be levied by eſtreats to the exchequer. And ſuch law ſhall hold of annoyance made by inhanſing of ſuch wears, &c. as by the new levying.

By 1 Hen. 4. c. 12. The ſtatutes 25 Edw. 3. c. 4. and 45 Edw. 3. c. 2. ſhall be duly executed. And commiſſions ſhall be made to juſtices in every county of England where need ſhall be, to ſurvey and keep the waters and great rivers, and to amend defaults, and make due execution of the ſaid ſtatutes, as well by their ſurvey, advice and diſcretion, as by inqueſt to be taken, and to hear and determine the things aforeſaid, and to ſurvey the wears, mills, ſtanks, ſtakes, and kifels, made before the time of king Edward I. and them that they find too much inhanſed or ſtraited to pull down and amend. And if any ſuch nuſances of wears, &c. in old time made, be judged to be pulled down and amended, he that hath the freehold ſhall make thereof execution at his own coſts within half a year after notice, upon pain of an hundred marks, to be paid to the king by eſtreats in the exchequer; and he that cauſeth them to be relevied, inhanſed, or ſtraited, againſt the ſaid judgment, and thereof be convict, ſhall incur the pain of an hundred marks. And in caſe any feel himſelf grieved by execution or other way in this behalf againſt right and reaſon, he ſhall purſue and have right and remedy.

By 4 Hen. 4. c. 11. Enforced by 1 Hen. 5. c. 2. Commiſſions ſhall be made to certain juſtices and other in every county where ſhall be needful, to inquire of all that is contained in the ſaid ſtatutes, and to puniſh the offenders by fine; ſaved to the king the pains compriſed in the ſtatutes, and that the eſtreats of ſuch fines be delivered by the juſtices to the ſheriff by indenture; and that the ſheriff pay off the iſſues and profits riſing of the eſtreats, to every of the juſtices for every day that he ſhall travel to exerciſe the commiſſion, 4 s. and that the ſheriffs have thereof allowance in the exchequer.

By 12 Edw. 4. c. 7. If by award of the commiſſioners aſſigned according to 1 Hen. 4. c. 12. it be found that any wears, fiſhgarths, mills, milldams, millſtanks, locks, ebbing wears, ſtakes, kiddels, hecks, or floodgates, be made, inhanſed, ſtraited or inlarged, againſt the ſtatute, the offenders being duly warned by the ſheriff by ſcire facias, and within three months they do not amend and break down the ſame, they ſhall forfeit an hundred marks, to be paid by eſtreats in the exchequer. ſ. 3.

If the offender, his heirs, or aſſigns, continue the ſame default, they ſhall forfeit an hundred marks; the one half to the king, and the other half to any of his people which will ſue for the ſame by original writ without fine in the chancery; no protection or eſſoin in the king's ſervice to be allowed. ſ. 4.

If any perſon, other than ſuch againſt whom ſuch judgment were made, being heir or aſſignee to them, do continue any wears, &c. they ſhall forfeit for every month an hundred marks; the one half to the king, and the other half to him that will ſue as aforeſaid. ſ. 6.

By 7 Jac. 1. c. 19. The wear and new milleate over the river Exe ſhall ſtand; and it ſhall be lawful for the mayor, bailiffs, and commonality, of Exeter, to have free paſſage to and from the ſaid new wear and milleate through all places convenient for repairing the ſame. ſ. 2.

For ſatisfaction to ſuch perſons which may be damnified by the ſaid new wear, upon complaint of ſuch parties the juſtices of aſſize for the county of Devon, or ſuch perſons as by them (calling the parties) ſhall be aſſigned, may either in the city of Exeter, or in the county of Devon, by oath examine all ſuch witneſſes as ſhall be produced; and thereupon award to the party grieved, either by the year or otherwiſe, ſuch recompence with coſts, to be by the mayor, bailiffs, and commonality, paid. ſ. 3.

For the money ſo awarded, it may be lawful for the ſaid parties grieved (upon refuſal of payment) to diſtrain in any of the lands belonging to the ſaid mayor, bailiffs, and commonalty, or to ſue them by action of debt in any of the courts of record. ſ. 4.

Weights and Meaſures.

Mag. chart. 9 Hen. 3. c. 25. One meaſure of wine ſhall be throughout the realm, and one meaſure of ale, and one meaſure of corn, viz. the quarter of London, and one breadth of dyed cloth, ruſſets, and haberjects, viz. two yards within the liſts. And it ſhall be of weights as of meaſures.

Ordin. for meaſures, 31 Edw. 1. An Engliſh peny called a ſterling ſhall weigh 32 wheat corns in the midſt of the ear, and 20 pence make an ounce, and 12 ounces a pound, and 8 pounds make a gallon of wine, and 8 gallons a London buſhel, which is the eighth part of a quarter.

Compoſitio ulnar. et pert. incert. temp. Three grains of barley dry and round make an inch, 12 inches a foot, three feet a yard, five yards and a half make a perch; and 40 perches and 4 in breadth make an acre. Raſtal's abridgment.

Ordin. for meaſuring land, 33 Edw. 1. ſt. 6. When an acre of land containeth 10 perches in length, it ſhall be in breadth 16 perches.

Ordin. for bakers, &c. incert. temp. c. 8. The ſtandard of buſhels, gallons, and ells, ſhall be ſealed with an iron ſeal of the king, and ſafe kept; under pain of 100 l. And no meaſure ſhall be in any town, unleſs it agree with the king's meaſure, and marked with the ſeal of the ſhire town. If any ſell or buy by meaſures unſealed, and not examined by the mayor or bailiffs, he ſhall be grievouſly amerced. And the meaſures of every town ſhall be examined twice in the year. If any be convict for a double meaſure, he ſhall be impriſoned for his falſehood, and grievouſly puniſhed.

Ordin. for bakers, &c. incert. temp. c. 9. The ſtandard ſhall be in cuſtody of the mayor and bailiffs, and ſix lawful perſons of the town being ſworn, before whom all meaſures ſhall be ſealed. No grain ſhall be ſold by the heap or cantle, except oats, malt, and meal.

Compoſit. de ponderib. incert. temp. The load of lead doth conſiſt of 30 formels, and every formel containeth 6 ſtone, except 2 pounds; and every ſtone doth conſiſt of 12 pounds, and every pound conſiſteth of the weight of 25 s. whereby the ſum in the formel is 70 lb. but the ſum of the ſtones in the load is 8 ſcore and 15. There is a weigh as well of lead as of wool, tallow, and cheeſe, and weigheth 14 ſtone; and 2 weighs of wool make a ſack, and 12 ſacks make a laſt. But a laſt of herrings containeth 10,000, and every 1000 ten 100, and every 100 ſix ſcore. By 14 Edw. 3. ſt. 1. c. 12. The treaſurer ſhall cauſe to be made ſtandards of buſhels, gallons and weights, of braſs, and ſend the ſame into every county; and there ſhall be aſſigned two perſons in every county, or more, to ſurvey that the meaſures and weights be according to the ſtandard; and they have power to enquire, hear and determine, and to puniſh all that ſhall be found guilty; and the ſheriffs at their command ſhall retain them in priſon till they have made fine to the king; and every perſon that will complain of ſuch as offend in buying or ſelling, ſhall be heard as well for the king as for themſelves. ſ. 1.

The ſaid aſſignees ſhall deliver their eſtreats every year in the morrow of St. Michael at the exchequer, and take for their expences the fourth part of that they may levy, and anſwer to the king of the three parts, but the clerk of the market ſhall do his office as in times paſt; lords of franchiſes ſhall not be put out of their franchiſes by this ordinance. ſ. 2.

By 18 Edw. 3. c. 4. Commiſſions to eſſay meaſures, ells and weights, ſhall not iſſue.

By 25 Edw. 3. ſt. 5. c. 9. The weight called aunſel ſhall be taken away; and every ſale and buying ſhall be by the balance, ſo that the balance be even; and the ſack of wool ſhall weigh but 26 ſtone, every ſtone 14 pound; and if any buyer do the contrary, he ſhall be grievouſly puniſhed, as well at the ſuit of the party, as at the king's ſuit.

By 25 Edw. 3. ſt. 5. c. 10. All meaſures, viz. buſhels, half buſhels, peck, gallon, pottel and quart, ſhall be according to the king's ſtandard; and the quarter ſhall contain 8 buſhels; and every meaſure of corn ſhall be ſtriked without heap; ſaving the rents and farms of lords, which ſhall be meaſured as in times paſt; and at all times needful the king ſhall aſſign juſtices in every county to enquire, hear and determine, upon the points aforeſaid, as well at the party's ſuit as at the king's; ſo that all franchiſes be ſaved to the lords.

By 27 Edw. 3. ſt. 2. c. 10. One weight, one meaſure, and one yard, ſhall be through all the land; and wools, and all goods of weights, ſhall be weighed by the balance, ſo that the balance be even; and he that doth againſt this, to the damage of the ſeller, ſhall forfeit to the king the value of the merchandize, and the party that will complain ſhall have the quadruple of that, that he ſhall be endamaged, and the treſpaſſer ſhall have one year's impriſonment, and be ranſomed at the king's will; and juſtices ſhall be aſſigned to enquire of ſuch treſpaſſes at all times needful.

By 13 Ric. 2. c. 4. The clerk of the market of the king's houſe ſhall execute his office duly, and all falſe weights and meaſures ſhall be burnt; and the ſaid clerk ſhall take no common fine, but every one ſhall be puniſhed according to their deſert; and he ſhall not ride with above ſix horſes, and ſhall tarry no longer in a place than need requireth; and if he offend againſt this ſtatute, he ſhall pay to the king for the firſt time 5 l. for the ſecond 10 l. for the third 20 l.

By 13 Ric. 2. c. 9. One meaſure and one weight ſhall be through England; and every man that ſhall be convict that he hath any other meaſure or weight, ſhall have impriſonment of half a year, and make gree to the party grieved to the double of his loſs, except it be in the county of Lancaſter, becauſe in that county it hath always been uſed to have greater meaſure; and none ſhall buy or ſell wool at more weight than 14 pound the ſtone, upon pain to pay the double to him that is grieved, and make fine and ranſom to the king; and none ſhall make other refuſe of wool but cot, gare and villein; and none ſhall buy wool by the words good packing, or the like, upon pain the broker to have impriſonment half a year, and the buyer to make fine, and the party grieved to have double damages.

By 15 Ric. 2. c. 4. The ſaid ſtatutes ſhall be firmly kept, as well in London as in any other place, as well by water as by land; and none ſhall buy corn nor malt but after eight buſhels the quarter, according to the ſaid ſtatutes, upon pain of forfeiture of the corn or malt ſo bought; ſaving to the king the forfeiture, except franchizes royal, to whom the king hath granted the ſame forfeit: and as well the mayor and ſheriffs of London, as the mayors and bailiffs of other cities, boroughs, towns, and markets (if they do not thereof due execution) ſhall incur like pain, as well at the ſuit of the king, as of the party or any other that will ſue for the king.

By 16 Ric. 2. c. 3. All weights and meaſures through the the realm ſhall be according to the ſtandard of the exchequer; and the clerk of the market ſhall have all his meaſures and weights of braſs, according to the ſtandard and marks of the exchequer; and the ſame weights and meaſures ſo marked ſhall bring with him, at all times that he ſhall make the eſſay of weights and meaſures; and none ſhall uſe other meaſure nor weight, upon the pains contained in the ſtatutes.

By 1 Hen. 5. c. 10. None ſhall buy corn by other meaſure but eight buſhels ſtriked for the quarter; and if any buy corn otherwiſe, or by other meaſure, and thereof be attainted, he ſhall have one year's impriſonment, and pay to the king 100*s.* and to the party grieved other 100*s.* and the party which will ſue ſhall have an action upon the caſe: and the juſtices of peace have power to enquire and hold plea of theſe things, as well at the ſuit of the king as of the party; and nothing ſhall be taken for meaſuring of corn. ſ. 2.

By 2 Hen. 6. c. 11. No man ſhall bring into the realm, nor make within the realm, a tun of wine, except it contain of Engliſh meaſure 252 gallons, the pipe 126 gallons, and ſo after the rate the tertian and the hogſhead of Gaſcoin wine, upon pain of forfeiture of the wine; nor barrel of herring, nor of eels, unleſs they contain 30 gallons; nor but of ſalmon, unleſs it contain 84 gallons; nor kilderkins, tertians and firkins, of herring, nor of eels, nor of ſalmon, but after the rate, fully packed; upon pain of forfeiture of the herring, eels, and ſalmon, to the lord of the town, and he that will ſue ſhall have the fourth part of the forfeiture: and the juſtices of peace, and mayors and bailiffs, having power to enquire of the peace, ſhall enquire, hear and determine, the ſame defaults; and this ordinance ſhall extend as well within the county of Cheſter as elſewhere.

By 8 Hen. 6. c. 5. In every city, borough and town, common balance ſhall be, with common weights ſealed, according to the ſtandard of the exchequer, at the common coſts of the city, &c. in the keeping of the mayor or conſtable, at which balance all the inhabitants may freely weigh, without paying; taking nevertheleſs of foreigners for every draught within the weight of 40 lb. a farthing, and for every draught betwixt 40 lb. and 100, an halfpenny, and for every draught betwixt 100 lb. and 1000 lb. 1 d. whereof the weights ſhall be maintained, and the officers rewarded; and no man ſhall uſe weight nor meaſure, nor other thing in the place of weight or meaſure, that is not ſealed according to the ſtandard, nor put any thing to the ſame that may increaſe the meaſure or weight, upon pain of two years impriſonment, and fine and ranſom. And the juſtices of peace, mayors, bailiffs and ſtewards of franchiſes, ſhall have power to examine the treſpaſſers, and enquire of offenders againſt this ordinance; and every city, upon pain of 10 l. every borough, upon pain of 100*s.* and every town, where a conſtable is, upon pain of 40*s.* ſhall have a common balance with weights. ſ. 2.

By 11 Hen. 6. c. 8. In every city, borough, and town, there ſhall be a common buſhel ſealed according to the ſtandard in the exchequer, upon the ſame pain as in 8 Hen. 6. c. 5. is ſpecified of a common balance; and the mayor of London, and all other mayors and bailiffs, and all juſtices of peace in every county, ſhall have power to put the ſtatutes aforeſaid in execution, and hear and determine all offences againſt the ſame, as well at the ſuit of the king as of the party grived, and of any other of the king's people which will ſue for the king, and that as well by examination of the parties, as by iſſues tried, and other proceſs; and he that is attainted of any default againſt the ſtatute 1 Hen. 5. c. 10. ſhall pay to him, at whoſe ſuit he is attainted, 100*s.* and his coſts, and to the king another 100*s.*; and as well the mayor of London, at his firſt coming to the exchequer before the treaſurer and barons of the exchequer, as every of the other mayors and bailiffs, in their oaths for their offices, ſhall be ſworn to keep the ſtatutes aboveſaid; and all the mayors and bailiffs of cities and boroughs, accountable in the exchequer, ſhall yearly account of the forfeitures that may appertain to the king by the ſaid ſtatutes, ſaving to lords, cities and boroughs, their liberties.

By 11 Hen. 7. c. 4. To the knights and citizens in this preſent parliament, barons of the five ports, and certain burgeſſes, ſhall be delivered one of every weight and meaſure of braſs according to the ſtandard in the exchequer, and the ſaid knights, &c. ſhall convey the ſame by the citizens to their cities, and by the knights unto ſuch borough or town corporate, or market town within the ſhire, as is ſpecified in a ſchedule unto this bill annexed, there to remain in the keeping of the mayor, bailiff, or other head officer, as the king's ſtandard; and the inhabitants of all cities, boroughs and market towns, ſhall cauſe to be made common meaſures and weights, according to the weights and meaſures aboveſaid, to remain with the ſame cities, &c. the ſame to be examined and marked by the mayor, bailiff, or other head officer, in whoſe poſſeſſion the ſtandard ſhall remain; and every mayor, bailiff, or other head officer, having the ſaid weights and meaſures ſigned with a letter H. crowned, ſhall ſign like weights and meaſures unto every the ſubjects requiring the ſame, taking for marking of every buſhel 1 d.; and no perſon within any city, borough, or market town, ſhall buy or ſell with any weight or meaſure, except it be marked in manner aforeſaid, nor any other perſon out of the ſaid cities, &c. except it be equal with the ſtandard, and every perſon ſhall buy and ſell with a buſhel ſealed; and all mayors and other head officers of every city, borough or market town, ſhall cauſe twice in the year, or oftener, all weights and meaſures to be brought afore them, and ſuch as they ſhall find defective to be broken and burnt, and the parties which have offended ſhall forfeit for the firſt time 6*s.* 8*d.* to the ſaid mayor, and the ſecond time 13*s.* 4*d.* and the third time 20*s.* and be ſet upon the pillory; and two juſtices of peace, whereof one of the quorum, ſhall have authority, as well by examination as by enquiry, to hear and determine the defaults of the mayors and other head officers, and alſo of all buyers and ſellers doing contrary to this act, and to ſet fine and amercement upon the offenders. There ſhall be but eight buſhels ſtriken to the quarter of corn; and 14 lb. to the ſtone of wool, and 26 ſtone to the ſack. The juſtices of peace ſhall make like proceſs againſt all perſons found as aboveſaid defective, as if they were indicted for breaking the peace; and where by other ſtatutes it is ordained that every city, borough and town that hath a conſtable, ſhould have common weights and meaſures ſealed, upon penalty in the ſame limited, thoſe penalties ſhall not extend to any town which is no city, borough or market town. Provided that this act ſhall not extend unto any perſon ſelling or buying by water meaſure within ſhip-board; and the ſaid water meaſure ſhall only contain five pecks after the ſaid ſtandard ſtricken. cept charges on lands or hereditaments for payment of debts, is thereby given or made, ſuch deviſe, &c. ſhall ſo far only as concerns ſuch perſon atteſting ſuch will or codicil, or any perſon claiming under him, be void; and ſuch perſon ſhall be admitted as a witneſs to the execution of ſuch will or codicil, within the intent of 29 Car. 2. c. 3. ſ. 1.

In caſe by any will or codicil already made, or hereafter to be made, any lands or hereditaments be charged with any debts, and any creditor, whoſe debt is ſo charged, hath atteſted, or ſhall atteſt the execution of ſuch will or codicil, every ſuch creditor ſhall be admitted as a witneſs to the execution of ſuch will or codicil. ſ. 2.

If any perſon hath atteſted the execution of any will or codicil already made, or ſhall atteſt the execution of any will or codicil to be made on or before the ſaid 24th of June 1752, to whom any legacy is thereby given, and ſuch perſon, before he give his teſtimony concerning the execution of any ſuch will or codicil, be paid, or have releaſed, or refuſed ſuch legacy upon tender thereof, ſuch perſon ſhall be admitted as a witneſs to the execution of ſuch will or codicil. ſ. 3.

In caſe of ſuch tender and refuſal as aforeſaid, ſuch perſon ſhall not be entitled to ſuch legacy, but ſhall be for ever barred therefrom; and in caſe of ſuch acceptance as aforeſaid, ſuch perſon ſhall retain to his own uſe the legacy ſo paid, notwithſtanding ſuch will or codicil afterwards be adjudged void, for want of due execution, or for any other cauſe. ſ. 4.

In caſe any ſuch legatee, who hath atteſted the execution of any will or codicil already made, or ſhall atteſt the execution of any will or codicil, to be made on or before the 24th of June 1752, ſhall have died in the life of the teſtator, or before he have received or releaſed, or refuſed ſuch legacy on tender, ſuch legatee ſhall be deemed a legal witneſs to the execution of ſuch will or codicil, within the 29 Car. 2. c. 3. ſ. 5.

The credit of every ſuch witneſs ſo atteſting the execution of any will or codicil, and all circumſtances relating thereto, ſhall be ſubject to the conſideration of the court and the jury, before whom ſuch witneſs is examined, or his teſtimony or atteſtation made uſe of; or of the court of equity in which his teſtimony or atteſtation is made uſe of. ſ. 6.

No perſon to whom any beneficial eſtate, intereſt, gift, or appointment, ſhall be given or made, which is hereby enacted to be void, or who ſhall have refuſed any ſuch legacy on tender, and who ſhall have been examined as a witneſs concerning the execution of ſuch will or codicil, ſhall, after being ſo examined, demand or take poſſeſſion of, or receive, any profits from any ſuch eſtate, intereſt, gift, or appointment; or demand or receive any ſuch legacy or any ſatisfaction for the ſame. ſ. 7.

This act ſhall not extend to the caſe of any heir at law, or of any deviſee, in a prior will or codicil of the ſame teſtator, executed and atteſted according to the 29 Car. 2. c. 3. or any perſon claiming under them reſpectively, who has been in quiet poſſeſſion for two years next preceding the 6th of May 1751, as to ſuch lands and hereditaments, whereof he has been in quiet poſſeſſion; and this act ſhall not extend to any will or codicil, the validity or due execution whereof hath been conteſted in any ſuit in law or equity commenced by the heir or the deviſee in any ſuch prior will or codicil, for recovering the lands or hereditaments deviſed in any will or codicil ſo conteſted, or for obtaining any other judgment or decree relative thereto, on or before the ſaid 6th of May 1751, and which has been already determined in favour of ſuch heir at law, or deviſee in ſuch prior will or codicil, or any perſon claiming under them reſpectively, or which is ſtill depending, and has been proſecuted with due diligence. ſ. 8.

No poſſeſſion of any heir at law, or deviſee in ſuch prior will or codicil as aforeſaid, or of any perſon claiming under them reſpectively, which is conſiſtent with, or may be warranted by any will or codicil atteſted according to the meaning of this act, or where the eſtate deſcended or might have deſcended, to ſuch heir at law, till a future or executory deviſe by virtue of any will or codicil atteſted according to this act ſhould take effect, ſhall be deemed a poſſeſſion within the meaning of the clauſe herein laſt before contained. ſ. 9.

This act ſhall extend to ſuch of the Britiſh colonies in America where the ſaid act 29 Car. 2. c. 3. is by act of aſſembly made, or by uſage received as law, or where by act of aſſembly or uſage the atteſtation and ſubſcription of a witneſs or witneſſes are made neceſſary to deviſes of lands or hereditaments; and ſhall have the ſame force in the conſtruction of, or for the avoiding of doubts upon, the ſaid acts of aſſembly, and laws of the ſaid colonies, as the ſame ought to have in the conſtruction of, or for the avoiding doubts upon, the ſaid 29 Car. 2. c. 3. in England. ſ. 10.

As to caſes ariſing in any of the ſaid colonies in America, no ſuch deviſe or legacy as aforeſaid ſhall be made void by this act, unleſs the will or codicil whereby ſuch deviſe or legacy be given be made after the 1ſt of March 1753. ſ. 11. See Emblements, Frauds, Uſes.

Wines.

By 4 Edw. 3. c. 12. A cry ſhall be made, that none ſell wines, but at a reaſonable price; and that aſſay be made of ſuch wines two times every year, at Eaſter and Michaelmas, and more often if need be, by the lords of towns and their bailiffs, and alſo by the mayor and bailiffs; and all the wines that be found corrupt, ſhall be poured out, and the veſſels broken; and the chancellor and treaſurer, juſtices of the one bench and the other, and juſtices of aſſize, ſhall have power to enquire upon the mayors, bailiffs and miniſters of towns, if they do not according to this ſtatute, and to puniſh as reaſon ſhall require.

By 28 Hen. 8. c. 14. The lord chancellor, lord preſident of the council, lord privy ſeal, and the two chief juſtices, or three of them, ſhall have power to ſet the prices of wines, viz. of the butt, tun, pipe, hogſhead, puncheon, tierce, barrel, or rundlet, when it ſhall be ſold in groſs, ſo that they cauſe the prices to be written, and proclamation thereof to be made in the chancery in term time, or elſe in the city or town where any ſuch wines ſhall be ſold in groſs. ſ. 2.

If any perſon, after ſuch prices be ſet, and proclamation thereof had, ſell any wines in groſs, by fraud, contrary to the ſaid prices proclaimed, he ſhall forfeit for every veſſel 40 s. the one half to the king, and the other half, if within a city, borough, or town corporate, to the mayors, ſheriffs, bailiffs, or other head rulers, of ſuch cities, &c. and if without city, &c. to ſuch of the king's ſubjects as will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 3.

The juſtices of peace, and all mayors, ſheriffs, bailiffs, and other head officers in cities, boroughs, and towns corporate, ſhall have power to hear, enquire and determine, the defaults of ſuch as ſhall ſell any wines contrary to this act, and to puniſh the offenders by impriſonment or otherwiſe. ſ. 4.

By

By 7 Edw. 6. c. 5. It ſhall not be lawful to any perſon to keep any tavern, or to ſell or utter by retail, by the gallon, or leſs or greater meaſure, any French wines, except it be in cities, towns corporate, boroughs, port towns or market towns, or in the towns of Graveſend, Sittingborn, Tuxford, or Bagſhot, upon pain that every perſon that ſhall ſo offend ſhall forfeit for every day 10 l. nor ſhall it be lawful to any perſon to keep any tavern, or ſell by retail in any city, borough, or town corporate, any wines, but only ſuch perſons as ſhall be appointed by the head officers, and the common council, aldermen, burgeſſes, jurats, or commonalty of ſuch city, &c. by writing under the common ſeal of ſuch city, &c. and the ſaid appointment ſhall continue at the pleaſure of the head officer, and the common council, aldermen, burgeſſes, jurats, or commonalty; nor ſhall it be lawful to any perſon to keep any tavern, or to ſell wine by retail, in any city, borough, port town or market town, not corporate, or in Graveſend, Sittingborn, or Bagſhot, but only ſuch as ſhall be aſſigned by the juſtices of peace of ſuch county at the general ſeſſion, by writing under ſeal of the juſtices, and to be continued or changed by like authority; upon pain that every perſon that ſhall retail wine, being not licenſed as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for every day 5 l. Nor ſhall any perſons, having authority to appoint what perſons ſhall ſell wine by retail, appoint more taverns at one time in any one city, &c. (every town hereafter named except) than two wine cellars or taverns; and it ſhall not be lawful to any perſon, having authority to appoint taverns, to appoint in London above 40 taverns, and in York eight, in Norwich four, in Weſtminſter and in Briſtol ſix, in Lincoln three, in Kingſton upon Hull four, in Shrewſbury three, in Exeter four, in Saliſbury three, in Glouceſter four, in Weſtcheſter four, in Hereford Eaſt three, in Worceſter three, in Southampton three, in Canterbury four, in Ipſwich three, in Wincheſter three, in Oxford three, in Cambridge four, in Colcheſter three, in Newcaſtle upon Tyne four, upon pain to forfeit for every appointment contrary to this act 5 l. ſ. 3.

No perſon ſhall ſell by retail any wines to be drank in his houſe, or other place in his occupation, upon pain to forfeit 10 l. the one half to the king, and the other half to him that will ſue for the ſame, in any of the king's courts of record. ſ. 4.

Provided that it ſhall be lawful to merchants adventuring for the ſame, to keep to ſpend in their houſes ſuch wines as they ſhall tranſport into this realm, not taking any money for the ſame; and that it ſhall be lawful to every high ſheriff and mayor, and to every other perſon dwelling in the king's forts or towns fortified, to have wine to ſpend in their houſes, without taking recompence for the ſame. ſ. 5.

The juſtices of peace in their ſeſſions, and the ſteward in every leet, and the ſheriff in his turn, and every eſcheator ſhall have power to enquire by the oaths of twelve men, of offences contrary to this act; and every preſentment taken as aforeſaid ſhall be of ſuch effect, as if the ſame were taken before the king in his bench; and the penalties for any offence contrary to this act, as ſhall be found by preſentment before the juſtices of peace, eſcheators, ſheriff or ſteward, or by verdict as aforeſaid, and by action or information thereof commenced, ſhall be divided into two parts, whereof the one ſhall be to the king, and the other to the poor of the place. ſ. 6.

This act ſhall not charge any perſon, unleſs he be ſued, indicted or preſented for the ſame, within one year after the offence. ſ. 7.

This act ſhall not be hurtful to any of the inhabitants of Oxford and Cambridge, or to the chancellors or ſcholars of the ſame, ſo that there be not any more taverns within Oxford or Cambridge, than may be lawfully kept by this ſtatute. ſ. 8.

By 5 Eliz. c. 5. All perſons authorized to ſell wines by retail in the ſeveral places where they are authorized, may ſell the wines at ſuch prices as ſhall be limited by the queen's proclamation in that place, made by aſſent of ſuch lords, as by 28 Hen. 8. c. 14. were authorized to ſet price upon wines. ſ. 25.

By 12 Car. 2. c. 25. No perſon ſelling wine ſhall mingle or utter any Spaniſh wine mingled with French wine, or Rheniſh wine, cyder, perry, honey, ſugar, ſyrups or molaſſes, nor put in any iſinglaſs, brimſtone, lime, raiſins, juice of raiſins, water, nor any other ingredients, nor any clary or other herb, nor any fleſh; and no perſon ſelling wine, ſhall mingle or utter any French wines mingled with any Rheniſh wines or Spaniſh wines, cyder, ſtummed wine, vitriol, water, or other ingredients, nor any clary or other herb, nor any fleſh; and no perſon ſelling wine ſhall mingle or utter any Rheniſh wine mingled with any French wines or Spaniſh wines, cyder, or other ingredients, &c. and every perſon committing any of the offences aforeſaid, ſhall incur the penalties herein mentioned, viz. every perſon ſelling wines in groſs, mingled as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit 100 l. and every perſon ſelling wine by retail, mingled as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit 40 l. one moiety to the king, the other to the informer, to be recovered in any court of record. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for the lord chancellor, lord treaſurer, lord preſident, lord privy ſeal, and the two chief juſtices, or three of them, yearly between the 20th of November and the laſt of December, and no other times, to ſet the prices of the ſaid wines, to be ſold by retail, ſo that they cauſe the prices to be written, and proclamation thereof to be made in chancery yearly in term time, or elſe in the city, borough or town corporate, where ſuch wine ſhall be ſold; and all wine ſhall be ſold at ſuch prices for one year, to commence from the 1ſt of February next after the ſetting thereof, and in default of ſuch ſetting of prices, at the rates ſet by this act, under the penalties aforeſaid. ſ. 13. Viz. 5 l. one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to him that will ſue. ſ. 12. Confirmed by 13 Car. 2. c. 7.

By 5 Ann. c. 27. Any cylinder having an even bottom, and being ſeven inches diameter throughout, and ſix inches deep, or any veſſel containing 231 cubical inches, ſhall be a lawful wine gallon; and 252 gallons ſhall be a ton of wine, 126 gallons a butt or pipe, and 63 gallons an hogſhead of wine. ſ. 17.

By 10 Geo. 2. c. 19. Nothing in 9 Geo. 2. c. 23. [See PART I. page 235] ſhall prejudice the right, which the chancellor, maſters, and ſcholars of the univerſity of Cambridge, or of the univerſity of Oxford, claim of licenſing taverns and other public houſes within the precincts of the univerſities. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not prejudice or confirm any liberties belonging to the mayor, bailiffs, and commonalty of the city of Oxford. ſ. 5.

By 17 Geo. 2. c. 40. No perſon ſhall ſell wine by retail, within either of the univerſities of Oxford or Cambridge, or the precincts of either of them, unleſs ſuch perſon be duly licenſed by the chancellor or vice chancellor of the univerſity of Oxford, and by the chancellor, maſters and ſcholars of the univerſity of Cambridge; upon pain of forfeiting for every offence 5 l. one moiety to the uſe of his majeſty, and the other moiety to the informer: and all perſons offending againſt this act, may be proſecuted for the ſaid forfeitures, in the courts of the chancellors, or vice chancellors of the ſaid univerſities in a ſummary way, by ſummoning the party accuſed to appear in the ſaid courts reſpectively; and on appearance (or contempt by not appearing, being duly ſummoned, and oath thereof made) ſuch courts may examine the matter, and upon confeſſion of the party accuſed, or on the oath of one witneſs, ſuch courts may give ſentence againſt ſuch party, and iſſue their warrant for levying the forfeitures by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and for want of ſuch diſtreſs, may commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction for one month; and no writ of certiorari, or other proceſs, ſhall iſſue to remove any ſuch ſentence from the ſaid courts, or any order or other proceedings made upon any ſuch ſentence, into any court of record at Weſtminſter, until the party againſt whom ſuch ſentence is given, before the allowance of ſuch certiorari, or other proceſs, find two ſureties, to be bound to the proſecutor in the ſum of 50*l.* with condition to proſecute the ſame within twelve months, and to pay unto the proſecutor his coſts, in caſe ſuch ſentence be affirmed. ſ. 11.

This act ſhall not prejudice or confirm any of the privileges belonging to the mayor, bailiffs and commonalty of the city of Oxford. ſ. 12.

Witchcraft.

By 9 Geo. 2. c. 5. No proſecution ſhall be againſt any perſon for witchcraft, ſorcery, enchantment or conjuration, or for charging another with ſuch offence. ſ. 3.

If any perſon ſhall pretend to uſe witchcraft, &c. or undertake to tell fortunes, or from ſkill in any occult or crafty ſcience to diſcover where goods ſtolen or loſt may be found; every perſon ſo offending, and convicted on indictment or information in England, or on indictment or libel in Scotland, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment for one year, and once in every quarter of the ſaid year, in ſome market-town, upon the market day, ſtand on the pillory one hour, and ſhall, if the court think fit, be obliged to give ſureties for good behaviour. ſ. 4.

Witneſſes.

By 27 Geo. 3. c. 29. 'Whereas by divers acts of parliament pecuniary penalties inflicted for certain offences, 'or parts of ſuch penalties, are directed to be applied for 'or to the uſe of the poor of the pariſhes, townſhips, or 'places, within which ſuch offences were committed: And 'whereas, in divers of ſuch caſes, the pariſhioners or inhabitants of ſuch pariſhes, townſhips, or places, are not 'admiſſible witneſſes to prove the perpetration of ſuch offences within ſuch pariſhes, townſhips, or places, by reaſon whereof it has been found difficult to bring offenders 'to juſtice;' be it enacted by the king's moſt excellent majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the lords ſpiritual and temporal, and commons, in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That, from and after the 1ſt day of Auguſt 1787, the inhabitants of every pariſh, townſhip, or place, ſhall be deemed and taken to be competent witneſſes for the purpoſe of proving the commiſſion of any offence within the limits of ſuch pariſh, townſhip, or place, notwithſtanding the penalty incurred by ſuch offence, or any part thereof, is or may be given or applicable to the poor of ſuch pariſh, townſhip, or place, or otherwiſe, for the benefit or uſe, or in aid or exoneration of ſuch pariſh, townſhip, or place. ſ. 1.

Provided always, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this act contained ſhall extend to any action or proceeding in which the penalty or penalties to be recovered ſhall exceed the ſum of 20*l.* ſ. 2.

Women.

By 31 Hen. 6. c. 9. Whereas people of power have found inventions to the danger of all ladies, gentlewomen, and other women ſole, having ſubſtance of lands or goods, to take them by force, or otherwiſe come to them ſeeming to be their friends, promiſing them faithful love, and ſo by diſſimulation or otherwiſe get them in their poſſeſſion, conveying them into places where the offenders be of moſt power, and when any woman is in their governance, the ſaid perſons will not ſuffer them to be at their liberty, till they bind them to the ſaid offenders, or other perſons to their uſe, in great ſums by obligations or ſtatutes merchant; alſo they many times compel them to be married contrary to their deſires, or otherwiſe they will levy the ſame ſums of their lands and goods, and put their perſons in danger. In all ſuch caſes the party bound may have a writ out of chancery, containing the matter of their unreaſonable treatment, directed to the ſheriff where ſuch offences were done, commanding him that he make proclamation in the next county court, that the perſons contained in the writ appear at a certain day and place before the chancellor, or before the juſtices of aſſize, or other perſon to be aſſigned by the chancellor; at the which day, if the parties appear, the chancellor, juſtice, or other perſon aſſigned, ſhall examine the parties; by which examination, if they find the obligations to be made as aforeſaid, the obligations and all proceſs thereupon ſhall be void; and if it be found that the obligations were made for a true duty, and by no ſuch means as aforeſaid, the obligations ſhall ſtand good; and if the perſons in ſuch writs named make default at the day, ſuch obligations in the writs expreſſed, and all proceſs thereupon, ſhall be void; and the ſheriffs ſhall execute the writs, upon pain of 300*l.* whereof the king to have one half, and the other half to the party which ſhall ſue the writ of proclamation, and the party grieved may have an action of debt for the half of the 300*l.* ſo forfeited, with proceſs of outlawry; and the defendants ſhall alledge no protection, or plead any foreign plea.

By 4 & 5 Phil. & Mar. c. 8. It ſhall not be lawful to take or convey away any maid or woman child unmarried, being within the age of 16 years, from the cuſtody, and againſt the will of the father, or of ſuch perſons to whom the father by his laſt will, or by any other act, ſhall appoint the keeping or education of ſuch maid or woman child, except taken by the maſter or miſtreſs, or guardian in ſocage, of ſuch child. ſ. 2.

If any perſon above the age of 14 years ſhall unlawfully take or convey any maid or woman child unmarried, being within the age of 16 years, from the poſſeſſion and againſt the will of the father or mother, or from the poſſeſſion and againſt the will of ſuch perſons as ſhall have by any lawful means the education or governance of ſuch child, every perſon ſo offending, being convicted, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment two years, or pay ſuch fine as ſhall be aſſeſſed by the council of the queen in the ſtar chamber. ſ. 3.

If any perſon ſhall ſo take away and deflower any ſuch maid or woman child, or ſhall againſt the will, unknowing of or to the father of ſuch maid, &c. if the father be in life, or againſt the will, &c. of the mother (having the cuſtody of ſuch child, if the father be dead) by ſecret letters, meſſages or otherwiſe, contract matrimony with ſuch maiden or woman child, every perſon ſo offending, being convicted, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment five years, or pay ſuch fine as ſhall be aſſeſſed in the ſtar chamber, the one moiety of which fines ſhall be to the king, the other moiety to the parties grieved. ſ. 4.

The council of the ſtar chamber, and juſtices of aſſize, by inquiſition or indictment, ſhall hear and determine the ſaid offences. ſ. 5.

If any woman child or maiden, being above the age of 12 years, and under the age of 16, conſent to ſuch perſon that ſo ſhall make any contract of matrimony, the next of kin of the ſame woman child or maid, to whom the inheritance ſhould deſcend or come after the deceaſe of the ſame woman child, ſhall have all ſuch lands as the ſame woman child had in poſſeſſion, reverſion or remainder, at the time of ſuch conſent, during the life of ſuch perſon that ſhall ſo contract matrimony; and after the deceaſe of ſuch perſon contracting matrimony, the ſaid lands ſhall deſcend and come to ſuch perſons as they ſhould have done in caſe this act had never been, other than to him that ſo ſhall contract matrimony. ſ. 6.

This act ſhall not diminiſh any cuſtom or authority touching orphans within the city of London, or any other city, borough or town. ſ. 7.

Woods.

By 35 Hen. 8. c. 17. In all coppice-woods or underwoods, which ſhall be felled at 14 years growing or under, there ſhall be left ſtanding for every acre twelve ſtandils or ſtorers of oaks; if there be not ſo many of oak, there ſhall be left ſo many of other kind, viz. of elm, aſh, aſpe, or beech, as ſhall make up the number, likely to be timber trees, the ſame ſtandils to be of ſuch ſtandils or ſtores as have been left there at any felling of the ſame underwoods in times paſt; and the ſtores ſo left ſhall be preſerved till they be ten inches ſquare within three foot of the ground, upon pain that every owner, having an eſtate in the ground, cauſing any ſuch underwoods to be felled, and not leaving the ſaid ſtores, to forfeit for every ſtandil ſo not left 3 s. 4 d. the one half to the king, and the other half to the party that will ſue, &c. ſ. 1.

All underwoods which ſhall be cut down at the age of 14 years, from the 20th April next after the felling thereof during four years, ſhall be incloſed, or the ſprings thereof otherwiſe preſerved from cattle, by them which ſhall have poſſeſſion in the woods, upon pain to forfeit for every rood 3 s. 4 d. for every month; and all underwoods which ſhall be ſo felled, being above 14 years growth, and not above 24 years, from the 20th of April next after the felling during ſix years, ſhall be incloſed, or the ſprings thereof otherwiſe preſerved from cattle, at the coſts of ſuch which ſhall have intereſt in the woods, upon pain to forfeit for every rood 3 s. 4 d. for every month. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall convert into paſture or tillage any ſuch underwoods, containing two acres or above, which now be wood, and reſerved to the uſe of increaſe of wood or underwood, and being two furlongs diſtant from the houſe of the owner, or from the houſe whereunto the ſaid wood doth lie, upon pain to forfeit for every acre 40 s. ſ. 3.

All perſons which ſhall have any ſeveral woods growing with great trees above 24 years growth, ſhall at the felling or weeding thereof leave ſtanding for every acre 12 trees of oak of the ſame great trees, if there be ſo many there, and for lack of oaks, as many other trees of elm, aſh, beech or aſpe, as ſhall make the full number, the ſame to be preſerved during 20 years next after the felling; and alſo from the 20th day of April next after the felling thereof during 7 years ſufficiently incloſe them, or the ſprings thereof otherwiſe preſerve from cattle, upon pain to forfeit for every ſuch great tree lacking 6 s. 8 d. and upon pain to forfeit for every rood not incloſed or preſerved for every month 3 s. 4 d. ſ. 5.

Provided that it ſhall be lawful to every owner of the ſaid woods, &c. to fell the ſame for building, repairing and incloſing of houſes, orchards and gardens, and for incloſing of parks, chaſes or other grounds, and for making or repairing of waterworks, bridges, floodgates, making or amending of ſhips and other veſſels, and for all other things concerning their own affairs, as they might have done before this act. ſ. 6.

It ſhall not be lawful to any perſon which ſhall have any woods or underwoods, wherein any other perſons have uſed time out of remembrance to have common of paſture, to fell the ſaid woods (except it be to his own uſe) until the fourth part of ſuch woods, or as much as the fourth part ſhall amount unto, be ſet out and incloſed, viz. the owner of the ſoil ſhall call together the commoners, or the more part of them, and by the aſſent of the more part of them ſhall ſet out the fourth part; and if the lord and tenants do not agree, then two juſtices of peace, not being of the alliance, council or fee, of the owner, being thereunto appointed by the juſtices in their quarter ſeſſions, upon requeſt made by the owner, ſhall have power to call before them, upon ſuch penalties as the juſtices ſhall appoint, 12 of the commoners and inhabitants; and upon the appearance of the owners, &c. or the more part of them, the juſtices ſhall declare the cauſe of their appearance, and ſhall by their aſſent proceed to the ſevering of the ſaid fourth part; and if the juſtices, owners, commoners and inhabitants, cannot agree, the juſtices ſhall have power to ſet out by mete and bound the fourth part, or ſo much under the fourth part of the ſaid woods as ſhall by the juſtices be thought neceſſary; and within the month after ſuch ſeverance the owner of the woods ſhall incloſe the ſame, and after ſuch incloſure, the ſaid owner may fell the woods. ſ. 7.

Provided that there ſhall be left ſtanding upon the part ſo ſevered like number of ſtandils or ſtorers of young oaks, or other young trees of elm, aſh, aſpe or beech, if it be underwoods; and if the woods ſhall be great trees, then ſuch number ſhall be left ſtanding of great trees, and upon like penalties as before limited; and the part ſo ſevered ſhall be incloſed 7 years, in like manner and upon the like penalties as before limited; and the ſtandils, ſtorers and great trees, appointed to be left ſtanding, ſhall be preſerved; and no beaſts, during ſeven years after the felling of the woods, ſhall willingly be put in or ſuffered to feed in any parcel of ſuch part ſo ſet forth, upon pain of 4 d. for every beaſt. ſ. 8.

If any owner of ſuch woods in any waſte ground cut down any trees contrary to the form aforeſaid, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit for every tree 6 s. 8 d. one half of all the ſaid forfeitures to be to the king, and the other moiety to ſuch perſon that will ſue, &c. ſ. 9.

The commoners may uſe their common for their cattle within the reſidue of the woods not incloſed, as if this act had never been: and the owner of the ſoil ſhall be excluded to put any cattle in the ſame reſidue, or to take any profit of the paſture upon the ſame, during the ſeven years; and after the ſeven years expired until the next cutting down of the woods upon the part ſevered, as well the ſame part as the reſidue ſhall be uſed in common, as well by the lord as by the commoners. ſ. 10.

Provided that it ſhall be lawful to fell and incloſe all woods and underwoods in waſte grounds which have been uſed to be incloſed for the maintenance of wood. ſ. 11.

If the part of wood ſo incloſed be not felled within four months after the incloſing, it ſhall be lawful to the commoners to put their cattle into the ground ſo incloſed as long as the wood ſhall be unfelled. ſ. 12.

This act ſhall not extend to any owner of woods within the weilds of Kent, Surrey, and Suſſex, other than to the common woods within the ſaid weilds. ſ. 13.

This act ſhall not charge any perſon with any penalty for any timber trees growing within two miles of the ſea in Cornwall, or any other timber tree being ſear and dead in the tops, or any other timber trees to be taken by the king's commiſſion, or for any offence unleſs the perſon offending be ſued within one year after the offence committed. ſ. 15.

If any perſon break or deſtroy any fences made for the ſaving of the ſame woods, he ſhall forfeit 10*s.* ſ. 16.

If any perſon ſuffer his ſwine of the age of 10 weeks, during ſuch years as the woods be appointed to be incloſed, to go in any ground or woods, unleſs the ſwine be ringed or pegged, the owners of ſuch ſwine ſhall forfeit for every ſwine, 4*d.* the one half, if it be in the king's woods, to be to his highneſs, and the other to the finder; and if it be within any other perſons grounds, the one half to be to the owners of the ſoil, and the other part to him that will ſue, &c. ſ. 17.

Where any woods ſhall be felled in any park, or ground incloſed wherein deer ſhall be kept, the owners of ſuch parks, &c. ſhall be chargeable for the incloſure and preſervation of the ſame but for four years after ſuch felling. ſ. 18.

If the incloſures of any of the ſaid woods be broken down, againſt the will of the owner, whereby cattle eſcape and hurt the ſpring, or if the woods be by any means deſtroyed or hindered, without the aſſent of ſuch owners, the penalties ſhall be extended upon the perſons by whoſe default the wood ſhall be ſo deſtroyed, &c. and not upon the owner. ſ. 19.

It ſhall be lawful to every owner of the ſaid woods, underwoods, grounds, and coppice, after the ſame have been fenced, or the ſpring otherwiſe preſerved, two years, to put colts and calves, under the age of one year, into the grounds. ſ. 20.—Revived and made perpetual by 13 Eliz. c. 25. ſ. 3.

By 1 Eliz. c. 15. No perſon ſhall convert to fuel for the making of iron, any timber trees of oak, beech, or aſh, or any part thereof, of the breadth of one foot ſquare at the ſtub, and growing within 14 miles of the ſea, or of the rivers of Thames, Severn, Wye, Humber, Dee, Tine, Teeſe, Trent, or any other river, by the which carriage is uſed by boat to the ſea, upon pain of forfeiture for every tree or part thereof ſo employed, 40*s.*, one half to the queen, and the other moiety to him that will ſue. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not extend to the county of Suſſex, nor to the weild of Kent, nor to the pariſhes of Charewood, Newdigate, and Leigh, in the weild of Surry. ſ. 2.

By 13 Eliz. c. 25. All woods or coppices, intended by 33 Hen. 8. c. 17. to be incloſed, ſhall be ſufficiently incloſed, or the ſprings thereof otherwiſe ſaved, two full years more than the ſaid act is limited, upon like pains as are contained in the ſaid act; and it ſhall not be lawful to put any cattle into any coppice woods incloſed, from the time of the ſale until the end of five years, nor from the end of five years any other cattle but calves and yearling colts, until the end of ſix years, if the wood was under the age of fourteen years at the laſt fall; or until eight years, if the wood was above the age of 14 at the laſt fall. ſ. 18.

By 23 Eliz. c. 5. No perſon ſhall convert to fuel, for the making of iron in any iron mills, furnace, or hammer, any wood or underwood, which ſhall grow within 22 miles from London, or within 22 miles of the Thames, from Dorcheſter, in the county of Oxford, downwards; or within four miles of the foot of the hills called the Downs betwixt Arundel and Pemſey in Suſſex, nor within four miles of Winchelſey and Rye, nor within two miles of the town of Pemſey, nor within three miles of Haſtings; upon pain to forfeit for every load 40*s.*, one half to the queen, and the other moiety to him that will ſue. ſ. 1.

This act act ſhall not extend to any woods in any ſuch part of the weilds of Surrey, Suſſex, or Kent, as is diſtant above 18 miles from London, and eight miles from the Thames. ſ. 2.

No new iron works ſhall be erected within 22 miles of London, nor within 14 miles of the Thames, nor within four miles of the Downs, or of the towns of Pemſey, Winchelſey, Haſtings, or Rye, upon pain of 100*l.* to be recovered as aforeſaid. ſ. 3.

This act ſhall not extend to any woods upon any lands of Chriſtopher Darrel, in the pariſh of Newdigate, within the weild of Surrey, which have been coppiced for the uſe of his iron works. ſ. 4.

By 27 Eliz. c. 19. No perſon ſhall ſet up within the counties of Suſſex, Surrey or Kent, any iron mills, furnace, finery or blomary, for the making or working of iron, other than upon ſuch former bays or pens whereupon hath been, or ſhall be ſtanding, ſome iron mills, furnace, or hammer, or elſe upon ſuch lands as the party ſhall furniſh the ſame with ſufficient ſupply of his own woods, being to him in fee, or for life without impeachment of waſte; nor ſhall convert to fuel for the making or working of iron in any iron mills, &c. the bodies of any ſound timber trees, apt for the making of cleftwares, or ſawing timber of oak, aſh, or elm, of the bigneſs of one foot ſquare at the ſtub, or any part of the ſame; upon pain of forfeiture for every iron mill, &c. 300*l.* and for every body of ſuch timber tree, 40*s.* one half of which forfeitures to be to the queen, and the other half to him that will ſue. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for the owners of ſuch trees, the bodies whereof ſhall be employed for timber or cleft ware within the weilds of Suſſex, Surrey, or Kent, the ſame not being within 18 miles of London, or eight miles of the Thames, or four miles of the towns of Rye and Winchelſey, or three miles of Haſtings, or four miles of the foot of the Downes between Arundell and Pemſey in Suſſex, to employ the tops and offals for fuel for iron works. ſ. 2.

By 15 Car. 2. c. 2. ſ. 2. Every conſtable or other perſon ſhall have power to apprehend all perſons they ſhall ſuſpect having or carrying any burden of wood, bark, or baſt, of any trees, or any gates, ſtiles, poſts, pales, rails, or hedge wood, broom, or furze; and, by warrant of one juſtice of peace, any officer ſhall have power to ſearch the houſes or other places of all perſons they ſhall ſuſpect to have any wood, poles, young trees, or bark, or baſt of trees, or any gates, &c. and where they ſhall find any ſuch, to apprehend all perſons ſuſpected for taking the ſame, and them them to carry before a juſtice of peace; and if they do not give a good account how they came by ſuch wood, &c. or ſhall not within ſome convenient time to be ſet by the juſtice, produce the party of whom they bought the ſame, or ſome witneſs to depoſe ſuch ſale of the wood, &c. they ſhall be convicted of the offence of cutting and ſpoiling of the ſame woods, &c. within the ſtatute 43 Eliz. c. 7. which ſee in TRESPASS.

Every perſon convicted ſhall, for the firſt offence, give the owner ſuch damages as the juſtice ſhall appoint, and pay down to the overſeers of the poor, ſuch ſum not exceeding 10*s.* as the juſtices ſhall think meet: and if ſuch offender do not make ſatisfaction to the owner, and pay to the poor, in manner aforeſaid, the juſtice ſhall commit him to the houſe of correction for not exceeding one month, or to be whipped by the conſtable. And if ſuch perſon ſhall again commit the ſaid offence, and be convicted, he ſhall be ſent to the houſe of correction for one month, and kept to hard labour. And if ſuch perſon ſhall again commit the ſaid offence, and be convicted, the third time he ſhall be deemed an incorrigible rogue. ſ. 3.

Whoſoever ſhall buy any burdens of wood, poles or ſticks, which may be juſtly ſuſpected to have been unlawfully come by, it ſhall be lawful for one juſtice, upon complaint, to examine the matter upon oath; and if they find that the ſame was bought of a perſon who might juſtly be ſuſpected to have unlawfully come by the ſame, and that the ſame was unlawfully come by, the juſtice ſhall award the party to pay treble the value to the party from whom the ſame was unlawfully taken, and in default of preſent payment, to iſſue warrants to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, and in default of diſtreſs to commit the party to gaol, there to remain one month. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall be queſtioned for any offence upon this law, that hath been puniſhed for the ſame by any former law; nor unleſs he be queſtioned within ſix weeks after the offence. ſ. 5.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 48. If any perſon ſhall maliciouſly break down, cut up, bark, deſtroy or ſpoil any timber tree, fruit tree, or other tree, the perſon damaged ſhall receive ſuch ſatisfaction from the inhabitants of the pariſh, town, hamlet, vill, or place, to be viewed, and coſts, to be recovered, in the ſame manner as hedges overthrown in the night, by 13 Edw. 1. c. 46. (ſee APPROVEMENT;) and where ſuch offence ſhall be committed in Scotland, to be recovered by way of ſummar action, as damages in other caſes of riot; unleſs the party offending ſhall by ſuch pariſh, &c. be convicted of ſuch offence within ſix months. ſ. 1.

Any two juſtices of the county, &c. or the juſtices in ſeſſions, on complaint by any inhabitant of ſuch pariſh, &c. or of the owner of the trees, or of any other, may cauſe ſuch offender to be apprehended, and hear and determine the offences aforeſaid; and on conviction of ſuch offender ſhall commit him to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour for three months; and where there are no houſes of correction, the juſtices ſhall commit him to priſon for four months; and ſhall alſo order that ſuch offender be publicly whipped by the maſter of ſuch houſe of correction once every month during ſuch three months, in ſuch borough or corporation, if the offence be committed therein; or in the market town where ſuch houſe of correction ſtands, or in the next market town in the county, on the market day, between the hours of eleven and two; and where there is no houſe of correction, the juſtices ſhall order ſuch offender to be whipped by the hangman, once every month, during ſuch four months, on the market day where ſuch offender ſhall be committed, or on the market day of ſome town, between the hours aforeſaid. ſ. 2.

Before ſuch offender be diſcharged, he ſhall find ſureties for his good behaviour for two years. ſ. 3.

If any perſon ſhall maliciouſly ſet on fire, burn, or cauſe to be burnt, any wood, underwood, or coppice, ſuch malicious ſetting on fire is made felony; and where ſuch offences are committed in Scotland, the offender ſhall ſuffer as wilful fire-raiſers, according to 7 Ann. cap. 21.—ſ. 4.

By 6 Geo. 1. c. 16. If any perſon either by day or by night, cut, deſtroy, bark, deface, ſpoil, or carry away, any wood-ſprings, trees, poles, woods, tops of trees, under-woods or coppice-woods, thorns, or quickſets, without conſent of the owner; or ſhall break open, throw down, or deſtroy, any hedges, gates, poſts, ſtiles, fences, ditches, or other incloſures of ſuch woods, wood-grounds, parks, chaces, or coppices, plantation, or trees, thorns, or quickſets; the lords of manors, or owners who ſhall be damaged thereby, ſhall have ſuch remedy from the inhabitants of the pariſhes, towns, hamlets, villages, or places, joining to ſuch wood-ſprings, &c. as for hedges overthrown in the night, by 13 Edw. 1. c. 46. (which ſee in APPROVEMENT,) unleſs the offender ſhall, by ſuch pariſh, &c. be convicted of ſuch offence within ſix months. ſ. 1.

If any perſon in a riotous, open, tumultuous, or in a ſecret and clandeſtine manner, wrongfully and maliciouſly cut down, deſtroy, burn, carry away, &c. any wood, or ſprings of woods, &c. or in ſuch riotous, &c. manner, maliciouſly break open, throw down, or deſtroy, any hedges, gates, poſts, or other incloſures of ſuch woods, &c. any two juſtices of peace, or the juſtices in ſeſſions, upon complaint made by any inhabitant or other, may cauſe the offender to be apprehended, and hear and determine ſuch offences; and if ſuch juſtices convict any perſon of the treſpaſſes aforeſaid, they ſhall inflict the penalties in 13 Edw. 1. c. 46. ſ. 2.

If any action be proſecuted for any thing done in purſuance of this act, or 1 Geo. 1. c. 48. the defendant may plead the general iſſue, &c. and recover treble coſts. ſ. 3.

By 29 Geo. 2. c. 36. It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, and all other owners of waſtes, woods, and paſtures, in England, wherein any perſons or bodies politic, have right of common of paſture, with the aſſent of the major part in number and value of the owners and occupiers of tenements to which the ſaid right of common of paſture belongs; and for the major part in number and value of the owners and occupiers of ſuch tenements, with the aſſent of the owners of the ſaid waſtes, &c. and for any other perſons, or bodies politic, with the aſſent and grant of the owners of ſuch waſtes, &c. and the major part in number and value of the owners and occupiers of ſuch tenements; to incloſe, for the growth of timber or underwood, any part of ſuch waſtes, woods and paſtures, for ſuch time, and upon ſuch conditions, as ſhall be agreed. ſ. 1.

In caſe any recompence be agreed to be given for ſuch incloſure, to the owners and occupiers of tenements, to which the right of common belongs, ſuch recompence ſhall be made either by a grant of a ſhare of the profit of the timber or under-wood growing on the ground ſo incloſed, or by a grant of other lands or hereditaments, or by ſome annuity or rent-charge iſſuing out of the ground ſo incloſed, or other lands, or ſhall be paid in money, to be placed out at intereſt on public ſecurities, or laid out in the purchaſe of lands or hereditaments, or of ſome annuity or rent-charge iſſuing out of lands, and the produce of ſuch lands or ſuch rent charge, or the intereſt of ſuch money, until the ſame be laid out in ſuch purchaſe, ſhall be paid to the overſeers of the poor of the pariſh or townſhip, and ſhall be by them applied towards the relief of the poor, where ſuch waſtes, &c. lie, and accounted for as the rates for relief of the poor. And in caſe the owners of any ſuch waſtes, &c. and the major part in number and value of the owners and occupiers of the tenements to which ſuch right of common belongs, jointly agree to aſſign their reſpective right in the ſaid waſtes, &c. for the purpoſe of making ſuch incloſures, to any other perſon or body politic; and the owners of ſuch waſtes, &c. have not an eſtate in fee ſimple therein, or be diſabled or reſtrained from alienating the ſame, the recompence to be paid to any ſuch owners ſhall be either by a grant of a ſhare of the profit of the timber or underwood growing on the ground ſo incloſed, or by a grant of other lands or hereditaments, or of a rent charge iſſuing out of the ground ſo incloſed, or other lands; ſuch equivalent to be held by the owners of ſuch waſtes, &c. and ſuch as be intitled to the ſame, in reverſion, remainder, or ſucceſſion, in like manner as the eſtate in ſuch waſtes &c. is limited. And in caſe the inhabitants of any pariſh or townſhip be willing to acquire ſuch right of incloſure, for the employment of the poor, and any recompence be agreed to be given for the ſame, it ſhall be lawful for the overſeers of the poor of ſuch pariſh, (by the direction of the major part of the inhabitants aſſembled at a veſtry or public meeting, public notice being firſt given in the church on three Sundays before ſuch veſtry be held) to pay or purchaſe ſuch recompence out of any monies ariſing from the rates for the relief of the poor; and out of ſuch monies to pay ſuch charges as be neceſſary for incloſing and preſerving ſuch grounds; and ſuch overſeers ſhall apply the profit of the timber or underwood growing thereon, towards the relief of the poor, and ſhall account for the ſame as for the rates for the relief of the poor. ſ. 2.

Every agreement for any ſuch incloſure ſhall be in writing, and ſigned by the parties, and ſhall be regiſtered and enrolled by the clerk of the peace for the county or diviſion where ſuch waſtes, &c. or the greater part of them lie, within three months after the execution of ſuch agreement. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for all perſons or bodies politic, who think themſelves aggrieved by ſuch agreement, or for any perſon in their behalf, within ſix months after ſuch agreement is regiſtered and enrolled, to make complaint by appeal to the juſtices of the peace at the quarter ſeſſions for the ſame county or diviſion, who are to determine ſuch appeal, and whoſe determination therein ſhall be final; and if no ſuch appeal be made, the agreement ſo regiſtered and inrolled ſhall be for ever binding to all perſons. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for all bodies politic, whether aggregate or ſole, and all feoffees in truſt, executors, adminiſtrators, guardians, committees, and other truſtees, for and on the behalf of any infants, femes covert, lunatics, idiots, or other perſons, and the huſbands of femes covert, ſeiſed or intereſted in any ſuch waſte, &c. or any right of common in ſuch waſtes, &c. to agree to any ſuch incloſure; and all agreements ſo made ſhall be valid. ſ. 5.

If any perſon after the time limited for bringing ſuch appeal againſt any ſuch agreement, by day or by night unlawfully cut, take, deſtroy, break, throw down, bark, pluck up, burn, deface, ſpoil, or carry away, any trees growing within any ſuch incloſure, without the conſent of the owners, ſuch owners ſhall have ſuch remedy and ſatisfaction from the inhabitants of the pariſhes or places adjoining to ſuch incloſures, and recover ſuch damages, and in the ſame manner as is directed for dykes and hedges overthrown by the 13 Edw. 1. c. 46. unleſs the offender be convicted of ſuch offence within ſix months after the commiſſion of thereof. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for any two juſtices of the peace of the county or place wherein any ſuch offence is committed, or for the juſtices of peace for ſuch county or place in ſeſſions, upon complaint, to cauſe every ſuch offender to be apprehended, and to hear and determine the ſame treſpaſs, and to inflict the like penalty on every offender by them convicted, as is directed by 6 Geo. 1. c. 16. ſ. 7.

If any perſon unlawfully cut, take, deſtroy, break, throw down, bark, pluck up, burn, deface, ſpoil, or carry away, any tree growing in any waſte, wood, or paſture, in which any perſon or body politic hath right of common, every ſuch offender ſhall be in like manner convicted of ſuch offence, and incur the like penalty. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon or body politic to take remedy for the before-mentioned damages, either againſt the pariſh or place where any of the ſaid offences be committed, according to 1 Geo. 1. c. 48. or 6 Geo. 1. c. 16. or on the hundred wherein any of the ſaid offences be committed, as to ſuch perſon or body politic ſeems moſt meet, according to 9 Geo. 1. c. 22. ſ. 7.—(See page 364. in PART I.) ſ. 9.

If any action be brought for any thing done by virtue of this act, the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff diſcontinue, &c. the deſendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 10.

By 31 Geo. 2. c. 41. Every recompence to be made by virtue of 29 Geo. 2. c. 36. ſhall be made to the perſons intereſted in the right of common, in proportion to their reſpective intereſts; and not be paid to the overſeers of the poor, as is directed by the ſaid act. ſ. 1.

And whereas doubts may ariſe whether tenants for life, or for terms of years determinable upon one or more lives, be owners, within the meaning of this act, and that of 29 Geo. 2. c. 36.; be it enacted, that the powers given to ſuch owners by this act, and the ſaid act may be executed by ſuch tenants for life, or years, during their reſpective intereſts. ſ. 2.

Nothing done by ſuch tenants for life, or terms of years, by virtue of this act, or by 29 Geo. 2. c. 36. ſhall have effect or continuance after the determination of the eſtate of ſuch tenants for life, or terms of years. ſ. 3. — See titles FORESTS, APPROVEMENTS, TREES.

Wool.

Confirm. chart. 25 Edw. 1. c. 7. The maletoute of wools, viz. a toll of 40*s.* for every ſack is releaſed; and the king ſhall not take ſuch things without common aſſent, ſaving the cuſtom of wools, ſkins, and leather, granted before by the commonalty.

Stat. de tallag. non concedend. 34 Edw. 1. ſt. 4. c. 3. Nothing ſhall be taken of ſacks of wool by colour of maletoute.

By 18 Edw. 3. ſt. 2. c. 3. Every man, as well ſtranger as privy, may buy wools. And the ſea ſhall be open to all merchants, to paſs with their merchandiſe where it ſhall pleaſe them.

By 34 Edw. 3. c. 19. The canvas in which wool is packed, with the corners, ſhall be allowed without cuſtom.—See general titles IMPORTATION, &c. diviſion Wool; and MANUFACTURES, diviſion Woollen.

Wreck.

Stat. Weſtm. 1. 3 Edw. 1. c. 4. Where a man, a dog, or a cat, eſcape quick out of the ſhip, ſuch ſhips, or any thing within them, ſhall not be adjudged wreck; but the goods ſhall be ſaved and kept by view of the ſheriff, coroner, or the king's bailiff, and delivered into the hands of ſuch as are of the town; ſo that if any ſue for thoſe goods, and after prove that they were his, or periſhed in his keeping, within a year and a day, they ſhall be reſtored; and if not, they ſhall remain to the king, and be ſeized by the ſheriffs, coroners, and bailiffs of the town; and where wreck belongeth to another, he ſhall have it in like manner; and he that otherwiſe doth, ſhall be awarded to priſon, and make fine at the king's will, and ſhall yield damages alſo; and if a bailiff do it, and it be diſallowed by his lord, and the lord will not diſcharge him thereof, the bailiff ſhall anſwer, if he have whereof; and if he have not, the lord ſhall deliver his bailiff's body to the king.

Stat. praerog. reg. 17 Edw. 2. c. 11. The king ſhall have wreck of the ſea, whales and great ſturgeons, taken in the ſea, or elſewhere, except in places privileged.

By 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 18.—Made perpetual by 4 Geo. 1. c. 12. The ſheriffs, juſtices of peace of every county, and all mayors, bailiffs, and other head officers of corporations and port towns near the ſea, and all conſtables, headboroughs, and officers of the cuſtoms, ſhall, upon application made to them on behalf of any commander of a ſhip, being in danger of being ſtranded, or being ſtranded, command the conſtables of the ports neareſt the coaſts where ſuch ſhip ſhall be in danger, to ſummon as many men as ſhall be thought neceſſary, to the aſſiſtance of ſuch ſhip; and if there ſhall be any ſhip belonging to her majeſty, or her ſubjects, riding near the place, the officers of the cuſtoms, and conſtables, are required to demand of the ſuperior officers of ſuch ſhip, aſſiſtance by their boats, and ſuch hands as they can conveniently ſpare; and in caſe ſuch ſuperior officer of ſuch ſhip, neglect to give ſuch aſſiſtance, he ſhall forfeit 100 l. to be recovered by the ſuperior officer of the ſhip in diſtreſs, with coſts, in any of her majeſty's courts of record. ſ. 1.

The collectors of the cuſtoms, and the commanding officer of any ſhips, and all others who ſhall act in the preſerving of any ſuch ſhip in diſtreſs, or their cargoes, ſhall, within 30 days, be paid a reaſonable reward by the commander or owners of ſuch ſhip in diſtreſs, or by the merchant whoſe ſhip or goods ſhall be ſaved; and in default thereof, the ſhip or goods ſhall remain in the cuſtody of ſuch officer of the cuſtoms, until ſuch charges be paid, and until the ſaid officer of the cuſtoms, and the maſter or other officer of the ſhip, and all others ſo employed, ſhall be reaſonably gratified, or ſecurity given for that purpoſe, to the ſatisfaction of the parties. And in caſe after ſuch ſalvage, the commander, mariners, or owners, of ſuch ſhip ſo ſaved, or merchant whoſe goods ſhall be ſaved, ſhall diſagree with the officer of the cuſtoms, touching the monies deſerved by any of the perſons employed, it ſhall be lawful for the commander of ſuch ſhip ſo ſaved, or the owner of the goods, or the merchant intereſted, and alſo for the officer of the cuſtoms, to nominate three of the neighbouring juſtices of peace, who ſhall adjuſt the quantum of gratuities to be paid to the ſeveral perſons and ſuch adjuſtments ſhall be binding to all parties, and ſhall be recoverable in an action at law in any of her majeſty's courts of record. And in caſe no perſon ſhall appear to make his claim to the goods ſaved, the chief officer of the cuſtoms of the neareſt port ſhall apply to three of the neareſt juſtices of peace, who ſhall put him or ſome other reſponſible perſon in poſſeſſion of the goods, ſuch juſtices taking an account of the goods, to be ſigned by the officer of the cuſtoms; and if the goods ſhall not be claimed within 12 months, public ſale ſhall be made thereof, (and if periſhable goods, forthwith to be ſold) and after charges deducted, the reſidue of the monies, with an account of the whole, ſhall be tranſmitted to her majeſty's exchequer, for the benefit of the owner, who upon affidavit or other proof of his property, to the ſatisfaction of one of the barons, ſhall upon his order receive the ſame. ſ. 2.

If any perſon beſides thoſe empowered by the officer of the cuſtoms, and the conſtables, ſhall enter or endeavour to enter on board any ſuch ſhip in diſtreſs, without the leave of the commander, or of the officer of the cuſtoms, or conſtable, or in caſe any perſon ſhall moleſt them in the ſaving of the ſhip or goods, or ſhall endeavour to hinder the ſaving of ſuch ſhip or goods, or ſhall deface the marks of any ſuch goods, before the ſame be taken down in a book, by the commander and the firſt officer of the cuſtoms, ſuch perſon ſhall, within 20 days, make double ſatisfaction, at the diſcretion of the two next juſtices of peace, or in default thereof, ſhall by ſuch juſtices be ſent to the next houſe of correction, where he ſhall be employed in hard labour 12 months; and it ſhall be lawful for any commander or ſuperior officer, of the ſhip in diſtreſs, or the officer of the cuſtoms, or conſtables on board the ſhip, to repel by force any ſuch perſons as ſhall, without conſent as aforeſaid, preſs on board the ſaid ſhip in diſtreſs, and thereby moleſt them in the preſervation of the ſhip. ſ. 3.

In caſe any goods ſhall be found upon any perſon, that were ſtolen or carried off from any ſuch ſhip in diſtreſs, he, on whom ſuch goods ſhall be found, ſhall upon demand, deliver the ſame to the owner, or to ſuch perſon by ſuch owner authoriſed to receive the ſame, or ſhall be liable to pay treble the value, to be recovered by ſuch owner in an action. ſ. 4.

If any perſon ſhall make or be aſſiſting in the making a hole in any ſhip ſo in diſtreſs, or ſteal any pump, or ſhall be aiding in the ſtealing ſuch pump, or ſhall wilfully do any thing tending to the immediate loſs of ſuch ſhip, ſuch perſon ſhall be guilty of felony without benefit of clergy. ſ. 5.

If any action be proſecuted for any thing done in purſuance of this act, all perſons ſo ſued may plead the general iſſue. And this act ſhall be a public act. ſ. 6.

If any officer of the cuſtoms ſhall, by fraud or wilful neglect, abuſe the truſt hereby repoſed in him, and ſhall be convicted thereof, ſuch officer ſhall forfeit treble damages to the party grieved, to be recovered in any court of record, and ſhall be incapable of any employment relating to the cuſtoms. ſ. 7.

This act ſhall be read four times in the year in all churches and chapels of every ſeaport town, and upon the ſea coaſt, upon the Sundays next before Michaelmas-day, Chriſtmas-day, Lady-day, and Midſummer-day, in the morning, after prayers, and before ſermon. ſ. 8.

This act ſhall not prejudice her majeſty, or any grantee of the crown, or any lord of a manor, or other perſon, in relation to any right to wreck, or goods that are flotſam, jetſam, or lagan. ſ. 9.

By 4 Geo. 1. c. 12. The act 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 18. ſhall not affect the ancient jurisdiction of the admiralty court of the cinque ports; but the officers of the said court shall put the said act in execution within the jurisdiction of the cinque ports. s. 2.

By 26 Geo. 2. c. 19. If any person shall plunder, steal, take away, or destroy any goods or effects, from or belonging to any ship or vessel of his majesty's subjects, or others, being in distress, wrecked, lost, stranded, or cast on shore, in any of her majesty's dominions, (whether any living creature be on board such vessel or not) or any of the furniture, tackle, apparel, provision, or part of such vessel; or beat or wound with intent to kill, or otherwise wilfully obstruct the escape of any person endeavouring to save his life from such ship, or the wreck thereof; or put out any false light with intention to bring any ship into danger, such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of felony, and being convicted shall suffer death as in cases of felony without benefit of clergy. s. 1.

When goods or effects of small value be stranded, lost, or cast on shore, and be stolen without circumstances of cruelty or violence, it shall be lawful for any person to prosecute for such offence by way of indictment for petit larceny; and the offenders being convicted, shall suffer as in cases of petit larceny. s. 2.

It shall be lawful for any justice of peace, upon information upon oath of any part of the cargo or effects belonging to any ship lost or stranded upon or near the coasts aforesaid, being unlawfully carried away, or concealed in any house or place, or of some reasonable suspicion thereof, to issue his warrant for the searching of such house or place, as in other cases of stolen goods, and if the same be found in such house or place, or in the custody of any person not legally authorised or intitled to keep the same, and the owner or occupier of such house or place, or the person in whose custody the same be found, shall not upon demand deliver the same to the owner, or to such person as shall be authorised to demand the same, or shall not give a good account, to the satisfaction of the justice, how he became possessed thereof, such justice upon proof of such refusal, shall commit the offender to the common gaol for six months, or until he have paid to such owner, or to the person authorised to receive the same, treble the value of the goods unlawfully detained. s. 3.

If any person offer to sale any goods or effects belonging to any ship, lost, stranded, or cast on shore, and unlawfully taken away, or suspected so to have been; it shall be lawful for the person to whom the same be so offered for sale, or any officer of the customs or excise, or any constable, or other peace officer, to stop and seize the said goods and effects; and he shall carry the same, or give notice of such seizure to some justice of peace; and if the person who offered the said goods to sale, or some other person on his behalf, appear not before the said justice, within ten days next after such seizure, and make out the property of the said goods to be in him, or in the person by whom he was employed to sell the same, the said goods shall, by order of the justice, be delivered over to or for the use of the rightful owner, upon payment of a reasonable reward for such seizure (to be ascertained by the justice), to the person who seized the same; and such justice shall commit the person who so offered the said goods to sale, to the common gaol for six months, or until he have paid to such lawful owner, or to the person authorised to receive the same, treble the value of the goods so unlawfully offered to sale. s. 4.

In case any person not employed by the master, mariners, or owners, or other persons lawfully authorised, in the salvage of any ship, or the cargo or provision thereof, in the absence of persons so employed or authorised, shall save any such ship or effects, and cause the same to be carried, for the benefit of the owners, into port, or to any near adjoining custom-house or place of safe custody, giving notice to some justice of peace, magistrate, or custom house or excise officer, or shall discover to any such magistrate or officer where any such effects are wrongfully bought, sold, or concealed, such person shall be entitled to a reasonable reward to be paid by the masters or owners of such vessels or goods, and to be adjusted in case of disagreement, in like manner as the salvage is to be adjusted and paid, by 12 Ann. st. 2. cap. 18. or in the manner herein after prescribed s. 5.

For the better ascertaining the salvage to be paid in pursuance of this act and the act before mentioned, and for putting them in execution, the justice of the peace, mayor, bailiff, collector of the customs, or chief constable, nearest to the place where any ship or goods shall be stranded or cast away, shall forthwith give public notice for a meeting to be held as soon as possible of the sheriff or his deputy, the justices of the peace, mayors, or other chief magistrates of towns corporate, coroners, and commissioners of the land tax, or any five or more of them, who are to give aid in the execution of this and the said former act, and to employ proper persons for the saving of ships in distress, and such ships and effects as be stranded or cast away; and also to examine persons upon oath concerning the same, or the salvage thereof, and to adjust the quantum of such salvage, and distribute the same among the persons concerned in such salvage, in case of disagreement; and every such sheriff, justice of peace, mayor, chief magistrate, coroner, lord of a manor, under sheriff, or commissioner of the land tax, acting at such meeting, shall be paid 4 s. a day for his expences out of the effects saved. s. 6.

If the charges and rewards for salvage, directed to be paid by 12 Ann. st. 2. c. 18. and by this act, be not paid, or sufficient security given for the same within 40 days, it shall be lawful for the officer of the customs concerned in such salvage, to borrow money sufficient to pay such charges and rewards, or any part thereof then unpaid or not secured, upon one or more bills of sale, under his hand and seal, of the ship or cargo saved, or such part thereof as is sufficient, redeemable upon payment of the sum so borrowed, and interest after the rate of 4 per cent. per annum. s. 7.

If oath be made before any magistrate lawfully impowered to take the same, of any such plunder or theft, and the examination in writing thereupon taken be delivered to the clerk of the peace of the county or division wherein such fact is committed, or to his deputy, or if oath be made before any such magistrate of the breaking any ship, contrary to the 12 Ann. st. 2. c. 18. and the examination in writing, thereupon taken, be delivered to such clerk of the peace, or his deputy; such clerk of the peace shall cause the offender to be prosecuted for the same, either in the county where the fact is committed, or in any county next adjoining, in which adjoining county any indictment may be laid by any other prosecutor; and if the fact be committed in Wales, then the prosecution shall be carried on in the next adjoining Engliſh county, and the charges of such prosecutions by the clerk of the peace shall be paid by the treasurer of the county or division where the fact is committed, to such amount as the justices of the peace in their sessions ſeſſions order; and if ſuch clerk of the peace neglect to carry on ſuch proſecution, he ſhall forfeit 100*l.* for every ſuch offence, to any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, in which no eſſoign, &c. ſhall be allowed. ſ. 8.

The commiſſioners of the land tax, the deputy ſheriff, the coroners, and the officers of exciſe in each county, riding, and diviſion, ſhall be proper officers for putting in execution this act and the 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 18. with thoſe therein named for that purpoſe. ſ. 9.

The lord warden of the cinque ports, and the lieutenant of Dover Caſtle, and the deputy warden of the cinque ports, and the judge official, and commiſſary of the court of admiralty of the cinque ports, two ancient towns, and the members thereof, and every of them, and every other perſon appointed by the lord warden of the cinque ports, purſuant to 3 Geo. 1. c. 13. ſhall be the perſons to put in execution, within the juriſdiction of the cinque ports, two ancient towns and their members, all the powers given by this act, and the 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 18. and the 4 Geo. 1. c. 12. ſ. 10.

If any ſheriff or his deputy, juſtice of peace, mayor, or other magiſtrate, lord of a manor, commiſſioner of the land tax, chief conſtable or petty conſtable, or other peace officer, or any cuſtom-houſe or exciſe officer, or other perſon lawfully authoriſed, be aſſaulted, beaten, and wounded, for the exerciſe of his duty, in the ſalvage of any ſhip in diſtreſs, or of any ſhip or goods ſtranded, wrecked, or caſt on ſhore, or lying under water, in any of her majeſty's dominions, any perſon ſo aſſaulting, beating, and wounding, ſhall, upon conviction, by indictment at the aſſizes, or general gaol delivery, or at the general or quarter ſeſſions for the county or diviſion where ſuch offence is committed, be tranſported for ſeven years to ſome of her majeſty's colonies in America. and be ſubjeſt to ſuch puniſhment in caſe of return before that time, as other perſons under ſentence of tranſportation. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of peace, in caſe of need, and in the abſence of the high ſheriff, to take ſufficient power of the county, to repreſs all unjuſt violence, and to enforce the execution of this act. ſ. 12.

All perſons ſo aſſembled, to ſave any ſhip or goods, ſhall conform in the firſt place to the orders of the maſter, or other officers or owners, or other perſons employed by them; and for want of their preſence or directions, to the orders of the perſons authoriſed by this act, or the 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 18. in the following ſubordination, as any of them happen to be preſent, viz. in the firſt place, to the orders of any officer of the cuſtoms, then of any officer of the exciſe, then of the ſheriff or his deputy, then of any juſtice of peace, then of the the mayor or chief magiſtrate of any corporation, then of the coroner, then of any commiſſioners of the land tax, then of any chief conſtable, then of any petty conſtable, or other peace officers; and any perſon acting wilfully contrary to ſuch orders, ſhall forfeit any ſum not exceeding 5*l.* to be levied by warrant of one juſtice of peace; and in caſe of non-payment, the offender ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction for any time not exceeding three months, ſ. 13.

This act ſhall not prejudice his majeſty, or any grantee of the crown, or any lord of manor, or other perſon, in any right to any wreck, or goods which are flotſam, jetſam, or lagan. ſ. 14.

The officer of the cuſtoms who acts in the preſerving of any ſhip in diſtreſs, or the cargo, ſhall, as ſoon as may be, cauſe all perſons belonging to the ſaid ſhip, and others who can give any account thereof, or of the cargo, to be examined upon oath before ſome juſtice of peace, as to the name or deſcription of the ſhip, and the names of the maſter or chief officer and owners thereof, and of the cargo, and of the ports from or to which the ſaid ſhip was bound, and the occaſion of the ſaid ſhip's diſtreſs; which examination the ſaid juſtices are to take in writing, and they ſhall deliver a copy thereof, together with a copy of the account of the goods, to the ſaid officer of the cuſtoms; who ſhall forthwith tranſmit the ſame to the ſecretary of the admiralty; who ſhall publiſh in the next London Gazette, ſo much thereof as is neceſſary for the information of perſons intereſted. ſ. 15.

The 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 18. and the 4 Geo. 1. c. 12. ſhall remain in force, ſave only ſo far as the ſame are altered by this act. ſ. 16.

This act ſhall take place from the 29th of Sept. 1753. ſ. 17.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to Scotland. ſ. 18.

Writs.

Stat. Marleber. 52 Hen. 3. c. 30. If thoſe alienations, of which a writ of entry was wont to be granted, be made by ſo many degrees that the writ cannot be had in the form before uſed, the plaintiff ſhall have a writ to recover his ſeiſin without mention of the degrees to be provided by the king's counſel.

Stat. Weſtm. 1. 3 Edw. 1. c. 41. The champion ſhall not be conſtrained to ſwear, that he or his father ſaw the ſeiſin of his lord, or of his anceſtor, and that his father commanded him to do the derraignment; but the oath ſhall be kept in all other points.

Stat. de conjunctim feoffatis, 34 Edw. 1. A writ of indicavit ſhall not be granted before the ſuit hanging in the ſpiritual court between the parties be recorded, and the chancellor be certified thereupon by ſight of the libel.

In caſe the maſter of any veſſel ſhall be convicted of any one of the offences before mentioned, and ſhall not, within 14 days, pay into the hands of the proper officer of the court wherein the offence ſhall be proſecuted, that the ſame may be applied in manner herein directed, the amount of the penalty on conviction; it ſhall be lawful for any admiral, or other commander at ſea, of any of the ſhips of war, or other ſhip having commiſſion from his majeſty, or for any governor of any iſland or plantation to his majeſty belonging in America or the Weſt Indies, or for any officer of cuſtoms, to ſeize the ſaid veſſel wherever found, and to convey the ſame to the neareſt cuſtom houſe; and the collector, or principal officer, ſhall cauſe ſuch veſſel to be ſold publicly by auction, and the produce ariſing by ſale thereof apply towards ſatisfying the penalty; and if there remain any overplus, pay the ſame over to ſuch perſon as ſhall prove his property therein. 30 Geo. 3. c. 33. ſ. 4.

The penalties and forfeitures inflicted by this act ſhall be ſued for and recovered in any court of vice admiralty in America, or the Weſt Indies, where ſuch offence ſhall have been committed, or where ſuch veſſel ſhall have diſpoſed of the whole or part of her cargo, or in any courts of record at Weſtminſter, or in the exchequer at Edinburgh. ſ. 5.

Section 6 of 30 Geo. 3. is in the ſame words as ſec. 7. 29 Geo. 3.

Section 7. of 30 Geo. 3. is to the ſame effect as ſec. 8. of 29 Geo. 3. except that the penalty by 30 Geo. 3. ſ. 7. is 500*l.* inſtead of 50*l.*

Section 8 of 30 Geo. 3. is in the ſame words as ſec. 9. of 29 Geo. 3.

Section 9 of 30 Geo. 3. is in the ſame words as 29 Geo. 3. ſ. 10.

Section 10 of 30 Geo. 3. is in the ſame words as 29 Geo. 3. ſ. 11.

The commiſſioners named in 29 Geo. 3. c. 66. are appointed commiſſioners for enquiring into any loſſes ſuſtained in conſequence of an act 28 Geo. 3. ſince expired: (ſee a note in PART I. page 9.) by any merchants or owners of any veſſels engaged in the African trade, who ſhall have made application to the commiſſioners before Sept. 1. 1788, and all perſons having made ſuch applications, ſhall, on or before Aug. 1, 1790, lay before the commiſſioners full ſtatements of the grounds of their claims, &c. as in 29 Geo. 3. c. 66. ſ. 12.; ſee PART I. page 9.—30 Geo. 3. c. 33. ſ. 11.

The treaſury may order 2000 l. to be iſſued for the payment of clerks, &c. 30 Geo. 3. c. 33. ſ. 12.

His majeſty to appoint to vacancies of commiſſioners during the receſs of parliament. ſ. 13.

Before any veſſel is cleared outwards, the maſter, officers, and mariners, to execute articles of agreement in the forms hereunto annexed; and no other form to be uſed on penalty of 50 l. ſ. 14.—in the ſame words as ſ. 15. of 29 Geo. 3.

Sections 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, and 23, of 30 Geo. 3. c. 33. are in the ſame words as ſections 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, and 24, of 29 Geo. 3. c. 66.

This act ſhall continue in force till Aug. 1, 1791, and no longer, except for the purpoſe of trying or ſuing any perſon in conſequence of any offence in breach of this act, or hearing and determining upon ſuch cauſes and claims as ſhall have been made before the commiſſioners appointed for compenſation for loſſes under the regulations of and within the time limited by this act, or any other act before mentioned. 30 Geo. 3. c. 33. ſ. 24.

The ſame ſchedules are annexed to this act as to 29 Geo. 3.

Annuities, Public.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 45. Every perſon entitled to any life annuity, with benefit of ſurvivorſhip under 29 Geo. 3. c. 41. and poſſeſſed of any certificate made out by the caſhier of the bank, in purſuance of the ſaid act, may, before Sept. 20, 1790, carry the ſaid certificate to the auditor of the exchequer, to be exchanged for other certificates to be made out by the auditor, in manner herein-after mentioned; and may, by writing on the back of ſuch certificate, elect to have his intereſt in ſuch life annuity with benefit of ſurvivorſhip, converted into annuities for ſuch term of years as herein mentioned; and the ſaid auditor ſhall, on receipt of ſuch certificate, after computing the intereſt due thereon on the 10th Oct. 1790, give a receipt for the ſame, expreſſing the principal ſum contained in ſuch certificate, and the intereſt to become due thereon, and cauſe the ſaid certificate to be filed in the office of the auditor; and the ſaid auditor ſhall, in lieu thereof, cauſe to be made out a diſtinct certificate in reſpect of every 100 l. 5 s. to the bank, for the amount of the principal ſums contained in the certificates remaining filed in the ſaid office, for which certificates no fee ſhall be taken, nor ſtamp duty paid; and the perſon poſſeſſed of ſuch laſt certificate, ſhall, upon delivery thereof to the bank, be entitled to an annuity at the rate of 4 l. 5 s. per ann. for every 100 l. 5 s. expreſſed in ſuch laſt certificate, to commence from the 10th Oct. 1790, and to continue for 69 years and one quarter and then to ceaſe: which annuity ſhall be paid half-yearly, on April 5, and Oct. 10, in every year, the firſt payment to be due on April 5, 1791, and ſo ſhall continue until determined; and in ſuch caſe the right to any annuity, with benefit of ſurvivorſhip, ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 1.

In the office of the accountant general of the bank, books ſhall be kept, in which the names of perſons who have delivered certificates to be made out by the auditor in purſuance of this act, and the ſums contained therein, ſhall be entered, which books the ſaid perſons, and all perſons who ſhall continue to have an intereſt in ſuch life annuities, may inſpect without fee; and the ſaid accountant general ſhall, before 5th April, 1791, tranſmit an atteſted duplicate, fairly written on paper, of the ſaid books into the office of the auditor of the exchequer. ſ. 2.

As ſoon as any perſon ſhall have delivered to the bank any certificate made out by the auditor, the ſum expreſſed in the certificate delivered to the bank, ſhall be, in the books of the bank, placed to the credit of ſuch perſons who may aſſign the ſame in the books of the bank; and ſuch ſums ſhall carry an annuity after the rate of 4 l. 5 s. per ann. in reſpect of every 100 l. 5 s. for 69 years and one quarter of a year, from Oct. 10, 1790, and then to ceaſe, and ſhall be deemed to be ſtock transferable according to this act. ſ. 3.

Annuities payable out of the conſolidated fund. ſ. 5.

The contributors who ſhall have had the intereſt to become due on 10th Oct. 1790, computed by the caſhier of the bank, purſuant to the act of laſt ſeſſion, ſhall be intitled to receive at the exchequer ſuch intereſt, at the rate in the ſaid act mentioned. ſ. 6.

Treaſury to order money for payment of annuities to be iſſued at the exchequer, &c. ſ. 7.

Accountant general to examine the caſhier's accounts, and the annuities to be deemed perſonal eſtate. ſ. 8.

Books to be kept at the bank for entering transfers of annuities, &c. ſ. 9.

Annuities may be bequeathed by will, &c. and transfers not chargeable with ſtamps. ſ. 10.

Annuities, from Oct. 10, 1790, to be added to the joint ſtock of annuities granted by two acts of 1 Geo. 3. c. 7. and 2 Geo. 3. c. 10.—See PART I. page 23.—ſ. 11.

The ſaid auditor of the exchequer ſhall, on or immediately after Sept. 20, 1790, certify to the commiſſioners of the treaſury, the number of certificates filed in the office of the auditor, indorſed in the manner herein directed; and alſo the number of ſuch ſhares of the life annuities, with benefit of ſurvivorſhip, which ſhall have been converted into annuities for terms of years; and the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or three, ſhall, for each 100 l. 5 s. contained in ſuch certificates, name, in manner herein directed, the life of ſome one perſon, at any time on or before Oct. 10, 1790, in manner herein directed; during which lives appointed as aforeſaid, there ſhall be reſerved at the exchequer, to the uſe of the public, at the days of payment, in the ſaid act mentioned, the like annuity, with like benefit of ſurvivorſhip in claſſes, as any contributor in the ſame claſſes would be intitled unto by the ſaid act, in reſpect of an equal number of ſhares thereof, and which annuity, ſo reſerved at the ſaid receipt, to the uſe of the public, ſhall, as they grow due, be carried to the conſolidated fund, toward ſatisfying the annuities of 4 l. 5 s. granted under this act, as aforeſaid. ſ. 12.

The

The treaſury ſhall, out of the ſeveral degrees, orders, or ſocieties of perſons herein-after mentioned, ſelect, in manner herein directed, ſo many nominees as ſhall be neceſſary to carry into execution this act; viz. ſuch perſons as are peers of Great Britain, or of Ireland, or the children or grand-children of ſuch peers; or are baronets of England or Scotland, or lords of manors in England or Wales, or perſons who are named in the commiſſion of the peace for any county in England or Wales, or their children; or are ſpiritual perſons, promoted to any biſhoprick, deanry, archdeaconry, prebend, or other dignity, or beneficed with any parſonage, vicarage, or donative in England, or a fellowſhip in any college or hall of either of the univerſities of Oxford or Cambridge; or are governors of the Charter Houſe, or governors and guardians of the Foundling Hoſpital, or the preſident, treaſurer, or governors of Chriſt's Hoſpital; or ſuch perſons reſpectively who are regiſtered in the books of The Amicable Society for Inſurance on Lives in Serjeant's Inn, Fleet Street, and whoſe names, places of abode, and ages, ſhall be fully ſet forth in ſuch regiſter; and all ſuch perſons who ſhall be appointed nominees by the treaſury, on or before 10 Oct. 1790, out of the perſons above mentioned, ſhall be deemed nominees, during whoſe lives there ſhall be reſerved, for the uſe of the public, at the exchequer, annuities with benefit of ſurvivorſhip after the rates, and at the times in the ſaid act mentioned, as fully as if ſuch nominees had been appointed under the former act. ſ. 13.

Before ſuch nominees ſhall be entered in the book of the auditor, the treaſury, or ſome perſon by them appointed under this act, ſhall deliver to the auditor a true copy of the regiſter of the birth of every ſuch nominee, and alſo a certificate of the ſame, under the hands of the miniſter of the pariſh where ſuch regiſter ſhall be kept, or of the churchwarden or overſeers, or other principal inhabitants of ſuch pariſh, or two of them, thereby certifying the ſame to be a true copy of ſuch regiſter; and alſo a certificate under the hands of the miniſter of the pariſh where ſuch nominee ſhall reſide, or of the churchwardens or overſeers, or inhabitants of ſuch pariſh, or three of them, thereby certifying the name, ſurname, and abode, of ſuch nominee; and in caſe ſuch nominee ſhall be regiſtered in the books of the Amicable Society, then the treaſury, or perſon aforeſaid, ſhall alſo deliver to the auditor a certificate, under the hands of two of the directors or governors of the ſaid ſociety, certifying the name, ſurname, abode, and age of ſuch nominee, together with ſuch other deſcriptions to aſcertain the perſon as may appear in the books of the ſaid ſociety; and which copies the miniſters, officers, directors, or governors, or perſons aforeſaid, are required, upon application in writing, to deliver to the treaſury, or perſon appointed by them, at ſuch times as the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or three, ſhall direct; and any appointment in writing, under the hands and ſeals of the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or three of them, of ſuch perſon, duly certified in manner herein mentioned, to be a nominee by virtue of this act, ſhall be a ſufficient warrant to the officers in the office of the auditor, and alſo in the office of the clerk of the pells, for admitting ſuch perſon to be a nominee in the proper claſs of nominees according to the ſaid act, and for entering the name, abode, and age of ſuch perſon as a nominee in the book to be kept for that purpoſe, according to the ſaid act; and the ſaid auditor is to enter the ſame accordingly, and alſo the particular claſs in which each ſuch nominee ought to be placed by the ſaid act, and the annuities to be reſerved for the uſe of the public in reſpect of ſuch nominees according to this act. ſ. 14.

The commiſſioners of the treaſury, or ſome perſon appointed by them under this act, ſhall, half-yearly, during the lives ſo nominated, tranſmit to the places in Great Britain, where ſuch nominees reſide, a liſt of all the nominees reſiding in ſuch place; and alſo to the directors or governors of the ſaid ſociety a liſt of all ſuch nominees regiſtered in the books of the ſaid ſociety; and the miniſters, officers, or perſons aforeſaid, of the places to which ſuch liſts ſhall be tranſmitted, and the directors or governors of the ſaid ſociety, ſhall, half-yearly, viz. before 5 April, and 10 Oct. in each year, on ſuch days as the treaſury ſhall direct, return to the treaſury, or perſon appointed by them, a certificate, under the hands of ſuch miniſters, officers, or perſons, or of two of them, or under the hands of ſuch directors, or two of them, certifying the lives of all the nominees which ſhall then ſubſiſt; and alſo the deaths of ſuch nominees come to their knowledge, or of the removal of ſuch nominees from ſuch place; and the certificates certifying the lives of the nominees, being filed at the office of the auditor, ſhall be a ſufficient warrant for reſerving at the ſaid receipt, to the uſe of the public, the half-yearly payments which ſhall ariſe in reſpect of the nominees certified according to this act, and which certificates ſhall not be chargeable with any ſtamp duty. ſ. 15.

If when any half-yearly payment ſhall become due, ſuch nominees appointed by the treaſury, ſhall be in the ſervice in his majeſty's land forces, or navy, it ſhall be lawful to produce to the auditor, a certificate of the lives or deaths of ſuch nominees, under the hands of the officers commanding the regiments, or under the hands of two commiſſioners of the admiralty or navy; and in caſe ſuch nominees ſhall be reſident at either of the univerſities, or at any ſchool, or other ſeminary, then it ſhall be lawful to produce the like certificate, under the hand of the principal rector, warden, or maſter of the college, hall, ſchool, or other ſeminary; which certificates, being filed with the auditor, ſhall be likewiſe a ſufficient warrant for ſetting apart at the exchequer the half-yearly payments, in reſpect of ſuch nominees. ſ. 16.

The auditor ſhall, on or immediately after 20 Sept. 1790, certify to the treaſury, the number of perſons then appointed to be nominees under the ſaid act, and the names of ſuch nominees, and the claſſes in which the ſaid nominees are to be placed, and the whole ſhares depending upon the lives of all the nominees appointed within each claſs; and the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall, in the appointment of nominees on the part of the public, diſtribute the number of nominees, and of ſhares depending on the lives of ſuch nominees, among the ſeveral claſſes of the tontine, in the ſame proportion in which the number of nominees appointed by the contributors, and the number of ſhares depending on the lives of ſuch nominees, ſhall appear, by the certificate of the auditor, to have been diſtributed among the claſſes. ſ. 17.

The names of all perſons of any of the deſcriptions before enumerated, whoſe ages and abode ſhall be aſcertained by the treaſury, on or before 20 Sept. 1790, ſhall be diſtributed according to the ages of ſuch perſons into ſix claſſes, correſponding to the claſſes directed by the ſaid act of laſt ſeſſion, and written or printed on diſtinct pieces of paper, of equal ſize, and rolled up in the ſame manner; and ſhall, on ſome day between 20 Sept. and 10 Oct. 1790, (whereof notice ſhall be given in the London Gazette,) be put into ſix boxes, according to the ſix claſſes in which the ſame ſhall have been diſtributed, and being there ſhaken together, ſhall, in the preſence of the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or three, and alſo the deputy governor of the bank, be publicly drawn out of the ſix boxes in their order, beginning with the firſt claſs, and ſo ſhall continue until a ſufficient number of names in each claſs ſhall be drawn out of the ſaid boxes, to fill up the proportion of nominees to be appointed on the part of the public in each claſs, according to this act; and which names ſo drawn ſhall in ſuch claſſes be entered into books, and the perſons whoſe names ſhall be ſo drawn, and none other, ſhall be appointed and certified to the auditor as the nominees on the part of the public. ſ. 18.

None but a native, and reſiding in Great Britain, to be nominee for the public. ſ. 19.

In the account to be made up half-yearly in the office of the auditor, of the deaths of nominees, and alſo in the liſt to be publiſhed yearly in purſuance of the laſt act, the ſaid auditor ſhall ſet down, in different columns, the names and ages of nominees appointed by the treaſury, and the names and ages of ſuch other nominees as were appointed by the contributors in purſuance of the former act; and alſo ſhall ſet down therein the different annuities payable to the contributors, and the annuities to be reſerved at the receipt for ſuch nominees who ſhall be living, which were appointed by the treaſury, and alſo the amount of the annuities payable to the contributors, or to be reſerved as aforeſaid. ſ. 20.

Out of The Conſolidated Fund, the treaſury ſhall have power to diſcharge all charges as ſhall neceſſarily attend the execution of this act; and alſo to make allowances for the ſervice of the caſhier and accountant general; all which allowances in reſpect of the ſervice of any officer of the bank ſhall be for the uſe of the governor and company, and at their diſpoſal only. ſ. 21.

Perſons forging or altering certificates, &c. guilty of felony. ſ. 23.

Perſons ſued for any thing done by virtue of this act, may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 24.

Exciſe.

Auctions.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 26. Any goods imported into this kingdom by way of merchandize, from the ſettlement at Yucatan, in South America, ſhall be free of the duty on the firſt ſale of ſuch goods at auction, for the original importer to whom the ſame were conſigned, and by whom they were entered at the cuſtom-houſe at the port of importation, ſo as ſuch ſale be made within twelve months after ſuch goods ſhall be imported, and by ſome licenſed auctioneer. ſ. 1.

Brandy, Rum, Arrack, and other Spiritous Liquors.

Britiſh Spirits.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 18. So much of 27 Geo. 3. c. 31, as directs that all ſpirits ſhall be deemed of the ſtrength denoted by Clarke's hydrometer, is continued to the end of the next ſeſſion. ſ. 3.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 37. The duties impoſed by 27 Geo. 3. ſ. 13. (ſee PART I. page 203.) on waſh made in England for extracting ſpirits for home conſumption; and which by 29 Geo. 3. c. 45. were continued to July 5, 1790, ſhall be further continued until July 5, 1791. ſ. 1.

Clauſes 1, 2, 3, and 4, of 29 Geo. 3. c. 45. (ſee PART I. page 248) are recited, and repealed; and for making unto the rectifiers and compounders of ſpirits a fair allowance for that increaſe by water, ſugar, ſyrup, or fruit, which is neceſſary to render their ſpirits fit for conſumption, there ſhall be allowed permits for ſending out, not exceeding 150 gallons of Britiſh brandy, rectified Britiſh ſpirits or compounds, for every 100 gallons of raw Britiſh ſpirits which they ſhall have received from any diſtiller of Britiſh ſpirits, (not a rectifier), of the ſtrength of one to ten over hydrometer proof, or which they ſhall reſpectively have made at the ſtrength laſt aforeſaid. ſ. 2.

Within thirty days after the commencement of this act, and afterwards once in every three months at leaſt, the officers ſhall take an account of the ſtock of Britiſh brandy, rectified Britiſh ſpirits, raw Britiſh ſpirits, compounds, and other Britiſh ſpirits, of every rectifier and compounder (whether a maker of ſpirits or not); and if on taking ſuch account, ſubſequent to the firſt, the ſtock ſo taken, added to the quantity of ſpirits for which permits ſhall have been granted to ſuch rectifier or compounder, ſince the time of taking the laſt preceding account, ſhall be found to exceed the quantity found at the taking the laſt preceding account of ſuch ſtock by the officer, added to the quantity ſince received by permit from any diſtiller (not being a rectifier) at the ſtrength of one or ten over hydrometer proof, or made by ſuch rectifier or compounder, at the ſtrength laſt aforeſaid, with the allowance of 50 gallons on every 100 gallons ſo made or received, caſting ſuch ſtock at the ſtrength of one in three and three-fourths under proof, a quantity of ſpirits equal to the quantity ſo found in exceſs ſhall be forfeited, and may be ſeized by any officer out of ſuch ſtock; and the perſon in whoſe ſtock ſuch quantity, ſo found in exceſs, ſhall be diſcovered, ſhall alſo forfeit 50*l.* ſ. 3.

If any officer, on taking the firſt account, under this act, of the ſtock of Britiſh brandy, rectified Britiſh ſpirits, raw Britiſh ſpirits, compounds, or other Britiſh ſpirits, of any rectifier, or compounder (whether a maker of ſpirits or not), ſhall find that the ſtock ſo taken, added to the quantity for which permits ſhall have been granted to ſuch rectifier, or compounder, ſince the taking the laſt account under 29 Geo. 3. ſhall be found to exceed the quantity found by the officer in ſuch ſtock, at the taking ſuch laſt preceding account, added to the quantity ſince received by permit from any diſtiller (not a rectifier) at the ſtrength of one to ten over proof, or made by ſuch rectifier, or compounder, at the ſtrength laſt aforeſaid, with the allowance of 42 gallons on every 100 gallons ſo made or received by permits ſince the taking ſuch laſt account, the limitation whereof ſhall have expired before July 5, 1790, and with the allowance of 50 gallons on every 100 gallons ſo made or received after July 5, 1791, and prior to the taking ſuch firſt account, computing ſuch former ſtock at the ſtrength of one in four and ſeven ſixteenths under hydrometer proof, and then reducing the ſame to the ſtrength of one in three and three fourths under hydrometer proof, and computing ſuch latter ſtock at the ſtrength of one in three and three fourths under hydrometer proof, a quantity of ſpirits equal to the quantity ſo found in exceſs ſhall be forfeited, and may be ſeized by any officer out of ſuch ſtock; and the perſon in whoſe ſtock ſuch quantity ſo found in exceſs ſhall be diſcovered, ſhall alſo forfeit 50*l.* ſ. 4.

If on taking ſuch account of the ſtock of ſuch rectifier,

or compounder, it ſhall appear that ſuch rectifier, or compounder, has not actually made uſe of the whole of the allowance by this act granted, ſo much thereof as ſhall not appear to have been made uſe of, deducting therefrom ſo much as will be ſufficient to reduce the ſtock then found on hand to the ſtrength of one in three and three fourths under hydrometer proof, ſhall be cut off from his credit. ſ. 5.

No rectifier, or compounder, ſhall ſell or ſend out any Britiſh brandy, Britiſh rectified ſpirits, Britiſh compounds, or other Britiſh ſpirits, of any greater ſtrength than one in five under proof; and if ſuch rectifier, or compounder, ſhall ſell or ſend out any Britiſh brandy, &c. of any greater degree of ſtrength than one in five under proof, ſuch Britiſh brandy, &c. together with the veſſels containing the ſame, ſhall be forfeited, and may be ſeized by any officer of exciſe; and ſuch rectifier, or compounder, who ſhall ſell or ſend out ſuch Britiſh brandy, &c. of any greater ſtrength than one in five under proof, ſhall alſo forfeit the value of ſuch Britiſh brandy, &c. or 50 l. in the whole, at the election of the attorney general, or perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame, the ſingle value of ſuch Britiſh brandy, &c. to be taken at the rate at which the beſt Britiſh brandy, &c. ſhall ſell for in London. ſ. 6.

All penalties, and forfeitures, impoſed by this act, ſhall be recovered, or mitigated, by law of exciſe, or by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or in the exchequer in Scotland; and one moiety of ſuch penalty ſhall be to his majeſty, and the other to him who ſhall inform. ſ. 7.

The 30 ſect. of 21 Geo. 3. c. 55. (ſee PART I. p. 213.) is recited and repealed. ſ. 8.

The act 29 Geo. 3. c. 45, clauſe 7, ſhall continue until July 5, 1791. ſ. 9. (ſee PART I. page 229.)

Retailing of Spirituous Liquors.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 38. Every perſon who ſhall retail foreign wine, or Britiſh-made wines, or ſweets, or diſtilled ſpirituous liquors or ſtrong waters, ſhall, before he ſhall retail any foreign wine, &c. take out ſuch licence hereinafter mentioned, as the caſe may require, which licences reſpectively ſhall be granted, viz. If taken out within the limits of the chief office of exciſe in London, under the hands and ſeals of two commiſſioners of exciſe in England, or of ſuch perſons as they ſhall appoint for that purpoſe; but if taken out in any part of England not within the ſaid limits, the ſame ſhall be granted under the hands and ſeals of the collectors and ſupervifors within their diſtricts; and in caſe ſuch licence ſhall be taken out within the limits of Edinburgh, the ſame ſhall be granted under the hands and ſeals of two commiſſioners of exciſe in Scotland; or if taken out in Scotland out of the limits of Edinburgh, then the ſame ſhall be granted under the hands and ſeals of the collectors and ſupervifors of exciſe in Scotland within their reſpective diſtricts: And the commiſſioners of exciſe in England and Scotland, or two of them, and the perſons appointed by the ſaid commiſſioners, and alſo ſuch collectors and ſupervifors, are to grant ſuch licences to the perſons who ſhall apply for the ſame, on the perſon applying for the ſame firſt paying for ſuch licences the ſums following; viz.

For every licence granted to authorize any perſon to retail diſtilled ſpirituous liquors or ſtrong waters in any part of Great Britain, four pounds and fourteen ſhillings;——If the dwelling-houſe in which ſuch perſon ſhall reſide, or retail ſuch diſtilled ſpirituous liquors or ſtrong waters, at the time of taking out ſuch licence, ſhall not, together with the offices, courts, yards, and gardens therewith occupied, be rated, under the act, for impoſing duties on houſes, at 15 l. per annum or upwards:

If rated at 15 l. per annum or upwards, and under 20 l. ſuch perſons ſhall take out a licence, and pay for the ſame five pounds and two ſhillings:

If rated at 20 l. per ann. or upwards, and under twenty-five pounds, five pounds and ten ſhillings:

If rated at 25 l. per ann. or upwards, and under thirty pounds, five pounds and eighteen ſhillings:

If rated at 30 l. per ann. or upwards, and under forty pounds, ſix pounds and ſix ſhillings:

If rated at 40 l. per ann. or upwards, and under fifty pounds, ſix pounds and fourteen ſhillings:

And if rated at 50 l. per ann. or upwards, ſeven pounds and two ſhillings:

The money by this act directed to be paid for ſuch licences, which ſhall be taken out within the limits of the chief office in London, ſhall be paid at the chief office in London; and ſuch as ſhall be paid for licences which ſhall be taken out within the limits of Edinburgh, ſhall be paid at the chief office in Edinburgh; and ſuch as ſhall be paid for licences which ſhall be taken out in any part of Great Britain, not within the ſaid limits, ſhall be paid to the collectors granting ſuch licences. ſ. 7.

All licences to be granted under this act, ſhall continue in force until 10 Oct. next enſuing the time of the granting thereof, and no longer: But where any licence ſhall be firſt granted between 5 April and 10 Oct. in any year, there ſhall be charged only a rateable proportion of the money before directed to be paid for ſuch licence, according to the time for which ſuch licence ſhall be granted. ſ. 8.

No perſon ſhall retail any foreign wines, or any Britiſh-made wines or ſweets, or any diſtilled ſpirituous liquors, or ſtrong waters, after the expiration of ſuch licence, unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall take out a freſh licence, ten days before the expiration of ſuch former licence, and ſo in like manner renew ſuch licence from year to year; and if any perſon ſhall retail any foreign wine, &c. without firſt taking out a licence authoriſing him ſo to do, and renewing the ſame as before directed, he ſhall forfeit 50 l. ſ. 9.

Upon the death of any perſon licenſed, or upon the removal of any perſon licenſed from the entered houſe in which ſuch licence ſhall authorize him to retail foreign wine, &c. it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners of exciſe in England and Scotland, or one of them, and for the collectors and ſupervifors within their diſtricts, to authorize the executors or adminiſtrators, or the wife or child of ſuch deceaſed perſon, or the aſſigns of ſuch perſon ſo removing, who ſhall be poſſeſſed of ſuch houſe, in like manner to retail foreign wine, &c. in the ſame entered houſe where ſuch perſon ſo licenſed, by virtue of ſuch licence, carried on ſuch trade, during the reſidue of the term for which ſuch licence was originally granted, without taking out a new licence during the reſidue of the ſaid term: Perſons trading in partnerſhip, and in one houſe or ſhop only, ſhall not be obliged to take out more than one licence in one year, either for retailing foreign wine, or for retailing Britiſh-made wines or ſweets, or for retailing diſtilled ſpirituous liquors or ſtrong waters; and no one licence ſhall authorize any perſon to retail foreign wine, &c. in any other place than ſuch places, in which he ſhall retail foreign wine, &c. at the time of granting ſuch licence, and whereof entry in writing ſhall be made at the office of exciſe in the name of ſuch perſon at the time of granting ſuch licence. ſ. 10.

Nothing

Nothing herein ſhall be prejudicial to the privileges of the two univerſities in England, nor to the chancellors or ſcholars of the ſame, or their ſucceſſors, but they may uſe ſuch privileges as they have heretofore enjoyed. ſ. 11.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to the maſter, wardens, freemen, and commonalty of the vintners of London, or to any other city or town corporate, but they may enjoy ſuch liberties as they have heretofore enjoyed: Provided, that no perſon who ſhall be admitted to the freedom of the company of vintners of the city of London by redemption only, ſhall be exempted from the obligation of taking out a licence for retailing foreign wine, but the freemen only of the ſaid company, who ſhall have been already admitted to their freedom, or who ſhall be admitted to their freedom in right of patrimony or apprenticeſhip, ſhall be intitled to ſuch exemption. ſ. 12.

Nothing herein ſhall debar the mayor or burgeſſes of St. Alban's in the county of Hertford, or their ſucceſſors, from enjoying ſuch liberties to them heretofore granted by letters patent, by queen Elizabeth and king James the firſt, for erecting, appointing, and licenſing, of three wine taverns within the borough aforeſaid, towards the maintenance of the free ſchool there; but the ſame liberties ſhall be confirmed, and remain in the ſaid mayor and burgeſſes, and their ſucceſſors, for the charitable uſe aforeſaid, and according to the tenor of the letters patent. ſ. 13.

No licence to retail foreign wine, or to retail Britiſh-made wines or ſweets, or to retail diſtilled ſpirituous liquors or ſtrong waters, ſhall be granted to any perſon, except to ſuch only to whom a licence to retail might lawfully be granted by the acts in force immediately before the paſſing of this act. ſ. 14.

All perſons who ſhall ſell, offer, or expoſe to ſale, any brandy, rum, arrack, uſquebaugh, geneva, aqua vitæ, or any other diſtilled ſpirituous liquors or ſtrong waters, unmixed or mixed with themſelves, or any other ingredients, in any leſs quantity than two gallons, ſhall be deemed to be retailers within this act; and if any brandy, &c. unmixed or mixed with themſelves, or any other ingredients, ſhall at any time be ſold, &c. by any perſon whatſoever in any quantity leſs than two gallons, ſuch ſelling, &c. ſhall be deemed to be a retailing within this act. ſ. 15.

All penalties, and forfeitures, ſhall be recovered, or mitigated, by law of exciſe, or by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or in the exchequer in Scotland; and one moiety of ſuch fine ſhall be to his majeſty, and the other moiety to him who ſhall inform. ſ. 16.

The duties by this act impoſed (ſee Sweets and Wine, poſt) (the charges of raiſing and accounting excepted) ſhall be paid into the exchequer; and carried to The Conſolidated Fund. ſ. 17.

The 16 Geo. 2. c. 8. and 24 Geo. 2. c. 40. and 27 Geo. 3. c. 30. (ſee PART I. pages 235. 237, 238, and 240.) ſo far as the ſame gave any power to the commiſſioners of exciſe in England and Scotland, or perſons appointed by them, or the collectors, to grant licences to retail diſtilled ſpirituous liquors, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 18.

All powers, &c. which, in any act relating to the retailing of foreign wine, or Britiſh-made wines or ſweets, or diſtilled ſpirituous liquors, or to licences to retail the ſame, in force immediately before the paſſing of this act, are contained, for raiſing or ſecuring the duties on ſuch licences, and for preventing frauds relating thereto, or for the regulating the retailing of the ſaid liquors, and not expreſsly altered, repealed, changed, or controled by this act, or not repugnant to this act, ſhall be in force, and put in execution, in managing the duties by this act impoſed, &c. ſ. 19.

All powers in 12 Car. 2. c. 24. or in any other law now in force relating to exciſe (other than in ſuch caſes for which other penalties are made in this act), ſhall be put in execution, for managing the duties by this act impoſed, &c. ſ. 20.

N. B. The duties impoſed by 16 Geo. 2. c. 8. 24 Geo. 2. c. 40. and 27 Geo. 3. c. 30. on licences for retailing ſpirituous liquors, were repealed by 30 Geo. 3. c. 38. ſ. 2.

Sweets.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 74. It ſhall be lawful to grant any licence for ſelling of ſweets or Britiſh-made wines by any retail meaſure, to any perſon applying for the ſame (although ſuch perſon ſhall not have a ſpirituous liquor or ale licence). ſ. 5.

In every licence ſo granted, the words (to ſell ſweets or Britiſh-made wines only) ſhall be inſerted; and every perſon ſo licenſed to retail ſweets or Britiſh-made wines, ſhall cauſe the words (Dealer in Britiſh Wines) to be painted or written in legible characters, either on a ſign hung out, or on ſome conſpicuous place in the front of his houſe or ſhop, upon pain of forfeiting 10 l. to be recovered in the ſame manner as any penalty in the acts, under the management of the commiſſioners of ſtamps. ſ. 7.

But by 28 Geo. 3. c. 37. No perſon ſhall by virtue of any licence for the ſale of Britiſh-made wines or ſweets, be intitled to ſell ſuch wines for conſumption in his own houſe, unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall alſo have obtained a licence for ſelling beer and ale. ſ. 32.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 38. ſ. 1. Every perſon who ſhall retail Britiſh-made wines or ſweets, ſhall take out an exciſe licence annually, paying, for every licence which ſhall be granted to authorize any perſon to retail Britiſh-made wines or ſweets, either in England or Scotland, two pounds four ſhillings.

All perſons who ſhall ſell, offer, or expoſe to ſale, any Britiſh-made wine or ſweets, in the quantity of 25 gallons, or under, ſhall be deemed to be a retailer within this act; and if any Britiſh-made wine or ſweets ſhall be ſold, &c. by any perſon, in any quantity leſs than 25 gallons, ſuch ſelling, &c. ſhall be deemed to be a retailing within this act. ſ. 15.

" For the manner of taking out ſuch licences, and the " remainder, ſee the 30 Geo. 3. c. 38. under Brandy, " &c. ante."

Tobacco and Snuff.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 40. the clauſe of 29 Geo. 3. c. 68. viz. ſ. 64. and the matters therein contained, which prohibit any perſon to manufacture, out of the limits of the chief office, any tobacco, &c. in any places other than the places in the ſaid clauſe ſpecified, and all penalties in the ſame clauſe, and every proviſo, viz. ſec. 65. relating to the matters of the ſaid clauſe, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 7. See PART I. page 308.

No perſon ſhall ſet up, or cauſe to be ſet up, any manufactory of tobacco, tobacco ſtalks, Spaniſh, ſnuff work, tobacco ſtalk flour, or ſnuff, in any place whatſoever, which ſhall be leſs than five miles diſtant from any part of the ſea coaſt of Great Britain (except in the places in the ſaid act enumerated, into which tobacco may be imported, and except in any place within three miles of ſuch places, and alſo except in cities and the ſuburbs thereof, and market towns); and no entry of any place, being leſs than than five miles diſtant from the ſea coaſt, and not being in ſuch excepted places, which ſhall be ſet up for the manufacturing any tobacco, &c. ſhall be of any effect, but ſhall be void; and all perſons manufacturing, or cauſing to be manufactured, any tobacco, &c. in any place, ſituate in any place which ſhall be leſs than five miles diſtant from any part of the ſea coaſt of Great Britain, except in places before excepted, ſhall, notwithſtanding any entry of the ſame, be deemed a manufacturer without entry, and ſubject to the like penalties as manufacturers without entry are ſubject to by the ſaid act: Provided nothing in this act ſhall extend to annul any entry of, or to ſubject any perſon to any penalty, in reſpect of any tobacco or ſnuff being manufactured in any manufactory, which ſhall have been uſed as ſuch tobacco or ſnuff manufactory before 5 July 1789, and whereof due entry ſhall be made at the office of exciſe, or any room, vault, or place which ſhall be erected, and ſhall belong and appertain thereunto. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful for any manufacturer of ſnuff, to manufacture his ſnuff work, either into rappee ſnuff, Scotch ſnuff, or brown Scotch ſnuff, although ſuch manufacturing ſhall be different from any declaration by him delivered to the officer in purſuance of 29 Geo. 3. or this act, ſuch manufacturer obſerving the rules in that behalf preſcribed by this act. ſ. 9.

Such manufacturer may give to the officer, from time to time, whilſt ſuch ſnuff work ſhall be in caſk or bin purſuant to the ſaid act, a previous notice in writing, according to this act, of his intention to manufacture ſuch ſnuff work different from his former declaration; and in ſuch notice ſhall ſpecify the caſk, or bin, and the number thereof, in which ſuch ſnuff work ſhall then be, and the time when ſuch ſnuff work was laid down or added to in purſuance of this act, and the purpoſe for which the ſame was before declared to be laid down; and alſo ſhall, within 48 hours after ſuch notice, deliver to ſuch officer a freſh declaration in writing, ſpecifying the weight of ſuch tobacco, tobacco ſtalks, and returns, and the weight of the tobacco ſtalk flour (if any) laid down in ſuch ſnuff work, and whether the ſame, and how much thereof, is intended to be made into rappee ſnuff, Scotch ſnuff, or brown Scotch ſnuff, and ſhall proceed without delay to manufacture the ſame, and finiſh the manufacturing thereof, according to the laſt declaration; and ſuch ſnuff work ſhall, after ſuch notice and declaration, be ſubject to the like notices and declarations, and to the like rules, as are by the ſaid act and this act required with reſpect to ſnuff work laid down and manufactured according to the ſaid act and this act. ſ. 10.

It ſhall be lawful for manufacturers of ſnuff, to add to any parcel of ſnuff work in operation (once whilſt the ſame ſhall be laid down in caſk or bin, in purſuance of the ſaid act, or once immediately before or in the grinding thereof, or once at each of the operations, but not oftener) any quantity of tobacco, tobacco ſtalks, tobacco ſtalk flour, and returns of tobacco, or either of them, upon his giving to the officer, previous to ſuch increaſe being made, a like notice in writing as herein directed, of ſuch his intention, ſpecifying in ſuch notice the particular caſk, or bin, and the number thereof, in which ſuch ſnuff work ſhall then be, or from out of which ſuch ſnuff work has been taken, and the time when ſuch ſnuff work was firſt laid down, and alſo the time when any increaſe, if any was made thereto, and the weights of the tobacco, tobacco ſtalks, tobacco ſtalk flour, and returns intended to be added to ſuch ſnuff work. ſ. 11.

Such manufacturer giving ſuch notice as laſt, ſhall immediately on ſuch officer's attendance purſuant to ſuch notice (and which ſuch officer is to give), or within one hour after the time ſpecified in ſuch notice, weigh all ſuch tobacco, tobacco ſtalks, tobacco ſtalk flour, and returns of tobacco, as ſhall be intended to be added to ſuch ſnuff work, and which ſhall be weighed ſeparate from each other, in the preſence of ſuch officer, who ſhall take an account of the ſame, and ſhall alſo immediately after weighed, and an account thereof taken, deliver to ſuch officer a declaration in writing, ſpecifying the weights of ſuch tobacco, &c. intended to be added to ſuch ſnuff work, and alſo the weights of the tobacco, &c. before laid down in or added to ſuch ſnuff work, and whether ſuch ſnuff work, and how much, is ſnuff work for rappee ſnuff, ſnuff work for Scotch ſnuff, or ſnuff work for brown Scotch ſnuff, and the time when ſuch ſnuff work was laid down, and alſo the time when any increaſe was made thereto; and all ſuch tobacco, &c. ſo added or intended to be added to ſuch ſnuff work, ſhall, after ſuch notice and declaration given as laſt, be ſubject to the like notices, and to the like rules, &c. as are by the ſaid act and this required with reſpect to tobacco, &c. laid down, or manufactured into ſnuff work. ſ. 12.

It ſhall be lawful for any manufacturer of ſnuff, who ſhall have laid down ſnuff work in cure in ſeveral parcels, or at different times, to mix together, whilſt the ſame ſhall ſo remain in cure, the whole of one parcel, with the whole of any other parcel, and from thenceforth to proceed in the manufacturing thereof as if the whole of ſuch ſnuff work, ſo mixed together, had been laid down in one parcel, and at one time: Provided ſuch parcels of ſnuff work ſhall be mixed together in the preſence of the officer, upon a like notice, in writing, to ſuch officer given, by ſuch manufacturer as by this act is directed, ſpecifying therein the particular caſk, or bin, and the number thereof, in which the ſame ſhall then be, and the time when ſuch parcels were laid down in ſnuff work, and ſuch officer ſhall take an account of the ſame, according to this and the ſaid act; and ſuch manufacturer ſhall, immediately after the ſame ſhall have been mixed together, deliver to ſuch officer a declaration in writing, ſpecifying the weights of the tobacco ſtalks and returns laid down in each parcel of ſuch ſnuff work, and the time when ſuch tobacco, tobacco ſtalks, and returns, were ſo laid down in cure. ſ. 13.

When any manufacturer of tobacco or ſnuff ſhall have occaſion to ſupply the demands of his cuſtomers with manufactured tobacco or ſnuff, from any parcel in operation, before the whole ſhall be completely manufactured, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch manufacturer, in the preſence of the proper officer, to take, for the purpoſe aforeſaid, any manufactured tabacco or ſnuff, not leſs than 200 lb. weight, from any particular parcel then in operation, although the whole may not then be completely manufactured; provided ſuch manufacturer ſhall give to ſuch officer, a like notice in writing, according to this act, of his intention, and in ſuch notice ſhall ſpecify the weight of ſuch manufactured tobacco or ſnuff intended to be taken for the purpoſe aforeſaid, and alſo the time when ſuch particular parcel of tobacco was weighed to be put in operation, and the weight thereof, or the time when ſuch ſnuff work was declared to be laid down, and the weights of the tobacco, tobacco ſtalks, tobacco ſtalk flour, and returns, laid down therein, and alſo in ſuch caſe ſuch manufacturer ſhall immediately on ſuch officer's attendance purſuant to ſuch notice (which attendance ſuch officer is to give) weigh all ſuch manufactured tobacco or ſnuff ſo taken, in the preſence of ſuch officer, who ſhall take an account thereof, and and ſhall immediately after the ſame ſhall have been weighed, and an account thereof taken, deliver to ſuch officer a declaration in writing, ſpecifying the weight of ſuch manufactured tobacco or ſnuff ſo taken, and the weight of the particular parcel from whence the ſame is taken, at the time when the ſame was put in operation; And if any manufacturer ſhall take any tobacco or ſnuff from any particular parcel, put in operation before the whole ſhall be completely manufactured, without giving ſuch notice, or weighing the ſame in the preſence of ſuch officer, according to this act, or, having given ſuch notice, and weighed ſuch manufactured tobacco, or ſnuff work, according to this act, ſhall neglect to permit ſuch officer to take an account thereof, or ſhall neglect to give ſuch declaration in writing, ſuch manufacturer ſhall forfeit 50*l.* ſ. 14.

It ſhall be lawful for any manufacturer of Britiſh rappee ſnuff, Scotch ſnuff, or brown Scotch ſnuff, which ſhall have been completely made, and an account thereof taken by the officers, to liquor or damp the ſame, at any time before ſuch ſnuff ſhall be mixed with ſnuff of a different making, under the regulations herein preſcribed, ſo as the weight of ſuch ſnuff ſo liquored or damped ſhall not exceed the greateſt extent of credit given by the ſaid act or this act to ſuch manufacturer for ſuch ſnuff. ſ. 15.

Such manufacturer who ſhall intend to liquor or damp ſuch ſnuff, in reſpect whereof the greateſt extent of credit allowed by this or the ſaid act has not been received, ſhall give to the officer a like notice in writing, according to this act, of his intention to liquor or damp ſuch ſnuff, and in each notice ſpecify the kinds and weight of each kind of ſnuff intended to be liquored, and how much ſuch ſnuff, and each kind of ſuch ſnuff, at the time when an account was firſt taken of the ſame by the officer, fell ſhort of the greateſt extent of credit given to ſuch manufacturer for ſuch kind of ſnuff; and ſuch manufacturer immediately on ſuch officer's attendance purſuant to ſuch notice (and which attendance ſuch officer is to give) ſhall, in the preſence of ſuch officer, weigh all ſuch ſnuff intended to be liquored, and liquor the ſame; and immediately after the ſame ſhall have been liquored, ſuch manufacturer ſhall, in the preſence of ſuch officer, re-weigh the ſame, and if the ſame, upon being weighed, ſhall not, by means of ſuch liquoring, have increaſed in weight more than ſuch ſnuff, at the time of firſt taking account thereof by the officer, fell ſhort of the greateſt extent of credit given to ſuch manufacturer for ſuch kind of ſnuff, then ſuch ſnuff ſhall (upon all the regulations herein being fully complied with, but not otherwiſe) notwithſtanding ſuch increaſe of weight, be deemed to be a fair commodity, and no part thereof ſhall be forfeited for ſuch increaſe, but ſuch manufacturer ſhall have credit for the ſame in ſtock. ſ. 16.

Nothing herein ſhall authorize any manufacturer to liquor any ſnuff leſs in quantity than 200 lb. nor to liquor one making of ſuch ſnuff in more than four different parcels. ſ. 17.

Such manufacturer ſhall keep all ſnuff, on which ſuch allowance ſhall be made, ſeparate from all other ſnuff in his poſſeſſion, and ſhall ſhew the ſame to the officer under whoſe ſurvey he ſhall be, upon demand, and declare at what time ſuch allowance ſhall have been made to him, in reſpect of ſuch ſnuff, and the amount of ſuch allowance, on pain of forfeiting 20*l.* for every neglect. ſ. 18.

It ſhall be lawful for any manufacturer of ſnuff to manufacture Scotch ſnuff and tobacco ſtalk flour into brown Scotch ſnuff, and alſo to manufacture tobacco ſtalk flour into rappee ſnuff, under the like regulations, by this or by the ſaid act preſcribed for manufacturing of ſnuff, and as the caſe may require, according to the recited act and this act. ſ. 19.

In taking an account of the ſtock of manufacturers of ſnuff, who ſhall have manufactured any Scotch ſnuff with tobacco ſtalk flour into brown Scotch ſnuff, or any tobacco ſtalk flour into rappee ſnuff, or who ſhall have added tobacco ſtalk flour to his ſnuff work for rappee ſnuff, Scotch ſnuff, or brown Scotch ſnuff, according to this act, ſuch manufacturers ſhall have a credit according to the following proportions: ſ. 20.

For every 100 lb. weight of Scotch ſnuff which ſuch manufacturer ſhall manufacture with tobacco ſtalk flour for brown Scotch ſnuff, he ſhall have a proper credit, not exceeding 141 lb. weight of brown Scotch ſnuff; and ſo in proportion for any ſuch Scotch ſnuff ſo manufactured:

For every 100 lb. weight of tobacco ſtalk flour, which ſuch manufacturer ſhall manufacture with Scotch ſnuff, for brown Scotch ſnuff, he ſhall have a credit, not exceeding 133 lb. weight of brown Scotch ſnuff; and ſo in proportion for ſuch tobacco ſtalk flour ſo manufactured:

For every 100 lb. weight of tobacco ſtalk flour, which ſuch manufacturer ſhall manufacture for rappee ſnuff, or ſhall add to his ſnuff work for rappee ſnuff, he ſhall have a proper credit, not exceeding 128 lb. weight of ſuch rappee ſnuff; and ſo in proportion for ſuch tobacco ſtalk flour which ſuch manufacturer ſhall manufacture, or add to his ſnuff works for rappee ſnuff:

For every 100 lb. weight of tobacco ſtalk flour which ſuch manufacturer ſhall manufacture for brown Scotch ſnuff, or ſhall add to his ſnuff work for brown Scotch ſnuff, he ſhall have a credit not exceeding 133 lb. weight of ſuch brown Scotch ſnuff, and ſo in proportion for ſuch tobacco ſtalk flour which ſuch manufacturer ſhall ſo manufacture, or add to his ſnuff work for brown Scotch ſnuff.

In caſe any officer ſhall find, in the ſtock of any manufacturer of ſnuff, any quantity of rappee ſnuff, Scotch ſnuff, or brown Scotch ſnuff, greater than the credit before allowed, ſuch rappee ſnuff, &c. ſo found in exceſs, ſhall be deemed to be brought into the place made uſe of by ſuch manufacturer, without any authentic permit, and ſhall be forfeited, and may be ſeized by any officer of exciſe. ſ. 21.

All ſiftings ariſing from the ſecond dreſſings of ſhort cut tobacco or ſhag tobacco, and all returns of ſnuff, ſhall be deemed to be returns of tobacco. ſ. 22.

Nothing in the recited act ſhall prohibit any manufacturer of tobacco from dying or ſtaining with any liquid dye or ſtain, any tobacco manufacturing or manufactured into ſhort cut, ſhag, roll, or carrot tobacco, or any tobacco ſtalks manufacturing or manufactured into Spaniſh, or from having ſuch liquid dye in his poſſeſſion, for the purpoſe of ſtaining ſuch tobacco or tobacco ſtalks manufacturing or manufactured. ſ. 23.

So much of ſec. 115. of the recited act as provides (ſee PART I. p. 317.) that the manufacturer of tobacco or ſnuff, who ſhall have ſtoved or finiſhed tobacco, or dried ſnuff work, or any cutting mill or ſnuff mill, ſhall not receive a permit for the removal of any greater quantity of manufactured tobacco or ſnuff than the weight of ſuch tobacco or ſnuff work after ſuch tobacco ſhall have been ſtoved or finiſhed, or ſuch ſnuff work dried, ſhall be repealed; and it ſhall be lawful for the officer to grant a permit to ſuch manufacturer for the removal of the whole quantity of manufactured tobacco or ſnuff work from ſuch cutting mill or ſnuff mill, without regard being had to the weight of ſuch tobacco or ſnuff work, at the time of ſtoving or finiſhing, or drying, ſubject nevertheleſs to all other regulations in the ſaid act, or this preſcribed for for the removal of ſuch tobacco or ſnuff from ſuch mill. ſ. 24.

It ſhall be lawful for all manufacturers of tobacco, to remove by permit, and for the officer of exciſe to grant a permit for the removal of any unmanufactured tobacco, in any quantity not leſs than 200 lb. and in any package whatſoever, from the entered premiſes of ſuch manufacturer, to any mill, for the purpoſe of being manufactured at ſuch mill. ſ. 25.

It ſhall be lawful for manufacturers of tobacco or ſnuff, who ſhall carry on any manufactory in any entered premiſes ſituate out of the limits of the weekly bills of mortality, or the chief office of exciſe in London, or any of the ports of importation of tobacco in the recited act enumerated, or within two miles of ſuch ports, to remove, by permit, any tobacco ſtalks ſtripped from the leaf at his entered premiſes, and whereof the officer of exciſe has taken an account in purſuance of the ſaid act, to any place within the limits aforeſaid, under the rules in the ſaid act or in this preſcribed for removal of tobacco ſtalks, in caſe ſuch manufacturer ſhall not have received into, and have in his entered premiſes or poſſeſſion, at the time of requeſting a permit for ſuch removal, any other tobacco ſtalks whatever, whereof the proper officer has not taken any account, or whereof ſuch officer has taken account, in purſuance of the ſaid act, as tobacco ſtalks received into ſuch entered premiſes, by permit, from the ſtock of any other manufacturer. ſ. 26.

It ſhall be lawful for manufacturers of tobacco or ſnuff, to manufacture tobacco, tobacco ſtalks, ſnuff work, and returns of tobacco, at any mill whereof an entry hath been duly made at the office of exciſe, in purſuance of the ſaid act, and to remove the ſame by permit, from the premiſes of ſuch manufacturer to ſuch mill, for the purpoſe of being manufactured, under the rules in the ſaid act and this act mentioned, by which tobacco, &c. may be removed from the premiſes of any manufacturer to any mill, for the purpoſes in the ſaid act mentioned: Provided, every requeſt note for ſuch permit, and ſuch permit for the removal of tobacco, &c. from the premiſes of ſuch manufacturer to the mill, ſhall ſet forth the purpoſe for which the ſame is to be removed, and the particular proceſs of manufacture to be performed thereon at ſuch mill. ſ. 27.

No permit ſhall be deemed illegal or inſufficient for the removal of any tobacco, tobacco ſtalks, Spaniſh, tobacco ſtalk flour, or ſnuff, in any way manufactured, from the mill where the ſame ſhall have been ſo manufactured, back to the premiſes of the ſame manufacturer, by reaſon of any proceſs or operation of manufacture whatever having been performed thereon at ſuch mill. ſ. 28.

No permit ſhall be granted, or valid, for the removal of any ſnuff work, except from the entered premiſes of the manufacturer, where the ſame was laid down, to the mill, for the purpoſe of being ground into ſnuff; and if any ſnuff work ſhall be removed, by land or by water, except from the entered premiſes of the manufacturer where the ſame was laid down, to the mill, for the purpoſe of being ground into ſnuff (whether a permit ſhall or ſhall not have been granted for ſuch removal), all ſuch ſnuff, together with the packages containing the ſame, and the horſes, cattle, boats, barges, and carriages, uſed in ſuch removal, ſhall be forfeited, and may be ſeized by any officer of cuſtoms or exciſe. ſ. 29.

It ſhall not be lawful for any manufacturer of tobacco or ſnuff to begin any operation by this act allowed, and in reſpect whereof any notice is required, unleſs ſuch manufacturer ſhall give to the officer under whoſe ſurvey he ſhall be, previous to his beginning ſuch operation, ſix hours notice in writing, if his premiſes ſhall be ſituate within the limits of the chief office in London, or within the limits of Edinburgh; twelve hours previous notice in writing, if ſuch premiſes ſhall be ſituate in any city, or the ſuburbs thereof, or in any market town; and twenty-four hours previous notice in writing, if ſuch premiſes ſhall be ſituate in any other part of Great Britain, of his intention ſo to do, and in ſuch notice ſhall ſpecify the particular hour when he ſhall intend to begin any operation, or to do the thing ſpecified in ſuch notice to be intended to be done; and if ſuch manufacturer ſhall not begin to perform the thing ſpecified in ſuch notice, at the time or within one hour after, the ſame ſhall be void, and ſuch manufacturer ſhall be liable to give a freſh notice in writing, as if no notice had been before given. ſ. 30.

All penalties and forfeitures by this act impoſed, ſhall be recovered, or mitigated, by laws of cuſtoms or exciſe, or by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or in the exchequer in Scotland, and one moiety of ſuch forfeiture, ſhall be to his majeſty, and the other moiety to him who ſhall inform. ſ. 31.

Wine.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 38. ſ. 1. Every perſon who ſhall retail foreign wine, ſhall take out an exciſe licence, annually paying,

For every licence which ſhall be granted to authoriſe any perſon to retail foreign wine in England, and who ſhall not have an exciſe licence for retailing diſtilled ſpirituous liquors, or a licence for retailing, beer, &c. 5*l.* 4*s.*

For every licence which ſhall be granted to authorize any perſon to retail foreign wine in England, and who ſhall take out a licence for retailing beer, ale, and other exciſeable liquors, but ſhall not have an exciſe licence for retailing of diſtilled ſpirituous liquors, 4*l.* 4*s.*

For every licence which ſhall be granted to authorize any perſon to retail foreign wine in England, and who ſhall alſo have an exciſe licence for retailing diſtilled ſpirituous liquors, 2*l.* 4*s.*

For every licence which ſhall be granted to authorize any perſon to retail foreign wine in Scotland, and who ſhall not have an exciſe licence for retailing diſtilled ſpirituous liquors, or a licence for retailing of beer, &c. 3*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*

For every licence which ſhall be granted to authorize any perſon to retail foreign wine in Scotland, and who ſhall take out a licence for retailing beer, &c. but ſhall not have an exciſe licence for retailing diſtilled ſpirituous liquors, 2*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*

For every licence which ſhall be granted to authorize any perſon to retail foreign wine in Scotland, and who ſhall alſo have an exciſe licence for retailing diſtilled ſpirituous liquors, 1*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*

All perſons who ſhall ſell, offer, or expoſe to ſale, any foreign wine, in any leſs quantity than ſhall be equal to the meaſure or quantity in which the ſame ſhall have been, or may be imported by way of merchandize, ſhall be deemed to be a retailer of foreign wine within this act; and if any foreign wine ſhall at any time be ſold, offered, or expoſed to ſale, by any perſon, in any quantity leſs than the quantity in which the ſame ſhall have been or might have been fully imported, ſuch ſelling, &c. ſhall be deemed to be a retailing of foreign wine, within this act. ſ. 15.

N. B. By 32 Geo. 2. c. 19. No perſon licenſed, or to be licenſed, to retail wine, ſhall, by virtue of one licence, keep more than one place for ſelling wine by retail; and every retailer of wine ſhall cauſe the word WINE to be written either on a ſign hung out, or in ſome viſible place in or near the door in the front of his houſe, ſhop, or other place, made uſe of for the retailing of wine, to denote that ſuch retailer is a dealer in wine, and ſubject to take out a licence for retailing; and if any perſon ſell wine by retail, without ſuch token, he ſhall forfeit 10 l. to be recovered as the penalty on perſons ſelling wine by retail without licence, ſubject to the like power of mitigation by the commiſſioners of ſtamp duties, as is before preſcribed. ſ. 3.

Nothing in this or any former act relating to wine licences, ſhall be prejudicial to the privileges of the two univerſities in England. ſ. 4.

Felons and Felony.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 47. It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, by commiſſion under the great ſeal of Great Britain, to authorize the governor, or the lieutenant governor of New South Wales, &c. by inſtrument in writing under the ſeal of the government in which the place ſhall be ſituated, to remit, either abſolutely or conditionally, the whole or part of the term for which any felons, or other offenders, ſhall be tranſported to ſuch place; and ſuch inſtrument ſhall have the like effect, as if his majeſty had in ſuch caſes ſignified his royal intention of mercy under his ſign manual. ſ. 1.

Such governor or lieutenant governor ſhall, by the firſt opportunity, tranſmit to one of the ſecretaries of ſtate, a duplicate, under the ſeal of the government, of each inſtrument by which the term of tranſportation of ſuch felons or offenders hath been remitted; and the names of ſuch felons and offenders, which ſhall be contained in ſuch duplicates, ſhall be inſerted in the next general pardon which ſhall paſs under the great ſeal of Great Britain, after the receipt of ſuch duplicate by one of the ſecretaries of ſtate. ſ. 2.

Longitude.

The 5000 l. allowed to be paid by 21 Geo. 3. c. 52. [ſee PART II. page 143.] to perſons making uſeful diſcoveries, reſpecting the longitude, having been expended:

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 14. ſ. 1. Thecommiſſioners of longitude are to certify the probability of ſucceſs of any propoſal for diſcovering the longitude, &c. to the commiſſioners of the navy; and the commiſſioners of the navy are to order rewards to ſuch perſons, as the commiſſioners of longitude ſhall certify to have made any uſeful diſcoveries, &c. as in 21 Geo. 3. c. 52. ſ. 1.

Sums paid by virtue of this act not to exceed 5000 l. &c. as in 21 Geo. 3. c. 52 —ſ. 2.

The ſecretaries of the admiralty for the time being ſhall be commiſſioners for putting the acts for granting rewards to perſons diſcovering the longitude into execution. ſ. 3.

Parliament.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 10. The ſecretary of the ſpeaker of the houſe of commons for the time being, or ſuch other perſon as the ſpeaker ſhall appoint, ſhall, as ſoon as may be after the quarter ending on 5 April 1790, deliver to the commiſſioners of the treaſury an account, ſigned by the ſpeaker, of the fees received on account of the ſpeaker, between 25 Dec. 1789, and 25 March 1790; alſo an account of ſuch ſum as ſhall have been received, or be due at the exchequer, out of his majeſty's civil liſt, on the allowance of 5 l. per day uſually made to the ſpeaker, for the ſame period; and the ſecretary of the ſpeaker, or perſon the ſpeaker ſhall appoint, ſhall alſo, ſeven days before the expiration of the quarters ending 5 July, 10 Oct. 1790, and 5 Jan. 1791, deliver a like account of the fees received on account of the ſpeaker, and of the ſum received, or due, on the allowance of 5 l. per day, between 25 March and 24 June, between 24 June and the 29 Sept. and between 29 Sept. and 25 Dec. 1790, and ſo in like manner in every ſucceeding quarter. ſ. 1.

If at any time the amount of the ſums received under the head of fees, and of the ſum received, or due, at the exchequer, on the allowance of 5 l. per day, within any of the ſaid periods, for which the accounts hereby directed to be delivered in, are required to be computed, ſhall exceed clear 1500 l. ſuch exceſs ſhall be carried to the account to be delivered in, previous to the next enſuing quarter, as ſo much money received by the ſpeaker, to be added to the receipts under the head of fees, or ſums received or due at the exchequer, within the period of the next enſuing account; and if the amount of the ſums received under the head of fees, and which ſhall have been received, or due, at the exchequer, on the allowance of 5 l. per day, within any of the ſaid periods, for which the accounts are to be computed, together with ſuch exceſs as ſhall be brought forward, in manner herein directed, from any preceding account, ſhall exceed clear 1500 l. ſuch laſt exceſs ſhall alſo be carried forward to the account to be delivered in previous to the next enſuing quarter. ſ. 2.

If at the expiration of the quarter ending on 5 April 1790, the whole amount of the ſums received by the ſpeaker on account of fees, together with the ſum received or due on the allowance of 5 l. per day, between 25 Dec. 1789, and 25 March 1790, ſhall be leſs than clear 1500 l. it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or three of them, by warrant under their hands, to direct the auditor to make forth and paſs debentures for paying to the ſpeaker, or to his order, out of any ſupplies granted for 1790, ſuch ſum as ſhall, together with the ſums received by the ſpeaker, or which ſhall be due to him on account of the period for which the ſaid account is to be computed, make up clear 1500 l. ſ. 3.

If at any future time the whole amount of the ſums received by the ſpeaker, or which ſhall have been brought to his account, in manner before directed, within any of the periods for which the accounts hereby directed to be delivered in, are required to be computed, ſhall be leſs than clear 1500 l. it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or three of them, and they are, by warrant under their hands, to direct the auditor to make forth and paſs debentures for paying to the ſpeaker, or to his order, out of The Conſolidated Fund, ſuch money as ſhall, together with the ſums received by the ſpeaker, or which ſhall be due to him, or brought to his account within any of the ſaid periods, make up clear 1500 l. ſ. 4.

Such payments ſhall be made out of the ſaid conſolidated fund, after paying, or reſerving ſufficient to pay, all money directed by any former act to be paid out of the ſame, but with preference to all other payments hereafter charged upon ſuch fund; and ſuch warrant and debenture ſhall be authority to the officers of the exchequer for the payment of ſuch money to the ſpeaker; and the receipt of the ſpeaker ſhall be a diſcharge. ſ. 5.

Payments out of the conſolidated fund to be free from all taxes. ſ. 6.

The ſpeaker ſhall not hold in his own name, or in the name of any perſon in truſt for him or for his benefit, any office or place of profit under the crown during pleaſure. ſ. 7.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 35. Nothing in 20 Geo. 3. c. 17. (ſee PART II. page 279.) ſhall extend to prevent any perſon from voting at any election of a knight of a ſhire to ſerve in parliament within England or Wales, or at any election of a burgeſs to ſerve in parliament for Cricklade in Wilts, for any meſſuages, lands, or tenements, charged or aſſeſſed, for ſix months next before ſuch election, towards ſome aid granted by a land tax, in the name of the perſon claiming to vote, or for any meſſuages, lands or tenements, to which the perſon ſo claiming to vote ſhall have become entitled by deſcent, marriage, marriage ſettlement, deviſe, promotion to any benefice in a church, or promotion to any office, within 12 months next before ſuch election, and which meſſuages, &c. ſhall have been within two years next before ſuch election charged or aſſeſſed to the land tax, in the name of the perſon through whom ſuch perſon claiming to vote ſhall derive his title, or of ſome predeceſſor of ſuch perſon ſo claiming to vote, although the name of the tenant actually occupying ſuch meſſuages, &c. ſhall not be inſerted in ſuch aſſeſſment, according to the form of aſſeſſment to the ſaid firſt act annexed. ſ. 1.

Nothing in the ſaid acts ſhall prevent any perſon from voting at ſuch election of a knight of any ſhire, or of a burgeſs for the borough of Cricklade, for any meſſuages, &c. charged or aſſeſſed, for ſix months next before ſuch election, towards ſome aid granted by a land tax, in the name of a tenant actually occupying the ſame at the time of ſuch aſſeſſment being made, although the name of the perſon claiming to vote, or the perſon through whom ſuch perſon claiming to vote derives his title, or of the predeceſſor of the perſon ſo claiming to vote, ſhall not be inſerted in the aſſeſſment, according to the form to the ſaid act annexed. ſ. 2.

Plantations.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 8. In caſe of public emergency, the governor of Quebec, or lieutenant governor or commander in chief, with conſent of the council, may authorize the importation into the province of Quebec, or into the countries within its government, or up the river St. Lawrence, of neat cattle, or live ſtock of any ſort, bread, grain, or flour of any ſort, for a limited time, from the United States; but the ſame ſhall not be exported but by Britiſh ſubjects in Britiſh built ſhips, navigated according to law, on penalty of forfeiture, with the veſſel importing the goods. ſ. 1.

The lumber, except white oak ſtaves, proviſions, horſes, or neat cattle, exported under 28 Geo. 3. c. 39. (ſee PART II. page 322.) ſhall be of the produce of Quebec. ſ. 2.

The goods and veſſels forfeited by this act, may be ſeized by any officer of cuſtoms, or commander of any veſſel of war, or officer authorized by him; and every forfeiture ſhall be proſecuted in ſuch courts, and applied to ſuch purpoſes, as any forfeiture incurred by any law reſpecting the cuſtoms. ſ. 3.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 27. If any ſubjects of the territories or countries belonging to the United States of America, ſhall come from thence, together with their families, to any of the Bahama, or Bermuda, or Somers iſlands, or to any part of the province of Quebec, or of Nova Scotia, or any of the territories belonging to his majeſty in North America, for the purpoſe of reſiding and ſettling there, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſons, having firſt obtained a licence for that purpoſe from the governor, or, in his abſence, the lieutenant governor of the ſaid iſlands, colonies, or provinces, to import into the ſame, in Britiſh ſhips owned by his majeſty's ſubjects, and navigated according to law, any negroes, houſehold furniture, utenſils of huſbandry, or cloathing, free of duty: provided ſuch houſehold furniture, &c. ſhall not in the whole exceed the value of 50 l. for every white perſon that ſhall belong to ſuch family; and the value of 40 s. for every negro brought by ſuch white perſon; and if any diſpute ſhall ariſe as to the value of ſuch houſehold furniture, &c. the ſame ſhall be heard and determined by the arbitration of three Britiſh merchants at the port where the ſame ſhall be imported, one to be appointed by the governor or lieutenant governor, one by the collector of the cuſtoms, and one by the perſon ſo coming with his family. ſ. 1.

All ſales or bargains for the ſale of any negro, houſehold furniture, utenſils of huſbandry, or cloathing, ſo imported, which ſhall be made within 12 months after importation of the ſame, (except in caſes of the bankruptcy or death of the owner) ſhall be void. ſ. 2.

Every white perſon ſo coming to reſide, if above the age of 14 years, ſhall, immediately after his arrival, take and ſubſcribe the oath of allegiance to his majeſty, before the governor, lieutenant governor, or chief magiſtrate, and at the ſame time ſwear that it is his intention to reſide and ſettle in ſuch iſland or province; for which oaths ſuch governor, lieutenant governor, or chief magiſtrate, ſhall receive the ſame fee, as on adminiſtering the oath of allegiance. ſ. 3.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 29. The ſloops, ſchooners, and veſſels, owned and navigated by the ſubjects of any foreign European ſtate, importing and exporting the articles enumerated in 27 Geo. 3. c. 27. (ſee PART II. page 320.) to and from the ports of Kingſton, Savannah la Mar, Montego Bay, Santa Lucea in Jamaica, the iſland of Grenada, the iſland of Dominica, and the iſland of New Providence, one of the Bahama iſlands, under the regulations therein preſcribed, may conſiſt of any number of tons, provided ſuch veſſel have not more than one deck. ſ. 1.

All goods and commodities whatſoever, the growth or production of any of the countries bordering on the province of Quebec, and brought by land or inland navigation into the ſaid province, conformably to law in the ſaid province, from any of the countries bordering thereon, may be imported into Great Britain from Quebec, and the ſame ſhall be admitted to entry and be charged with duty, or exempted from duty, in like manner as ſuch goods would be if the ſame were of the growth or production of Quebec, and were imported directly from thence into Great Britain; provided it appear, by certificate under the hands and ſeals of the collector and comptroller of cuſtoms, and the naval officer there, that the ſame were brought into Quebec, conformably to the law in the ſaid province, by land or by inland navigation, from the countries bordering thereon, and ſpecifying from what places the ſame were brought into the ſaid province; and the like rules are obſerved on their being imported into Great Britain, as are required for the like goods imported into Great Britain from Quebec, and ſubject to the like conditions and forfeitures, and to the like modes for recovery and application thereof. ſ. 2.

Poor.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 49. It ſhall be lawful for any juſtices of peace, or any phyſician, ſurgeon, or apothecary, authorized by warrant under the hand and ſeal of ſuch juſtice, or for the officiating clergyman of the pariſh, authorized as aforeſaid, at all times, in the day time, to viſit any pariſh workhouſe, or houſe kept for the maintenance of the poor of any pariſh within the county wherein ſuch juſtice ſhall be reſident and have juriſdiction, to examine into the ſtate of the poor people therein, and the food, cloathing, and bedding of ſuch poor people, and the ſtate of ſuch houſe; and if upon ſuch viſitation the ſaid juſtice or perſons authorized ſhall find any cauſe of complaint, then ſuch juſtice or perſons authorized ſhall, if they think fit, certify the ſtate of ſuch workhouſe or poorhouſe, and the ſtate of the poor therein, and of their food, cloathing, and bedding, to the next quarter ſeſſions to be held for ſuch county, under their hands and ſeals; and ſuch juſtice or perſons authorized as aforeſaid, ſhall cauſe the overſeers, or maſter of the workhouſe or poorhouſe, to be ſummoned to appear at the ſeſſions, to anſwer ſuch complaint; and ſuch quarter ſeſſions, on hearing the parties on ſuch complaint, ſhall make ſuch orders and regulations for the removing of any cauſe of complaint contained in ſuch certificate, as to them ſhall ſeem meet; and all the parties concerned ſhall abide by ſuch orders as ſhall be ſo made by the ſeſſions. ſ. 1.

In caſe any juſtice, or perſons authorized by warrant as aforeſaid, ſhall upon ſuch viſitation find any of the poor, in any pariſh workhouſe or poorhouſe, afflicted with any infectious diſeaſe, or in want of immediate medical or other aſſiſtance, or of ſufficient and proper food, or requiring ſeparation or removal from the other poor, then if ſuch viſitation ſhall be made by a juſtice, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice to apply to one juſtice, and certify to him the ſtate of the poor in ſuch pariſh work or poorhouſe; or if ſuch viſitation ſhall be made by the perſons authorized as aforeſaid, then it ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſons to apply to two juſtices; and thereupon the ſaid juſtices ſhall make ſuch order for the immediate procuring medical or other aſſiſtance, or of ſufficient and proper food, or for the ſeparation of ſuch poor as ſhall be afflicted with any diſeaſe, as they, the juſtices, under their hands and ſeals, ſhall direct, until the next quarter ſeſſions, at which the ſaid two juſtices are to certify the ſame, under their hands and ſeals, to the juſtices aſſembled at ſuch quarter ſeſſions, who are to make ſuch order for the further relief of the poor in ſuch pariſh work or poorhouſe, as to ſuch ſeſſions ſhall ſeem proper; and the expences of relieving ſuch poor ſhall be paid out of the poor's rate in ſuch manner as the quarter ſeſſions ſhall direct. ſ. 2.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to any poorhouſe or workhouſe in any diſtrict incorporated or regulated by any ſpecial act of parliament. ſ. 3.

Poſt Horſes.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 23. ſ. 1. It ſhall be lawful from 1 Aug. 1790, for the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or three of them, from time to time, as neceſſary, either by themſelves or the commiſſioners for managing the duties on ſtamped vellum, &c. thereunto authorized under the hand and ſeal of the lord high treaſurer, or under the hands and ſeals of the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or three of them, to let to farm ſeparately in diſtricts, the duties on horſes let to hire for travelling poſt, ariſing within each diſtrict, to ſuch perſons as ſhall be willing to farm the ſame, ſo as the ſaid duties ſhall be put up at a rent not leſs than the groſs amount which the ſame produced within the year ending 1 Auguſt 1787, ſubject to the rules preſcribed in the act 27 Geo. 3, c. 26.

No ſuch contract for letting to farm the duties, ſhall be made to continue for a longer time than until the 1 Feb. 1794. ſ. 2.

Powers of recited act, not hereby altered, to continue in force. ſ. 3.
